aters, accumulated during area's heaviest rainfall in 69 years, surround homes on the far south side. More than six inches of rainfall was recorded by weather bureau during 24 hours. This is a view of homes near Crawford Ave. and 119th St.

Flood waters of the Little Calumet river spread into residential areas of Schleicher subdivision, Hammond, Ind., parts of which were under four feet of water. Lines of trees winding through center of picture mark original confines of river.

Yellow River Focus New Danger Area

Civil Defense Units Move Flood Watches Further South

MOND, Ind. (AP) — The focus of flood dangers has moved south from the Kankakee and lower Yellow River valleys as flood waters receded in Hammond, Gary and East in Plymouth.

End of the flood-producing rains again was forecast for Thursday night.

The displaced persons being moved out of the flooded homes, dikes and excavations went on in the lower Yellow River area.

Red Cross opened a relief center in the South Court Building in Hammond, Ind., to help flood victims.

Rep. Sam Bushnell, deputy county civil defense director, stationed 30 workers to watch for rising flood waters.

Mobile communications units were alerted to contact with county workers in Crown Point if communications should be interrupted.

Already flooded Kankakee County got the Yellow River at the junction of the two rivers west of Knox.

County towns are far from the Kankakee.

Defense forces moved south to the south of Lake County. Two departments along the Kankakee.

Warning that a 14-foot crest may arrive Friday.

300 volunteers sand-bagged the sewage disposal plant.

and built up earthen dikes with bulldozers to try to save corn and soybean fields from flooding.

Twenty-five families were rescued from their homes near Knox, but most of the town, built on higher ground, expected to remain clear of a 14-foot crest.

In spite of more light rains in Hammond and Gary, receding flood waters gave many families a chance to return to their homes.

The Little Calumet River, however, was still flowing backwards toward the east and into Lake Michigan through Burns Ditch.

It normally curves through the south side of Chicago on its way to the lake.

Volunteers worked on a dike around the Woodman section on the south side of Hammond while seven huge pumps started removing floodwater from the area.

Such pumps had already been used to remove water from the flooded Robertsdale section in north Hammond, near Wolf Lake.

Sheriff Lee James reported 10,000 acres of farmland flooded along the Yellow River in the 10 miles between Knox and North Judson alone after a levee broke 3 miles west of Knox.

Day Parking Violations Taper Off

Campus Police report parking problems are tapering off; still there are many tickets issued student drivers who park on North Campus at night.

Wednesday night's tickets reached a typical total of 29, most violations occurring near the library.

Sergeant Wayne F. Carpenter emphasized, "Students still don't seem to realize night parking on North Campus except at dormitories is forbidden."

According to the new driving code metered parking after 7 p.m. in front of dormitories is permitted. The rules are vague in that they do not specifically prohibit other North Campus areas from student parking.

But metered spaces are the only places where students may park legally, and this does not include the library area.

Daytime violations have stacked off, Thursday's total amounted to only 10 tickets, six for improperly attached permits and four for improper parking.

Sticker violations have occurred for the most part where students have attached the decal-type permits with Scotch Tape.

Work Starts On Council IBM Project

The Men's Council has begun work on "Project IBM", which will entail the sorting and classifying of nearly 15,000 IBM registration cards into organization interest areas.

The cards to be sorted and classified, are the Dean of Students cards filed out at registration by all students. On the reverse of this card is a questionnaire asking the students to indicate organizations they would be interested in joining or knowing more about. Other things asked were what organizations the person already belonged to; whether he belonged to a fraternity or sorority; and whether he was interested in one. These cards will be checked and the name, address, student number, and class of each person asking to join an organization will be placed on an organizational Membership Prospect card. These cards, upon completion of the project, will be turned over to the respective organizations requested on the card.

The project according to committeemen will take over a week to complete as each card must be handled separately, the IBM machine cannot classify these requests.

"Several years ago," said Rudy Petzold, Men's Council President, the IBM card project was initiated by Men's Council as the result of an extended study of students and their participation in extra-curricular activities.

High Schools Get Introduction to MSC

An introduction to MSC started Tuesday for Michigan and out-of-state high schools.

The High School Cooperation office under the direction of Dr. Guy Hill, organizes college representatives to visit schools throughout the United States.

The alumni, working in conjunction with the department, send their representatives to states that the college can't reach.

Hill and his co-workers, usually representatives from the Administration Building will have a tight schedule of one-day stops at Michigan and outlying towns until the middle of March. By the end of the trip the group will have visited 345 schools and will have spoken to 25,000 students and teachers.

MSC holds the distinction of being the only college that devotes a specialized office for the promotion of the college's curriculum. The department was established in 1949 with Hill as its director.

Spartan Village Lists Protests

First stop at Dearborn started the six-month program that will take the college representatives all over the northern section of the Middle West, traveling 35,000 miles.

MSC is represented by its alumni in Ohio, Illinois, New York, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Washington, D.C. and 12 southern states. The alumni representatives promote a similar program, which sponsors discussions of MSC before high school groups.

In addition to the annual tours office of High School Cooperation distributes literature to high schools, explaining the diversified fields MSC offers to prospective entrants.

Married students are invited to air their campus driving complaints at an open meeting of Spartan Village Council Sunday, Oct. 24, at 1:30 p.m. in Quonset 24, adjacent to the WKAR-TV studio.

The 13-member council, student governing body of the married housing area, passed a resolution Sunday opposing the new driving regulations which restrict parking on north campus after 7 p.m.

Councilman Gene Elliott said that the major complaint in the resolution was that married students could not park their cars for such events as the Lecture-Concert series.

Also on the agenda is discussion of the recently-approved rent increase for married housing.

Wolves Shy 3 Regulars for NU

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Coach Ben Osterbaan will take 38 men to Evanston, Ill., Friday for the Saturday contest between Michigan and Northwestern.

At least three regulars won't be on the traveling squad, Osterbaan said that they were right halfbacks Ed Hickey, Tony Branoff and center John Peckham.

Those three, all injured, were cut from the traveling squad to make room for unknown halfbacks, such as Dave Rentshler of Detroit and Chuck Matulis.

The Wolverines worked on both offensive and defensive again, but there was no scrimmage.

Osterbaan set the squad to working on offensive plays. Lou Baldacci, alternating at fullback and quarterback, continued to work out with the squad. It was still not known how much he would play Saturday.

Branoff was on the field too but all he did was jog around. Hickey still hasn't gotten beyond the training room since he was injured against Iowa last weekend.

The 1955 U. S. National Open Golf championship will be played on the Olympic Country Club's Lake Course situated 10 miles from downtown San Francisco.

Young Harriers Against Lions

By HAL BATEMAN

Michigan State's cross country team opens up their defense of the ICAA and Big 10 titles when they travel to Penn State to engage the Nittany Lions in a dual meet tomorrow morning.

The Spartans selected to run are Bob Skane, Terry Block, Gay Denslow, Duke Hoke, Del Parker, Rondie Davis and John Proctor. These men were selected on the basis of their showing in last Saturday's time trials and on time trials held during the week.

The meet will mark the first official competition for the Spartans this year. Penn State, on the other hand, has already had two meets but tomorrow's will be the first on their own course.

On Oct. 2, the Nittany Lions traveled to Annapolis, Maryland for a triangular meet with Navy and Villanova. Navy won the meet with 38 points, Villanova had 39 and Penn State finished with 43. The one bright spot for Penn State was the fact that one of their men, Doug Moorehead, won the race.

In last Saturday's meet with Cornell the Nittany Lions again lost, this time the score being Cornell 21, Penn State 34. Moorehead finished second in this race.

Others running for Penn State tomorrow will be Jim Pastorius, Don Woodrow, John Chirrud and Gene McKelvey.

In last year's race between the two schools Penn State emerged the winner, but the two men that led them to victory, Lamont

Smith and Bob Hollen, have since graduated.

On the other hand the Spartans have lost all five men that scored points in last year's meet. Dick Jarrett, Lyle Garbe, Ken Barley and Ron Barr have graduated while John Cook is ineligible because of scholastic difficulties.

Both teams are composed mainly of sophomores with the Spartans having the biggest share. Four of the seven men on the traveling squad are in this category. They are Denslow, Block, Skane and Hoke. Only one of the eight has ever raced in varsity competition, that being Parker.

Tomorrow's race will be over a five mile course which is one mile over the Spartans regular distance. In preparation for the added distance the harriers have been training on the Touraine Golf Course and have been going overdistance on the regular course.

Try Flipping A
Coin This Week

By CHUCK MILLER
State News Sports Editor

Somebody goofed! How is a poor struggling sports writer supposed to build up his self confidence and reputation by calling the winners, when nobody goes by the script?

Just take the West Coast for example. On second thought don't. They're so mixed up out there, that nobody's in a position to tell me.

This week I'm playing it safe and not picking anyone. I tried picking the underdog—it seemed to work one week but I never thought it would happen again. So, last week I went back to the favorites—but the little guys wanted to play big shot, and knocked off more of the favorites.

Now, I know it couldn't happen three weeks in a row. It would seem perfectly safe to go along with the favorites. But, like I said, I'm playing it safe this week—I'll pick LIST the favorites—you pick 'em.

Here we go.

Mississippi is favored over Tulane.

Maryland is favored over North Carolina.

Minnesota is favored over Illinois—and yet the Illini won't win a game this year and—oh well.

Navy is favored over Pitt.

UCLA is favored over Stanford—but do you know, Indians might just—Oh, what's the use, I might just as take a chance, all they can do is take my typewriter from me.

Penn State over West Virginia—looks like there's a question here—the Mountaineers had their year in 1953 and after the way the Lions handled Illinois, they look a little more than capable.

Purdue over Wisconsin—A tough choice, and if I don't pick the Badgers could do it.

Ohio State over Iowa—Those roses that the Hawkeyes have been cultivating all winter wilted a little last Saturday by Sunday they should be just about dead. But look at the Buckeye garden.

Michigan over Northwestern—Two in a row for the verities.

Indiana over Missouri—The Hoosiers have a pretty team in spite of their record. After Saturday, the Hoosiers should have had all they want of Big 10 football.

Marquette over Holy Cross—The Warriors haven't started their potential this year—this should be a good time to start.

Auburn over Georgia Tech—Just got a hunch is all.

Duke over Army—This should be a real battle. The lermakers really had to hustle last week to tie the Devils, and Army beat Michigan easily—maybe is just down to a comparison of Purdue and the Wolverines.

California over Washington State—Or maybe I should say the Bears are favored—like it said, they're all up out there.

Other games: Alabama over Tennessee, Cincinnati Hardin-Simmons, Florida over Kentucky, Syracuse over U and Yale over Cornell.

'Experience' Wins Job

Phillies Sign Mayo Smith

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies dipped into the minor leagues—and for the fourth time to the New York Yankee organization—Thursday and tapped lean, greying Mayo Smith to lead the National League ball club in 1955.

The 39-year-old, mild-mannered Smith was introduced to a gasping group of newspapermen, radio and television reporting at a specially summoned news conference.

When he walked into the room with General Manager Roy Hamey, Smith was a complete stranger to the 56 waiting there.

Hamey, the last Yankee employee to join the Phillies, said Smith was named to succeed Terry Moore, the former St. Louis Cardinals ball hawk, because the Phillies wanted an "experienced" manager. Smith has managed for six years in minor league ball, ranging from class D to AA.

Hamey said Moore was released after a half-season tenure at the head of the Phillies because he was "inexperienced." His three months as manager of the Phillies followed 11 seasons as a St. Louis Cards star.

Moore said in St. Louis that he asked Hamey, when told by telephone Thursday about the appointment of Smith, if there was any other reason besides "inexperience" for his replacement and Hamey said there was "absolutely none."

Smith was born in New London, Mo., in 1915 and 10 years later his family moved to Lakewood, Fla., where he learned to play baseball. In 1933 he was signed by Dan Howley and went to Toronto of the International League. From 1934 to 1936 he played for Wilmington, N.C., of the Piedmont League.

A left-handed hitter, he started out playing third base but switched to the outfield. For the next seven years he was with the Buffalo Bisons of the International League and in 1945 played briefly with the Philadelphia Athletics.

His only Major League experience from 1946 to 1948 he was with Portland, Ore., of the Pacific Coast League as a player and in 1949 was manager of the Anderson, Y., club in the Canadian-American League.

Amsterdam finished fifth in 1949 and fourth in 1950. He led up to the Norfolk club of Class B Piedmont League and pennants there in 1951 and 1952.

In 1953 his Birmingham finished fourth, and last year Barons placed third.

At the news conference, said he is taking the job "cold turkey proposition." He is not familiar with the lies team.

The football accuracy passed had 96 entrants with man Schraag leading with 2 of a possible 25. Due to weather this past week the will continue today and on next week. The site is Dem

SC AFTER FOURTH STRAIGHT WIN OVER IRISH

DONN SHELTON, the lack of them, will be the deciding factor in the clash between Michigan and Notre Dame at South Bend.

Spartan regulars will be in the starting line-up of the Irish regular and a regular at the contest out.

The list of limping players is expected to see action as are guard Hank Holland and fullback Gerry Planutis. Planutis, regular tackle, won't even make the team in the hospital with an injury.

Reynolds, Notre Dame right halfback, is not expected to see any action Saturday in Gene Kapish, the reserve right end.

The Spartans in their fourth straight win over Notre Dame will be the Big Ten's top team. Earl Morrill, a slow start, Morrill has turned into a top flight passer and a week was one of the best backs on the field.

Matlock, the Spartan fullback, will again be in place of Bol- Matlock turned in another game last week at Indiana and returned a flosser punt yards and a touchdown.

State's sophomore will be at the right half. Playing his first game as a regular last week, scored one touchdown, on a run with a pass from Morrill and 62 yards rushing. He is also the second best return man in the Big Ten with an average of 26 yards.

Planutis will replace the injured Schrecengost at the fullback. The back line plunger played half of the Indiana game and looked good, both as a blocker and as a blocker.

Capt. Don Kauth will be in the end. His defensive has improved and he has stepped into the pass receivers in the conference.

Diener, who was just moving back from right end, will be the starting in place of Dotseh. Diener is second largest man on the team and a good defensive player.

Masters, one of the best second team linemen, will be Saturday to replace Bul- at right guard. Masters is a top flight defensive player.

Hallmark, the only regular started in the 21-3 win over Notre Dame in 1952, will be at left guard. Hallmark is in the top offensive line- men of the team and was an All-American last year.

Center will be Fred Rody, good blocker, one of the line blockers on the team. He is expected to return to the starting spot after a bad foot. Playing the running tackle, Schrecengost is the key to the Spartan defense.

(Big Thunder) Lewis will be at left end. He is improving defensive work and is the ranking pass catcher in the team.

The men behind the line will be the leading pass receivers in the Big Ten, Jim Hines and the second right end. The other right end will be another top notch pass receiver, Chuck Fairbanks.

Tackle reserves will be Marley Murphy and Wayne Smith. Smith is listed as the second team right guard with Ted Keph- ple behind him.

Buck Nystrom will be Hall- mark's understudy at left guard. He battled Hallmark on even terms for the starting spot for the first three weeks of the term. Dale Hollern and Al Lee will be the other guards. Lee will also be used at the right tackle spot.

Joe Badaczewski will be the second team center with Don Berger and John Matlock behind him. Matlock, only a sophomore, has already piled up some playing time in the team's first three games.

Embry Robinson, who started last week for the injured Schrecengost, will be the No. 2 left tackle while Bill Ross, formerly a left guard will be the third left tackle.

Senior Ellis Duckett will back Lewis at left end, along with Dennis Mendyk and Bob Jewett.

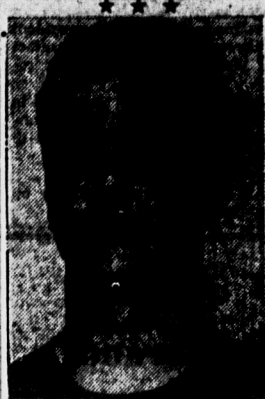

Pat Wilson, who scored the winning touchdown against Indiana and passed well during the game, will again be the second quarterback. Detroit senior Al Fracassa will be the other quarterback.

Bolden is listed as the second left halfback with Gary Lowe, Gerry Musetti and Rudy Gaddini behind him.

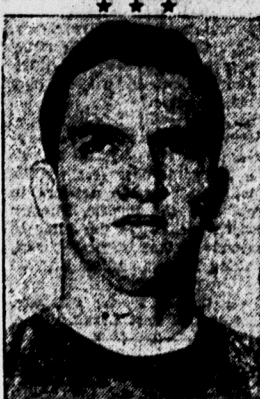

Musetti also may be used at fullback.

Planutis will be Postula's under- study with Lou Costanzo the third fullback.

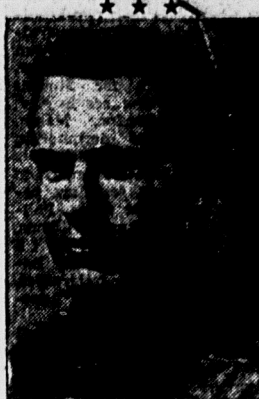

Behind Peaks at right half will be Bert Zagers and speedster Travis Buggs.

Three in a Row Is Enough

Notre Dame Out to End State's String

By CHUCK MILLER

The Irish are a proud bunch, and the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame are no exception.

They have lost three straight games to the Spartans, and have just about had enough—they're out to prove that no team can beat them four straight.

Eight of the Irish have added incentive to beat the Spartans. They are the seniors, who have battled in two unsuccessful attempts to beat Michigan State.

Seven of them will start Saturday.

Co-Capt. and end Dan Shannon, tackles Sam Palumbo and Frank Varrichione, center Dick Szymanski, guard Jack Lee, halfback Joe Heap and quarter- back Ralph Guglielmi will be on the field at kick-off.

Another quarterback, Tom Carey, also played twice against State.

Co-Capt. Paul Matz is also a senior and plays on the opposite end as Shannon, but did not play against Michigan State as a sophomore.

Two juniors and a sophomore round out the starting team for the Irish.

Fullback Don Schaefer and guard Ray Lemek are the juniors, while the lone sophomore is half-back Dean Studer.

The seniors have just cause to seek revenge. They were victims of the worst drubbing ever handed a Notre Dame team, as the Spartans humiliated them, 35-0.

The Irish came back the following year, but were again unsuccessful and went back to South Bend with a 21-3 loss.

The total for the two losses is a top-heavy 56-3 margin for the Spartans. Michigan State started the streak with a wild 36-33 win in 1950, and the Irish have been trying to get back in the win column ever since.

This could be the year, or so they think at South Bend.

The Spartans are seemingly crippled with LeRoy Bolden, Jerry Planutis, and Hank Bul- lough not at top shape. The Irish on the other hand, are ready to go with only halfback Paul Reynolds out.

Guglielmi is the spearhead of the Notre Dame attack, leading the team in passing yardage, passes intercepted, and scoring. He has a .513 completion percentage on 20 of 39 passes for 213 yards and one score. He has scored three times and intercepted three passes for 47 yards.

Leading ball carrier is Schaefer, who has picked up 105 yards in 28 attempts for a 3.8 average. Heap ranks second with a 93-yard total in 24 attempts for a 3.9 mark. Studer has the best average with 71 yards in 12 rushes for an average of 6.

Varrichione Palumbo

Sophomores are prominent in other departments. Studer leads in punt returns with two for 50 yards. Right half Joe Morse is tops in kick-off returns and passes caught—returning three kicks for 65 yards and catching seven passes for 94 yards.

Paul Hornung has the best dunting average, four kicks for 148 yards and a 37 average.

The Irish show a strong de- fense—limiting opponents to a rushing average of 112 yards per game and a passing average of 101.

Notre Dame has an edge of 961 yards to 645 yards in total offense for the three games against Texas, Purdue and Pitt.

The Irish opened the season with an impressive 21-0 win over Texas, but ran into trouble against their old enemies—Pur- due, in their next outing. The Bollermakers surprised with a 27-14 upset. Last week, Notre Dame came back to trounce Pitt, 33-0.

Besides being a grudge battle on the part of Notre Dame, and the battle for the Megaphone—the game will be a contest between two young coaches who have stepped in to take the reins from two coaches rated among the best in history.

Haven't Sold Yet

Macks May Keep A's in Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Roy Mack, executive vice president of the Philadelphia Athletics, said Thursday he had not yet sold his stock and still has hopes of keeping the American League franchise in this city.

Mack's surprising statement added a new puff of smoke to haze encompassing the team and its future. It came as almost everyone had settled back in the belief the A's were due to move to Kansas City.

"I have not sold my stock," declared Mack, who had been keeping his silence since the American League meeting in Chicago last Tuesday, a meeting at which the sale of the club to Arnold Johnson, Chicago real estate man, was believed all but sewed up.

"The last thing I said before leaving the meeting in Chicago was 'I am in a closely-knit family and I want a chance to talk it over with them,' and I'm still struggling."

Roy's son, Connie Mack 3d, added fuel to the belief the A's might still remain in Philadelphia, by saying:

"Even the Supreme Court couldn't force my dad to sell his stock, if he didn't want to. Right now the less said the better."

And another source—who asked that his name not be used—added:

"Things looks better right now than they have in quite a while. There is a definite chance of the A's staying in Philadelphia. But of course, Roy isn't getting his hopes too high. He's had too many disappointments."

Spartan Grid Fans Head for Notre Dame

Plans Include Campus Tours
And ND's Biggest Dance

Plans for the Notre Dame football trip were announced Thursday by Andy Foeller, Director of the Organizations Department of Student Government.

Spartan football fans may board the train at Macklin Stadium at 7:45 a.m. Saturday.

The train will leave Macklin at 8 a.m., making one stop at the Lansing depot at 8:15 a.m. At 8:30 the student special will leave Lansing for South Bend.

Foeller cautions students to bring all coupons along on the trip. They should also plan to eat before boarding the train as lunch will be served only on the return trip.

Tours of the Notre Dame campus will be conducted before game time.

Notre Dame's biggest prom of the year will be held Saturday night. MSC students are invited, but they will have to provide their own transportation back to State if they stay over for the dance.

Buses will be available to take students back to the train one half hour after the game ends.

Information concerning schedules, buses, and regulations will be given out on the train.

'M' Accepts Blood Drive Challenge

The University of Michigan Thursday informed Michigan State College it has accepted MSC's challenge to "try and beat us" in an all-campus blood drive.

Seth Marshall and Doris York, co-chairmen for the drive, said Sherwin Sekela, President of Alpha Phi Omega at the U of M, accepted the dare on behalf of the student body.

At stake in the race is the MSC Veterans' Association Memorial Trophy. The trophy will be awarded to the school which has the largest percentage of its student body donating to the blood drive.

Donor registration began Wednesday and will continue through Oct. 20 at the Union Concourse. Collection will start Monday noon and will end the evening of Oct. 22.

Spartan Women's League and Alpha Phi Omega have set a goal of 3,000 pints in an attempt to top last year's record of 2,600 pints reached by the Veterans' group.

First Vespers To Feature Morrison

The first of the fall series of Chapel Vespers will be presented Sunday at 4 p.m. in the Alumni Memorial Chapel.

Jointly sponsoring the service are the YMCA and the YWCA, which will present one program a month in the Chapel. All those who wish to attend are invited.

Sunday's speaker will be the Rev. Truman Morrison who will speak on "A Time to Love and Time to Die," the title of a new novel by Eric Remarque.

used them in a way which leaves no doubt to their listeners what they think was meant by the "dog" remarks.

In his own party, support for Wilson has been slow in coming—a condition which has caused the secretary to say something to the effect that it is a time like this that shows a man who his friends are.

Perhaps Mr. Wilson, under his breath, is also remarking these days: "Why, oh why didn't I let sleeping dogs lie."

Frosh-Sophs File Petitions

Petitioning for Student Congress and Frosh-Soph Council seats will begin today in all districts where less than two candidates for each vacancy have already petitioned, according to Jan Dempsey, elections commissioner.

Districts eligible for Student Congress petitioning are Snyder, Phillips, East Landon, Mason, Bryan and Rather dormitories, married housing and Lansing.

Eligible for both freshman and sophomore council seats are petitioners from West Shaw, Phillips, North and South Williams, Gilchrist, East Yakeley, North Campbell, Abbott, Bryan and Rather dormitories, fraternities, men's and women's co-ops, Lansing and married housing.

Eligible for freshman Council seats are candidates from West Mayo, South Campbell and sororities; for sophomore Council seats, East Shaw, Butterfield, Snyder, East Mayo, East Landon, West Yakeley, Mason and East Lansing.

Petitions may be obtained in the Student Government office after 8 a.m. today. They must be filed before 5 p.m. Monday.

Democrats Meet

MSC Young Democrats will present the local democratic candidates at an open meeting Saturday at 7 p.m. in the Union. Notifications of the room number will be posted on the Union bulletin board.

"CAMPUS CLASSIFIEDS... LOW COST"

Game

Terry Bresnen called the game, "our toughest yet" and expressed concern over the speed of the Spartan attack.

Spartan coach Duffy Daugherty, at a pre-game pep rally Thursday night, said only, "We'll be there for the kick-off and stay to play the whole game."

The game will receive world wide radio coverage. Besides several national hook-ups, radio will carry the game over seas via the Armed Service radio network to Europe and the Pacific. Theater television will carry the game to thousands of fans in the Midwest, including Detroit and East Lansing.

Game time is set for 1:30 p.m. CST and 2:30 East Lansing time.

Iranians Hold First Meeting

The new MSC Iranian Club will hold its first meeting Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at International Center.

The club will hear Hamid Tadayon, recently returned from Iran, present his impressions of present-day conditions in his homeland. Tadayon will illustrate his talk with pictures, paintings and other visual materials.

The Iranian Club is an all-college organization with membership open to all interested students.

An eclipse of the sun always occurs at the time of a new moon.

Wolverine Sets Picture Deadline

Today is the last day for organizations wishing group pictures in the Centennial Wolverine to sign contracts. If arrangements for these pictures have not been made already, the president of the organization should contact the Wolverine before 5 p.m. today.

Senior proofs may be turned in at the office in the Union Concourse any weekday between 9-12 and 1-6.

All fleas live as parasites on mammals or birds.

AWS Board Adds 4 New Members

Four new representatives have been added to the AWS Judiciary Board this term. Ann Martineau, judiciary president, announced Wednesday.

They are: Ann Ferguson, representing the sororities; Barbara Rodman, North Campbell; Barbara Manochio, East Yakeley, and Joanne Ewing, Gilchrist.

The muzzle-loading gun, variously called a "Kentucky", "squirrel" or "hog" rifle still is used in competitions for marksman.

Concert to Feature Music Prof

Two MSC associate professors of music will appear Sunday in the Lansing Civic Symphony concert.

R. J. Tata, head of the violin department, will be guest conductor, and Louis A. Potter, cello instructor, will be concertmaster. Potter will also play a Boccherini lum.

Other selections at the concert will be "Concerto Grosso" by Vivaldi and Brahms' "Fourth Symphony." The program will be sent free to the public in the Section High School lum.
