JACK BERRY
Michigan State's football brightened considerably Saturday as a fleet of backs, led by left halfback Clarence Peaks and quarterback Jim Wulff at half, scored a decisive victory over Indiana.

Peaks have their best game yet. The 1944-45 team they seemed to play in State's crisp play.

Peaks scored once and led the Spartans to lead the margin of victory could have been greater but State was penalized by a fumble and a punt.

Enrollment Record Set; Hits 16,729

Men Boost Edge; 17,000 Total Seen

Michigan State University enrollment hit an all-time high when figures showed 16,729 men and women registered by Friday evening.

The figure, which includes all on campus credit enrollment, goes over the 1949 high of 16,243 by 486 students. Last year's fall term total was 15,173, showing a rough 10.3 per cent increase, said Robert S. Linton, registrar.

College officials estimated that the total will reach 17,000 students by the time late registration is completed. Last year's fall term final figure was 15,525.

The ratio of men to women students is over 2-1, with 11,376 men and 5,353 women. Last year's figures were 10,007 to 5,166.

Of the students enrolled 4,878 are new students, both undergraduates and graduates.

The total figure includes 97 World War II veterans, compared to last year's figure of 152.

Korean veterans number 2,423, nearly 1,000 more than last year's total of 1,450.

A total of 61 disabled veterans have registered. Last year's total was 51.

Funeral services were held Sept. 20 for Henry B. Dirks, 71, dean emeritus of engineering at Michigan State. He died Sept. 18.

Dirks came to Michigan State in 1919 and was appointed dean of engineering and director of the engineering experimental station in 1931. He held the post until his retirement in 1948.

IKE TERMED 'SATISFACTORY'

Top 'Team' Designed to Carry Load

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon and three Cabinet members assured the nation Sunday that government operations will continue as usual despite President Eisenhower's illness.
They said the President had organized a team that will carry on his policies and principles.

Secretary of State Dulles, Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and Secretary of Agriculture Benson gave their views at Washington National Airport before leaving for Ottawa, Canada, for economic talks with Canadian officials.
The 42-year-old vice president who would succeed Eisenhower if the President's heart ailment should prove fatal, talked to reporters at his home.

The vice president said, "The business of the government will go on as usual without any delay" during Eisenhower's absence.

"Under the President's administration," he said, "a team has been set up in Washington which will carry out his well-defined foreign and domestic policies."
"I emphasize that both Cabinet meetings and National Security Council meetings will go ahead in his absence."

No Convocation

The Presidential Convocation, scheduled for October, was cancelled by MSU's Centennial Commission after the guest speaker, President Dwight D. Eisenhower, announced he would be unable to attend.
The announcement, made early in September, gave "too full a schedule," as reason for the cancellation, said Westley A. Rowland, centennial director.

The convocation was to be part of MSU's centennial celebration which will draw to a close this term.

The same way as if the President had not had his illness.
Here are their respective views as they gave them:

Dulles—"President Eisenhower has forged a team and the principles and policies under which that team operates are well known to all of its members."

"Thus there can be ample time for the President to make a full recovery without any jeopardy to the welfare of the nation or to the steady prosecution of our national and international policies for peace and human welfare."

Benson—"We'll move right ahead of course, with our agricultural programs, without any change."

Humphrey—"Our policies are expressed in well-defined and definite programs."

"We're trained to operate as a team in the Cabinet and in the National Security Council."

"You can count on the functions of the government continuing in the absence of the President due to illness the same as they would continue in any other temporary absence. . . . The same policies will be carried out in the same way."

Flying Tiger Crew Found

HONOLULU (AP)—The U.S.
Coast Guard said the freighter Steel Advocate began picking up Flying Tiger plane survivors late Sunday afternoon about 1,000 miles west of Honolulu.

A Coast Guard plane was circling the area, working with the ship in the rescue operation.
There was no immediate word whether all of the five crewmen were safe.

The four-engine cargo transport, a DC4, radioed Friday night that it was ditching because three engines had failed.

A massive sea and air search was thrown out Saturday and Sunday.

Off-Campus Room Lack Eases Up

Dorm Housing Meets Demand

By GENE RITZINGER
State News Night Editor Housing officials exchanged worried frowns for smiles of relief Friday as registration came to an end.

More than 16,500 students, largest enrollment in MSU's history, caused headaches for housing director Tom Dutch and his subordinate, but by the weekend it appeared each student would have a roof over his head.

On-campus housing created no serious problems, but Dutch had to make two appeals to area residents before enough rooms for students were located off-campus.

Earlier in the week, off-campus housing was being taken as fast as it could be approved by the housing office. By Friday, Dutch was able to report conditions had "evened-up" although it was still hard to find nearby rooms.

Campus housing director Lyle Thorburn said Friday "there are enough dormitory rooms left to handle any who apply."

Thorburn said he expects an on-campus housing increase of five to six per cent over last year, although final figures have not yet been compiled.

Men's dormitories were slightly more crowded than the coed but Thorburn said Butterfield Hall has three floors in one wing which could be used to house men students.

Ordinarily, these floors are used to accommodate the overflow from Kellogg Center. One floor is presently being used to house 28 married couples, but these are expected to move into newly-constructed married housing units within three weeks.

Housing officials were approving off-campus housing "just as fast as residents made it available," Dutch said. His office approved some housing beyond the west limits of Lansing and in Holt and Okemos.

Dutch said his office noticed "substantial rent increases" being charged by some local home-owners. He attributed this to the "law of supply and demand."

The housing office has no control over what rents residents charge students," he said.
The registrar's office reported no students have been turned away because of a lack of housing facilities.

liam Holden and Grace Kelly,

Specialists Issue Joint Statement

Prayers Offered For Ailing Chief

DENVER (AP)—A top-flight panel of physicians Sunday described President Eisenhower's heart attack as somewhere between "mild and serious" and said "his present condition is satisfactory."

A bulletin issued after a full 75-minute consultation of four physicians, said:
"The President yesterday had a moderate attack of coronary thrombosis without complications.
His present condition is satisfactory."

Dr. Paul Dudley White of Boston, one of the world's leading heart specialists, defined "moderate" as "neither mild nor serious."

Presidential secretary James C.
Hagerty, who released the bulletin, added that it was "somewhere in between" the two.

A bulletin issued at 11:30 Sunday night described Eisenhower's condition as unchanged and said he was "resting comfortably."

Dr. White flew into Lowry Air Force Base early Sunday afternoon to augment the formidable force of medical experts in attendance on the President since he suffered his heart attack early Saturday.

The famed expert from Massachusetts General Hospital signed the bulletin together with Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, the President's personal physician; Col. Thomas W. Mattingly, the Army heart specialist who flew in from Washington Saturday; and Col. Byron F. Pollock, chief of heart service at Fitzsimons Army Hospital where the President is a patient.

Earlier, Dr. White had told reporters at Boston that "conceivably" the President could run for a second term.

He warned against both optimism and pessimism. He said you "can't tell now, it will take a week or two to know the answer." He said at that time if the President "gets by the next two weeks, then you can say he will probably be all right."

The Boston expert conferred, in all, for about two hours on the condition of the distinguished patient who will be 65 years old Oct. 14. After going over the cardiograph tracings with those who have been with the President almost constantly since he was stricken, he spent about 15 minutes with the President and later had further consultations on the case.

The close watch of the President's physicians continued as people of all religions and political faiths prayed for his recovery.

The big question—whether he will run again—was left to speculation while the chief executive lay in an oxygen tent and his aides cancelled all of his appointments.

At his own request, the President got his first food, other than fruit juice, when he ate a bowl of oatmeal about noon.

He cleaned the dish.

Hagerty said Eisenhower is "trying to get as complete a rest as is humanly possible."

The President's son, Maj. John Eisenhower, sped here from Washington to lend the President "moral support." He did not indicate how long he would stay, but he and the White House made it clear no emergency had "summoned" him here.

Mrs. Eisenhower moved into the Army hospital Saturday night, taking a room across the corridor from her husband. She visited with him twice Sunday.

At the consultation, which started immediately after Dr. White's arrival here, the Boston expert was given not only a complete review of what occurred from the time of the heart attack, but a report on the President's past medical history.

Hagerty met with newsmen at 4:15 p.m. MST. He said that

Modern Jukebox Finds Home in Grill

A long way to the nearest new and modern as the recently installed in the Grill.
Manager Mike Dmochowski calls it an "ultra-ultra" jukebox, but experts call it a model Seeburg select-o-high fidelity jukebox, and the only one of its kind in East Lansing vicinity.

ings in Detroit and Grand Rapids. It is reported that the University of Michigan has a similar model, the officials said.
The modern and attractive machine was installed in the Grill on Sept. 16 and features 200 selections in four musical categories. Last year's model had only 100 selections.
But high-class entertainment can't be obtained for low-class prices, and grillers have found that like the nickel cup of col-fee, the five-cent tune is out. A single record costs one dime, with three records obtainable for a quarter.

Another new feature is the long-play record, which costs 15 cents. Two can be heard for a quarter.
The box takes up to a dollar in coins from one person at a time, and is divided into sections for hit tunes, rhythm and blues, folk and western, and all-time favorites.

The newest records on the market are obtained for MSU's grill by the servicing company which sends representatives to record companies each week to get the latest releases.
Dmochowski said that the company and the university each collect half of the proceeds from the box.
Any suggestions from students concerning new records will be considered, Dmochowski said.

Grin and Bear It Campus Crush Could Be Worse

The "Big Squeeze" is on. The almost-astronomical predicted enrollment figures that have been discussed in Michigan State planning for the past several years look a lot more realistic.

The official enrollment figure, as of midnight Friday, stands at an all-time high for State—16,723.

Every additional student enrolled over last year's 15,525 seems to have brought an additional problem.

Last year, conditions in Berkey between classes were annoying; this year they promise to be almost impossible.

Last year, parking was a burdensome point; this year it could well become an outrage.

Waiting lines that were measured in feet last year may be measured in yards this year.

There has already been a great deal of complaining about the increased fees, the crush in the grill and the housing situation in general.

With the start of classes, there are bound to be more gripes about other "life and death" matters of this sort.

The thing to keep in mind, however, is the fact that, as bad as things are, they could be a lot worse.

As for the fees—which are more expensive—five dollars a year to park and drive on campus or $45 a year to park off campus, with no right to drive or park.

For that matter, unless you are the exception rather than the rule you can probably park closer to your living unit on the five dollar fee than you could on the average $45 charged per year for off-campus parking spaces.

The grill is crowded, and so are the areas available for student activities. The only solution in the long run is more building area, but until it can be provided consideration for your fellow sufferers, both student and faculty, is the only answer.

Housing problems, according to Tom Dutch, director of housing, are resolving themselves. The married couples that have been forced into Butterfield should be in the new apartments in a couple weeks. The new dorms are being rushed, although dorm space is available now, according to the housing office.

For some of the major complaints of years past, relief is in sight. The new library should be open completely by the end of fall term. Some of its facilities are available already.

Classroom space problems should be at least partially solved by the construction of new buildings before this year's crop of freshmen leave the campus.

Michigan State has always had the reputation of being the most friendly campus in the nation. Even in the hectic days of 1947 and 1948, when Dem Hall and the fieldhouse became temporary housing, Spartans managed to grin and bear it.

Things are much better now than they were then, so next time you begin to fume about spending 15 minutes in a line that took you 10 last year, remember... it could be worse.

World Leaders Hope for Recovery Muscovites Weep, Pray for Ike

By The Associated Press
Moscow Baptists, overflowing from their church to the street outside, wept and prayed to God Sunday night for restoration of President Eisenhower to full health.

"Save him, oh God, save him," cried many shawled women, young men and even children in the congregation of 1,500 as Father Alexei Karpov prayed for the President from the pulpit.

"Our own Comrade Bulganin, chairman of the Council of Ministers, and President Eisenhower have been great coworkers in the cause of peace and now... let us pray for the recovery of President Eisenhower so that he may continue his great work in the cause of peace," said pastor Karpov.

Many women and grown men burst into tears when the pastor announced Eisenhower had suffered a heart attack.

The reaction dramatically illustrated the place he holds in Russian public opinion. No American since President Roosevelt has been so highly regarded here.

Prayers and good wishes for Eisenhower's quick recovery were voiced in high places and humble homes all over Europe.

Pope Pius XII said a prayer for him when told the news at his summer residence in Castel Gandolfo, Italy.

The Pope cabled his "most heartfelt wishes for a speedy recovery" to the President. A Vatican spokesman said he also imparted a special blessing.

The Moscow radio reported Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin cabled Eisenhower:

"I was very sorry to hear of your illness. I sincerely wish you a speedy recovery."

Queen Elizabeth II and the Duke of Edinburgh sent "our warmest good wishes for your speedy recovery" and Prime Minister Eden said he was "most deeply distressed."

In Nice, on the French Riviera, Sir Winston Churchill sent what his secretary described as a "purely private" recovery message.

From Paris, French President Rene Coty telegraphed: "By sending you my warmest wishes for a complete recovery I am the interpreter of the unanimous wishes of the French people for the illustrious statesman who commanded the armies of the liberation."

In Bonn, West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer sent a telegram which said the German people and the whole free world were praying for Eisenhower's recovery. He kept in touch with his office by radio-telephone to hear the latest reports.

The British press chorused encouragement. The News of the Day, Britain's biggest selling Sunday newspaper, recalled that Churchill suffered two severe strokes in the course of his active career "and never gave up the hurly-burly of politics."

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek messaged from Taipei, Formosa:

"Madame Chiang Kai-Shek joins me in expressing our great distress in learning of your indisposition. Please accept our best wishes for your quick recovery."

Evangelist Billy Graham led a Toronto audience of 10,000 persons in prayer for Eisenhower's recovery in what he called "this strategic hour of history for the United States."

Congressman Raps Mississippi Trial

Verdict Blasted by Diggs At Detroit Protest Rally

DETROIT (AP) — A self-styled "Black Congress" told a Negro rally here Sunday he was glad to return to the "Jungles of Mississippi" and its daily reign of terror.

The rally was called in protest against the verdict acquitting two white Mississippians in the slaying trial of a 14-year-old Chicago Negro.

"I have never witnessed such perjury and fantastic twisting of facts," Rep. Charles C. Diggs, (D-Mich.) said upon his return from the trial at Sumner, Miss.

He told an estimated crowd of 6,000 milling but orderly Negroes of the "savages who murdered young Emmett Till," for whistling a "wolf call" at one of the defendants' wives.

"The lone antiseptic which helped clean the bad taste of the verdict from my mouth," Diggs said, "was the fairness of Judge Curtis M. Swango."

The huge meeting was called by the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People. It overflowed from one church to another nearby.

Diggs, of Detroit, said he intends to seek a conference with President Eisenhower at the first "practical" opportunity concerning the "Mississippi situation."

He said he also would contact leaders of both parties for their assistance.

"I am willing to sit on the lawn of the White House until they do something to free the black people of America from the kind of intimidation experienced in the South," he said amidst volleys of cheers.

"Mississippi represents a shameful and primitive symbol of disregard for the essential dignity of all persons which must be destroyed before it destroys all that democracy represents," the lawmaker added.

Diggs said he intends "to challenge the seat of every white Congressman in the state of Mississippi" until the Negro wins representation there. The five Mississippi Congressmen presently represent "only one million whites," he said.

The Congressman suggested "money and the ballot" as the principal means of overcoming intimidation of the southern Negro. He urged the crowds to contribute to the NAACP.

The Arctic Circle and the Antarctic Circle are at 66 degrees, 33 minutes north and south latitude respectively.

Peron Begins Move Into Exile

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Peron's exile Sunday. The Argentine strongman who had ruled Argentina for 10 years from Buenos Aires harbor, the little Paraguayan gunboat which he fled for asylum after a successful revolt. He left the new revolutionary government started a hunt for hidden members of his regime. The Paraguay, away from dock late Sunday. The ousted President below decks. Paraguayan Embassy said Peron was anchored three miles off shore to await delivery of a safe conduct from the Argentine government. The government announced it was giving such a safe conduct. The statement was made by Hugo de Pietro, secretary of the General Confederation of Labor (GCT) in a broadcast over the state radio. La Prensa, one of Latin America's most famous newspapers, was expropriated by the government of deposed President Juan L. Peron in 1951 and given to the CGT. It has generally been assumed that the new Argentine government would return it to its former owner Alberto Gainza Paz. In New York, Gainza Paz said: "I don't believe it. I don't believe it. If this government says it is going to comply with law and justice it must as a matter of course return the newspaper to its rightful owners."

de Lanardi had promised the secret and freedom for Peron to leave Argentine territory. As the Paraguay sailed with Peron, the United States, Britain and Bolivia announced recognition of the new revolutionary administration as the legal government. An Army source said retired Maj. Carlos Aloe and his brother Valentin Armando Aloe were captured trying to flee Argentina with satchels filled with 16 million pesos in cash—more than a million dollars. Carlos Aloe was Peron's governor of Buenos Aires Province and one of the former dictator's closest business associates. He headed a large group of Argentine newspapers seized by Peron and his friends. Former Vice President Alberto Teissaire and the former navy minister, Rear Adm. Luis J. Cornes, were arrested Saturday. The government reported the arrest of all Peronist congressmen but this fact was not published in Buenos Aires newspapers and no details of the number actually jailed were available. The new government is seeking evidence to prove fraud and corruption against former Peronist officials. One of its first acts was to seal safety deposit boxes and limit cash withdrawals from checking and savings accounts in an attempt to ferret out illicit funds the former officials may have hidden away. Opponents have repeatedly charged that Peron and his inner circle enriched themselves illegally during his nine years in office. Details of any such dealings naturally were not known publicly as long as Peron remained in power. Even now they may not be uncovered if the profits were cashed abroad. Many of Peron's Cabinet members are waiting in the asylum of foreign embassies in Buenos Aires for safe conduct to leave the country. The new government respected the Latin American tradition of asylum for political refugees in Peron's case and may apply it to his backers too. The new government, reorganized Saturday night with appointment of the principal Cabinet ministers, prepared to start the huge task of reconstructing Argentina. Even before the Cabinet was constituted many nations hastened to recognize Lanardi's government. U.S. Ambassador Albert F. Niersteiner called on the Foreign Office for an unusual Sunday appointment to give formal notice of his government's decision.

Guards Goof No Hits, No Errors, 3 Out

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—The Indiana State Prison baseball team came out of its dressing room Sunday with three players missing—a lifer and two long-term prisoners. Four guards had been watching the doors of a Pottawatomie Park shelter house where the prison athletes changed into gaudy red and white uniforms but they missed a window. Harold Lloyd, 30, sentenced to a life term for murder in Bartholomew County in 1949, surrendered six hours after game time to Patrolman Joseph Gall, who found Lloyd hiding in a tomato patch in nearby Mishawaka. He was still wearing his baseball uniform. The other escapees are "Whitely" Mitchell, 10 to 15 years for 1st degree burglary and Harlan Reed, 10 to 25 years for robbery. Reed was sentenced only last November.

Boone Ties Jensen for RBI Title

Bonus Baby Miller Stops Indians, 6-2

DETROIT (AP) — Ray Boone knocked in two runs with a single and double to push his RBI total to 116, tying Jackie Jensen for the league title, and lead the Detroit Tigers to a 6-2 victory over the Cleveland Indians Sunday.

Bob Miller allowed seven hits in going the distance to beat the Indians for the second time in eight days. He chilled, and practically killed the Indian pennant hopes last Sunday.

Al Kaline, Detroit's right fielder, left the game after two innings because of a sore wrist and, although he was held hitless in his final 1955 time at bat, he closed out the season with a .340 batting average to lead the league.

Yanks-Bosox Split

Say Hey! 51 Homers

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Mays hit his 51st home run of the season to tie the club record Sunday as the New York Giants and Philadelphia Phillies split a doubleheader.

The Giants won the first game 3-2 aided by Mays' homer, but dropped the second 3-1, marking the end of Leo Durocher's reign as manager of the Giants.

It was an inglorious finish, for the Phils got the final three outs in the ninth inning on a triple play.

Nystrom's Coin Call Harbinger of Victory

KEITH MILLER
Harbinger of good fortune appeared on the scene at the game before Nystrom when Captain Nystrom won the coin toss, a feat that the coach couldn't accomplish throughout the disastrous campaign.

On a rainy Friday night, Nystrom was in fine shape and the game was only a matter of time before the Spartans would take part in the game.

... soph's touchdowns bring Duffy's praise ...

JIM WULFF BOB JEWETT

game's conclusion, the field was filled with lengthening shadows.

Basketball is still king at IU as evidenced by Saturday's attendance at Memorial Stadium. Football fans couldn't have asked for anything better what with the game rated as a toss-up and with a beautiful cloudless day on tap. But still, only an estimated 23,000 fans turned out for the home opener at Bloomington.

Speaking of Hoosier basketball, Don Schlundt, the former IU star center, is now in the insurance business in downtown Bloomington. Schlundt, who graduated last June, decided upon this business venture instead of trying for

When Capt. Rucky Nystrom rose to conduct the coin toss, the crowd shouted for the popular guard to keep the ball.

After reviewing the game movie with his staff Sunday night, Coach Daugherty reiterated his post-game statement that the Spartans played a good opening game.

The Spartans are exactly 1,000 better than they were last season at this time. In the 1934 opener State lost to Iowa, 14-10. Now MSU is at the top of the Big 10 standings since there were no other conference games.

Tom Yewick, quarterback on the Spartans Rose Bowl squad and more recently a catcher with Buffalo in the International League, was a visitor to the State bench. Yewick is in the Army and stationed at Ft. Knox, Ky.

Statistically-wise, the Spartans had a huge edge in Saturday's encounter leading in almost every important department except in passing where the Hoosiers rung up 147 yards to the Spartans' 109. Combining the net yards gained in rushing and passing, 235 and 109 respectively, State had a net total of 344 yards to IU's 189.

Next week, it's mighty Michigan at Ann Arbor in a game that could be quite a bit closer than a lot of Michigan partisans would care to admit. The Spartans are green, true, but the Indiana game did a lot to ripen them.

20 Seconds to Go Packers Upset Lions On Desperation Pass

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Quarterback Tobin Rote hit end Gary Knafele with an 18-yard pass with 20 seconds remaining Sunday to rattle the Green Bay Packers to a 20-17 upset victory over the Detroit Lions.

Knafele, a 6-4, 215-pounder, leaped three feet off the ground to snare the desperation aerial over the outstretched hands of three Lion defenders on the three and then bulled over for the touchdown.

The last ditch touchdown capped an uphill battle by the Packers, who had trailed from the first quarter when Lion quarterback Bobby Layne threw a 38-yard TD pass to Jim Doran.

The Lions held a 17-13 lead going into the hectic last quarter on a 12-yard field goal by Dock Walker in the third period. But the Packers drove 80 yards for the clincher after taking over on their own 20.

'Horse' Paces Colts

BALTIMORE (AP) — Fullback Alan "The Horse" Ameche galloped 79 yards for a touchdown the first time he carried the ball in a regular season professional football Sunday for the Baltimore Colts.
