Ziegenhardt Farm Battle Re-Opens

Another family moved into the farm home of Chris and Paul Ziegenhardt Thursday after officers evicted the law-defying brothers.

The move was the second attempt by police to take possession of the farm that the Ziegenhardts obtained in 1953. Police evicted them on March 13, 1954, but sympathizers moved them back in.

New Counsel

The Ziegenhardts were charged with the $400,000 farm they lost through failure to pay a $250 assessment in the 1953 bankruptcy of the Lansing Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Association.

Their furniture was sold at a public auction on March 13, and the Ziegenhardts, who after they refused to suggest any other place for it.

Some 56 state troopers and Lapeer County sheriff's deputies swarmed down on the farm at dawn Thursday. The evictions were held to avoid a shooting war between the Ziegenhardts and their neighbors.

You might as well take it out and shoot it," Paul Ziegenhardt told the sheriff's deputies.

Gregory served an eviction with a writ of possession, who sought the 260-acre farm for $3,500 at an auction ordered by the Michigan Supreme Court in 1948.

Paul and Chris, 25, were asleep in their bedroom when the raiding party came. The brothers pulled on their clothes as they heard the eviction with a flashlight.

The sheriff also handed them a $5,750 levy on their personal property, a judgment obtained by Mrs. White for the Ziegenhardts' occupying the farm after the purchase of a few years ago.

Friends estimate the Ziegenhardts have paid "at least $18,000" to fight the $250 assessment. They built a sandbag timber "fort Ziegenhardt" in their farmyard to dramatize their opposition.

Sheriff Gregory ordered the farm and signs advertising the Ziegenhardts' battle to be removed by a deadline of 10 p.m. Thursday.

The farmhouse's interior was a jumble of old newspapers, food, plaster, food crumbs and personal possessions.

Charles Bayles, 45, of Kalamazoo, Wis., the new tenant of the farm, arrived shortly after the brothers were evicted.

A widow with three children, Bayles was hired by Mrs. White last week.

He said he would try to stick it out when informed a previous tenant had been driven off the farm by Ziegenhardt supporters.

The eviction was unlike the attempted removal of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens, who lost her $3,000 Clifford farm by refusing to pay a $172 assessment ordered by the insurance association's receivers.

Mrs. White purchased her farm at auction for $500.

Sheriff Gregory was roughed up by an angry mob of farmers when he attempted to evict Mrs. Stevens a widow, June 21, 1952.

Ellen Harrington as Miss Green in Theta Alpha Phi's production of "The Man Who Came to Dinner" comes in for some rough handling by Rance, played by Ron Sumbert, and Frank Serres, who as "the man," Sheridan Whiteside.

Old Comedy Proves 'Hilarious' in Opener

'Man Who Came to Dinner' Shows Excellent Acting

By JACKIE OUDHAM
Superb acting coupled with excellent comedy made Thursday evening's opening performance of "The Man Who Came to Dinner" a hit.

The play will run tonight and Saturday at 401 Home Economics Building.

Produced by the Theta Alpha Phi production of the Miss Hart-George Kaufman play was Frank Serres, who as the charming, sophisticated, egotistical Sheridan Whiteside.

Patricia Jones did well in portraying the vivacious Lorraine, who almost but not quite succeeds in seducing Maggie's boy friend, Arnold Warren, as the boy friend turned in a generally good performance, but seemed stilted at times.

Plans for revamping the organization of Block "S" are being made according to Bill Thistle, a board member.

New members of the block are being sought. The block is a group of students who are interested in the arts and sciences.

Present members who wish to sit in the block again next year are urged to send their Block S membership cards to James Ranner at the Chi Omega house.

Preparations are being made for a get-together of the block members at the Chi Omega house.

The block will be placed between the 10 and 25 yard lines, June 26-27.

William Galarno was another outstanding actor in the role of Beverly Carlton, a satirization of the reviewer.

Legislature Races for Adjournment

Action Awaited
On Wage Hikes

Michigan's Legislature, with one eye on the clock and the other on the calendar, raced Thursday toward final adjournment, slated to be sometime today or tonight.

A Senate amendment providing $1,278,000 in pay raises for state of Michigan universities and colleges awaits House action.

The Senate amendment, passed Wednesday night, would increase pay for about two-and-a-half percent at state-supported universities and colleges.

It would bring the pay rates into approximate line with the recent raises granted other state workers by the Civil Service Commission.

Approved by the House in its recent session, the amendment would grant $885,000 to the State Board of Agriculture. The sum is approximately two-and-a-half percent of the combined budget of the board, the college, the extension station and the extension service.

MSC would get $214,000 for increases in payroll coming under the general operating fund. College services not directly educational in nature as dormitory operations are not financed by the legislature and would not be included in the appropriation.

Also due is final action on bills providing for MSC's operating expenses and new construction. The bills are in House-Senate conference committee, to report differences.

The House Thursday turned down proposed constitutional amendments which would have extended the terms of state and county officials from two to four years and lowered the voting age from 21 to 19.

The four-year term amendment which had passed the Senate, fell 25 votes short of the necessary two-thirds majority. The 19-year-old vote, which the Senate had not acted on, fell 19 votes short.

The House also voted down Senate-approved bills which would have required that ad valorem taxes be assessed on the state equalized valuation.

Portugal Talk Scheduled

"April in Portugal" may be the musical hit parade, but Spaniards can see and hear of the country that inspired the tune in April setting Saturday.

Artist-photographer Alfred Wolf will present "Portugal," a film and lecture, at 8 p.m. in the Auditorium.

ID cards will admit students to the World Travel series program. Tickets for the general public will be on sale at the box office.

It is essential that there be no obstruction on the relay to the tower and for that reason the height of Jensen is ideal. From it there is a clear shot to the tower.

From ground level the "dishes" appear to be relatively small. Actually, they are five feet in diameter.

They are made of a coated alloy and are shaped to make a parabolic deflection. Both are attached to tripods which can be adjusted so that the maximum signal is available.

Union Board members honored at the board's award dinner Thursday night were Sidney Coles, who received a special award, Jack Winkelnoh, retiring president, and Betty Giese, new president.

Union Board Fetes Award Winners

The annual Union Board Awards Banquet was opened Thursday night with an address, "Union Board—Its Value to the Campus," by Dean of Students Tom King.

Jack Winkelnoh, Celina, Ohio, senior and this year's president of the board, was master of ceremonies for the program, which began at 6:30 p.m. in 21 Union.

King's address was followed by a progress report from Winkelnoh.

Special outstanding worker awards were given to Sidney Coles, Chillicothe, Ohio, junior, and Arlene Kemmer, Chicago sophomore.

Recipients of Board of Directors Awards gold keys with white onyx symbols were Dan Smith, Wilmette, Ill., junior, Joan Rexford, Grosse Pointe senior, Betty Giese, Saginaw junior and new president of the board, and Mal Bertram, Springfield, Mass., junior.

Fifty-five awards were given, including many to members who worked on the recent talent show.

Mrs. Etoile White, director, was given a lazy Susan by the board.

Two Journalism Instructors to Talk At Regional Meets

Two MSC journalism professors will be principal speakers at separate regional meetings with the next month.

Dr. Joseph A. Del Porto, will speak at a regional meeting of 175 high school journalism students at Central Michigan College of Education Saturday.

His topic at this annual North Central Michigan Scholastic Press Conference will be "What Makes a Superior Newspaper Man?" The students formerly attended meetings at MSC's High School Journalism Day fall term.

Dr. C. W. Wilkinson, assistant professor in charge of business writing, will speak at the mid-west regional meeting of the American Business Writing Association at Cleveland, May 8.

Allies Ask Delay for Discussions

Dulles May Schedule
European Conference

LONDON (AP)—Britain and France balked Thursday night at immediate "united action" to head off Communist domination of Indochina.

U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles was expected to fly to France tomorrow to discuss the Indochina situation without delay.

A State Department spokesman said in Washington that the French had been considered but that the decision had not been made.

Reports here were that the French would visit London and Paris next week to discuss the British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault.

Indochina officials in Washington late Thursday said that they under stood the French to fly to an Air Force plane to London Sunday for two days of talks with Eden and Prime Minister Churchill, then go to Paris Wednesday for two days of talks with Bidault and Premier Laniel.

A report for President Eisenhower would be ready by the end of next week.

The talks would precede the Geneva Conference on Far East problems, chiefly Korea and Indochina, scheduled for April 26.

Official sources said the Churchill government has asked Washington to go slow on its program for a "hands off" warning to Red China and a new anti-Communist front of 10 nations in Southeast Asia.

The British have asked for more time to talk over the proposal.

Both the British and the French have expressed fear in diplomatic exchanges that they have a non-military agreement with Red China and Russia at the Geneva conference.

A request by both countries for further talks on the U. S. proposals was reported behind a Dulles suggestion that he fly to Europe next week for a conference on the critical Indochina situation.

Both British and French officials said they would welcome changes to discuss Indochina with Dulles.

But British diplomatic sources warned that the United States must agree to high level consultations on the Dulles proposals before Britain or France give any positive replies.

The French people were described as bitterly opposed to anything which might interfere with an agreement to end the war.

New Library to Aid Room Decorations

By ROBERT NEMICK

If students think the walls of their dormitory rooms are bare lately, the opening of the new MSC library will give them a new idea of room decorations. The new library will give dormitory students the opportunity to "take out" paintings just as they would books.

The same plan was in effect last year and discontinued when a committee, headed by Dean Thomas Osgood, of School of Graduate Studies, recommended that the desk area be enlarged.

As a result, the 40 paintings, which were once on a table at the head of the second-floor hallway, were removed to the room for additional tabling, according to Jackson E. one head librarian.

Students could borrow a painting for only one term but could change it for another one. Because of the small size of the room, they were available to dormitory students, Towne said.

He reported that most of the paintings were loaned to coeds, and the collection was selected by the art department.

It consists of exceptional works of the less sensational, "old paintings," explained one. "There are paintings in the renaissance to the modern periods. Van Gogh and Matisse are a few of the more famous artists in the collection."

He said that if the walls in the MSC library seem bare, paintings will be put along with the dedication ceremony. After that they will again be available to students.

Cabinet Proposed

Hyman Plan Explained

By MYRA MACPHERSON

What happens when something new happens from a group of seven to a staff of 200 people within two years?

Such rapid growth in an organization may result in a confused and inadequate system. This in turn may call for a reworking of old procedures to step up efficiency.

Such a revision may take place in the executive branch of student government, if Congress approves a proposed reorganization plan set up by Pres. Dave Hyman. The plan is now in consideration.

In the past two years, the executive branch field of activities has grown from 7 to 19," said Hyman. Spartan, Spirit, International Week, Centennial Program, and Small Loan Fund are only a few of the organizations involved. The 200 students that have been added in this two-year period, he said.

Hyman's plan would set up a cabinet to coordinate all the groups and clarify the positions and operations. Three new activities also are added to the executive duties in this proposed plan.

1. Legislative: A group of students working with Congress to approach the State Legislature when student affairs arise. This committee would be able to go into action when such things as the college library bill and MSU bill might be presented to the Legislature.

2. Personnel: A group to handle the executive staff. It includes keeping efficient and accurate listings of the 200 student workers on the executive board.

3. Academic Benefits: To set up a world forum series. Student participation would be emphasized in this question answer series presenting world-wide experts and lecturers.

As far as the organizing is concerned, the proposed plan would split responsibilities into two groups. One group would be headed by the secretary of government affairs and would contain seven departments. This division would revolve around internal phase and services of the executive board. Keeping of records, election, and eligibility among the departments.

All activities such as Spartan Spirit, High School Cooperation, International Week, and Legislative Liaison would come under the other division, headed by the secretary of state affairs.

No 'Biggest Show' Scheduled for Spring Quarter

There won't be any "Biggest Show of '54" at least not spring term.

Dean Stanley E. Crowe, Lecturer Council series director, said Thursday that the bookkeeping agency which sets up the shows is not scheduling one for this spring.

But jazz and popular music can look forward to a "Biggest Show of '54" next fall, when a better package of artists can be assembled, Dean Crowe said.

The "Biggest Shows" have become an entertainment tradition at MSU and have been presented as special Lecture Concert series programs. The spring term "Biggest Show of '53" featured Ella Fitzgerald, Frankie Laine, and Woody Herman's orchestra. Fall term's edition starred Sarah Vaughan, Nat "King" Cole, Ralph Marterie's band and Illinois Jacquet.

New Look to Confront Gridders As Spring Drills Open Monday

Spartan 11 To Undergo Rebuilding Job

By DON SMITH
The Spartan era will be new Monday.
Head football coach Duffy Daugherty will open spring drills Monday and match the Spartans against the Michigan State team.

CO-APT. DON KAITH

DUFFY DAUGHERTY

CO-APT. LEROY BOLDEN

Daugherty's first job will be reorganizing his new staff into a new coaching unit. Next up is the rebuilding job. The Spartans will be a new team, a new look, a new spirit. The Spartans will be a new team, a new look, a new spirit.

outstanding last year they did produce some good ballplayers. At end of the year will contribute Lacey Bernard and a converted back, Dennis Mendick. New tackle will be Ron Latromia and Dave Trappett. Detroit All-Stater Joe Carruthers and Frank Nauvokas are the fresh guards.

Battling for Neill's vacated center post will be Don Berger, John Matiska and Bill Burke. The backfield crop is the brightest part of the fresh picture. Jim Buglew, Lou Costanza, Rudy Gordini, Don Gilbert, Clarence Peaks and Pat Wilson are the new backs. Wilson is the brother of ex-Spartan center and Rhodes scholarship winner, Johnny Wilson.

The Spartans will hold 20 practice sessions in a 20 day period, concluding with the annual Green and White game on Saturday, May 8, at Mackinac Island.

The coaches can't give an estimate of the total number of men who are likely to appear for the spring drills, due to class conflicts, field trips and jobs.

It is probable that the figure might reach 90 during the first few days and level off at about 75 as practice progresses.

Football Candidates

Students interested in going out for spring football drills are requested by Coach Duffy Daugherty to have physical examinations before Monday at the Health Center. Daugherty said he would welcome all candidates and that equipment will be issued at 1 p.m. Monday at the stadium.

U of M Football Drills Delayed

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Still seeking two assistants, head coach Pennie Osterbaan of Michigan said Thursday that the start of the Wolverines' spring practice is being pushed back one week to Monday, April 19.

Originally, Michigan was scheduled to open spring drills this coming Monday, April 12, which is the same time as Michigan State. But Osterbaan postponed the starting date because the Wolverines still need to fill two assistant coaching vacancies.

Osterbaan also expressed hope that the weather will be more conducive to drills on the lawn.

At Montreal, 5-2

Red Wings Upset Favored Canadiens

MONTREAL (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings blasted the favored Montreal Canadiens, 5-2, here Thursday night to take a 2-1 lead in games in the Stanley Cup hockey final playoffs. Hurt by the absence of two key men because of injuries, the Canadiens' makeshift lines were unable to cope with Detroit power and at times the Montreal defense became completely disorganized.

Five Red Wings shared in the harvest of Detroit goals, a victory that again established Detroit as the favorite to take the best of seven series. The fourth game will be played here Saturday.

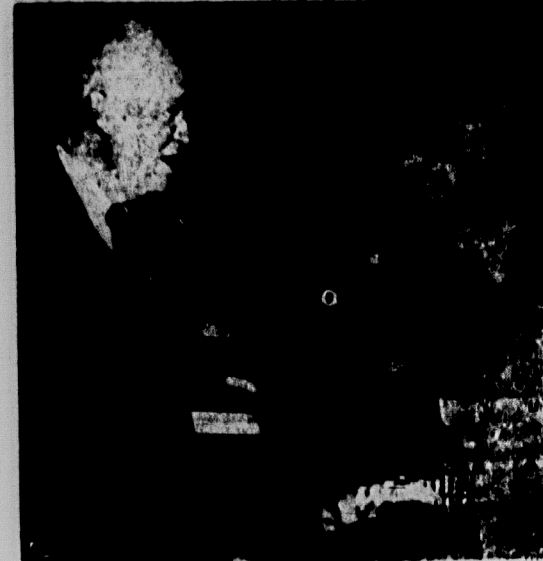

Alex Delvecchio and Ted Lindsay gave Detroit a 2-0 lead in the first period and Johnny Wilson made it 3-0 early in the second.

Tom Johnson gave the Canadiens brief hope with an unassisted goal after seven minutes of the third period but Detroit romped in front again on goals by Metro Prystai and Gordie Howe.

Dollard St. Laurent counted the Canadiens' final goal five minutes from the end and the Canadiens' tally the rest of the way fell short and too late.

Defenseman Doug Harvey and center Jean Beliveau were out of the Montreal line-up because of injuries. But the Red Wings took nothing for granted and hammered away ceaselessly, outshooting Montreal 36-26.

Attack by Editorials

Anti-McCarthy Publisher Indicted by Grand Jury

LAS VEGAS, Nov. 6—Publisher H. M. Greenspun of the Las Vegas Morning Sun was indicted Thursday by a federal grand jury on a charge of mailing copies of his newspapers containing an article on Sen. McCarthy which tended to "incite arson, murder or assassination."

Greenspun is a bitter and outspoken critic of the senator. The trial, announced by federal Judge Roger T. Foley, charged that the publisher on Jan. 8, 1954, deposited 874 Morning Sun papers containing non-mailable matters.

The indictment contained a copy of a column Greenspun wrote in the Sun which said "Sen. Joe McCarthy has to come to a violent end, but I would hate to see some simpleton get the chair for such a public service as getting rid of McCarthy."

In Los Angeles, when told of the indictment, Greenspun said "We were just performing our duty to our readers to keep them fully informed of the dangers that threaten their government and their way of life."

He said McCarthy has any claim to a civil suit. But to pressure government agencies is just another attempt to muzzle a newspaper which has been critical of the junior senator from Wisconsin.

The grand jury in a 10-minute session Thursday heard only one witness, S. H. Jensen, postal inspector, formerly of Las Vegas and now of Los Angeles.

Greenspun has written a number of page one editorials attacking McCarthy and his methods. He once branded as "the dirtiest age."
