Two new members of the MSC Athletic Council are Dr. Edgar L. Harden and Dr. Harold Tukey. Dr. Harden, director of Continuing Education, was named to succeed Dean Lloyd C. Emmons for a one year term. Dean Emmons' present term expires July 1. Dr. Tukey, head of the Department of Horticulture, will succeed registrar Robert S. Linton. Tukey was named to a two-year term.

Judiciary to Decide Penalties for Rioters

Final recommendations for penalties for 21 student rioters will be made Friday afternoon by the All College Judiciary, Bob Duryea, chief justice of the judiciary, said Wednesday.

The recommendations will go to Dean Tom King for final decision. No names will be released until King has notified all rioters of the decisions.

Washington Denies Red Spy Story

Officials Brand Claim 'Fantastic'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department said Wednesday that Russia's story of four American spies being parachuted into the Ukraine is "too fantastic to deserve comment."

"Another dismal example of the phony charges issued from time to time by the Communists in an effort to delude their own people," said Lincoln White, a State Department press officer, in brushing aside the Soviet communique.

The Russians had announced that four men had confessed that they jumped from an American airplane over the Ukraine, one of the Soviet republics, a month ago to carry on "diversionist, terrorist and espionage assignments."

The announcement said the four were captured and executed by firing squads.

As usual, the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), the heart of America's intelligence network, declined to comment on the Russian charge.

Meanwhile the State Department indicated that it would not tolerate any lingering here by Christoche Zambetti, a Romanian diplomat accused of trying to blackmail a naturalized American into serving as a Communist spy.

Zambetti, declared "persona non grata," is expected to leave the country Wednesday or Thursday. If he stays longer, chances are that he will be provided a bit of official aid.

Zambetti is first secretary of the Romanian Legation here. He is accused of trying to induce a citizen to spy on the U.S.

On Michigan Highways

Autos to Take Heavy Toll

LANSING (AP)—At least 25 motorists can expect to be killed on Michigan highways every weekend this summer.

That's the grim forecast for the next three months from State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Chillo.

Chillo said at the present time estimates the toll of 25 deaths per weekend will start with Memorial Day.

Student Congress To Nominate Top Officials Tonight

Offices Include President, Speaker, Speaker Pro-Tem

New Student Congress members will meet tonight at 8:30 to nominate candidates for the offices of president, speaker, speaker pro-tem and secretary.

They also will select a committee on committees at the session.

Election of the congress president and the other top officials will take place June 2.

At Wednesday night's meeting the new congress members were sworn in. Bob Duryea, chief justice of the all-college judiciary, administered the oath of office to the congressmen.

Then the congress, in their first official action, approved the procedure of business rules.

The committee on committees, with the speaker pro-tem chairman, speaker and three other congressmen will have the job of selecting members and chairmen of the five congress committees: Finance, election and appointment, student rights and welfare, organizations and eligibility and congress business and state affairs.

Car Fire Called Work of Arsonist

A car, belonging to a campus visitor, was set on fire last week, probably deliberately, according to Fire Inspector Richard O. Bernitt.

Damage was estimated at $4,000. The car, a 1950 Ford coupe owned by William R. Palm, an Alma College student, was parked near the south entrance to East Shaw Hall. Contents of the glove compartment apparently were used to start the fire, according to Bernitt.

The cases of five Mason Hall riots will be decided later. About five more men will also be interviewed, Duryea added.

In a coffee hour for new Student Congress members and the faculty Wednesday, Elwood Voller, assistant to the dean of students, said that Dean King has never had to reverse a court recommendation but that the final decisions would be up to him.

In answer to a question about the three suspended rioters who will go to court in East Lansing, Voller said that the dean of students office has nothing to do with the police administration.

We suspended the students, but had nothing to do with the police action," he said.

Voller explained that only seven clear cut cases were decided without going to the judiciary.

"When there was any doubt at all we handed the case to the court to decide," he added.

Fierce Fighting Wages in Korea

SEOUL (AP)—An estimated 3,750 Red troops were locked in hard battle with U.N. infantrymen on the tense East-Central Korean War front Thursday (Korean time).

The U.N. Command said a Red regiment, about 3,000 men—and a battalion, 750, hit U.N. positions about 10 p.m. Wednesday night and that fierce fighting still was underway this morning.

This sequence of pictures was made by the gun camera of a U.S. Sabre jet plane. It shows the pilot of a MIG-15 being ejected from his plane after it was hit by bullets from the Sabre. At top left the MIG-15 has just been hit; right, top, the pilot has set off his ejection charge. At left, bottom, the Red pilot has just left his plane, and at right, bottom, he is floating into space.

Law Club to Hear Auditor General

Michigan Auditor General John B. Martin will address the last meeting of the Prelaw Club at 8:30 in 25 Union tonight.

He will speak on his experience in law and state government work. William Wise, president of the Ingham County Bar Association, will introduce him.

During World War II Martin helped organize and headed the National Office of Civilian Defense in Washington. Later commissioned in the U. S. Navy, he was assigned to secret service work in Europe.

'Grass Harp' Debut Called Successful

Theta Alpha Phi planned to present "The Grass Harp" as a challenge to their abilities. Wednesday night, in 241 Home E, they met the challenge with measured success.

The play, presented on Broadway as a stage production, seemed to lend itself more to the arena style used by the group.

However, arena style production calls for extra acting ability due to the closeness of the play to the viewer, and adequate performances were turned in by the cast.

"The Grass Harp," by Truman Capote, is a play with the theme "The meek shall inherit the earth." Playing the meek, Suzanne Sullivan, Grand Rapids junior, as Catherine Creek, John Zachary, Detroit sophomore, as Colin Talbot, and Ann Houchins, Niagara, N.Y. senior, as Dolly Talbot, registered convincing performances.

Upholding the meek, and doing a good job, was Louis Sharpe, Richmond, Va. graduate student as Judge Cool.

Opposed to the meek were Patricia Davies, Grand Rapids junior, as Verena Talbot, and Douglas Rider, Battle Creek freshman, as Dr. Morris Ritz. The functional sets and staging were done by Herbert Camburn, Morenci senior, and Ray Monte, Trenton senior.

Several of the characterizations could be called shallow at times, but Kathleen McGowan, Jackson senior, as Miss Baby Love Dallas, was worth the price of admission alone.

Brooks Atkinson, reviewing for the New York Times, called the controversial Capote play "The most creative contribution of the season." It is called a comedy-fantasy, but has more than idle humor in mind.

The plot forms around the "average" person who is against the "rich" man who is against the "poor" man, leaving the grasping sister behind. Searches are forced to bring them back, resulting in the shooting of Colin Talbot, which precipitates the conclusion. A bit humble, a bit sad, the grasping sister gives in to the meek.

The production will continue tonight and Friday at 8:15. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

There were no bad effects but improvement was not good enough to warrant the continuance of the table. It seems to aid students may replace the study table next year," Miss Ray said.

Students are permitted a term will be granted to all women, including transfer students, with the exception of first term freshmen. It was noted that first term freshmen will be allowed three.

The consideration of an additional late permission will be the penalty for taking late permissions on Monday night, the board decided.

Rosenberg Defense Starts Over Again

NEW YORK (AP)—The defense started all over again at the bottom Wednesday in a new bid to save the lives of the condemned atom spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg.

Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman, who condemned the pair two years ago, was summoned to appear Monday in the Federal Court of Appeals to defend his death sentences. This is a technicality and he will be represented by government attorneys.

Meanwhile, Defense Attorney Emanuel Bloch started at the bottom in the Federal District Court with a motion to vacate the death sentences against the Rosenbergs.

The U.S. Supreme Court for the third time Monday refused to intervene in their case. Bloch is trying to persuade the court on Friday of a new execution date.

Bill Becomes Law Minus Signature

Funds to Provide Money for Library

Gov. G. Mennen Williams told the people of Michigan Wednesday night that he will let the Business Receipts Tax bill become law without his signature.

This move by the state's chief executive all but assured Michigan State of the funds to start construction on a new library.

The Michigan legislature is presently in recess. The lawmakers will return June 1 to officially learn Williams' action on the bill. Both House and Senate leaders were unanimous in their feeling before the adjournment that if the bill became law, the appropriation measures now in the legislature would have easy sledding.

Explaining his stand in a state-wide broadcast, the governor said that he had refused to sign the bill because "those who drafted it in secrecy, and forced it through the legislature without adequate consideration, must bear the full responsibility before the people."

Earlier Wednesday, the governor took advantage of his constitutional right to let the bill become law without signature. He could have vetoed the bill or signed it.

Williams further explained his stand by declaring—provided the bill is constitutional—"will ensure some additional revenue to state off financial disaster."

A Republican "reply" took immediately to the air waves to answer the Democratic governor's attack on the GOP-controlled legislature.

On the team were Senator George N. Higgins (R-Ferndale), Senator Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo) and Speaker of the House Wade Van Valkenburg (R-Kalamazoo).

Senator Higgins asserted, "This is a good bill—fair and just." He added, "It is the fairest tax bill presented to the legislature. We believe it will stand the test of time and after it has been in operation, the facts will prove it is equitable."

Higgins continued, "It is a brain-base, low-rate bill which will keep our schools operating, patients in mental hospitals will be fed and clothed and will balance the budget."

The legislators told Gov. Williams it is their prerogative to define the revenue program.

Van Valkenburg defended levies which represent property ownership, regardless of profits, and said they were similar to real and personal property taxes.

Morris answered the governor's charge of big business influence by declaring the Senate tax committee.

Dave Siegrist hurled a one-hitter for the Phillips squad which scored four times in the first frame to coast to victory. The big blow in the uprising was Dick White's two banger which scored two runs.

Snyder's sole hit was picked up by Bob Wright in the first inning. East Shaw 1, 5; East Shaw 16, 5-1. Jerry Adler led precinct 1 to the East Shaw championship as he twirled a one-hit shutout over precinct 16.

The KOLEMINE
Big 10 Meetings Should Shed Light on Probation

by JACK KOLE
State News Sports Editor

When the Big 10 officially accept Michigan State as "one of the gang" or will the Western Conference continue to use the size of prejudice against MESC?

Part of the answer to this question should come out of Champaign, Ill. this weekend when the University of Illinois hosts the spring Big 10 meetings.

Donna Lloyd C. Simmons, Michigan State's faculty representative, Athletic Director Robert Young, and Football Coach Elgie Egan left Wednesday for the semi-annual gathering.

Emmons expects a "point of progress" on Michigan State's one-year probation at the meetings. Big 10 Commissioner Kenneth E. "Tug" Wilson raised the hope of an early termination for the probation in a campus visit last month.

If no word is forthcoming from the meetings, it will be assumed that conference schools will have no intention of treating its infant member on a fair and equal basis.

THE MEETING WILL OPEN TODAY but the day's subject is already pretty well cut and dried.

On the agenda is the Rose Bowl renewal pact, which is up for another three years. When all schools have voted for renewal and only four have voted against the plan, today's session on the conference level presumably will confirm this majority.

Schools favoring renewal are Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Purdue, Iowa, and Ohio State while Minnesota, Northwestern, Wisconsin and State are opposed.

If any hitch develops at today's meeting, it may stem from Illinois' insistence that a team may not play in the Rose Bowl more than once in three years. But the Illini will probably win under pressure.

Purdue was the pivotal school in the renewal vote, swinging in favor after reportedly voting against the present pact.

ALWAYS PROMINENT ON THE DISCUSSION schedule for the meetings are matters of academic eligibility, recruiting policies and athletic scholarships.

According to Emmons, this year will be no exception. With the increasing de-emphasis of recent years, the policies of the individual schools will probably come under extremely careful scrutiny.

Elgie Egan will be kept busy by proposed changes in football rules. All the suggested revisions will be muffled over by the conference gridiron heads.

There will be some pleasure, however, to take the strain off the important decisions. Some of the meetings is the luxurious Allerton Park estate, private property of the University. And to add to the relaxation, a golf tournament is always held for all who wish to participate.

AT THE SAME TIME THE FACULTY representatives are going to it in Champaign, four Spartan coaches will be in Chicago to set the 1953-54 schedules.

At these meetings, which also run today through Saturday, are Swimming Coach Charles McCaffrey, Wrestling Coach Fendley Collins, Fencing Coach Charles Schmittler and Gymnastics Coach George Szypula.

It looks like Memorial Day will be no holiday for Michigan State athletes.

Dual Record Favor State Regain Crown

By BILL TWAY
It will be Michigan Spartans against the this afternoon as the tennis championships der way at Evanston.

The Spartan netters are feated this season, having same dual-meet winning. They have won 10 straight season, including eight Western Conference.

Three of these, against Northwestern and Illinois shutout wins. Michigan defeated twice by double scores, while Ohio State's cousin fell before the Spartan slught by 8-1 margins.

It was the Indiana B. the defending Big 10 that provided the Spartans their only real battle season. But the Spartans managed a comparative 6-3 victory. The Spartans runners-up to the Home the title last season.

A separate tournament off for each position, and the conference rules one awarded each victory as preliminaries. With the that the Spartans have this year, Coach Frank is confident that State will too strong for the Western position.

The entire MSC squad get advantageous seeds, tourney, which should be mndously. Such are the basis of dual meet.

Leading the Spartans will be Capt. Stan Konopka, a one singles man who feated in dual meet and Jim Parr, the number five man who has a perfect record season. Both will be first at their respective positions.

Robac and Belton are ing number one doubles, and on the basis of undefeated play this season, they are favorites to defend their title.

Sabratian and Robert form the number two combo, and will be seeded at that spot. They lost Indiana in Big 10 action spring.

With five straight wins their credit, Parr and Oakland will team up in the number three doubles. Since they were coming this season, the duo is pruned everyone with outstanding play.

With Indiana and Michigan as the teams to be man hopes that the Wolverine will help the to the crown by eliminating other. In early rounds, where the seedings will be the strong five only in rounds, where a loss will mean an entire loss of points.

Marksman Mathews, first man on the Michigan State ball team, is also a member of the college Air Force ROT team.

Thrive on One Platoon System

Grid Ruling to Help Gophers

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI)—The Gophers' grid prowess fell to an all-time low. For some reason or other, the Gophers could never come up with a good squad in the days of mass substitution.

Because of their plight with the two platoon, the Gophers should relish the return to the old style of football where a 60-minute man was as common as a Minnesota snowfall in December.

In last fall's campaign, Minnesota started back on the glory road with a team that gave staunch and long suffering Gopher fans a hint of the promised good things to come.

The '53 aggregation tied Michigan for third in the final Big 10 standings with a mark of three wins, one loss and two ties. In fact, the Gophers were riding along in first place until they ran into a Michigan "11," which knocked them down 27-7 in a late October contest.

For the coming season Fesler will have a promised 30 lettermen on hand unless injuries or the draft steps in. For the commencement of spring practice, the transplanted Ohio State mentor had approximately 90 candidates available.

When the fall sessions open, Fesler's main job will be to aid Giel in his defensive work, for the offensive star has played only a few minutes of defense in his stay at Minnesota.

Giel didn't work out in the spring program as he was occupied with pitching chores for the Gopher nine.

Behind Giel at the left half spot are several candidates headed by lettermen Kermit Klefsaas and Dale Quist plus yearlings George Ramberg, Dick Sauer and Duane Jennett.

Seasoned material is expected to back up Bob McNamara, last fall's offensive end and defensive safety man, at right half. Veterans Buzz Meighen, Ralph Goode and Ed Heinz are set to battle for the position.

Keen competition is seen for the quarterback post as Gene Cappellotti and Max Schmidt are given good chances to take the post from Ben Swanson, who has held the signal-calling

Tigers Battle To 2-2 Draw With Chisox

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago White Sox and the Detroit Tigers battled 15 innings to a 2-2 tie before a crowd of 13,904 here Wednesday night before the game was halted because of the 12:30 curfew rule.
Art Houtenham started for the Tigers and was removed in favor of a pinch-hitter in the ninth when Detroit came from behind to tie the ball game. Dave Madison went the rest of the way.
Joe Deaton and Al Derish, who took over the mound duties in the fifth, shared the marathon pitching chores for Chicago.

The White Sox scored in the first and seventh innings for a 2-1 lead, the Tiger run in the fifth, before Detroit tied the game in the top of the ninth.
A hit, two errors and a walk produced the tying run. Catcher Matt Batts opened the stanza with a hit. After Owen Francis was put in to run for Batts, Fred Hatfield and Pat Mullin both reached base on two successive White Sox errors. With the sacks loaded, Dorish walked Jerry Priddy to force in the tying run. Both teams batted out 12 hits.

Ohio U. to Face Wolverines in NCAA Playoff

ANN ARBOR, MICH. (AP)—Michigan makes its second try for honors in the NCAA baseball tournament this weekend. The Wolverines, co-champions of the Western Conference, meet Ohio University Friday to open a best two-out-of-three series for the District No. 4 title and the right to move into the big NCAA tournament at Omaha, Neb., June 11-15.
Michigan tied it once before, losing out in 1948 in the first round to Western Michigan, perennial baseball power and runner-up to Ohio U. in the Midwest Conference this season.

The Wolverines won 16 out of 18 games in the Illinois for the league title this year and posted a .348 team batting average in winning 15 and losing eight overall.

Statistically, that's inferior to the 8-1 record Ohio U. fashioned to edge Western Michigan for the MAC title, the 19-2 overall record posted by the Bobcats and their .356 team batting average. However, the Wolverines are an improving ball club and may be at their peak for the series.

To be reasonably effective, an airplane wing should have a length at least six times its fore-and-aft width.

Saxton Jolts Miceli for 40th Victory

DETROIT (AP)—Unbeaten Johnny Saxton Wednesday night won a unanimous decision over Joe Miceli at Olympia Stadium to gain his 40th win.
Saxton, a slight favorite, weighed 147 1/2 in the lively battle between the two New Yorkers. There were no knockdowns but the action became so furious that both fighters fought after the bell rang in the fourth and eighth rounds.
Saxton piled up what appeared to be a safe lead over the first seven rounds.

Risch Makes Center His Home

Jack Risch, covers a lot of outfield for the Michigan State baseball team.

... Fly chaser deluxe ...

Based in center field for the Spartans, Risch has had the crowds at Old College Field on the edge of the bleachers on more than one occasion. He roams from left to right with equal agility and speed to nab what might otherwise be certain hits.

A graduate of Bayview High School, Milwaukee, Risch was track, golf, basketball and baseball letters in his prep days. The Bayview team won the Milwaukee High School baseball championship in 1966. The same year, Risch was a member of an American Legion Junior baseball team that took honors at Milwaukee City Champion, and he was selected on the Wisconsin Junior All-Star team.

Taking over in center field for the Spartans during the 1952 spring southern trip, Risch batted over North Carolina and Yale. During the regular season in 1952, Risch batted .254, missing but eight games.

To date this season he is batting .239 with 17 hits in 71 trips to the plate. But, his fielding has been on the spectacular side. During the spring trip, Risch took a long fly ball right at the fence in deep center field and doubled a runner who attempted to make it home after the catch.

Against Wisconsin, he came dashing in and made a shoeing catch that the crowd had already cheered as a hit, then threw to first to double a runner. Risch is enrolled in education with a history major. He is an ROTC cadet and will be commissioned upon graduation in June 1954.

Golfers Leave for Madison In Quest of Big 10 Crown

Coach Ben Van Alstyne and his golfers left for Madison, Wis. Wednesday for the Big 10 meet with the satisfaction that Michigan State can finish no worse than last year.

The Spartan linkmen wound up in last place in the conference competition last season.

The first round will begin Friday when 36 holes will be played. An equal number will be shot Saturday to end the meet.

Today's schedule calls for a practice round at the Maple Bluff Country Club near Madison.

During regular season play, the Spartans won five, lost five, tied one. Against Big 10 competition, however, they could win only one, while losing four and tying one.

The conference win was a 15-11-11 victory over Wisconsin while the golfers tied strong Northwestern, 13-13-13. Another impressive win came over Notre Dame, 14-13.

Four teams are expected to dominate the tournament. They are defending champion Michigan, Ohio State, Purdue and Northwestern.

Van Alstyne felt that State's chances of finishing in the first division were not too good, but hoped that his team could improve last season's cellar standing.

The veteran Spartan mentor thought that Co-Capt. Carl Messner and Bill Albright had the best chances for individual honors in the tournament.

The other four men to make the trip are Don Stevens, Dave Mancour, Bill Hills and Co-Capt. Hal Ware.

Also accompanying the squad is Assistant Coach John Brotzmann.

U.S. Leaders Present Truce Plan Modification

Details Not Given By Koreans
Want Changes In Present Plan

SEOUL (P)—The South Korean government, not consulted and balking angrily at secret terms of the U.N. Command's new truce plan, will make a last ditch attempt to get it modified before the possible agreement is signed by the Command.

An official government source said South Korea will present its own plan to the Allied Command at Munsan late Wednesday (Korean time) in an effort to solve the prisoner exchange deadlock. The problem involves about 34,000 North Koreans and 14,500 Chinese prisoners who refuse to return home after an armistice.

There will be a series of recommendations including a "very important letter" expressing the views of President Syngman Rhee's government.

Details of the Korean proposal were not disclosed.

Officially observing protocol, the Korean member of the Allied truce delegation, Maj. Gen. Choi Duk Shin, was due to deliver his government's recommendations to Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr., senior member, at Munsan.

The move subtly emphasized that while Britain, India and other countries were told in advance what the latest Allied truce plan would offer, South Korea was not consulted on the drafting of the plan although it was a member of the truce delegation.

President Rhee was advised of the terms only an hour before it was presented last Monday to the Command. General Choi berated that meeting at Panmunjom.

Rhee has repeatedly vowed to fight on alone if an armistice was signed that did not provide for unification of all Korea.

In Washington, U.S. State Department officials said the idea of a unified Korea would be pressed at a peace conference to follow any truce agreement.

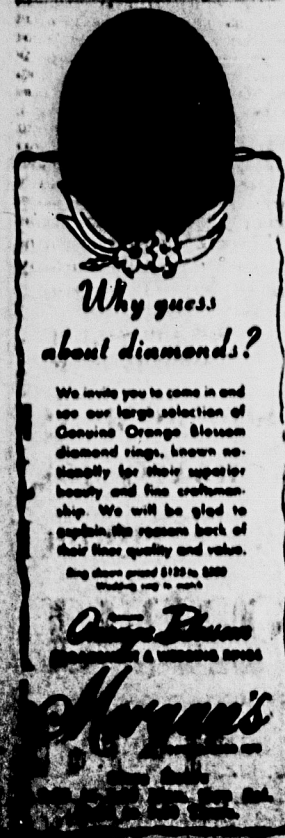

The Allies presented their plan in secrecy. At Allied request the negotiations were then recessed until next Monday.

Williams

mission had consulted spokesmen from 40 or 50 businesses.

"From the small grocer to chain store operators," Morris said, "they agreed the levy was fair and equitable, and said small and unincorporated business is ready to pay the small tax involved to support their state."

The Governor had merely announced at 1 p.m. he would let the bill become law without signature to avoid "worse evils."

In his speech Wednesday night, Williams said:

"This tax is not based upon ability to pay. It must be paid whether the enterprise loses money or makes money."

The bill levies one-fourth of one per cent (4 mills) on the income of business, self-employed professional people and farmers about $10,000 a year and after deduction of 50 per cent of their total receipts for operating expenses. They may deduct more than 50 per cent if their expenses are higher than that figure.

But labor costs and depreciation may not be figured in the operating expense deduction.

The bill becomes effective July 1 and requires all but farmers to make quarterly payments. Farmers may pay once a year.

Exempt from the tax entirely are insurance companies, small loan and finance companies, banks, race tracks, labor unions, credit unions and religious and charitable organizations, as well as income from intangibles, such as stocks and bonds.

U. S. Funds to U.N. Out If Red China Gets In

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Appropriations Committee Wednesday voted to bar any United States contributions to the United Nations in the next fiscal year if Red China becomes a member of the Security Council. The ban was voted as a rider on a money bill carrying funds for the State, Commerce and Justice Departments in fiscal 1954 beginning July 1.

British leaders have expressed favor for bringing Red China into the U.N. after the Korean fighting ends.
