By IAN STEINBOEN
The group plans to discuss several phases of the program which allows institutions like Michigan State to put up buildings without going to the Legislature for appropriations.

St. Louis) stated the buildings really are not paid for out of their earnings, as many campus signs used to say, because the state of Michigan still is providing money for utilities.

Scholarship Deadlines Announced

Rhodes Applicants
Need to Petition

Although the deadline for Rhodes Scholarship applications is not until Oct. 1, J. Robert Stewart, director of the scholarship office, said he would like the applications "soon" to submit them to state authorities in time for judgment.

Two national scholarships for college seniors also are being offered again this year by the Katherine Gibbs School.

Each scholarship consists of two-semester-for-semester training course, plus an additional cash award of $500, totaling $1,100.

Each college or university may recommend one candidate and each candidate must have this official endorsement.

All graduates and undergraduate students are eligible to compete in the 1964 Utsumura Awards Cash Marketing essay contest.

Entries may deal with any phase of the marketing of wheat, corn, oats, soybeans, soybean oil and meal, lard and cotton.

Spartans Wait for Ground Hog

Believers in Ground Hog Day are watching and waiting for the appearance of that furry little animal today.

His prognostication, according to the age-old belief, will foretell either six more weeks of winter or the advent of an early spring.

The custom states that sometime during the day, Mr. Ground Hog will emerge from his burrow. If the sun is shining and he sees his shadow, he will scurry back to his home for another six weeks. However, if it is a cloudy, misty day, he will stay outside in the cold because spring has nearly arrived.

Spartacade Meeting Scheduled

Group to Explain
Participation Rules

Representatives from living units, organizations and honoraries are invited to attend a Spartacade tonight when rules governing participation in the annual event will be explained.

Reduced rates for booth equipment will be allowed groups who send representatives to the meeting, said Dick Goebel, Detroit senior and chairman.

The meeting will be held at 8:30 in 33 Union.

A rundown on the history of Spartacade, which is held to raise money for Campus Chest, will be presented.

Rules will be explained and petitions, due by Feb. 19, will be circulated, Goebel said.

Joe Staser, East Lansing senior in charge of staging, will explain what electrical equipment will be available to participants.

Jim Buchanan, Bloomfield Hills senior and organizations and planning chairman, will conduct the meeting.

Spartacade will be held April 10 in Jenison Fieldhouse.

Slogan Contest Narrowed to Three Themes

The search for a centennial slogan has been narrowed to three possible choices, James M. Dennis, chairman of the centennial committee, announced Monday.

The three themes, picked from approximately 300 entries, are subject to administration and State Board of Agriculture approval, according to Alvie T. Smith, centennial director.

Final selection will be made later this month, Smith said.

Centennial committee members are Madison Kuhn, Leslie W. Scott, Thomas H. Osgood, E. B. Hill, H. J. Staefel, Roy Rider, Smith and Denison.

Junior Wins Free Ticket for J-Hop In Bean Contest

To estimate the winning figure of 14,222 beans, Don Barco, Midland junior, guessed by cupfuls to win the J-Hop publicity stunt.

His closest guess out of about 20 attempts was 14,250. That figure was also entered by three other contestants so the winner's name was drawn from a hat.

Entries were unlimited to any one entrant. One student and his wife entered about 300 separate guesses in the 10,000 to 14,000 range. Other estimates scattered from 750 beans to five and one-half million. John Walker, publicity stunt chairman, said.

The bean jar was set up in the Union Bookstore and the contest closed Tuesday.

Veterans' Officials To Attend Meeting

Branch officials of the Detroit branch of the Veterans' Administration will take part in tonight's meeting of the MSC Veterans' Association at 7 in 31 Union.

The unit will discuss the delayed check problem and answer questions from the floor.

Wondering what to do about game equipment left from last year's Spartacade are Jim Buchanan, Birmingham senior, Marjorie McRobert, Adrian junior, and Judy Walke, Royal Oak senior. The equipment has been classified into a gambling category, and will not be used for this year's Spartacade.

Student Government Sponsors International Week Planned by Groups

Plans for a proposed campus-wide International Week, to end with the annual International Festival May 9, will be discussed at 7 tonight in the Union Mural Room.

Student government, sponsor of the event, has asked representatives from a campus governing, service and international groups to attend. G. L. Thomas, assistant professor of speech and director of the International Festival, also has been invited.

Joyce Blake, Dearborn senior, has been named to head a new student government executive department of student international relations. She will work toward coordinating student organizational activities for the week.

The week is an attempt to bring foreign and American students on this campus closer together," Miss Blake explained.

Her appointment, made by Dave Hyman, government president, will be submitted for Student Congress approval Wednesday night.

Tentative plans for the week, which first was suggested to the student government fall term, include displays, a dance, club programs, and a special program.

Michigan State College's new two-year professional program in social work has been fully approved by the Council on Social Work Education.

Announcement of the approval was made by Dr. Ernest B. Harper, head of the department of social work, who attended the annual program meeting of the council in Washington, D.C., last month.

MSC's two-year graduate curriculum was launched in 1951. The first-year course was accredited by the former American Association of Schools of Social Work in February, 1952.

The CSWE approval is retroactive and includes the first group of students who received the Master of Social Work degree last spring.

As a result of the decision, all of the professional curricula within the School of Business and Public Service, for which national accrediting associations exist, have been approved by their respective national associations.

Graves Hits 'Disinterest' Of College

MSC Officials Ask
Hearing on Change

Chances of MSC's becoming MSU aren't dead yet, but stronger support by MSC groups would have "materially aided" the bills' chances of passage in this session, co-sponsor Gerald Graves said Monday.

The Alpena representative, who holds two degrees from State, said that, although many consider the name change to be a dead issue, he is optimistic about the idea's eventual approval by the Legislature.

"If not this year, then next," he said.

At the same time, he commented that he thought Michigan State College officials could have done a better job of supporting the measure for which they asked.

The legislators felt that no one actually was very interested in the proposed name change from college to university, Rep. Graves said.

The college has sent a letter to the Legislature officially requesting a hearing on the bill, State Board of Agriculture secretary Karl H. McDonell said Monday.

The bill to change Michigan State's name now is back in the House committee on education, where general opinion seems to have relegated it to death.

Graves is not alone on his stand, however. Another sponsor, Rep. Harold Hungerford (R-Lansing), stressed last week that he sent the bill back to the committee only for a hearing and with no intentions of killing it.

On the other side of the ledger, however, Rep. Lloyd Gibbs (R-Portland), chairman of the house educational institutions committee, said the proposal was dead unless college authorities come up with another proposal that cannot be so readily confused with the University.

U. of M. president, Harlan Hatcher, and the University Board of Regents went on record last week as opposing the name change.

Early Spartan Surge Dumps Wildcats, 65-62

Match Third Big 10 Win

By BOB VREY
The strength of a period spurge, Michigan basketball team had a big 10 win as they downed Northwestern Monday night in Jenison house.
Spartans carried a 51-44 lead into the final period, but a free throw by Forward Elmann and two-pointers Harold Grant and Walt Stoepetwerth closed the game 65-62.

Loose ball draws attention of State's Keith Stashhouse (14), Rob Armstrong, partially hidden, and Al Ferrari (22) in Monday night's 65-62 victory over Northwestern.

McCoey, Spartan sophomore, took off the game with a layup after hitting a wildcat pass, to put ahead, 30-22, with 2:14 to go in the game.
Elmann's jump shot and a free throw by Guard Larry Egan had the Wildcats on State's heels, 62-58, with 2:17 left in the game.

Spartan stall drew the Wildcats into a press but State failed to make only three free throws in the last two minutes. However, the Green and White failed to control the ball in the weather the storm, Al Elmann, who topped the score with 22 points, failed to drop in one last shot Northwestern in the last 40 seconds.

Elmann hit at a .363 pace the game, as Forward Al Ferrari tallied 26 points, hit four field goals, and Guard Egan collected seven rebounds doing some fast-breaking ball handling.

Wildcats were unable to get good shots at their net. Tight Spartan defense held to only three field goals in the opening period.

The Spartans were collecting 19 points the second period and Kurka led Northwestern 20 point outburst with six and six points respectively. Northwestern picked up on six of 14 as Elmann meshed six tall as McCoey, who paced the team with 19 points, collected five rebounds throughout the game.

which raised its Big 10 record to 3-4, managed to sink four baskets the final 10 minutes as the Wildcats again led the Spartans, 19-14.

Ever, Ferrari and McCoey through with points in the game to keep State ahead, though by more than five points in the last two and a half minutes. The game which started out as a bump for State, had the Spartans cheering on the edge of seats by the final minutes.

Schlademan Grooms Freshmen for AAUs

Coach Karl Schlademan took a look at some of his track prospects Saturday, in preparation for the Michigan AAU meet this Saturday at Ann Arbor.

Most of the emphasis was on freshmen as he has a pretty fair idea of what to expect from his veterans. However, some varsity events were run.

After the final race Schlademan termed the performance as "pretty good freshman times."

Aaron Gettel, Bay Port freshman, followed closely by Ted Terloff and Leonard Efron. New York, capped the 600-yard run in a good 1:17.4. Hurdles, John Coleman, Pittsburgh, and Full Cook, Greenville, Lloyd Swanson, Detroit, and Bob Brown placed in both the 60-yard high and low hurdles. Coleman took first in the high in 2.3 while Swanson won the low in 7.8.

Another fine hurdler and sprinter, Bob Grimm, Wilmette, Ill., was unable to compete Saturday.

A strong finish by Bob Skane, Bridgeport, Conn., earned him a victory in the 1,600-yard run. His time was 2:24.8. Gaylor Denslow, Ewart, and Andy Crawford placed second and third respectively.

Howard Rose, Northridge, Calif., and Jack Innes, Dearborn, tied for first place honors in the 60 yard dash. Their time was :6.7.

Shot putter Dick Muessig, Lombard, Ill. freshman has registered a mark of over 41 feet to rate as the leading candidate.

George Best, Battle Creek, is the leading freshman pole vaulter with jumps of 12 feet to his credit.

In the varsity events, John Corbelli, Buffalo, senior, and Henry Gillis, East Chicago, Ind. senior, led the way. Both tied in the 60-yard high in 7.8 and Corbelli took the low in 7.4.

Joe Savoldi, Herbert, sophomore, and Marlan Benjamin, Milan, senior, took close places in the hurdles.

The first varsity man over the finish line in the mile and a half was John Cook, London, Ont. junior. He was followed closely by Selwyn Jones, Hamilton, Ont. freshman. Cook finished in 6:57 and Jones in 7:00.

Safety Breaks Spring Record With 12 Games Left to Play

CLEMMON, E. C. (A) — Fiercest of the Spartans' safety break night net a 19-0 three-year setting record for a major college basketball player. The 6-3 center brought his career total to 1,000 points with 12 games left to play by scoring 24 points against Clemon.

Varsity Swimmers Beat Fresh

The varsity captured all but one of the first places, while John Dudeck set a new varsity record in the 200-yard breast stroke.

Dudeck came home in 2:10.7 in his specialty, breaking his own record of 2:20.1 set in 1953. Dudeck finished three-quarters of a length ahead of second place finisher Bruce Aldrich, skip of the varsity.

The freshman won the opening event, the 300-yard medley relay, with Don Blackburn, John Brown and Bob MacKusick but were unable to beat the varsity to the finish line the rest of the afternoon.

Jack Beattie won the 220-yard freestyle in 2:16.3 with Jim Richard of the varsity runner-up. Chuck Baldwin capped the 50-yard freestyle for the varsity, while Aldrich and Lanny Johnson gave the varsity a one-two finish in the 150-yard individual medley.

Don Morcy countered 200 to capture the diving, with Captain Jack Holwege a close second with 248.00 points. John Brown finished with 244.00 for the Gophers.

Tom Payette came home at 1:05.4 in the 100-yard freestyle ahead of Frank Patrick of the freshmen. Frank Patrick of the 200-yard backstroke for the varsity with Blackburn taking second for the freshmen.

Jim Richard took the 440-yard freestyle for the varsity in 5:20.9. The varsity closed the meet by taking the 400-yard freestyle relay in 3:46.5.

Police Report Few Parking Rule Violations

Grand River's no parking regulations, in effect since Jan. 11, has caused little trouble to the police force, according to Charles F. Peck, Sgt. Lansing's chief of police.

"But as the result of no parking on Grand River, the problem of illegal parking at intersections on the side streets has increased," he added.

The traffic regulation states that it is unlawful to park within 20 feet of a marked crossing, and if there is no crosswalk, cars must remain 15 feet from the intersecting crossline. Cars must not be parked within 30 feet of a traffic signal or sign at the side of a highway.

Chief Peck warned that police have the authority to tow away improperly parked cars. Parking is now prohibited between Hallett and MAC.

Prof. Brown Wins Award

Dr. Robert E. Brown, associate professor of history, is the first recipient of a Thomas Jefferson Fellowship from the University of Virginia.

Dr. Brown will begin the year of research into the democracy of colonial Virginia at Virginia in September. He received the award through the unanimous action of Virginia alumni board of trustees.

The fellowships were established last fall by the university's endowment fund officials. The awards are made to persons of promise and distinction in the arts, sciences, literature, and scholarship. Recipients must use the university's research facilities.

Short Meeting Senior Council Appoints Heads For Term Jobs

In one of the shortest meetings on record, Senior Council last week named the chairman of the Senior Ball, appointed the head of the committee for arrangements for winter term graduation announcements and began work on Senior Swingout.

Howard Adams, Jackson, will head the Ball committee. Polly Klingensmith, Fort Wayne, Ind., will attend to the announcements. The action took 13 minutes.
