Miller, Bolo Compete for Speaker's Post

By PHIL GUNBY

Lloyd Sheets of Lansing has been nominated for president of the 1951-52 MSC Student Government last night at the meeting of the Student Government.

The only position of the Student Government which is contested at present is that of the speaker (vice-president) of the Student Government. Robert Bolo of East Lansing and David Miller of Philadelphia are the nominees.

Art Festival Closes with Band Music

By CONNIE COURTEAU

A special program of band music by the MSC concert band at 8 p.m. will close the eight-day program of the Fine Arts Festival.

The program, scheduled for the band shell, will be held in the college Auditorium in case of rain.

Included in the program of contemporary music will be "Walk in the Road" by Virgil Thompson, a modern rendition of traditional English and Scottish folk tunes.

"Newspaper in Five Shots" by William Schuman, depicts horse racing, a fashion show, tribal dances, moileys in the zoo, and a parade in clear, colorful music.

Also included on the varied program are "Variations of a Cowboy Tune" by Cecil Effinger, "Carnival Suite" by Alexander Tanshan, and "A Sojourn Music" by Virgil Thompson.

Tonight's concert completes the Fine Arts festival program of contemporary music presentations by the music department, faculty members and guest artists.

The festival also featured a showing of art films by the Art department, the college term play, and the Art Students' exhibition.

The exhibition of student art work will continue until the end of the term and may be viewed in the Union gallery and the Art building on south campus.

Alumni Grant Scholarships

Board of Trustees
Picks H.S. Seniors

Thirteen high school seniors were named recipients of the MSC alumni scholarships sponsored by the 1951-52 Board of Trustees.

The scholarships are based on scholastic average, financial need and extra-curricular activities in high school.

The awards given to ground and air force members were based on a number of qualities including leadership, scholarship, standing, initiative and participation in both campus and military activities.

Marketing Club to Hear Executive

An executive vice-president of Michigan's second largest department store, J. J. Runkle, of Crowley-Minkes company, will address the Marketing Club today.

The meeting will be held at 7:15 p.m. in room 31 of the Union.

Runkle will discuss the operation of a big store and give tips on getting ahead in a retailing career.

The order resulted from a recommendation of the State Traffic Commission, which said that buses

Top Radio Students to Receive Awards

Radio station WJLS will present the awards consisting of a small loving cup, to each of two winners. Two large cups will be kept in the department and the names of the winners will be engraved upon them.

Picnic Postponed

The senior class picnic scheduled for last night was postponed because of rain and will be rescheduled.

Announcement of the picnic date will be made tomorrow, according to John Walters, chairman.

Duck Weather Ducklings Put on Aqua Show

Fine weather for ducks... especially baby ones.

Yesterday, in the rain the newly-hatched ducklings on the Red Cedar were putting on their usual miniature water show for students crossing to South campus.

The small extroverts amused themselves by falling behind the formation formed around the mother duck and then running, duck fashion, over the water to catch up with the quacking group they left.

According to student estimates, about five broods of ducks, averaging 11 ducks to a brood, were hatched along the river last week.

Men Await Saturday's Draft Test

Berkey New Site:
1,300 Anticipated

About 1,300 men students will converse on Berkey hall, Saturday, to take the selective service college qualification test.

Fairchild theater was formerly announced as a testing site but a change was necessitated by the large number of students desiring to take the test.

All students who have Fairchild theater indicated on their ticket of admission will have to report at Berkey hall.

Paul L. Dressel, director of counseling, who is in charge of the test, said that his staff of faculty assistants will begin admitting students into the building at 8:30 a.m.

No one will be admitted to the test who does not have his ticket of admission with him, Dressel said.

The examinees must also bring a No. 2 pencil or pen and an official document and address of the local board having jurisdiction over him, he added.

This official document may be a selective service notice of classification (SSS form No. 110), selective service notice of identification (SSS form No. 391), or another SSS document.

The pencil or pen will be used to provide certain necessary information, however the test will be answered by using a special electrographic pencil.

Students are advised to come there early because they have to be fingerprinted. An applicant failing to report on time, irrespective of the reason, will not be admitted.

Dressel urged men to bring all the items required and nothing else. If during the examination period the examinee is found to be in possession of materials that would be of assistance in taking the test, he will not be allowed to continue the test.

Dressel added that he thought it would take close to three hours for the expected 1,300 students to finish the test.

MSC Awards Scholarships

Some 400 scholarships were awarded to high school seniors in 70 Michigan counties this spring, according to A. J. Clark, chairman of MSC scholarship committee.

At present a total of 1,193 MSC students hold scholarships of this type.

These scholarships pay total course fees for one year and may be renewed for a total of 12 terms if the student maintains a 2.6 average.

AWARDS PRESENTED TO 29 Outstanding Cadets Honored

By FRANK BUTKIEWICZ

The awards given to ground and air force members were based on a number of qualities including leadership, scholarship, standing, initiative and participation in both campus and military activities.

Dean of Students Disciplines Eight

Eight MSC students have been disciplined following two beer parties, Dean of Students, Tom King announced yesterday.

Drinking on campus May 15 resulted in suspension for two coeds and one male student.

Five men were placed on disciplinary probation following their arrest for disorderly conduct and intoxication May 11 by East Lansing police. They were drinking in East Lansing.

Former ROTC Officer Dies after Illness

A former State ROTC instructor, Lt. Col. Mark H. Doty, 56, of 421 Linden St., died at his home yesterday morning, following a lingering illness.

The officer's widow, Mrs. Edith Doty, is a Spanish instructor at MSC and his youngest son, Edward E. Doty, is a freshman here. Other survivors include two sons, Mark H. Doty, Jr., lieutenant of field artillery, stationed at Camp Carson, Colo., and Aultman Doty, a midshipman completing his second year at the Annapolis naval academy.

Doty came to MSC in 1937 as an ROTC instructor and he remained until 1940. During his years at the college he drilled the marching band in formation marching.

In 1940 Doty was transferred to Fort Jackson, S.C., where he received the Legion of Merit for his work in creating a new rifle and artillery range. In 1941 he was promoted to lieutenant colonel.

He retired from active service in 1942 and went to live with his family in Miami, Fla. In 1943, Doty returned with his family to East Lansing.

Council Tables Request for Street Shuffle

East Lansing city councilmen Monday night postponed their decision on a request by Phi Kappa Tau and Beta Theta Pi to hold the Delta Street Shuffle street dance in September.

The council tabled the request until the regular meeting June 4.

A brief discussion of the request was held, however, a spokesman for the fraternities told the council that the dance would be held Sept. 28 from 8 to 12 p.m. The request also asked for permission to use a small park on Delta street.

Permission to hold the dance hinges on whether the council is willing to continue allowing street dances in East Lansing despite traffic congestion.

Councilman Max Elstrofer said cars were not permitted to make a U turn at Grand River and Michigan avenues, and so the cars often turned left from Grand River on Delta street.

Mayor Cornelius Wagenvoort pointed out that the dance was scheduled on the eve of the MSC-Michigan football game, and traffic might be heavier on that night. The mayor also said that plans were under way to widen Grand River avenue this summer, but did not know whether operations would be completed by the time of the scheduled dance.

After tabling the street dance request, the council ordered the Greyhound, Indian Trails, and Short Way bus lines to find a new bus stop by July 1.

The order resulted from a recommendation of the State Traffic Commission, which said that buses

'HONORABLE' END FOR KOREAN WAR Bunche Sees Negotiated Peace

UN Mediator Speaks on 'American Way'

By STEVE BRANSBORFER
State News Manager

An end to the Korean war "not by appeasement but by honorable negotiation" was envisioned yesterday in the Auditorium by Dr. Ralph Bunche, director of the United Nations trusteeships, who participated in the second symposium on "The American Way."

Some 3,500 students, faculty and townspeople were present.

The noted statesman made the statement as part of a down-to-earth picture drawn of the past achievements and failures of the UN and the present world position of America.

Bunche called himself "a missionary" for the UN who felt "despite the intense cynicism of the American people, that the United Nations would succeed in averting catastrophe."

He backed up his view with a realistic look at the weakness of the UN as compared with its achievements.

"You all already know completely of the weaknesses of the UN," he said. "The press and radio have seen to that."

Indiscretions of the UN, according to Bunche, one of its top officials, were:

1. The veto and its implications.
2. No permanent international security force as set forth by the United Nations charter.
3. No international disarmament.
4. Lack of ability of the great powers to conclude peace treaties following World War II.

Underlying all these weaknesses and responsible for most was "the general impasse of the East and the West," Bunche pointed out.

"The great powers (United States and Russia) cannot reach an agreement on issues over which there is no disagreement," he said. "Inability to write an Austria peace treaty was cited as an example."

Despite these weaknesses the UN has thus far been able to avert a third World War, the statesman stressed.

"To those who say that the UN has failed, and that collective security has failed, I ask a simple question," Bunche declared.

"Where would the world be if the UN hadn't existed to stop those local wars?"

Stopping of the Korean war has thus far "tragically" failed, the statesman said.

"We (the UN) have failed because the North Korean regime has not yet set down to a negotiation table."

"The UN will fight until the war is ended," Bunche said. "There is an honorable alternative to victory in war—that is a negotiated peace."

"Our effort now is to keep the Korean war limited and not allow it to expand into a world war," Bunche said.

Human Tone Permeates Bunche Talk

Dr. Bunche, 56, introduced himself with fitting dignity.

But instead of a calculated address set in legal terms, Dr. Bunche immediately opened his talk with a human touch that was to permeate his speech.

"I purposely took a train after not being able to appear previously, but I have been able to talk with Dr. Max Lerner in February, and almost didn't make it this time."

He explained that Dean Lloyd Emerson "phoned" his car from Jackson, where the train was one and a half hours late, to Michigan State. Dr. Bunche arrived only 15 minutes late following the ride.

The address given by Bunche was punctuated by anecdotes of his experiences in the UN.

To stress the point that Americans are a "little self-righteous and provincial," Bunche told the story of a mid-western school teacher who visited the UN headquarters.

After the visit, she came to Bunche and told him she was going to completely inform her students about it. She wasn't sure of one thing, she hesitantly revealed.

"Bunche said he had a hard time getting her to tell him what the question was."

"I just don't know why there has to be so many foreigners around here," she explained. Bunche said he pointed out it was really quite a good thing for the United Nations after all.

Following the address and panel discussion, the UN official was a guest at a luncheon in the Union at which the panel members and administration officials were present.

Ag Conference Enters Third Day on Campus

The annual conference of the cooperative extension service enters its third day today when Dr. Eric Englund continues his lecture series in the Music Auditorium.

Dr. Englund has returned to the United States after having spent four years in Finland and Sweden. His talk is entitled "Agriculture to Finland's Post-War Recovery."

At 9 o'clock Ralph May, of the public relations department of Wilson and company of Chicago, will speak on "The Importance of 4H Club Workers as Viewed by Industries."

After this, the group will break up into various sections and discuss their respective problems. In the afternoon the first two hours will be devoted to sectional meetings.

At 3 the annual meeting of the County Agricultural Agents association, the extension specialists, and the home demonstration association will be held.

The home economics section of the convention will have a dinner meeting in the Union cafeteria at 6. This will be followed by a program in the faculty women's lounge. Main feature of the program will be the showing of pictures taken in Europe by Margaret Harris.

Parlors B and C of the Union will be the scene of the Agricultural banquet.

Lloyd C. Emerson, dean of the school of science and arts, looks on as Ralph Bunche and Pres. John A. Hannah gaze at a globe of the world.

Bunche spoke on "The American Way" symposium in the Auditorium before approximately 3,500 persons yesterday.

MILLARD GIVES OPINION Proposed TV Resolution Illegal, Legislature Told

The state legislature was told yesterday that a proposed resolution to force Michigan State and the University of Michigan to televise athletic contests was unconstitutional.

The notice came from Attorney General Frank G. Millard after Edward H. Jeffries (D-Detroit) asked Millard's legal opinion of the resolution.

The resolution asks that all rights to televise Michigan State and U of M athletic events after Sept. 1, 1951, shall be open to commercial sponsors for bids. It also provides for a "Michigan television commission" which would choose the highest bidder and direct the televising.

The resolution further states that no rules of any collegiate association or conference in which the colleges are connected could affect the decision of the commission.

Millard said the decision to televise athletic events was at the discretion of the State Board of Agriculture and the U of M.

Caught Between

MSC and the University of Michigan are caught between two pincers when it comes to televising football games. Caught to the extent that direct television of football in any form will be impossible.

Here is the situation: The Western conference has a standing ruling that there will be no television broadcasts of football games.

The Big Ten makes two exceptions. 1) Certain games, decided at the discretion of the conference, can be televised over regular channels. 2) Closed circuit hook-ups, to a movie theater for instance, and delayed TV movies, are okay.

On the other hand, the Michigan state legislature passed a resolution last week stating that no college could televise any sports event over a closed circuit to a paid audience.

This resolution was aimed primarily at the University of Michigan, legislators say, because of its practice of granting football television rights over a closed circuit to a paid theater audience.

So that is the situation. MSC as yet has not contracted for any closed circuit TV broadcasts.

The Big Ten ban was approved because it was felt that general televising of football games would cut down on gate receipts. They have figures to substantiate their claims, and we are inclined to agree with them.

The legislature, on the other hand, apparently feels that no single business concern such as a movie house should reap exclusive profits from the televising of state-supported football. They believe that a state-supported institution should provide "a minimum return to the taxpayers who support it." Likewise a good point.

Television is a new medium of communication. When the kinks are worked out, it can be used to advantage in collegiate sports.

We hope the Western conference and the Michigan legislature do not consider the matter closed. We hope that standing committees from both groups will be set up, if they are not already, to investigate the matter further.

And we hope the day will come when TV can be used to an advantage to broadcast Spartan sports.

Michigan's New President

Congratulations are in order for Dr. Harlan Henthorne Hatcher, vice-president of Ohio State university, who will soon take over as president of the University of Michigan. It is an honor to have Dr. Hatcher join the ranks of Michigan educators. He has every qualification to guide the university through the difficult days ahead.

His predecessor, Dr. Alexander G. Ruthven, saw Michigan through the years of the depression and World War II. Dr. Hatcher will face many difficulties as he tries to adjust the educational program to draft-induced enrollment problems.

In spite of the rivalry between Michigan and Michigan State, they meet on the common ground of service to Michigan citizens.

The university regents felt that Dr. Hatcher would serve Michigan most ably. Other state-supported schools, including Michigan State, welcome his contribution in this common endeavor.

Rural Town OK's Truman

WAKEFIELD, N.H.—(AP)—The folks of this 177-year-old rural community—1,256 residents—don't want President Truman impeached.

They made their views known at a special town meeting called last night to vote on the question: "Should Harry Truman be impeached?"

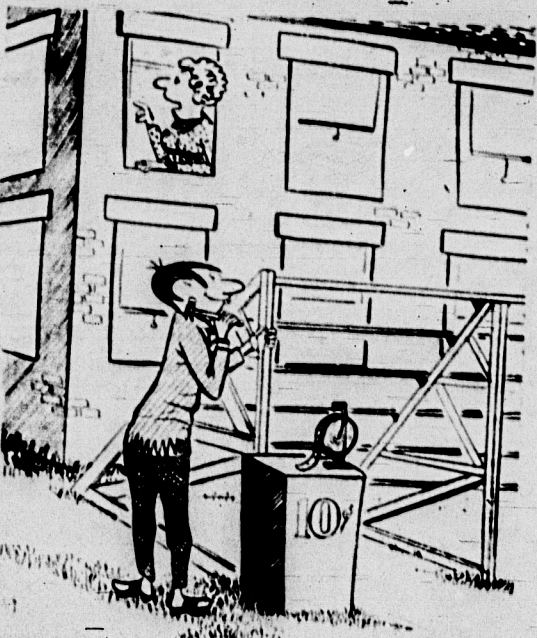

The answer was 48 against, 17 in favor; 35 not voting. Only 100 of the town's 735 voters showed up for the unusual meeting called in town hall by a petition circulated by a former army captain, William N. Sparhawk, Jr., 32-year-old chicken farmer.

Ten signatures were necessary to call the meeting. Sparhawk said 50 residents signed the petition.

Can They Get Together?

Stokes Issues May Lack Punch for 1952

By THOMAS L. STOKES

Copyright, 1951, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.

WASHINGTON—An interesting paradox about the jockeying now going on here over the 1952 presidential election is that the central figures and issues now uppermost may play little part in that event. There is the illusion of shadow-boxing, by straw men which is, nevertheless, fascinating to watch.

President Truman, for example, is the chief target of Republicans. Preponderant opinion now, however, is that he won't be a candidate unless, as some Republicans are saying and not facetiously, they, themselves, make him one.

Senator Taft of Ohio certainly is at this stage the leading candidate for the Republican nomination and concurrently, by that token, the beloved whipping boy of the Democrats. President Truman periodically throws a jab into him to keep him the symbol of Republicanism for Democratic purposes.

But there is no certainty that he will be the Republican nominee; in fact, he may have reached his peak already too far ahead of the competition.

And, as for the overwhelming issue at the moment, the Korean war, it is probable that it will be over before next year's elections, and thus will lack the explosive qualities it currently embodies as a political issue.

Senator Taft seized upon the General MacArthur episode and has been chewing at it belatedly to an extent not thought possible by those who knew the senator in his more peaceful days. What he has done, however, is natural for an ambitious political leader, for such must make their issues, day by day, off the cuff, with what is at hand.

Some have said that the senator is hurting his chances for the nomination by his adventures in foreign policy. That may be true to a degree. Only time will tell.

But there is something else to be considered in sizing up the "Taft-for-President" movement which, in the long run, is likely to have more of a bearing on his fortunes.

This can be explained by pointing out that the driving, energizing force behind the Taft movement is in those who do not care one whit what the senator may say or do about Europe or Asia or Korea or anything else. That doesn't matter. Their aim, chiefly, is down with new dealism and fair dealism, and all such tendencies, and they are ready to devote their time and their money to this crusade, though that is not a fair estimate of him.

He has come to be that for their purposes, so that his chief difficulty has become the company which insists on keeping close to him.

Its viewpoint has been defeated in five successive national elections, which is a simple fact. Wise Republicans know that. It is probable that a majority of convention delegates will recognize it again, as they have since 1940.

Just A Moment

Dr. Bunche

By Steve Brandendorfer

It wasn't significant because of:

1. A world problem being solved.
2. A startling announcement being made.
3. Or even anything new being said.

None of the above occurred. For those who were looking for a stout hook to hang a hat or a troubled mind on, the whole talk probably was a failure.

But it did have great merit. That merit lies in the fact that a top leader in the world of international affairs was on a MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE stage. And MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE students could hear him, be stimulated by him, and attempt to think out the vital problems he flung in their laps.

Sure, only a small percentage of the student body was at the Aud. Some of them even draped their bare legs and tootsies over the balcony above me while they listened.

I'm glad they didn't get excited and land in my lap along with Bunche's ideas. But even these students, untrained in the manner in which to act before a statesman, learned a great deal.

Bunche laid the workings of an often misunderstood and more often little cared about organization right on that Aud podium.

He made the UN human.

He made the UN important.

He made international relations a personal problem.

He made Michigan State students think.

Dr. Bunche didn't have all the answers. No man, regardless of stature, could. But he did have a full comprehension of the problem facing this nation.

These problems included the acknowledged weaknesses in the UN, the difference between what American democratic ideals dictate as how they're followed, and most dramatic at this time, still the Korean war lead to world disaster?

Bunche looked at these issues and said he was optimistic. But not through "blind faith."

He didn't say there absolutely would not be a world war. He did say the UN has thus far prevented world conflict and should be looked to in the future as an instrumentality that could continue to prevent a world war.

But people in this nation must believe that peace is possible. They must step off the magic carpet of "we can live with the world or beat the heck out of it and let it live with us."

Bunche said we need friends. And he laid much of the responsibility of spreading that idea on educational institutions.

"Educational institutions can do a great deal in shaping this reorientation of thinking. The American public must adapt itself."

Michigan State has picked up its share of the challenge. Bunche's presence on the platform spotlighted that fact. The president of this institution and the committee that arranged the symposium on The American Way of Life, consisting of Dean Lloyd Emmons, Dean Stanley Crowe, and Dr. Milton Meulder should get a pat on the back.

They brought men out here who made students think. The students, the country, and the world will sooner or later be better for that.

THE STORY OF AN Amelia Earhart ... WHO MADE JOBS FOR THOUSANDS THROUGH FREE ENTERPRISE

ALTHOUGH IT PASSED UNNOTICED JULY 11, 1914, DESERVED A PROMINENT SPOT IN AERONAUTICAL ANNALS. IT WAS THEN THAT WALTER H. BEECH, DESTINED TO BECOME WORLD FAMOUS IN AVIATION, MADE HIS FIRST SOLO FLIGHT AT MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., IN A PATCHED-UP PRIMITIVE CURTISS PUSHER BI-PLANE.

"BEECH, A BORN 'BIRD', FIRST ATTEMPTED FLIGHT ON THE FARM NEAR PULASKI, TENN., WHERE HE WAS BORN JAN. 30, 1891. HE RIGGED UP A CRUDE GLIDER FRAME, TOOK HIS MOTHER'S BEST BED SHEETS FOR WING COVERING, TOOK OFF FROM THE BARN ROOF, AND LANDED WITH THE 'GLIDER' A TOTAL WRECK, AGAINST A WIRE FENCE.

REPAIRING FARM MACHINERY AND A COURSE AT GILES COLLEGE, PULASKI, QUALIFIED BEECH MECHANICALLY TO INSTALL AND SERVICE MUNICIPAL LIGHTING AND WATER PLANTS.

BECOMING SALES ENGINEER FOR AN AMERICAN TRUCK COMPANY, HE TOURED EUROPE FOR TWO YEARS AS MANUFACTURER'S REPRESENTATIVE.

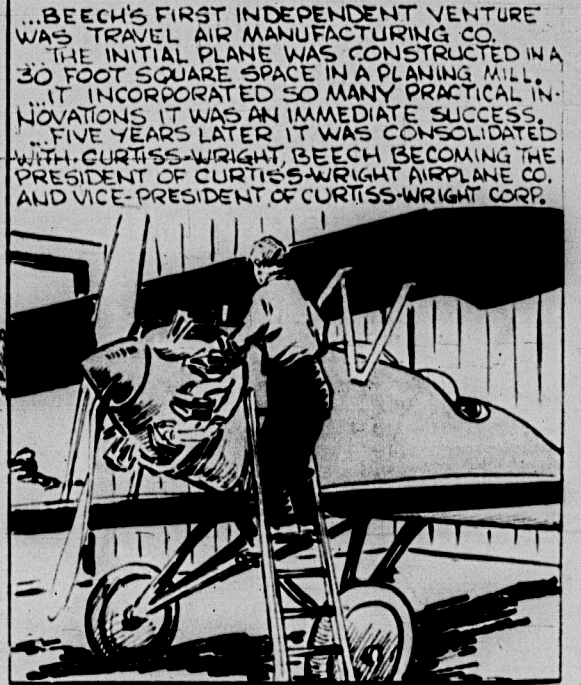

THAT FASCINATING SOLO FLIGHT IN MINNEAPOLIS BORE FRUIT WHEN, AT THE OUTSET OF WORLD WAR I, BEECH ENLISTED IN THE AIR SERVICE. FOR THREE YEARS, AS PILOT-ENGINEER, HE FLEW THE "CRATES" THEN IN USE. IT WAS ROUGH AND RISKY BUT RICH IN EXPERIENCE...

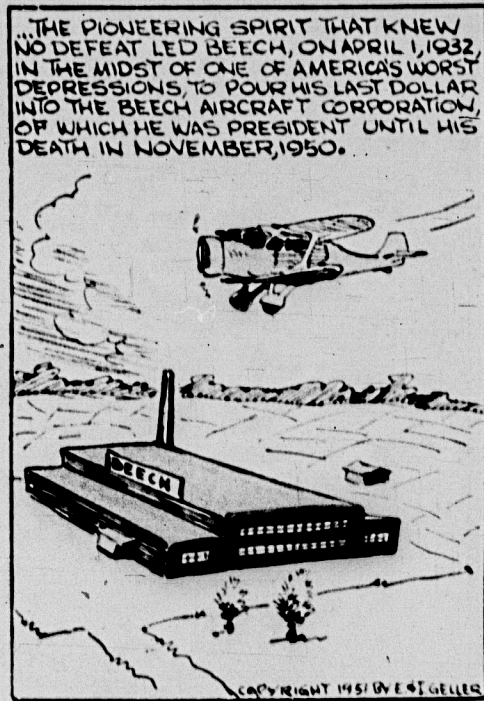

WITH THE WAR OVER, BEECH RISKED HIS NECK FOR TWO YEARS AS A STUNT FLIER. THEN HE PARKED HIS WAR SURPLUS 'JENNY' IN A FIELD OUTSIDE WICHITA, KANSAS, AND HIRED HIMSELF TO THE SWALLOW AIRPLANE CORP. AS DESIGNER AND SALES-MAN...

THOSE WERE STRENUOUS DAYS. TO PROVE WHAT SWALLOW PLANES COULD DO BEECH ENTERED AND WON THE LEADING AIR CLASSICS OF THE TIME. TWO YEARS OF UNCEASING HUSTLE FOUND HIM GENERAL MANAGER OF THE SWALLOW CO. THAT WOULD HAVE SATISFIED MOST MEN—BUT NOT BEECH.

BEECH'S FIRST INDEPENDENT VENTURE WAS TRAVEL AIR MANUFACTURING CO. THE INITIAL PLANE WAS CONSTRUCTED IN A 30 FOOT SQUARE SPACE IN A PLANING MILL. IT INCORPORATED SO MANY PRACTICAL INNOVATIONS IT WAS AN IMMEDIATE SUCCESS. FIVE YEARS LATER IT WAS CONSOLIDATED WITH CURTISS-WRIGHT, BEECH BECOMING THE PRESIDENT OF CURTISS-WRIGHT AIRPLANE CO. AND VICE-PRESIDENT OF CURTISS-WRIGHT CORP.

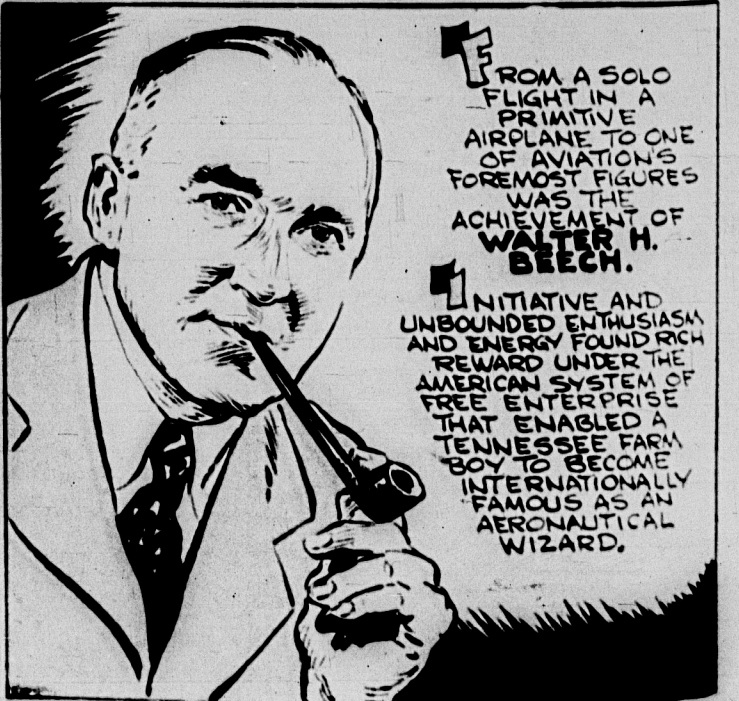

THE PIONEERING SPIRIT THAT KNEW NO DEFEAT LED BEECH, ON APRIL 1, 1932, IN THE MIDST OF ONE OF AMERICA'S WORST DEPRESSIONS TO POUR HIS LAST DOLLAR INTO THE BEECH AIRCRAFT CORPORATION, OF WHICH HE WAS PRESIDENT UNTIL HIS DEATH IN NOVEMBER, 1950.

AGAIN BEECH DARING PAID OFF, NOT ONLY TO HIMSELF, BUT IN A MUCH LARGER WAY TO THE U.S. WHEN WORLD WAR II BROKE, THE BEECH AIRCRAFT CO. WAS EQUIPPED AND READY TO PRODUCE PLANES IN A QUANTITY THAT WAS AN IMPORTANT FACTOR IN THE WINNING OF THAT TITANIC CONFLICT. THEN THE COMPANY WENT BACK TO DEVELOPING COMMERCIAL AVIATION IN A BIG WAY.

A DETERMINING FACTOR IN BEECH'S PROGRESS WAS OLIVE ANN MELLOR, A KANSAS FARM GIRL, WHO HAD BEEN HIS SECRETARY, AND WHOM HE WED FEB. 24, 1930. HE LEANED HEAVILY ON HER JUDGMENT. SOON AFTER HIS DEATH SHE WAS MADE PRESIDENT OF THE COMPANY.

FROM A SOLO FLIGHT IN A PRIMITIVE AIRPLANE TO ONE OF AVIATION'S FOREMOST FIGURES WAS THE ACHIEVEMENT OF WALTER H. BEECH. INITIATIVE AND UNBOUNDED ENTHUSIASM AND ENERGY FOUND RICH REWARD UNDER THE AMERICAN SYSTEM OF FREE ENTERPRISE THAT ENABLED A TENNESSEE FARM BOY TO BECOME INTERNATIONALLY FAMOUS AS AN AERONAUTICAL WIZARD.

Baseball Squad Meets Titans at Detroit

Langl Named for Mound Duty Against U of D Nine

By STAN KURZMAN

Making their fifteenth victory in 20 starts, the Michigan baseball team will travel to Detroit this afternoon to meet the University of Detroit Titans.

Starting today, the Spartans have seven games scheduled in the space of only 11 days. Five of these are West-ern conference tilts.

On May 29 the State nine will meet the postponed game with Michigan. Then on Monday day the University of Detroit will be the opponents at College field.

The Spartans complete their series with games against the Ten power, Ohio State, on May 30 and 31.

Presently the Buckeyes are on a hot streak in the Western conference race with a 7-1 record. They have won three of their last four games.

It is the surprise of the team that a 7-3 record, good for second slot.

The Spartans entertain any chance of annexing the Big Ten. It seems relatively certain they will have to win all remaining Western conference games.

Kobs decides against using Chuck Gorman will probably be the starter.

Gorman, with a 2-1 record, has both hot and cold streaks. His main trouble seems to be consistency.

Low 'N Inside

By ALEX LAGGIS

After running under the shadow of such national track stars as Fred Johnson, Horace Smith, Paige Christian and Bob Schepers for two years, Jesse Thomas really stepped into his own this year.

During the indoor season, Thomas racked up a total of 96 points for a new Spartan indoor record. The old record was eighty-seven and one-fifth points held by Johnson during the 1950 season.

During the outdoor running, the Flint speedster has a new outdoor scoring record with three more meets to go. His 155 point total so far surpasses Johnson's old mark of 152 markers set in 1949.

Thomas is sure to pick up points in the coming Big Ten NCAA championships to add to his total. He is also an all-around athlete to be packed for the annual Big Ten-Pacific All-star clash.

Typically, the man who was cheering the loudest for Jesse on Saturday when he racked up 20 points for a new record was the old time holder, Fred Johnson.

In his first two years on the varsity, Thomas had to buck competition in every event from his teammates. He could be number one man in any one of the four events he competed in for any team in the country except the Spartans.

Smith, Schladehan had a sure winner in the hurdles sprints. Johnson was the best broad jumper in the nation and a top dash and hurdle star. Schepers was the team's ace.

With names like these hogging the limelight, Thomas had to make a back seat until this year when he really broke out to outshine his old teammates.

Running against the stiffest competition in the nation, Schladehan stated that he thought Thomas' recent scoring was also set a new modern record but not enough records available to verify this. If there are statistics available, it can be sure Thomas will be high in the running.

Spartan Golf Team Plays Tri-Match

With Monday's 15-12 win over Wake Forest under its belt, the Spartan golf team takes on powerful Northwestern and Minnesota in a tri-match at Evanston today.

Coach Ben MacArthur's links-men will meet a tough opponent in Northwestern. NU has demonstrated a triumph to Illinois at well as being Michigan this year while the Spartans have lost to both of them. Minnesota has been equally tough.

In Monday's match against Wake Forest, MSU played the best golf of the year. Capt. Don Porter led the first of six MSC players with a sparkling 74-144 card.

On Thursday, the Spartans swing into their first Big Ten conference match. They'll hole match is scheduled for both Thursday and Friday at Evanston.

Gymnasts in Holland Show

The squad gave an exhibition of tumbling and other gymnastic stunts before a capacity crowd.

The team was invited to perform by the Holland festival committee.

Allied Reinforcements Sent into Eastern Korea

Reds Try New Thrust to Slip Around Line

TOKYO — (AP) — Allied reinforcements rushed into the rugged mountain areas of eastern Korea yesterday to head off a menacing new thrust by Chinese and North Korean Communists trying to slip around the United Nations line.

With the exception of that single hazard, within 18 miles of the east coast, field dispatches said Allied troops held the initiative all along the 125-mile long battlefront.

In Washington, the navy department announced the battleship New Jersey had been hit by Red shore guns Monday and the destroyer Brinkley Bass had been hit Sunday. Both had been anchored for bombardments off Wonsan, on Korea's east coast, at the time the New Jersey having gone into action only one day earlier.

Total casualties were two killed and 12 wounded.

The regular naval communiqué issued this morning, after Washington's announcement, merely listed the Brinkley Bass among four U.S. destroyers bombarding Wonsan on Tuesday but did not mention the New Jersey at all.

A navy spokesman in Washington said there had been an "almost continuous artillery duel" at Wonsan between U.S. ships and Red shore guns since the New Jersey was hit.

Two other attempts by Chinese communist forces to blast through U.S. Second division positions, about 75 miles northeast of Seoul, were bloodily repulsed. B-29 Superforts bombing within 300 yards of American foxhole positions and devastating artillery fire wiped out at least 1,000 attacking Reds. This was about 17 air miles northwest of the scene of the Red's end-run attempt near Sokka.

With the failure of these jobs at the Second division, the main body of Chinese broke contact for the time being and pulled back out of range of the deadly American artillery.

Bunche

Following his outline of the UN, Bunche turned the spotlight on "The American Way" in the present world struggle.

"As in all religions there are basic gags between philosophical ideas and their application," he pointed out.

"The vital need for the United States to correct its failings and to understand all peoples of the world was emphasized by the speaker."

"We've got to prove to the world that the American way of life is the best blueprint for living yet devised. We still must perfect this theory in practice."

Convincing the world that democratic ideals are the best to follow was called "the American mission—the American crusade."

"No nation today can afford to find itself alone in this world," he said.

Dr. Bunche concluded his address by calling for a personal effort of every American citizen to put the American ideal into actual practice.

"What every individual does in this country is part and parcel of this world-wide struggle. The great issue in the world today is people. It's the people that are being competed for in this ideological conflict," he explained.

Resolution

The state constitution says that the two ruling boards of these colleges can not have their power diminished by legislative enactment thus making the resolution unconstitutional.

"This decision has already been upheld in numerous decisions of our supreme court," Millard said. The legislature can still pass the resolution.

Prize Film Slated

"Manon," a French film will be presented at the Lucon theater starting today. The film, under the direction of Georges Clouzot, was awarded the first grand prize at the Venice Film festival. It is adapted from a novel by Abbe Prevost.

Engineers Set for MSC Meet

Engineering drawing and thermodynamics schools will highlight the annual conference of the American Society of Engineering Education at MSC June 21-July 7. More than 2,000 engineering educators from all parts of the U.S. are expected to attend the division schools and the national convention.

While the actual national conference will be held June 25-29, for special schools will precede and follow it.

The engineering drawing school, June 21-23, is expected to attract 150 teachers. The school is designed to keep members of the association informed on modern methods of teaching. Student drawing exhibits, teaching aids and industrial displays will be featured.

More than 100 persons are expected to attend a 10-day thermodynamics school June 28-July 7.

A two-day school in civil engineering will be held June 23-24, for the purpose of bringing teachers up to date on that subject.

Art Department Sponsors Exhibit

The department of art is sponsoring an art exhibition in the Art building, A-7 south campus.

Featured in this exhibition will be examples in sculpture and graphic design, along with examples of oil painting and print-making.

The collection will constitute the master's thesis for John H. Wawzyko, candidate for the degree of Master of Art this term.

The show will continue through Friday of this week, and may be seen during regular college office hours.

Department Head Gets National Post

Dr. Ernest B. Harper, head of the department of social service, has been elected president of the National Association of Social Work for the 1951-52 year.

Dr. Harper, who edits the association's "Bibliographical Checklist of Current Publications on Community Organizations," was elected last week-end at the end of the association's annual meeting in Atlantic City, N. J.

Student Clinic Set for June 4

The third annual series of counseling clinics for high school students will be held at MSC beginning June 4.

Approximately 1,000 high school students from all parts of Michigan will visit the campus seeking advice on college life.

Main objective of the series of clinics is to aid the pupil in getting knowledge and understanding of himself and of the choices open to him as a high school graduate, according to Dr. Paul Dressel, head of the counseling center.

Clinics will be held June 4-6, June 11-13, June 20-22, July 11-13, July 23-25, July 30-Aug. 1, Aug. 6-8, Aug. 15-17, Aug. 27-29, and Sept. 5-7.

Foreign Students' Comp Time Set

Foreign students taking the written and spoken English comprehensive will write their themes in room 113 Auditorium tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. Foreign students are urged to report to Jenison fieldhouse to take the comprehensive before 9:30 a.m. June 5. They will be given extra time to take the exam.

Council

parking at the present stop at M.A.C. and Grand River avenue were responsible for much of the traffic congestion in the city.

The council said that most of the bus passengers were MSC students, and that a new bus stop might well be located on campus.

The East Lansing city council also:

1. Tabled a highway department order effective June 1 which will remove parking from most of Grand River avenue.

2. Restricted parking to one hour in the area bounded by Linden street, Haskell street, Abbott road and Grand River to cut down on student parking near Berkey hall.

3. Moved the route of buses of Lansing Suburban lines onto Cowley avenue instead of Highland avenue.

4. Referred back to the traffic commission a proposal to allow for free lanes in all public alleys.
