Listen! Ann Arbor Oracles Sound Off

To the Editor: Now that Michigan State is a normal (?) school again, perhaps some of its appropriations will be diverted to academic rather than athletic endeavors.

Maybe if the instructors at your school were paid more than the inevitable football players who work for Michigan State, you would attract a better class of students. After all, the University of Michigan cannot continue to take in all of the good students in the state who want an education.

We cannot do this for two reasons: our physical plant cannot accommodate all of the prospective students who want to go to a good school; and, we do not like to take all of the glory from our country coaches—after all, blood is thicker than water. Yours for better and bigger student attendance—in classes, rather than in Mackin Field, we are

TOO MANY FOOTBALL FANS?

To the Editor: Is FOOTBALL the only sport that the students from this college recognize?

Where was the cheering section for the Cross Country team who came into Capital City Airport last Saturday night? They lost their "mascot" too.

It seems to me that these boys train hard every day and do their best to win for MSC. In this sport, it is up to each individual whether or not the team wins. There is no referee to make a decision for or against the team. Last year they were National Champions too. Have the students forgotten already?

Sure, football brings in the money, but in my opinion one sport in college deserves as much support as another. Sometimes, the cheering section helps the team to win. This was proven when our football team played its first home game against Texas Christian. The crowd just wouldn't let our team lose.

You may not watch Cross Country, well you can! This team, the same as any other team, needs support. You would have a chance to support this team at the beginning and at the end of a four mile race. Your cheering would inspire them to run harder and faster.

This coming Saturday morning there is a meet against Penn State. Let's make it a point to be there and bring these boys to victory. IT'S FREE.

P.S. I have used the Cross Country team as an example. Other teams are in the same boat.

"I always write my own paper criticism. Usually on a student who's not able to take home with what I say."

Gripes About Coupons

To the Editor:

More power to Dale Hines for releasing the pent-up emotions. As long as it's open season I'm going to avail myself of the same opportunity. The subject? Coupon exchange for football games.

I don't mind waiting in line for tickets as long as the rest of the student body has to do the same thing but I do object when, after standing in line for, the fellow ahead of me puts down twenty (20) activity books and picks up the corresponding number of tickets.

I don't really object to that fellow and his 20 tickets—it's just that sign with letters about so high that says: "Only 4 activity books may be exchanged by one student."

Mid-terms Again

Friday is the exact temporal definitive of the center of the autumnal quarter. In other words, mid-terms are here again.

Just thought we'd warn you. Nobody except Prof. Snarf knows exactly when the fateful season begins, but officially it's today.

Back in the days when they believed in such things, they would look up at the sky to see if the big dipper was being neglected, or the seven sisters looked a little peaked, or something, and forecast the exact hour of doom.

Now the only thing we have to rely on is the fleeting glint in an instructor's eyes, or the dearth of books in the library.

Anyhow, it's a pretty sure bet that mid-terms are in the offing. And with 14,000 students on campus, the night has 28,000 eyes.

College Ku Kluxers

A bitter tale of racial discrimination has come out of Kansas. The Ku Klux Klan's flaming cross has risen again—with a college fraternity as the backdrop.

According to the Associated Press, the cross was erected early Monday morning near a Negro fraternity house which last week announced it would initiate its first white member.

The wooden cross, soaked in kerosene and ignited, was placed against a tree in front of the Alpha Phi Alpha house on the Kansas campus. The white student, Roger Lee Yeumans of Kansas City, Kan., 20, pledged late last year and moved into the house this fall.

Yeumans, a pre-medical student who plans to become a Methodist medical missionary, said he joined "solely because I like the fellows and because I think it will help me in years to come."

What to Wear?

Suggestions Offered Trick 'N Treaters

Costume parties are synonymous with Halloween. For the many couples wondering what to wear to that special party this weekend, why not try going as some of the famous couples in literature, fiction, and history?

Sports COED CORNER

South Campbell with a total of 63.5 points gained winning honors Wednesday night in the Dorm Swimming Intramurals. Other housing units who placed were: West Landon, 46 points; Off campus, 33.5 points; and Abbot, 25 points.

Individual high scorers were: Patti Lou Swaney, Birmingham sophomore from South Campbell, earning 24 points; Jean King, Detroit sophomore representing West Landon, accumulating 19 points; Mary Cantwell, Port Huron senior, winning 18 points for West Landon; and Nancy O'Rourke, Toledo, O., junior, came in with 14.5 points for South Campbell.

The second sorority intramural swimming meet is scheduled for Wednesday, Nov. 4.

Results of the volleyball games scheduled Oct. 27 are as follows: South Williams, 35; South Campbell, 18; Kappa Kappa Gamma, 32; Delta Delta Delta, 26; Gamma Phi Beta, 43; Mason, 29; Delta Gamma, 43; East Mayo, 14; Alpha Xi Delta, 34; Alpha Gamma Delta, 26; North Campbell 39; Kappa Alpha Theta, 26; Gilchrist, 47; Chi Omega 10; Delta Zeta, 36; Alpha Omicron Pi, 28; and West Landon, 40; Kappa Delta, 12.

Little Abner and Daisy Mae, Raggedy Ann and Andy, or some famous king and queen are only a few persons that a couple can depict.

Students may also take a cue from some of the famous children's books and fables. The "Wizard of Oz" has many costume ideas, such as portraying the cowardly lion, tin man, straw man, Dorothy, or the Wizard of Oz.

Historical periods also offer good costume ideas. The gay nineties with its famous "bloomer girl," and the flapper of the twenties with her beut in her racoon coat and ukiele are known to all. The couple of the twenties dressed to spend a day at the beach, always makes quite an impression. Cinderella and her prince, Snow White, Jack Sprat and his wife, or Little Bo Peep, and Little Boy Blue, are all personalities from fairy tales which couples could impersonate.

Periods of history also offer good masquerade ideas. The Grecian period with their flowing robes, the lord and lady of the 1700's, or the medieval knight in shining armor and his lady, are easy to imitate.

Comic books such as Superman, the Man from Mars, The Queen of the Amazons, Bugs Bunny, Porky Pig, Tom and Jerry are also excellent sources for unusual costumes.

who needs height...

Lack in Height No Trouble for Duckett

By ED CLEGG

What he lacks in height, he makes up for in speed and ability. Ellis Duckett is one of those tired, hackneyed sayings that make sports editors cringe. But these words seem made to order when searching for a way to sum-up Ellis Duckett, the Spartans' first-string left end from Flint Northern.

At 5 feet 10 inches and 170 pounds, Duckett is about as small as an end on a major college eleven can safely be. Yet, in spite of his diminutive physical stature, it cannot be said that he is "short on speed and ability."

Since getting behind the defense in a game fundamental of offensive football, Duckett, who does the 100 in 16 seconds, is often seen outstripping defending backs. Once behind them he is not to be moved from the yardage line, a touchdown, or a crucial game.

Duckett vividly demonstrated this principle in the recent MSC-Idaho game when scoring the first of his two touchdowns. For the first one, Duckett took Morrell's pass at midfield and mumbled for the way without a blocker.

Playing the right half position with Flint Northern, Duckett capped all-state, all-city, and all-Saginaw Valley honors in 1934 and 1935. Sharing the starring role in that backfield was another well-known mighty man—Le Roy Bolden.

In addition to the MSC, Duckett ran the 220 on Northern's track team. His best time was 23.2. He was a first-string guard and center for three seasons with the basketball team.

The 21-year-old human administration junior is affiliated with the Alpha Psi Alpha fraternity. After graduation in June 1935, he would like to continue his boyhood ambition to play professional football. Duckett's distant future plans call for an accountancy career.

Penn State Challenges Harrier In Final Home Dual-meet of Year

Michigan Looking Better, But Average Still Drops

By JACK COOK
State News Staff Writer

THINGS ARE LOOKING UP, but the average has not yet gone down. Lookout's cumulative two-week record that another dip to 400 on last week's performance of 100 right chutes, 71 wrong games and 20 this for a 100 percentage. The Oct. 20 outcome tallied 11 wins, six losses and three ties, while conference for the entire season is 45 wins, 24 losses and eight ties.

Nevertheless, Lookout's 12-month record is not as bad as it seems. After all, we must keep up the prestige of former Spartans. So once again, we stick our necks out...

Michigan over Penn—Ourselves is still counting about the clubbing Minnesota did last weekend, and the Wolves should respond. The Quakers had their day against Navy.

Ohio State over Northwestern—Only Penn saved the Spartans last week and the Wildcats are moving up. Northwestern hasn't won a Big 10 contest, however, and should lose again.

Illinois over Indiana—The Hoosiers should stay back home in Indiana when it comes to conference games and leave changes have shown their difficulties. Missouri has been hot-cold, but has beaten Purdue, Colorado and Nebraska.

Minnesota over Pitt—It's been a rough year for the Panthers and Penn State will make it any easier. The Gophers should roll over without the North Star.

Wisconsin over Iowa—The Badgers are mighty proud over that one-point loss to Ohio State. Look for them to take out their wrath on Forest Evansworth's ambitious Hoosiers.

Stanley Cross over Syracuse—A real close battle seems for this game with both squads two-time losers. Three times out and for the Orangemen.

Wake Forest over Clemson—The Tigers celebrated Presbyterian in their opener, but haven't won since. Wake Forest hasn't done much either, but they'll be out of the woods this time.

Penn State over West Virginia—It's been a mighty smooth road for a team of Mountaineers—two months. Despite that impressive national ranking the Nittany Lions should head out West Virginia's first defeat.

Army over Tulane—If every team was like the Citadel, the Green Wave would be great. The Black Knights are due to have an easy ride.

Nebraska over Navy—Frank Leahy will be a good television show Saturday as the Midshipmen go down—ships and all. Navy snuffed its chance for national fame against Penn.

Illinois over Purdue—The mighty Spartans fell, but it took plenty out of the Boilermakers. The Illini smell the roses already and they like the scent.

Tennessee over North Carolina—The Vols rolled last week against Louisville and appreciate lots of touchdowns. North Carolina's Tarheels won't though.

Auburn over Florida—The Gators found the Citadel to their liking with a 60-0 blast. Auburn has shown streaks of greatness as chalk up a win for the Orange and Blue.

Alabama over Georgia—No. 1 team? Alabama's out of sight in this respect but the Crimson Tide has plenty of talent to bump the Bulldogs.

Oklahoma over Kansas State—Oklahoma has had a great time since Notre Dame and Kansas State has a pretty fair squad, too. This time, the Sooners should win going away.

Southern Methodist over Texas—Everyone in the Lone Star state is wild over this one—Dallas will be fortunate to stand the impact. When the dust clears, it'll be SMU.

Kansas over Kentucky—The Owls give a heat about this one after conquering the Longhorns. Kentucky won't be as wild when they are through.

Baylor over Texas Christian—Baylor is moving up every week but the Horned Frogs might make the Bears jump. If TCU wins, however, mark up another major upset.

Texas A & M over Arkansas—There aren't many teams with a better tale than Arkansas. The Aggies gave Baylor a tremendous scare and should romp over the Razorbacks.

UCLA over California—Here's a big game as far as the Pacific Coast Rose Bowl representative is concerned. Southern Cal turned the trick last week and the Bruins are set to do it again.

BEAVERS USUALLY CHOOSE THREE horses, but not so with the Oregon State variety.

Six of the nine games for the West Coast squad are away, and only one is scheduled for Corvallis, home base for the Beavers. That's the Washington State Homecoming clash next weekend.

Oregon State has two other home life tests, but the Beavers move over to Portland's Multnomah Stadium for the pair.

Early birds may get the worm, but sportscaster Bill Stone is trying to get out of bed before opening his eyes. He packed himself to go to the Rose Bowl on his Thursday show.

Big 10 Rates Purdue, Cats As 'Slingiest'

Allow Fewest Plays To League Fees

CHICAGO (AP) — Purdue's coach of "Tup" K. Smith says the Spartans are the "slingiest" team in the Big 10.

Official conference statistics released Wednesday show the Spartans share the Big Ten lead with Penn State in rushing yards per game, 65.1, and are tops in allowing the fewest plays per game, 59.

In addition, for two conference games, Purdue has yielded an average of only 24 yards per game by passing. MSC's downfall after 25 straight victories reflected this difference, especially since Purdue intercepted five Spartan passes.

Northwestern with a high of 28 passes per game and remarkable 300 completions average leads in passing yards with a 125.5 average for two games.

Michigan State remains the best in total defense with 181 yards, including 126.7 by rushing and 45.2 by passing, for four games. Iowa, however, leads in rushing defense, a 107 average for three games.

Grid Fans To Watch Drill Team

The nationally-famous Naval Aviator Cadet Drill team from the "Annapolis of the Air" at Pensacola, Fla., will appear at halftime of the Michigan State-Oregon State football game at Mackin Field Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Scholarship's visit of the future naval aviators will be the sixth of a series of visits to the campus of the country for appearances.

This same drill team appeared at the Iowa-Michigan State encounter which opened the 1935 football campaign at Iowa City, and were guests at Michigan State several years ago.

The team is composed of about 500-600 cadets who are currently undergoing pre-flight instruction at Pensacola to become naval aviators. They voluntarily give up much of their spare time during the rigorous academic schedule to become members of the drill team and are trained by Marine Corps drill companies. This fine training by cadets has made the team one of the finest precision marching outfits in the country.

Scholarship's half-time program will be directed with the Michigan State marching band, which for this week only, will have a new drum major. Gene Miskin, Spartan leader for four years, will be conducting and a freshman, Keith Ferguson, will handle the band this week.

JOHN COOK
... Adding to High School Fame...

Canadian Star Aids Cross Country Squad

By JOHN CORBELL

When John Francis William Cook enrolled at Michigan State, the Spartan running teams got one of the most highly-touted runners ever to come out of Western Ontario.

From the time he was a sophomore at Sir Adam Beck Collegiate Institute in London, Ont., Cook received wide acclaim from the Ontario sports writers — and small wonder.

One of the highlights of John's high school career was something which doesn't usually happen to an athlete until he reaches college. In 1934, his sophomore year, the team took part in the Canadian Olympic trials. Running against men much older than himself, with years more experience — this was John's first year in track competition — he did admirably. Though he didn't make the team, he managed to finish sixth in a strong field in the 1500 meters.

Two years later, he again just missed in reaching for the stars. In fact, this time he came even closer, in the trials for the British Empire Games. He placed fourth in his favorite event, the 800.

He was king, however, in straight high school mile and 800 competition. In his first year of track, he broke a 21-year-old mile record. But it was his senior year which was filled with glory, with titles in three different athletic associations.

In the Western Ontario Conference championship meet, Cook won the mile and half-mile crowns for the third straight year. Besides, he helped his school's 800-yard relay to its second consecutive win. These accomplishments won for him the individual scoring championship.

A double conquest gave him the "star" role in the Ontario Junior AAU meet. He breezed to the wire with a 4:22 mile and a two-minute half.

Spartans Tough Squad In Third

Michigan State's country squad will play the home portion of its season at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow against the Spartans at Old College. The Spartans will be looking to win the victory for the first time in three years. Their season record stands at one win and a loss. Coach Karl Schladerman is picking on a tough opponent, however, in its attempt to back over the 500 mark.

According to Schladerman, the Spartans are a "great" team in the MSC member schools. The Spartans' performance last season was a disappointment. The Spartans' season record stands at one win and a loss. Coach Karl Schladerman is picking on a tough opponent, however, in its attempt to back over the 500 mark.

Led by their ace, junior Smith, the Lions trounced the Spartans in a triangular meet. They won the first three places in the meet.

In the triangular meet, established a new course record in Annapolis, running the event in 28:40.5. This, by the way, broke the record held by little Charlie Capone, Georgetown, who also broke the 1000-mile mark in the National Championships last November.

Meanwhile, Schladerman, an attempt to duplicate the Spartans' record over the State last fall, will come with his own ace, Capt. Lyle.

The Canadian senior has scored in its two tests in the MSC in two firsts. In his bested Notre Dame's Lyle, exander by 80 yards and last Sunday he outspurred Wayne Tom Monrore to the top.

John Cook, London, Ont., is also looked upon to score for the Spartans, possibly side holds out. Against Wayne, he suffered a painful fall which forced him to return to the run.

Senior Ron Barr, of Point, Ind., will also be in the race. Barr has scored for the fifth against Notre and fourth against the Spartans.

State's fourth man is Delrett, a senior from Oklahoma, who tied for fifth with against the Irish and ran a position in the Wisconsin meet. Battling for the fifth spot, MSC squad are Ken Barry, fu, N. Y., senior, and Kerl Great Neck, N. Y., sophomore.

Scouting out the competition will be three seniors and a junior. The seniors are Dick Monrore, home City; Del Parke, home City; and Ken Green, home City. The junior is the junior.

Werner has some experience behind Smith. He was second behind Smith in last meet, he finished third in Jim Keppord, ex-State, and Smith in last fall's meet. He placed seventh in the 1934 run.

Vital NFL Game

Experts Pick Rams Over Lions Sunday

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Detroit Lions will be underdogs for the first time this season Sunday when they tangle with the Los Angeles Rams in a vital National Football League game.

The colicking Rams are seven-point favorites to topple the Lions for the second time this season and take over the first place in the circuit's Western Division. Both teams enter the game with 4-1 records and the winner of this game will have a decided edge in the championship race as the season will be exactly half over.

Two weeks ago, in Briggs Stadium, the Rams slammed the Lions, 31-19, and made the Detroiters look anything but a championship team. That, plus the fact the Rams will be playing at home in Los Angeles, is favored to win.

A crowd of about 75,000 is forecast and they'll see the Lions in near-perfect condition. Don Walker, Gene Gedman, Les Bangman, Clyde Box and Thurman McGraw all seem recovered from their assorted ills and are ready for action.

The Lions, of course, will miss Jim Martin and Jim Iboran, who last season helped the Detroiters whip the Rams three times in marching to the NFL title.

Detroit will have to be in top shape because it will be meeting the best attacking team in the entire league. Latest NFL statistics showed Los Angeles to have piled up more yardage running and passing than any other team.

In Norm Van Brocklin, the West Coast's boast the second best passer. Hitting on 72 of 137 passes, Van Brocklin has accounted

Theta Xi Remains Unbeaten

ATO Bounces Back After Loss, To Beat Alpha Gamma Rho, 20-6

By VINCE AGUL, BOB FREY and DEL KOMEJAN
Sparked by the passing of Gene Molak ATO scored a 20-6 victory over AGR.

A Molak to Dick Cunningham to Dean Britton pass play scored the first touchdown for ATO but AGR came back to tie the game on a 20 yard touchdown run by John Proctor.

Late in the third quarter ATO forged ahead when Dick Barkley intercepted an AGR pass and moments later Molak threw to Al Buchanan to put ATO in the lead. It was Molak to Britton for the extra point to make the score 13-6.

Another pass interception (this time by Ron Arnold) set up the final ATO touchdown. After the interception a Molak to Dean Britton pass play scored the TD and a pass from Molak to Matthes for the extra point made the final score ATO 20, AGR 6.

Theta Xi 8, Beta Theta Pi 6
Theta Xi edged Beta Theta Pi 8-6 in a close game to remain undefeated in their block.

Theta Xi scored first on a first half safety when Jim Touhey tagged a Beta player in the end zone. Beta Theta Pi went into the lead when Dick Wright scored on a pass but Theta Xi pulled the game out of the fire when Louis Hawk passed to Touhey for the clincher.

DU 14, Farmhouse 0
Led by the passing of Bob Brubaker and the catching of Ward Youngquist, DU scored a 14-0 victory over Farmhouse.

In the first half it was strictly a defensive battle with neither team able to muster enough scoring punch to go into the lead but in the second half Brubaker's passing sparked the DU team to two scores. Both Brubaker passes were to Youngquist for touchdowns and one to Youngquist scored the first extra point. Brubaker scored the other extra point himself on a short run.

Raiders 13, Bearcats 0
The Raiders, with Chuck Miltenberger scoring two touchdowns, shut out the Bearcats 13-0.

Tom Snyder opened the scoring for the Raiders when he threw a 40 yard aerial to Miltenberger for the first TD and he then passed to Don Solomon for the extra point to give the Raiders a 7-0 half-time lead.

Theta Chi 15, Pi Kappa Phi 13
Theta Chi scored a close victory over Pi Kappa Phi 15-13 on a last quarter safety.

Herb Sheathelm and Ron Geoghegan scored touchdowns for Pi Kappa Phi and Dick Martin scored the extra point. Al Dorris passed to Harold Tukey for both touchdowns and scored the extra point himself.

Sigma Chi 25, Sigma Nu 6
Sigma Nu threw a brief scare into Sigma Chi's victory march by scoring a quick touchdown early in the first period; but Sigma Chi bounced back to take a 25-6 victory.

Mark McIntosh figured in all of the scoring as his pin point passing accounted for all of the Sigma Chi touchdowns. Don Sutherland snatched the first pass for a touchdown. Clark Moore pulled in the next three touchdown passes to round off the scoring.

Psi Upsilon 34, Kappa Sigma 7
Psi Upsilon scored its third triumph with a 34-7 win over Kappa Sigma. After Jack Neil ran the opening kickoff back for a TD, Psi U scored on passes from Bill Johnson to Bill Wedemeyer, Bill Doerr to Wedemeyer and Dan Harden to Dean Cunningham. Doerr scored another from the six yard line.

Sig's tally came on a pass from Howie Eler to Roger Lowe in the second stanza.

Delta Chi 12, Delta Sigma Phi 6
Bill Hamilton's two touchdowns, one on an intercepted pass, gave Delta Chi a 12-6 victory over Delta Sigma Phi and boosted the winner's record to 3-1.

Phi Delta Theta 33, Lambda Chi 6
Phi Delta Theta romped to its third straight win with a 33-6 victory over Lambda Chi. Dick Shaw passed to Tom Ford, Jerry Fairman, and Pete Plumsted for touchdowns while John Adams and Don Britton also tallied for Phi Chi scored in the third period on a pass from Ivan Gindrich to Jud Pettis.

Pall Bearers 2, Go Getters 0
Pall Bearers won their opener from Go Getters, 2-0 on the strength of a first period safety resulting when a Go Getters passer was tagged in the end zone.

Motts Muffs 7, Howland 6
Joe Bloom's pass to Roger Phend and extra point Phend to Bloom enabled Motts Muffs to edge Howland 7-6. Both teams scored in the third period but the losers failed to convert after Dick Dalack passed to Lloyd Konaha.

Grid Notes

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Slowed by injuries and warned of latent Pittsburgh power, Minnesota drove through lengthy drills Thursday against expected Panther running and passing patterns.

The teams clash here Saturday after an expected 55,000 and a nationwide television audience. Regular right end Phil McElroy remained on the doubtful list with a bruised hip.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—For the third straight day, Coach Frank Leahy watched his Notre Dame griders practice Thursday with special closed TV circuit brought to his hospital room.

The drill relatively light as the Irish covered all phases of the game via dummy scrimmage. The Navy squad is scheduled to arrive on a special plane Friday afternoon in time for a brief workout at Notre Dame Stadium.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Coach Ray Elliott of Illinois Thursday was worried about the player who carried the ball successfully when Herald J. C. Caroline and Mickey Bates were stopped against Syracuse Saturday.

Fullback Stan Wallace, the star of the triumph over Syracuse, still is hobbling on a bruised knee and may not be in top shape for Purdue's invasion Saturday.

Other frequent visitor of the hospital for the past few days has been third-string quarterback Earl Morrill, who is in a weakened condition because of a case of glandular fever, and who will not play according to team physician, Dr. James Feun.

Little Randy Schreengost and center Jim Neal are on the doubtful list due to Purdue injuries while Capt. Don Dehoney and Ellis Duckett are expected to action despite ailments over the past week.

Another frequent visitor of the hospital for the past few days has been third-string quarterback Earl Morrill, who is in a weakened condition because of a case of glandular fever, and who will not play according to team physician, Dr. James Feun.

For the Oregon State clash Spartans will have to contend with Ohio State and Michigan on consecutive week-ends. Thus the red and white can't afford a slip through the last half of the schedule with a group of squads lying in wait.

Some experts believe that the Spartans will have a hard time in the 1959 season.
