No Need for U. S. Troops In Formosa, Says Ike

Fleet Waits For Orders In Formosa

Red Ships Shell
Yu Shan Islands

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — Air and sea clashes flared Tuesday around the tense Tachen Islands, near where the U.S. 7th Fleet awaits orders to help bring off the garrison.

A Nationalist warship fought a 76-minute engagement with a number of Red warcraft 25 miles northeast of the Tachens Tuesday.

Less than four hours later, four Red warships began shelling the Yu Shan Islands, a Nationalist outpost in the same area 25 miles northeast of the Tachens.

The attacking Red force may have been brought under fire before dawn, since the Nationalists had claimed their planes attacked and set fire to a 2,000-ton warship 15 miles north of the Tachens.

While the Red warships bombarded Yu Shan, Red MIG jet fighters made eight sorties near the Tachens. Then in the afternoon, two air clashes broke out in the same area.

More civilians left the endangered islands 200 miles north of Formosa. They are due to arrive Wednesday on two small Chinese ships.

The signal still had not been given for the withdrawal of the 15,000-man garrison, an operation fraught with the peril of a possible clash between the United States and Communist China.

It was reported President Chiang Kai-shek was holding out for at least private assurance the United States would help to defend Quemoy and Matsu islands, his most important offshore strongholds.

U. S. Ambassador Karl Rankin talked at length with Shen Chang-huan, acting foreign minister. Soon afterward, a U. S. source said the finishing touches were being put to an announcement in Washington clarifying the U. S. position on the offshore islands.

MSC Honored In Editorial

Two editorials printed in leading magazines this week will draw nationwide attention to the MSC Centennial observance.

The February issue of "Country Gentleman—Better Farming" carries a half page editorial of tribute accompanied by a cartoon of Beaumont Tower.

The Jan. 25 issue of "The Saturday Evening Post" displays an editorial of the same nature.

Lesser Tunes Suffer

Nostalgic Melodies Spark Herbert Show

By CYNTHIA SCHEER and WALT OLEKSY
Victor Herbert's better-known operetta melodies still have all the nostalgia which delighted audiences years ago.

It's the lesser ones that have suffered with the years, and poor staging of them at Tuesday night's Herbert Festival in the Auditorium didn't help them any.

The Festival crew got off to a good start with selections from "The Red Mill" and finished with some strong favorites from "Naughty Marietta."

Tenor Robert Rounseville and soprano Lillian Murphy saved the evening, but not without considerable opposition from a much too mobile chorus.

Rounseville's solos, "Moonbeams," "Thine Alone" and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," proved that even schmaltz can be enjoyable when well done.

Duets by Miss Murphy and Rounseville, "Because You're You" and "Sweethearts," were warmly received.

Mezzo-soprano Jean Leslie fell victim to a barrage of military numbers like "The Mascot of the Troop" and "Here's to the Land We Love, Boys."

Baritone Glenn Darwin was given more cynical numbers like "I Want What I Want When I Want It" and "A Woman Is Only a Woman (But a Good Cigar Is a Smoke)."

If audiences still enjoy music and lyrics from the gaslight era, the Herbert Festival filled the bill.

Linton Appointed to Student Traffic Court

Jerry Linton, Homer junior, was appointed Tuesday to the Student Traffic Court by Bill Hurst, president of Student Government. Linton is president of the Engineering Organization Planning Committee.

The court, according to Dave Hyman, is still in the process of discussing week-end traffic violations, and is planning to release total figures on all completed cases.

'Union Shorts' Planning To Start New Series

The Union Board Publication, "Union Shorts," is planning to run a series of short humorous incidents, in which either faculty or students are involved, starting in the next edition.

Salt City Five Sextet to Perform at Intermission

MSC's Jazz Loving J-Hoppers in for a Special Treat

There will be six zany college graduates who'll be right at home at the J-Hop this weekend.

This crew cut crew is the Salt City Five sextet, one of the newest Dixieland combos, who promise to put on quite a show for all MSC Charleston fans and Dixie lovers this Friday and Saturday.

The group is from Syracuse ("The Salt City") and have been playing as a group for little more than a year. Their getting together is one of those "it just happened" success stories.

They all played in the Syracuse University marching and concert bands. One day after band practice they started improving with a few choruses of New Orleans style jazz.

The sextet made their first official appearance when they entered a jazz contest held in conjunction with the Dartmouth winter carnival. After winning the contest they were in great demand and dates and studies were soon sidetracked for playing engagements.

After graduating they were booked solid with engagements throughout upstate New York. They kept their name even though they left the salt deposit region of Syracuse and branched out to Adm. Felix B. Stump, commander of the Pacific Fleet, is greeted on arrival at Taipei by Pres. Chiang Kai-shek of Nationalist China, and Col. Hu, his interpreter. Adm. Stump said his flying trip to Formosa was made on 12 hours notice but insisted it had nothing to do with formulating a decision about the Tachens.

For 4 More Years Military Leaders Ask Draft Extension

WASHINGTON (AP) — Military leaders asked Tuesday for a four year extension of the draft law, calling it a "must" in the American defense program.

As hearings began before the House Armed Services Committee, there were strong indications that Congress will approve continuing Selective Service for four years beyond June 30, the present expiration date.

Only the Army is now drafting men, but Secretary of Defense Wilson told the committee that failure to extend the law for a full four years might produce "an important effect upon the numbers of men willing to volunteer in the Air Force, the Navy or the Marine Corps."

Asst. Defense Secretary Carter L. Burgess said in a separate statement: "We believe the armed forces cannot maintain a strength in excess of about 1,500,000 by sole dependence on voluntary enlistments." The administration is planning a "long haul" military force of about 2,850,000.

The present draft law was passed in June 1948, and has been extended several times since then. It applies to qualified men between the ages of 18½ and 26.

They are liable for two years active service followed by six years in the reserves.

Draft calls ran about 20,000 men a month last year, but the February and March quotas have been reduced to 11,000. Defense officials said they would continue at the 11,000 level at least until June, barring an emergency.

Following an appearance on Arthur Godfrey's TV show, the sextet opened at Child's Paramount in New York City following Bobby Hackett, Max Kaminsky and Pee Wee Russell and were held over for a record 16 weeks.

Outstanding engagements include Montreal's Latin Quarter, Hotel Statler in Washington, D.C., Michigan State Fair, Savoy Cafe in Boston and the Meadowbrook in New Jersey. This last billing prompted their "Music from Meadowbrook" TV show.

The Salt City Five toured Puerto Rico in 1953—something new for a Dixieland band. In their first year of existence, they tied for fifth place in Downbeat magazine's national jazz poll.

George Shearing and Red Norvo were among the groups to top them.

The group will put on a half hour show both nights, starting around 11 p.m. according to Dick Wood, entertainment chairman. Don't be surprised if they come running in with coats on because they'll be hurrying to the aud from an 8 p.m. appearance at the Detroit Auto Show.

Some tickets are left for Saturday night, according to J-Hop co-chairman, Don Stewart.

Nationalist China Troops To Get Aid

GOP Leaders
Briefed on Situation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower was reported to have told Republican congressional leaders Tuesday he foresees no need for use of American ground forces in defending Formosa and its outposts.

GOP leaders in both Houses spent 2 hours and 15 minutes with the President at the White House. Sen. Knowland of California, the Senate Republican leader, said the group was "briefed" on the Formosa situation and discussed it in general terms.

From another source, it was learned that Eisenhower assured the congressional group that there is no present or likely future need for American ground troops.

He was said to have added that equipment and supplies are being rushed to bring the Nationalist Chinese divisions under Chiang Kai-shek up to top fighting form. Some of these divisions were reported as fully equipped but others as needing weapons and supplies.

Some members of Congress earlier had made it clear they were disturbed by reported testimony of Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, Army chief of staff, that a division of American troops might be needed to help defend the Nationalist-held islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

Ridgway was said to have made the statement to the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees at a closed session last week.

The fight-if-we-must resolution overwhelmingly passed by Congress last week authorized the President to use American forces and weapons to defend Formosa, the Pescadore Islands and related positions and territories.

The President was reported to have made it clear at Tuesday's conference he regards this as covering the defense of Quemoy and Matsu, which command mainland ports of Amoy and Foochow from which invasion fleets might be launched against Formosa.

Eisenhower was said to have indicated he believes Chinese Nationalist land forces are sufficient on these islands, if supported by American sea and air units.

Although Knowland declined to say whether he thinks the situation in the Formosa Strait is better Tuesday than before the President asked Congress a week ago to approve the defense-Formosa resolution.

Work, Research, Fun Promoted By Professional Fraternities

By JOAN LICHENBERGER

One of the aims of MSC's three professional fraternities, Alpha Chi Sigma, Delta Sigma Pi and Alpha Kappa Psi, is that men who are planning for the same professional field can live together and further research in their field.

Alpha Chi Sigma has a white wood frame house at 341 Evergreen Street. Their house has eight study rooms, a recreation room, kitchen, living room and dormer, which accommodates 17 members.

The purpose of Alpha Chi Sigma fraternity, according to Dean Remsburg, Alma senior and fraternity president, is to further the advancement of chemistry as a profession and to bind together men in the chemical profession.

To become a member of the fraternity a student must major in chemistry, chemical engineering or any allied field of chemistry.

The Alpha Chi Sigma's have been on campus since 1923. They have 23 active members and are one of the 60 national chapters.

Alpha Kappa Psi, a business fraternity, has a suite of rooms on the second floor of 547 E. Grand River. The nine members living there have study rooms, a meeting room, a living room and a kitchen, where everyone cooks their meals. Mr. Dick Jenkins of the general business department acts as resident advisor.

The main function of the apartment is a headquarters for the fraternity. The Alpha Kappa Psi's have been on campus since 1952 and are one of the 87 national chapters.

A major in the School of Business and Public Service is a qualification of membership in Alpha Kappa Psi. There are 43 active members. One of the distinguished members of Alpha Kappa Psi is President John Hannah.

The fraternity participates in college activities and received third place in Spartade last year. There are five other chapters in Michigan and they usually compete against each other by doing services for their school of business.

The principles of the fraternity, according to Harry Markey, Maywood, Ill., senior and fraternity president, are to further individual welfare of the members, foster scientific research in the field of business, to promote and encourage higher business ethics and to promote courses in college to expand the business area.

Delta Sigma Pi, MSC's other business fraternity, has a three story white and green house at 327 Hillcrest. Their house has 10 rooms and houses 21 of the present 55 active members.

They have been on campus since 1949 but were chartered as Delta Sigma Pi in 1951.

As one of their projects, each term the pledges help a needy family. Also each term the fraternity awards a scholarship key to a male senior with the highest scholastic average in the School of Business and Public Service.

There are no particular qualifications to become a Delta Sigma Pi, according to John Layes, Mason senior and fraternity president.

Others are: Marian Cesar, Akron junior; Sonia Cocking, Flint

IFC Plans Books, Faculty Dinners

The five Inter-Fraternity Council committees met recently to discuss their activities for winter term, which include faculty dinners and the completion of a rush booklet.

Plans for the faculty dinner are for each house to invite one of the professors it believes is outstanding on campus as its guest.

Mike Getto, in charge of the rush booklet to replace the present pamphlet, expects to put its plans and expenditures before the IFC president's assembly in the near future.

Dr. Adams Condemns Govt. Policy

Dr. Walter Adams, associate professor of economics and member of Attorney General Brownell's National Committee to study the anti-trust laws, blasted the federal government's policy toward business monopolies at a session of the Senate-House Economic Committee, Tuesday.

Adams told the committee which is holding hearings on President Eisenhower's Economic Report to Congress, that the government is encouraging giant business monopolies through too much regulation.

He said that monopoly usually is not a result of free playing economic forces, but "More often than not, monopoly is the result of unwise, man-made, privilege - creating legislation which throttles competition and restricts opportunity."

Adams, citing examples where he said government regulation encourages monopoly, listed control over interstate trucking. He said trucking is no more a public utility and thus a more proper field for such regulation, "than restaurants, laundries or filling stations." The industry is being artificially stifled," Adams said.

Baltzer was born in St. Louis, Mo., graduated from the University of Missouri, and served on the University of Idaho and Purdue University staffs prior to coming to Michigan State. He joined the MSC staff in 1921.

Baltzer was a pioneer in advocating artificial breeding for dairy cattle, and was credited with development of a new breed of Red Danish dairy cattle. He was organizer of the American Red Danish Cattle Association, and assisted in the establishment of the Dairy Herd Improvement Association in Michigan.

He was a delegate in 1949 to the Fifth International Grass Congress in the Netherlands and the 12th World Dairy Congress at Stockholm.

Surviving him are his widow, Virginia; a daughter, Betty V., and a son, Robert A., all of East Lansing. Four brothers and four sisters also survive him.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at Colonial Chapel, Estes-Leadley Funeral Home, Rev. Roy J. Schramm officiating.

Students interested in applying should see Dean Thomas H. Osgood of the school of graduate studies.

The application deadline is March 1.

Whether a zoo course will be introduced at State is indefinite, but adherents point out the relationship of training to the already established veterinary and park and recreation programs at MSC.

Representatives of the Blue Cross and the American Hospital Insurance companies will come from Detroit to describe their new plans and answer questions about them.

All staff and faculty members, whether or not they belong to Teachers' Union, are invited to attend and join in the talks.

Vets Fill Vacancies On Executive Board

Jim Sutton, Sault Ste. Marie freshman and Richard Christensen, Dearborn sophomore, were elected to openings on the seven member executive board at the MSC Veterans Assn. meeting Tuesday evening.

The association also decided to co-sponsor with West Mayo a charity benefit carnival.

Looking for A New Class? Try Zoo Ad

MSC, the pioneer college, may establish another first in the field of education—a course in zoo administration and management.

Speculation about the course was high last week as zoo managers from all over the country met at Kellogg Center to draw up a "how-to-do-it" book on starting a zoo.

The men are part of a committee of the American Association of Zoological Parks and Aquariums and MSC specialists, who are gathering information and writing the book.

Arthur Wilcox, associate professor of land and water conservation and chairman of the committee sponsoring the program, said that there is a growing public interest in zoos, and that the proposed manual would tell civic leaders how to start and maintain a zoo.

Whether a zoo course will be introduced at State is indefinite, but adherents point out the relationship of training to the already established veterinary and park and recreation programs at MSC.

By JOHN LOFOREN

During a defeat into a victory after the final whistle has blown, is a rare event in a basketball game. However, this was accomplished as Phi Epsilon Kappa edged the Food Distributors 38-37 Tuesday night.

After the game had officially ended, the score stood at 37-38 in favor of the Distributors. A careful tabulation quickly showed that the PEK total was 38.

Prepare to Meet Varsity Frosh Icers Sharpen Form

By ART UNDERWOOD

While the varsity Spartan hockey team sharpens its shooting eye for the crucial two game series against a rugged Minnesota squad Friday and Saturday, the frosh icers are preparing for the annual freshman-varsity contest.

This year's freshman squad is one of the best he has seen, said coach Arno Bessone.

Sparked by speedy Bill Mackenzie, 18-year-old Calgary, Alberta, lineman, and Row Parke, flashy Winnipeg, Manitoba center, the predominantly Canadian squad shows a great deal of promise.

Parke is an experienced Junior Leaguer with a good hockey background. Mackenzie, the youngest man on the team, has a right hand shot that should help next year's varsity squad. Bessone compares his stick-work and close-in ability to National Hockey League ace Gordie Howe.

Four promising defensemen should help fill the holes at that department next season.

Ellwood "Butch" Miller, a versatile right-hander from Redwood, is another outstanding skater who looks to make things tough for Spartan opponents.

Art Baker, biggest man on the team, balances out Jackson's lack of size on the wall. The Calgary defender is a steady skater who is expected to see a lot of action.

Some latecomers to the frosh squad who may see action include John Zimmerman, Sault, Mich., defenseman and Tom Balai, a fine skating Marquette wingman.

In goal for the freshmen at present is Aldo Altobelli, West Springfield, Mass., icier who is showing promise.

One transfer student, Ken James, Sarnia, Ont., forward played for the Ontario Aggies, whom the Spartans meet later in the season, rounds out the team.

The freshman-varsity contest is tentatively scheduled for March 8.

In the meantime, the junior team continues workouts with the varsity furnishing competition for frequent scrimmage sessions.

Finally, one of his players said, "Well, coach, what do you suggest we do?"

Pete thought for a moment, and responded, "Well, I'll tell you, just don't get under their basket. You'll get bumps on your head from the ball."

Pete Newell, ex-Michigan State basketball coach now at California, tossed off this one in a letter to an old friend at State.

His California team was playing Southern California. Pete said, and was being snowed by the hottest shooting he had ever seen. The Trojans made 21 of 26 shots from the field at the start of the game.

Pete said he called three times, out trying to find off Southern Cal's hot hand. In the first two he had some defensive suggestions for his boys, but in the third he was miffed. There was nothing left to say, he opined.

Pete thought for a moment, and responded, "Well, I'll tell you, just don't get under their basket. You'll get bumps on your head from the ball."

Pete Newell, ex-Michigan State basketball coach now at California, tossed off this one in a letter to an old friend at State.

His California team was playing Southern California. Pete said, and was being snowed by the hottest shooting he had ever seen. The Trojans made 21 of 26 shots from the field at the start of the game.

Pete said he called three times, out trying to find off Southern Cal's hot hand. In the first two he had some defensive suggestions for his boys, but in the third he was miffed. There was nothing left to say, he opined.

Finally, one of his players said, "Well, coach, what do you suggest we do?"

Pete thought for a moment, and responded, "Well, I'll tell you, just don't get under their basket. You'll get bumps on your head from the ball."

Ferrari Remains Atop Cage Race

Mayes Ties Ward for Ice Lead

Last weekend's basketball and hockey action left the cage scoring leaders unchanged but produced a tie for the ice scoring lead.

Guglielmi May Solve Skins' Woes

Canadian Clubs Also Seek Star

WASHINGTON (AP) — It has taken nearly 10 years, but the Washington Redskins' high command figured Tuesday it has just about solved the problem of replacing the great Sammy Baugh.

That "just about" is significant, for the club's rosy estimates could wither if Ralph Guglielmi elects not to sign up with the Redskins.

Guglielmi, All-American quarterback at Notre Dame in 1954, was the Redskins' No. 1 draft choice last week.

Coach Joe Kuharich will be off for South Bend this week to try to sign him up.

This may not be an easy chore, since offers from Canadian football may be looking mighty attractive to the Columbus, Ohio, star.

Meanwhile, the Redskins have three other quarterbacks under contract.

They are Jack Scarbath of Maryland and Al Dorow of Michigan State, and Eddie Le Baron, the former College of Pacific star who jumped to Canada last year but now has returned to the "Skins."

Baugh played 17 years for the Redskins and established nearly every passing record in the National Football League.

Jack Mayes moved up to tie Jim Ward for the lead, both have 19 points.

Mayes assisted on the only Spartan goal, by Weldie Olson, in the 8-1 loss to Western Ontario Friday night.

Ward was held pointless in the two game set.

Olson also gathered an assist on Saturday night to increase his total to 15 points and tie with Steve Raz for third place.

Raz scored all his points before being ruled ineligible over vacation.

The cage scoring race remained unchanged in the top five spots, although Pat Wilson replaced Walt Godfrey in the sixth place.

Wilson scored 24 points in the two games to raise his average to 5.5. Godfrey, who didn't see action Monday, dropped from 5.3 to 4.8.

Ferrari now has scored 274 points this season and 951 in his career.

With four road games coming up for the Spartan cagers, it looks like Ferrari will crack the 1,000 point mark somewhere on a hostile court.

McCoy has the top shooting average for the regulars, with a 47.8 mark and Peterson is close behind at 46.2.

As a team, the cagers are averaging 461 of their shots, while their opponents are hitting on 366 of theirs.

The Spartans are outscoring their foes, 81.6 to 77.7.

Psychiatrist Appointed by State Board

A full-time psychiatrist will be added to the college staff next fall to treat mild cases for frustration, worry, and emotional upsets among students.

Goal of the psychiatric treatment will be to reduce the number of students who, because of emotional strain, drop out of college before they graduate, Dr. Clifford G. Menzies, hospital director, said.

Dr. Byron Casey, who has been a staff member for about a year on a part-time consulting basis, has been given a full-time job by the State Board of Agriculture, MSC governing body, effective July 1.

Students desiring psychiatric assistance will be able to come in "on their own," while others may be recommended by the dean of students office, the counseling center, or the hospital staff, Menzies said.

Only short-term treatment to "help students get over their problems" will be given, Menzies said.

Dr. Casey will work in developing a mental hygiene clinic at MSC and will do some teaching, Dr. Menzies said.
