Faculty OK's Graduation Refusal-Plan

Class Cutting Forces Decision

After this spring, seniors may be forbidden permission to graduate as late as the day before commencement. This measure was approved yesterday at a meeting of the voting faculty in the Music Auditorium.

In the past, permission for seniors to graduate has been given a week before commencement with the resultant loss of a week of class time. Under the new system, instructors are specifically authorized to make every effort to keep seniors in class until commencement.

The commencement measure was one of three submitted by Dr. Harry H. Kimmer as head of the All-College Education Research Committee.

The faculty also approved the committee's recommendations on lowering the standard of proficiency in English among the students. Doctor Kimmer is setting the new standards before the meeting, emphasizing that the new standards are not to be applied until they attain a satisfactory standard.

The faculty's approval authorized the formation of an all-college faculty committee which could reduce permission to graduate to a student whom it considered deficient in English ability. It also provided that students deficient in English be sent to the Writing Improvement Service until they attain a satisfactory standard.

Also approved at the meeting were modifications in eligibility and scholarship rules drawn up by representatives of Big Ten members. The rules cannot be adopted by the Conference until all faculties of the school involved approve them.

A general report of the Committee on Courses and Curriculum Changes was read and approved by the faculty. Dean William H. Condit, head of the All-College Division, emphasized that approval of the report would be essentially a basis for further work in this field.

High School Slates Opera

The East Lansing High School choir and orchestra will present "Down in the Valley," a modern opera by Kurt Weill, at 8:15 Friday and Saturday nights in the East Lansing High School Auditorium.

Weill has also written Broadway productions "Knickerbocker Holiday," "Lost in the Stars" and "One Touch of Venus."

Directors of the opera will be Richard C. Krell, school vocal director, Betty Bauer and Paul Greenfield will take the leading roles. Supporting them will be Bob Pickett, Dick Burrows, Eddy Cruise and Charles Decker.

Other features will be Robinson and La Touche's "Ballad for Americans," Rodgers' "The Girl Friend" and Harburg and Lane's "Look to the Rainbow."

Conductor is Richard Speck, band and orchestra director.

Engineer Sales Continue Today

The Student Engineer is on sale today at the Union Desk, Physics-Mathematics Building 2, Agricultural Engineering Building and Olds Hall.

The issue includes articles on "Supersonic Flight," "Color Television," and "Titanium-Atomic Age Metal."

Flowers for the Ladies Every Week

Greenhouse Provides Blossoms for Offices

By JOAN LAWLER

Ray Rowell, a recent MSC graduate, takes flowers to most of the campus secretaries, once a week during the fall, winter, and spring terms.

Rowell isn't an orchid grower, but he takes plants that's his job.

Once a week, he takes plants and cut flowers to 43 offices on campus, as part of his work at the campus greenhouse. Some of the flowers are raised by horticulture students, and some are grown for experimental research.

The horticulture department tries to fit the flowers to the occasion. Lilies sent around at Easter time were survivors of a leaf-burn experiment. Christmas poinsettias bloomed as part of a photo-periodic training project to see if they could bloom under summertime conditions.

Chrysanthemums grown several months out of season will be sent around to the offices in the near future, department workers said.

The department also arranges decorations for college functions such as the Centennial concert series, commencement, and Farmers' Week. One of their largest functions, a rose show during American Rose Society Week in June, will be held in Dem Hall.

Nick Pagan, assistant counselor for men, presents the fraternity sing trophy to Lee Hanson, Psi Upsilon song director. The fraternity took 114 out of a possible 120 points last night.

Psi Upsilon Wins APO Sing; Delta Chi Second, DU Third

By REV BUSCH

For the fourth straight year, Psi Upsilon Fraternity sang its way to top honors in Alpha Phi Omega's Fraternity Sing held at the Auditorium last night.

The fraternity won 114 out of a possible 120 points with "Shadrach" and "Smoking Gun" under the direction of Lee Hanson, Birmingham, junior.

Last year Psi U took the traveling trophy home with them when they won the sing for the third time. In addition to winning the first place cup last night, they gained one year's possession of a new traveling trophy.

Red Prisoners Capture U.S. Brig. General

PUSAN (AP)—Victims of Communist prisoners of war pointed upon the American commandant of Korean Island Prison Camp Wednesday, ignoring all demands for his release.

The U.S. Eighth Army today announced the seizure of Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd, 52, several hours after word of his plight had leaked out to this provisional capital of the Republic of Korea.

The Army said a note had been received in Dodd's handwriting, indicating that he was unharmed. Reports in Pusan said the note was several hours old. Contents of the note were withheld.

Another officer, whose identity the Eighth Army said was not known, was seized with Dodd but managed to escape in an unexplained manner.

Strife between the two prisoners was invoked on Dodd's side of two bloody riots recently. No correspondents were permitted to go to the island 26 air miles southwest of Pusan.

The nature of the efforts for his release was not disclosed, however. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway today instructed the Eighth Army "to take whatever action is required and to use whatever force is necessary" to free Dodd.

Ridgway handed the firm orders to Gen. James A. Van Fleet, U.S. Eighth Army Commander, shortly after the Supreme Allied Commander left Korea last night.

Ridgway said these orders must remain in effect to prevent any similar incident at the stormy prison camp off southeast Korea.

Judges for the sing were Dr. David M. Miller, Assistant Professor of the Music Department, Krell, Training, Lansing, Choral Director, and Mrs. Dorothy A. Krell, East Lansing Choral Director.

Other fraternities participating were Lambda Chi, Alpha, 102 points; Theta Chi, 99; Sigma Nu, 91; Alpha Tau Omega, 86; Delta Tau Delta, Beta Theta Pi, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 82; Phi Kappa Tau and Sigma Chi, 81; Phi Kappa Phi, 79; Alpha Gamma Rho, 74; Phi Kappa Sigma, 68; Delta Sigma Phi, 66; Theta Xi, 63, and Farmhouse, 62.

The 13th annual sing originally scheduled for the Band Shell was held in the Auditorium after the East Lansing Weather Bureau promised unfavorable weather for last night.

Intermission entertainment was furnished by Tommy Aquino's trio and singer Don Myer. Jack Chandler was Master of Ceremonies.

Critics Praise Opera Debut Of MSC Grad

The operatic debut of Thomas Pionkowski, MSC graduate, in his first lead role in "The Old Maid and the Thief" with the New York City Opera Company.

Pionkowski has been heard throughout Michigan and in frequent appearances on the campus.

The New York Times said the newcomer made a "promising debut as Bob." The New York Herald-Tribune spoke of Pionkowski as "an award winner... a deserving one. He has a ringing baritone, warm and hearty throughout its range, brightly colored at every point."

Menotti, present at the performance, personally commended the young singer.

Army Reveals Facts on New Atomic Gun

NEW YORK (AP)—The Army boldly claimed last night its first atomic artillery weapon can "hit its target under any weather conditions and give ground troops the kind of devastating close support never before available in warfare."

Secretary Frank Pace, in an address laying heavy emphasis on the Army's importance in atomic warfare, revealed for the first time some official specifications on the atomic gun, which has been tested with non-atomic ammunition. He said:

"It is essentially an artillery piece—but with immeasurably greater power than any artillery hitherto known."

Carried on a platform suspended between two engine cars at front and rear, this highly mobile atomic weapon can travel at a speed of about 35 miles per hour on highways. Weighing about 75 tons, it can cross bridges which army engineers are already trained to build for present heavy divisional equipment. And tests indicate that it is much more accurate at long ranges."

Michigan College English Association will meet on campus Saturday.

Highlighting the meeting will be panel discussions on opportunities in business and industry for non-teaching English majors, freshman English and general education.

Dr. Clyde Benson, assistant professor of English, will be the main speaker at the discussion on opportunities in business and industry. Dr. C. C. Hamilton, associate professor in English, is president of the association.

Oil Disputes To Grow, Says Denver Leader

Truman Strives to Settle Week-Old CIO Walkout

DENVER (AP)—President Truman said yesterday that he was working hard to settle a week-old strike of oil workers, but a CIO union leader in Denver declared "we intend to intensify the strike."

The oil case has not gone officially to the White House. However, the chairman of the Wage Stabilization Board (WSB), Nathan P. Feinsinger, said it probably would be sent to Truman if the WSB fails to end the strike.

Feinsinger's plea for an end to the walkout pending a WSB hearing in Washington May 13 was rejected in Denver Wednesday night by O. A. Knight, President of the Oil Workers International Union (CIO).

Knight, spokesman for 32 AFL, CIO and independent unions, said the strikers would take part in the WSB hearing but "we must continue striking until settlements are reached."

Frosh-Soph Gladiators To Clash

Freshmen and sophomores will see the "Frosh-Soph Gladiators" today in a series of traditional Frosh-Soph Week-end athletic events.

Also included in Frosh-Soph Week activities will be a panel session this afternoon at 2 and a dance tomorrow night.

The panel session on the Union steps will feature Tom Aquino, Rochester, N.Y., freshman, and his group. After a crowd has gathered, the band will lead a parade to the Women's Gym for the athletic events.

Highlighting the events will be a tug-of-war across the Red Cedar with the team representing a challenge in the river.

Other contests scheduled include push ball, a dressed pig hunt, and the egg throw—the only event scheduled for each sex.

A dance, "Gala Frosh-Soph," at the Union Ballroom tomorrow evening at 9 will include Frosh-Soph Week-end activities. The "old fashioned" will be awarded during the dance introduction to the night winning the most points in the athletic contests.

Dave Cherry and his orchestra will play the traditional dance.

Cordray, Arce To Participate In Conference

Dr. Albert Cordray, director of foreign students at Michigan State, and Antonio Arce, Costa Rican graduate assistant, will participate Tuesday in a conference on international education at Kellogg Center.

The day-long conference will open with a welcoming speech by Gov. G. Mennen Williams. Other speakers scheduled are Dr. Lee M. Thurston, superintendent of public instruction, Paul E. Smith, associate director of international educational programs for the United States Office of Education, and Edith Ford, director of the Committee on the Exchange of Teachers between the United States and the United Kingdom.

Panel discussions on such topics as better human relations through foreign education will be held in the afternoon.

Attending the conference will be teachers interested in exchange teaching. The conference is sponsored by the Committee on Education for Better Human Relations and the Michigan Department of Public Instruction.

History Prof Writes Book On Folklore

Dr. Richard M. Dorson, associate professor of history, has published a new book in his special field of American folklore. The new book, "Bloodstoppers and Bearwalkers," is scheduled for publication by the Harvard University Press this spring.

The book consists of raw, vigorous and fully American folk tales of northern Michigan. Dr. Dorson spent five months in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan talking to Indians, farmers and lumberjacks, gathering material for the book.

The prolific MSC historian has also published five major articles in professional folklore publications.

During the coming summer, Dr. Dorson will teach two courses at Harvard University summer school.

Strikers Stall Saginaw Buses

SAGINAW (AP)—Makelift transportation got Saginaw residents to factories, schools and even downtown stores yesterday while a strike kept the city's buses stalled for a second day.

Armed Forces to Get Pay Increase

WASHINGTON (AP)—A comprehensive "cost of living" pay increase for the 1 1/2 million persons in the armed services was agreed upon yesterday by a Senate-House conference committee. It would give them a four per cent increase in base pay and a 14 per cent increase in food and rental allowances.

UN to Seek Correspondent's Release

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Edwin Nourse Rogers (D-Mass.) said yesterday the United Nations will be asked to begin an unprecedented equal attempt to free Associated Press Correspondent William N. Cotts from a Czechoslovakian jail.

Helping Gwen Spillers, Ft. Myers, Fla., Junior, make Parents' Day reservations at the Kellogg Center are Paul Eitel, Chicago Junior, and Larry La Bree, West Lafayette, Ind., grad student.

Parents' Day Crowds Face Busy Program

MSC's moms and dads will invade the campus for the Parents' Day program Saturday. A busy day is slated for honored guests, according to Glyn Havens, Union City senior and publicity chairman for the event.

More than 1,000 parents are expected to register at Kellogg Center Saturday morning between 9:30 and 11:30.

Engineering Exposition Starts Today

A campus tour is scheduled from 10:30 to noon to give the parents an opportunity to see the campus and student activities.

Continuous demonstrations will be held in the Kellogg Center and the movies. Waves of Green, "Postmark East Lansing," and the Notre Dame vs. MSC football film will be shown in the Kellogg Center Auditorium.

President Hanson will address the parents at 1:30 in the Kellogg Center auditorium and Stark Hall will hold an open house from 2 to 5.

Other points of interest for the parents will be the Engineering Exposition in Olds Hall and the Home Economics Department will hold open house all day.

Also scheduled for the day are a track meet and a tennis match with the University of Wisconsin.

The Green Splash Water show in the Women's Gym will also be open to the parents.

College Urges Food Caution

All students on campus are urged to be cautious about accepting catering services from anyone who is not authorized or equipped to handle sandwiches or snack lunches.

John J. Coors, College Sanitarian, announced that the health department does not make routine inspections of catering services that are carried on in private homes, therefore, there is no control of the sanitary conditions that might prevail.

The College Sanitation Department is urging organizations or groups connected with the college to use only licensed food establishments if catering services are needed.

Music Seniors To Present Student Recital

The MSC Music Department will present Cecilia Scott, soprano and Mr. Pleasant, piano, and Charles McDermid, pianist, and Battle Creek seniors in a recital Sunday at 4 p.m. in the Music Auditorium.

The program will feature "Kanonetta" by Beethoven, Bach's "Recitative and Fugue of Lullaby" from "La Cenerentola" by Rossini, "Hautpousa" Song-Cycle by Grieg, "Airs Chants by Debussy and Menotti. To This We Add..."

Other selections will be "The Soldier" arranged by Katherine Davis, "Gossamer Grove" arranged by Bacon, "Hes Ginn Awa!" arranged by Soderby, and "The Valley" and "Joy" both by Swanston.

Benson to Discuss Orchid Collecting

Andrew Benson, of Des Plaines, Ill., will tell of his adventures in orchid collecting in Central America at a Floriculture Forum being held Wednesday at 8 p.m. in room 206 of the Horticulture Building.

Benson is a professional orchid grower and will illustrate his talk with colored photographs.

State Faces Showdown Against League-Leading Wolverines

Spartans' Quiet Bats Must Produce To Keep Team in Conference Race

By DON CAMERON

This is the day of reckoning for Michigan State's sagging baseball forces. The Big Ten's hottest team, the University of Michigan, faces here today for the start of a three-game series that the "now-or-never" label the Spartans. Game time is 3:30 p.m. at Old College Field and will be followed by a double-header at 6:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m.

Each John Kobs, whose hitting brigade has hit a new high in hitting ability, will be hitting the works with his batting line-up. Top batters—Rog Howard, Earl Carlson and Tom Lawson, right-handed speed men.

Howard, who will throw to the first base, will be the top fly hurler in the lineup. Michigan Coach Ray Howard, who has been coaching the Spartans since 1947, is a former major league player. Spring Grid Drills Close Saturday

Spring football drills will end Saturday afternoon, when the Spartans stage an intrasquad game for the benefit of some 400 visiting high school coaches.

Coch Biggie Munn will send his squad through another scrimmage today in preparation for the game.

"I think we've done the best possible in the short space of time we've had to practice," Munn stated. "However, we're still a long way from being a polished football team."

The visiting coaches will be guests of the Michigan State coaching staff Saturday. In the morning, the visitors, beginning at 9:30, will listen to a series of lectures on the various offenses, line play, end play and then watch a team demonstration of the plays.

Freshman coach Dan Devine is in charge of the clinic, now in its fifth year and Munn, backfield coach Steve Sebo, line coach Ouf Daugherty and end coach Earl Edwards are all scheduled speakers.

Following a luncheon, the coaches will then watch the intrasquad contest, slated for 2 p.m.

Tennis Team to Open Stand Against Illinois, Wisconsin

Michigan State's defending Big Ten tennis champs will open a two-day stand here starting today when the Spartans meet Illinois at 3 p.m.

Saturday the State crew will play host to Wisconsin's invading Badgers at 2 p.m.

The State squad has dropped its only Western Conference clash this season, a 5-1 affair last week to Indiana.

MSU is fresh from a 5-0 pasting of the University of Detroit last Tuesday in Detroit. The Spartans swept by the Titans with a minimum of effort, winning three doubles matches and six points in the singles.

Heading the State team is Stan Droba, sophomore from Milwaukee, who has taken over the No. 1 singles spot very successfully.

Badgers Pose Problem for Outdoor Crew

Saturday's track meet here between State and the University of Wisconsin should produce top-notch competition in all events. The meet is scheduled for 1:45 p.m. on the outdoor track.

The Spartans are favored in the hurdles events, high jump, and shotput. Chuck Roland and Capt. Dick Henson are highly rated in the sprints.

Close duels are predicted in the 230 and mile runs. Spartan half-miler Dick Jarrett, Oaklawn, Ill., with a 1:55.3 effort his last time out, will battle Sam Greenlee of Wisconsin, who has done 1:55.

In the mile run, State's Jim Keppel, who won at Penn State in 1:52, goes against the Badger's Frank Dink. Dink has a 4:16 best this season, and who is a crack half-miler.

Wisconsin's Capt. Leroy Collins leads the quarter-mile field. The Badger leader consistently runs around the 49 second mark.

In the last meeting between the two schools during the 1951 indoor season, Wisconsin edged Michigan State, 57% - 50%.

Movable Sets, Choral Music To Aid Transition in Term Play

Backstage Crews Ready Scenery for May 14 Opening

Term play stage crews are busy completing movable sets for the Western romance, "Green Grow the Lilacs," which opens Wednesday. The drama will be presented at 8:15 May 14 to 17 in Fairchild Theater.

Sets for the play were designed by William Dorset, instructor in speech, who also designed sets for last term's drama, "Rose Without a Thorn."

The sets, which move on and off stage in full view of the audience, provide transition from scene to scene.

"A feeling of continuity is gained when the actors move from one locale to another and the scenery moves with them," explained Bob McClenahan, stage manager.

Continuity is also added by choral music. The chorus is directed by Miss Ethel Armelung of the Music Department.

"Green Grow the Lilacs" also features two ballet scenes in the second act. They were arranged by students in the Music Department.

Tickets are on sale at the Union Desk for 85 cents.

Summer Workers Urged to Obtain Security Cards

Students planning vacation jobs should obtain social security cards soon, says W. Scott Hamlin, manager of the Lansing office, 507 South Grand Ave.

Duplicates also may be obtained in the Lansing social security office, Hamlin points out, but it takes up to 10 days to verify the original number through the central records office.

The play, "Green Grow the Lilacs," will open in Fairchild Theatre May 14 for a four-day run. The set was designed by William Dorset, instructor in speech.

Water Show Entertainment To Add Variety

Entertainment for the Water Carnival show will include student acts which the Water Carnival Committee will audition tonight from 6:30 to 8 in the Union Ballroom.

Eight individual acts have been planned in the dress-up campaign for this year's show. They will be used between certain floats to add variety for the 2½ hour program.

Professional entertainers will be included in the acts. However, amateurs will be treated professionally.

Types of acts the committee is interested in auditioning include impersonators, tap dancers or tap teams, comedians, novel acts such as magicians and puppeteers, quartets and male and female soloists singing light music.

The show is scheduled for June 5, 6 and 7. More emphasis will be placed on elaboration of the show itself with the elimination of the land parade, the committee decided. Auditioning vocalists are asked to bring their own accompanists tomorrow night.

Oil Dispute

they had not struck California plants because they produce for the Korean war.

Effects of the strike have been mainly felt in air transportation, which uses high octane gasoline. The government ordered a 30 per cent cut in the use of this fuel. The Air Force has slashed training flight hours.

Some Midwest motorists have been affected. Government limitations on inventories of gasoline, diesel oil and other fuels are in effect in all but five far Western states.

Kansas officials reported pipeline runs in the week ended May 5 compared with the previous week dropped 91,287 barrels daily to an average of 226,863 barrels.

A spokesman for Socony-Vacuum Oil Co., said CIO workers have been offered a 6 per cent increase amounting to about 13.2 cents an hour plus increases in extra pay for night work.
