HOMECOMING CAPS BIRTHDAY

Surprising Spartans Get Sights on Illini

Come to Start New Rivalry;
Injuries Bench Peaks, Wulff

By JACK BERRY

The old, and some not so old, graduates return to East Lansing for Saturday's homecoming game their emotions are sure to be mixed.

Some, such as Walter Small who captained Michigan Agricultural College Aggies in 1907, may marvel at the growth of Michigan State. Others will be seeking old classmates, reliving their college days.

One thing is certain however. At 2 p.m. all eyes will be on the "Surprising Spartans," the team that was supposed to be an also-ran but is currently one of the finest on the nation's gridiron scene.

On this homecoming date Michigan State starts a new football rivalry with the University of Illinois.

Although they haven't met before the paths of Illinois and MSU crossed in 1953, State's first full year of Big 10 competition. Both the Spartans and the Illini had lost one conference game and they were tied for the championship.

The Illini lost out on the Rose Bowl vote. That is the closest the two teams have come to football competition.

Both teams enter the game with identical 3-1 records although Illinois played generally weaker opponents. MSU is favored anywhere from one to two touchdowns.

State will be missing star left halfback Clarence Peaks. The Flint flash has not participated in practice this week and only started running exercises Wednesday. He is not likely to see any action.

In his place will be Gerry Musetti from Detroit's Denby High School. Musetti, in eight carries, has gained 52 yards this season for a 6.5 average.

Dave Kaiser will start at end again and the rest of the lineup will remain the same with John (Big Thunder) Lewis at the other end, Norm Masters and Pat Burke at tackles, Capt. Buck Nystrom and Embury Robinson at guards and Joe Badaczewski at center.

Earl Morrill, Walt Kowalczyk and Gerry Planitz will be in their regular backfield positions.

The Illini, number two in the nation in offense, are expected to be at near top physical shape. Coach Ray Eliot had been worried that sophomore end Rod Hanson and fullback Ray Nitschke would not be ready for action.

Nitschke, in two games, gained 135 yards and had a 5.8 average. He missed the Illini's contests with Ohio State and Minneapolis with a knee injury. Hanson was injured in the Gopher game. On offense the 6-2, 205-pound end has caught five passes good for 67 yards and one touchdown. Both will play Saturday.

The Illini line will slightly outweigh the Spartans at 295 pounds per man. State's forward wall averages 260 pounds.

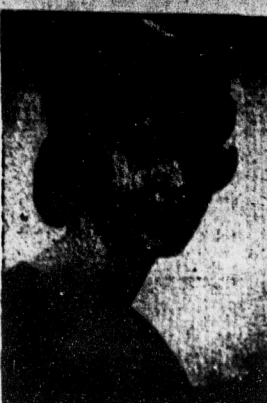

Ed Lindbeck and Hiles Stout are expected to share the signal-calling duties for Illinois. Lindbeck had the fourth best pass completion average in the nation last year with .567. His record in the Big 10 was .604, tops in the conference.

Stout particularly pleased Coach Eliot last week against Minnesota as he connected on six out of seven passes.

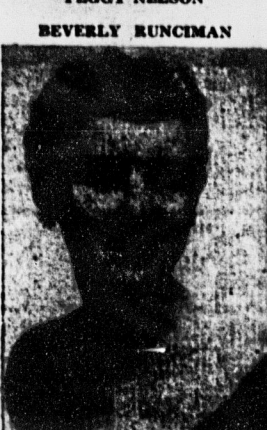

It is the ground game that is the most potent weapon carried by the Illini.

Four men, Abe Woodson, Harry Jefferson, Nitschke, and Mickey Bates have all gained over 100 yards.

Woodson, who tied the world's 50-yard high hurdles record at Milwaukee last spring, was named All-American last year.

Big Weekend Set for Alumni

Expect 26,000 Grads
To Help End Centennial

By DEBBY HALL

State News Night Editor

All roads lead to MSU this weekend for an estimated 26,000 alumni returning to the campus for the Centennial Homecoming activities.

Officially climaxing Centennial year, which began on Founders' Day, Feb. 12, the first major event will be the "March of Memories" parade Saturday at 9 a.m. The salute to MSU's first hundred years will march four-and-a-half miles on Michigan Ave. to East Lansing.

At an 11:30 a.m. ceremony a bronze marker will be attached to Beaumont Tower citing the location of College Hall, "first building in the United States erected for the teaching of scientific agriculture."

Dr. Lewis G. Vander Velde, president of the Michigan Historical Commission, sponsor of the program, will dedicate the bronze plaque, first in a series of historical markers to be placed throughout Michigan. The 24 by 36 inch marker will be accepted by President John A. Hannah.

The organ in the Union lounge, a centennial gift from last year's graduating class, will make its debut from 12 to 1 p.m. Saturday. Virginia Andrick, East Lansing senior, will play the organ for the first time.

A special Homecoming program will be featured during the intermission of the Illinois-MSU football game, beginning at 2 p.m. Chief Illiniwek, traditionally appearing with the Illinois band, will demonstrate an authentic Indian dance. The MSU band will keep the audience guessing with a musical game, "Remember the Song."

According to tradition, Buck Nystrom, Spartan football captain, will present Homecoming Queen Judy Johnston, Tweed, Ontario, senior, with a bouquet of roses before the game in Macklin.

Miss Johnston will be accompanied by her four-member court. They include Peggy Nelson, Bloomington, Ill., junior; Beverly Runciman, Detroit junior; Lucy Bates, East Lansing sophomore, and Mary Lou Estes, New Haven junior.

Recipients of the awards will be Clyde Everts Weed, New York City, student until 1910, operations vice-president of Anaconda Copper Mining Co.

Ted Smits, New York City, student until 1926, Associated Press executive sports editor.

Arno Hallock Johnson, New York City, class of 1922, vice-president of J. Walter Thompson Co., advertising concern.

Buckshot Cuts Audio

WKAR Show Halted by Gun

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
MSU's television station WKAR-TV became one of the early casualties of the pheasant hunting season today.

When the station went on the air at 4 p.m., the audio portion of its television program failed to operate.

Repairmen for the American Telegraph & Telephone Co. discovered someone, presumably a hunter, had fired a charge of buckshot into WKAR's audio cable near its transmitter outside Okemos. Service was restored three hours later.

'55 Wolverine Wins Honors

The 1955 Centennial Wolverine Thursday was awarded All-American honors by the Associated Collegiate Press.

In commenting on the 688-page special edition, the judges called it a "magnificent book."

The rating, highest possible for a college yearbook, is the fifth such honor garnered by the Wolverine.

Past All-American books were published in 1946, 48, 50 and 51. Editor of the 1955 book was Bert Gerber.

The award-winning book will be displayed at the ACP convention scheduled late in November for Detroit.

Senior of the Week petitions for this week are still available at the Union Desk until 5:30 today.

Directory Sports New Look

By NAN RIGNEY

There have been some changes made.

Not only the bright yellow and black cover of the 1955-56 directory is new, but the inside has a new look too.

Most apparent is the use of IBM machines in typing the names. This is the first year the IBM method has been used in preparing the directories.

The date of distribution was about three weeks earlier this year due to the speed of the new system.

'March of Memories'

Parade to Tell MSU History

An illustrated biography of MSU's 100 years will parade four-and-a-half miles on Michigan Ave. Saturday to the theme, "March of Memories—In our Past our Future Lies."

Thirty-four floats will retell the century-long development of a pioneer idea in education into a modern university. The parade will begin at 9 a.m. on Kalamazoo and Capitol and march to East Lansing by way of Michigan Ave.

Sponsored by the student Centennial Commission and directed by Bob Brubaker, Star-48 senior, the parade has grown into 60 units since its conception last spring.

Male and coed living units paired off at the beginning of the term to construct the floats. Duplicate trophies will be awarded to the top four floats and presented at the Homecoming Dance, Saturday night.

Replacing the customary displays in front of living units, the floats will represent 25-year periods, depicting a specific event in the MSU's history. Six floats will also foretell future developments.

About 100,000 spectators are expected to watch the trailer-drawn floats and other parade units.

Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies and 1945 graduate of MSU will pitch in as the parade marshal.

The oldest alumni of MSU, Milton M. Marble, who celebrated his 100th birthday in September, will commemorate the university's birthday as honorary parade marshal.

Four high school bands, Lansing Sexton, Lansing Eastern, Lansing Everett and East Lansing will add syncopation to the Centennial salute.

MSU's marching band will also join the parade. A novelty feature will be the Jackson Zouaves, a 50-man precision marching unit.

Several equestrian units will highlight the parade. The trotting cadence of the Bad Axe Sheriff Posse will be represented by 16 Palomino ponies. C. E. Dodge will bring a hitch drawn by eight Shetland ponies.

Two antique buggies from the university museum will also be driven. Elsie Copp, former MSU student and state 4-H champion in showmanship will ride a Palomino parade horse.

Five early twentieth century vintage automobiles will carry students dressed in costumes representative of the period.

Some of the nation's prettiest coeds will ride in convertibles. They will be Miss Big 10 1954, Jan Somers, Elm Hurst, Ill., senior.

Homecoming Schedule

HOMECOMING PARADE, 9 a.m., Michigan and Washington Ave. to East Lansing.
DEDICATION OF HISTORICAL MARKER, 11:30 a.m., Beaumont Tower.
FOOTBALL GAME, 2 p.m., Macklin Stadium, Michigan State vs. Illinois.
HOMECOMING BANQUET, 6 p.m., Shaw Hall.
HOMECOMING DANCE, 9 p.m., Auditorium.

Need Proof

Wives Are Wives, Even In Russia!

NEW YORK (AP) — A visiting Russian journalist maintained Wednesday that wives are wives the world over, and just as stubborn under communism as they are under capitalism.

Anatoli Vladimirovich Sofronov, manager of a Soviet magazine, was among five Russian journalists who visited the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

He saw a man copying an oil painting and asked him through an interpreter why he was doing so.

"I want to prove to my wife that I can paint," replied the American, Daniel Dunlop, a cattle farmer from Williston, Fla.

"All wives are the same," sighed Sofronov. "You have to prove everything to them."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Stevenson Hints He'll Run

NEW YORK (AP) — Adlai Stevenson made it virtually clear Thursday he will be a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination. "I'm not counting on the New York delegation at all," he told newsmen. They took this as a plain indication he would be in the race.

Dulles Wins Conference Backing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles won bipartisan backing in his plans for the Geneva Big Four foreign ministers conference Thursday at a meeting with congressional leaders.

'Aggressive War' Out — Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower told Russia during last July's summit conference that "under no circumstances is the United States ever going to be a party to aggressive war—AGAINST ANY NATION." The text of the President's assurance to the Soviets was disclosed by the State Department Thursday in making public the American records of the top level Big Four meeting.

Police Seek Murder Clues

CHICAGO (AP) — Handpicked detectives Thursday made a door-to-door search for clues in the slaying of three boys, while a scientist deduced the youths had been given savage beatings by two or more grown men. The task force of officers hunted in the area where the victims vanished Sunday night.

A pair of blue jeans, ripped at the seams as if they had been torn off, were found about a block from the spot where the three youths stepped off a bus at 9 p.m. Sunday.

Letters to the Editor

Students Use Campus, Too

To the Editor:

It was gratifying to see the caption under the front page picture in the Wednesday State News reading "This bridge is designed to make getting to the library easier for students living in Shaw dormitory." And what is wrong with the much-used railroad bridge a mere 25 feet away?

Where a bridge is really needed is opposite East Shaw, not only making the parking lot more easily accessible to Mason-Abbott, Phillips-Snyder, but a true help for Shaw residents going to the Physics-Math Bldg. and area.

Below the picture was the announcement that a new student services building would be constructed where the Horticulture Gardens are now. These gardens are one of the few spots of beauty left on this campus. Situating a building there would be as absurd as placing it on Dr. Harman's front lawn. Come on, campus planners. Let's wake up and find a better place for these new additions. One good way is to ask the users of the campus, the students. They do exist, you know.

High Spence

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Horticultural Gardens will remain intact, according to university authorities. The proposed student services building will be located directly east of the Natural Science Building, along East Circle Drive.

Donors Are Few

To the Editor: The turnout for the Red Cross blood drive has been very low. The small number of donors on the first day was partly due to the inadequate publicity given the drive by the State News during the week previous to the blood drive, and not one word about the drive appeared in the State News on Monday. Another reason for the slow response from the students is that the college was to allow blood donors to be excused from one hour of class upon presentation of a certificate that they have given blood to their instructors, the response would be practically unanimous.

A hospital slip is accepted by instructors as an excused absence; certainly the blood drive is important enough to be excused from class.

Joan LaCasse

Letters to the Editor

The State News welcomes letters from its readers on subjects of current interest. Letters should be not more than 200 words in length, typewritten or printed legibly. They must be signed in ink by the writer, or, if written on behalf of an organization, by two representatives of that organization. Addresses must be included. Letters judged by the editors to be libelous, defamatory, or in poor taste will be withheld from publication.

Dinners, Discussions Slated

Religious Clubs Plan Weekend

By BARBARA BALL
Sunday will be the busy day this weekend as religious organizations plan discussion groups and dinners Friday and Saturday will include a barbecue roast and an open house.

The Canterbury Club's barbecue roast Friday evening at 5:30 will be stag or drag. Members will meet at College Lutheran Church for transportation to the party which will be held at a farm outside East Lansing.

Elenor Muraki, senior from Hilo, Hawaii, will be the guest speaker at the Hillel Foundation Sunday at 7 p.m. She will speak on Hawaii and will present her native dance. The program will conclude with refreshments.

The Religious Society of Friends will hold a discussion "Quaker's Queries" Sunday evening. The group will meet at 610 N. Hagadorn Road to discuss meetings for worship, ministry, participation in meeting and self-discipline.

Deaconess Robinson from Parishfield Community will lead a discussion on "Christianity and the World" Sunday at the Canterbury Club. The meeting will be held in 31 Union at 6:30 p.m. followed by an open house at Reverend Porter's home.

"Trade With These Till I Come" will be the topic for a panel discussion at the Lutheran Student Association Sunday. The group will meet at College Lutheran Church at 7:30 p.m. and will conclude the program with refreshments.

Gamma Delta will sponsor a cost supper at 6 p.m. in Martin Luther Chapel Sunday. At 7 p.m. there will be a pledging ceremony for new members followed by vespers at 8:15 p.m.

The YM-YWCA will sponsor a graduate group which will meet Sunday afternoon at 3:30 at the Y house. This newly formed group welcomes all graduate students to their informal discussions. This week the topic will be "The Family" and assistant program director Helen Brugman, from Amsterdam, Netherlands, will work with the group.

The Liberal Religious Youth Organization will meet Sunday evening at 5:30 at Universalist Church in Lansing. Students wishing transportation should meet at the Y house at 5:15. Following a complimentary dinner at 5:45 the group plans to attend a UNESCO meeting which is being held in the church.

Sunday at 4 p.m. Theta Chi will sponsor Candlelight Vespers in the Alumni Memorial Chapel.

Mr. Douglas Florio, christian layman from Lansing, will speak to Trinity College Fellowship members Sunday on "Qualifications of the Personal Worker." The meeting will be held at 6:30 p.m. in East Lansing Trinity Church.

Final Date Set For Senior Pics

Today at 6 p.m. is the deadline for having senior pictures taken. No more pictures will be taken after that time.

Any senior may have his picture taken without an appointment. Pictures are being taken in 41 Union.

Football

is just as adept at running in a football uniform.

The game, a complete sell-out, will be the first conference action for State since the Saturday at Ann Arbor. They will continue playing conference rivals until the last game of the season against Marquette.

While homecoming has special significance for the fans and the players, it will be a different kind of homecoming for Spartan Head Coach Lou Agate. Agate played his college ball at Illinois and also coached at the Champaign school.

It will be a familiar homecoming for graduates of recent years. Once again the Spartans are in the top 10—they had their homecoming last Saturday.

Husband Gets The Bird

CHICAGO (P) — Mrs. Odelle Kelly Kemp, 29, testified Wednesday her husband, Robert, was so jealous of her pet parakeet he struck her when she spoke to the bird.

Judge Harry G. Hershenson granted her a divorce on grounds of cruelty.

Professor to Address Aesthetics Conference

Prof. Walter H. Abell, of the art department, is program chairman for the annual meeting of the American Society of Aesthetics meeting here today and Saturday. Abell will speak on "The Arts and the Community: Some Recent Developments in Practice."

'Water Follies' Show Continues

The "Water Follies of 1955" will continue tonight through Saturday at the Lansing Civic Center. Evening performances begin at 8:30 with Friday and Saturday matinees starting at 2:30.

Tickets for the stage-water show are priced at $2.75, $2 and $1.10, and may be purchased at the Civic Center or the Paramount News Shop.

Philosophy Department To Hold Colloquium

The philosophy department will hold its first colloquium to-night at 7:30 p.m. in the Physics-Mathematics conference room. The speaker will be Professor Henry S. Leonard, head of the philosophy department. His topic will be "The Logic of Existence."

Elections

Any request for recounts in the elections must be called in to the Student Government offices before 8 a.m. Saturday. The election results can be checked this afternoon in the Student Government office.

Blood Drive Falter Total at 645 Pints

Thursday's Turnout Poor; Center Closes Today

By BOB STEPHENSON

The hopes of student and Red Cross workers for the slow-starting blood drive into a success were dashed Thursday as only 154 donors made an appearance.

Donations received during the first four days of the APO all-University blood drive totaled 645.

"We hoped for a good turnout today, but instead donations dropped off," said Jim Grau, drive chairman.

"Our goal is 1,300 and we only have 645. The drive is open for seven hours Friday and we can handle over 100 per hour. With a good healthy showing we could keep it from being a total flop."

Drive workers were at a loss to explain the lack of student enthusiasm in the drive. Some reasoned it was because of a high number of colds on campus; others claimed the students were just not interested.

Grau said he thought some of the freshmen were wary of donating blood. "We have a tremendous percentage of freshmen and it takes them two or three terms to realize that they can donate."

One prevailing theory held that fall term in general is a poor time to hold a drive. Last fall's blood drive netted 1,247 pints and the four-day total was 1,940.

Dr. Joseph Venier of the Lansing Regional Blood Center, said he was certain the slow drive was not the fault of Alpha Phi Omega, the drive sponsor.

Red Cross nurses will be on hand from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. today to receive donations.

No appointments are required and students wishing to donate are urged to go to the ping pong room in the Union.

Job Success Said Not Goal of Col

There is more to life than success, C. L. Brody, chairman of the State Board of Agriculture, said today at the opening session of the annual meeting of the Association of Governing Boards of Colleges and Universities at the Kellogg Center.

"It is the responsibility of colleges and universities to live a life as well as to be efficient in their chosen vocation," said Brody.

He continued, "Much depends upon the emphasis the higher human values, encouragement of intellectual enterprise to achieve the best possibilities."

The annual conference, which continues through tomorrow, is being attended by 150 board members of state-supported and independent colleges and universities.

In discussing the role of the board member, Brody said our responsibility in this rapid expansion of educational facilities and personnel is to send the public interest in national policies. So far as additional practices are concerned, the layman's view and interest with that of a professional educator."

Michigan State Seeks Straight Win

Their last home dual meet of the season, the Michigan cross country team will meet the Penn State Nittany Saturday morning at the Old College Athletic Center.

Head coach Karl Schladerman will lead 12 men in the meet while Penn State coach Charles Werner will use nine.
Michigan State's endowed upon the emphasis of higher human values terprise to achieve the possibilities.

The annual conference will continue through afternoon, is being attended by 50 board members of state-supported and independent colleges and universities.

In discussing the role of the board member, Brody said responsibility in the rapid expansion of education and personnel interest in the public interest of national policies. So far as national practices are concerned, the layman's interest with that of a Canadian cross country team has run the fastest of four miles ever run at the State

time trial three weeks ago, Michigan was timed in 19:
the second best ever for the time course. Last week the Notre Dame he was clock-ed at 19:36.7, the fourth best.

Michigan also has been running fast this season. In the one mile run the harrier captured 2:29.3, his personal last week he lowered that to 2:24.4.

Michigan who ran 20:26 last week, ran 20:46 last week and sign of running faster in addition the Evans will resume his rivalry with State's Moorhead. In their meet Moorhead lost to Michigan by only a few seconds.

Illini Flash

Abe Woodson, Illini halfback and the top hurdler on the track team may have to hurdle some Spartan linemen Saturday. The 6-1, 180-pound junior has picked up 236 yards rushing for an 8.3 average. He also leads the team in punting with a 40.1 yard average.

Uclans Seek Revenge, Prestige Against Hawks

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
UCLA, which lost out to a Big 10 team in the race for the
No. 1 football ranking last season and which lost face through an early defeat by Maryland this year, goes after a measure of revenge and greater prestige against Iowa tonight.

After dropping a 7-0 decision to Maryland in their second game, the Uclans have racked up three impressive victories over Pacific Coast Conference rivals and have climbed back to seventh place in this week's Associated Press ranking poll. Iowa, rated as one of the strong Big 10 teams early this season, was thumped by Waconsin and tied by Purdue.

From the national viewpoint, Saturday's big game probably is the Oklahoma-Colorado clash, one of two in which a major conference lead clearly is at stake. Third-ranked Oklahoma has 23 consecutive victories, the longest current winning streak in college football.

The Sooners also have not lost to a Big Seven team in 48 games.
Wisconsin, which shares the Big 10 lead with Michigan at 2-0 plays Ohio State, which won its only conference game to date.
With a couple of exceptions the teams rated in the top 10 this week figure to win handily. Michigan, No. 1, faces a respected but unsuccessful Big 10 opponent

'Injured' Kramer To Dress

Travels With Team To Gopher Game

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Big Ron Kramer, top-rated Michigan's only All-American hopeful, packed his bags Thursday to leave with the team for a little Brown Jug battle with Minnesota Saturday.

Kramer won't play. Coach Bennie Oosterbaan says — but he's making the trip anyway and will be in uniform on the Michigan bench.
The Wolverines leave Ann Arbor today by plane for Minneapolis and will try to squeeze in a last minute, full dress workout in Memorial Stadium which has already announced a sellout for the game.

Michigan is riding a four-game unbeaten streak and Minnesota, which has only one victory in four games, will be at least a two touchdown underdog.

The Gophers are impressive offensively with their fullback, Dick Borstad, leading the Big 10 in rushing with 185 yards for a neat 5.4 yard average.
Besides Borstad, the Gophers are proud of right halfback Bob Schultz, a 177-pound flash who has a whopping 127 rushing average in two Big 10 games with 127 yards on the ground.

ZBT Late Rally Nips Triangle, 15-6

After trailing in the first half by one touchdown, Zeta Beta Tau scored fifteen points in the second to beat Triangle 15-6. It was the first win of the season for ZBT.

The Zebies broke into the scoring in the third period when Arnie Mikelfberg tagged the opponents quarterback in the end zone for a safety. Minutes later, Mickey Simon threw a long touchdown pass to back Marty Gruber. The final tally was made when Grub-ber intercepted a Triangle pass and ran it 50 yards for a TD.

In a contest which featured two undefeated teams, Alpha Gamma Rho edged Delta Tau Delta 6-3 in a tightly played game. DTD picked up a safety in the initial quarter when Ev Bennett broke through the offensive line and tagged Rusty Voerheis near the goal posts.

Alpha Gamma Rho scored the decisive touchdown early in the second half when Ralph Zantello ran an intercepted pass across the goal line.
In another early tilt, Carl Shook of Phi Delta Theta figured in all three touchdowns as he led his squad to a 20-6 win over Phi Kappa Phi.

Holcomb Squawks
Purdue Practice Sessions Called 'A Bore'

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Stu Holcomb, Purdue University's head football coach, told the Downtown Quarterback Club
this week the outlasting of platoons has made his practice sessions "a bore."

"We try to recruit a big squad and then we don't let them play.
Using only the 11 best players all the way, you don't get the best job done," Holcomb said.
"Another rule I don't like is the delay of the game interpretation of five timeouts. We use up our five timeouts, and I want to get a defensive man into the game. I can't do it without getting a 5-yard penalty."
