Kefauver Blames Public for Crime

The blame for organized crime's current binge was squarely before the American public yesterday by Estes Kefauver, chairman of the Senate Crime Investigating Committee.

SEN. KEFAUVER

"The extent of what the federal government can do in fighting crime is limited, unless we have local interest. Public apathy is the answer to the whole problem," the Tennessee senator asserted.

Speaking before 5,000 persons in the Auditorium, Kefauver added that, in his opinion, the situation has improved since the committee made its nation-wide tour. There are now more than 125 citizen's groups throughout the country attempting to get to the roots of the crime problem. There were only three before the investigation, Kefauver stated.

He addressed the annual convention of the Third District, Michigan Education Association.

Knowing the facts about organized crime is the prime factor in breaking it, the Senator said. "We have always believed that once facts are known, people will find a remedy." This, he added, was the reason for the Crime Investigating Committee.

Teachers play an important part in molding the future of our country, the Senator pointed out. The future generation must be instilled with the importance of the citizen in getting to the bottom of a wide-spread problem.

General confusion following World War II was given as the reason for the crime wave. The country went through a period of preparing an army for war, and peace, with a lot of money around, and not much attention being paid to a code of ethics.

The annual income of organized crime was estimated at 10-20 billion dollars a year by Sen. Kefauver. "This means," he stressed, "that the public pays the bill through undeclared taxes. You may think that your small town is 'clean,' but organized crime in large cities affects the whole country's economy."

"Organized crime is living low," Kefauver said. However he stressed that a constant struggle must be maintained against gangsters.

The "Mafia" widespread gangland organization was cited as one of the outstanding examples of today's gangs. "They give no information to the law, and ask the law for no help. Today's racketeers are much more sinister than those of the old Al Capone days."

Plans Settled for Graduation

W. W. Whitehouse, president of Albion College, will address MSC's Commencement Nov. 28.

Graduation will be held in the Auditorium, is the first full ceremony. An estimated 1,000 students, as many as in 1938, are candidates for the degree.

Exercises will consist of a musical and the traditional reading of degrees by Pres. A. Hannah, who will not attend reception this year during the war.

Students will not wear caps and gowns, but the platform will be dressed in academic costume. Dr. Runnells, who was professor of biology at Albion from 1928-30, is becoming president. He is from Drew University, Madison, N. J., and a doctor of science from Wayne University.

Spartans to Refuse Bowl Bids

Hannah Vetoes
Post-Season Games

Michigan State College's football team will not play in any bowl game this year to "avoid a mess like last year," President John A. Hannah announced yesterday.

President Hannah gave three reasons for cancelling MSC's bowl possibilities.

1. MSC has no desire to repeat the confusion that came up last year after the Spartans were given a chance to play in the Cotton Bowl.

2. Bowl games are the great fallacy with college football. "They are nothing but Chamber of Commerce promotion stunts," the President stated.

3. Western Conference rules forbid member teams from playing in any bowl except the Rose Bowl.

MSC will be ineligible for Rose Bowl play until Jan. 1, 1954, following its first year in actual Big Ten football competition, except by special invitation.

Last fall, after MSC received a bid to play in the Cotton Bowl, Big Ten officials ruled thumbs down. President Hannah stated that he does not want another controversy to arise over an outside bowl bid.

Michigan State Plans Welcome for Pitt Students

More than 150 students from the University of Pittsburgh will be welcomed at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow at the west entrance of the Union.

The welcome will be jointly sponsored by the Union Board and the Student Government. Following tours around campus, Student Government officers will be host to Pittsburgh's student government members at a luncheon.

Several housing units which have planned open houses and parties will fetter the Pitt students. Stan Brown, public relations director of the Student Government, was pleased with the response dormitories, co-ops, fraternities and sororities made to a Student Government request for "showing MSC hospitality."

Pittsburgh football fans are expected to arrive about 5:30 a.m. in buses, Brown said. A train had originally been scheduled but it was cancelled.

Early returns showed many Labor government ministers and officials being returned to their seats in the House of Commons. These included:

W. J. Edwards, civil lord of the admiralty; Air Minister Arthur Henderson; Colonial Minister John Dugdale; Philip J. Noel-Baker, minister of fuel and power; Minister of Pensions George Isaacs; Education Minister George Tomlinson; Richard R. Stokes, lord privy seal; Sir Frank Soskice, attorney general; Sir Hartley Shawcross, president of the Board of Trade; Patrick Gordon-Walker, secretary for Commonwealth Relations; Dr. Edith Summerskill, Home Secretary; Chester Ede, and Hector McNeil, minister of state for Scotland.

Final returns began coming in an hour later, and early today they approached the 420-mark expected to end the preliminary counting. The remaining 305 seats will be accounted for in later tabulations.

By 2 a.m. Conservative Party headquarters had an air of "we're in." But party spokesmen declined to make any statement except "we're very happy." Labor spokesmen likewise were silent officially.

Churchill, 77 next Nov. 30, spoke of it as the "last prize" he wanted—the chance to get into the fight for peace at the helm of the government.

Conservatives Head for Victory in Britain

LONDON—(AP)—The Conservatives dealt Socialism a smashing blow in the national elections and yesterday were within reach of a victory sending Winston Churchill back to the prime ministry at the age of 76 after six bleak years on the sidelines.

Leftist Bevan, Five Backers Elected Again

LONDON—(AP)—Left Wing Laborite Aneurin Bevan and five of his close supporters won re-election early today. One of them defeated Winston Churchill's son, Randolph.

Young Churchill was beaten in a close race by Michael Foot, Churchill's son-in-law, to Foot's 32,158.

Bevan swapped his conservative opponent, J. E. Bowen, in the Labor stronghold of Ebbw Vale, a coal mining area.

Early returns showed many Labor government ministers and officials being returned to their seats in the House of Commons. These included:

More than 45,000 spectators will jam Varsity Stadium at 2 p.m. for the game.

Results in nearly half the 625 parliamentary districts pointed to a political and personal triumph for the old warrior who led Britain to victory in World War II, only to be brushed aside when the war-weary people adopted the Socialist (Labor) Party's promises of a better life.

The Conservatives wrested 11 House of Commons seats from Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee's Laborites. The Liberal Party ousted a Laborite in still another district. That made a net loss of 12 seats for the Laborites, who had an overall majority of only six in the last Parliament.

The Laborites, at the halfway point in tabulation, had failed to take a single seat from Churchill's men—and by all normal standards the full Conservative strength was yet to appear.

Churchill and his supporter campaigned on the theme that Attlee's party lacked the skill and power to restore Britain's strength and to save her from becoming the battleground of a third world war.

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY
HEADQUARTERS, Korea —

(AP)—Allied fighter-bombers dealt a smashing blow to the Communist railroad supply system in Northwest Korea yesterday, destroying nine Red locomotives and damaging 19 others in a concentrated attack.

For the fifth straight day, Russian-built MIGs made determined efforts to break up the Allied raids. A total of 80 enemy jets pressed three aggressive attacks against 63 or more Allied planes.

The U.S. Fifth Air Force claimed one MIG was damaged in a 10-minute clash between 31 Sabre Jets and estimated 50 MIGs.

The Air Force reported one Marine-piloted Corsair fighter, hit by ground fire, crashed behind enemy lines. It said there was no chance that the pilot survived.

Jayvees Try for Third Straight Meet Wolverines at Ann Arbor

By TOM RYAN

Michigan State's Junior Varsity team will travel to Ann Arbor this afternoon in search of its third straight football win of the season and second straight over the Wolverine Jayvees.

In their last encounter, here at East Lansing on Oct. 5, the Spartans came out on the long end of a 20-7 contest. Last week the MSC JV's enjoyed an open date, although it proved to be a costly one.

During last week's scrimmages quarterback Al Fracassa suffered a twisted knee and the injury may sideline the highly regarded signal caller for the remainder of the season.

While Michigan State's Junior Varsity offensive team has drawn plenty of publicity in their first two wins, in which they scored 60 points against the opposition, the excellent play of the defensive team has been relatively overlooked.

The defense has allowed only one touchdown so far this season, this was the only time the opposition penetrated inside the JV's 20-yard line.

Selfridge Field wasn't even able to get into Michigan State territory in MSC's season opener until late in the fourth quarter when Coach Dan Devine had replaced the number one defensive unit with reserves. Then the Flyers only reached the Spartan 21-yard line after a 58-yard pass had clicked.

In the Michigan game the Wolverines were able to move into Michigan State territory only twice during the first half and then only as far as the MSC 33.

With seven minutes remaining in the game, Michigan finally carried the ball inside State's 30-yard line. The Wolverines scored with four minutes left, and this is the only time an opponent has driven inside the Spartans' own 20. Devine expected some trouble with his defensive backfield in the first Michigan game since injuries had forced him to start almost an entirely new unit.

The team proved needless though since Michigan threw 14 passes before they finally were able to complete one to any of their own players. Art Ingram, one of the new men, intercepted a Wolverine pass on the game's first series of downs, racing from the Michigan 35 down to the 10-yard line to set up the first Spartan touchdown.

Although Devine is quick to point out that the JV's are not using a strictly two platoon system he does have one unit that excels in defense. Each member of the Junior Varsity is expected to be able to play both offense and defense.

Both Jack Edwards and Bob Rossi have been the flankers on the number one defensive unit. Edwards has been outstanding at his position and when a chance at offense in the Michigan game he has three passes for a total of yards.

At the tackle post, Murphy and Alex have been giving the opposition plenty of trouble. Murphy weighs in around 215 lbs. Alex carries 220 pounds and is 6'7" frame.

Henry Bullough and Gutshall are at the guard and will be given a working day if Fred Baer is at the back post for Michigan. Baer's favorite play against the first game was right through the center.

Boasting up the line with Earl Nyström and John Smith, who will have hands full pulling Michigan runners and down passes.

Sigma Chi, unleashed a tremendous scoring attack and plastered Pi Kappa Phi with a 51-0 shellacking to come within three points of breaking the IFC scoring record last night.

In the first quarter Bob Moore started a four-way play that ended when Harley Burr caught the ball in the end zone for Sigma Chi's only tally in the first period. Moore reeled off two short touchdowns runs to account for Sigma Chi's scoring in the second period. Dave Crego tossed to Burr for a conversion after the last TD.

Sigma Chi really laid it on in the third stanza with Crego tossing to Dick Moore for the fifth TD. Dick Dimeo ran back an interception five yards and caught a Crego pass for two more tallies. Joe Walters tossed to Tom Falls after the sixth tally. Sigma Chi ended the slaughter in the last quarter on a Clark Moore pass to Walters and a Crego toss to Burr. Walters passed to Al Ryan for the extra point.

ATO, 21, SAE, 6
ATO had come from behind to clip SAE 21-6 and win their fourth straight game. SAE led 6-0 at the half and it looked as if they were going to tack on ATO's first loss, but ATO's wrecking crew went to work in the second half to tear down SAE's hopes for glory. George Snellgrove flipped 13 yards in the first period for SAE's only touchdown.

In the third quarter, Dick Colley scored two ATO tallies on a pass from Don McInnis and by falling on a loose ball in SAE's end zone. McInnis threw to Matthews for the extra point. In the last quarter McInnis passed to Dick Wilmot and ATO recovered a fumble for a safety to wrap things up.

Delta Sigma Phi, 20; Lambda Chi, 17

In a rough and tough game that looked more like a brawl, Delta Sig scored a last period TD to clip Lambda Chi, 20-17. Walt Flanders scored a safety for Lambda Chi in the first while Chuck Kent tossed to Miller for a Delta Sig touch. In the second quarter John Rick threw to Ed Nagle for Lambda Chi score. Bob Sen flipped to Bill Lukash for conversion. Lambda Chi ahead in the third period on Cren's pass to Nagle. But pulled the game out for Sig with a pass to Steele ended the game.

Delta Chi, 27; Beta Theta Pi, 17

Delta Chi, showing a well-balanced attack, had trouble in subduing Beta Pi, 27-17, in a game which featured excellent passing and running. In the first period Theta Pi drew first blood pass from Don Baldwin to O'Hara. O'Hara ran the mission over. Delta Chi came back when Tom Hood passed to Dick Heiss for a TD and Larsen flipped to Lou Kan for the extra point. Larsen for a touchdown in the second period and Heiss ran for a period score; Larsen conversion after this TD. DeSpelder threw to Bill Le the last touchdown in the quarter, while Larsen scored for the extra point.

J. Paul Shedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Nail
Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

POOR PAUL was exasperated because every chick on campus gave him the bird. They told him: "We're all cooped up!" Then one day his roommate said: "The hens avoid you because your hair's messy, you dumb chook! I don't know feather you've heard of Wildroot Cream-Nail or not, but you better try it—er, try it! Contains soothing Lanolin. Relieves dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test." Paul got Wildroot Cream-Nail and now the girls think he's a good egg! Better lay down a few poultry cents on the nearest drug or mail goods counter for a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Nail. And ask for it on your hair at your favorite barber shop. Then the girls'll take off their hatch to you!

Panthers Out to Stop State Win Streak

Spartans Expect Aerial Back From Winless Pitt

Lineup will be in the Panther's backfield. Bob Carey who in his neck last week in the Penn State game. Also a doubtful list is linebacker. He is recovering from leg muscle.

Lineup will be at top with Bob Rootwick, and are power, and receiver, end Chris. Both were sidelined during the 23-0 by Notre Dame.

Warriner will be all-time passing. Saturday they have a against State. Last year's records. It is 29 passes.

Coach Biggie Munn's "kids" are just four games short of the 15-game win record set in 1912-13.

Munn sent his team through a two-hour workout yesterday with about 40 visitors watching from the sidelines of the secret practice field.

Replacing Carey at offensive end position, will be 6'4" Paul Decker who has proven to be a capable sub to Carey all this season. He has caught passes for 126 yards and one touchdown, a vital one against Ohio State.

Taking Carey's place in the place kicking duties probably will be Tom Yewic. Coach Munn was putting Yewic through kicking drills at last night's practice.

The game which starts at 2 p.m. will be broadcast throughout Michigan and relayed to Pennsylvania. A near-capacity crowd of returning alumni, students and fans is expected.

Adding to the feeling of Homecoming Day on the Spartan campus, both bands of the University of Pittsburgh and Michigan State College will perform at half-time.

The Spartan marching band will perform a Halloween skit during half-time.

NEW YORK—(AP)—The advice here is to be careful when picking the National League pennant winner. Only 15 teams have repeated as champion in the 75-year history of the senior circuit. The last to repeat was St. Louis in 1944.

In the American League 20 teams have repeated as champions. However, the Yankees are responsible for half this total.

Netters Elect Rieger to Captain '52 Squad

By NICK VISTA

The newly elected captain of the 1952 Michigan State tennis team is Dick Rieger, Kalamazoo senior, and one of two Spartans who went undefeated in singles play last year.

Rieger was a mainstay on the 1951 Spartan squad that was undefeated in regular season play, and won for MSC its first Western Conference championship.

Along with Len Brose, 1951 team captain, Rieger swept through all singles opposition at the number six singles spot.

In last year's Big Ten meet, Rieger defeated Bill Grunow of Wisconsin to give the Spartans one of their two singles victories in the tournament finals.

Rieger teamed with Keith Kimble last year at the number three doubles position. This pair was beaten in the Big Ten finals by Jim Moses and Jim Bishop of the University of Illinois.

This same Illini duo handed Rieger and Kimble their only regular season loss in a dual meet at Champaign.

The team Rieger will lead next spring will make a strong bid to retain their conference honors. Although Brose, Wally Kau, Ken Kimble and Dave Mills are lost from last year's fine team, Coach John Friedrich believes he has the makings of another powerful contender.

Plaudits for Gridders from Nittany Lions

FAST LANSING—(AP)—Received in the mail this week was the Penn State Alumni News. The Penn State Alumni Secretary was uncommonly kind to Michigan State for such a partisan source.

He commented on the two Penn State fumbles: "Those fumbles did lead to quick scores and threatened to turn the game into a nightmare for the Nittany Lions but it would be rank injustice to one of the nation's best eleven to say that the margin of victory on Saturday was a pair of boobies."

Elsewhere he said: "Michigan State, well manned with both size and speed and superbly coached, just had too many runs."

The Penn State Alumni Reporter was a little bitter about the amount of manpower from Pennsylvania on the Michigan State squad.

He told of Biggie Munn's pregame warning to his team that, "Those coal miners are tough."

"We were, Biggie," he replied unhappily, "until most of them went west."

Fleet Prepared to Drop A-Bomb

France to Get First U.S. Air Force Wing

WASHINGTON, (AP)—America's part in building up European defenses brought these developments yesterday: (1) Word that the U.S. Mediterranean fleet probably is prepared to use atomic bombs if necessary, and (2) an announcement that a light bomber wing is being sent to France.

Secretary of the Navy Kimball was asked at a news conference: "Is the Sixth Fleet set to deliver an A-bomb if necessary?" He replied, "I would guess so."

Kimball's guess was the first hint that any naval unit is now prepared to deliver an A-bomb, although it previously had been announced that aircraft carrier crews were being trained to that end.

The Air Force said the 126th Light Bomber Wing, made up of about 1,600 officers and men and 48 conventionally powered B-26 bombers, will be stationed at Bordeaux. It was drawn from Illinois and Missouri National Guard squadrons.

This will be the first wing sent to France since World War II, but Air Force plans call for sending another wing—this one probably composed of jet fighters—to Western Europe by the end of this year. Other units are to follow before next June.

Secretary Kimball, reporting on his recent talks with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, supreme commander of Allied powers in Europe, said the U.S. fleet in the Mediterranean has been built up to 60 or 70 warships, twice the size it was a year ago. These ships carry about 20,000 men.

Patients Evacuated

Senate Report Hits Marine Corps Bases

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate investigating committee yesterday criticized home-front training conditions at some U.S. Marine bases as contributing to low morale among the Leathernecks and wasting the taxpayers' money.

Citing widespread complaints, the committee's report singled out a variety of cases ranging from poor food and flimsily protected open air showers to overstuffed in "chair corps" positions.

At the Pentagon, a Marine spokesman told reporters: "The Marine Corps is studying the report with a view of taking corrective action where indicated."

Several camp commandants criticized in the report promised similar "corrective" steps. The report was issued by Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.) as chairman of a Preparedness Subcommittee of the Senate Armed Services Committee. It was the 31st report of the Subcommittee since it was set up as a "watchdog" over the nation's mobilization program.

MSC Canada Club to Sponsor Dinner

A buffet supper will mark the first meeting this term of the Canadian Club. The supper will be held after the football game tomorrow from 5:30 to 7 at the International Center.

More than 80 persons have been invited and alumni club members are all welcome. Dr. and Mrs. Shao C. Lee are guests.

Orderly confusion might describe this scene at an entrance to St. Paul Hospital at Dallas, Tex., Wednesday, with nurses, Catholic Sisters and volunteer workers working frantically to evacuate patients and furnishings from the burning building. The fifth floor of the west wing of the building was destroyed by fire and for a time it was feared out of control. All patients, some 250, were evacuated in less than an hour after the fire was discovered.

Williams Takes Up Proposed St. Lawrence Seaway Project

Gov. Williams left by plane yesterday afternoon for Chicago where he discussed the proposed St. Lawrence Seaway project, which has been hanging fire for at least 20 years.

The governor appeared last night over radio station WGN on the "Meet the Press" program. Williams, who has long been an advocate of the project, made the announcement at his morning press conference yesterday. The project has been blocked time and again by strong railroad interests and East Coast Republicans.

Meanwhile, the plan has received strong backing from the Republican Program Co-ordinating Committee. Rep. Glenn B. Robinson, South Haven, said the Seaway was a must for Michigan and just as important for the welfare of the Midwest.

The policy committee has appointed Owen J. Cleary and Noble D. Travis of Detroit, to contact GOP senators and representatives in Washington to push the plan.

Meanwhile, high Republican state officials on Capitol Hill are remaining "mum" on the Taft for president campaign. They are pursuing a policy of wait and see who throws his hat in the ring.

The only bigwig Republican official to date who has come out for Taft is State Attorney General Frank O. Millard. After receiving word that Taft would run, Millard told newsmen, "That's my man."

Governor Williams has set aside this Saturday as Theodore Roosevelt day in Michigan, the birthday of the late president. In his proclamation, the governor said, "No American better exemplifies the ideal of American citizenship than Theodore Roosevelt."

"Courageous in upholding his beliefs in the equality and brotherhood of men, he won undying fame for his devotion towards maintaining the inherent rights of all Americans."

Williams yesterday appealed to Oscar L. Chapman, secretary of the interior, to divide Michigan into two zones for waterfowl hunting. The governor acted on the request of the state Conservation Commission.

The proposed plan would make the Upper and Lower Peninsulas separate zones and open the duck seasons in the two zones on dates corresponding to the seasons of small game hunting.
