Rogers Beats Out Thomson In Freshman President Race

Hollinger Wins Veep Position

By JACKIE OLDHAM

"Jolly Johnny" Rogers won the Freshman Class presidency with 654 votes to opponent Jon Thomson's 433 Thursday night.

New election procedures erased three hours and 40 people from former election tabulations said Elections Commissioner Jan Dempsey.

Gerald Hollinger, 574 votes, took the freshman vice presidency against the 522 votes of Candidate Art Rosenberg. New frosh secretary is Grace Taylor, winning 587 to 474 over Chardie Davis.

In the closest of the contests, Bonnie Claire McIntosh was voted treasurer over Nancy Sack-rider, 568 to 517. A total of 1,124 votes were cast in the freshman officials final, said Miss Dempsey.

"We consider the machine tabulation very successful," said Miss Dempsey. No definite plans have been made to continue the IBM vote tabulation for spring elections. An alternative plan using voting machines is being considered she said.

Two ties between candidates for Frosh-Soph Council will call for new elections to be held.

W. Landon candidates Lea Ferguson and Polly Palen will run off a tie voted in last week's primaries, then the winner will contest primary leader Virginia Stalter.

Georgia Bassett and Mary Lou Brown from sororities will run off their tie Thursday, said Miss Dempsey.

Seniors Name Carnival Head

Roger Walker, Kalamazoo senior, has been named 1955 Water Carnival chairman, according to Bill Thistle, senior class president. Water Carnival, sponsored by the senior class, is held the latter part of spring term.

Mal Bertram, Springfield, Mass., senior, was named publicity chairman and John Walker, Coldwater senior, was appointed production chairman.

The appointments were made by senior class officers.

Tom Cummings, Hastings senior, was named senior class social chairman, according to Thistle.

Walker, by his appointment as Water Carnival chairman, will automatically become a member of the Senior Council, said Thistle.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Boarders Escape House Fire

ANN ARBOR, MICH. (AP) — The walls of a three-story frame rooming house were the fiery tomb of a Grand Rapids woman and her elderly landlady Thursday.

Fourteen other persons escaped. Ann Arbor fire chief Benjamin J. Zahn warned other residents of the city that a building code requires extra fire exits on upper floors. But the old building, built in the late 1800's, had none, he said.

UN to Strengthen Forces

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The U.N. Assembly Political Committee grapples today with U. S. proposals to strengthen UN forces to meet any future aggression.

Chemical Tank Blows Up

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A 4,000-gallon tank blew up mysteriously Thursday in the rear yard of a chemical plant, killing three top fire officials and fatally injuring two hosemen. Twenty-three other persons were hurt in the blast.

Nationalists Bomb Mainland

TAIPEI, FORMOSA (AP) — Nationalist Chinese planes early Thursday "bombed" six flood-stricken provinces on the mainland with bags of rice in the psychological war with Red China.

Ike's Talk Moved to City Hall

Detroit Speech
Set for Today

DETROIT (AP) — President Eisenhower's speech today in behalf of Republican nominees for Michigan offices was switched suddenly Thursday from a remote airport to the Detroit city hall steps.

Party leaders said the change stemmed from "Quite a lot of pressure" from Republican leaders all around the state.

The President had been scheduled for a brief stop at Wayne major airport, in a virtually isolated area 20 miles west of Detroit. After a brief speech he would have stepped back on his plane and moved on to Louisville.

But Michigan Republican leaders strongly urged Mr. Eisenhower to come on into Detroit by motorcade and make his talk from a special platform on the city hall steps. They said the president was "most happy" to make the change.

The city hall crowd appears certain to be many times that which would have turned out for an airport stop.

A crowd estimated at 90,000 turned out on June 14, 1952, to hear Mr. Eisenhower on his only previous city hall appearance. That was shortly before he won the Republican presidential nomination.

After he was nominated, he returned to Michigan, campaigning in several cities and making a major speech at Detroit's Olympia Stadium. Those were Mr. Eisenhower's only two previous visits to the state.

Two of Michigan's Republican candidates most interested in a personal boost by the President will be with him on the specially-erected speaker's platform. They are Sen. Homer Ferguson, who is seeking re-election, and Donald S. Leonard, candidate for governor.

Sen. Charles Potter, who is not up for re-election this year, and Republican candidates for state office also will be on hand. Party leaders said there was a possibility Defense Secretary Wilson and Postmaster General Summerfield might be at the airport to greet the president.

The Detroit speech will be the second on a whirlwind political tour to four states.

Mr. Eisenhower will come here from Cleveland. From Detroit he will fly to Louisville, Ky., and Wilmington, Del., before returning to Washington in time for dinner.

The presidential plane, Columbine, is scheduled to touch down at Wayne-Major airport at 10:55 a.m. (EST).

The speech is slated to last about 20 minutes.

Bur-r-r Halloween Will Find Spartans Windblown, Cold

Everybody will have to hold onto their hats and broomsticks this weekend as the forecast is mostly cloudy and windy.

Too, it looks like goblins, ghosts, and witches will have a mighty cool weekend—as the high reads around 45.

Show Scratched

The biggest Show of '54 including Peggy Lee, Billy Eckstine, Pete Rugolo's orchestra and The Drifters, which was scheduled to appear at MSC Nov. 2, has been canceled.

According to Dean Stanley Crowe, head of the Lecture-Concert series, refunds will be available at the Union ticket office.

Groups Told To Show Up For Pictures

Organizations are reminded by Doug Coulter, business manager of the Centennial Wolverine, that the contract previously signed for group pictures states a five dollar fine will be charged if an organization fails to turn up for the scheduled picture taking or does not notify the Wolverine of a change in plans at least two days in advance.

audience marveled that it sounded like Hi-Fi.

Throughout the entire concert the deft artistry of Conductor Kubelik was astonishingly evident as the 102-piece Netherlands orchestra compiled with his slightest gesture. The masterful direction resulted in overtones of magnificent beauty and touches of delicate strains which thrilled the audience.

Dvorak's Serenade for String Orchestra in E Major, Op. 22, was performed brilliantly, with capricious value and grand finale.

Dvorak's Slavonic Dance, the Serenade, and last Thursday's "New World Symphony" under Charles Munch and the Boston Symphony seem to indicate that Lecture-Concert audiences are stirred to give great ovations because of the Bohemian and American composer.

The full-bodied performance of the Berlioz "Roman Carnival" Overture opened the concert and also received enthusiastic applause.

A work by the conductor of the Residence Orchestra of The Hague, William van Otterloo, was performed next; Sinfonietta for 1 wind instruments. At times melancholy and again gay and light, the Sinfonietta was performed with great gentleness and feeling.

Brahms' Symphony No. 4 in E minor, Op. 98, the concluding number on the program, was a moving performance of great themes of resignation and despair by the composer. The orchestra's personal interpretation of the work made it a memorable performance.

After an intermission, Dean Stanley Crowe was presented with a testimonial scroll from the Netherlands orchestra, in commemoration of his Lecture-Concert work for MSC. Dean Crowe said in gratitude that he plans to present the scroll to the MSC Library.

A supper party was scheduled to be held in Kellogg Center following the concert, honoring Kubelik, concert-master Jan Damsen, and other members of the orchestra.

Spartans Have Organization

By TOM CRUTCHER

Next time you're grilling and there's a lull in the conversation, start a name-the-MS-C club contest. Some of the unusual names and activities of the over 150 clubs on campus might interest you in joining a few.

Topping the list is the Cycling Spartans. This is a new group started this term. The biking crew is affiliated with the American Youth Hostel Group which will help the MSC riders plan weekend trips. Clear Lake is on the docket for next week-end, according to group advisor and college librarian, Miriam Dright. The next regular meeting will be Nov. 2 in 42 Union.

Kite flying is a new activity of the PEM Club. These high-flying coeds are majors or minors in physical education. The girls fly and build their own kites. The builder of the highest flying kite receives a prize.

Also interested in flying, but of a different sort, are the Winged Spartans. This group of future fliers operate out of Capital City airport.

Les Gourmets members are interested in the perennial favorite—food. This organization, opened to restaurant majors, has as its big event the annual Restaurant Show in Chicago.

Read and Bar is another unique campus group. This unofficial organization is made up of various campus leaders. The main purpose of the group is to promote better understanding among campus leaders, according to Jim Bell, Lansing senior.

"MSC Buckeyes" have a rather restricted club, open only to students living within 50 miles of Akron and Cleveland. It is appropriately tagged the Akron and Cleveland Club. Members work with Ohio alumni officers in summer programs.

Jazz, Spartan bell-ringers, Sailing, Ski, Arnold Air Society (AFROTC group named after General Arnold), Scabbard and Blade, Excalibur, Green Splash—take your pick.

Delts Play Knights For Little Princess

Many girls have a few brothers but there's one little eight year old who has 66.

The girl is Nancy Ferguson and her brothers are members of Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

For the past two years, Nancy has come over to the Delt house to watch them build homecoming displays. This year, she shyly volunteered to help.

Nancy, who lives across the street from the house, was given the job of painting the beard on ferocious looking Sparty which helped the Delts to win first place in fraternity displays. She dipped toothpicks in black paint and stuck them in Sparty's jaw to resemble what looked like a three-day growth of beard.

All the time she worked on Sparty, Nancy eyed the silver sword he held in his hand with which to cut down the Purdue player built for the display. The sword stood 51" high—an inch taller than Nancy.

Nancy's 12 year old friend, Fred Seeley, also helped with the project. He pulled the rope which moved Sparty's hand up and down to hit the Purdue figure.

When the Delts began to tear down the display, they decided to give Nancy the sword and to invite her and Fred to dinner.

After dinner, Tuesday night, they were entertained by a Delt version of "Sh-Boom" and another special request—"Three Blind Mice."

When Nancy received the sword she grinned and said she "didn't

SOPC Plans Investigation Of 14 Clubs

Bureau to Contact Delinquent Groups

Fourteen campus groups will be investigated it was decided Thursday-by the Student Organization Planning Bureau.

SOPC investigations will not delve for subversive details of the organizations history as recent national investigations have done. The 14 groups will be de-clared inactive soon if their records are not brought up to date in the student government Bureau of Organizations. SOPC members will contact the delinquents before next Thursday's meeting and explain the necessity of registering with the Bureau to retain their charters.

Three new Bureau appointments also were announced at the luncheon meeting. Milt Jacob, Dearborn sophomore, will head organization administration. Mary Kay Beauregard, sophomore, will head the new organizations division and Bill Mercer, East Lansing junior will head organization publicity.

Organizations up to date with the Bureau are officially recognized by the college and can use college facilities, including the Union and will be included in the Wolverine and Helot.

Groups placed on the inactive list may request at the Bureau to reactivate said Bureau Head Andy Foeller.

Wins $140,000 Sweepstake Jackpot Hit By Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—A 58-year-old unemployed Detroit auto worker Thursday won an estimated $140,000 on an Irish Sweepstake ticket.

Leonard E. Gable was one of 11 Americans who had tickets on Minstrel, 66-1 shot, the winner in a photo finish today at the Newmarket Track in England.

Queen's Breeches was second and Marshal Ney, third.

The American winning tickets, plus place and show and lesser prize accounted for more than $2,000,000 in the United States and Canada.

Gable, temporarily laid off from his job as inspector at the Packard Motor Cab Co., said: "I like this pretty well. And I'll like it better when I get used to the idea of that much money."

"I didn't feel any excitement when I got the call telling me I had won, but I do now. I'm getting to realize what this means. I think I'll probably get excited before long."

Gable said he didn't plan a trip to Ireland to collect in person.

"If I leave town," he explained, "I might miss the call back to work."

Internal revenue agents said Gable will have to pay about $75,000 in taxes on his winnings.

In Sweden all purchases of liquor are recorded in a passbook which must be carried by each customer.

Travelogue to Feature Movie On Sweden

"Sweden in Close-Up," a color movie by Hjordis Parker, will be shown Saturday at 8 p.m., in the Auditorium under the World Travel Series. Students are admitted by showing their ID card.

The theme of the movie and lecture by Mrs. Parker will be the story of modern Sweden and its people.

Born in Norway, Mrs. Parker came to the United States as a child, later studying journalism and languages at the Universities of California and Washington.

Her movie and lecture Saturday is the story of a young Swedish couple as they recall their childhood and look forward to the future.

Included in the film will be a tour of Stockholm, Dalarna and Lapland, presenting phases of their culture. Scenes of family activities, lumber and mining industries, sports, including the famous Sofia gymnastic girls, college life and church activities will be included.

IFC Groups Discuss Problems

Three Inter-Fraternity Council officers: Cort Lecklider, president; George Snyder, secretary and John Will, member of the IFC Scholastic Committee took part in discussions with IFC members of the University of Michigan Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. Robb Gardner, assistant to the dean of students accompanied the group.

"From our observations we are planning an extension of our physical facilities, especially in regard to mimeograph material," Snyder said.

Scholarships Now Available

Billiard Ace to Display Talents

Charles C. Peterson, father of inter-collegiate billiards, will be at the Union Billiard Room Nov. 1 through Nov. 6. This season marks the 24th annual tour of colleges by the eminent cue artist, whose trade mark is—"Show Me a Billiard Shot I Can't Make."

Peterson, holder of the World's Fancy Shot Billiard Title, will give exhibitions including not only his wizardry of the trickiest shots in the sport, but a demonstration of world famous shots of other stars past and present, fundamentals of the game, playing lecture and group teaching to students.

His missionary work for the game has extended into every part of the country. He has undoubtedly taught the fundamentals to more persons than any other man in the world.

Peterson has made it his business while on tour to include in his exhibitions a lecture on the theory and practice of the game, illustrating the various fundamentals so clearly that even one who never has had a cue in his hand can grasp the ideas advanced.

Ranked among the greatest billiardists of all time, Peterson comes to Michigan State under the auspices of the Association of College Unions, who have sponsored his tours since their inauguration at the University of Wisconsin in 1931.

He will show the most daring shots played in championship competition. His repertoire of fancy shots include the greatest in appeal and numbers in cue history.

Mack Family Retains Control

Athletic's Shift Spiked By A. L. Club Owners

NEW YORK (P)—The groggy Philadelphia Athletics stayed in the hands of the Mack family Thursday night after the bid of an eight-man Philadelphia syndicate was thumbed down by the American League in a six-hour meeting. According to one club executive, the secret vote on the proposal to sell to the Philadelphia syndicate was 4-4. It was believed New York and Baltimore were in opposition to Detroit, Washington and Cleveland favorable. That left Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia to be accounted for.

Six votes are needed to approve new owners.

"As far as the American League is concerned the situation is status quo," said Will Harridge, league president. "The Macks have the ball club. They own the stock. They are going to operate the club. That's as far as we know for now."

Sport Shorts

Michigan State's LeRoy Bolden played only 16 minutes 23 seconds of the 1934 Purdue football game but led the team in individual rushing with 30 yards and scored one touchdown.

Michigan State's freshman football coach Everett, (Sonny) Grandelius, set the Spartan season rushing record in 1930 with a total of 1,023 yards gained on the ground.

Michigan State's assistant basketball coach, John Benington, didn't play high school basketball, but after army experience in the game went on to captain the 1948-49 San Francisco University team that won the National Invitational crown.

Delta Tau Delta Downs Betas, Remain Unbeaten

By JIM JOHNSTON

Theta Chi had to wait until the last three minutes of the game to push across their only touchdown of the night which proved to be enough for their second straight victory. Playing an alert defensive game, the Triangle 7 failed to give ground until Maynard Spotts dropped a perfect spiral into the arms of Paul Bulthouse in the end zone. The try for the point after failed. Triangle roared back but couldn't score and the game ended 6-0, in favor of Theta Chi.

Delta Tau Delta, 32; Beta Theta Pi, 0

Scoring in every quarter, the powerful Delta turned back a fighting Beta squad to take their third victory of the campaign. Dave Carrigan started things off in the first quarter by racing five yards to pay dirt. In the second period Dave Carrigan flipped the ball to Jon Sheppard who in turn threw to Don Butcher for the TD. Early in the third quarter, John Coleman intercepted a Beta pass and streaked 40 yards down the sidelines to score. Butcher scored again on a pass from Sheppard in the same period. Al Budner wound up the scoring with a four yard touchdown jaunt.

Sigma Chi 34; Pi Kappa Sigma, 0
Displaying a tricky offense, Sigma Chi shut out Pi Kappa Sigma in Thursday night's opening game. Bill Hessler led the Sigs scoring with two touchdowns. Early in the first quarter John Livengood grabbed a pass and carried it 20 yards down the sidelines to score. Again in the fourth quarter, Deane McIntosh rounded out the scoring for Sigma Chi when he led a pass from John Livengood.

Unable to crack SAE's defense, the FarmHouse put up a tremendous effort before bowing to a 9-0 score in the third quarter. SAE's advantage of a brief lapse and sent Chuck Lutz the TD. Gordon Mutch snare a pass from Jack Lutz in the extra point. With but two minutes to go SAE added two points when the center of the FarmHouse in the end zone for a safety.

From then on passing of Pete Luce much. He hit Jerry Ned Peters and George Ned Peters and George Ned Peters for touchdowns, to reach Lambda Chi's scoring.

Hinesly, Matsock Lead Gridiron Statistics Show MSC Staunch in Big 10

While the team is resting in the Big 10's second division, three Spartans are ranked high in the conference individual races.

Jim Hinesly and Johnny Matsock are leading departments while Earl Morrall is high in three different divisions.

Hinesly caught two passes against Purdue to add to his big lead in the pass catching department. He is also ranked as the 14th top pass catcher in the nation on the basis of all his games to date.

Matsock is leading the punt return and kick-off return departments with identical marks of 26-yard averages.

Filling in for Co-Capt. LeRoy Bolden, Matsock has time and again got the Spartans off to a good start by returning kicks well up field, including a 56 yard jaunt with a Purdue kick-off last week.

Morrall is the sixth passer in the conference and the fourth in the punting department. He is also the second ranking total offense man, behind Ohio State's Dave Leggett.

Largely due to Morrall's kicking, the Spartans are ranked 17th in the country in the punting department.

None of the Spartans are ranked in the rushing department, where OSU's Howard (Hopalong) Cassady is the leader.

The Baltimore Orioles set a club record for homers in one inning when Cal Abrams, Bobby Young and Vern Stephens connected in the eighth inning of a game against Cleveland.

The smallest man on the West Virginia University football roster this season is Jack Rabbits. He stands five feet 9 and weighs 162 pounds.

Sporlopic On the Rise...

By CHUCK MILLER
State News Sports Editor

Well, I did manage to raise my average last week somewhat—from .600 to .640. So far, I've picked the winner 51 times in 86 games (six ties).

However, I promised to pick all the winners last week but I missed five (damned upsets anyway).

I shouldn't kick too much though about upsets—I've picked a few of 'em this year, including Rice over Texas and OSU over Wisconsin last week.

This week there are some real toughies, but if I can maintain the same pace, I should come pretty close to the 700 mark.

I'll get the tough ones out of the way first.

Georgia Tech over Duke—should be a real battle. The Wrecks have dropped close games to Florida and Kentucky while the Blue Devils have a loss to Army and a tie with Purdue on their record. However, on the over-all performance against a tougher schedule, I'll take Tech.

Baylor over TCU—comparative scores against common foes are some indication. Baylor beat Texas A & M, 20-7 while TCU was having a tougher time, 21-20. Powerful Arkansas slipped by the Bears, 21-20, but had an easier time against the Horned Frogs, 20-13.

Washington over Oregon—mainly on the strength of Washington's close 21-20 loss to UCLA. Scores against two common foes reveal little choice. The Huskies beat Utah, 7-6 and Utah beat Oregon, 7-6. The Stanford game gives Oregon a slight edge with an 18-13 loss against a 13-6 defeat for Washington.

Alabama over Georgia—neither team is exceptionally blessed with much talent, but it should be an interesting game between traditional rivals.

Texas over SMU—another unpredictable Southwest Conference game in which the Longhorns should rebound from a disappointing string of three straight losses. SMU has only played four games to Texas' six, but they own a 20-6 win over Rice, which upset Texas last week, 13-7.

In the Big 10...

Michigan over Indiana—The Wolverines will take another surprising step towards that third Rose Bowl trip, but the Hoosiers are capable and Michigan will have to go all the way.

Wisconsin over Iowa—the Badgers are still very much in the running, and they won't let Iowa stand in the way.

Purdue over Illinois—as with the Spartans, the Illini's win streak will be of short duration.

Notre Dame over Navy—the Irish have had two weeks rest since the bruising MSC game, while the Middles romped over Penn last Saturday, 52-6.

Rice over Vanderbilt—the Owls may be in for a let-down after their great upset win over Texas, but Vandy doesn't seem strong enough to take advantage.

Cincinnati over College of Pacific—one of the strongest smaller schools, Cincinnati should have little trouble keeping their unbeaten record intact.

UCLA over California—the high scoring Bruins will have little trouble with their cousins, the Bears—looks like another title for the Uclans.

Other Games: Oklahoma over Colorado, Hardin-Simmons over Tempe State, Colgate over Princeton, Kentucky over Villanova, Temple over Rutgers, Penn State and Oklahoma A & M over Tulsa.

Buckeyes Pose Threat Harriers Seek Second Win

Michigan State's cross country team will host the Ohio State Buckeyes Saturday at 10:30 a.m. on Old College Field. The meet will be the last dual meet of the season for the Spartans and their last home appearance until the NCAA championships Nov. 22.

The Spartans will be seeking their second win of the season while the meet will be the first for the Buckeyes. Last Saturday the harriers defeated Wisconsin 27-28 and two weeks ago lost to Penn State, 23-34.

Leading the Spartans will be two sophomores, Terry Block of Grand Rapids and Gay Den-slow of Evans, in the Wisconsin meet Block lead the harriers to victory with the excellent time of 20:39.8. Only one foot behind was Den-slow with a time of 20:59.7.

Den-slow was the first Spartan across the finish line in the Penn State meet with Block in second position.

The men who scored the points in the last two meets, Bob Skane, Dave Hoke, Ron Davis, Del Parker and John Proctor along with Bob Baird, Bob Luce and Ed Houldsworth are also entered in the race.

Ohio State will be represented by only five men, Bob Coldren, Lloyd Bartek, Kenny Russell, Guy Beretick and Ed Diamond.

The chief threat of the Buckeyes is Coldren who finished ninth in last year's conference championships with the excellent time of 20:15 and finished third in the mile in the indoor conference meet with a time of 4:12.6.

Ohio State's team is the first to represent the Buckeyes in many years.

Michigan State hockey coach Amo Bessone has had professional experience in two sports—baseball with the Springfield Reds of the American Hockey league.

First of a Series

Exhibits Show MSC's Growth

The story of MSC is vividly portrayed in the giant Centennial Exhibit, the first in a series of such displays, located on the second floor of the Union Building.

The exhibit which is 20 feet long, 10 feet high and six feet deep, outlines the three main functions of the college by means of pictures, designs and lighting effects.

The first section, "education for all," shows through drawings the different fields taught at MSC. The middle section portrays the research and service functions of the college, and the final section illustrates the constant flow of these services to the citizens of Michigan.

George Wexler, art instructor, supervised the building, assisted by Lawrence Bernstein, Dean Downer, Aime Martinat, of the graphic arts department, and Jack Cross, student. The project required about two months work and an estimated $2000, according to Wilfred Veenendaal, head of the Graphic Arts department, and present supervisor of the exhibit.

The exhibit was completed in time for a showing in the Michigan State Fair early in September. After that it was placed in the Union where it will remain until it is moved to Kellogg Center later in the year.

Another large exhibit similar to this one will be completed in February, and placed on permanent exhibition at Kellogg. Six smaller type exhibits will also be completed by February. These displays will be portable, box type, standing six feet high, and will be sent through Michigan to be shown at exhibits, meetings and schools.

Subjects for the displays include: Land Grant College, Services to Adults, Research and Progress, General Education, Breadth of Offerings, and the International Aspect of MSC. These exhibits are also being constructed by the Graphic Arts Department.

"Scheherazade," an oriental ballet in one act, with music by Rimsky-Korsakov, is based on the first of the tales of "A Thousand and One Nights." Miss Kovach and Babovsky star.

The familiar music of Tchaikovsky will be heard in "The Nutcracker," a two-act performance which will include almost the entire company.

"The Dying Swan," by Saint-Saens, will be danced by Miss Toumanova.

Concluding will be a ballet performance of the Polovtsian Dances from the Russian oper "Prince Igor," by Borodin. The historical opera is currently being popularized on Broadway as the musical "Kismet." The popular song, "Stranger in Paradise," hit of "Kismet," was taken from the score of "Prince Igor."

The guest artists include motion picture actress Tamara Toumanova, star of "Days of Glory," with Gregory Peck, and "Tonight We Sing," the life of S. Hurek, who is presenting the London Ballet tour.

Nora Kovach and Istvan Babovsky, also guest artists, were leading dancers of the Kirov Ballet in Leningrad and the Budapest State Ballet, before they escaped from behind the Iron Curtain in the summer of 1953.

Act II from Tchaikovsky's "Swan Lake" will be presented Monday with Miss Toumanova as Odette. "Napoli," a ballet in one act by Harald Lander, with staging designed as a tribute to the Danish poet-choreographer August Bournonville, will feature dance numbers including gypsies' dances, barcarolle, wedding dance and tarantella.

Trial Jury Selected In Sheppard Case

Judge Denys Motion for Delay, Transfer From County

CLEVELAND (AP)—A jury finally was sworn in Thursday to try Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard for the murder of his pregnant wife, Marilyn.

It was made up of seven men and five women, including housewives and mothers, childless men and fathers, a timekeeper, a hardware store manager, a Negro divorcee, an industrial engineer, a tool and die maker, a railroad ticket cashier, a receiving clerk, a real estate agent and a construction superintendent.

Only one member is a college graduate—James C. Bird, the cashier, who once taught school in Beckley, W. Va.

None of the 12 moved in the relatively exalted social strata of

The position of the alternates must be filled in one-two order. Each side has two peremptory challenges per position—or eight in all.

Before court adjourned for the night, each side used one of these to eliminate the only two prospects examined during the afternoon. The state accused James A. Kacmarek, a postman and one-time missionary. The defense knocked out John C. Smith, curly-haired district supervisor for a firm that handles lifting devices for heavy machinery.

Judge Blythin allowed the jury to separate for their homes at the end of the day. He said he reserves the right to lock them up at any time during the trial if he thinks it necessary.

In Mud? Fighting Irish vs. Liberace On Television

SOUTH BEND, (AP)—A Notre Dame professor says a television conflict between Liberace and films of the Notre Dame football game is contributing to marital discord in the Midwest.

Dr. John J. Kane, head of the university's sociology department, poses the question: "Can the Notre Dame football team 'hold that line' against Liberace?"

The appearance of Liberace and the Notre Dame pictures simultaneously on different TV stations, the professor says, "is the greatest cause of domestic disharmony today."

He adds that although sociologists have felt that television would bring the American family closer together the "competition for viewers among the networks makes choice of a program a matter of hot debate in many homes and, incidentally, reveals the balance of power in the American family."

Only a few traces of prehistoric man are found in densely forested areas.

Hoppe Article Printed In London Magazine

An article by Dr. Harry R. Hoppe, associate professor of English, appeared in a recent issue of The Review of English Studies, a quarterly published in London.

Entitled "George Jolly at Burges, 1648," the article discusses the travels of Jolly, a company of actors through Low Countries. Jolly was first acting company to women players, and one of the first schools of acting in England.

Common Pleas Judge Edward Blythin called the 12 seated jurors above average for his courtroom, and "fair ... impartial ... intelligent."

Just before the jury was sworn in the ninth day of the trial, defense attorney William J. Corrigan renewed his motions for a delay or a transfer of the case to another county. Judge Blythin turned them both down.

The next order of business was the selection of two alternate jurors, who will substitute for any regular panel member who becomes ill or dies. First evidence in the case is not expected before next week.
