The announcement of the doctor's plot contained many details of the meeting hours of the club, located in Berlin. Stalin's death was the topic of constant conversation. The report likewise spoke of legislation and efforts to improve the government, even listing some of all the things Stalin had planned to do before he died.

Notably grouped to leave the room, among them, were those who were known to be close to Stalin. They were all men, and they were all of the same age. The doctor's plot was a matter of fact. The doctor's plot was a matter of fact. The doctor's plot was a matter of fact.

Gophers Lose to Spartans

Victory Puts Minnesota on Top Spot

Displaying a flashy offensive attack, Minnesota's hockey team moved into first place in the Midwest Collegiate Hockey League Thursday night by trouncing Michigan State 7-3 in the ice arena.

The Gophers, who were previously tied with North Dakota, showed 15 wins against four losses in the league.

The two clubs were tied for first place in the league when Minnesota defeated Michigan State 7-3. The Gophers' victory was aided by a goal-scoring spree by their forwards.

Minnesota's attack was led by their forwards, who scored first blood in the first stanza, but fell behind at the close of the first period.

The Spartans tied it up early in the second, but it was all as far as State went.

Yackel scored on a lightning away at 2:02 in the first, taking a pass from Jim Yackel at the blue line and coming on goalie Jim Mattson.

Minnesota came back to put the Gophers in the lead with two goals in less than a minute.

The first one came at 5:48. Yackel passed from the left and Johnson nailed it.

The same combination clicked off with Johnson again lighting the red bulb.

Minnesota caught State with Jack Thomas behind the net at 12:10 as Mayasich took a pass from Campbell.

Mayasich got a pair at 10:00 by catching the right angle shot from the spot on the ice.

Mayasich squeezed through his legs at 4:04 of the final stanza on a pass from Yackel in front of the

Three-Way Battle Looms for Gym Title

The Big Ten gymnastic meet, slated for Jenison Fieldhouse Friday and Saturday, shapes up as a three-way battle between Illinois, Minnesota and Iowa.

But the fast-improving Spartans can't be counted out of the battle.

Michigan State hopes will rest on four top men—Carl Rintz, a five-event man; John Walker, trampolinist and tumbler; Harry Wilkinson, on the parallel bars and in the free exercises; and John Furry, tumbler.

Illinois, the defending champions, have two individual champions from last year in Bob Sullivan and Frank Bare, Sullivan

Only Six Men Entered in Fencing Finals

Michigan State will have only six men representing them in the Big Ten fencing meet at Ohio State Saturday.

Coch Charles Schmitter has limited himself to taking only those team members on the trip that he feels are almost sure point-getters.

Leading the Spartan squad will be Dick Berry, who has racked up a tremendous record in the epee during the dual meet season.

Other Michigan State entries are Don Valler in the foil, Dave Chase and John Moffett in the epee, and Ray Monte and Bob Bristol in the same.

The Spartans have gone through a 5-5 season record, compiling the most points in epee, breaking even in sabre and falling out of contention in the foil.

Defending champion Illinois is top favorite in the meet. Wisconsin, a strong dual meet winner, should come closest to upsetting the Illini.

will defend his tumbling and all-around titles. Bare won the side horse in 1952.

The Illini can count on a third strong entry, Jeff Austin, who performs on the trampoline and in tumbling.

Minnesota has Ken Bartlett, a fencer, competing in the dual meet, as well as a fine trampolinist, Vern Egan, and a potential point-getter in Matt Johnson, on the horizontal bar.

A close race was expected in the epee, with Sullivan, Rintz and Furry, all three of the nation's finest epee fencers, having been outstanding in dual competition this season.

Wrestlers Eye Crown In Conference Clash

Losers of last year's conference competition, the Michigan State Spartans are a strong threat to the crown now held by Illinois.

The outcome of the Big Ten meet at Indiana this weekend will depend a great deal on the result of the draw, but the Spartans are more than prepared to make a battle of it.

The heavyweight division should feature a battle between Larry Fowler, MSC, Walt Viellien, Purdue; Dick O'Shaughnessy, Michigan; and Art Preblich, Wisconsin.

Other MSC entries are 145-pounder Ed Casalicchio, 130, Doc Gaudin, 125, and 115, 105, 95, 85, 75, 65, and 55.

14 Men Carry State Hopes in Track Meet

Fourteen Spartans will carry Michigan State's hopes in the Big Ten track championships at Illinois this weekend.

The Wolverines from Michigan are ranked as strong favorites in the meet, with Illinois close behind and a fast-improving Iowa squad given an outside chance.

Michigan State is unranked as far as most track authorities are concerned.

Strongest contender for individual honors among the 14-man Spartan team seems to be Jim Keppord in the mile and 440-yard run.

Keppord will be running in a star-studded mile field that includes Michigan's John Ross, who last year set a Big Ten mark of 4:09.4, Illinois' Walt Jewsbury and Ohio's Jimmie Hagan.

Russ Oleka, who took third in the broad jump in last year's meet, will be a strong contender for 11. Spartans' top leap by any Big Ten performer this year has been 23' 3" by Northwestern's Art Kuriz while Oleka has done over 22' 8".

Jim Vrooman, Spartan high jumper who finished third last year, will challenge Michigan's Bob Evans. Evans has a jump of 6' 4 1/2" to his credit this year. Vrooman's best has been 6' 3 1/2".

Saturday's Game Ends Home Year for Cagers

By KRITH MILLER

Michigan State closes its home basketball slate Saturday at 8 p.m. against the ninth place Michigan quintet at Jenison Fieldhouse.

A victory over the Wolverines would give Coach Pete Newell's squad at least a tie for third place in the final Big Ten standings.

The Minnesota Gophers close their season hosting Indiana Saturday on the Minneapolis campus. Heading into its finale, the Gophers trail State by a half game margin.

After the Saturday clash, the Spartans hop across Lake Michigan to face the Wisconsin Badgers.

Stalin

Many of the people of Moscow flocked to the churches before Stalin's death was announced to light candles and pray for his recovery.

The people stood, too, at newstands for the latest news of their leader's condition. Otherwise life in the capital went on normally.

JOSEPH V. STALIN

The people had been informed that the Council of Ministers and the Central Committee of the Communist Party had taken over direction of the Party and state.

These were the close associates of Stalin and known as such, and unquestionably heed was being given to a call in Pravda, the Communist Party newspaper, for "unity of party and people" at this time.

Newell's cagers could take undisputed possession of third Saturday with the combination of a win over Michigan plus a Minnesota loss.

If both teams win, State would need a victory Monday to avoid a third place tie.

Heading into the last weekend of competition, the Spartans' leaders in individual performances are Al Ferrari, Bob Devenny and Jim Schlatter.

Ferrari, who is within 34 points of a State scoring record, heads his mates in eight categories including field goals made—103, free throws made 105, and total points 311. His rebound mark of 145 is also tops.

On the negative side, the New York City sophomore cops the personal foul crown with 74 in 20 games.

Preliminaries will be held this afternoon in the one-meter board diving event, 50-yard freestyle, 200-yard backstroke, 220-yard freestyle, 200-yard breaststroke and 400-yard freestyle events. Finals in these events will be held tonight.

Saturday morning preliminaries will be held in the three-meter diving, 100-yard backstroke, 100-yard breaststroke, 100-yard freestyle, 440-yard freestyle, 150-yard individual medley and 300-yard medley relay events. Finals in the same events will be run off Saturday afternoon.

Varied Program Gives Climax to Week's Events

By CYNTHIA EATON

An overflow crowd witnessed a successful variety show called "Play on Wheels," sponsored by the Union Board in the Union Ballroom last night.

Sixteen acts ranging from a hula dancer to a ventriloquist entertained a responsive audience as Bob Harkness, Detroit junior, and Ray Lane, Plymouth senior, masters of ceremony, reminisced about a European tour.

A chorus line of 16 coeds opened the show when they popped out of the audience and danced up to the stage.

Some of the acts presented included the "Spartakettes," a new singing quintette, doing "Tonight You Belong To Me" and "Jo-Anne"; a ballet number by Ronna Wagner, Battle Creek freshman; a clever record pantomime by Marge Cote, Pontiac senior; a peppy dance routine by Billy Wells, Chicago junior, and Jimmy Ellis, Saginaw junior.

Other acts included Dee Meyers, Detroit sophomore, singing "Have You Heard" and "The Trolley Song"; a Hawaiian dance by Ellie Muraki, Hilo, Hawaii, sophomore; a humorous ventriloquist act by Jim Mortensen, Iron Mountain freshman; a comic act by Bob Harkness and Ray Lane; a dramatic modern dance by Marilyn Ringler, Chesaning senior; and the Statesmen's songs, "Skylark" and "Chattanooga Choo choo."

Director and band leader for the show "Play on Wheels" was Tommy Aquino.

Five Schools Send Coeds to WAA Play Day

Five colleges will send coed basketball teams to Michigan State for a Play Day Saturday in the Women's Gym. The event is sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association.

The schedule of games includes Western Michigan College, University of Michigan, Wayne University, Michigan Normal Teachers College, University of Western Ontario and Michigan State.

Two teams from each school will register at the gym at 12:30 p.m. with games starting at 1 p.m. The swimming pool will be open all afternoon.

YWCA to Hold Discussion on Summer Jobs

A panel of coeds who have participated in a variety of summer service projects will discuss summer employment opportunities at the general membership meeting of the College YWCA Saturday.

Camp counseling, leadership training, service projects, students-in-industry and government are among the opportunities to be discussed.

Refreshments will precede a short worship service and the panel discussion. The meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the Physics-Math Lounge.

Highlight of this weekend's activities for "Y" coeds will be the installation of officers and the Service of Recognition for the 45 new members. The ceremony will take place Sunday at 8 a.m. in Peoples Church.

Old Timers, East Shaw 2 Win

By TOM O'DONNELL

A successful free throw in the final seconds of play gave the Old Timers the intramural independent basketball title as they beat the Indians, 33-32, Thursday night in Jonson Gym.

In the only other game of the night, East Shaw 2 whipped Abbot 18, 37-18, in the semi-finals of the dormitory competition.

Bob Sheathelm scored the winning point for the Old Timers as they locked up the independent crown.

Sheathelm scored the tying basket with 40 seconds to go in the game, making the score, 32-32, and then a technical foul was called on the Indians for taking an illegal time out, and Sheathelm netted the winning point.

The win for East Shaw 2 moved them into the dorm finals where they will meet Snyder 17, probably Monday night.

The winner of the dorm title will then join Sigma Nu, the fraternity champs, and the Old Timers in the round-robin play-off for the all-college championship.

The game between the Old Timers and the Indians was close all the way. At the quarter the Old Timers led 9-7, but the Indians pulled into a one point lead at the half, 17-16.

The Old Timers came back in the third quarter to lead 28-23 but then it was the Indians' turn. They moved into the lead almost immediately after the start of the final stanza—but that just set the stage for Sheathelm's game-winning three points.

Sheathelm, appropriately enough, was high scorer for the winners with 13 counters. Carl Diener led the Indians with a 10 point contribution.

The game between Abbot 18 and East Shaw 2 was a sloppy affair that saw each team assessed with 15 fouls.

Jerry Volk and Pete Carroll combined to score 19 of Shaw 2's 27 points. Volk had 13, while Carroll contributed
