Taft Leads In Illinois Primary

Eisenhower Draws Big Write-In Vote

By The Associated Press
Senator Taft of Ohio led in the first returns from Illinois' primary elections last night with Harold E. Stassen and Riley Bender of Chicago running a poor second and third.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower drew a healthy number of write-in ballots while Senator Kefauver of Tennessee, the only Democratic entry, rolled up a vote unchallenged by write-ins for Illinois Gov. Adlai Stevenson.

The first 2,327 precincts out of a total of 9,610 showed: Republicans—Taft 168,936, Stassen 28,535, Bender 6,274. Write-ins (2,317 precincts): Eisenhower 22,758, MacArthur 1,645, Warren 42. Democrats—(1,158 precincts of 9,610) Kefauver 69,322. Write-ins (22 downstate precincts, Cook County reporting later): Russell 1, Stevenson 306, Senator Douglas 1, Truman 7.

Warm spring weather brought out a heavy vote with brisk interest in the new political technique of write-in votes for presidential choices.

The voting ran from 6 a.m. to 5 p.m. (CST) and reports from over the state gave reason to believe the count may pass the 2 million mark. In Chicago, the voting at noon was running at a record clip.

The top attraction is the presidential popularity contest in which supporters of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower once again are trying to muster a sizeable write-in vote against Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, whose names appear on the ballot.

President Fears New Dictatorship

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman declared last night that unless mass suffering in the world is wiped out, "it may be used in the future by some new dictatorship more terrible even than the Soviet."

He told an international gathering that the free countries, through mutual assistance, "are preventing conquest and world war."

"We have bought time—we have bought it at a great cost in lives and money," the President said.

He added that the time must be used to help peoples improve their own lot or the goal of true peace will never be reached.

Truman spoke at the National Conference on International Economic and Social Development, which is discussing the administration's "Point Four" program of technical assistance to underdeveloped areas of the world. Chairman of the conference is Michigan State College President John A. Hannah.

"Mass suffering has been used by every dictatorship of our times as a stepping stone to power," he said. "Today it is the weapon of Soviet imperialism. Unless it is wiped out, it may be used in the future by some new dictatorship more terrible even than the Soviet."

"To have peace, we must strike at the conditions of misery that envelop half the people of the earth. That is the purpose and the meaning of Point Four."

Industry Leaders Charge Illegality

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The federal government seized the steel industry under a history-making presidential order tonight and the CIO United Steelworkers immediately called off their midnight strike.

City Council Turns Down Loudspeaker

Spartan Magazine Request Refused

Spartan Magazine editors were refused permission to tour East Lansing with a loudspeaker Monday night, after the East Lansing city council pointed out that their Monday night meeting that a city ordinance prohibits such action.

The ordinance states that no one can use a loudspeaker to advertise or sell goods or services.

Spartan Business Manager Don Smith had requested permission to drive in the vicinity of fraternity and sorority houses announcing sale of the magazine.

The council awarded Kenneth C. Black authority to draw up revised plans for the new city garage at Valley Court. Plans, which had been drawn up for a garage at the city park, would not suit the new location without revision. City Manager John M. Patriarche told the council.

New plans call for a heavier foundation for the garage, enabling the city to add a second story sometime in the future.

A complaint by two eight-family apartment house owners requesting improvement of an alley which runs off Bogue street behind their houses was referred to the city engineer for consideration.

Responsibility for a water bill incurred by the operators of Sparty's Grill was assumed by the building owners, the Hicks brothers, when the city council agreed to remove penalties from the overdue bill, reducing the amount from $148.03 to $85.14.

The operators of Sparty's had subleased the restaurant, and left the water bill unpaid when they were forced to close. The council reduced the amount when the Hicks explained that they had tried to guard against being left with the bill after a similar circumstance had occurred two years ago.

No action will be taken until next week on the new city hall. City Manager Patriarche stated.

Patriarche added that construction for widening Grand River may begin some time next week.

The Communications Workers of America (CWA) denied any knowledge yesterday of how or by whom communications cables in Ohio were slashed Monday night.

The slashed cables virtually crippled communications in and out of Ohio.

NBC television transmitter cables were also slashed between Akron and Cleveland Monday night.

Settlement of the strike seems rather remote at the present with the union still holding out for an average pay boost of 23 cents an hour and Bell Telephone offering a raise of approximately 9.9 cents per hour.

Coffee Hour Set
The graduate student coffee hour will be held Friday from 4 to 5:30 in Room 221 Physics-Mathematics Building. This is a weekly event, according to Dean Thomas H. Osgood.

Truman's Announcement Followed by Only 30 Minutes a Break-Off in Negotiations in New York Between Management and Union Leaders with Nathan Feinsinger, Chairman of the Wage Stabilization Board.

Industry leaders declared emphatically their intention of fighting the seizure. They argue it is illegal.

Tonight's history-making events were the climax of a wage dispute which already had shaken Truman's mobilization high command.

Charles E. Wilson quit as mobilization director in protest against the Wage Stabilization Board's wage-hoarding proposal which, he said, was a "serious threat" to economic stabilization.

WSB recommended a wage increase of 17 1/2 cents an hour, plus other major benefits. Take-home pay of CIO steelworkers is now slightly under $2 an hour.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams announced yesterday that he would probably be unable to attend the luncheon in honor of General Douglas MacArthur at the Kellogg Center May 15.

In a letter to Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak), chairman of the special legislative reception committee, Williams stated: "In my official capacity as governor of Michigan, I shall do all in my power to show General MacArthur every courtesy due him as a General of the Army and a great military leader."

Williams accepted an invitation to join the receiving committee for the general at the airport and to participate in the program planned for the evening in the House of Representatives. He also offered his office in the Capitol as a reception room.

A heavy schedule caused by the final day of the legislative session and preparations for a trip were given by Williams as reasons for his inability to attend the Kellogg Center luncheon.

Eisenhower's Resignation Rumored

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, ALLIED POWERS IN EUROPE (AP)—The best available sources close to General Eisenhower expressed belief yesterday he is resigning in a letter to be delivered at the White House Thursday. They said a letter was started on its way Monday to Defense Secretary Robert A. Lovett.

House Extends War Powers

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House late yesterday passed a stop-gap bill to extend President Truman's emergency war powers after the Japanese treaty takes effect.

Three Issues Undecided in Korea

MUNSAN (AP)—The Korean armistice negotiations rounded out their ninth month yesterday with three basic issues unsettled. But an air of compromise persisted. The Allies asked, in effect, for plain talk instead of obscure Communist hints of compromise.

For Laine-Page Concert

Ticket-Seekers Line Union Concourse

Students lined up across the Union concourse yesterday to buy tickets for the Frankie Laine-Patti Page concert April 28 in the Auditorium.

According to the Union Ticket Office, there are still tickets at all prices—$3, $2.50, $2 and $1.50—for this Lecture-Concert Series supplement.

Other members of the "Biggest Show of 1952" include Billy May and his orchestra, Illinois Jacquet on the saxophone, and the Choclateers, a comedy group.

Also on the three-hour program will be Jay Lawrence and Don Rice, comedians, and a dance team, the Clark Brothers.

The "Biggest Show" is in its second year of national performance. Last year's show starred Nat "King" Cole, Duke Ellington and Sarah Vaughan.

Following opening night, April 12, in Washington, D.C., "The Biggest Show of 1952" will begin the road approximately 30 days. In that time it will make 42 appearances across the nation.

Henley said the students gave their enrollment cards to friends who registered the first day. The friends had registration officials initial the cards and picked up class cards.

The real owners of the enrollment cards enrolled at their regular time, concealing the class cards until they were past the fee checkers, and then checked out.

A few registrants were found with previously obtained class cards on the second day of registration. But most of them were caught on the last day at unclassified registration, stated Henley.

After registration officials became aware that class cards were being circulated, they set up three checking points where enrollment cards were examined for evidence of initialing. The checking points were at the entrance, the preliminary, and at the fee checkers' desks.

When class cards were found, they were turned back to the departments, and the students holding them were told to get them over again at unclassified registration.

"There is nothing more we can do about this situation except to go back to a first come, first served basis on registration," Henley stated.

He pointed out that the present system was worked out with representatives of the Student Congress and that they thought it was as equitable as possible.

He explained that before the present system when the college enrollment was smaller, the students who got in line first registered first.

Grand River's Name Changed By Governor

Governor Williams yesterday signed a bill which changes the name of Grand River Avenue to Arthur Vandenberg Memorial Highway.

East Lansing, City Manager John M. Patriarche stated he did not believe the dedication calls for changing the street signs on the highway within East Lansing but could not forecast what action the city council might take.

Aqua Carnival Sketches Due

Theme sketches for the spring term Water Carnival are due next Tuesday, theme committee chairman Phyllis Phipps, announced. The plans will be returned the next day to participants.

Thirty entries will be contesting for four trophies in the annual event June 3, 6, and 7. Individuals can also compete for four prizes in the way of log-burbling, canoe tilting, mixed doubles canoe races, and men's doubles canoe races.

Tigers, Dodgers Unload Big Bats To Pound Out Exhibition Wins

ATLANTA (AP)—Matt Batts, Cliff Mages, Neil Berry, Pat Mullin and Ben Taylor blasted home runs yesterday to help the Detroit Tigers to a 10-4 victory over the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern Association in an exhibition game.

Only 962 fans saw the Tigers win their fourth straight from minor league opposition. It was the club's biggest springtime home outburst.

Rookie Dick Littlefield gave the Crackers two hits in five innings and rookie Paul Foxback allowed four in four innings. Bob Montag smashed two Atlanta homers and Charles Williams one.

The homers by Batts and Mages came with teammates on base while the others were with the bases empty.

In addition to their five homers, the Tigers had a double by Mages and a lonely single off Andy Elio and Jerry Levinson.

The homers by Taylor and Mages were their second in two days.

The Tigers move on to Chattanooga for games today and Thursday before taking on the Cincinnati Reds at Columbus on Friday.

Three walks and Mages' double added up to two runs for the Tigers in the second. Vic Wertz worked Elio for a pass and with one out, Mages hit the dirt in right to move Wertz to third.

Batts was walked intentionally to fill the bases. Jerry Priddy wanted out Elio for another free trip to first and Wertz scored.

Mages scored a moment later on Littlefield's long fly to left but Berry died out to end the scoring.

Williams' homer over the left-field barrier cut Detroit's margin to 2-1 in the last half of the second.

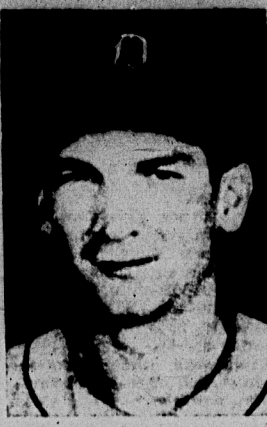

A third inning Tiger run came without benefit of a hit. A wide throw on George Kell's bouncer allowed him to reach first and he eventually scored when Hoot Evers' sizzler glanced off shortstop Buddy Hicks' glove for another error.

Batts' homer in the sixth with Mages aboard stretched Detroit's lead to 5-2 and Berry's four-bagger in the seventh made it 6-2.

Mullin's homer at the start of the eighth boosted Detroit's lead to 7-3. Taylor and Mages found the home run range in the ninth, Taylor getting his with Mullin, who had walked, aboard.

DODGERS CONNECT
RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Brooklyn's high-flying Dodgers needed only six hits to down the Boston Braves yesterday, 4-1. Three of the Bums' safeties were homers, two by outfielder Duke Snider and one by first baseman Gil Hodges. All three came with the bases empty.

Snider and Hodges backed up the nifty eight-hit pitching of pitcher Clem Labine by blasting their round-trippers off Braves hurlers Jim Wilson and Max Surkont.

'Surprising' Chisox Baffle Fans Again

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—When are the go-go Chicago White Sox going to get go-going?

The Pale Hose, who led the American League for 41 days in an amazing spurt last season, have won only seven of their first 19 games against major league opposition. Their over-all 16-14 mark is padded by a 9-2 performance against minor leaguers.

There's no question that unfavorable early spring weather in California dumped the Sox far behind their training pace of a year ago.

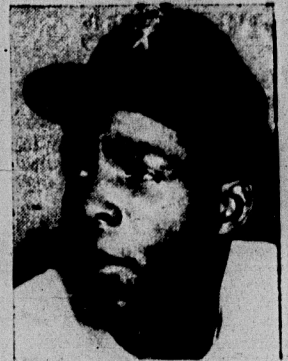

The pitchers, including league earned-run champion Saul Rogovin, were slow getting kinks out of their arms. The outfield, beyond flashy Minnie Minoso, is a question mark. So is the catching and third base.

With the season opener against Cleveland just a week away, Manager Paul Richards still is reluctant to name a starting Sox lineup.

The biggest disappointment is in the outfield. Jim Busby, speedy center-fielder, who hit 400 last spring and was a terror at the plate most of the season, has been hand-cuffed this spring.

It could be the Sox will jell overnight, like they did last season when Minoso leap-frogged from Cleveland Indian obscurity to bell-wether of Richards' red-hot rovers.

That may take another deeper deal by General Manager Frank Lane, who is snooping for an outfielder. And in the trade, they don't bet against Lane.

Just Moral Support

Simmons to Rejoin Phillies for Opener

EGYPT, Pa. (AP)—Lefty Curt Simmons says he'll feel real good if he's ready to pitch a big league ball game a month after he begins working out.

The 22-year-old pitcher expects to rejoin his Philadelphia Phillies teammates for their National League opener at the Polo Grounds April 15, but he'll only be moral support.

Simmons stopped off at his home here, eight miles northwest of Allentown, en route to Camp Kilmer, N.J., for separation from the Army.

"I don't know how that rumor about me pitching the opener got started, but anybody who knows baseball should realize that you can't lay off big league ball for almost two years and step right out on the mound," said Simmons.

"I really won't know how long it will take me to get in condition until I actually start to work. It's the legs you have to work on. And when you've laid off as long as I have, the old control ain't what it used to be," said the dark haired southpaw as he sat with his wife, Dorothy, his parents and his sister.

The whole family was at National airport in Washington to greet Simmons when he stepped off a C-97 Air Force Stratocruiser. He came from Frankfurt, Germany, where he had been serving with the 28th Infantry Division. Curt was called to active duty in September, 1950.

Simmons went like any other young fellow called by the service. But it certainly was one of the most disappointing moments of his life.

He had won 17 games and lost eight for the Phillies when the Army call came in late August. The club was seven games ahead of the pack. After Curt left, the Phillies slumped and staggered home to the pennant by beating Brooklyn on the last day of the season.

Simmons said he hadn't thrown a ball out of doors since the 28th went overseas in November, 1951. He said he'd prefer to stay with the club and work out every day rather than go down south and train with the Phillies' minor league teams in South Carolina.

Larry Jansen of the New York Giants operates a hardware store in his home town of Forest Grove, Ore. during the off-season.

John Powers Relates Views on Coed Beauty

Authority Stresses Grooming

Coeds have an advantage for beauty over other women, according to John Powers, fashion authority in Lansing to attend the Lansing Civic Style Show for the iron lung campaign.

"They have an opportunity to develop their interests and make the most of the natural potentialities," he stated. Beauty, to Powers, is based on self-assurance, self-confidence, plus an inner radiance or sparkle. This all adds up to personality, a woman's radiation.

Stressing that the most important thing a woman wears is the expression on her face, he emphasized the charm of the natural girl, which is what the Powers models are famous for.

Powers listed several rules for greater development. His first advice was, "to make the most of one's face and hair, for the hair is the frame of the face, and should emphasize one's self."

Next a coed should strive for good posture and carriage with grace in motion and in repose. She should dress to suit her face, figure and personality to achieve the "you" look. Softness and modulation of voice is the finishing touch suggested by Powers.

Commenting on the charm of women of the Midwest area, he said he believed they seemed more interesting, happier and charming. This he gathered from their expression and personalities.

Powers' word of advice to coeds aspiring for a job in modeling is to submit an untouched photograph to any noted beauty agency to determine her potentialities before a trip to New York City. Again, he emphasized "the attractive girl with the 'natural look' and well balanced figure will make the best model."

Employing 150 models, 50 of whom are teenagers, Powers stated he received from 25 to 100 applicants a day.

It's a Woman! First Baseball Statistician Begins Work

FT. WORTH, Tex. (AP)—The first baseball statistician went to work yesterday, but showed at the outset that there would be a feminine touch to this business of compiling batting and pitching averages.

Miss Meredith Boynton, 27, of Bartow, Fla., is the statistician for the Big State and Gulf Coast Leagues, both Class B circuits.

Her first work, when she reported, was to clean up the office of Howard Green, president of the two leagues. She said it had developed that "live-in" look during Green's month's occupancy. She said it in a way that indicated she was only using a polite term.

Miss Boynton explained that she always had been interested in baseball and decided to go into something different from jobs usually open to women—something without the same dull routine every day.

She had been a clerk in the county tax collector's office. Miss Boynton took the three-week course in baseball management at Florida Southern College in Lakeland in January.

Checks are at the peak of their long career right now. They give a precise and fastidious air to the spring costumes.

The convention, which will last from April 10 to 12, is sponsored by the Rho chapter at the University of Nebraska.

Vets May Pick Up Tickets for Ball

Pre-veterinary students and medical technology students may now obtain tickets for the annual "Veterinary Medicine Ball" to be held in the Union Ballroom April 19. They may be picked up in the office of the dean of the school of veterinary medicine.

Keith Bartow and his orchestra will play for the affair.

Coeds Copy Men's Style

By PHIL GUNBY

If the present alarming trend continues, it appears that coeds and campus men will be wearing approximately the same costumes in the not-too-far-distant future.

A columnist of the University of Maryland "Diamondback" first noted the copycat tactics of college students. Since the initial discovery, more mimicing has taken place.

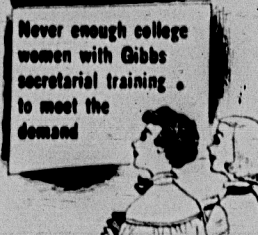

For instance, girls now have their own version of the male white buck shoes, and a few hardy males wear counterparts of the coed saddle-shoes. Both sexes wear white socks, and a sprinkling of coeds have been reported wearing argyles.

Coeds wear flannel slacks and their version of male dungarees. (With the exception of scotch pipers, few males wear skirts, however.) Plenty of matching boy-girl sweaters and polo shirts are seen.

The female tresses are becoming shorter in many cases, albeit they have not reached the crew-cut stage. However, the "sitting duck" made hair style closely approximate the shorter female cut.

Coeds are also accused of wearing male bow-ties, windbreakers, sweatshirts, white shirts, and male-type suits (this may be an exaggeration).

The skimpy jacket and the full skirt that is tucked easily under the jacket are making fashion news this spring.

Other State Bats Silent

Risch Hitting at .333 Clip

By JACK KOLE

Slamming out 13 hits in 39 trips to the plate, Jack Risch, Milwaukee sophomore, took the Southern trip batting down for the Spartan baseball team with a batting average of .333.

The slugging centerfielder, who also made 35 putouts to the outfielders in that department, took another batting triumph when he received a trophy for hitting the ball at a .333 clip in the four-game round-trip tournament the team played at Yale and North Carolina last week.

Risch was the only .300 hitter on the squad with at least three hits in a game. He was also the only player to hit a home run in the series, a three-run homer in the second game at Yale. Risch's batting average was .333, with 13 hits in 39 trips to the plate.

Bob Dillard, junior outfielder, batted the ball at a .286 clip with 12 hits out of 42 times at bat. Dillard averaged a .286 clip in the four-game series.

The power department was the only Spartan to hit a home run in the series. Dillard's only homer was in the second game at Yale.

The diamond squad was again named to Jensen Fieldhouse yesterday as the playing field is still too soggy for an effective practice to be held. Coach John Kols plans to move the team outside today if the field is in playing condition.

The 33-year-old leftfielder of last season's National League champions was hurt sliding to third base against the Cleveland Indians in an exhibition game at Denver last Wednesday.

This was a crushing development for the Giants, who may lose their young centerfielder, the Mays, to the Army.

Big Monte thinks he may be out of action no longer than 10 weeks, but other baseball authorities are doubtful he can return that soon.

St. Louis Hospital nurses said yesterday Dym "isn't feeling so good." They said it was nothing more than a bit since getting on his feet Saturday for the first time.

CHICAGO (U.P.)—Representatives of eight Midwestern schools will meet today to discuss organization of a new collegiate basketball conference.

Notre Dame, Marquette, DePaul, Loyola, Bradley, Louisville, St. Louis and Butler already have had preliminary talks on the proposed league.

Committees including athletic department and faculty representatives have studied eligibility and registration differences in an effort to work out a common code.

Canadiens Eliminate Bruins, 3-1

Qualify to Meet Wings in Finals

MONTREAL (U.P.)—Maurice (The Rocket) Richard scored on a sensational length of the ice dash last night to spark the Montreal Canadiens to a 3-1 victory over the Boston Bruins in the seventh and deciding game of their semi-final round National Hockey League Stanley Cup playoff series.

Montreal outclassed the defense-minded Bruins to rack up their second straight win and end the Boston hopes of a playoff upset.

In winning last night's contest the Canadiens qualified to meet Detroit's league champion Red Wings in the Stanley Cup finals. The Red Wings, easy winners over Toronto in two straight games, have been awaiting the outcome of this series. The final series opens in Detroit April 13.

Wolverines Win in South On 'Gift' Runs

FORT MEADE, Md. (U.P.)—The University of Michigan basketball team, outfit 10-8, utilized two unearned runs in the sixth inning yesterday to defeat Fort Meade 9-6.

Cleanup batter Don Eddy, Michigan third baseman, paced his team's attack with a triple and double in three times up. Eddy's Dick Yirkoski went the distance for the Wolverines, striking out five batters and issuing five walks.

Tom Hutson, second of three, Fort Meade hurler, gave up three walks, loading the bases in the top of the sixth with two out and Michigan trailing 5-4.

Then Bill Mogk singled to left center, scoring two runs. Michigan added two more in the seventh and one in the eighth.

'I'll Win in Detroit,' Predicts La Motta

Jake Looks for Knockout of Hayes; Seeks to Avenge Boston Defeat

DETROIT (U.P.)—Jake LaMotta, back in his "lucky city," says he'll stop Norman Hayes tonight in their 10-round battle at Olympia Stadium.

"And I'll get good and even with him," said Jake, the Bronx Bull who has lost only one fight in his 20 Detroit appearances.

The fight will be broadcast and telecast nationally starting at 10 p.m. (EST). Jake, will weigh about 165. Hayes about 161.

Hayes decided LaMotta in January in Hayes' hometown of Boston. Despite that, the 21-year-old fighter is a 7 to 5 underdog here.

Jake explains it: "This time we're boxing in Detroit, not Boston, and that means a great deal to me." His only Detroit conqueror was Sugar Ray Robinson.

Hayes won a surprise decision from Robert Villmain in Boston in December. Since then he lost to Laurent Dauthuille and Charlie Humes in Paris in decisions.

Jake has never been knocked out of his feet since he started his pro career in 1941.

The stocky 30-year-old veteran lost to Robinson and Bob Murphy in his only 1951 fights. Then after losing to Hayes and drawing with Eugene Harrison, Jake announced a new policy—a fight every month.

If Jake can beat Hayes, one fight that could await Jake is with Randy Turpin in London in mid-summer.

Nestor Named To Prep Post

NILES (U.P.)—Carl Nestor, 26, of East Chicago-Ind. yesterday was named football and track coach at Buchanan High School.

His appointment was announced by Buchanan Superintendent Harold Stark.

Nestor graduated from Michigan State College in 1949 after winning letters as a guard on the 1947 and 1948 football squads. After graduation he served two years as assistant to Coach Harry Potter at Muskegon High School.

Nestor succeeds Lester R. Miller, who decided to leave the teaching field after eight years as Buchanan coach.

Pagan Called To Marines

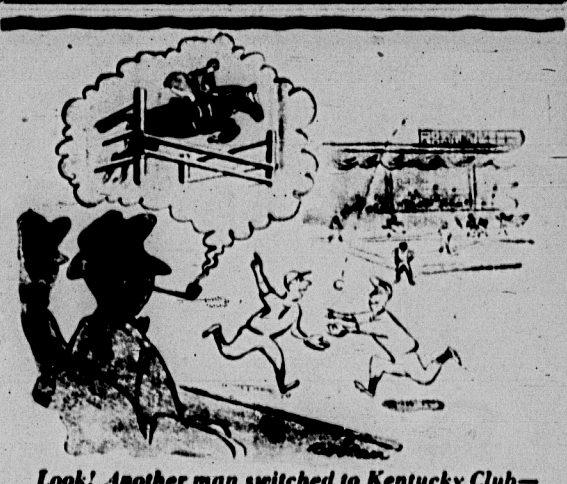

Nick Pagan, assistant counselor for men, will go to Grosse Ile Naval Air Station April 16 for a physical examination prior to returning to active duty in the Marine Corps.

If he passes the physical, Pagan will go to Glenview, Ill., Naval Air Station for an eight-week refresher course. He will re-enter the service as a captain.

Pagan expects to be stationed permanently with a jet fighter squadron at Cherry Point, N.C. He will probably spend at least 17 months on active duty. An indefinite leave of absence will be granted him by the college.

I am Industry-1952

Unshored into a new world.
I had a bustling, brawling, bruising youth.
I was a potential giant awakening in a world of giants.
People were hurt when I first stirred in life:
Then I grew and learned:
Then I matured and knew that
Though I work with water and metal and chemicals and fire,
I am more than these things.
I am the people's work!
I am the people's dream!
I am the people!

With maturity, I have grown, too, in social responsibility.
To the people,
To America!
And even to those beyond our shores.
My efforts are not in selfish interest;
Rather, all my brain and brawn strives for the good of the many.
I am the American way!

Now, I have sworn that these things shall be:
I shall deliver ever-better products to those who use my fruits!
I shall offer equal opportunity to those who work at my side
Whatever their race!
Whatever their creed!
Whatever their color!
Wherever their national origin!
I shall forever do my part to keep America great!

And why?
Because only in this way can I remain a healthy force in our free world.
For when I am healthy, America prospers
And tyrants tremble before my might.

I am America's life-blood!
I am America's strength!
I am the bulwark of the World's freedom!

Senate Okays Jobless Pay Bill

Pay Period Boosted to 26 Weeks

Sen. Frank Andrews' (R-Hillman) bill for workman's unemployment compensation was passed by the Senate yesterday and was sent to the governor for his signature.

The bill provides that during the next year unemployed workers may draw compensation for 26 weeks instead of 20 weeks as has been the case in the past.

Also included in the bill is a provision whereby companies which maintain a low unemployment record will pay a lower unemployment assessment. This provision is expected to benefit such large corporations as Ford, General Motors and Chrysler.

This provision will probably reduce revenue to the unemployment fund by $24 million annually. However, experts claim that the fund reserve of approximately $350 million is more than adequate to meet any situations that might develop.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams, at a press conference later, indicated that he does not approve of the one-year provision in the bill, but that the legislation should be permanent.

Williams compared the bill to "giving the public a chance to lick the candy and then pulling the candy back in a hurry."

Department Head Dies In Lansing

Funeral Set for Prof. Schoenmann

Funeral services for Prof. L. R. A. Schoenmann, head of MSC's Department of Land and Water Conservation, will be held tomorrow at 2:30 at the Christ Lutheran Church, Lansing. The Rev. F. L. Woldt will preside. Prof. Schoenmann will be buried at Spring Green, Wis.

Prof. Schoenmann, 63, died of a heart attack Monday at St. Lawrence Hospital after a brief illness.

A conservationist for more than 40 years, Prof. Schoenmann had been instrumental in many Michigan and national developments in the field of land and water conservation. He had been a member of the MSC staff since 1937.

Born Jan. 13, 1889 in Plain, Wis., Prof. Schoenmann received his bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin, Madison, in 1911. He joined the MSC staff in 1937 as professor of conservation and director of the Conservation Institute. In 1950 he was named head of the newly-created Department of Land and Water Conservation.

Before and after coming to Michigan State, Prof. Schoenmann was instrumental in overseeing many land and water conservation projects both in Michigan and the nation.

He was in charge of soil mapping for the Land Economic Survey in the Michigan Department of Conservation, 1922-23, from 1933 to 1934 he directed topographic work in the Michigan CCC camp, during 1934-35 he was regional director of the federal submarginal land program in the cornbelt states and in 1939 he served as supervisor of land classification for the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Immediate survivors include his wife, Dorothy, and a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Meyer of West Allis, Wis.

Job Opportunities!

'52 Career Carnival Executives Named

Rod Black, Flint junior, and Marilyn Zweng, Port Huron junior, have been appointed heads of the 1952 Career Carnival.

Black worked on publicity last year and replaces Bob Newell, Yale senior, as student director. Miss Zweng was assistant secretary, and replaces Mary Hartsell, Detroit senior, as executive secretary.

This fourth annual carnival will be held Oct. 15, 16 and 17 next year. The purpose of the event is to acquaint students with the various job possibilities offered in their fields.

Also, to some extent, the carnival acquaints companies with MSC courses and students so that they may know what to expect of future employees, Rod Black said.

This year the carnival was held winter term, with 75 companies represented in the second floor Union concourse and Auditorium, and over 10,000 people attending, Black added.

A meeting for students interested in working on the Career Carnival will be held tonight.

Spartan Sells 2,500 Copies

About 2,500 copies of the April Spartan, MSC's humor magazine, were sold yesterday.

Last night sales girls invaded the men's dorms at dinner time for additional sales, according to John Greenberg, circulation manager.

Stands will be open today at the Union Desk, in Berkey Hall, and the Natural Science Building.

Many national educational groups are expected to hold annual meetings at East Lansing during 1953 to join in commemorating the founding of MSC.
