Premier Stalin Still Unconscious, Condition Reported More Critical

Church Heads Seek Prayers for Recovery

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio announced early Thursday that Joseph Stalin's grave condition is worsening.

A new medical bulletin, the second, said the Soviet leader was still unconscious.

The first fresh word on the Soviet Prime Minister's condition came after the outside world had speculated he already was, or might be, dead.

The 73-year-old chief of world communism suffered a brain hemorrhage Sunday.

The new bulletin said the Soviet leader has suffered a second hemorrhage in the brain.

This is an exceptional worsening of the situation.

The heads of major Soviet churches called on their members to pray for Stalin's recovery.

The heads of the Russian, Ukrainian, Georgian, Armenian, and other churches in Moscow, Leningrad, and other cities.

Stalin studied to be a priest in the Russian Orthodox church.

The Soviet capital was blanketed in grief. People huddled in little groups on the streets.

The Council of Ministers called a meeting of the USSR and the Communist Party's Central Committee.

They announced that they were mourning the party and country.

They expressed confidence that the 20 million Soviet people in these difficult days would rally round.

There has not yet been any indication here as to how leadership of the government or party will be affected by the fact that Stalin is incapacitated.

Iron curtain delegates carried on business as usual in the U.N. Wednesday despite their obvious worry and concern over the grave illness of their leader, Premier Stalin.

They listened at the U.N. and the U.N. on all the old counts and hoped to get a better deal at the U.N. than they had at the U.N. last year.

There were indications that he might already be dead. Many in the west believe he is, including some medical men who stated that nothing but a miracle could have kept him alive for so long.

Regardless of the divergence of view, however, the impact of Stalin's disappearance from the world stage after more than 10 years of expanding power, the effect on America's interests and policies and the perspective changes for war or peace as a result of all these things dominated official concern.

The one fact seemed to be that the illness of the leader of world communism, who already has been built into a legendary figure by his followers and propagandists, has into doubt the whole future of Russia's behavior and policies in the world.

Eisenhower Sympathizes With Russia

Senators Speculate On Stalin's Death

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower expressed powerful sympathy for the people of Russia Wednesday in connection with news of the serious illness of Premier Stalin.

Then he went into quick trip-level conferences apparently aimed at getting American policy in developments that could carry the risk of great danger great good or anything in between.

Meanwhile the belief gained ground among top officials here that the Soviet situation must be at the point of death—or perhaps even already dead. Their view was that such disturbing news never would have been given out unless Kremlin officials have given up hope of his recovery.

In Congress the official report that Stalin had suffered a stroke brought out widely varying ideas on the probable results. There were expressions of hope that Stalin's death would end off an internal upheaval that would lead to a Soviet aggression and might even bring up a leader more amenable to peace. Also fears a top man even more intrusive and more aggressive and the Reds would try to even harder adventures aimed at keeping the people in line at home were heard.

Regardless of the divergence of view, however, the impact of Stalin's disappearance from the world stage after more than 10 years of expanding power, the effect on America's interests and policies and the perspective changes for war or peace as a result of all these things dominated official concern.

Library Fund Of $600 Started

Parent Information Drive Begun by Student Congress

By MARY LOU BERNICKER

An information campaign to get funds for a new Michigan State College Library swung into action Wednesday night when Student Congress appropriated $600 to finance the campaign.

The $600 will be used to disseminate information to the general public, particularly parents of MSC students, urging them to write to their state representatives to prove that the library is a necessity over the need for a new library.

Rep. Lowell McDougal (Snyder) said there is a possibility that the state Legislature may appropriate approximately one million dollars for the construction of a new library because it is proposed in the budget submitted by Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

Members of the Library Committee under chairman Larry Hirsch, representative from West Shaw will be McDougal, Bill Harmon (Abbott), Jim Pollock (West Shaw), Joyce Blanks (Snyder), Pat McDougal, Gilchrist, and Paul Robert, East Lansing.

Members of the Library Committee under chairman Larry Hirsch, representative from West Shaw will be McDougal, Bill Harmon (Abbott), Jim Pollock (West Shaw), Joyce Blanks (Snyder), Pat McDougal, Gilchrist, and Paul Robert, East Lansing.

A resolution made to consider the proposal in committee of the whole was defeated 22-12 so that the signatures could be needed for a vote.

The amendment requires Congress to nominate two candidates for the presidency who have served at least six months in the student government and let the student body decide the winner in an all-college election.

The eligibility bill once again came up for a vote but was put off until next week's meeting.

A bill to appropriate $200 to the library for the assigned reading room was tabled until further information can be gathered.

While moving from the library, the library committee will be held in the library until further information can be gathered.

Time Lauds 'Tilt' Parody Of Spartan

Weekly Criticizes Copying of Cover

Time magazine praised the Spartan staff for its January Tilt parody on the national news magazine, but criticized the staff for not getting proper permission to publish it.

A letter from Time explained that the magazine usually gives parody permission to college publications, but there are certain restrictions. Tilt stayed within most rules that would have been imposed, but violated the cover copyright.

"I'm afraid I have to tell you for not having consulted me... and for having failed to ask written permission," the letter went on.

In praise of Tilt it said, "We have skimmed through the pages of Tilt and want to congratulate you on the fine job you did. We're flattered by your imitation of Time."

Ken Aiken, fiction editor of the Spartan, said he considers the letter a compliment. Time took a "fatherly attitude" he added.

England Lacks Star System of Hollywood

While Americans rate Sir Laurence Olivier and Alec Guinness as top British movie stars, they receive no Hollywood-style fanfare in England.

There the main goal is to make a good movie, said Richard Carey, English exchange teacher in the Speech and Dramatic Department. Since there is no star system, British actors are recognized only on ability.

Carey said that Guinness, who gained success by portraying "little men" with much pathos, lives quietly in a London flat. In England he is better known as a writer than as an actor.

While movie-gum counter Vivien Leigh beautiful, most feel that Glynis Johns, the squaky-voiced blonde in "The Promoter," is just cute. However, on stage she is beautiful and a determined woman with a great gift for acting, he said.

Although the British are emotional about their actors, and don't want to see emotional acting, Alec Guinness, typical of this mood as he moves from calamity to calamity with an expression of sympathy.

Carey said he felt that Guinness is a great actor, and that he is a great actor.

British film companies are about one-eighth the size of the United States companies and are located just outside London. Although their actors have the comparative share of divorces, the public rarely hears about them, Carey said.

English movie magazines aren't as high as American ones, Carey said. They are pulp magazines of Saturday supplement size. They did support Margaret Lockwood, who played the lead in the "Kicked Lady" film, and was considered beautiful, Carey said.

Chaos Becomes Communist Key

(AP editors note: Across East Africa, from Cairo to Kenya, the Communists are trying to sow the seeds of chaos. One of the most strategic areas is the Sudan, soon to hold elections which will decide its future. William L. Ryan, the AP's specialist on news of communism, has made a comprehensive survey of the Red campaign. This is the second of three articles by Ryan dealing with the important East African sector in the cold war.)

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

KHARTOUM, Sudan (P)—Communism is working day and night to transform earnest nationalism into turmoil and anarchy in this vast, hot expanse of strategic territory. The Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, big as all Western Europe together, plays a prominent part in world communism's calculations.

So far the Reds have gained a small but important foothold. They have attracted many students and teachers, young people and workers, and lately have turned propaganda guns on the peasantry.

A high-ranking Sudanese says their whole policy is to "promote anarchy and chaos."

Their agents make their effort to muddy the waters in the current surge for self-government, to fan antagonisms between Sudanese and the British, between Sudanese and the Egyptians, between Sudanese and Sudanese.

Many of the people realize their nation could not isolate itself completely from outside help. A substantial number stand for "dominion status" with their northern neighbor, Egypt. Some want similar status with Britain. Others advocate a temporary United Nations sovereignty.

But the Communists are agitating for a program which would cut the Sudan off completely from the outside world and leave the sprawling, half-desert land completely helpless.

To do this, they fan old suspicions, play heavily on the hatred of the very word "imperialism," demand immediate cessation of the condominium, which is the joint rule of Britain and Egypt, and agitate for the immediate withdrawal of both the British and Egyptians. Non-Communists say such a program would lead to a chaotic condition approaching anarchy.

There is a good reason to believe the inspiration for the underground "Sudanese Movement for National Liberation" launched in 1946 came from Communists in Egypt.

On the record there are only 700 proved Communists in all Northern Sudan. But educated guesses are that Communists with their tools and dupes have a strength of 40,000.

The government says: "Communism is incompatible with Islam, the Moslem religion and most thinking Sudanese reject it, but its doctrines tend to deceive the have-nots who, in their ignorance, believe a grasping imperialism, accounts for the differences in their present standards of living observable between their own now rising circumstances and the standard established and maintained by the Western world only through generations of hard work."

Certainly in this part of the world communism places its accent on youth. A relatively large number of university and secondary students and faculty here and in Egypt openly profess communism and speak the jargon, support Red demonstrations and help foment strikes for Communist political aims.

The grievances of the Northern Sudanese intellectual go deep. He considers himself and his fellows fully capable of governing Sudan. Rightly or wrongly, he blames the British most of all for keeping him down.

Another evidence of Moscow interest in the Sudan is the activity of the World Federation of Trade Unions (WFTU), a Communist transmission belt with headquarters in Vienna. There are almost 80 trade unions in the Northern Sudan, despite the lack of any large-scale industry. A federation was formed in 1950, led by the biggest union, the railway workers. Then the Communists moved in, seizing leadership of the federation which claims about 150,000 members.

A man who left the Egyptian Communist party told me that in general Moscow and the Cominform try to make a party in an underdeveloped country stand on its own feet. The Cominform wants the local Communist to feel the party belongs to him and that he has a big stake in it.

Stalin Question

The news of Stalin's illness has rocked the world and set off a storm of speculation as to the affects on the global situation.

There is talk that "Comrade Stalin" has actually already joined "Comrade Lenin" in the Valhalla for kaput Communists. Some say he has been dead for a couple of years and that the news has been withheld from the world to avoid Russian turmoil.

Others say he died recently and that the news is being held back until the leaders of the party can decide on a successor and future policy.

Rumors even have it that Generalissimo Stalin is stepping down because Soviet expansion plans have not been on schedule and there is need for a younger man.

Whatever the cause or conditions of Stalin's expected demise, one thing is certain—This is no guarantee that the Reds have lost their leader and are now powerless.

There are many men in Russia who are capable of assuming the reins of the Communist party. There are plenty of men skilled in the fine art of totalitarian socialism as it is practiced in Russia and satellites today.

The successor may be a man whose policies are even more threatening to the United States and our allies.

When Lenin died, things looked black for the Soviets but their power only increased under Stalin. The death of Joseph Vissarionovich Stalin will present another question mark.

Don't Give Up Hope

You needn't feel upset if your roommate thinks you aren't quite "normal." At least that's what Dr. W. R. Bett, of London, suggests in his book "The Infirmities of Genius."

Dr. Bett poses the question as to whether genius flourishes only under abnormal stimulus. He cites the following observations: Carlyle's life was an unresolvable mental conflict; Shelley drank laudanum and drove his first wife to suicide with cruelty; Swinburne was a drunkard who had fits; Poe was a manic-depressive who sought relief in opium and liquor; Lamb spent time in a straight jacket; Byron had a club foot; Keats had tuberculosis; etc.

Dr. Bett says that no man is a genius because he is a psychopath but "subjects show, given the necessary qualities of mind, more than one process which the psychiatrist calls pathological may be an essential element of the virtue of genius."

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

Letters to the Editor.

To the Editor:
In connection with the recent controversial and questionable action on the part of the Western Conference, it occurs to me that Mr. Robert W. Service might have covered the matter somewhat as follows:

THE PROBATION ON MSC

(with apologies of Robert W. Service)

There are strange things done by the boys of Munn.
The boys who are "nailed" by gold;
The Sporting traits have their "secret taken,"
That make Wilson's blood run cold;
The Capitol lights have seen queer sights,
But the queerest they ever did see,
Was the time the men who run the Big Ten,
Prohibited MSC.

Name withheld by request

CALLS FOR STUDENT ACTION

To the Editor:
In reference to Norman Fortin's letter to the editor (Feb. 28) on the subject of the new MSC library and the fact that our state Representatives can be awakened to the need we students have for a new library (by mailing a postal card), I say: Well done!

I may even suggest that we have the student government appropriate enough money and have those cards made up, stamped addressed to the House or Senate, with the message of our need printed on the back, leaving space for student signature and home address. Pass these cards out to all students on campus for just a signature and mailing.

I'm sure that the direct method would stimulate all student participation toward effective initial action on necessary state appropriations for a new college library.

In conclusion I add, this is certainly just as important and to a greater number than bowling shoes.

Joe Sciaccia

HITS BIG TEN RULING

To the Editor:
Even if MSC has actually violated a Conference rule (an accusation which is questionable), the whole affair is still a case of the "pot calling the kettle black."

How can the Western Conference take such a high-and-mighty attitude toward its newest member, when several, if not all, of its older members have been carrying on corrupt football practices for years, and still are?

While a student at State in '49, I naively thought admission to the Western Conference would be something to which MSC could point with pride. But during my recent post-graduate years on the campuses of some of the other Western Conference members, I can only say that State has "stooped to conquer" by becoming a member of the "little Big Ten."

In my opinion, the Western Conference is headed by Tug Wilson in name only; actually, it seems to be run according to certain dictates emanating from over Ann Arbor way. Consequently, the other Big Ten schools are following in the University of Michigan's classic example of being a poor loser, and are now attempting to detract from MSC's recent football glory by making much ado over nothing.

If there were any truth to the Conference's accusations, why isn't State being penalized instead of being placed on probation? Could it be because the powers behind the Conference ruling fear what the football public might think if it knew how really weak the case against State is?

I, for one, would like to see MSC drop out of the Big Ten before they are completely contaminated by the poor sportsmanship of the other members.

Examinations for courses other than Basic courses will be given in the same classroom as assigned for class meetings at the end of the term. All students, instructors and room schedules will automatically clear if all courses follow this schedule.

NOTE: At least two of the days and hours must follow the regular pattern. In a few courses, at the request of the department concerned, the final examination has been scheduled by the single hour lecture section and in some instances students may encounter conflicts. In that event, the examination scheduled by the class meeting two hours a week would take precedence over the examination scheduled by the single hour lecture. The examination would have to be arranged between the student and the department requesting the special scheduling of its examination.

If there are any questions, call Mr. Reppenhagen in the Registrar's office (Ext. 501).

Pioneers to Host Gophers Tonight; Lose to Wolverines

Visitors Tied for First In Midwestern League

From bad to worse is the outlook for Michigan State's hockey team tonight as it opens a two-game series against the rampaging Minnesota Gophers at 8 in the ice arena.

The Gophers are currently tied for the Midwest Collegiate Hockey League lead with North Dakota with 14 wins and 4 losses for 17 points. The series will close the season for both teams.

Again the Spartans will have a chance to ruin some title aspirations. Minnesota needs both con-

Coach John Mariucci boasts what is rated as the classiest line in college hockey in Johnny Mayasich, Dick Dougherty and Gene Campbell. The three players are 1-2-3 in league scoring.

Mayasich, a sensational sophomore, is just shy of the league total points record, which was set by Ron Hartwell of Colorado College last season at 67. He can also break the total goals mark, also held by Hartwell with 40.

Only Denver and Michigan have been able to keep Mayasich out of the goal column this season. The Pioneers held him to one assist on Jan. 2 and on Jan. 17 he was completely blanked by the Wolverines.

Mayasich's 62 points last season was a new all-time Minnesota individual scoring record.

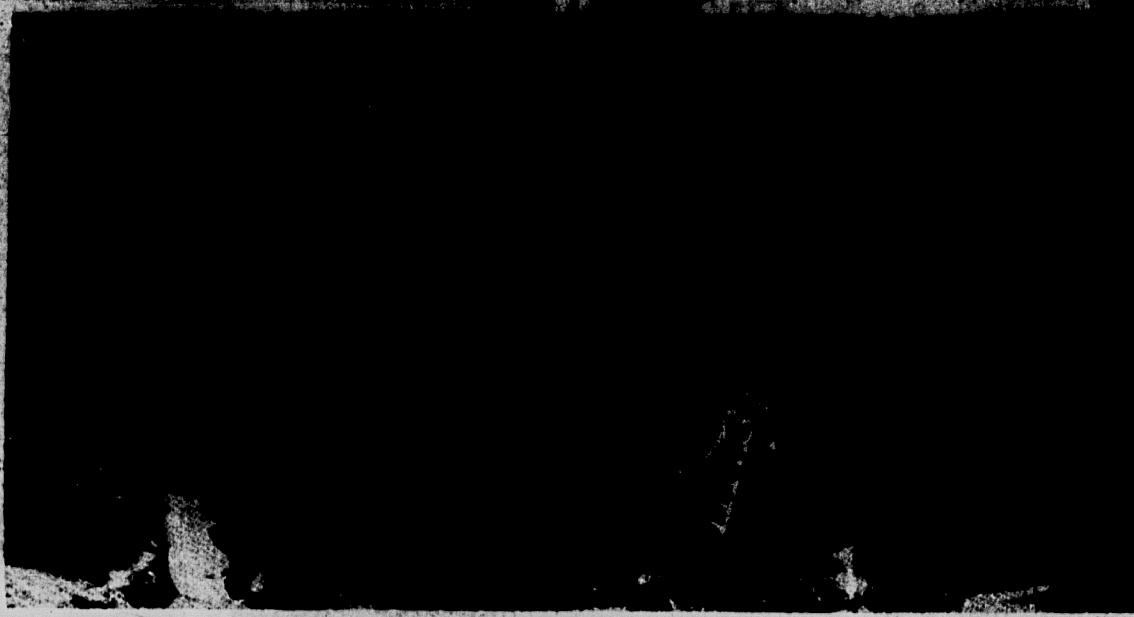

Both Mayasich and Dougherty poked in 32 goals last year and that also was an all-time Gopher mark. Mayasich has already eclipsed that record this year.

JOHN MAYASICH
... high-flying Gopher ... tests to keep pace with Michigan, who can tie for the crown with two wins over Michigan Tech.

At present Minnesota is the hottest club in the conference, and swept to six straight conference victories in February to gain the first-place tie. The Gophers nailed the Nodaks, Michigan and Denver each twice.

In the cage for the Gophers will be Jim Mattson, who has done a tremendous job for Minnesota this season.

Leading Minnesota at defense is rough Keith Wegleitner, who led the league in penalty minutes last season with 81.

In a melee before the Michigan net in Wednesday's game at Demonstration Hall, goalie Bill Lester with the aid of defensemen

Louis Paolitto (3) and Alex McClellan (18) stop Spartan Gordie King's bid for a goal.

Michigan Takes Favorites' Role In Conference Swim Conclave

By JACK KOLE

The "Big Show" of Big Ten swimming power will begin its three-day run tonight in Iowa City and experts predict the thickest plot in several years. Leading roles will be taken by the three recognized conference swimming powers—Ohio State, Michigan and Michigan State.

Michigan's Wolverines, by virtue of a 50-43 victory over the Buckeyes last Saturday, must be rated as the meet's favorite, but both the Spartans and OSU come into serious consideration.

Defending champion Ohio State, hit hard by the loss of sprinter Dick Cleveland to an attack of mumps, will more than likely give the Wolverines the most trouble. The Buckeyes still have plenty of big stars that should shine brightly in the cast.

There is also a possibility that Cleveland may swim despite his weakened condition. Reports from Columbus Wednesday said that Cleveland was out of the hospital and may be ready to go for the sprint prelims Friday afternoon.

Coach Charles McCaffree's Spartans have been conceded the villain's role. Although not so well staffed with blue ribbon performers they probably have the deepest squad in the Big Ten.

All the dual meets this season have been simply rehearsals and mean nothing. All honors must be reaped from this one huge carnival.

The Spartans have dropped only one dual encounter this season and that was to the undefeated Wolverines. Both squads clipped the Bucks, but McCaffree's crew faced them when they were minus Olympic stars Ford Konno and Cleveland.

Only one event is slated for tonight, but it will probably turn into a slam-bang battle.

That race is the grueling 1500-meter freestyle, where State's Bert McLachlan will collide with Konno, who won the event along with the 220 and 440 races last year. McLachlan took runner-up awards in all three distance events.

McLachlan will definitely have his work cut out for him. Konno set a new NCAA record in the marathon last year in the conference championships at 18:11.5. McLachlan's time was 19:08.4.

Other Spartan performers in the event will be two juniors, Bob Wightman and Kelly Ford.

Competition will move into full swing Friday with prelims in six events scheduled for the afternoon. Finals in these events will be held Friday evening. The remaining races will be run off on Saturday afternoon and evening. Depth is a definite advantage in the Big Ten meet and there is where the main Spartan hopes lie.

Four men may be entered in each event and six places are scored in all events, whether individual or relay.

McCaffree has four good sprinters in Tom Payette, Chuck Baldwin, Bob Schumacher and Chuck Egeler. This quartet has turned in the second-best time in the conference this season in the 400-yard freestyle relay and a similar performance in the showdown would net a big ten points for State.

In the breaststroke events the Spartans show another quartet in John Dudeck, Bruce Aldrich, Bob Hynes and Ron Ridgway.

Frank Reynolds, Bud Howard and Lanny Johnson are available for backstroke and individual medley duty. Reynolds recently set a new varsity record in the 150-yard individual medley at 1:34.6.

Diving for State will be Ken Coyne, Jack Hellwege, Don Morey and Lewie Michaud. Favorite in the competition is Ohio State's flawless Capt. Bob Clotworthy.

Bevo Nets 50 As Rio Grande Ends Season

CLEVELAND (AP)—Little Rio Grande College closed its basketball season Wednesday night with its 39th straight victory, and Clarence "Bevo" Francis ran his season total to 1,954 as Rio took an easy 109-55 win from Wilberforce College. Bevo had scored an average of 50 points in each of the other 38 games, and Wednesday night he had 54.

In the third period, Chin registered his last trick shot at 4:10 on a pin-point pass from Pat Cooney.

Jim Ward made it 6-3 at 7:05 on assists from Mayes and John Gipo when Michigan was one man shy, but Chin plastered one in from the right boards at 11:50. Olson got his third at 14:52 when he rebounded Darie Nicol's long shot, but Reg Sharpe got a blue-line screamer at 16:57 to give Michigan the last lick.

Chin Scores Four Goals As Victors Take Third

By JACK KOLE

Keyed up to a fever pitch, Michigan State's hockey team fought its heart out all the way but finally succumbed to Michigan power, 6-4, Wednesday night in the MSC ice arena. The rough and tumble fray was marked by 25 penalties and there was a continual march to the penalty box for two-minute infractions.

Weldie Olson got himself a hat trick, but had to be satisfied with runner-up scoring honors as Michigan's George Chin lit the red bulb on four occasions.

The Spartans were tied two to two with the Wolverines at the close of the first stanza, but fell behind, 3-2, in the second and were outscored, 3-2, in the final third.

State outshot the Wolverines, 36-30, but Michigan's smooth passing offense told the story in the end.

Jerry Bergin moved back into the nets for State after a long absence and did a tremendous job in the first and third periods, registering 34 saves. Bergin stopped several breakaways and Wolverine power plays. Jack Shackelford moved into the cage for State in the second stanza.

Willard Ihlo started as twine tender for the Wolves but was removed from the contest shortly into the second period when he aggravated an old side injury. Willard Lester moved into the cage after a five-minute time out.

State jumped to a 2-1 lead late in the first period as Olson slammed in two goals in less than two minutes. On the first he loosed it in from the left side after taking a pass from Gordie King.

Olson's second tally came on a beautiful combination as Jack Mayes passed out the puck from behind the cage and Olson nailed it home from a yard out.

Michigan had started the scoring at 12:40 when Chin stick-handled his way through the entire Spartan defense to register an assist.

Capt. John Matchaiffs tied it up at 18:19 as he poked in Doug Philpott's rebound after Bergin was drawn out of the cage.

Wild State one man down, Philpott swept in on a shoveling pass at 7:25 in the second period and blasted it past Shackelford and he was 3-3 for the Wolves. Matchaiffs and Alex McClellan scored assists on the play.

After several spectacular saves by Shackelford, the Wolves got rolling again at 16:40 on a typical power play as Lou Paolitto flicked to Ron Martinson in front of the net for the fourth Michigan marker.

Chin struck again at 18:40 as he skated past the Spartan defenders and batted in a loose puck for his second unassisted goal.

In the third period, Chin registered his last trick shot at 4:10 on a pin-point pass from Pat Cooney.

Jim Ward made it 6-3 at 7:05 on assists from Mayes and John Gipo when Michigan was one man shy, but Chin plastered one in from the right boards at 11:50. Olson got his third at 14:52 when he rebounded Darie Nicol's long shot, but Reg Sharpe got a blue-line screamer at 16:57 to give Michigan the last lick.

Track Final Scheduled For Big Ten

Two hundred and one of the Big Ten's finest track and field performers will vie for individual and team titles at the 43rd annual Western Conference championships Friday and Saturday in the Champaign, Illinois, Army.

Michigan, favored to gain 10th title, heads the entry list with 34 men, including three returning champions, John Ross, the mile, Jack Carroll, 440, and Roland Nielson in the shot put.

Indiana has entered 30 contestants, while defending champion Illinois has 22 and Iowa has 18. Other schools and numbers of entries are Purdue 20, Wisconsin 18, Michigan State and Ohio State 14 and Minnesota and Northwestern 10.

While the Wolverines stand as pre-meet favorites because of excellent team balance and good strength in the middle-distance runs, observers are not counting out the Illini or a fast-improving Iowa squad.

Illinois has returning champions in Willie Williams, hurdles, and Joel McNulty, hurdles, plus Stacy Siders, 400-yard dash, and John Bauer, 800-yard dash, in the shot put, and considerable team strength in several scholastic milegates which fell at midsemester.

Iowa will likely offer Michigan its strongest challenge in the middle distance events of the conference. The Hawkeyes' relay team in the 1958 relay, Lanny Ebert and Ted Winkler in the 800; Rick Ferguson, Ed Tom, outdoor two-mile runner in both the mile and two mile events.

In addition, the Hawkeyes are coming back to Illinois Army with the same relay team which cracked the conference record last year. Charles Boyle, Ebert, Wheeler and Scott. The relay is worth 10 points in a championship totals and victory for the Hawks might swing a meet.

Preliminaries for the championships begin at 7 p.m. Friday with finals slated for 1 p.m. Saturday.

Mat Meet Ends Year

Ten Big Ten wrestlers carry undefeated dual meet records into the annual conference mat championship at Indiana University Friday and Saturday.

The undefeated ten include Michigan State's Bob Hoke, a 150-pounder. Hoke has six wins and two draws to his credit this season.

Hoke will have to tangle with two other Big Ten grapplers in a weight division. Both Jerry Sbar, of Wisconsin, and Jim Ebert of Indiana hold unbeaten streaks, while Ellis has eight wins and a draw in nine bouts, and Hoke battled to a draw in earlier meeting this season.

Other undefeated wrestlers include three from Michigan: Ed Nelson, 130-pounder; Al Hunt, 127-pounder; and heavyweight Dick O'Shaughnessy.

Bob Lutz, Illinois 147-pounder, 120-pound Dick Mueller of Minnesota; George Myers, 177-pounder, and Joe Sturgis, 177-pounder from Wisconsin, round out the list of unbeaten.

O'Shaughnessy and Myers, defending champions from 1959, O'Shaughnessy has won a heavyweight title but was at 177 pounds this year. Myers has been in the 177-pound class but last year won at 194 and is expected to move up to the 220 program.

Other defending champions include Howard of Wisconsin, 120-pounder, and Ed Sbar, a 127-pounder, who last year won at 127 and is expected to move up to the 140 program.

Van Fleet Suggests Extension of Draft

General Urges 30-36 Month Service To 'Better Prepare Our Boys'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet told Congress Wednesday he does not believe the Soviets are interested now in a "shooting war" and said only a military victory can end the fighting in Korea.

The former Eighth Army commander also urged that the draft be extended from 24 to 30 or 36 months "to better prepare our boys to live" through combat, by permitting them more and better training.

With "a little more of what it takes to fight," he said, the United States can gain a military triumph in Korea without necessarily broadening the war.

The field commander made these statements in separate open and closed meetings with the House Armed Services and Foreign Affairs Committees, in a dramatic review of the Korean campaign. He goes before the Senate Armed Services Committee tomorrow.

Chairman Chipfield, (R-III), reported Van Fleet told the House Foreign Affairs Committee behind closed doors that "he felt that the Soviets at the present were not interested in engaging in a shooting war."

He said there was no discussion of the use of the atom bomb in Korea.

Chipfield said in a statement the general expressed belief American forces could "be withdrawn in large numbers from Korea" only after a military victory permitted the Americans to turn over a shorter defense line to the Koreans which they could hold with American support.

This statement evidently meant Van Fleet proposed regaining enough of North Korea to establish a semi-permanent defense line across the narrow neck of the peninsula, from Pyongyang, the North Korean capital, to Wonsan.

Chipfield said Van Fleet "was emphatic in stating that the war in Korea must end in nothing short of victory. Anything short of that would be a defeat. Peace in the Orient would require the unification of all, or almost all, of Korea."

The general said the Russian contribution to Communist forces in Korea "was forcing the Soviets to take pressure off Europe and other critical areas," Chipfield added.

Bill Defeated

Smoking Age Kept at 21 By House

Buying and smoking tobacco products is still illegal for persons under 21 years of age in Michigan.

A bill which would have lowered the legal age from 21 to 18 was defeated in the House of Representatives Wednesday by a 44-34 vote.

The bill, sponsored by Rep. T. John Leminski and Stanley Novak, Detroit Democrats, ended a bitter lower chamber session which saw the Democratic minority effectively use their 34 members to stop a bill's immediate effect.

The makeup of this year's House gives the Republicans one vote less than a two-thirds majority. This means that on matters requiring a two-thirds vote, such as a motion for immediate effect or a veto by the governor, the Democratic minority can kill the legislation.

The Democrats used this weapon Wednesday when the Republican majority in the House denied Rep. Joseph Kowalski's (D-Detroit) request that the Higgins Corporation's Filing Fee Bill be held over for a day.

After the bill had been passed by a 66-31 vote, Republican Majority Leader Rep. Harry Phillips (R-Port Huron) asked that the bill be given immediate effect instead of a 90 days wait after the session ends, probably in June.

Since the bill's purpose was to advance the collection date of the filing fees from August 15 to April 15 next action was needed. The Democrats held together and the Republicans failed by one vote to obtain the necessary two-thirds to put the bill into immediate effect.

Lynchings in the United States totaled 115 in 1900. In 1951 the total was one.

One Act Drama

Studio Theater Play Gives Moral Lesson

By MARY ALICE RITCHIE

"Mankind together, helping one another, only can bring the world out of chaos" was the moral lesson of "A Sleep Of Prisoners" which was effectively presented Wednesday night to a small but appreciative audience at the Studio Theatre.

Under the direction of Richard Carey, Christopher Fry's poetic drama disclosed the episode of four prisoners of war who were housed by the enemy in an abandoned church during the second World War.

Each of the soldiers was a distinctive type and their individual characteristics were clearly brought to light in dreams of four successive Old Testament stories. The well-selected cast consists of James Carver portraying the rugged, fearless Pvt. David King.

Convincingly playing the part of the innocent Pvt. Peter Able was Kent Fredericks. John LaForge characterized Pvt. Tim Meadows expertly and Al Holliday aptly carried the role of the domineering Cpl. Joe Adams.

The one-act drama which has been presented in both English and American churches will be held tonight through Saturday beginning at 8:15 p.m. Tickets may be obtained at the Studio Theatre in 49 Auditorium.
