The world foreign minis-

The program emerged as the

Band Plans Salute for Daugherty

After being seen by millions of people in its last two appearances, MSC's Marching Band will give Spartans a chance for a close-up view at its home debut this Saturday.

The Spartan marchers gave a sparkling exhibition of precision marching and playing before a packed house and the TV cameras at Iowa City last Saturday. And back on New Year's day, millions witnessed the Rose Bowl show of the band.

This Saturday, as the Spartan football squad entertains the Badgers of Wisconsin, the bandmen will aim a salute at new MSC head coach Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty.

Blending with the formation tribute to Duffy will be renditions of such famed tunes as, "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," "Lucky Day," and "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow."

The opening showing by the band at Iowa City was termed "very successful" by director Leonard Falcone, who along with assistant C. Oscar Stover had worked feverishly to get the band ready. The 130-member outfit had but nine days to prepare for its feature half-time role at the Iowa game.

Leading the band this week will be drum major Archie Patton, Jr., Mr. Morris, junior. He and Richard Morsches, Columbia City, Ind., junior, are co-drums majors, and take turns leading the band.

Assisting Patton and Morsches are baton twirlers Roy Cole, Home, Ill., senior, and Keith Ferguson, Lansing sophomore.

Eligible Voters Urged to Register

All eligible voters are urged to register by the Mon., Oct. 4, deadline. Students living in dormitories are expected to register at their home addresses. Married students who have established a home should register at the East Lansing City Clerk's office, 400 Abbott Road. The office will be open today from 8 to 5 p.m., Saturday, 8 to 12 p.m. and 8 to 8 p.m. Monday.

The residence requirement is six months in Michigan, including 30 days in East Lansing before Nov. 3.

Looks Like A Damp Friday For Spartans

Spartan football cheerers may be slightly dampened this weekend if the men weather him his way. The forecast is rain and considerable clouds for Saturday.
Today will be no exception as reports say MSC and the clouds and cool weather. The high for today may reach 65 degrees.

ABC Set to Broadcast Pep Rally

Badger Guest On Program

MSC cheers will resound coast-to-coast tonight.

ABC radio will broadcast the MSC-Wisconsin pep rally from 9 to 9:30 p.m. directly from the Band Shell.

The student rally will begin at 8:30 p.m. a half hour before the nation-wide hook up starts.

Talks by MSC Athletic Director Biggie Munn, Wisconsin Athletic Director Guy Sundt and the newly elected Director of the Athletic Council, Dean Edgar Harden have been tentatively scheduled to intersperse student cheers during a half hour broadcast, according to Spartan Spirit Head Don Hadden.

Bob Finnegan, ABC sportscaster who will broadcast the play-by-play of Saturday's game, will emcee the rally while it is on the air.

MSC's Marching Band, the Men's Glee Club and Tom Aquino's band have been scheduled to go over the ABC network also.

Student government has scheduled the marching band, cheerleaders and if possible a talk by Wisconsin Head Coach Ivy Williamson to begin the rally at 8:30.

Appearances by Harvest Ball finalists and MSC Head Coach Duffy Daugherty also are planned during the first part of the rally. Jack Heppinstall, MSC trainer for over 30 years, may be induced to come, according to Student Government Sec'y, Micki McBride.

Tentatively, what the nation will hear during the half hour will be:

The MSC Marching Band playing "On Wisconsin" and the "Spartan Fight Song" will open the program.
Cheerleaders will lead students in a cheer.
Dean Harden will speak, followed by the Men's Glee Club, led by Director Edward Richmond.

Athletic Directors Munn and Sundt will speak, with student singing led by Aquino's band and cheers separating the two talks.

The Marching Band and the Glee Club together with the students will end the program with "MSC Shadows."

Student government will sponsor a free dance lasting until 12:30 a.m. in the Auditorium, following the rally.

Whittle Monikers on Table

Seniors Start Coffee Hours

The first senior names were carved on the traditional senior table Thursday night at the first senior coffee hour of the year.

The table is bought on class funds and was presented Thursday by the officers to the class member.

100 Block 'S' Seats Empty

Only 150 members of Block S turned out for Thursday's rehearsal. The bad showing was attributed to the weather.

"It will be impossible to hold another rehearsal in the short time left," said Bill Thistle, co-chairman of Block S.

All Block S members with tickets are asked to be at Macklin Stadium by 1:15 Saturday afternoon.

There are still about 100 Block S tickets which may be picked up at Jenison Fieldhouse Friday.

Hannah Returns From Trip North

President John A. Hannah returned to campus Thursday from a four-day trip to Alaska and the Canadian Northwest.

He declined comment on the exact nature of the tour, which was in connection with his position as American chairman of the Joint Board for the Defense of the U. S. and Canada.

Bill Thistle, senior class president, said that he was pleased with the turn out but hoped that more seniors would show up for the future coffee hours.

Senior coffee hours will be held every other week throughout fall term on Wednesday afternoons from 3:30 to 5:30 in Old College Hall.

Senior class and council members table-hopped at the coffee hour in order to become acquainted with as many seniors as possible.

New Therapy Treatments Given Chari

Sankar Chari, Indian physics graduate student who was badly burned in a chemistry lab explosion in June, is receiving therapeutic treatment from Wayne Van Huss, head of the Adapted Sports Department at Jenison.

"The importance of this therapy," Van Huss said, "is to prevent the burned skin from contracting and deforming Chari."

Van Huss started his treatments of Chari Monday, which last a maximum of 15 minutes a day. At present he is concentrating on the arms with passive exercises, which are movements made for Chari in the range of the motions of the joints.

He said, "It is too early to tell whether there is any improvement in Chari. Krishnama, his brother, has helped him considerably."

Wednesday night Chari ate a native dish of lima beans and rice, and Thursday morning some orange juice and a piece of toast, hospital officials reported.

Chari's brother is of the opinion that he is not on a fast as some people have suggested.

Chari's body was burned 50 per cent in the explosion June 25, and after being admitted to the hospital his right leg was amputated below the knee.

Ticket Sales Set For Jazz Concert

Tickets will be available Monday for the performance of "Jazz at the Philharmonic" which will be held Oct. 12 in the Auditorium at 8:30 p.m.

The Union ticket office will be open Monday at 1 p.m. for the ticket sales. Prices are $3.00, $2.50, $2.00, and $1.50.

Rhodes Clouts 2nd Homer

Series Moves To Cleveland

NEW YORK (AP)—Dusty Rhodes, whose 10th inning homer won the opener, blasted his second home run and a pinch hit single as the Giants took a two-game lead in the World Series by defeating the Cleveland Indians 3-1, Thursday.

It was Rhodes' pinch-hit single in the fifth which sparked a rally that broke pitcher Early Wynn's spirit after four hitless innings and it was his homer in the seventh—a towering blow which hit the upper facade in right field—which clinched the decision.

Excellent clutch pitching by Johnny Antonelli, the Giants' young southpaw, contributed to the triumph. The Indians had men on base in every inning except the eighth but they could never muster a rally.

The only Cleveland run came in the first inning when Al Smith smashed Antonelli's opening pitch over the left field roof for a home run.

Rhodes has become the individual standout of the present series. As a pinch hitter Wednesday, he hit the first pinch into the right field stands for a game-clinching home run.

Rhodes, a pinch-hit sensation for the Giants all year when he had 15 hits in 45 times at bat, now has three hits in his only three bat appearances. His home runs have been the Giants' only extra base hits.

Now the two teams move to Cleveland where the Indians have a gigantic task of overtaking the National League champions. Mike Garcia 19-8 is scheduled to pitch for the Indians with Ruben Gomez 17-9 going for the Giants.

Antonelli, in and out of trouble throughout the muggy afternoon, stopped a ninth-inning Cleveland rally spectacularly. With two men on base, he fanned Larry Doby for the third time in the game and forced big Vic Wertz, hitting hero of the opening game, to fly out to left field.

Antonelli gave up eight hits, walked six and struck out nine.

Early Wynn, his fast ball and knucker working perfectly, retired 12 straight men until the roof fell on him in the fifth.

After Willie Mays had walked to become the first Giant runner in the fifth, Hank Thompson lined a single to left and then Rhodes, the Alabama pinch-hit

NEWS IN BRIEF

Agreement Ratified

DETROIT, SEPT. 30 (AP)—Some 1,200 striking independent United Electrical Workers have ratified an agreement between UE leaders and the Square D Co., ending a 108-day violence-riddled strike.
The settlement included a four-cent hourly wage increase and submission to arbitration of the cases of 27 employees fired for alleged violence during the strike if a grievance committee cannot settle the matter in five working days. The average wage before the strike was $2.25 an hour.

School Refuses Negroes

MILFORD, Del. (AP)—A newly elected Milford Board of Education voted Thursday to remove 11 Negro students from the rolls of the formerly all-white Milford High School and send them back to a Negro school "in the interest of the welfare of the children and the community as a whole."

Russia Lays Control Plans

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Russia Thursday laid before the U.N. General Assembly a detailed plan for atomic control and arms reduction to be put into effect in stages.

Batchelor Convicted

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Cpl. Claude Batchelor Thursday night was convicted of collaborating with the enemy and squealing on fellow prisoners of war in Korea and sentenced to life in prison. The court-martial verdict was returned after 2 hours and 14 minutes of deliberation.

Driving Rules Need Support

"Give us an inch, and we'll take a mile." That seems to be the motto of some MSC students who are being allowed to drive on campus this year for the first time.

Today is the day the new rules go into effect, and cooperation, in both driving and parking, will be of utmost importance. If the new rules are to remain a reality, students may even have to put up with a little inconvenience for awhile.

Most students are cooperating with the new parking rules, even though they may not like them. But the inconvenience to them is greatly increased by violation of the minority.

Jamming up the most accessible lots, "A" north of the stadium and "D" near Shaw Hall, does more than block traffic and create obstacles for the correctly-parked autos.

Ignoring pleas to use other lots leads some substance to a claim that campus facilities are inadequate to handle all the cars all the students might want to bring down.

Student government officers, college administrators and campus police put a year of work into developing the code easing which won the approval of the State Board of Agriculture.

The code represents a basic departure in the administration's policy on student driving—from a flat "no" with a few special exceptions granted, to a broad "yes" with the necessary restrictions, including parking, to make the plan feasible.

For most students, the plan is acceptable, and it appears to be working out. But for a few, the only thing acceptable are the newly granted privileges; the restrictions, they seem to feel, can take care of themselves.

As a new code, and a fairly important departure from the old driving-parking regulations, the new set of rules will come under a review during the next year. And any changes, we hope, will be adjustments to make the code more workable and more convenient for students.

But unfortunately, however, shunning the code provisions, even by a small minority, can and probably will reflect on the entire code going into effect today.

Giving the minority enough rope and letting them hang themselves would be all right, but frequently it is a matter of all of us hanging together.

It's Important

Voters Get Last Chance To Register

Michigan elections are right around the corner and the deadline for registering is upon us, Monday is the last day.

Spartans who are 21 or over had better put a big circle around Oct. 4 on their calendars. Unless registration is made, no vote can be cast.

It's a big election in Michigan, too. The Republicans are trying their hardest to win the governor's chair and the Democrats, pointing at Maine as an example are hopeful of complete victory.

Many persons fail to vote simply because they believe that registration is a lot of bother. It isn't. It's a very simple, but necessary procedure, and the privilege of voting is well worth the few minutes of time spent.

Any 21-year-old citizen who has been a resident of his state for at least six months and his city, village or township for at least 30 days can cast his ballot. But he must register with voting officials in his permanent residence at least 30 days before the election.

This means that college students must register in their hometowns, not here in East Lansing. And registration must be made in person.

So, for any Spartan who has not yet registered and who is going home this weekend, now is the hour. Don't forget. It is important.

Tomorrow's laws, affecting every man and woman in the state for better or worse, will be made and enforced by the men who win the election. "I didn't have time to register" is not a valid reason for giving up the voting privilege.

The KOLEMINE

How About Brightening Gloomy State of Affairs

by JACK KOLE

State News Editor-in-Chief

What is this gloom that seems to have enveloped MSC's campus as the biggest home football game of the season approaches?

At first glance, it may look like the dark, dank weather of late is becoming overbearing. But it's more than that.

Something's missing — somewhere. The Spartans lose their opening football test for the first time in quite a spell and the whole student body forgets about them.

Maybe "abandoned" would be a more fitting term. But whatever it may be, it's a pretty sad state when students moan about their conviction that MSC will take it on the nose from Wisconsin and go on from there to have a dismal season.

That doesn't sound like the old "Spartan Spirit" that sent 6,500 persons to the airport last fall when MSC's team arrived from Purdue — a loser for the first time in 29 games.

Right about now, the Spartans need that kind of backing. Everybody and his brother is picking Wisconsin Saturday. So for the first time since 1950, MSC's football team is a definite underdog.

That means the students have a job to do. The team needs help. And there's no question about the source of this vital assistance.

Students let the team down last week. There's no question about that.

Three thousand students cheered the Hawkeyes last Friday at Iowa's opening pep rally. But last Thursday, less than 500 students showed up to wish the Spartans luck for their toughest opener in years.

Zueg-Zags Luxury Line

By BETTY ZUEG
State News Editor

At last I've found an answer to my parents' and irritating remarks when they look at my chest. No more can they roast me over the coals with an extra sweater or bottle of perfume. I've got an argument for luxury spending.

Desire for western luxuries on the part of his reason Josef Swiatlo, ex-Communist leader in was able to crawl around the Iron Curtain. At least what he said Tuesday.

Swiatlo and his boss, Col. Anatol Fajgin, last West Berlin by mistake last Dec. 4. They were "in by the beautiful stores stocked with so much merchandise," and Fajgin decided they'd return the next buy.

Says Swiatlo, "His liking of Western luxuries me to flee."

So liking Western luxuries can't be classified a It accomplished a lot of good.

And I buy because I like Western luxuries. Only what if my parents come back with, "But not a Communist and nobody is going to escape anything when you buy. You'll accomplish no cut down, lady, cut down?"

Could they refute my argument? Oh dear, I think of something else. There must be an answer

New Spartans Find Campus Friends

By BETTY ZUEGE
State News Editorial Assistant

Sighs of relief will be heard and grins of anticipation seen all over campus today.

The sighs will be for the first of week of classes successfully completed. The grins will be for the coming weekend and the first home football game Saturday.

It's Friday and freshmen can relax. They've come through the first week. Maybe it's been a tough week in some ways. But it's been fun, too, for the nearly 5,000 new students on the MSC campus.

There was that time Monday morning when the 9 a.m. nat

the new green cups.

The Grill was a big, noisy place then. Upperclassmen hurried through, greeting friends on every side. But they were friendly to the freshman and before long he was sitting in a crowded booth feeling a part of the throng.

Then there was that one o'clock in Berkeley Monday. The building looked so big. It must have at least 500 classrooms. How could the freshman ever find the right one?

That question, "Where is room 318?" somehow stuck in the throat. Besides, everyone else seemed to know where they were going. They wouldn't want to be bothered.

But it wasn't so bad when the freshman finally found the State's friendliness came through. That senior didn't seem to mind at all.

And how could our freshman ever get his books? That line in the bookstore was absolutely terrifying. Still, it wasn't so bad once he chanced it. Everyone was grinning and everyone spoke, acquaintance or not.

But those lines were hard on the feet. And so was the walking. Forty miles of sidewalks is a lot of territory.

Back in the dorm at night, it wasn't anything like it had been during Welcome Week. There was studying to do and the freshman knew he ought to do it. How did those juniors and seniors manage to trot off to meetings every night of the week? And how could they stay awake burning the midnight oil so many nights?

The first nat sel assignment was impossible, and a freshman doesn't like to ask for help. That sophomore roommate was a pretty nice about explaining it, though, considering he was dressing for a date. And, boy, he made it lots easier.

Now the week is over. The books are stacked on the shelves and the freshman knows just where to go for every class and where to head in that free hour.

The first week's laundry is either on its way home or the freshman has learned the intricacies of the automatic washing machines in the dorm.

But above all, the freshman is happy. He feels like a Spartan, and he is one.

SEE THE BIG GAME!

ATTEND THE ROSE BOWL GAME

The Union Board of Michigan State College is making arrangements for State Students to attend the Rose Bowl Game in January, regardless of which team represents the Big 10 Conference. These students will become a part of a Big 10 student movement to the West Coast to support the Big 10 Conference in the football classic.

In order to secure reservations and accommodations along with Rose Bowl Game tickets, it will be necessary to obtain some idea as to the number of students who might like to take advantage of this vacation opportunity.

The cost of the package tour will range between $135 and $170 depending on the various transportation and lodging arrangements. The tour will be quite similar to the Spartan Special of last year which totaled 998 State Students.

Realizing that a limit must be set as to the number that can represent Michigan State in the Big 10, the following coupon is provided so that you can make a tentative reservation with the Union Board now. This limit has been tentatively set at 100 students per Big 10 University. Reservations will be made on a first come-first serve basis.

Union Board Sponsoring Trip to Bowl

Miss the Rose Bowl game last January? You'll have another chance to see the 1955 contest.

And even though conference rules prohibit MSC's football team from participating next New Year's, Spartan followers will be able to see MSC's Jan. Somers riding a float as Miss Big 10.

For those who want to make the trip to the 1955 Rose Bowl, Union Board, in conjunction with other Big 10 schools, is sponsoring a train tour to transport students to the West Coast.

Through various Big 10 student organizations, a Chicago travel agency has laid tentative plans for the nine-day tour which will be similar to the "Spartan Special" that took MSC students to the Bowl last December.

Those who wish to make tentative reservations can do so at the Union Board office. They will be notified later on further developments of the tour. Each Big 10 school may send a maximum of 100 students.

Excepted from this arrangement is the conference school whose football team represents the Big 10.

For Touch Football and Bowling

Final IM Entries Due Today

By BOCK SIMPSON
Intramural Sports Director, Frank Beeman, urges all prospective touch football and bowling teams to observe the registration deadline set at 5 p.m. today at Jensen Gymnasium.

Football teams are divided into three groups, which include the Dormitory, Independents, and Fraternity teams. Each of these have separate night schedules, owing to the fact of conflicting resident arrangements. Dormitory groups are scheduled for Monday and Wednesday, Independents for Tuesday and Wednesday and Fraternities for Thursday. Action starts at 6:30 Oct. 4.

Primarily an activity to give all men an opportunity to participate in sports, the Intramural Athletics operate out of the IM office in Jensen Gymnasium. Sign-up sheets are posted here before each event is started.

"Mural Sidelines," designated the official IM column in the State News, will add information invaluable to athletic managers as well as the participants.

A separate listing of sports is adopted to set the Dormitory scoring plan apart from the Fraternity and Independent League. As a result of this scoring system, the Dormitory team compiling the most points will receive the Intramural Dormitory All-Sports Championship Trophy.

Fraternity and Independent Leagues also award appropriate trophies to the top teams under a similar scoring program.

Besides this, the IM program offers individual competition, in which the contestant strives to capture the Individual Intramural Championship. Dormitory residents interested in this will obtain a individual point system sheet from the IM office.

Dormitory sports are as follows: golf, swimming, tennis, track, turkey trot, table tennis, freethrow (basketball). Precinct teams include: football basketball, bowling, softball.

The Fraternity and Independent Leagues offers: basketball, bowling, hockey, softball, touch football, freethrow, turkey trot, golf, tennis, swimming, track.

The IM eligibility rule states that men who have earned major letters in any sports are ineligible for touch football, basketball, softball, turkey trot, and track events, but may participate in other activities not similar to their sport at any time. Also, men now engaged in practice and holding team lockers are ineligible during that season of intramural sports.

Take A Chance; You Can't Go too Far Wrong

By CHUCK MILLER
State News Sports Editor

With another Saturday of football games coming up, and with last Saturday's rash of upsets still fresh in the minds of fans, coaches and sports writers alike, crystal gazers all over the country wince at the prospect of the traditional chore of "going out on a limb" and predicting the probable winners.

In fact, in recent years one can go along on a hunch and pick the under-dog and have a 50-50 chance of winning.

So, here goes Miller looking at this crazy, mixed-up world of sports and picking teams that have no business winning but probably will.

MICHIGAN-ARMY . . . The cadets were the pride of the East before falling to South Carolina last week. Big 10 power should prevail, but I'll say the boys from West Point will win.

OHIO STATE-CALIFORNIA . . . Again I disregard Big 10 strength, and over-look Watkins, Cassidy, Leggett and company. California is a cinch—they aren't supposed to win.

GEORGIA TECH-SMU . . . The Ramblin' Wrecks lost last week to Florida and will lose again—don't ask me why. SMU doesn't have any Walker, Rote or Brenners this year, but they'll win anyway.

MINNESOTA-PITT . . . So far it looks like a bad day for the Big 10, because Pittsburgh will send the Gophers underground.

SOUTHERN CAL-NORTHWESTERN . . . Maybe the Western Conference will salvage at least one game with outside foes.

NOTRE DAME-PURDUE . . . This one I can feel sure of in predicting the underdog to come through. The Boilermakers seem to make a habit of it. They did it before to the Irish, and who can forget last year?

DUKE-TENNESSEE . . . Last week the Blue Devils spoiled our Steve Sebo's debut at Penn, but the Vols will pay em' back.

PENN-WILLIAM AND MARY . . . Steve's boys should bounce back against weak W and M, but it looks like a sad two-in-a-row for Penn.

MISSISSIPPI-VILLANOVA . . . Many writers tabbed 'Ol Miss as number one dog this year—that makes 'em pretty big but you know the old saying.

INDIANA-COLLEGE OF PACIFIC . . . Like I said, it's going to be a tough day for the Big 10.

IOWA-MONTANA . . . Exclamation. Iowa is tough (ask any Spartan) but Montana is the underdog, and everybody knows they usually win.

MARQUETTE-MIAMI . . . The newly named "Warriors" were picked fairly even last week for the Wisconsin game but look what happened. They won't recover in time for the Hurricanes.

OTHER SURE FIRE UPSETS . . . Vanderbilt over Alabama, Texas A & M over Georgia, LSU over Kentucky, Cornell over Rice, Arkansas over TCU, Washington State over Texas, Oregon State over Washington, Utah over Oregon, Stanford over Illinois, and Slippery Rock over Rio Grande.

Anybody wanna bet?

Refuses One-Year Contract

Hutch Quits Tigers; Oriole Job Hinted

DETROIT (AP)—Fred Hutchinson resigned Thursday as manager of the Detroit Tigers amid rumors he next would be seen in the uniform of the Baltimore Orioles.

Hutchinson's resignation had been anticipated since he announced he would settle for nothing less than a two-year contract as manager. The six-man board of directors, led by Tiger President Walter O. Spike Briggs, voted Thursday to offer Hutchinson the Tigers' usual one year contract and Hutchinson immediately declined.

Briggs said the one-year contract proposal was Tiger policy and the board did not want to vary from it.

Some sources close to the Tigers said Frank Lefty O'Doul, manager of San Diego in the Pacific Coast League, had not only been offered the job as Tiger manager but had indicated he would accept.

Hutchinson, at 35 the youngest manager in the major leagues, would say only that he was resigning because of "personal reasons."

His firmness in holding out for the two-year contract bolstered rumors he had been offered a job as coach of the Orioles and would work with his old friend, Paul Richards, who now is doubling as field and general manager of the club. It was said Hutchinson was promised he would manage the club in 1956.

In New York, Clarence Miles, president of the Orioles, said Thursday, "I would be amazed if that were true. I know nothing about it."

Miles and Richards were attending the World Series, Richards could not be reached immediately for comment.

Hutchinson was en route to Cleveland, where he was to see the next three Series games. Hutchinson was elevated to manager July 5, 1952. His team ended up in last place in 1952, sixth last year and fifth this season.

Ron Kramer, sophomore end who got a hip bruise in the Washington game, was also back in full harness. However, Osterban, restricted drills for Jim Bates, the linebacker-center who missed the Washington game because he had pneumonia.

However, fullback Lou Baldacci, burdened with a sore shoulder since he scored Michigan's only two touchdowns against Washington last Saturday, spent most of the time in the training room. When he did come back to the practice field, he did little moving around.

Left halfback is still a firm possession of Coach Bollen, although he is slightly from a bruise on Thursday and appears to go after being injured practice field injuries.

The fullback duties are the capable hands of Jerry Utis, who also racks the points. Vic Postula is the man at fullback with Leo Anzo, a sophomore, also in good in practice.

Right halfback has under the biggest change. Bert Ziehl, the Iowa starter, will start in the Wisconsin game. Peaks will be the No. 2 with Travis Ruzs and Graves behind him.

Mendyk, Le Latronica M See Action

By DONN SHELTON
State News Associate Editor

Although the starting up probably won't change from the Iowa game, lower echelons of the team have under some switches.

Dennis Mendyk, a sophomore from Saginaw, has moved from the left end to along with Iowa regulars Lewis and Ellis Duckett.

At left tackle, Alvin Leferrier, sophomore from Saginaw, has moved from the left end to along with Iowa regulars Lewis and Ellis Duckett.

Center remains the same. Fred Rudy heading the line. Joe Badaczewski still the man. A pair of sophomores, Berger and John Mackin, out the center corps.

At left guard, Ferris Hall and Buck Nye are being lively battle for the top spot.

Right tackle remains unchanged with Hank Bullough the man and Norm Masters the understudy. Both players are good in the Iowa game and spot is one of the best for the line.

A change has been made right tackle, with Ron Latronica converted left tackle, to it out with Roland Deane Morley Murphy.

Co-Capt. Don Kauff, as the No. 1 man at the right spot, with Jim Hines and Diener behind him. Hines some action in the later stages of the Hawkeye game.

The quarterback spot has undergone a slight change. Aker of subtraction. The has moved to right half. Morrill, ace Spartan passer, is still the top man. Versatile Johnny Matlock ed behind Morrill.

Left halfback is still a firm possession of Coach Bollen, although he is slightly from a bruise on Thursday and appears to go after being injured practice field injuries.

The fullback duties are the capable hands of Jerry Utis, who also racks the points. Vic Postula is the man at fullback with Leo Anzo, a sophomore, also in good in practice.

Purdue-Irish Continue Stiff Rivalry

The second quarter century of football between the University of Notre Dame and Purdue University will begin at 1:30 p.m. Saturday afternoon with the site being Notre Dame Stadium. A capacity audience of 57,000 will be in the stands.

The series began in 1896, Purdue winning the opener, 28-22. Since 1946, the competition has been continuous and has grown into a rivalry of not only inter-state but national status.

From the standpoint of wins and losses, the Irish have a good edge with 18 victories against five losses and two ties. But actually it has been a much more even series. In 11 of these games, both schools have been two touchdowns or less apart at the finish.

And when the Notre Dame undefeated streak of 39 games, in recent football history, was ended the defeat was administered by Purdue, 20-14.

Badger Invasion Marks First Big 10 Meeting

Against Marquette Reveals Wisconsin Power

By JIM GUNDERSON
Daily Cardinal Sports Editor

ADISON — When Wisconsin's football team flies to Marquette Friday it will be facing the Spartans for the first time in Big 10 football competition. The Badgers ready.

Wisconsin coach Ivy Williamson never been more optimistic. He says the Badgers will be back to back years, with a record of 10-1 against Western Conference teams.

Badger fans, fullback Al Ameche is the star player to ever wear a number 10. But Ameche isn't the only threat here and that was last Saturday as Wisconsin rolled over Marquette, 32-14.

Quarterback Jim Miller executed perfectly and is an adapt. He completed five of five passes for 118 yards, including a 29-yard touchdown pass to end Don Williams, an All-Conference 1953 selection, for 11 yards.

Miller's sub, Jim Haluska, got a game with about nine minutes left of the first half. It was his first action he has seen since the bowl game, Jan. 1, 1953. Haluska suffered a broken leg in a game last Saturday as Wisconsin completed five of five passes for 64 yards including one to Haluska for 18 yards.

Wisconsin used a third-quarter blitz to win. Dick Wilson, a defensive end, is very capable. A Dick Frazer, who started in the spring intra-squad game, was limited action. Freshman Miller in May showed great 1-2-3-4 Wisconsin back depth, unheard of in collegiate history books.

Marquette, Wisconsin and why sports writers have been saying the Badgers have trouble with. Third string halfback John Bridgeman, raced 77 yards in a fourth quarter touchdown. He also scored from the six. Wisconsin pulled his way for a touchdown, scored one touchdown, and showed brilliant work. Wisconsin's Bill Lowe, another player looked good in the game.

Bratt, regular right half, scored three times and obviously was a find.

Wisconsin line is gigantic, and with plenty of subs. Ends Locklin and 228-pound Jim Temp saw little action. Second half as sophomore Howard and Jim Reinke took the game caught two passes.

Letterman man the guards. Strength there is the fact that Wisconsin's letter winner did not even start the game. He was replaced by Paul who won a letter in '52. Defensive halfback on the Wisconsin team which went to Rose Bowl.

Other regular guard, Norm Anderson, is one of the fastest in the Big 10. He forced last year's regular Don Ursin, to give up his job. All four saw much action Saturday.

Gary Messner, a great blocker, made the center spot. A fine substitute in Bill Messner.

Wisconsin gained 107 yards in the game. Miller had 9 for 64; Haluska had 7 for 36.

Wisconsin wrote down Marquette early part of the third quarter. The Warriors temporarily gained, 14-13. Ron Drzewiecki gained 50 yards to score and Stan right guard, picked off a pass.

Rosen May Set Out

Lopez Ponders Line-Up Changes

NEW YORK (AP) — Manager Al Lopez of the Cleveland Indians, wearing a weary and worried look, said Thursday he plans some line-up changes today as the World Series swings to Cleveland's Municipal Stadium for the third game.

Worried Boss

... changes in order ...

One definite change, Lopez said, is that Dave Philley will go back to right field replacing Wally Westlake, against righthander Ruben Gomez of the Giants.

But the big surprise probably will be the benching of power hitter Al Rosen because of a nagging leg injury.

"I won't decide until tomorrow," Lopez said, "but right now it looks as if we'll give Rosen a day's rest. His leg is bothering his running too much for us to keep him in there."

If Rosen is rested Friday, rookie Rudy Regalado will fill in for third base.

With two of his aces, Bob Lemon and Early Wynn, trounced 5-2 and 3-1 in the first two games of the series, Lopez will come back Friday with Mike Garcia.

"We have to figure some way to get some runs," Lopez said. "And we'll need all the speed we can get. We've left 26 men stranded in the first two games. We've out-hit the Giants, but they have been getting 'em when they counted, and we haven't. That's why we're two down."

Al Smith, Cleveland center-fielder who picked Antonelli's first pitch of the game for a home run, said:

"It was a good pitch, a fast ball, and just a little bit high. I let it have everything I owned, and there it went. I couldn't believe it for a minute."

Weights of the team members range from 132 pounds to heavy-weight.

Muscles are the thing on Michigan State's weight-lifting team, which won the Junior National AAU team title in 1953.

Nick Gavrilis, 165-pound North American weightlifting champion and 1953 Junior National AAU champion, is the top man on the six-member team.

Weights of the team members range from 132 pounds to heavy-weight.

Grid Notes

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Pass defense again was stressed by the Dime's fighting Irish. Saturday's game here with Purdue's aerial-minded Boilermakers.

With the season's second Irish start only two days away, two players remained on the casualty list. They are Paul Reynolds, right halfback, who has a leg injury, and end Gene Kapish, who re-injured his knee in a wind sprint Wednesday.

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — Three top tackles were missing Thursday from the traveling squad named by Purdue Coach Stu Helcomb for the trip to Notre Dame Saturday.

Starter Frank Paparazzo and reserves Frank Agelotti and Ed Voytek were out because of injuries. Holcomb named Dick Murley to start in Paparazzo's place at left tackle.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Indiana's Hoosiers got the word Thursday that right guard Ted Karras may be able to play against Pacific Saturday. Karras has a pulled tendon.

Left guard Tom Hall is on the doubtful list with a bruised thigh. Fullback Les Kun has an injured foot but is expected to play. Halfback Don Domenic is the only certain loss.

Gomez to Face Indians Today

NEW YORK (AP) — Leo Durocher, manager of the high riding New York Giants, decided Thursday to send his slender Puerto Rican righthander, Ruben Gomez, against the Cleveland Indians at Cleveland Friday but kept his mind open about the left field position.

Left field is where Monte Irvin has been playing—except when Dusty Rhodes goes in to hit game-winning homers.

"I'll make up my mind tomorrow morning," said Durocher in the dressing room after Thursday's 3-1 victory.

Ike Likes Cle—Oops, No Bet

DENVER (AP) — President Eisenhower offered to wager a golf ball that the Cleveland Indians would beat the New York Giants Thursday. A moment later the Indian's Al Smith slammed the first pitch of the ball game for a home run.

Eisenhower stopped in the press room at his vacation headquarters just as the game got started. Watching a television set as Dusty Rhodes stepped to the plate, Eisenhower remarked with a grin:

"I'd be willing to bet a golf ball on Cleveland today."

The words scarcely were out of his mouth when Rhodes banged the ball into the stands.

"That was a lot of pitching to-day. Johnny Antonelli was great."

"Elaborate on that, Leo," someone commanded.

"How can I?"

As for Rhodes, the modest Southern, center of attraction as the star of two straight World Series victories, shrugged off his single that drove in the first run, and his homer that put the game on ice.

"This wasn't nothing beside of yesterday," he said.

Just as was the case Wednesday, when Durocher heaped praise on his relief pitchers. Thursday it was Antonelli who drew the bouquets from the peppy manager—with of course, a large bow in Rhodes' direction.

"John musta' pitched 80 balls," said Durocher, "but he was great. That Early Wynn pitched great, too. I never really had any idea of taking Antonelli out, though."

Asked why he went to the mound in the first inning with the bases loaded, Durocher replied:

"I just wanted to slow him

Ag Board Approves New Housing Rents

Equal Spread of Rates to Affect 1,100 Married Student Units

Married students will be paying more to the rent collector after Nov. 1—if their landlord is MSC.

The rent increases, affecting 1,100 families living in the married housing barracks, range from $3 to $4.50 per month. They were approved this month by the State Board of Agriculture.

Achieving a more equitable spread of rates in regard to the size of the apartment was the major purpose behind the increases, said Emory G. Foster, manager of dormitories and food services.

New rates for the one-bedroom apartments will be $37, as compared to the $34.50 that has been in effect since 1948. The biggest increase is on the one-bedroom units, which will be $34.50 instead of $30. The two-bedroom apartments will be upped to $39 from the present $36.

Foster said that the $12 per month which is added to the regular amount for faculty members living in the barracks will not be changed.

Other housing actions approved by the State Board of Agriculture include the expansion of married student apartments and the completion of the Harrison Road dormitory group. An assurance of $7,775,000 has been set up for the expansion program.

The Board approved borrowing $2,775,000 to build 312 new apartment units west of Harrison Road near Kalamazoo Street for married students. Bids for construction of the project are expected to be approved at the next Board meeting.

The money will be borrowed from a group with three Detroit banks and will be repaid with rent from the apartments.

By Oct. 29 the completed 144 apartment units will have been filled according to Foster. The furnished apartments are being rented for $89 per month for one-bedroom and $75 for 2 bedrooms.

When the program is completed the unit will include 456 apartments. Approximately 300 will be one-bedroom apartments. Construction on the additional 312 apartments will begin Dec. 1, and will be completed

Church to Hold Fellowship Hour

A Collegiate Fellowship Hour, sponsored by E. Lansing Trinity Church, will begin with a reception Sunday evening at 6:30 in the Masonic Temple, 314 MAC. The reception, immediately preceding the evening services, will be an introductory meeting. Rev. John Miles, interim pastor, will speak and refreshments will be served.

Spartan Nursery Plans Open House

MSC married students who desire to enroll their children in the Spartan Nursery School are invited to attend an open house Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m. Applications will be accepted from children ranging two and one-half years old to kindergarten age. Refreshments will be served.

Iranian Club Meeting Planned for Sunday

Officers of the Iranian Club will present plans for the coming year at the club's introductory meeting, Sunday, 2:30 p.m., at the International Center. The meeting will be open to everyone.

International Club Plans Opening Fall Program

The International club will open its fall program with a get-acquainted meeting Friday, at 8 p.m. in 31 Union.

The program will feature speeches from members of the international student advisory council and a student mixer. Coffee hour at International House will follow the meeting. All students are invited.

International club is a meeting place of students from East and West. Meetings, mixers and programs are planned for students from America and foreign countries. The club is supported by dues and uses International House as a center. At the present time the foreign student counselor lives in the house and acts as host.

Among the club's plans for the year are participation in the "International Festival," Christmas Party, folk story night, and American square dancing, according to Eugenia Armstrong, Delmar, N.Y., senior and club president.

The International club is also working on the possibilities of conducting various study groups with resource leaders on international relations and doing work with the different nationality clubs. Committees are already set up to work on program and membership.

Foreign students have been furnished through the club to speak at outside events. Members have also been interviewed over TV.

ROBERT FRIARS

L-C Series Opens With Friar Film

A grand tour of New York City will open MSC's weekly World Travel series Saturday night in the Auditorium.

Traveller and motion picture producer Robert Friars will present a filmed visit to New York at 8 p.m., as the first of more than 25 programs to be presented in the popular series during the 1954-55 season.

Highlights of Friar's film include a boat trip around Manhattan, Rockefeller Center, the Empire State Building, Greenwich Village, Chinatown, Central Park, United Nations building, and many other places of interest.

In more than 50 trips to New York, Friars has accumulated a wide variety of experiences in the big city. These range from living on the Bowery to attending a luncheon in his honor at the Astor; and from unloading produce trucks in the markets to several times appearing in Carnegie Hall.

Beginning his life of travels at the age of 12, Friars often interrupted his school life for extended trips. In 1939, for example, he took a hitch-hiking trip around the world on $82.

In addition to the many "tourist spots" visited in New York, Friar's film also goes behind the scenes in show business, the stock market and other points of interest not usually accessible to the tourist.
