Budget Bill Passed in House Without Changes

Michigan State's new library received initial approval in the Michigan Senate after a bitter fight Tuesday. The Senate took the same action on State's operating budget for 1953-54.

House made no changes in the $11,707,000 operation budget request for State. It passed the bill without argument while in the Committee of the Whole.

Dulles Sees End for Cold Trade

Friendly Nations Continue Actions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles let it be known Tuesday he doesn't favor friendly nations trading with Communists.

Dulles didn't mention Sen. McCarthy, who seeks to end such trading with Red.

Dulles' statement before a Congressional Committee on the Foreign Aid Program only a day after he had demanded to the official State Department on the subject.

Secretary, chairman of a Senate subcommittee on Government operations, abruptly halted testimony of a State Department witness who expressed sympathy for the one Dulles said he wanted to stop using any ship whose owners were trading with the Communists.

John R. Ladd, acting assistant secretary of the State Department, said Monday that the Department opposes any aid to shipping companies who profit from trading with Communist nations.

Dulles declared "there are forces at work within the States which would reduce further abdication" of U.S. leadership in the world.

Ike Asks Billions for Foreign Aid

Plan Offers Defense Against Red Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower Tuesday asked Congress for $5,828,000,000 in a new foreign aid program which he called a bulwark for America's own defense against "the threat of Soviet aggression."

Eisenhower coupled his request with a sharp warning to the Kremlin that the United States plans a substantial step-up in military aid to Communist-threatened Southeast Asia, notably in embattled French Indo-China.

He prodded Russia anew to prove the good faith of its recent peace overtures "by deeds" instead of words that have been flowing out of Moscow during the last two months in the post-Stalin era under Premier Georgi Malenkov.

In a special message to Congress, the President declared: "The basic purpose of this program is simply the long-term security of the United States living in the shadow of the Soviet threat."

"The blunt, sober truth is that we cannot afford to relax our defenses until we have seen clear, unmistakable evidence of genuinely peaceful purpose on the part of the Soviet Union."

The president noted that his request is $1,771,000,000 less than former President Truman asked in his farewell budget for the 1954 fiscal year beginning July 1.

Three Schools Draft National Hotel Charter

A constitution for a national hotel honorary fraternity was drawn up recently at a Chicago meeting of hotel administration delegates.

Delegates came to the meeting from Pennsylvania State College and Washington State College, at the invitation of the Michigan State local honorary.

The constitution was drafted and sent back to the respective groups for adoption. A new name was given to the organization, Sigma Phi Eta, society of professional hotelmen. A clause in the constitution states that no person can be excluded because of race, creed, color, sex, national origin or religion.

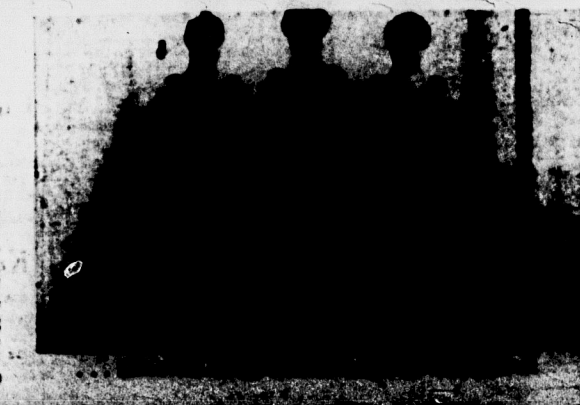

The governing body of the fraternity consists of the presidents of each of the individual chapters. Monte Gordon, New Rochelle, N.Y., senior, from Michigan State, Nicholas Melogran from Penn State, and E. W. Huntley from Washington State, Michigan State will be the host for the 1954 convention.

bicycles, donated by the Campus Police.

Living units are asked to send one individual to do the bidding. Doug Weaver, Goshen, Ind., senior, will emcee and Glenn Casey, Williamston, will do the auctioneering for his second time.

In addition to a previous listing of personalities up for sale, the Quinones, recent winners of the Horace Heidt show held at MSC, will take their place on the block.

A program has been set up to entertain the onlookers as well as bidders.

Living unit purchases will be arranged through their college accounts but individuals making purchases are expected to pay at the time of sale.

Hawaii Fetes Ex-Prisoners On Way Home

HONOLULU (AP) — Thirty-two liberated American soldiers—all who could walk—played tourist in sunny Hawaii Tuesday on their way home from grim Communist prison camps in North Korea.

Six other homeward bound soldiers who arrived during the night on stretchers in big military transport planes could not get out to see Hawaii—so Hawaii came to them.

Hawaiian hula dancers and musicians entertained them at Tripler Army Hospital.

All 38 were due to leave aboard two C-54 hospital planes at 2 a.m. CST Wednesday for the nine-hour flight to Travis Air Force Base, northeast of San Francisco. From there they would soon be scattering on their way to homes or hospitals near home all over the United States.

Eludes Matron Shortly After Visit from Parents

Mrs. Helen Strieter committed suicide Tuesday afternoon by hanging herself in the Ingham County Jail.

Held on two charges of first degree murder, she was found dead at 4:40 p.m. Sheriff Willard Barnes said she hanged herself on the jail bars with an electric cord from a "de-bugger" device.

He said the suicide occurred minutes after a visit between Mrs. Strieter and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Worden of St. Clair Shores, Mich.

Barnes said Mrs. Strieter took the first opportunity to elude a 24-hour watch which had been kept on her since her arrest.

According to Barnes, she had been locked back in the jail quarters after her parents' visit but had not been returned yet to her own cell, where she had been kept under scrutiny by jail matrons and another woman prisoner.

The hanging body was discovered by Mrs. Jennie Kennedy, veteran jail cook, who was returning to the cell-block with some ice cream for Mrs. Strieter for which the parents had left some money.

The sheriff's office reported the suicide had apparently been planned carefully. Mrs. Strieter had packed all her clothes and took advantage of a break of only 10 minutes to hang herself.

She had retired to the furthest of eight cells, giving the impression that she had gone to lie down for a nap. Mrs. Strieter's parents ended their visit at 4:30 p.m. and left for home, unaware of the tragedy.

Mrs. Strieter, 25, was the wife of Harmon Strieter, a graduate student at Michigan State College in electrical engineering. She had admitted to police officers that she strangled her two children, Sandra, 6, and Rhonda, 2½, in their campus barracks April 17.

She had been scheduled for a hearing Thursday morning following Thursday last Wednesday in East Lansing justice court.

Mrs. Strieter had been in the county jail since last Wednesday, when she was released from Edward Sparrow Hospital. She had been recovering from her self-inflicted wounds.

An earlier arraignment had been postponed because of Mrs. Strieter's poor condition following an emergency operation.

Police officials said earlier that Mrs. Strieter's slaying of her two children had been followed by cutting her own wrists and neck with a paring knife.

Kobsmen Renew Old Memories Against Irish Today

The Same Old Story: Tigers Blasted, 14-4

DETROIT (AP)—Pitcher Bob Porterfield hit his first major league home run Tuesday and it came with the bases loaded to lead the Washington Senators to a 14-4 victory over the pitch-poor Detroit Tigers.

Porterfield drilled his grand-slammer in the fourth inning while the Senators were scoring six runs. It sailed into the upper left field dock, about 370 feet away, and knocked out Bill Wight, first of five Tiger hurlers.

"It was the first homer I had ever hit," said the 27-year-old right hander, "and it came at the right time."

Following Porterfield's cue, the Senators scored six more runs in a wild eighth-inning flurry. Washington piled up 16 hits with Jackie Jensen getting a single, double and triple.

This bombarding gave Porterfield a 2-3 record for the season and ended the Senators' two game slide. Wight suffered his first setback against no victories and left the game with a balloon like 14.62 earned run average.

In the fourth inning Tuesday night, chasing Cleveland Indians ace Bob Lemon to the showers, they went on to win 11-1 to take undisputed possession of the American League lead.

Only an eighth-inning homer by outfielder Wally Westlake kept Whitey Ford from a shutout. He gave eight hits and struck-out five.

PARNELL TAKES FOURTH

CHICAGO (AP)—Mel Parnell cut down the Chicago White Sox with a sharp five-hitter Tuesday night, posting his fourth straight victory in a 5-1 Boston Red Sox triumph.

The undefeated Boston southpaw was supported with an eight-hit attack that included a home run by Ted Lepore, subbing at third base for ailing George Kell, the American League's leading batter.

A crowd of 11,144 was on hand for the under-the-lights contest in which Chicago's winless right-hander, Saul Rogovin, lost his fourth game.

Under the watchful eye of Coach Biggie Munn, center Fred Rudy practices hitting the ball to quarterback Jerry Luzzader. End Bill Quinlan (right) watches the proceedings. In recent days of the spring drills Luzzader has found willing targets for his passes in such flankers as Quinlan, Capt. Don Dohoney and John Lewis.

Sweet Music for Biggie Ends Shine in Grid Drills

By KEITH MILLER

Head Coach Biggie Munn should not have any sleepless nights next fall about the passing abilities of his ends, if Tuesday's performance by the flankers at nabbing the pigskin is any indication of all of their capabilities in that important art.

In a light scrimmage session on a muggy spring afternoon, Capt. Don Dohoney, Bill Quinlan and John "Thunder" Lewis all made several exceptional catches.

Dohoney, a Spartan defender star for his past two varsity years who hasn't snagged too many passes since his prep days at Ann Arbor High, appeared especially sharp in the receiving department.

On one occasion, the rugged blond made a diving, sprawling catch of a Jerry Luzzader aerial. Therefore, it now appears that Munn has a capable two-way man in Dohoney.

To go along with Dohoney, Munn has Lewis, who runs like the Detroit Lions' renowned flanker Leon Hart, and Bill Quinlan, who lettered in his freshman year.

Jimmy Ellis, the speedy Saginaw left halfback, also took part in the pass-catching department making several fine snags.

Performing in one backfield in the Tuesday sessions were Lefroy Bolden and Billy Wells at the halves, Earl Morrill at quarter, and Gene Lekenita at full. Lekenita is once again seeing heavy action after being hindered by a recurrence of a shoulder injury. While Lekenita is back from the injured ranks, fullback Evan Sloane still remains on the sidelines as a result of a twisted ankle suffered in last week's drills. Dr. Holland, the squad's trainer, sees slight hope for Sloane's return to action this spring.

Remaining on the training agenda for the Spartans are two more days of regular practice and then the final workout in Macklin Stadium at 2 p.m. Saturday.

This year's scrimmage will lack the halcyon and splendor of past seasons as the stadium gates will be strictly limited to high school coaches attending the Spartan grid clinic and members of the press.

Leaves It in Locker Room

Hickey Not So Mild in Ring

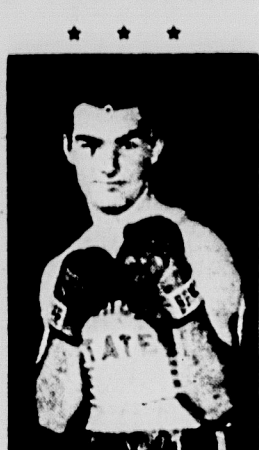

By RON SMITH

Mild-mannered Tom Hickey leaves his mildness in the locker room when he pulls on the boxing gloves and crawls through the ropes of the ring.

Disposing of every opponent he met in the past season, Hickey walked off with the NCAA 165-pound middleweight championship.

A 24-year-old sophomore from Calumet High in Chicago, tomlike-haired Tom is a non-pref student who leans toward a career in law.

The boxing game beckoned to Hickey while he was a 15-year-old high school student. Entering the Chicago Golden Gloves, he copied the 1945 novice lightweight title, and later added the TOM HICKEY ... for the fun of it ...

Winner of the Far Eastern Command boxing tournament, Hickey received many invitations from various schools. Big Brother Dan, who also boxed, is a graduate of Michigan State, and Dan convinced the hard-hitting Hickey that MSU was a good institution, so Tom made the trek to the Red Cedar college.

Hickey has had to follow in the footsteps of such great collegiate fighters as Chuck Davey, Chuck Spieser and Jed Black. His undefeated record has left nothing to be desired from Green and White rosters.

Davey, Spieser and Black have all turned pro and are displaying their ring wares in fine fashion. Says Hickey when asked about turning professional, "No, I really love the boxing game, but only for the fun of it."

With two more years of competition left to Hickey, the Spartan slugger should go on to equal the efforts of his three immediate predecessors.

Firing the ball over to straight batter, Bill Pullen featured a six-inning intramural softball card Tuesday night by pitching a perfect game in Urey's 5-0 conquest over Bower.

Ray Haskins, Urey's pitcher, performed the feat in the third stanza when he struck out four batters in a row.

Oil Rights Given to States As Senate Ends Long Fight

States Given Oil Holdings On Coast

Bill Goes to House For Final Sanction

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate ended its longest debate in 15 years Tuesday by passing the Eisenhower-backed bill to establish state ownership of the oil riches lying under coastal waters. The roll call vote was 56 to 35.

Before approving the bitterly-fought legislation, the Senate rejected a dozen last-ditch amendments aimed at canceling or limiting what the opposition called a gigantic "giveaway" of federal property worth billions.

The bill now goes to the House, which passed its own version of the legislation five weeks ago. A conference committee may have to be appointed to iron out differences in the measures.

Administration leaders commended the vote as "just and equitable" recognition of 150-year-old claims the states have made to valuable submerged lands lying off their coastlines. But senators who fought the bill through 27 days of acrimonious debate in what Majority Leader Taft of Ohio called "an honest to God filibuster" said the battle would be carried on in the courts and into the election campaign of 1954.

The party lines on the final vote was 35 Republicans and 21 Democrats for the bill and 25 Democrats and nine Republicans against it. Sen. Morse (Ind., Dem.) also opposed it.

Taft reported that through last Friday comments of the bill had spoken 970,272 words against it, while proponents had defended it with 270,642 words.

As the long debate drew to a close, Sen. Humphrey (R-Minn.) told his colleagues:

"There will be a day of reckoning when the American people realize we have only gambled the scandal of Teapot Dome on the floor of Congress."

Control of the submerged lands was a hot issue in last year's presidential campaign. Eisenhower came out for state rights, and he stood behind the state ownership bill when it was sponsored in the Senate by 40 senators.

Red Planes Beware!

ROTC Units Watch the Skies

With civil air defense beginning at home, MSC ROTC units maintain facilities for defense against air attacks.

During a 48-hour period each week, from 9 a.m. Wednesday to 9 a.m. Friday, two cadets, one each from army and air ROTC, keep watch in the air observer tower. The tower is located on top of the state police barracks, according to Maj. Andrew R. Clark of the Air Science Department.

A R44 attack would come from the north since the shortest distance from Russia to the Detroit area would be through Canada. Enemy aircraft would have to pass through two radar defense zones, Canadian and American.

"This may sound like an adequate defense," Clark said, "but radar does not follow the curve of the earth and the planes can. If they fly low enough our radar cannot detect them until they are too close."

Thus he emphasized the importance of the civilian and military ground observer.

The Air Force ROTC at MSC has a direct wire with the national air defense headquarters and to such defense bases as Selfridge Field near Detroit, Clark explained.

Anti-aircraft equipment in this immediate area, kept on campus, Clark said, is to say where the AA are located.

The artillery would be low-flying enemy planes of the anti-aircraft guns to 40,000 feet into the sky. Their main purpose is to destroy enemy aircraft at high altitudes.

A test air alert was staged last week with favorable results, according to Major Clark.

America spends less than $100 a year on research on blinding eye diseases, according to the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness.
