Arranging the concert are Arthur Smith, Dearborn junior, club business manager; Robert Quint, Evanston, Ill. senior, president; and Charles Hutchins, Detroit senior, vice president. The concert climaxes a series of glee club performances throughout central Michigan.

Charles Green, Augusta junior, will sing the bass solo for "Timber Cutters' Chant." Other soloists will be baritone Owen Munk, Lansing freshman, and tenor Dan Karney, Lansing freshman.

Firewater Shed Burns Down, Still Shows Up On Holly Farm

PONTIAC (AP)—A routine fire call near Holly led to the discovery of a large moonshine still. After an alarm was called in by an unidentified person, the Holly firemen probed the ruins of a shed on a Rose township farm and found a 100 gallon still and remains of 10 mash barrels.

Sheriff's officers were holding an unidentified tenant farmer, who claimed he knew nothing of the still.

Advertisers Hear Report On Survey

Odle Stresses
Better Service

Better all-around service from merchants is what customers are looking for, Keith Odle, of the Continuing Education Service told about 40 State News advertisers last night.

Odle, who based his report on surveys taken in small towns throughout Michigan, spoke at a dinner given for the retailers in the Union. Better parking facilities is one of the customers' more frequent requests.

Other points customers look for are better styles and qualities, reasonable prices, full knowledge of the merchandise by salesmen, cleaner stores, and no high pressure sales.

He also said that customers requested merchants to place prices in advertisements and display them prominently in windows.

Merchants were also urged to get together on community enterprises and do promotion work together.

The only way these things can be improved will be by merchants themselves, he said. It will be a definite asset to business, he added.

Dr. David Luck, professor in Business Administration, told the merchants about some student buying trends at MSC. A survey is being made to find out further information about student buying habits, he said.

Guests at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Applegate, and Mr. and Mrs. William McIlraith, who represented student publications. Dick Lang, former State News manager, was toast master.

PETITIONS' OPEN

Petitions for Congress sent from Gilchrist, West Mayo, East Yackee, West Landon, South Campbell and Men's Co-ops will be accepted until 6 p.m. Thursday.

"Deadline for petitions was 6 p.m. last night but we're extending it to give these districts another opportunity to be represented in next year's Congress," explained Ted Eck, spring elections chairman.

Groups Plan To Honor 49 Coeds at Sing

Fourteen junior and 35 freshman coeds will be tapped for membership in Mortar Board and Tower Guard at the annual May Morning Sing tomorrow at 7.

The two honoraries, for senior and sophomore women, will name their new members at Beaumont Tower, according to Dorothy Glupker, Mortar Board president.

Coeds, who don't know they have been chosen until the Sing, will be serenaded at their dormitories tonight by this year's members of Mortar Board and Tower Guard.

Following the ceremonies new Mortar Board members and their families will be feted by President John A. Hannah at a breakfast in the president's Green Room at the Union Tower Guards, new and old, and their families will breakfast in the Union also.

according to Lt. Leon H. Fagan, are between 5 a.m. and 3 p.m. During this nine-hour period, calls come in about everything from lost children to emergency hospital runs.

There are about 20 stolen bicycle complaints weekly. A bicycle registration service aids in reclaiming the missing bikes, if students have taken the trouble to register them, Fagan said.

Another major concern is student driving and parking on campus. Unregistered cars are allowed only on special occasions such as all-college dances. Notice is always given of such exceptions to the rule.

Does summer term breathe the police force a little breathing space? No, says Fagan. "Vacations reduce personnel, and numerous conventions on the campus provide plenty of things to do."

Fall term is one of the busiest for campus patrolmen. Occasional outburst of "spirit," and the tremendous traffic problem call for outside assistance.

The drive will end Friday night with the Showdown at the Livestock Pavilion at 8. Frank Jarman's Brahma Bull riders are the featured attraction with student participation contests and free square dancing after the main performance.

Tickets for the Showdown are still available at the Union desk for 50 cents.

About 300 people attended the Jazz Concert last night presented by the Union Board for Campus Chest. Al Singer, MSC '51 alum from Bay City, was master of ceremonies.

Dec. Meyer, Detroit sophomore, and Diane Way, Pleasant Ridge sophomore, entertained the crowd with popular jazz songs.

Injunctions Granted To Five Steel Firms

U.S. District Judge David A. Pine yesterday ruled the government's seizure of the steel industry illegal.

He granted five major steel companies a temporary injunction ordering "maintenance of the status quo as of the date of the wrongful acts complained of."

In effect, this bars the government from going ahead and giving the CIO steelworkers the pay raises recommended by the Wage Stabilization Board.

Pine said that President Truman's seizure was "unauthorized by law."

And the Judge specifically turned down contentions by the government lawyer as to the extent of the president's executive power.

Shortly after Pine made his ruling here, President Philip Murray of the CIO union said his 650,000 members had "no alternative" but to quit work.

It seemed possible, however, that the government might retain possession of the mills for a time at least by appealing Pine's ruling. Government lawyers said they would ask the court of appeals for a stay of his order.

CIO steelworkers began picketing the South Chicago and Gary, Ind., works of U.S. Steel Corp. within an hour after Pine's decision.

A U.S. Steel spokesman in Chicago said he did not know if turnouts were being banked in preparation for a work stoppage.

In Pittsburgh, John Murray, director of District 16 CIO United Steelworkers, issued orders today to shut down two big Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp. plants and 15 other steel plants in the Pittsburgh area. Murray said the union will not give the company the usual cooling-off period.

Murray, a brother of Philip Murray, said he telephoned the instructions to the various local union officials after he heard of the Federal Court ruling.

Alpha Phi Omega Slates Blood Drive For This Week

Alpha Phi Omega, national service honorary, will sponsor a blood drive Thursday and Friday. Two mobile units from the Lansing Red Cross will be in the ping pong room in the fourth floor of the Union to take donations from nine to four each day.

Appointments are now being taken in the Union Concourse from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. A donation takes about half an hour and refreshments will be served afterwards.

Dale Miller, chairman of the drive, stated that about 400 pints of blood are needed to fill the present quota.

Elected to Board

Dr. Kenneth Wilson, director of the curriculum in food distribution, has been elected as a member of the board of directors of the Michigan chapter of the American Marketing Association.

Dr. Harry Kimber, director of the Social Science division, will give the report of a committee on legislation and policy. Dean Lloyd C. Emmons, head of the School of Science and Arts, will report on the nominating committee.

Grand River Work To Include Repairs

Grand River Ave. from Peoples Church to the west city limits was closed this week because of construction to widen the highway.

Although the area from Bogue St. to the east city limits is included in the contract, construction has not yet begun on that portion of the project.

Plans also call for resurfacing all of Grand River and Michigan Ave. except those sections of the streets which were recently improved.

The widening and resurfacing will last through the summer and probably into the fall, according to George Snyder, city engineer.

Two gas stations were forced to rebuild to accommodate the widened highway. The Hi-Speed station at the corner of Michigan and Grand River recently completed rebuilding. Construction has begun on the Sunoco station at the corner of Bogue St. and Grand River.

Temporary U.S. 16 going toward Lansing routes traffic along Michigan Ave. to Cowley Ave., and down Cowley to Grand River.

P. Vander Veen and Sons of Grand Rapids have been awarded the widening contract. Snyder said. Wright Construction Co. of Williamston will do the resurfacing.
