AWS Judiciary Board Election Results Withheld

Congressmen Question Status Of Candidate

Olga Torsky Wins Activities Election

By VICKY CONWAY
Results of the election for president of the AWS Judiciary Board were withheld last night pending decision by the All College Judiciary regarding eligibility standards.

The action came after the candidacy of Julie Parmenter, Alameda junior, was questioned because she is not enrolled in MSC this term.

Olga Torsky, Cedarville junior, was elected new president and Micky Walter, Flint junior vice-president of the Activities Board after 1,774 cords voted.

Speaking of the Judiciary Board election, Sue Merriman, AWS Judiciary president said, "Our interpretation of the constitution is that all candidates are eligible. They all have served two terms on Judiciary, are in the incoming senior class and have maintained a 2.0 average the term preceding elections."

AWS will present the case to the All College Judiciary today and ask them to rule on whether Miss Parmenter is eligible according to the AWS constitution, Miss Gauss said.

"If the AWS elections come under the Student Congress jurisdiction, Miss Parmenter is ineligible," said Dave Miller, Speaker of the Congress.

"All persons, participating in extra-curricular activities, must meet minimum requirements set by the Student Congress," Gaylord Sheets, Student Congress president said.

"It would seem on the face of the case that Miss Parmenter is ineligible because she did not have a 2.0 the term before she would take office. This will have to be decided by Judiciary as it involves constitutional conflicts between congressional and administrative groups."

Senate Republican Caucus Turns Down MSC Request

Funds for Pay Raises Denied in Policy Ruling

By CONNIE COURTEAU and ARN SPELLMAN

MSC's request for a $438,000 supplementary appropriation to pay salary increases was virtually killed yesterday by a Senate Republican caucus.

The caucus agreed to cut requests of state agencies for $10 million in deficit appropriations to approximately $3,500,000.

No money for pay increases will go to state agencies supported by legislative appropriations, according to Sen. Elmer R. Porter, (R-Blairstown).

If the Legislature follows recommendations of the caucus, approximately 10 percent of the state's employees would be laid off, including some college employees, Robert F. Steadman, state controller said.

MSC's deficit was incurred by a seven per cent pay hike granted by the State Board of Agriculture effective Jan. 1.

MSC followed recommendations of the State Civil Service Commission in granting the increase. The Commission reported cost of living increases during 1950 and recommended pay hikes by all state agencies.

The supplementary appropriation requested by the college would cover the period from Jan. 1 through June 30, the end of the present fiscal year.

Other colleges would also be hit by the caucus decision. According to Porter, the bill on supplementary appropriations will be reported out of Senate Finance Committee Tuesday. He said he expects the Legislature to follow the caucus policy.

He reiterated that if MSC had saved a $300,000 surplus used in construction of two floors of the Kellogg Center, the college would not now be short of funds to pay the increases.

How the college and other agencies pay off their debts is not the Legislature's problem, he declared.

Philip J. May, college comptroller, would not comment on the effect of the caucus decision.

"We just can't send people home," he said, and added that the college will resolve the situation after the full Legislature acts on the bill.

Gov. Williams declared the Republican policy would put the safety and welfare of the state in jeopardy.

"I am fully convinced that when the realities of this program are re-examined, it will be discovered that wisdom and sound policy will require a change in program and a more sensible course."

It is curious to read in today's papers, the governor continued, assurances from the State Treasurer and Auditor General that there will be no payless pay days and at the same time to learn that other members of their party are planning wholesale layoffs of the same employees they reassured.

The Board felt it must provide some relief for employees and believed that legislators would agree that all employees of the state should receive a comparable treatment.

The adjustment formula provided a seven per cent increase, which will cost $428,000 by June, the end of the fiscal year. The college has no funds available to cover this increase.

The supplementary funds request covers only the cost of wage adjustments for employees paid from appropriated funds.

The Board has already increased dormitory rates $8 per term to cover wage adjustments for employees of auxiliary buildings, Brody explained.

The Board chairman pointed out that the State Supreme Court and Attorney General lay responsibility for operation of MSC with the Board, free from interference from other state offices and agencies.

President Vincent Auriol accepted the resignations. They were tendered him at the presidential residence, Elysee Palace.

Senior Poll Results Due Monday

Results of the senior class poll on June commencement date will be announced Monday, according to President John A. Hannah.

Deadline for inclusion of returned cards is this noon, according to Lyle Leisenring, college recorder. Results will be announced to Dr. Hannah and Gene McDermott, senior president.

Dr. Hannah told members of the Senior Council that there is no doubt of the validity of the poll.

Administration group and the college faculty will vote on commencement date Tuesday. The final decision as to date will rest with them, Dr. Hannah said.

McDermott said he believed faculty and staff would agree to a change in the day of graduation if the class choice turns out to be Sunday.

"If the administration is representing the students' wishes, the poll should carry weight. Valid reasons are behind each choice listed on the poll cards," he said.

Morris Hints Probe to Reach Congressmen

WASHINGTON (AP)—Newbold Morris indicated last night that if he finds evidence linking any members of Congress to wrongdoing, he will urge that the cases be presented to federal grand juries.

Morris is the New York Republican chosen by the Truman administration as No. 1 investigator in its government housecleaning campaign. Noting that his authority extends only to the Executive Branch of the Government, Morris said:

"The only way I can investigate any congressman is to investigate the people that dealt with the congressman."

"If you find that there are circumstances that lead to the belief that a crime has been committed, you have 93 grand juries, and the possibility of convening a special grand jury which would have the right to call anybody, including congressmen."

Being born on Feb. 29 isn't so bad, she claims. "At least people remember your birthday. I get cards from everyone around that time, whether it's Leap Year or not."

Her real age is 20. "I celebrate my birthday every year—on the 28th if there isn't any 29th in the month."

"Of course," she added, "I'll be 21 before I can vote."

And from behind one of the typewriters came a small voice—"I was."

The voice belonged to Pat Rogers, Ravenna sophomore and a State News reporter.

Orchesis to Present Dance Concert Tonight

The annual Orchesis dance concert will be presented tonight at 8:15 in Fairchild Theater.

Under the direction of Miss Ellen Moore of the Physical Education Department, the 30-member cast will present dances originated by members of the modern dance honorary.

Opening the show—which is centered on a modernistic theme—will be grotesque carnival characters dancing an interpretation of "Lustre and Gentlemen." The choreography will be by Virginia Ny, East Lansing graduate student.

Studies in time, space and force composed by Lois Tobin, Northville senior, will be danced with a background of music written by Fred Teuber, Flint senior.

The theory of evolution from a monkey's standpoint will be narrated and danced by Jim Whitaker, Metamora junior. He also has choreographed his concept of the Abner Dean cartoon, "I Have a Very Important Appointment."

Elizabeth Boyne, Birmingham senior, will dance a jazz-flavored solo entitled "Scherzo."

A new medium for advertising will be demonstrated when Becky Fuller, Kalamazoo senior, and Pat Jones, Detroit freshman, make shampoo and nail polish ads come to life.

Suggested by Picasso's mural, "Guernica" is one dance for five composed by Nedra Smith, Buchanan junior.

Don Neill, New Brunswick, N.J. senior, will provide a vocal and guitar accompaniment of folk music for soloists Joan McMahon, Pleasant Ridge sophomore; Eleanor Dennis, Milford senior; Green Evans, Saginaw junior, and Mary Ann Young, Birmingham senior.

UROC Voting Scheduled to Start Monday

Voting in the UROC Man on Campus contest will start Monday at 1 p.m. and continue until after the Spartacade Saturday night.

Publicity stunts for individual candidates may be performed on the first floor Union Concourse Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday, according to Will Sterzik, UROC chairman.

The stunts must be registered with Alpha Phi Omega, UROC sponsor, 24 hours before they are to be presented.

The stunt ideas must be approved by the sponsoring organization and the Union Board, Sterzik added.

Hannah Plans To Visit Alumni

Representatives of the college will attend three alumni meetings next week.

Pres. John Hannah and Starr Keesler, director of alumni relations, will attend the Port Huron Alumni Club meeting in St. Clair Wednesday night.

Jack Breslin, field secretary of alumni relations, and William L. Davidson, fund director, will speak to Owosso alumni Monday night.

Breslin will attend the club president's meeting in Ludington Wednesday.

Tickets Available For Hess Concert

Tickets are still available at the Union Desk for the concert by pianist Myra Hess Tuesday night in the Auditorium.

Students may also obtain tickets at the desk for next Friday's program of music by the Norwegian Boys Choir.

en. Russell Weeks Dem omination

Georgia Governor To Buck Civil Rights

WASHINGTON (AP)—Richard B. Russell of Georgia is in the race for the Democratic presidential nomination yesterday but left unanswered the question whether he will let the prize go to President Truman.

The 34-year-old balding Senator automatically became a major candidate of the southern Truman Democratic faction which has fought the President's civil rights program and has urged itself to block his re-election.

But Russell himself gave no answer to the chief issue raised in his entry into the race: will he lead a third party or some kind of Truman gets nomination that seems his?

Observing that he didn't bolt 1948 when the States Right took 39 electoral votes from Truman, Russell told a crowded news conference:

"I refer anyone to my record regularly but I do not put my above country."

Conceding that his hopes of winning the nomination are bright, Russell insisted that he gets it he could win in November.

Although Senator George (D-) described Russell as a non-political candidate, it was clear that some of the Georgian's supporters hoped his entry would be the effect of serving notice on Truman that he faces well-organized, politically-smart opposition.

Stassen Calls for 'Dynamic' Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Harold E. Stassen called last night for a "dynamic" new U.S. foreign policy to thwart "the Russian Communist Bear."

He also denounced the foreign programs of President Truman and Senator Taft, calling them "outspoken" and "outspoken."

Stassen, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, said that if elected to White House he would order sweeping reorganization of the Department.

He said he was sharing a responsibility for the soft policies toward Russia which have resulted in "serious failures" would be rectified.

Stassen declared in an address prepared for delivery at a meeting of the Republican Club of the District of Columbia.

Stassen said the "outspoken" of the new foreign policy would be to win a victory for the cause of freedom and democracy, over Communist imperialism, without a world war.

Leap Year Presents Problem Birthdays

MARY LOU FOLGER, News Feature Editor, is celebrating her fifth birthday today.

She is one of those rare people born on Feb. 29, the day that happens just once every four years.

We found students who were born on the 28th. Even March 1 birthdays are common. But a birthday that no one was born on the 29th.

We were even more disbeliever when an engineer informed us that, according to his calculations, the chances of meeting anyone with such a birthday were 1,080,000 to 1.

While we were sitting in the office speculating on this fascinating fact, someone yelled in jest, "Anyone here born on the 29th of February?"

And from behind one of the typewriters came a small voice—"I was."

Potter Drops Fraud Hint At Red Quiz

Defiant Witnesses Figure in Probe

DETROIT (AP)—One defiant witness was threatened with prosecution for fraud at the communism investigation of the House Un-American Activities Committee yesterday.

Two other unwilling witnesses figured in incidents in the aftermath to their refusal to talk on the stand.

One, a newspaper artist, was severed from his job. The second, a factory worker, was taken out of his plant by indignant fellow workers. Both had refused to say whether they were or had been communists.

Meanwhile, the subcommittee conducting the hearing gave up any attempt to conclude today.

The group will recommend to the full committee that the hearing be resumed March 10.

Hardly half of the listed 40 witnesses had taken the stand on the fourth day of the hearing was finished.

The fraud prosecution was threatened against Patrick Rice, vice-president of the CIO United Auto Workers' huge Ford Local 600.

Rep. Potter (R-Mich.) said that Rice's testimony relative to his application for a passport to visit Europe would be examined with the possibility it would be turned over to the Department of Justice.

Potter said that, according to Rice's testimony, he had committed fraud in the application.

The newspaper artist who was severed from his job was Joseph Bernstein, 42, employee of the Detroit News for 23 years.

The News made no comment except to say Bernstein is now a "former employee," Bernstein said.

He said he was dismissed. He said he got severance pay and vacation pay in his last pay check.

Paul Henley, 30, an unwilling witness Wednesday, was escorted from his job by 150 fellow workers in Chrysler Corp's Dodge Engine Plant. He said the workers threatened him.

Norwegian to Talk To Campus Club

A visitor from Norway—Miss O. L. Rydland—will show slides of her native land at the International Club meeting tonight at 8.

All students are invited to attend the meeting in Room 31 of the Union, according to Patsy Patti, publicity chairman.

Soprano to Sing

WKAR will broadcast a 15-minute program at 2:15 p.m. today featuring soprano Margaret Walsh, Bay City senior. She will be accompanied by Sara Rosekrans, Bay City sophomore.

Information Book Union Board Offers Help For Visitors

Visitors or students with questions concerning social aspects of Michigan State campus may find the answers at the Union Board office.

The source of the data is the recently compiled information book on the desk just inside the Board office. It contains a list of stores and restaurants to patronize, hours of campus buildings (such as the Union and Art Buildings) and hours of church services in the vicinity.

Talent available for campus programs and the AWS constitution also fill pages in the book. Moreover, it contains the Union House rules, procedure for renting rooms and all the social and sports events scheduled for the term.

All this information and more may be obtained by stepping into the Board office and questioning the desk worker or by calling the office.

College Visit Slated By Mortar Board

Michigan State Mortar Board members will be the honored guests of Western Michigan senior women's honorary in Kalamazoo Saturday afternoon.

The two groups will discuss Mortar Board's purpose and activities on a college campus. A tour of the campus and Times with Mortar Board's Kalamazoo alumni are also on the day's agenda, said Dorothy Glusker, Mortar Board president.

Civilian production alone calls for 90,000 new engineers by 1954, but only 65,000 will graduate from U.S. engineering schools in this period.

Laziness? Style or Not, Bucks to Stay

Bucks and white hobby socks are here to stay it seems, but why? Why do MSC students dash around campus in footwear hitherto worn only in the tropics or on the gym floor?

Laziness is the chief reason coeds and men offer when questioned. Coeds cry it is too hard to plan a week's wardrobe so colorful socks will match their skirts and sweaters. Men say they don't have to polish bucks "cause everyone knows how they just 'pick up' everything."

A few coeds when questioned, whether hesitant about admitting the true reason or not, claim they wear white shoes and socks because it is the style.

Style or not, they will stay as instructors will continue to announce before exams any coed not in bucks may be excused from in bucks may be excused from the test without a word of having to excuse a single person.

Block and Bridle, I-H Plan Party

Members of the Block and Bridle and the campus 4-H Clubs will don jeans for a Sadie Hawkins party in the livestock pavilion from 9-12 tonight.

Square dancing, polkas and games are planned for the evening.

The party is open to all 4-H and Block and Bridle members and their guests, according to Don Harmer, party chairman.

Style Show To Feature Comic Talk

The style show, "Look Before You Leap," scheduled for March 5 in the Union hall-room will feature a comedy narration as the models hit the runway. It is sponsored by the Retailing Club and Union Board.

Spritely comments will come from Joanne Bubolz, E. Lansing senior, and Jack Chandler, the topic, Betty Coed's mumbbling, Leap Year variety.

Twenty-one coeds and 11 men will model gay spring costumes suggested for wear and tear at Spring term's Spinster Spin, Push Cart Race, and assorted picnics.

Show previews will be full of skirts in novelty patterns and ballooned with lots of petticoats. Topping the skirts will be huge, shirred blouses.

Novelty touches come in peck of sizes. They pretend to be merely decorative, but they're really large enough to hold a two-sandwich lunch.

That's the spring fashion preview for Joe and Jane College and what's more, it's for free.

Talk Slated For Sunday

Dr. Harold N. Skidmore, superintendent of the Michigan Congregational Christian Conference, will give the third in a series of denominational addresses during Campus Vespers Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the sanctuary of People's Church. Dr. Skidmore's subject will be "Congregational Christian Heritage."

The student-led worship service will be headed by Katherine Amy, Wixom Junior, Wynette junior, Sally Story, Grand Rapids senior will be the soloist with Mary Lou Hamill of the Student Orator Guild at the organ.

Following the vesper service, an "Invest Your Summer" forum will be held off the youth parlors on the second floor. Available service projects for students will be discussed. The evening will be closed with a Coffee Hour.

Services sponsored by the Christian Student Foundation are open to the public.

Sigma Nu Defeats Phi Delta Theta

Winners Hold Early Lead to Take Crown

By DON CAMERON
Sigma Nu reigned again as king of fraternity basketball as a result of last night's 28-13 triumph over Phi Delta Theta.

The repeating champions wasted no time in revealing that they had no intentions of relinquishing their title by rushing to a 14-3 lead with a phenomenal exhibition of long set shots.

The winners' balanced scoring attack paid off heavily as all five starters shared in the opening outburst. Don Cook led the attack with eight points. Norm Knudsen and Don Shaw had five each, while John Bachman was tops for the Phi Deltis with five.

The steady game-by-game consistency that has marked Sigma Nu's play all season long stamps it as one of the favorites in next week's all-college finals.

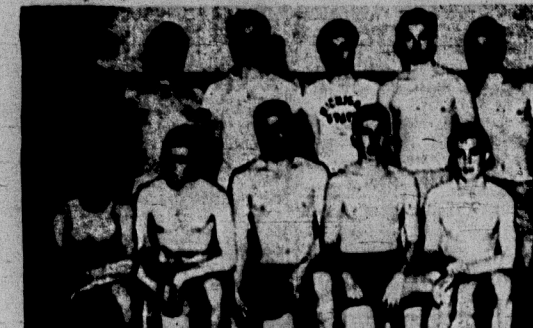

In a much closer contest, W. Shaw hit its peak performance to come out on top in a game that was all tied with only a minute remaining. Dick Humphrey got the all-important goal that gave Shaw the win.

It was a heartbreaking loss for Mason who had overcome an 11-3 halftime deficit only to succumb to Humphrey's late basket. Jack Zettler used a sensational jump shot that accounted for 14 of Mason's 19 tallies in a one-man attempt to forestall the defeat. Carl Fry led Shaw with 11 markers, followed by Humphrey with eight.

Six teams, including the Sigma Nu and Shaw quintets, will open the all college tourney Monday with one game scheduled. The other four, hopefully get into action on Tuesday night.

Probable Big Ten Track Entry Named

Michigan State's entry for the Big Ten track and field meet has been tentatively named by Coach Karl Schlade-man, and will include a squad of 21 men.

The conference final is set for the Armory at Champaign, Ill., March 7-8, with the University of Illinois defending its championship.

Woodling Said Nearly Ready For Joe's Spot

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe DiMaggio, who came to town to sign another lucrative television contract, put a finger on Gene Woodling yesterday the man probably best qualified to fill his old centerfield spot with the New York Yankees.

"Woodling is the best fielder of the lot," the Yankee Clipper told an uptown press conference. "He is fast and can cover the ground. The only problem would be his arm."

"Right now I'd say Jackie Jensen has a little edge over Mickey Mantle. Mickey is going to be a great player but he has a lot to learn about outfielding." DiMaggio, lean and tanned after a winter on the Pacific Coast, talked baseball while putting his name on a new contract that will boost his 1952 earnings above anything he ever made as a ball player.

He signed for a quarter-hour series over NBC to be known as "Joe DiMaggio's Dugout." It will be seen Sundays from 11:45 a.m. to 12 noon (EST) and will be aimed at teaching the fundamentals of the game to youngsters.

The sponsors said the program would start April 6 and extend for 26 weeks. DiMaggio already has signed to do commentary on Yankee games at a reported $50,000-a-year figure. His new job will net him about as much.

Asked if his television job would surpass his reported $90,000 to $100,000 last year, DiMaggio said: "Just about I should make a little more, I guess."

Newcomers Carry Hope Of Spartan

By GEORGE WEISS
With the Big Ten championships only a week away, Coach Charles McCaffrey swimmers bring their meet competition to a close against Pittsburgh tomorrow, 2:30 in Jensen Pool.

McCaffrey last night indicated that he plans on having a year men carry the load against Pitt. The answer to whether Michigan State cops national conference honors rests with newcomers.

In the 300-yard medley event Hal St. will swim the stroke and Hynes will stroke the freestyle leg.

St. Schuchman will swim the 100-yard freestyle leg, while Hynes will swim the 100-yard breaststroke leg. Lachlan in the 220-yard freestyle event. If McCaffrey doesn't in the quarter mile, Dave McMan and Bob Wightman are expected to be the MSC entries.

Jack Hellewege and Don McWilliams will dive off the lowboard. Hellewege is making his first appearance since suffering head injuries in the last meet when he struck the end of the board.

Acting Capt. Rod Quigley will be joined by Bob Duff in the 200-yard backstroke.

McCaffrey is undecided in the 200-yard breaststroke event. Dick Robie is slated to be joined by either Ron Ridgeway, Ed Aldrich, or Jim Weitzman.

Dave Steimle and Larry Johnson will be swimming in the individual medley while Pat and Egler are entered in the yard freestyle sprint.

Freestylers Clark Schuchman, Chuck Baldwin, Schuchman, Payette, and Egler will provide the talent for the 100-yard freestyle and the 400-yard freestyle relay, but McCaffrey declined to give a definite line for these events.

Saturday's meet will be the last dual meet competition for six seniors. They are: Quigley, Mack Goodman, Weismann, Robie, and Schuchman.

State's only entry in the pole vault will be Arnold Smith.

Dawson Completes Coaching Staff For Pitt Gridders

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Lowell (Red) Dawson, new football coach of the University of Pittsburgh, yesterday completed reorganization of his staff for spring drills.

Dawson said both Ernie Hefler, freshman coach this past season, and Bob Timmons, coach since 1947, will coach the ends and the offensive backfield.

Harold Lahar, new line coach, will be assisted by Steve Petro and Walter Cummins. Edgar Jones, backfield coach in 1951, will take over pass defense.

Jack Burke Leads Baton Rouge Open

BATON-ROUGE, La. (AP)—Jack Burke, a dead-eyed Texan who uses a driver with the accuracy of a six-shooter, fired a four under par 68 to take the lead yesterday in the first round of the $10,000 Baton Rouge open golf tournament.

Bowlers to Meet

The bowling teams from Michigan State, the University of Michigan, Michigan Normal and Wayne University will meet this Saturday at the Michigan Normal Union Alleys in Ypsilanti. The four-way match will begin at 2 p.m.

The MSC team and individual season averages thus far includes Ted Pomatowski, 168; Stan Kufman, 184; Leroy Smith, 183; Jerry Peterson, 183; and Don Siegan, 182. The team average is 920 pins.

The battle of the bulge left George Poschner, a triple amputee, but it did not deter him from the game.

Poschner, now 33, walks on artificial legs, has a paralyzed left arm and hand and only part of star Georgia end to be a college the other hand.

The fingers on his right hand and his legs below the knee were amputated because they were frozen while he lay on a battlefield in Germany. The paralysis was caused by the wounds in his head and left shoulder.

Poschner was attacking a German machine gun nest when he was hit by a sniper's bullet on Jan. 8, 1945. It took three days for medical corpsmen to rescue him.

"I can't demonstrate how it should be done," Poschner said of his football coaching ambitions, but I know the game, and I can pick up one of the brighter boys to demonstrate. Or an assistant coach can do it."

He pointed out that Coach Paul Brown of Cleveland's professional team doesn't have to get in and charge against his 200-plus pounders in order to tutor them.

The handicapped veteran actually has tried coaching. Last season he helped teach fundamentals to the line men of Youngstown Chaney High School, his alma mater.

Poschner last week started work as an information clerk in the Mahoning county courthouse. A bachelor he lives with his widowed mother and he welcomed the chance for the clerk's job.

"It's a good job," he explained, "but when tail rolls around I just think about football. That's been my life."

Handicaps Don't Dim His Ambition

YOUNGSTOWN, O. (AP)—Poschner, the former football coach, applied at the University of Tampa just as soon as I heard Frank Sinkwich was leaving. Poschner said today.

Sinkwich, Youngstown's All-American halfback played on the same Georgia team with Poschner, whose senior season was in 1942.

Cagers Seek Three Goals in U of M Tilt

By TOM RYAN

Michigan State basketball team will be seeking three goals when it faces the University of Michigan Saturday night at Jenison Fieldhouse.

Playing their final home game of the 1951-52 season, the Spartans, with a victory, could attain their most successful season in 10 years.

A win would also assure State of at least a tie for fifth place in the Big Ten and avenge an earlier defeat at the hands of Michigan.

Not since 1941-42 has a Spartan cage team been able to win over 12 games during one season. This year's squad, with a 12-8 record and two games remaining, could rank as one of the top seven in MSC basketball history.

Only six Michigan State teams have won more than 13 games in 52 years of intercollegiate basketball competition.

Holding a 3-7 slate in Big Ten play, the Spartans need but one victory to clinch a first-division berth, Ohio State, with a 5-8 record, trails the Spartans.

The Buckeyes could tie State for fifth by winning its remaining game while the Spartans split their final two contests.

In their first meeting this year at Ann Arbor, the Wolverines upset MSC, 50-35. The Spartans had for only 17 per cent of their field goals attempts in what Newell terms as, "State's poorest display of basketball in two years."

Michigan has won six and lost 13 this season and is currently tied with Purdue for possession of last place in the Western Conference.

Captain Jim Skala, a 6'3" forward, and Milt Mead, 6'5" center, are the Wolverines top scorers. In 20 games, Skala leads the team in scoring with 224 points followed by Mead's 221 tallies.

The Spartans have only one player over the 200 point mark. Sophomore Keith Stackhouse has scored 213 points in 18 games.

Gymnastics Team Faces Michigan

Spartans in Last Meet of Season

The Michigan State gymnastics team, assured of its most successful season since the sport was inaugurated in 1945, will have its final meet tomorrow night at Ann Arbor against the University of Michigan.

This year climaxes the work of Coach George Szypula, who moved in East Lansing in 1948 to organize MSC's first gymnastics team. In five short years Szypula developed a squad that is favored to win the Big Ten title.

Michigan's record this year stands at four wins and one loss, their only defeat coming at the hands of Illinois by a 67-53 margin. Michigan State in turn whipped the Illini, 53-43.

In the Detroit Turners meet last month, the Wolverines finished far behind State, although both squads were not at full strength.

The all-around trio of Connie Pitt, Harry Luchs, and Mary Johnson are expected to furnish most of the offensive power of Michigan's Duncan Erler, rated as one of the better tumblers in the Midwest, will be pitted against State's Don Vest.

The Spartans will have Bob Feldmeier, Carl Rintz, and Russ Paul on the apparatus. Al Hannas, John Walker, and Tom Mullineux on trampolines, and Don Vest, John Furry, and Walker in tumbling.

Spartan hockey Co-Capt. Bill McCormick tries to block a Gopher passout as Hal Passerini stands behind the cage. Gopher goalie, Jim Matt.

Three Hockey Team Seniors Close Careers Against U of M

Members of Michigan State hockey team will have an incentive to win when the Spartans face off against the Michigan Wolverines in the home and home series Friday and Saturday nights.

The first game will be played at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor Saturday night. The Spartans will move to Ann Arbor Saturday to finish out the season.

It will be the final try for the seniors to help their mates. The Michigan jinx which has plagued the Spartans since they were ousted from the Big Ten was resumed on the Spartans' trip to Ann Arbor.

Although neither contest will count in the Midwest Intercollegiate Hockey League standings, the series figures to be of vital importance to the Wolverines.

They still have one remaining league game with Michigan Tech. and if they win that one they will tie with Denver for second place in the league.

Colorado has already secured things up as far as the title is concerned. But the league sends two representatives to the NCAA playoffs later this month. In the event of a tie for second place the team with the best record would advance.

The red-headed field has been the regular Spartan goal tender throughout the three seasons and would like nothing better than to end his career with a victory over Michigan.

Spartan Coach, Anne Bergone, who has alternated field with George Bergan as the MSC goalie this season, plans to give the senior both games in which to accomplish the task.

McCormick also has been a regular for the Spartans for three years. Last year he led the team in scoring and is currently third behind Jack Mayes and Weldie Olson.

Finneran, although not a regular, has proved very valuable to the Spartans all year as a strong reserve.

The Spartans' John Substad, another reserve forward, is listed as a senior scholastically, but he still has another year of eligibility.

The Wolverines will present a power-packed squad that has rampaged through its schedule while losing very few games. The two men largely responsible for their 8-2 league record are goalie Willard Holt and center Bob Heathcott, the leading scorer for the Wolves.

State has a 7-11 record and Coach Bergone would like to end things with a convincing win over the Wolverines.

Carlton, while Vita Perrone will go against Holt.

Spartan heavyweight, Tarts Fowler will attempt to end Tarts' string. Fowler has lost but once this season.

Only one Spartan sport, an undefeated record, Chris Fowler has racked up seven wins, while being held to one draw. The deal, back came last week with Bud Holmboe, captain of the Michigan team.

State's 157 pound starter, Bob Hoke, has compiled seven wins in eight matches, and will face Indiana's Chuck Pankow.

After losing his first start to Don Ryan of Wisconsin, two weeks ago, Hoke resumed his winning ways by defeating Michigan's Miley Lee.

Against Indiana, Pankow is due to face Kiv Hutell at 166 pounds. At 137 for the Spartans, Dick Gunner will see action for the first time, at this weight against Bill Garland. Gunner has moved up from 120 while Ed Castella, who has shifted from his usual 137 spot to 130. Castella will face Harry Arthur.

Either Dick Thornton or freshman Chuck Wallin will represent the Spartans at 127. Dick Barnhart fills this spot for Indiana.

Following this meet, Coach Fendley Collins' team will have a week to prepare for the Big Ten meet, to be held in Ann Arbor, March 1-8.

Three Senior Gymnasts Bid Farewell

By BOB LEWIS

The seniors will be competing in their last dual match for Saturday when the Spartan basketball team travels to Ann Arbor to meet the University of Michigan.

Bob Feldmeier, all-around and single-event men Al Hannas and Don Vest have all been instrumental in State's meet winning streak. Coach George Szypula's biggest problem next year will be finding men to replace them.

Priddy Ranks As Only Tiger '52 Holdout

DETROIT (AP)—Veteran infielder Jerry Priddy had one distinction yesterday about which he was not too happy. He remained the only Detroit Tiger who has not signed a 1952 contract.

Priddy was left alone in the unsavory class when outfielder Johnny Groth reached contract terms with the club yesterday.

The Detroited outfielder reportedly signed for $16,000—a cut of about $2,000 over his 1951 contract.

Priddy, who has been at the Tigers' Lakeland, Fla., training camp as a spectator has rejected a couple of offers from the Tiger front office. He will not be classed as a "holdout" unless he is still unsigned Saturday when the Tigers' full squad begins practice.

The Tiger front office also disclosed yesterday that it has not received the signed contract which pitcher Hal Newhouse reportedly mailed from Florida. Newhouse told newsmen there early this week that he had accepted the club's terms and mailed the contract along.

Boxing Team Faces Terps Here Tonight

Unbeaten Heavies Tangle

A pair of undefeated heavyweights will tangle in the main attraction tonight when the Spartans entertain the Maryland Terrapins at 8 o'clock in Jenison Fieldhouse.

NCAA champion Chuck Spieser will take over injured Alex "Bakins" spot tonight. His opponent will be Cal Quenstedt who has three wins and a draw so far this year. However, Coach Makris has announced that the two may go at 175 pounds.

Maryland's light-heavyweight contender Jim Stewart injured his elbow before the Terps' contest with Army and Quenstedt may fill his spot tonight. In this case Makris will shift Spieser back to 150 pounds and State will take the heavyweight bout for forfeit.

Although Quenstedt has the best record on the Maryland team so far this year, Coach Frank Cronin has rugged contenders in every division. Two juniors, featherweight Jackie Letzer and 139-pounder Bob Theohold, have only one defeat to mar their records.

Most of the Terp team is made up of sophomores and they have found the going pretty rough in the collegiate ranks.

Middleweight Ronnie Rhodes has one win, two losses, and a draw. 156-pounder Bill McInnis has one win, one loss, and a draw. George Fisher, welterweight, has broken even in four bouts. The remaining team member is junior Dave Schaffer, 132-pounder. Schaffer has yet to win a match.

Makris has jugged his lineup considerably to meet the Maryland threat. The biggest shake-up puts Herb Odum at the 156-pound spot against McInnis. Odum has fought at 139 pounds and 147 pounds but this is his first start in the heavier bracket.

Jimmy Evans and Norm Andrie will be at their old stations against the Terps. Evans probably has the toughest task of the two against Letzer. NCAA champ Jed Black will be at 147 pounds again tonight after his knockout win against Minnesota.

Tom Hickey moves back to the 165-pound position against Rhodes. He will be seeking his sixth win. Leon Hamilton as listed at 178 pounds but he may not fight in Maryland for a bout.

The first match of the evening will be an exhibition between Leroy Jeffery and Terrapin Jerry Garber. Jeffery's shuffling style has carried him to three wins so far this year.

The Detroit freshman is a terrific crowd pleaser.

Both the Terrapins and Spartans have one defeat and a draw on their records. The Spartans lost to Gonzaga while Maryland drew with Citadel and lost to South Carolina.

Carl Schladehan's famous "grand slam" cross country team that won the IC4A, NAAU and NCAA in 1948, a feat unparalleled in cross country history. In track, he led two Spartan teams that were ranked the best in the nation.

His 4:11 mile in the IC4A meet still stands as an indoor record. His best outdoor mile mark was 4:12 in beating Ohio State's Lenny Truex. Indoors, his best time is a cinder-burning 4:09.6, also against the Buckeyes.

Dodds said that one of the reasons for Mack's recent track success is the layover he had from the time he quit running for State until he took to the track again. Gil said that he himself ran some of his best races after he resumed running again after once quitting the track circuit.

Mack said that the long rest period helped him "mentally." "A distance runner gets nervous running and a long rest relaxes him so that he is at his peak when he runs again."

Bill had a forced vacation because of AAU rules. Until the rules were changed this year, an athlete that was classified as a graduate assistant wasn't classified as an amateur.

His first comeback race was in the Milwaukee Journal mile event. He finished fourth. However, since then he has won the Michigan AAU mile and beat Wilt in the much talked about event Feb. 16.

Bill hopes to gain a berth on the Olympic team either in the 1,500 or 5,000 meter events. Druetzler, who is regarded as one of the best 3,000 meter steeplechase runners in the nation is almost a sure bet in this event.

When Saturday's Columbian mile winner is decided, Mack will get a good chance to see if he will be on ship when the Olympic team shoves off.

Olympics Next?

By ALEX LAGGIS
State News Sports Editor

Madison Square Garden, located in the heart of New York City, has been the scene of most of America's great indoor track and field performances.

It was here on Jan. 31, 1948 that the "Flying Parson," Gil Dodds, ran a 4:05.3 indoor mile for a new world's record. Unnoticed at the time, Bill Mack, running his first year for Michigan State, finished second.

At a banquet before the recent Michigan State Relays, I had the honor of talking to Gil, who is now head-track coach of Wheaton College. Talking about the coming Olympics, Gil said, "one of the best and coming distance runners is Bill Mack."

The next night, Mack, running in the NAAU meet in the Garden, pulled one of the biggest upsets of the indoor track season by beating favored Fred Wilt. Bill overtook the FBI man in a terrific finish to end up with a time of 4:11.4.

Warren Druetzler, another Spartan product, and now stationed at Ft. Lee, Va., finished fourth.

Mack will get his biggest chance of the year Saturday to show the experts that Dodds' prediction is true.

Mack, Wilt, Don Gehrman and Druetzler will run in a special four-man mile race in the annual New York Knights of Columbus track classic.

Bill, who is now a graduate assistant in physical education, came to State from Drake. He only ran two years for the Spartans but they were great ones. He was the main cog on Coach Karl Schladehan's famous "grand slam" cross country team that won the IC4A, NAAU and NCAA in 1948, a feat unparalleled in cross country history. In track, he led two Spartan teams that were ranked the best in the nation.

His 4:11 mile in the IC4A meet still stands as an indoor record. His best outdoor mile mark was 4:12 in beating Ohio State's Lenny Truex. Indoors, his best time is a cinder-burning 4:09.6, also against the Buckeyes.

Basic College Proposals Questioned

Views Vary on Course Changes

Instructors Weigh Merits Of Curriculum

Divergent opinions are evident among members of MSC's instruction staff over proposed revisions in the Basic College curriculum.

A spot check of faculty opinion bears this out, although many of those contacted declined comment.

The revisions under discussion would consolidate the seven Basic College courses into four, and fit with long-range plans for revamping all college courses.

Several persons said the revision is too far-reaching to be considered without a great deal of study.

Prof. John R. Snell of the School of Engineering said:

"The concept of the Basic College is sound and should be continued. It will benefit the engineer professionally and materially and better prepare him to take leadership."

"The Basic College should be studied from within and without. Course material should be in the art of living and in building an inspired democracy to win today's ideological war."

"The consolidation idea is sound, but mature judgement and objective deliberation will be necessary to give proper coverage to the right choice of material."

"Professional level scientific courses must replace eight of the 15 credits of the proposed basic science course to allow engineering graduates to compete successfully with graduates of other universities."

Some instructors gave the opinion that consolidated education for all might not be as useful as the present arrangement. They believe there would not be sufficient time to cover all phases of the work under the new plan.

One instructor felt the change would force instructors' commitment in one specific field to teach another subject with which they were more or less unfamiliar.

Others felt that there was enough common background between basic courses like Effective Living and Social Science, the Biological and Physical Sciences, and Literature, and Fine Arts and the History of Civilization to allow successful combination.

An upper school instructor stated that he felt the "common background" of knowledge acquired in basic courses, as provided, would be an asset to students and instructors in the upper school.

Brody

"The $240,000 spent in building the two additional floors for Kellogg Center came from non-tax funds of self-liquidating bond issues used in constructing all campus buildings except classrooms. The funds were not appropriated by the legislature, Brody explained.

In furnishing the two additional floors, the college used $280,000 in surplus funds available from excess veterans' fees during the 1948-49 fiscal year.

Plans for the Center, started in 1946, included five floors.

On advice of architects and others, the Board decided to eliminate lodging rooms proposed for the remodeled Union Building and instead added two floors to the Center, Brody said.

It was never proposed to construct these additional floors with funds appropriated by the legislature or derived from tax sources, he declared.

Instructor to Sing

There was a pot of gold at the end of the leap when John Donahue, encircled, Grosse Pointe freshman, jumped into the Red Cedar River from the Foot Bridge yesterday. He collected $6 in bets.

Polar Bear Freshmen Join Ducks for Paddle in Cedar

Two students took a pre-spring splash in the Red Cedar yesterday.

Amid snow flurries, Stan Stokus, Kalamazoo freshman, and John Donahue, Grosse Pointe freshman, dove into the Red Cedar from the Farm Lane and Electrical Engineering bridges.

And the motive? Money.

Donahue explained his plunge this way:

"A guy bet me $6 that I wouldn't jump. I've got a couple of dates this weekend and could use the money, so I thought I'd take him up on it."

Has he won the wager? "Cold."

A crowd gathered on the Electrical Engineering bridge to watch Donahue's leap. Earlier Stokus had taken a dive off the other bridge.

A few minutes after Donahue's big jump, he was found shivering in the EE Building and clutching $6.

"I was offered $7 if I would dive off, but I didn't want to try that," he said.

Donahue estimated that the spot where he landed was about six to eight feet deep. "I hit bottom when I jumped," he said. "But I'd do it again," he added, for six bucks.

When contacted later, Stokus stated that he, too, would do it over for a price.

But that river was really cold, he claimed.

Orchestra to Play Music Composed By Former Student

"Hailin' Suite," by Ruth Foster, former MSC student, will be featured by the Michigan State Symphony Orchestra in a concert at 4 p.m. Sunday in the Auditorium.

Foster's suite is the thesis he submitted for his Master's degree in Composition at State in 1939. It consists of three movements, portraying parts of Hailin' life.

WJAR and WJAR-FM will broadcast the concert, which will be directed by Alexander Schuster.

Film Planned For Engineers

The Young Engineering Teachers Club will meet at 11 a.m. today in Room 217 of the Woodshop.

A movie on formation and use of crystals for electric circuits and appliances will be shown.

Each member is asked to bring a problem related to testing procedures, according to Paul Kyburz, mechanical engineering instructor and secretary of the group.

Spartacade To Sell Booklet On Program

An eight-page program is being prepared for Spartacade, describing all events and their location. The booklet will go on sale March 7 at the Union Desk and will also be sold at the event Saturday.

Plans have been set for 31 booths, refreshment stands and sidehows at the annual carnival event, according to Bob Scott, Spartacade publicity director.

Strings of colored lights will give a carnival atmosphere to the carnival.

Scott urged all living groups to emphasize lighting effects in their booth construction.

Profits from the 15-cent admission charge will be given to Campus Chest, he added. Charged for the first time this year, the admission will cover costs of material and construction.

FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE FOR WINTER 1952

The last day of classes for Winter Term is Thursday, March 13, 1952. All final examinations will be given by the following schedule. The time of the examinations in Basic Courses can be found in Col. 3 and 5 according to the course number of the particular Basic course. Examination rooms for Basic courses will be announced at a later date.

The time of examinations in sections other than Basic courses are determined by the days and hours the class is scheduled during the term. To determine when your examination is to be given, find the block in Columns 2, 4, 5 or 6, which lists the days and hours of your class. The column heading will indicate the time of day and column 1 will then give the date on which your examination is to be held.

Examinations for courses other than Basic courses will be given in the same classroom as assigned for class meetings at the end of the term. All students, instructors, and room schedules will automatically clear if all courses follow this schedule.

NOTE: At least two of the days and hours must follow the regular pattern. In a few courses, at the request of the department concerned, the final examination has been scheduled by the single hour lecture-section and in some instances students may encounter conflicts. In these event the examination scheduled by the class meeting two hours a week would take precedence over the examination scheduled by the single hour lecture. The examination would have to be arranged between the student and the department requesting the special scheduling of its examination.

If there are any questions, call Mr. Reppenhagen in the Registrar's Office (Ext. 501).

POW Exchange Talks Hit Snag

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—Senior armistice delegates yesterday took over the long-deadlocked issue of exchanging prisoners. The Allies again asked the Reds to swap complete information on all prisoners of war.

The meeting today brings together U.S. Rear Adm. R. E. Libby and Korean Red Maj. Gen. Lee Sang Cho, acting as subcommittee of one for the full delegations.

Staff officers stalemated on the truce supervision issue scheduled a session at the same time. They are deadlocked, among other things, on the Reds insistence that Russia be accepted as a neutral nation to help police a truce.

The prisoner exchange issue was re-referred to the senior delegates after yesterday's fruitless meetings. Staff officers have reached virtual agreement on all points except the issue of voluntary repatriation of prisoners.

The Communists insist that all prisoners be returned regardless of individual wishes. The staff officers spent 22 days debating the issue.

Meanwhile Allied fighters and light bombers blasted new holes in the Communist supply lines in North Korea yesterday. Light patrol contact marked the ground action.

There was some artillery and mortar fire.

Sleek U.S. F-86 Sabre jets hunted for MIGs on the south side of the winding Yalu River boundary of Manchuria. The Reds stayed home.

That left the U.S. Fifth Force free to concentrate on "Operation Strangle" - hard-hitting bombing and fire attacks aimed at cutting off Red lifelines from China.

Some 625 sorties were made and black-painted B-26 bombers were searching for convoys which normally move at night.
