Scientific

Polling Bureau Vote Slated for Tonight

By DONELDA LEWIS

The future of the polling bureau bill will be determined by the Student Congress in its weekly meeting tonight.

The bill, proposed to establish a scientific polling bureau, was referred out favorably from the Congress Business and State Affairs Committee to the Congress in a meeting yesterday afternoon. With it went the strong recommendation that it be passed.

According to Bob Steele, Chairman of the Congress Business and State Affairs Committee, this bureau would be in the hands of impartial faculty members from the field of sociology. Students, who are not members of the government, would be selected by these faculty members to do the polling.

According to Steele, the cost of the system would be $30 a year, the only expenses being the cost of materials and paper.

It is hoped that the bureau can be set up in time to conduct a poll of student opinion on the question of Governmental aid to the Union Building in purchasing bowling shoes.

Also under investigation before being referred to the Congress is a bill to establish a foreign students integration board.

The proposed board would work to develop better relations between foreign students and the student body. Faculty, administration and students would be represented on the committee. The bill has been tabled by the Business and State Affairs Committee.

Piano Pair Hailed for Technique

Luboschutz, Nemenoff Perform in Aud

By BEV BUSCH

A thoroughly enjoyable concert was presented by duo-pianists Pierre Luboshutz and Genia Nemenoff to a sizable crowd in the Auditorium last night.

Precision and clarity were stressed during the first half of the program.

The pair demonstrated a superb technique in the strong and, at times, sprightly first movement of Mozart's intricate Sonata in D Major. The following section, complete contrast to the first, was given a wistful and gentle treatment. They polished off the final movement easily, skillfully displaying the dynamic quality of the sonata's first part.

Second work on the program was Brahms' Variations on a Theme of Haydn, Opus 56. The artists were in complete control of the difficulties caused by constant changes in tempo and mood.

High point of the program was Luboshutz and Nemenoff's first performance of Dello Joio's suite from the ballet 'On Stage.' It was written for and dedicated to the pair and they were highly sensitive to its haunting, nostalgic themes.

In the last portion the couple surprised the audience by altering the original program.

In place of works by Debussy and Riegger, they performed Milhaud's "Scaramouche," excerpts from Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro" and a fantasy on Strauss' "Die Fledermaus."

For encores, they chose Portnoff's "Perpetual Motion" and "Little Cecilia," a quiet, sober number by Bach.

Spartan Wives Plan Activities

The Hospitality Committee of the Spartan Wives will be greeting new and old members for registration in the proposed Interest Groups and the planning of future activities today from 4 to 9 p.m.

The purpose of the club is to help students' wives to get better acquainted and to encourage girls with similar interests to develop them through participation in Interest Groups. This year Spartan Wives plans to organize its program around these groups.

Welcoming the wives at the Spartan Wives Club House will be: Mrs. Howard Johnston, Mrs. Robert Carlstrom, Mrs. Donald Earle, Mrs. Richard Kasuba and Mrs. William Roys. All are members of the Hospitality Committee.

Campus Hosts 6,500 Guests

More than 6,500 persons from Michigan are attending eight educational conferences and meetings on campus this week.

About 2,000 students are expected for High School Journalism Day, and the Michigan Education Association anticipates 4,000 for their conference, Thursday and Friday.

The Basic Life Insurance course and Retail Food Dealers Accounting workshop end their conferences today. Other meetings include Plant Foremen, Coal Dealers, Labor Statistical conference, and the Farm Cooperatives' annual meeting.

These educational meetings are sponsored or coordinated by MSC's Continuing Education Service.

Wyngarden To Welcome Journalists

2,000 Expected for 6th Annual J-Day

Herman J. Wyngarden, dean of the School of Business and Public Service, will give the welcoming address to an expected crowd of 2,000 high school students at the sixth annual High School Journalism Day, today. The general assembly will be held in the Auditorium following registration.

Morning sessions will cover topics of writing sports, editorials, features, columns; also makeup, headlines, and mimeographed newspapers.

The John S. Knight Trophy, donated by the Detroit Free Press, will be awarded at 2 p.m. to the outstanding newspaper. Other awards will be made to yearbooks and for newspaper articles. Judges for the contests are faculty members of the Journalism Department.

Planning the All-American Yearbook will be the theme of the afternoon clinics. Lithography, letterpress, photography, advertising and general management will also be discussed.

The aim of the conference, says William McIlrath, director of student publications, is to have experts in publication work conduct clinics to help high school journalists produce highest quality yearbooks and newspapers and acquire knowledge about journalism as a career.

Alums to View Films of MSC Football Games

Alumni in state and out-of-state areas will view football films of the last three MSC games during the week. The movies will be narrated by the alumni staff members.

Tonight, Jack Breslin, field secretary, will appear at the Jackson Country Club with State's games with Oregon State and U of M. At the same time, John McGoth, assistant alumni director, will show the same two films at Alpena for the Tri-County Club, consisting of Alpena, Montmorency and Presque Isle counties.

Calhoun County Club will see the U. of M. and Oregon State games tomorrow night presented by Starr Keesler, alumni director. Breslin will appear at Plymouth and Northville with the U. of M. presentation.

For the Chicago Club on Friday night, Breslin will show the Texas A & M and U. of M. game films. McGoth will be in Huron county with the U. of M. movie.

Lapeer County Club was audience to the U. of M. film last night when Keesler narrated. At the Lake-Mason Club was McGoth showing the Texas A & M and U. of M. pictures.

Engineer Staff Meets Tonight

The Spartan Engineer is holding a meeting tonight at 9 o'clock in their office at the Union. Robert Kitchen, the editor, will explain the plans and makeup of the coming editions. The staff needs coeds to type and do office work, people to help with the business administration, article writers and editorial staff members. Old and new members are invited to come to the meeting.

MSC Has Both

Problem — Diesel or Steam?

By ELENORE JACKLE

All that looks like a steam shovel is not a steam shovel. Those huge, fascinating monsters that young children and almost everyone else love to watch digging a hole, are frequently diesel shovels. Michigan State College has both.

Used to load coal for the heating of all buildings on campus, these shovels operate eight hours a day.

Students who go to "the other side of the tracks" for classes on South Campus will see the steam shovel. The diesel, however, does its work at the plant on South Campus behind the tennis courts.

The five-year-old shovel is operated by numerous levers of varying size and position which engage air cylinders. The air does the work.

On the old-fashioned steam shovel the levers are operated manually with steam providing the power.

A huge iron bell of the red schoolhouse variety hangs from the top left side of the cab. It's used as a warning. If that doesn't suffice, a whistle is pulled.

A rather ominous fellow, the diesel shovel weighs about 65 tons and has a lifting capacity of 25 tons, one and one-half per scoop.

The diesel motor is in the rear of the cab which swings around on a track car. The boom, collegiately painted bright aluminum in contrast to the dark green cab, is 55 feet long.

The general impression on a dark night would be a frightening monster. In daylight it is a complicated specimen for engineer and shovel enthusiasts.

The shovel can become upset—physically. Just in case, huge rail clamps hang from the bottom of the car. These are clamped to the rails if the shovel is lifting an unusually heavy load.

Yearbook Plans Studied

Yearbook Salesgirls Invade Men's Dorms

By PAT WARD

Coed sales staff members will invade men's dormitories at suppertime this evening to boost Wolverine yearbook sales.

With subscriptions over the 1,600 mark, Sales Manager Will Sterzik said yesterday he hopes to maintain the increase already noted over comparable sales of a year ago.

"After today, we will have a sales representative at the west side of the Union Desk every Wednesday between 9 a.m. and 5:30 p.m.," Sterzik explained. "One week from today, we will concentrate on subscriptions from those living in the women's dormitories."

The cover for the 1953 yearbook will be put on display in the Union Building early in November, and a wood-gathering contest for the pre-Notre Dame football game bonfire is planned, he added.

After explaining to his staff about the layout and "'53 Story" theme of the book, Editor Dick Meyer told staff members Tuesday that group picture-taking will begin next week. Senior pictures will be finished Friday, he said.

"Times Roman," the style of print used by the London Times newspaper, will be incorporated in the 1953 Wolverine, Meyer explained, to add "page attractiveness."

Meyer reiterated that this year's book will be "much less stiff and formal and much more natural and chronological." The "'53 Story" will be told by seasons, and in the order that the events actually occured, he explained.

Prof Publishes German Study

Dr. Adrian Jaffe, assistant professor of English, has received word that his study of Heinrich Heine, the 19th century German poet, will appear shortly in the "American-German Review," Dr. Russel Nye, head of the department, announced today.

Titled "Uncle Tom in the Penal Colony: Heine's View of Uncle Tom's Cabin," Dr. Jaffe's article is an analysis of Heine's attitude toward American slavery as well as a critique of Harriet Beecher Stowe's novel.

The American-German Review is a scholarly journal specializing in the publication of researches in comparative literature.

No Senior Pics Taken After Friday

Friday is the last day that senior pictures for the Wolverine will be taken, according to Dick Meyer, editor.

The pictures are being taken in Room 42 of the Union, Meyer said. Appointments are not necessary.

Pictures will be taken from 8:30 a.m. until 11:45 a.m., and 12:45 p.m. until 9:45 p.m.

Air Society Picks Convo Delegates

Last night, Arnold Air Society elected delegates to represent their organization at the Fourth National Conclave, which will be held in Los Angeles over Thanksgiving vacation.

Victory Over Texans Convinces Writers

NEW YORK (AP)—Michigan State, the pre-season favorite, was back on top of The Associated Press Football Poll yesterday but cannot afford to relax and take it easy.

At least two other teams with impressive, unmarred records—Maryland and California—are ready to step in the moment the Spartans let their guard down.

The Spartans recaptured the No. 1 position this week from Wisconsin, upset victim of Ohio State. They impressed sports writers and newscasters with the decisive way they manhandled Texas A & M, 48-6.

The first three weeks of the AP poll have produced no single powerhouse which completely dominates the scene. Michigan State led the first poll before losing out last week to Wisconsin.

This week the Spartans won only a slim advantage over Maryland and California, both in first place ballots and in overall points.

In the poll, 10 points are given for each first place vote, nine for second, and so forth.

Michigan State received 39 first place votes and a total of 1,026 points. Maryland, which whomped Georgia 37-0, got 31 first place votes and 961 points compared with 21 first place votes and 889 points for California. The Golden Bears beat Oregon Saturday, 47-7.

Completing the top 10 are Georgia Tech, Duke, Oklahoma, Southern California, Kansas, Purdue and UCLA.

Wisconsin dropped out of the first 10 on its 23-14 loss to Ohio State.

Notre Dame, beaten 22-19 by Pitt, plummeted from eighth position and Princeton, its 24-game winning streak broken by Penn, fell from 10th to the "also rans."

New members of the top 10 are Oklahoma, up from 12th to sixth; Purdue, from 16th to ninth, and UCLA, from 11th to 10th.

In UP, too

MSC also continued its domination of the United Press poll, holding the top spot for the past four weeks. The Spartans picked up 14 first place votes and a total of 306 points in the poll of 35 of the nation's leading coaches in this week's UP ratings. California was second with 273 points.

Retail Lecture Set for Tonight

Robert Cameron, personnel director of Herpelsheimer's department store in Grand Rapids, will speak on "Job Opportunities in Retailing for College Graduates" in Room 33, Union Building, at 7 tonight.

Following the lecture he will answer questions on training programs, advantages and disadvantages of retailing, promotion possibilities and salaries.

All students enrolled in marketing courses are invited to this first meeting. Other speakers during fall quarter will discuss the fields of insurance, transportation and sales management.

The lecture series is sponsored by the MSC Marketing Club, an affiliate of the American Marketing Association.

Victims of Fire Welcome Aid

Contributions for the Vernon Gill family are still being accepted at the Union Desk, Red Cedar Co-Op, Graduate Office and Hotel Management Office of the Kellogg Center. Clothes may be taken to the Trailer Village Post Office.

The four members of the MSC senior's family were left homeless last Friday when their trailer burned. Mrs. Gill gave birth to an eight-pound baby girl only a week ago.

Yesterday Gill said, "People have really been wonderful. I never could have imagined anything like this. I wish there were some way I could thank each and every one of the people who have contributed things."

Gill and his family lost possessions valued at approximately $2,000.

Young Democrats To Meet Thursday

The Young Democrats Club will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 in Room 32 of the Union.

Democratic candidates for Ingham County will be present and members will have the opportunity to participate in a question-answer period. All students are invited.

Drug Amendment

Citizens of Michigan will have a number of decisions to make on Nov. 4. In the excitement of voting for national, state and local officials, it is to be hoped another important question will not be overlooked.

This is the "narcotics amendment" which would add a few words to the part of the Michigan constitution dealing with unreasonable search and seizure without a warrant.

The [illegible] would the state proposes to add are: "any narcotic drug or drugs."

Briefly, this means that authorities could confiscate drugs found in the possession of a suspect, just as they now have constitutional privilege to seize firearms, explosives and similar dangerous weapons. "These must be seized by any peace officer outside the curtilage (land around a house or dwelling place) of any dwelling house in this state," the state constitution states.

Section 10, Art. II of the constitution contains the passage referred to.

The narcotics amendment was brought up under nonpartisan sponsorship in the legislature. It passed the senate 28-0, and the house [illegible]. Sponsors were Democratic Sen. Harold W. Ryan of Detroit and Republican Senators Harry F. Hittle of East Lansing, Perry W. Greene of Grand Rapids and Haskell L. Nichols of Jackson.

Passage of this amendment would strike another blow against the [illegible] narcotics traffic in Michigan by facilitating the gathering of evidence for court.

By approving the amendment, citizens will be protecting their children, their neighbors and themselves from one of the lowest of all the illegal practices known.

High School Journalists

About 2,000 high school journalists will be on campus today for another annual high school journalism day.

Sponsored by the MSC Department of Journalism, the students will spend the day in sessions devoted to how to produce better high school publications, and getting them an idea of "what it's like in the field."

One of the most important problems facing high school students is: "Where do we go from here?"

They are faced with worries about whether to go to college, whether to go to work, and what they are best suited for.

For this reason, affairs like High School Journalism Day are excellent aids. In addition to getting ideas on how to better their publications, the students also learn something, however small, of what the journalism business is.

Any profession or business is [illegible] to high school students. And any opportunities they might have to get a head start and learn what is going on is a step in the right direction.

Welcome to MSC, we hope to see more of you.

Spartan Spirit

By Margaret Fuller

"Spartan Spirit stinks."

That's what an editorial in the State News a couple of years ago said.

I don't agree. I don't think Spartan spirit stinks.

The editorial was about a pep rally that looked like a [illegible]. Practically no one went to it. There were almost as many people taking part in the program as there were watching it.

What brought this to mind was the pep rally last Friday. To me it looked like a smaller crowd than attended the Michigan game rally. But the program was better—mostly by accident.

Students didn't have to stand through a barrage of after-dinner jokes like those told at the Michigan rally. It was snappy and got the audience into the pep mood.

In the last few years the idea of "on to Grand River" has so plagued pep rally planners that they have shied away from the pep rally like the [illegible]. The result has been a large turnout every year for the Michigan rally with fast diminishing audiences for the rest of them.

When the idea of holding pep rallies on Grand River was taken away from students nothing was substituted in its place to keep Spartan spirit alive. I don't mean to say that college spirit can't exist without a rally on East Lansing's main street. But the enthusiasm which was behind those famous—or infamous—rallies of 1949 and 1950 has since been given no outlet.

That was all too apparent at the Michigan rally. I doubt that many students went to the bandshell to hear someone tell jokes, or for that matter, to be entertained. I know I didn't. I went there with the idea that here was a chance to build up some steam for the game the next day. There was plenty of hot air from the microphone but it got a chilly reception.

I'm not a psychologist or even an amateur pep rally planner. But it seems like only common sense that pep rallies should have a little pep.

The problem is basically a simple one. It is to create spirit and keep it channeled in the right direction.

Pep rallies should be organized disorder. There should be disorder in that the crowd reaction is spontaneous. But they should be organized to the point that the crowd does not get out of hand.

Perhaps a pre-rally parade around campus, or more cheering at the rallies, or more singing or more speeches with fight in them would bring out Spartan spirit.

Whatever the solution is, it lies mainly with the organizers of the rallies. Students have already indicated they are waiting to show their Spartan spirit.

Congressman Explains Newsletter

TO THE EDITOR:

I am writing to congratulate the editor of the State News on the column which appeared in the Dean's List this last Monday. It expresses the responsibilities of a newspaper very well.

I have been thinking that it would be a very fine thing if the student body of MSC could [illegible] have a clear statement as to the responsibilities of a government. Many people wonder why the Student Government felt that it had a responsibility to enact the newsletter. I cannot speak for the whole government, but I think that these ideas were in the minds of some number of Congressmen when we established the newsletter.

The government is responsible to the people who elect it, particularly when we are spending their money. We want to represent student opinion when we spend. That is why we are setting up a system of polling student opinion. However, student opinion cannot be a valid guide [illegible] unless the student body has access to the facts about the proposals [illegible].

[illegible]

[illegible] money than they know, on the basis of a poll.

The newsletter will give the students a chance to know the facts, and if the students know the facts, more congressmen will vote to carry out their opinion.

These facts were referred to in the Dean's List as "free publicity" and "propaganda." From a technical viewpoint this choice of words might be correct. These facts if published would strengthen the Student Government by making it able to carry out the wishes of a well informed student body. It is not the purpose of the government to glorify itself. The words "propaganda" and "free publicity" might create that false impression.

The last sentence of the Dean's List said that the State News would neglect the opportunity to publish such facts if it did not consider them in the better interest of the reading public. This is in perfect accord with the responsibility of newspapers. However, it contradicts the responsibility of government. For that reason we must have a newsletter. These facts are of a great deal of importance to your readers when we have $3,000 of their money to spend.

Yewcic Ranks High on NCAA Passing List

By TOM RYAN

Michigan State's high scoring gridiron machine reaped the rewards yesterday of its overpowering conquest of Texas A & M as it took over the nation's lead in total offense.

This week's NCAA report showed that Michigan State has averaged 465.3 yards in its first three games. Second place California, which has played four games, has an average of 459.0 yards per contest.

In addition to total offense, the Spartans rank second in the nation in passing. Only Fordham, which has played only one game, has a better average.

Fordham gained 265 yards in its game while MSC has picked up 665 aerial yards in its three games, averaging 221.7 yards per game.

Quarterback Tom Yewcic, who has directed the team through the entire first two games and most of Saturday's contest, ranks 14th in individual offense. The junior signal caller has picked up [illegible] yards in the first three games.

Yewcic has passed for five touchdowns and averaged 47.8 yards a game so far this season. The MSC record for TD passes is 11 held by Gene Glick in 1950.

Al Dorow, last season's quarterback, holds the team record for yards gained by passing, 842. At the rate Yewcic has been going, he could set several new marks.

Ellis Duckett, the sophomore end converted from halfback, has a chance to set a new record too, if he continues at his present rate. In the first three games, Duckett has gathered in five passes for 217 yards and three touchdowns.

The all-time record is held by Bob Carey, who picked up 523 yards in 1949. Last season, when Carey gained All-American honors, he collected 283 yards, only 66 more than Duckett has in three games this year.

Paul Dekker has picked up 90 yards by taking six passes and Doug Bobo, the regular left end, is next with 83 yards. Billy Wells ranks next with 51 yards, although he has caught only one pass.

Pony left half Leroy Bolden has the best rushing average with 8.25. The regular left half, Capt. Don McAuliffe, is next with a 7.07 average. Wayne Benson has averaged 5.68 yards per carry, followed by Wells with a 4.64 mark.

Coach Biggie Munn continued to drill the team hard for the game Saturday with Syracuse. He plans to leave guard Frank Kush on defense.

ABOUT 40 field hockey enthusiasts signed for a Play Day to be held Friday at Ann Arbor. Two teams, to be picked from the group according to a system devised by WAA, will compete with coed teams from U. of M. and Albion. Other Play Days will be arranged this term. Hockey players interested in the competition may sign up at Women's Gym with Miss White.

IM Director Announces Grid Shuffle

Football Throw Contest Begins

Intramural Director Frank Beeman announced yesterday a mild shake-up in the touch football schedule for the remainder of the season.

Due to the fact that the present Tuesday night dormitory slate conflicts with the Inter-Dorm Council meetings, dormitory contests will be played on Monday nights instead of Tuesday. At the same time the present independent league schedule will be shifted from Monday to Tuesday night.

Beeman stressed the fact that the change will begin with next week's games on Oct. 20 and 21. The scheduled time of the games will remain unchanged. If any conflicts develop, a team representative should contact Beeman some time this week to make other arrangements.

Another switch is the rescheduling of Monday night's rained-out slate to this week Friday, Oct. 17.

In the football throw contest 85 participants have already tested their skill in a tournament that will run for the remainder of the week. Beeman announced that Art Goff, Pete Lure and Emerson Breth are currently leading the pack with 10 points out of a possible 15.

Drawings for the All-College table tennis doubles tournament will be made some time after Thursday night's meeting when entries will be taken. Exact time of the meeting will be announced tomorrow.

Score Second Straight Shutout, 20-0

Abbot 15 Whitewashers Ramble Again

By KEITH MILLER and CHET WENTZ

Defending dormitory champions Abbot 15 rolled to its second straight victory with a 20-0 shutout win over Abbot 14 last night. A penalty gave 15 the ball on their opponent's three yard line early in the game. The titleholders immediately took advantage of the break, scoring on an end run by John Krogman.

The precinct 15 boys kept up their pace in the second quarter when Krogman threw a touchdown pass to Dan Hassma. The winners tallied once again in the final stanza on another run by Hassma.

East Shaw 2, 33; East Shaw 8, 0

Ivan Cindrich stood out as precinct 2 shellacked precinct 8, 33-0. Cindrich threw four touchdown passes with both Ken Stanick and Pete Belanger on the receiving end on two occasions.

Stanick in turn flipped a fifth six-pointer to Bob Stevens in the last minute of play.

East Shaw 3, 28; East Shaw 7, 14

Intercepted passes played an important part in precinct 3's 28-14 drubbing of precinct 7. On the first play from scrimmage Bob Natiss snatched an errant precinct 7 aerial and raced 50 yards for the initial touchdown.

The losers tied the contest a moment later when Russ Meeuwsen hit paydirt. Joe Gratza scampered around end to reach touchdown territory to end the loser's scoring in the first quarter.

Tom Eldred intercepted another pass early in the second quarter and raced all the way to increase precinct 3's lead to 21-7. Carl Leban scored for precinct 7 in the third stanza before the winners concluded the scoring midway in the fourth period. Once again the fleet Eldred snared a misguided pass and ran for a touchdown.

East Shaw 6, 6; East Shaw 9, 0

In one of the few low scoring games of the evening, precinct 6 stopped precinct 9 by the count of 6-0. Bob Schaeffer threw the lone touchdown pass to Jim Perry.

Snyder 16, 6; Snyder 11, 0

Superior power displayed by Snyder 16 meant the difference in their whitewashing of Snyder 11. John Daugherty caught a Mart Sturn aerial for the winning score.

Phillips 5, 33; Phillips 9, 0

Precinct 5 of Phillips Hall hit the warpath Tuesday night scalping precinct 9 by the score of 33-0. Mickey Schwartzkoff was the big man in the winner's success as he chalked up three touchdowns. Roy Collard and Gil Greenbaum were credited with the remaining tallies.

Abbot 16, 9; Abbot 13, 0

Scoring all of their points in the first half, Abbot 16 coasted to a 9-0 victory over Abbot 13. Doug Orton sped around right end for the sole touchdown of the fray.

Phillips 6, 0; Phillips 4, 0

An irritating drizzle turned into a heavy downpour as two Phillips aggregations battled to a scoreless deadlock. Fumbles, sliced punts and dropped passes were in the majority. Phillips 4 apparently scored with less than a minute remaining in the sudden death overtime, but a penalty for too many men in the backfield nullified the touchdown.

Phillips 1, 18; Phillips 8, 6

It was all bad breaks for Phillips 8 as they took the count from precinct 1, 18-6. Dave Fisher started it all for Phillips 1 by picking off a Phillips 8 pass and scampering 20 yards for a TD. Vern Rawl recovered a Phillips 8 fumble in the end zone for 1's TD. Two safeties followed with Norm Jamieson and Jerry Bates tagging Phillips 8 runners in the end zone.

Abbot 17, 20; Abbot 10, 0

Abbot 17 had it all over Abbot 10 in a one-sided 20-0 show. John Taylor hit Ted Shock for the first TD and Wally Rzepczynski connected to Van Burmeister on a 50 yard pass play for their second score. Abbot 17 scored their last TD as Shock went around end.

East Shaw 10, 8; East Shaw 1, 0

Ron Nielson caught a pass out in the flat from Bing Gengaw and ran to the game's only TD in East Shaw 8's 8-0 win over precinct 1. Later in the game as East Shaw 1 was trying to get a drive going, Don Slezak of East Shaw 10 tagged an East Shaw 1 passer in the end zone.

Phillips 3, [illegible], 0

It was a [illegible] way out. Phil[illegible] aerial a TD on [illegible] to John Rahn for the game's only score to down Phillips 7, 6-0.

West Shaw 9, 6; West Shaw 6, 0

After a game that was scoreless in regulation time, West Shaw 9 scored first after four minutes of sudden death overtime to squeak by precinct 6, 6-0. Bud Spelley scored as he ran 25 yards with an intercepted pass for West Shaw 9.

Abbot 18, 9; Abbot 11, 0

Karl Marx started Abbot 18's 9-0 uprising against Abbot 11 by tagging a passer in the end zone for a two-pointer. This stood as the only score until midway through the last quarter when Ron Lutcher connected with Paul Berghoff to put the game on ice for Abbot 18.

Voters to Hear Political Talks

The East Lansing League of Women Voters will sponsor a meeting of local political office seekers in the Social Hall of People's Church on Monday at 8 p.m.

Each candidate will give a 10 minute talk followed by a question period. The moderator will be LeRoy Ferguson, associate professor of poltical science.

Democrat Don Hayworth, MSC professor of speech and Republican Kit Clardy, running for the House of Representatives in the U.S. Senate will speak.

Other candidates for county and state offices will also be present.

Mrs. John McCall, chairman of Voter Service, and Mrs. Edward Blackman, publicity chairman of the League are responsible for the arrangements. They urge everyone "interested in voting intelligently" to attend.

Refreshments will be served through the courtesy of the East Lansing Kiwanis Club.

Democratic Backers Meet

The Lansing area chapter of the Stevenson for President Committee held open house Saturday night at their newly established Stevenson headquarters at 717 S. Capitol Avenue. About 100 attended to make plans for publicity to further the campaign of the Illinois governor.

Among those who attended from East Lansing were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Williams, Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Al Rabin, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Denny, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Jaffe, Mr. and Mrs. James Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. John Waite, Mr. and Mrs. William Ebner, Simon O'Shea, Mr. and Mrs. R. Prexy Talks To Football Writers

Grid Rating Brings Hypocrisy Charges

By the Associated Press

"Recruiting and subsidization of college football players is still a serious problem, but not as serious as it has been," Pres. Dr. John A. Hannah said yesterday.

Hannah, who was chairman of a group of college presidents named by the American Council on Education to make recommendations for sports reform, told the Michigan Chapter of the Football Writers Association real progress has been made to clean up college football. He spoke at Kellogg Center.

"Recruiting and subsidization remains a basic problem," Hannah said. "I hope it will be slowed down by the college presidents.

"We made our recommendation," Hannah said, "The only decent thing to do now is to give the conferences, the NCAA and the accrediting agencies a chance to see what they can do."

Hannah said that if nothing were done he thought the ACE might meet again and set up some kind of an organization with police powers "to handle the situation."

"I don't think we'll have to do that," he said.

Hannah said that the most important proposals, the insistence that athletic departments be taken back into the colleges and that athletes be treated like other students, had won general approval.

The MSC president said he was placed in an embarrassing situation because Michigan State is rated the top football power in the country.

"Unfriendly critics say look at all the players we have and our success and charge us with hypocrisy," he said.

"There have been vicious whispers about recruiting at Michigan State," the MSC president told the football writers.

He then referred to the Musetti case. It had been charged in print that MSC used over-aggressive recruiting tactics in enrolling Jerry Musetti, an all-state halfback from Detroit.

"Ask Mr. Wilson (Western Conference Commission Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson) about his investigation of the case and he will tell you that the malicious reports were made out of the whole cloth," Hannah said.

"The man who named Michigan State athletic teams "The Spartans," George S. Alderton, sports editor of the Lansing State Journal, is writing a book on State's athletics to be called "The Spartan Story." It is timed for publication in 1955, Michigan State's centennial year.

Canadian Warns Against War

New UN President Appeals for Tru

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Two veteran United Nations leaders opened the seventh UN General Assembly yesterday with appeals for delegates of East and West alike to work unceasingly for an armistice in Korea.

Lester B. Pearson, of Canada, chosen as the new President of the Assembly, joins Luis Padilla Nervo of Mexico, the retiring president, in down-to-earth warnings that cold war problems everywhere must be settled or the world faces the ultimate tragedy of a ruinous war.

In an air of diplomatic gloom, the Assembly convened in the bright, gay new 12½ million dollar hall.

The speeches of Padilla Nervo and Pearson, Canada's foreign secretary, furnished what many delegates called a realistic approach to the tense international situation.

Despite their pleas, there was no sign of a break in the East-West stalemate or any other of the problems affecting the UN.
