Police May Limit Permits

Move Would Restrict Grad Assistants' Driving, Parking

Graduate assistants may have their campus driving privileges restricted next year, Chief Arthur F. Brandstatter indicated Thursday in a letter circulated in department heads.

Brandstatter said in the correspondence that he planned to recommend to the traffic committee a proposal which would restrict graduate assistants to student parking areas on South Campus for the 1954-55 year.

Army Hits McCarthy Officially

New Row May Delay Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army's chief of public relations, Maj. Gen. McCarthy, was hit by a new row of charges Thursday, after the Senate's chief counsel, Roy Cohn, hit him with a principal charge of "improper means" in getting the new row of charges out of the start of public hearings.

McCarthy's chief counsel, Roy Cohn, hit him with a principal charge of "improper means" in getting the new row of charges out of the start of public hearings.

There may be another delay in the Senate's public hearings on McCarthy's charges, after the Army's chief of public relations, Maj. Gen. McCarthy, was hit by a new row of charges Thursday.

The document says Cohn tried to expose the Army's "blackmail" in the investigation of McCarthy's charges, but the Army's chief of public relations, Maj. Gen. McCarthy, was hit by a new row of charges Thursday.

For Studying Food Handling

Les Gourmets Excludes Fancy Eaters

By BILL LATCHFORD
When you hear the word "Gourmet," you probably think of plain beef and boiled potatoes, but the Les Gourmets, a club of students, is not interested in fancy eaters.

Chicago, Ill., junior, and vice president of the club. Les Gourmets, as the club is officially called, is sponsored by the MSC restaurant department, and all but one of its 84 members are restaurant management majors.

"Our department is considered tops in the country," Breitbart said. Hence, the majority of its students are from out-of-state, though none is from a foreign land.

Les Gourmets meets each week for a "Distinguished Lecture Series" given by men connected with the restaurant management business.

Processors of foods come from all over the country to demonstrate their products. The products demonstrated are often tasted by the members.

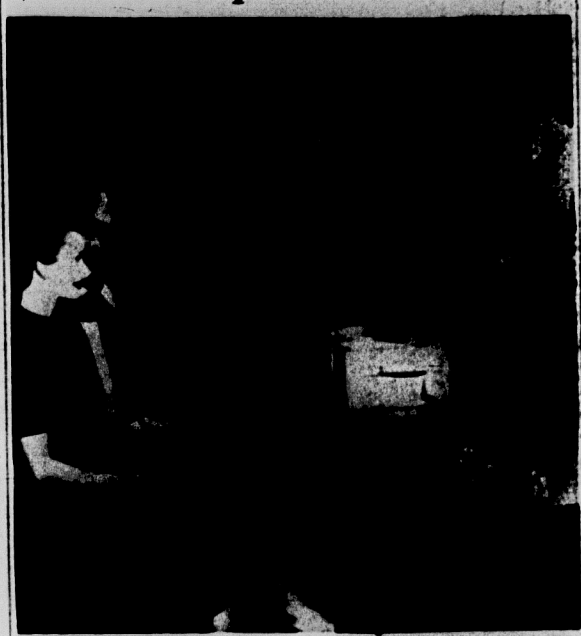

The restaurant management business and Les Gourmets hold an annual show in Chicago. Some of the members, sponsored by the restaurant management department, go there each year with a special display designed and built by the club.

The club also makes field trips to restaurants and food product houses in this area—but not for dinner. Their chief interest is in operational problems. The students discuss problems and methods with the owner and then form their own conclusions.

"But there's not a man here who couldn't handle a dishcloth," Breitbart added. "All of us learn cooking as well as management." The members occasionally demonstrate their talents by sponsoring sales of their own pastry.

The club also holds several parties where their members get a chance to prepare lunches and other specialties—a lot better than most people who offer cake and potato chips and call it a day.

'Operator'

Elizabeth Dalbore, Bell Telephone service representative and 1951 MSC graduate, tests the telephone manners of Union employees Sue Kintigh, of the manager's office; R. L. Villars, book store manager, and Mal Bertram, of Union Board.

Via Tape Recording

Union Office Personnel Learn Voice Technique

The Union's "hello girls" learned Thursday afternoon how their own telephone voices sound, via tape recordings made at Michigan Bell's voice clinic.

"This is the first time such a clinic has been conducted on campus, and perhaps if it proves advantageous other departments will have similar ones," Mike Dmochowski, Union Building manager, said.

Elizabeth Dalbore, a 1951 MSC graduate, conducted the clinic for the Union office personnel. She gave a talk on the importance of a pleasing tone of voice and distributed booklets to the secretaries, desk workers and Union Board members who attended.

NCAA Asks Rejection of Big 10 Plan

TV Controversy Still Undecided

KANSAS CITY (AP)—An overwhelming rejection of the Big 10 Conference's demands for a change in televising major college football games has been ordered by members of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

There was no immediate comment from the Big 10, which had asked its members to vote against a limited, nationally controlled program, essentially the same as the one last year, submitted to an NCAA last year referendum.

Under the program, approved 184 to 26, there will be 12 nationwide telecasts of Saturday games with regional TV contests restricted to Thanksgiving Day. A major team will be permitted to appear on TV only once during the season.

The Big 10, officially the Western Conference, wanted a program that would permit a team to appear twice regionally, once at home and once away, or once nationally.

At Chicago, Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson, Big 10 commissioner, said he would have a statement later on the referendum, results of which were announced Thursday by Walt Byers, executive director of the NCAA.

Wilson said the subject may be discussed at a conference meeting April 26-27 at Chicago. There have been predictions that the Big 10 might embark on its own regional TV program next fall.

City School Board To Fill Vacancies In June Election

East Lansing's Board of Education made plans Monday night for an election June 14 of two school board members.

Terms of Frank Kroppel, board president, and Harold Bragan, immediate past president, expired this year, leaving the two positions vacant.

Three polling locations will be used instead of the usual one. Voters may cast their ballots at East Lansing High School, Central School or Bailey School.

Illini to Present 'Spring Carnival'

The University of Illinois will stage its 10th annual "Spring Carnival," comparable to MSC's Spartacade.

Like Spartacade, which gained more than $4,000 in proceeds this year, the carnival is an all-student production donating proceeds to Campus Chest.

Thursday, the National Conference of School Transportation ended its three-day stay on campus. During the meeting the educators, representing 40 of the 48 school districts, revised the existing minimum standards for school bus construction. Most prominent change was to switch the color scheme from yellow and black, now used in many sections, to complete yellow.

IFC Convo Hears Talk By Harden

Fraternities Hold Two-Day Session

"The successful leader in this complex world must be adaptable, faithful to unselfish aims and courageous," said Edgar Harden, dean of continuing education, in addressing more than 125 fraternity officers at the general session of the Fraternity Leadership Conference Thursday evening.

Donald O. Buell, professor of speech and president of the Fraternity Advisers' Association, was chairman of the main session. He introduced Tom King, dean of students, who welcomed Dean Harden.

The general session was followed by discussion of common fraternity problems by presidents, treasurers, stewards and scholarship chairmen of the 25 social fraternities at MSC.

The Thursday meeting concluded the two-day session which sought to stimulate serious thought on fraternity problems and to train officers for their duties.

The conference was sponsored by IFC, the Fraternity Advisers' Association and the dean of students office, men's division. Dr. David W. Dickson was general chairman.

Conference Attendance To Hit 900

Speech, English Teachers to Meet

More than 900 people will arrive at MSC next week to attend 10 special courses and conferences.

The meetings are Fundamentals of industrial supervision, Tuesday to Friday insurance sales course, management roundtable, and coal merchandising conference, Tuesday, property and casualty sales institute and the conference on packaging and preservation, Wednesday and Thursday.

Others are: Irrigation conference, Thursday; P.E.O. Thursday through Saturday, and press photography, Friday and Saturday. All of these will meet in Kellogg Center.

A meeting of osteopathic externs will be held Thursday in Giltner Hall.

April 29, MSC will host more than 200 high school and college English, speech and communication teachers for the seventh annual communication skills conference. Dr. Ben Smedley, lecturer in communication at the University of Chicago, will speak on "Personality Development Through Communication."

Thursday, the National Conference of School Transportation ended its three-day stay on campus. During the meeting the educators, representing 40 of the 48 school districts, revised the existing minimum standards for school bus construction. Most prominent change was to switch the color scheme from yellow and black, now used in many sections, to complete yellow.

Insurance for school buses and laws requiring a driver to stop while buses are unloading were other subjects discussed.

Art Instructor to Show Sculpture at Wayne

A sculpture in steel by Lindsey Bunker of the art department has been accepted by Wayne University's art department for its sculpture exhibition, May 3 to 21. The work is entitled, "Southwest."

Easter at MSC

Dean Tom King took an "Easter Bunny" break Thursday long enough to buy some presents for his two grandchildren and a four-year-old girl friend. Waiting on him in the five and 10 is MSC student and clerk Victoria Carlson, who finds this relationship, at least, with her dean of students extremely pleasant.

The religious aspect of Easter is portrayed by Union Manager Mike Dmochowski as he explains the significance of the lily to his four children, Mike, Ida Jo, Jack and Chuck.

Petitions for Aid Deadline Changed To Wednesday

Grants-in-aid petitions for organizations now may be turned in until Wednesday, because of the new law passed by student government Wednesday evening.

In order for a petition to be valid, it must follow the prescribed form set forth in this bill, which establishes new criteria, according to Bill Wurm, chairman of the grants-in-aid committee.

Forms may be picked up in the government office, third floor Union, between 2 and 5 p.m.

The deadline, formerly was April 28.

L-C Schedules
Benny Goodman
Respectable Benny Goodman, jazz clarinet and combo, will bring jazz touches to the fall term Lecture-Concert series.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Congress to Act on Atom Data

WASHINGTON (AP)—Legislation designed to give President Eisenhower powers to transfer certain atomic data to U.S. allies in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization was introduced Thursday in the Senate and the House.

'Soapy' to Tell Political Aims

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams said Thursday his final decision on running for a fourth term or for the U.S. Senate will be made over the Easter weekend.

Shoulders Convicted of Lying

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Louis Shoulders, ex-St. Louis police lieutenant, Thursday was convicted of lying about the handling of the $500,000 Greenleaf kidnap ransom, half of which still is missing.

Housing Fraud Action Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—Legislation to permit the prosecution of alleged housing frauds dating back to 1949 was ticketed for quick action Thursday as 1,149 corporations were reported to have received government-insured building loans that exceeded construction costs.

Ford Plant to Idle 1,250

MONROE (AP)—Some 1,250 workers were idled at the Ford Motor Co. plant in Monroe Thursday by a dispute over the hiring of new employees.

Spring Sports Need Support

One bloc of more than 200 Spartans won't be going home for the Easter weekend.

Why? Because the spring sports schedule gets underway today.

The athletes will start their seasons with hopes high and a better than average chance for success.

Today the golfers will start their battle to vacate the cellar spot they occupied last year in the Big 10. Handicapped by the lack of a golf course to practice on, the linksmen have never finished higher than fifth in the Big 10, but they have never quit trying.

Saturday the baseball team will open their season. Coach John Kobs' men will also be anxious to improve a poor 1953 showing, when they finished seventh.

The baseballers had a good year on their spring trip and show promise of providing MSC a big winning year on the diamond.

Also Saturday, over 30 trackmen will journey to Columbus, O., to open their season in the Ohio State Relays. Last year the trackmen finished third in the outdoor season and indications this year point to an equalling of that mark. Their first home meet will be with Notre Dame on May 1.

Later in the month, the tennis team will open their defense of a conference second place. They played last year's dual meet schedule without a loss and could do the same again this year.

Over behind Macklin Field, over 120 football players are already hard at work to make a successful attempt to recapture the honors they won last year. Their big game of the spring will be the Green and White contest May 8. This year, as in past years, the assembled athletes will be playing for you, the students, and they hope, with your support.

Big sport or small, the crowds are still the vital part of any athletic event, in college or any place else. Winter term the attendance at sports events fell off slightly. Let's not let it happen this season.

Something Special...

Among the many special events planned for Easter Sunday is a Candlelight Service scheduled on the Vespers Series for 4 p.m. in the Alumni Chapel.

Groups which have volunteered to participate in the program include the Fresh-Soph Council and the Phi Delta Theta Choir, in addition to several soloists.

Dr. David D. W. Dickson of the English department will give an address on "Lent, Easter and Christian Hope." The Vespers Series was originated last fall so students could participate in religious services. About eight programs have been given since then under the sponsorship of various campus organizations.

The response has been overwhelmingly favorable, and an average attendance of about 250 has swelled the Chapel to capacity.

Students may be assured that if Sunday's program meets the excellent standards of previous presentations, it will be well worth attending.

Letters to the Editor:

To the Editor:
Students with cars, whether they live permanently in East Lansing or not, are members of the community while they attend school. They spend their good money in this community and help it to prosper. They pay license fees on their automobiles and pay tax on the gasoline they buy.

In short, they're paying their way as much as any other individual in East Lansing and are paying for roads on which to drive. They deserve the same East Lansing driving privileges on public property as any other citizen. Some merchants apparently don't know what side their bread is buttered on.

To the Editor:
Has it become a tendency for our government to persecute a minority party in this country, that party being composed of Communists and Communist sympathizers?

Our government would have us believe that our system is above reproach! If this is true, why do we fear this minority group? Valid statistics from the Federal Bureau of Investigation put their number at 25,000.

One reason why our present Republican-dominated government allows such a policy of persecution to be carried on by Senator McCarthy is due to the fact that they are afraid that if the people's attention is called to the fact that we are in a major depression, rolling adjustment or slight recession (which ever you prefer to call it) the Republicans will suffer one of their worst defeats in November.

To the Editor:
It seems that every day there are more and more complaints about the way the campus police are conducting the school's affairs. Up to this time it was just students who owned cars that were really affected, and were bringing their grievances to public notice.

We don't own a car but we do own bicycles. We don't mind being told that we can't ride on campus without lights, we admit we were wrong—although we had lights, the wiring was bad in one and the batteries were dead in the other.

When the police start chasing and waiting around for us all over the campus that's going a little too far.

That, in itself, isn't as bad as the disrespect brought upon the president of this institution by the police officer in question—who referred to the president as "Uncle John." The police, it seems, respect nothing but law and order.

We next expect to hear complaints from the students living in the married housing area that the campus police are being in wait for their children as they go riding around on their tricycles.

It seems to us that the pick-up cars are getting pretty small if the police have to chase bike riders around all night.

Life Can Be...

DETROIT (AP)—With the mercury in the mid-60's, two brave water skiers performed on the Detroit River recently and gave surprised spectators the goose pimples.

During the impromptu show, both Irvin Wissen, 41, and Earl Snyder, 24, got dunked. And the water temperature was a brisk 41.5 degrees.

PRINCETON, Ill. (AP)—A real dizzy, mixed-up kid is 3-year-old Larry Jensen. He's limp, too. Larry, one of Mr. and Mrs. William Jensen's seven sons, crawled into a clothes dryer. He went for a spin when his 4½-year-old brother, Gregory, happened by and turned on the machine.

Larry was rescued shortly thereafter by his mother. She picked out her son—bruised, giddy and overheated, but otherwise unharmed.

The Jensens bought a strong padlock for the dryer Sunday.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—John Baird celebrated his 100th birthday Thursday by taking a wife, his second.

Baird and Mrs. Mertie Welch, 69, scorned an elevator and walked up three flights of stairs to the Marriage License Bureau.

Baird said he and Mrs. Welch had been sweethearts for 20 years.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—If Jesse Hale calls out the fire department the next time his wife falls down, he's going to jail.

Hale pleaded guilty recently to sending in a false alarm. He needed help, he told the judge, because his wife had fallen down and he couldn't pick her up. She weighs in the neighborhood of 270 pounds, he added.

The judge placed Hale on probation for two years.

Scientist Releases Accusations

Oppenheimer 'Informs'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The case of Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, who directed the building of the first atomic bomb, developed a new angle Thursday. The high-ranking scientist, who had been under fire on security grounds, was quoted as saying that it looked as if he were turning in his resignation to shield himself from the charges.

Several newspapers Thursday said Oppenheimer had written a letter to the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission in 1949. Two Senate subcommittees were reliably reported to have copies of these letters.

Oppenheimer's testimony was given in executive session, but a "leaked" and the Rochester, N. Y., Times-Union reported Oppenheimer had named a protégé of his, German-born Dr. Bernard Peters, as a one-time Communist.

Thursday, the New York Journal-American and the Daily News said Dr. Condon, head of the U. S. Bureau of Standards at that time, told Oppenheimer in a letter soon afterwards:

"One is tempted to feel that you are foolish as (sic) to think you can buy immunity for yourself by turning informer . . . You know very well that once these people decide to go into your own domain and make it public that it will make the revelations that have been made so far look pretty tame."

Another published letter represented Condon as telling his wife he was greatly concerned about Oppenheimer's state of mind.

Oppenheimer has been barred from access to atomic secrets pending an investigation by a special three-member panel of various security charges, one of them accusing him of obstructing development of the hydrogen bomb. He says he dropped his opposition to an all-out H-bomb project as soon as ex-president Truman ordered the work started.

Condon, now research director for the General Electric Co., once was described by a congressional committee as the "weakest link" in this country's atomic security chain. He repeatedly denied the accusation.

At Corning Thursday Condon said it's true he wrote Oppenheimer a letter about the Peters testimony. He declined to discuss it further, but said he has "complete confidence in the integrity and loyalty" of Oppenheimer.

Oppenheimer testified in June, 1949—shortly before a controversy over building the hydrogen bomb developed.

The following month he wrote a letter to the Rochester Times-Union saying that while Peters' political views were "radical" in his early years, "I have never known Dr. Peters to commit a dishonorable act nor a disloyal one."

Peters was teaching at the University of Rochester at that time. He now is a research physicist in Bombay, India.

Oppenheimer's testimony came during an inquiry into an alleged Russian espionage cell at the University of California's radiation laboratory. He was described as a cooperative witness.

Peters worked at the Berkeley, Calif., laboratory, which was part of the A-bomb development project. A refugee from Nazi Germany, he did graduate work under Oppenheimer and was regarded as a close friend of the A-bomb pioneer.

Foreign Series To Present Two British Movies

A romantic drama, "I Know Where I'm Going," and Noel Coward's "This Happy Breed" will be featured attractions Monday and Tuesday at Fairchild Theater. Scheduled starting times are 7 and 9 p.m.

"I Know Where I'm Going," to be shown Monday, is a British movie with Wendy Hiller, Roger Livesey, and Pamela Brown in central roles. The film, which contains much widely-acclaimed photography, was shot in Northern Scotland and the Hebrides Islands.

Stanley Holloway, Celia Johnson, Robert Newton, and John Mills are starred in "This Happy Breed," playing Tuesday night. The Technicolor epic is centered around witty and poignant incidents in the history of a middle-class British family from 1919 to 1939.

Tickets for the Foreign Film series showings will be sold in the Fairchild Theater box office the evenings of the programs.

'Better Farming' Over WKAR-TV Gets Time Change

Because many farmers said the "Better Farming" WKAR-TV program at 6:30 p.m., conflicted with their chores, it will be telecast at 8:30 p.m. starting Monday. The announcement was made by D. B. Varnor, director of the Cooperative Extension Service at MSC.

Dry Saturday? Morning Rains To Usher in Easter Holiday

Scattered showers will usher in the Easter weekend today, but they will be gone by mid-afternoon. The forecast for Easter Sunday itself is not yet available.

The temperature today will reach 60, with a low of 50. Saturday the weather will be partly cloudy with not much change in temperature. No rain is forecast for the baseball opener and football scrimmage that day.

Meeting Canceled For Jazz Club

Jazz Club will not meet Sunday because of the Easter holiday. Club business also awaits Student Congress approval of the jazz organization's constitution, now in committee.

The next meeting is scheduled for April 25.

McCarthy himself contends he was a bystander in the McCarthy case, and that the argument between Cohn and McCarthy was a personal matter, not a political one.

That Cohn—with McCarthy's knowledge and with help from Carr—got McCarthy special passes allowing him to leave basic training at Ft. Dix, N. J., on the grounds he was needed for subcommittee work "when in fact he did not work on behalf of the subcommittee."

Bengals Slip Past Indians, 3-2

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Detroit Tigers, who were single game winners in the opening Thursday of the season, slipped to second place in the American League East division after losing to the Cleveland Indians, 3-2, in a game that was tied in the ninth.

Reliever Ralph Branca was the winner.

Garcia and southpaw Ted Gray ducled from the mound through the first seven innings.

Rosen homered in the sixth and drove in another run with a sacrifice fly. Jim Delsing scored Detroit's first run, and it was his eighth inning single which scored Frank Bolling with the run that tied the score.

BROOKLYN (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers celebrated their home opener Thursday by hitting three home runs to pound out a 7-4 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Dodgers salted away the game in the first four innings when they scored all their runs. All but the final run came as a direct result of home runs.

Roy Campanella's circuit clout came in the third inning with two runners aboard. Jackie Robinson hit his in the first with a man on base, a few moments after Junior Gilliam had homered.

Russ Meyer started on the mound for the Dodgers and hurled brilliantly for seven innings, permitting the Bucs only two hits. He was shelled out of the box in the eighth, however. He needed a superlative relief job by Jim Hughes to preserve the victory.

Hughes, who took over with the bases jammed and nobody out, prevented further trouble by forcing Hal Rice to ground into a double play and inducing Fredson Ward to pop up. The sturdy right-hander ended the game with a flourish by striking out the side in the ninth.

Max Surkont started for the Pirates and was the victim of all the Dodger runs and eight of their 10 hits before departing for a pinch hitter in the fifth. Right-hander Cal Hogue and Nelson King held the Dodgers in check through the last four innings.

In a game that went 11 innings, the Milwaukee Braves evened their season record at 1-1 with a 7-6 win over St. Louis.

The game, first extra inning tilt of the young baseball season, went into overtime when Sal Yvars belted a 350-foot pinch-hit home run into the leftfield bleachers with a man on in the ninth off Warren Spahn, who went all the way for the Braves.

Joe Adcock, the game's hero until the ninth, smacked a three-run first inning homer which wrecked Vic Raschi's National League pitching debut for the Cards. But Adcock booted two ground balls in the ninth and set up Yvars' blast.

Spahn, top left-hander of the league a year ago, got off to a rocky start but straightened out in the middle innings until Adcock's errors unsettled him in the ninth.

Harvey Haddix, fourth St. Louis pitcher, lost his second game of the season when O'Connell tagged his hard drive over second base with one out in the 11th. The speedy Bruton, off with the crack of the bat, stumbled as he reached third base but regained his stride and kept going to score when Reppulski barely bobbled the ball as he picked it up.

The Braves chased Raschi in the second inning. He walked O'Connell and Eddie Mathews in the first ahead of Adcock's first homer of the year in the opening round. Sam Calderone led off the second with a single, went to third on the hit-and-run with O'Connell swinging and scored when Raschi threw wildly to first trying to pick off O'Connell.

Stu Miller relieved and was tagged for single runs in the third and fourth. Al Brazle took over in the seventh and Haddix in the ninth.

On the strength of a big six-run seventh inning, the Cincinnati Redlegs blasted the Cubs, 11-5 at Chicago.

Ten Kluszweski's leadoff single and Johnny Temple's triple gave Cincinnati a 1-0 lead off starter and loser Bob Rush in the second. The Redlegs scored to a 3-0 bulge in the third when Gus Bell homered behind Bobby Adams' one-out single.

After Rush was sidetracked, Hal Jeffcoat, the outfielder-turned-pitcher, Turk Lown, Jim Willis, and rookie Jim Brosman, a native of Cincinnati, pitched for the Cubs who held an 11-10 hitting edge.

Cincinnati's big splash was recorded in the seventh before Willis could rescue Lown and put out the fire. The winners roughed up Brosman for their final two runs in the ninth as Greengrass doubled for one, and scored the other on Temple's single.

Gene Baker doubled for the Cubs' first run in the sixth, and then Hank Sauer and Randy Jackson, who got four hits, smacked successive homers in the seventh to account for the team's final four runs.

Although he was batted out in the seventh, starter Fred Barzawski received credit for the victory as Herman Webner mopped up in the eighth. Webner mopped up in the eighth. Webner mopped up in the eighth.

Baltimore's first major league home opener since 1902 was a tremendous success Thursday as the Orioles whipped the Chicago White Sox 3-1 before an enthusiastic turnout of 46,354 grateful fans.

Home runs by Clint Courtney and Junior Stephens backed up a splendid pitching performance by speedballer Bob Turley to give the transplanted St. Louis Browns their second straight triumph since their opening day defeat.

Tom Morgan pitched the New York Yankees to a 3-0 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics. A crowd of 22,494 saw the World Champions break up a close pitching duel between Morgan and Philadelphia's Alex Kellner in the eighth, when Hank Bauer and rookie Bill Showalter connected for home runs.

The 24-year-old right-hander pitched his way out of tight jams in the first, sixth and eighth to defeat Kellner.

Until the eighth it was a 1-0 game on a swaying run in the second that resulted from a single by Yogi Berra, a force out, an infield out and Gerry Coleman's scoring single to right.

Yankee power suddenly broke loose in the eighth when outfielders Bauer and Showalter, the new first baseman, homered on successive pitches.

Faced by the third successive southpaw, the Yankees managed only six hits in their third straight game.

Catcher Sammy White cracked four hits, including his second home run of the season to pace the Boston Red Sox to a 6-1 triumph over the Washington Senators. Southpaw Bill Henry pitched a three-hitter before a chafed Fenway Park crowd of 17,272 for his fifth victory in six decisions against Washington in three seasons.

Southpaw Bill Henry pitched a three-hitter before a chafed Fenway Park crowd of 17,272 for his fifth victory in six decisions against Washington in three seasons.

Washington's first major league home opener since 1902 was a tremendous success Thursday as the Orioles whipped the Chicago White Sox 3-1 before an enthusiastic turnout of 46,354 grateful fans.

Home runs by Clint Courtney and Junior Stephens backed up a splendid pitching performance by speedballer Bob Turley to give the transplanted St. Louis Browns their second straight triumph since their opening day defeat.

Tom Morgan pitched the New York Yankees to a 3-0 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics. A crowd of 22,494 saw the World Champions break up a close pitching duel between Morgan and Philadelphia's Alex Kellner in the eighth, when Hank Bauer and rookie Bill Showalter connected for home runs.

The 24-year-old right-hander pitched his way out of tight jams in the first, sixth and eighth to defeat Kellner.

Until the eighth it was a 1-0 game on a swaying run in the second that resulted from a single by Yogi Berra, a force out, an infield out and Gerry Coleman's scoring single to right.

Yankee power suddenly broke loose in the eighth when outfielders Bauer and Showalter, the new first baseman, homered on successive pitches.

Faced by the third successive southpaw, the Yankees managed only six hits in their third straight game.

Catcher Sammy White cracked four hits, including his second home run of the season to pace the Boston Red Sox to a 6-1 triumph over the Washington Senators. # Unity Among Nations Takes 'Definite' Form

Dulles Terms Foreign Talks 'Satisfactory'

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said Thursday that unity among the 10 nations proposed as an alliance to combat Communism in Southeast Asia is "taking definite form."

He said he believed loss of Southeast Asia and the Pacific islands to the Communists could be prevented "without extending the Indochina War, if the free nations having vital interests in the area are united."

"Out of this unity... will come free world strength which I believe will lead the Communists to renounce their extravagant ambitions to dominate yet another major portion of the globe," Dulles said as he stopped here briefly on his flight from Paris to his island retreat in Lake Ontario.

Dulles said he was "well satisfied" with his talks in London and Paris this week regarding the possibility of a unified front against Communist forces in Indochina.

The secretary, smiling and apparently in excellent spirits, issued a formal statement to newsmen and then took off with Mrs. Dulles for a few days rest in his one-room log cabin on Main Duck Island and some fishing. He expects to fly to Augusta, Ga., Sunday to report to President Eisenhower, and from there to Washington to work on plans for the Geneva Conference, opening April 26.

He will return to Paris Wednesday to attend a North Atlantic Pact meeting before meeting with British, French and Russian leaders in Geneva to take up the Far East problems.

Dulles said the Geneva conference would be a test of the unity of purpose and added:

"I am more than ever persuaded that, if the free world stands firm, the Geneva Conference will advance the cause of freedom in Southeast Asia and the Pacific, and safeguard that freedom in peace and justice."

The proposed alliance, similar to NATO and approved by both British Foreign Secretary Eden and French Foreign Minister Bidault in joint statements with Dulles, would include the Western Bloc Three—the Associated States of Indochina-Viet Nam, Cambodia and Laos—and Australia, New Zealand, Thailand and the Philippines.

Dulles noted in his arrival statement that Thailand had indicated its approval of our purposes, and President Magsaysay of the Philippines has now "indicated acceptance in principle," he said.

"The loss of the China mainland to communism was a great disaster."

Augustine Named To Secretarial Post

Position Created Under Reorganization Program

Lozer Augustine, Batavia, N.Y., sophomore, has been named secretary of government affairs, Dave Hyman, student government president, announced Thursday.

Augustine has served as government attorney for the past two terms, taken charge of seven departments under the reorganization program passed by Student Congress Wednesday night.

Retaining his old position as secretary of state affairs in Bill Hurst, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., junior, Hurst also has charge of seven departments and still holds top-adviser status, along with Augustine.

Departments under Augustine's control are: Eligibility, personnel, organization, information services, small loans, records and elections. He has remaining under Hurst's reign are: Spartan Spirit, academic benefits, high school cooperation, student services, international program, orientation and legislative liaison.

Other Hyman appointments approved by Congress Thursday night are:

Rudy Petzold, Vassar junior and president-elect of the Men's Council, as director of information services.

Jim McGuire, Cadillac sophomore, as director of personnel.

Bill Barry, Syracuse, N.Y., junior, as director of academic benefits.

Joy Knudson, Pittsburgh, Pa. freshman, as director of records.

After being collected here, the books will be sent to the National African Committee in New York City and eventually to students and children in Africa.

Impetus for the drive came from the recent visit of Dr. James Robinson for the interfaith lectures. The books will be put in three new libraries established by him in the country.

Cast Problem Slows Term Play Readings

Although trouble with casting has kept readings for "A Winter's Tale" going much longer than expected, Director Nevill Coghill said that he finds the cast "as promising" as any he has ever handled at the University of Oxford.

"I feel that it will be my fault entirely if the production is not good," he continued.

Coghill, distinguished visiting lecturer, went on to explain that he was having difficulty with some of his best characters because of academic credits and class hours conflicting with rehearsals.

"It is useless to cast an actor, however good, who is not able to attend rehearsals," he said.

Coghill holds high hopes for the spring term production, however.

"We are aiming at something never before seen," he concluded.
