

Yugoslav Army Possible Move British Forces Continue Withdrawal from Zone

TRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Yugoslavia cancelled all leave Sunday shortly after President Tito angrily told he would send troops into Slav A of Trieste if Italy sends attacking forces into the area.

The new order applies to troops who were called up for the Yugoslav army maneuvers—about 100,000 since the end of World War II—as well as to Yugoslav army units, 20,000 troops, about two-thirds of them re-equipment, participated in the exercises.

At the same time, Col. Gen. Zoran Radic, commander of the Yugoslav military district, where the maneuvers were held, was reported to have ordered the troops to be withdrawn from the zone.

U. S. naval officials in London said there were three American destroyers at the port of Trieste Sunday, but said they were there on routine duty and not connected with the Trieste crisis.

British and American troops were getting ready to pull out of Slav A, but British diplomats reported it would be six weeks before the withdrawal was completed.

The United States and Britain—with 1,000 troops now occupying Slav A, which includes the strategic port city of Trieste—announced last week that they were pulling out and would turn administration of the zone over to Italy.

Yugoslav forces now occupy Slav B, surrounding Slav A, and a Yugoslav Air Force commander said that Yugoslav planes were flying over Slav A.

Addressing a rain-drenched crowd estimated at 250,000 in the Macedonian provincial capital of Skopje, Tito declared: "We are watching the Italian move slowly and we will do so in the future. And, at that moment, when the Italian soldiers enter, we will enter also."

"There cannot be peace between us and the Italians because they possess the Trieste American position on Trieste," he said.

They (the United States and Britain) think we will cool off in a few days. They do not realize that we are cold-blooded and will do everything that is necessary to do so.

In accounts of his speech as received here, there was no mention that Tito had repeated the offer he made Saturday to make a deal with Italy that would place the port city of Trieste under Italian rule while Yugoslavia took sovereignty over the remainder of the disputed territory.

Nevertheless, he tempered his trade speech Sunday with a few words of moderation.

"In spite of all that was said in recent days, we are still ready to extend our hand to the Italians," he said.

The Weather Bureau predicted a 50-degree high with a few clouds to mark an otherwise perfect day.

Excalibur To Tap Rest Of Members

Excalibur, senior men's honorary, will tap its three remaining members during intermission at the Homecoming Dance, Oct. 17, in the Auditorium.

This is the first time in Excalibur's history that it has tapped new members this early in the term, Quentin Stultz said.

The policy always has been to hold the tapping ceremony at the Christmas Sing. Hope of a bigger crowd is the reason behind the change, Stultz said.

The other 10 members of Excalibur were tapped last spring at Water Carnival.

Alumni to See Game Movies

Football movies sponsored by the MSC Alumni Office will be shown this afternoon at the Bay County Alumni Club. They will include the Minnesota and Iowa games.

John McGoff, assistant director of alumni relations, said McGoff will show the game movies to the Lake Michigan Alumni Club tonight.

The Lapeer short course group will be shown the TCU game Tuesday night by Starr Keesler, alumni relations director.

Bob Toll will present the Iowa and Minnesota movies the same night in Genesee county.

Keesler will show the Minnesota game Wednesday to the Livingston County Club.

The Comstock Rotary Club will view the Minnesota game, Thursday, with Bob Toll in charge.

Jackson county is last on this week's program with the showing of the Iowa and Minnesota games by McGoff.

Canadians Offer Thanks Today

OTTAWA (AP)—Canadians celebrate their own Thanksgiving today expressing gratitude across the land for a bumper harvest this year and for the truce in Korea.

Canada's first Thanksgiving Day was April 15, 1872, called to show thankfulness for the return to good health of the then Prince of Wales, later King Edward VII. But for the last 20 years it has become more or less fixed for the second Monday in October.

Marsh Believed Dead, Officers Seek Body

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Globe-Democrat reported Sunday night that officers are searching for the body of Thomas John Marsh in the belief he may have been killed by Earl Austin Hall in a plot to make it appear that the kidnaper Marsh was the player of a year-old Bobby Greenhouse.

The newspaper, in a dispatch from Kansas City, said the search has been ordered by the Missouri County farm of Bonnie Brown Heady in northwest Missouri.

Marsh and Heady, who have admitted the kidnapping but have denied killing the child, Hall, a convicted murderer, are the suspects.

"My guess is that Marsh is dead and that Hall is trying to make him the 'fall guy' for the kidnapping," the newspaper quoted a source in the County Prosecuting Attorney's office.

"The way it stands now, it looks like an ingenious plan on Hall's part to implicate Marsh," the source said.

The newspaper quoted a source further as saying it is possible that Marsh was killed in a plot to bring the child, Hall, to justice.

Marsh, the newspaper said, pointed out that if Marsh were alive he "almost certainly would be found." He also was quoted as saying that if the theory that Hall killed Marsh is correct, Hall would know that Marsh could not be found alive to disprove Hall's story that he was the boy's father.

A manhunt is still under way for Marsh.

U. S. Attorney General Ramsey Clark said Sunday that Marsh was not dead with the evidence in Kansas City. He said he was not sure Marsh was alive.

Marsh was believed to be in the St. Louis area, where he was last seen in a car with a woman who was believed to be his wife.

Take 27th Straight Win with Comeback Three Fourth-Quarter Scores Ruin Frog's Upset Ambitions

A serene calm settled over the Michigan State campus Sunday—the Spartans were still unbeaten.

But it didn't look that way for a while Saturday afternoon as Coach Biggie Munn's charges were forced to overcome a two-touchdown Texas Christian lead with three fourth-quarter scores that nailed down a thrilling, 26-19 victory.

The Texans climbed a capital hill Saturday night to lead 13-7 by halftime. A 13-7 lead late in the third quarter before the Spartans began to roll toward their 27th consecutive victory. It was the third victory of the season for State while TCU dropped its second game to large crowds.

Most of the spectators left Macklin Stadium with the feeling that the Spartans will welcome Indiana as conference competition after stepping outside Big 10 ranks to find an extremely rough test in the under-ranked TCU squad.

Texas Christian, led by quarterback Mel Fowler and Ray McKeown, a star passing fullback, turned on a potent split-T offense to lead the Spartans, 13-7, at halftime.

Displaying the finest passing execution by the Spartans this season, the Horned Frogs took to the air for 175 yards with McKeown hitting for 107 measures and end Dave Finney gathering in 30 yards receiving the toss.

The victors were threatening to add to their third-period margin when the turning point came.

Overback John Matlock intercepted a Fowler aerial on the Spartan 14-yard line and ran to the 21. The Frog was finally halted and the Spartans began to move.

After Matlock's interception, the Spartans rolled to the TCU 10 before the quarter ended. With Earl Morrill directing the team, Bert Zagers, Jerry Flannery and Laffey Bolden piled up chunks of yardage.

Seconds after the fourth quarter opened, Bolden scampered over from the four to complete the 40-yard drive in 10 plays. Flannery missed the conversion and State still was behind 19-12.

The Spartans promptly received another break as alert end Bill Quinlan pounced on a TCU fumble on the Frog 27 two plays after the kickoff.

Zagers led eight yards, but third baseman Tom Evers intercepted a pass from Evers on the 30 and the Spartan fullback pounced on the pass. Evers then ran to the 21. The Frog was finally halted and the Spartans began to move.

UN Charges Reds of Truce Pact Violation

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The United Nations Command accused the Communists Sunday of moving crated aircraft into North Korea during the armistice and asked the Military Supervisory Commission to investigate the alleged truce violation.

A U. N. Military Armistice Commission statement said the U. N. Command "is in possession of information which indicates the Communists have introduced reinforcing combat aircraft into North Korea in violation of the armistice agreement."

It added: "It is charged that aircraft were shipped in crates from Manchuria to the airfield at Uiju," on the south side of the Yalu River 10 miles northeast of Sinuiju, far northwest Korea.

A command spokesman said an "urgent request" for investigation of the alleged armistice violation was sent to the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission by UN Command member of the Gen. Blackshear M. Bryan, senior Military Armistice Commission.

Union Board Sends Six to Big 10 Convo

Six MSC Union Board members will attend the Big 10 Conference for Union Board Delegates to be held Oct. 22-25 at the University of Indiana, Bloomington, Ind.

Main theme of the conference will be union programs and problems, a discussion of activities which lend themselves to Union Board sponsorship.

MSC members attending the conference will be Jack Winkler, president; Dan Sundt, vice-president; Joan Renford, secretary; and Jim Buchanan, member of the board of directors. Also attending will be Miss Elsie White, director of Union activities, and Richard Eversman, assistant manager of the Union Board.

Attention will be focused on programs for the Christmas holidays, as well as activities with appeal throughout the year.

SC Shifts Trees, Improves on Nature

Baron, assistant campus landscape architect, has a seven-man crew sweating for 30 minutes to get it off the truck. The sand was loose inside the burlap ball and the whole thing just sort of blooped instead of holding together. The ball was five feet in diameter, two feet thick and weighed about one ton.

Now that the trees are in place, they have to be barked for a while and everyone is keeping his fingers crossed.

Harold W. Lautner, head campus landscape architect, has a crew of more than 50 employees. When they aren't moving trees, they're caring for the 620 acres of landscaped campus, 36 miles of walks, 18 miles of roads and keeping the whole scene free of rubbish.

Baron explained, "Last week, three full-grown trees, each about 10 feet in diameter, were moved at once or more. They were worth $100 each, so he decided a warm-weather moving crew sprayed the trees with a protective rubber-emulsion to prevent the bark from cracking. They barked the roots and earth the best they could."

The first tree arrived at the southwest corner of Shaw

Next Spartan To Feature Campus Life

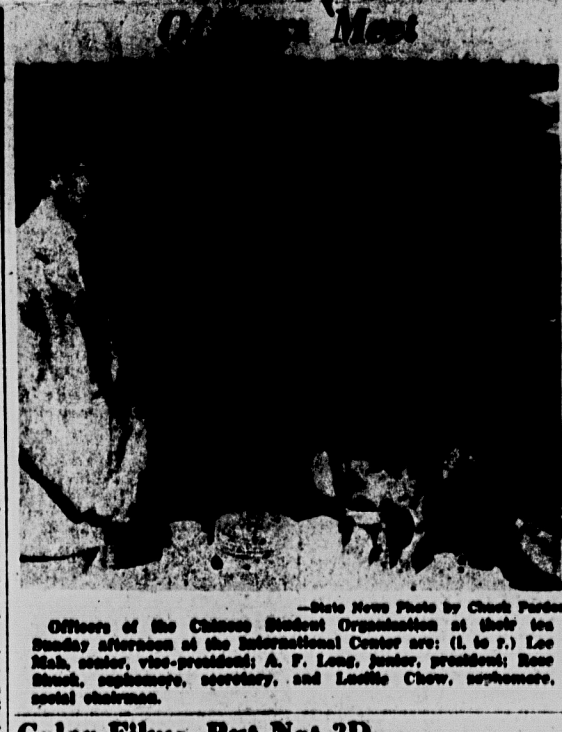

Campus scenes and pictures of students in everyday surroundings will be given extra emphasis in the November issue of the Spartan Humor Magazine on sale Oct. 27.

Spartan photographers have been taking imposed pictures of students around the campus, Don Blome, editor, said.

A serious fiction novelette about the Korean War by a new staff writer, James McClure, will be featured.

"How to Drive on Campus," a humorous photo story by Bob Farrell and Art Mikesell will offer helpful hints on what not to do. Also included will be a feature on the Marching Band's trip to the Minnesota football game written by George Cracraft, who traveled with the band. Another article will portray the Homecoming Queen on Homecoming Day.

The magazine will be on sale at the Union, Berkey Hall, Physics-Mathematics Building, South Campus, and Olds Hall from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m., starting Oct. 27.

Witty Lecturer Pleases While His Films Flame

A white, 3D effect tunnel appeared on the screen. Then a low moan poured from the speaker and filled the Auditorium.

"They're burning my film up there," sobbed Bob Friars, who was trying to give a lecture on western Canada in the Auditorium Saturday night. Then the plaid-coated gentleman calmed his temper.

"Did I ever tell you about the time when I was a young boy," and so on for half an hour while the projector, the TCU camera, and the film story of one Robert Friars.

Friars' wit in ad-libbing came to a peak when he asked Dean Crowe to come out on the stage and do a dance to amuse the applauding crowd. He cracked comments about the film, the projector, the TCU camera, and the film story of one Robert Friars.

When one old gent left his seat to find a drinking fountain, Friars sneered and remembered a similar fiasco in St. Louis, where he had rented an auditorium to present another lecture.

Eventually the projector was fixed, the lights dimmed and the lecture continued.

'Major Barbara' Slated for Tonight

The British film, "Major Barbara," will be shown at Fairchild Theater tonight at 7 and 9.

Deborah Kerr, Rex Harrison, Wendy Hiller and Robert Morley are featured in the movie. It is the fifth showing in the fall term Foreign Film Series.

An art film, "Leonardo da Vinci, Man of Mystery," is slated for the Auditorium at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Photographed in color, "Leonardo da Vinci" is the winner of the 1962 Venice Festival Grand Prize and the 1962 Special Robert J. Flaherty Film Award.

Coming Death Toll Lays Way Below Accident Rate

The annual hunting accident toll, the sport is in Michigan than driving a car, according to an MSC game warden.

The Shick of the Michigan Game Department and a state wildlife management unit compared figures and that hour for hour an auto hunt is the risk of a hunting season approaches.

However, that no one can be considered "safe" at the greatest care should be observed while handling a gun.

A pamphlet listing 10 rules of safety is available without charge from the MSC Cooperative Game Service or the Michigan Game Department in Lansing.

Come On, Skiing's Fine

Lucy Hannah (left) and Polly Cole start up one of the ski trails at Cannon Mountain for their first schuss on the first snow of the season near Franconia, N. H., last week. Ten inches of the white stuff fell in two days and there was still a flurry in the air when this picture was snapped. Trees in background are still bright with fall colors and first warm sun is expected to cause the snow to vanish on the mountains for another month.

Color Films, But Not 3D Game Movies Marked 'Rush'

It takes a lot more effort than just operating a projector so that Spartans can see the movies in the Union on the Wednesday nights after football games.

E. N. Huby is the man responsible. He attends all MSC games and, with two aides, he takes three sets of films. One is for the coaching staff, another for a Sunday night TV broadcast and the third, in color, for the public showings.

On away games, Huby runs one of the school's special 16mm. cameras himself. It has a 3 1/2-inch lens, one of the fastest in the world, and is worth $700. His son Ray runs another camera.

After the game, he catches the first plane back to East Lansing and about midnight, mails the film that is to be shown in the Union to be processed.

The reason he mails the Kodachrome film from here is because if the film is not returned by the following Tuesday, the post office is responsible.

When the film returns, Huby starts to edit the approximately 6,000 feet.

The TV and coaches' film is sent to a local concern. Black and white film does not require the special processes demanded by color film.

Sometimes the job of taking the pictures is not so pleasant — at Minnesota this year, for example, when Huby and his crew were up on the stadium's press box roof. They had to tie the cameras down because of the 45-m.p.h. wind and continually wipe the lens dry.

Huby himself was the first man to film a football game. Back in 1932, he told his ideas to director of athletics, Ralph Young, who gave his approval.

Fielding H. Yost at Ann Arbor was the next to pick up the technique and since then schools all over the country have started taking movie films at their football games.

Seniors Chosen For Union Display

Mortar Board president Doris Humes, Lansing, and Excelsior president Dick McClaughry, Whiting, Ind., are the first seniors of the week. Their pictures will be on display in the Union this week.

Chosen for scholarship and activities, seniors are nominated by petition and chosen by Senior Council and the Senior of the Week Committee.

Two seniors will be chosen each week during the school year.

All freshmen and sophomore students interested in the Frosh-Soph Council are urged to attend the first council meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday in 35 Union. Organization of the council will be explained and fall term plans discussed.

MSC Course Gives Students Working Methods

Michigan State recorded an first with the opening this of a four year course in one technology. The program is designed to train animal men for the container industry and user industries have attracted nation-wide attention.

A program was listed in this last year for the first time to students signed for it this term. The course now enrollment of three freshmen sophomores and one senior.

The course is administered by department of forest products and includes courses offered in departments and the basic sciences. Several of the courses are elected by students not to change their major.

A package testing laboratory was established in the old Building on South Campus.

Dorm Units Ready Soon

Butterfield living units will be completed by Dec. 1, according to Charles Clark, manager of Harrison Rd. residence halls. The process of moving the men from temporary housing in Quonset Village into the new buildings is being done by precincts.

Movement into the Butterfield development began Sept. 18 when 250 men were moved in the second, third and fourth floors of the "A" wing.

Last weekend 110 vacancies were filled at Snyder-Phillips and Shaw dorms to reduce the number of men at Quonset Village. This weekend precinct 1, consisting of 68 men, will be moved in to the first floor of the "A" wing.

Clark hopes that in two weeks the fourth floor of the "B" wing will be ready to house precinct 2. The capacity of the Butterfield units will be 670 men.

The Holy Coat of Trier, traditionally believed to be the robe worn by Jesus on Calvary about which the Twentieth Century-Fox Cinema Scope production "The Robe" revolves, still exists. It is in the Cathedral of Trier (Trevies), Germany, an ancient Roman town on the Moselle River, where it has reposed since Roman Empress Helena presented it to the city in 326 A. D.

23-33 Win

By John Corbett
Capt. Lyle Garbe, leading an impressive Michigan State defense, conquered the Irish in a 23-33 victory on Saturday, Oct. 11, at the Spartan Stadium.

In a little exertion, Garbe led the Spartans to a 23-33 victory over the Irish in a dual meet held here Saturday. Garbe finished 30 yards ahead of his nearest competitor, Jack Alexander of Notre Dame, who crossed the wire at 21:16.8. John Cook of MSC placed third, Jim Daly of Notre Dame ran fourth, and Spartans Ron Barnes and Dick Jarrett tied for fifth.

Game Sidelights

"It was the greatest show of spirit I've seen in a quarter-century."

That's the way Athletic Director Ralph Young summed up the MSC student reaction in the fourth quarter of Saturday's contest.

"I've never seen the student body rise to the occasion like that before," Young said. "The students got behind the players and pushed them right through to victory."

Tackle Jim Jobb was awarded the game ball by his teammates. Jobb's mother died in Grand Rapids early this week. He missed all but the Monday practice, but returned to don his uniform for the game.

Jobb felt that he did not deserve the ball. "It should have gone to Slone," he said.

Trainer Jack Heppinstall reported the usual number of bumps and bruises along with two injuries of a more serious nature. Forrie Hallmark suffered a pinched nerve in his right elbow and saw only limited action during the second half. Center Jim Neal received a cut over his eye and was on the sidelines for the final two quarters.

When Jerry Flannery missed the extra-point try after State's second touchdown, it marked the first time since the second quarter in last year's Marquette game that the Spartans have failed to convert.

The Horned Frogs had an unexpected rooting section. Besides the student following, the entire University of Houston football team was in the stands pulling for fellow Texans. Houston defeated the University of Detroit Friday night 25-10.

Take First in Division

Lions Overcome 49er Jinx, 24-21

DETROIT (AP)—The champion Detroit Lions bottled up San Francisco's feared 1-3 running punch of Hugh McElhenny and Joe Perry and defeated the 49ers, 24-21, to take over first place in the western division of the National Football League Sunday.

A record pro football crowd for Briggs Stadium—48,978—saw the Lions whip the 49ers for the first time since 1950. San Francisco had defeated Detroit five straight times but an injury to quarterback Y. A. Tittle hurt them and the Lions took over the divisional lead with a 3-0 record.

Tittle suffered a possible broken jaw while scoring a touchdown in the third period. He missed the final 10 minutes of play, and without him the 49ers couldn't get an offensive attack started in the fourth period.

McElhenny, a slippery hipster, carried the ball 14 times and made only 16 yards. Perry, a bruising fullback, carried 10 times and made only 21 yards.

Leading 17-14 at halftime, the Lions clinched the victory after four minutes of the third period when Bobby Layne bulleted a 49-yard touchdown pass to end Leon Hart. The Lions' giant end took the ball on San Francisco's 36 and rumbled into the end zone with the winning points as two 49er defenders fruitlessly chased him.

San Francisco 17 17 0-31
Detroit 10 10 0-21
San Francisco scoring: Touchdowns, Soltan, Arenas, Tittle. Conversions, Soltan 2.

Research

provides broad opportunities for chemists, physicists and engineers cooperating on many problems.

For one thing, much Du Pont research is fundamental, aimed at advancing scientific knowledge regardless of specific commercial objectives. However, such research often suggests new products... each with its own challenging technical problems which must be solved before commercial production can begin. Solving these problems offers another great field of work for teams of engineers and scientists.

"Teflon" tetrafluoroethylene resin is an example of this well integrated teamwork.

During research on refrigerants, the polymer was discovered and work was begun to make it useful. The new plastic had a remarkable combination of properties: temperature resistance beyond the range of any previous plastic, excellent chemical characteristics, and the highest degree of chemical inertness of any commercial plastic.
