First Humor Wasn't Green Onion Had Short Life

Back in the days when grandmothers and grandfathers were running papers at M.A.C. and the news on the football team was known as the "Aggies," some students decided that to go along with times of the hip and the Charleston they'd start a humor magazine.

In January 1955, according to the alumni publication, a humor magazine was registered under the name of the "Green Onion." This magazine, said the record, tried to keep the record, tried to keep the record, tried to keep the record.

The Green Onion, it seems, lasted everything on the M.A.C. campus—from the now extinct local fraternity as well as the national, to the usual rib at roasts and even the faculty members.

The staff of 41 students, as the Green Onion stepped into some hot water though, after turning their fancy to particularly "rough" spring edition. To and even more cool to the fire they proceeded to sell the magazine to a number of alumni and outsiders at a "Farmers Week" held at the campus in February 1955.

The "Aggie" officials would have preferred to keep the Green Onion at home for soon after its sale, shocked grads wrote many letters back wondering what had happened to the students at their dear old alma mater. As one old 1929 alum put it, "I had only the good of the institution at heart when I state that I earnestly feel that respect for the old school can hardly be developed and enhanced via the Green Onion route."

The faculty also didn't quite "dig" the idea, and many a closed door season kept the students of pouring over what to do about the Green Onion. To this day, no one really knows what happened to the editor of this chair-raising issue.

In October of 1955, a somewhat tamed-down version of the Green Onion appeared. The following month the State News nicknamed it the "Clean Onion." The Onion lasted until March 1956 when it died because the Board of Publications decided that without an editor, and not enough advertising to support the Wolverine, State News and Green Onion, one must go.

This ended the era of humor publications at MSU until the present Spartan made its appearance in 1959.

Pep Rally Produces Battle Cry

Bandshell Rocks With Cheers, Songs

By DONN SHELTON
State News Managing Editor

"We did it before and we'll do it again," became Michigan State's battle cry Sunday following official naming of the Spartans to their second Rose Bowl berth in three years.

The war call was born at a Sunday afternoon pep rally which greeted the official announcement that the Spartans are Rose Bowl bound.

Over 2,500 students gathered at the band shell for the rally.

Dean of Students Tom King congratulated the students on their conduct and told them if they kept up there would be no school Wednesday.

Plans were also revealed Sunday for a student train excursion to the bowl game.

Tickets for the trip will go on sale today at 2 p.m. on the second floor of the Union. The train trip will be a five-day excursion and will cost $197 for the full program.

Included in the program is all transportation to and from the parade and game; hotel fees in California and meals on the train.

Game tickets will not be included in the price of the train trip but everyone on the train will be assured of a ticket, according to Bill Mansfield, student government president.

The Spartan Spirit commission of student government and Union Board are sponsoring the train.

The rally and train plans were the first official greetings of the bowl berth although a group of exuberant but orderly students thronged Grand River following Saturday's game.

The cheering students sang songs and yelled everything in sight with snowballs in the 60-minute impromptu rally.

East Lansing police officials called the demonstration "orderly" and better than in 1953—when a similar demonstration was held to greet the same team.

The Rose Bowl fever was heavy at Saturday's game with Marquette as players and fans alike kept one ear cocked to radio and loud speakers for news from Ann Arbor.

The unclothed ears turned red with cold early in the game and then a bright rose color as the Buckeyes of OSU pulled farther and farther ahead of Michigan.

Loud cheers greeted each score from Ann Arbor and "Big Bill" yelled out the 17 OSU points when the game was over.

High of 45 Cloudy Skies To Begin Week

Today's weather forecast calls for cloudy skies and little change in temperature.

The mercury settled at 36 last night and is expected to rise to 45 today.

Officials Comment on Victory

MSU officials, coaches and players happily gave statements Sunday after official news was received that MSU is Rose Bowl bound.

PRESIDENT HANNAH: This is a very proud day. We are proud of you and proud of the team. Two years ago we were never prouder of the student body—this is a better group and I know it will come back with as good a reputation.

BIGGIE MUNN, athletic director: "We have the greatest student-team record of any Big 10 team for going to the coast as ladies and gentlemen. I know we will maintain it."

TOM KING, Dean of Students: "I am very happy we are going. It is the climax of a wonderful season for one of the finest teams I have seen in my 23 years here. I am also happy that this wonderful student body has an opportunity to go to the Rose Bowl."

CLARK BRODY, Chairman of the State Board of Agriculture, MSU's governing body: "I feel very happy we have qualified to go to the Rose Bowl. It is a great honor for our team and for the university."

KARL McDONELL, Secretary of the State Board of Agriculture: "I think it is a nice recognition for our team. Our students have behaved extremely well just as they did in 1953 when there was not a single instance of misconduct."

LEO HADY, who made the first Rose Bowl trip: "We're all happy for you and for us."

JOHN MATSKO, junior center: "We are going west with one thing in mind to travel means to beat UCLA."

DON GILBERT, sophomore fullback: "We hope we can represent you well at Pasadena."

DUFFY DAUGHERTY, Spartan coach: "We have a great bunch of players and the greatest captain to set foot on a gridiron. We are going for only one reason—to represent MSU and its students the best way we can."

UCLA Awaits 2nd MSU Visit

Spartans Set Mark For Bowl Trip

CHICAGO (AP)—Michigan State, the Big 10's top-ranked team, and powerful UCLA will clash in the Rose Bowl.

The Big 10 athletic directors formally certified Michigan State Spartans for the Rose Bowl in a conference vote Sunday, while naming of the Bruins by the Pacific Coast Conference remained only a formality.

The Spartans' only finished season was in 1953, but in the year-

UCLA will play the following day. Because New Year's Day falls on a Sunday, the bowl game this year will be played on Monday, the second.

Michigan State won't play in the Rose Bowl Jan. 1—but they will play the following day.

Because New Year's Day falls on a Sunday, the bowl game this year will be played on Monday, the second.

Michigan State athletic director Biggie Munn immediately accepted the Rose Bowl bid in behalf of the Spartan school, which pulled for Ohio State's 17-0 victory of Michigan Saturday harder than Buckeye partisans themselves.

The Buckeye triumph knocked Michigan's Wolverines out of both the Rose Bowl bid and the Big 10 title, leaving them third in the conference race with a final 3-2 mark.

Thus the Spartans, newest members of the Western Conference, became the first to go to the Rose Bowl twice in three years. Michigan State defeated UCLA in the Pasadena classic 24-20 on New Year's Day of 1953. UCLA will be the Pacific Coast Conference representative again this time.

Sunday's vote was regarded as a formality. Michigan State, with a 3-1 record in the Big 10 and an 8-1 season record—best in the conference—easily outvoted the Rose Bowl 10-0 when Michigan lost Saturday to Ohio State.

The Spartans, 14-7 losers to Michigan early in the season, regained their winning stride against the West Coast's Stanford, 28-14.

Gathering momentum in a 21-7 victory over Notre Dame—the

Greenwell to Talk On L-C Operas

Gene Greenwell, associate professor of music, will give a lecture this afternoon at 4 in the Union Music Room on the two operas, "La Boheme" and "Die Fledermaus."

Greenwell, who appears in many of the New York City Opera Company productions, will discuss the company, its singers and the librettos of the two operas. He will also answer any questions.

The lecture is sponsored by the Fine Arts Committee of the Union Board and is open to students and faculty, free of charge.

Other points of possible discussion in the first round of meetings include the Senior Ball attraction and the traditional Class Out problem.

Living units will be able to arrange for talent to appear at parties through this bureau.

In winter term a talent show will be held and the Speech department will act as judges. The winners of this show will be used quite extensively for television shows.

Since each student will want to have his own choice of restaurants and menus, the meals in Los Angeles are not included. Personal expenses such as telephone calls, wires, laundry, and refreshments are not included. All students taking the Spartan Special will be able to purchase their Rose Bowl Game tickets at the MSU Athletic Ticket office. A seat at the Parade of Roses is not included since the $7.00 cost is prohibitive. There is ample room for viewing the parade along the six mile route.

CAN I GO WITHOUT HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS?

On previous Rose Bowl tours, students from Michigan State, Ohio State, Wisconsin and Northwestern, have found that it is undesirable to stay in outlying districts since the majority of the Rose Bowl activity is in downtown Los Angeles near our hotels. Visitors will find travel and transportation facilities congested. If you have carefully considered the above conditions and are positive of securing lodging in the Los Angeles area, you may make train reservations without our hotel accommodations. This plan does not include hotel accommodations in Los Angeles, transportation to the Game and to the Parade of Roses, transfer of students and baggage tips.

ALL STUDENTS MUST HAVE WRITTEN PERMISSION FROM THEIR PARENT OR GUARDIAN MAILED TO THE DEAN OF STUDENTS' OFFICE. Forms for this permission can be obtained when deposit is made or at the Dean of Students' Office.

DON'T FORGET...

Extra money for gifts, films, snacks, etc. is always needed the most when you run out. Be sensible—budget enough for a good time.

WHAT'S NOT INCLUDED? ... HOWEVER

By special arrangements sightseeing tours will be sold on the train for all of those students who wish to take advantage of tours of the greater Los Angeles area including Santa Monica, Beverly Hills, and Hollywood. Another tour will be offered to Disneyland, Knott's Berry Farm, San Juan Capistrano, and other points of interest in Southern California. Foreign Students Receive 'Invites'

Michigan residents will again open their homes to Michigan State foreign students during the Thanksgiving vacation.

Mrs. Margaret Moran, International Center hostess, has received 10 invitations from Lansing and East Lansing families, two from Eastern Rapids, and seven from Benton Harbor, where foreign students will be given a tour of factories and the fruit belt.

Since other countries do not celebrate Thanksgiving, this gives foreign students an opportunity to join into American homes, meet American people, and see for themselves what Thanksgiving is like with parties and lunch at the Benton Harbor Bazaar.

have it here" were greeted with cheers.

Don Gillette, head of Spartan Spirit, took the mike to lead the students in the singing of UCLA here we come.

He followed with an announcement about the Spartan Spirit-Union Board train to the Rose Bowl, saying that tickets for the trip would go on sale today at 2 p.m. on the second floor of the Union.

Someone started singing "MSU Shadows" and the singing quickly spread as hats were doffed and students and faculty alike sang the MSU alma mater.

Bill Mansfield, president of student government, gave some more details about the train trip. He noted that the train trip would include meals on the train because last time, no one was anything for three days coming back.

Athletic Director Biggie Munn followed, commenting that the "people in Ann Arbor are regretting the last four minutes of Saturday's game."

"They lost their pride and there — they lost a better man more than their pride," he said. A roar of approval greeted his gibe.

While Munn was talking, Daugherty arrived and photographers kept him posing with the four band members present.

Then the action moved to the band shell stage with Munn presiding the keynote of the rally and of the next five days. He did it before and after the game.

He said the MSU attitude toward the Rose Bowl was "When the rules permit us to go—we go."

Daugherty then was introduced and greeted by the band.

He thanked the band and the ovation, and said that the person because he was a single minute of the game.

He talked of the game and its captain, Buck Nantz, and Daugherty described the "greatest captain in college football."

He admitted that the difference in the game was the Spartans' win in the game.

"I took Walt Kowalski aside one day and talked him about the inadvisability of switching hands on the ball and about not using the straightarm," he explained.

The following day, Wisconsin, the Spartans' next rival, will be at the stadium. The Spartans' straightarmed tackle, who was 24 yards for a touchdown.

That's real football, he said, and he said that he was proud to be a Spartan. He also told the students to work hard and to be perfect in their studies.

He finished by telling the students that the team was going west for just one reason—to represent the school and the students in the best way possible.

A "Detroit News" reporter asked Daugherty if Munn beneath the banner.

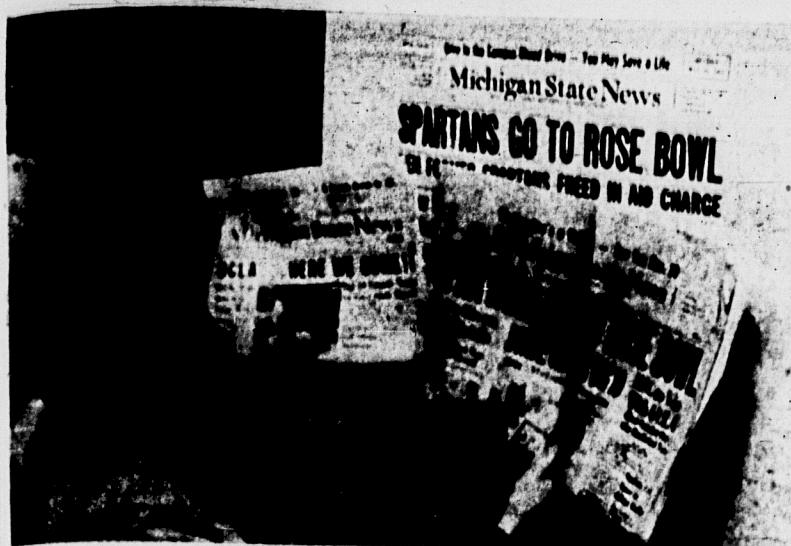

Emcee Gillette said the assembly, then, was the "Near Riot" headline of the morning.

"We want you to be a part of it," he said, "our school's Rose Bowl trip experience and we don't need to elaborate."

The students then began a "Team, Team, Team" chant and the four players present finally were coaxed up on the stage.

Matsko summed up the day of the team, the students, officials with "We're here for just one reason—to beat UCLA—I mean to beat UCLA."

Historians Help Find Aged Diaries

Two MSU historians are working plans to edit for publication the diaries of former President James A. Garfield.

The diaries were discovered at a home carefully wrapped in a vault in the old Garfield home.

Pauls, Harry Brown and Frederick D. Williams of MSU's Dept. of History explained that the diaries of Congress had been found from the Garfield family. A large number of small diaries, including an important diary kept by Garfield from 1875 until the day before he was shot in 1881.

The Library of Congress had been the possible existence of the diaries. The two historians and efforts to locate the diaries.

India to Stay Neutral

Nehru Squelches Red Bid

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru Sunday night gave notice to his Russian guests—Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Communist party boss Nikita S. Khrushchev—that he did not expect their visit to swing India into the Communist bloc.

The Indian Prime Minister spoke at a state banquet for the two Soviet leaders after Khrushchev at a visit to the Taj Mahal at Agra, had announced a visit to help this country become strong industrially to assure its freedom and independence.

Noting concerted that Russian-Indian friendship is deep but not determined, he said India would not take sides in the cold war.

"We are convinced," he said, "it is not by military pacts and alliances and by piling up armaments that world peace and security can be attained."

There is talk of a cold war and rival camps and groupings and military blocs and alliances—all in the name of peace.

"We are in no camp and no military alliance. The only camp we should like to be in is the camp of peace and goodwill, which should include as many countries as possible and be open to all," he said.

The only alliance we seek is an alliance based on goodwill and co-operation.

Bulganin declared the Soviet Union has "not lost hopes" as a result of the Geneva meeting of Big Four foreign ministers and is "certain that in the end the four powers will succeed in solving the problems which face them."

On the flying visit to Agra, Khrushchev, who took the last in peace making.

Bulganin and Khrushchev flew to Agra from New Delhi at the head of a party of eight plane-loads of Russians and Indians to view the famous marble-clad Taj Mahal—India's best-known show-piece. The Russians were warmly welcomed.

Khrushchev told the welcome, who welcomed him and Bulganin with gifts that he had never seen such a sight before.

Greens Down Whites, 59-56

Cagers Scrimmage at Clinic

By JOE HOFFMAN
State News Staff Editor
A record turnout of nearly 400 high school basketball coaches turned out for the third annual Coaches Clinic this weekend.

The coaches were shown demonstrations of the Michigan State offense and defense as set up by Head Coach Fordey Anderson and his assistants, John Bennington and Bob Stevens.

Another feature of the clinic was the appearance of Jack Nagle, basketball coach at Marquette University.

Nagle demonstrated his well-known 1-3-1 offensive pattern and also showed the workings of the double pivot offense.

Completing the clinic was an intra-squad scrimmage. Saturday morning in which the Greens outlasted the Whites, 59-56.

Leading at halftime, 30-28, the Greens never relinquished their bulge. Harry Lux and George Ferguson were the high point men for the winners, scoring 16 and 12 points respectively.

Julius McCoy led the losers' scoring with 20 points, 18 coming in the first half.

Anderson was fairly pleased with the scrimmage although "we have a lot of work to do before the opening of the season."

He was particularly happy over the play of his sophomores, notably Larry Hadden, Jack Quiggle and Max Gonzenbach.

Gonzenbach, playing for the Whites, was very strong on rebounds and held last year's varsity center, Duane Peterson to 11 points.

At the conclusion of the scrimmage, the coaches had a luncheon at Kellogg Center and were then taken to the MSU-Marquette game as guests of the athletic department.

"This year's clinic was a huge success," Anderson commented.

Valley AAU Lifts Santee Suspension

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Missouri Valley AAU board of managers Sunday decided to lift the amateur suspension of Wes Santee, this country's fastest miler.

The managers voted 21-7 to reject the decision of the Missouri Valley AAU registration committee which suspended Santee on Oct. 30 on grounds he had accepted excessive expense allowances for three California track meets.

Santee's suspension will be lifted automatically if no one appeals Sunday's decision to the board of governors of the National AAU within 10 days.

Santee, former University of Kansas star who now is a Marine lieutenant stationed at Quantico, Va., was unable to attend Sunday's meeting but was represented by Bill Easton, his former coach at Kansas.

Harriers Prep for Nationals

Host Classic Next Monday

Henry Kennedy and Michigan State established themselves as two of the favorites in the NCAA meet with the Spartans win of the Big 10 title last Friday.

Kennedy, a 23-year-old Scots-Canadian, ran one of the best cross country races of all time when he smashed the course and meet record by 34.5 seconds.

The harriers, in winning their fourth conference title in six tries, displayed their best depth of the season and will be no easy team to beat in the Nationals.

Michigan State, running in two major championship meets in five days, finished second in the ICA meet last Monday.

Kennedy won the race in convincing fashion and came within two-tenths of a second of breaking the course and meet record.

Michigan State further amazed spectators when Capt. Selwyn Jones and Gay Denslow finished seventh and eighth, only a second apart. Many people thought the Spartans had the meet won when State's fourth finisher Terry Block, took the 30th team place.

Ed Townsend was the Spartans fifth man but in 68th team place, not close enough to offset the Panthers superior team depth.

After only three days rest the harriers ventured to Chicago as the favorites in the Big 10 meet.

The meet was held in below-freezing weather while the ground was frozen solid. Michigan State immediately gave the indication of things to come when they had four men in the first five at the mile mark.

Kennedy jumped into the lead, followed by Jones and Deacon Jones of Iowa. They stayed that way for two miles until Deacon moved up on Kennedy with a mile to go.

The two brilliant sophomores battled for three-quarters of a mile until Kennedy put on a closing sprint that carried him to a 110-yard win. His time of 19:06 was the fastest four miles ever run by a collegian.

The next two men, Deacon Jones and Selwyn Jones, both were under the old record.

Walt Kowalevsk strains for yardage in Saturday's encounter with Marquette. The first halfback gained 94 yards against the Warriors. Moving in on the play is Marquette end Art Katula.

Opens Rose Bowl Door for MSU

Desire Key to Buckeye Win

By KEITH MILLER

DESIRE is the magic word that spelled the difference between Ohio State and Michigan in Saturday's climatic gridiron clash, the result which gave the splendorous Spartans the opportunity to represent the Western Conference in the annual Rose Bowl classic.

From Woody Hayes, the outspoken mentor of the Buckeyes, to the last substitute on the bench, Ohio State knew as one that a victory Saturday over arch-rival Michigan was a must.

And from the very outset of the game, the Buckeyes played inspirational ball. It had been 18 long years since Ohio State had lost a game in the high stadium which Saturday became the Wolverines' "deathbed" instead of a promised Rosebowl.

The hefty Buck line charged furiously led by the monstrous guard Jim Parker. They continually opened gaping holes in the Wolverine line through which the brilliant All-American halfback, Hopalong Cassidy, suvived-hipped his way for huge chunks of yardage.

Cassidy, in his last game for OSU, was unstoppable. Not once did the celebrated terror lose ground as he and his cohorts drove the Maize and Blue into submission.

After the game, Cassidy was the fair-haired boy from the Bucks. When he strode out of the bedlam of the Ohio State dressing room, the frenzied, almost fanatical Buckeye rosters roared their approval of Hoop's play.

While the exponents of the Scarlet scourge from Columbus went completely out of their minds in their delirium, the Wolverine dressing room on the other side of the tunnel was like a tomb. One after one, the Wolverine players filed out, their heads bowed, their dreams blasted, their myth of superiority shattered.

Fritz Crisler, the Wolverine athletic director, trudged out of the locker room with a twisted, forced smile on his face. Coach Bennie Oosterbaan was in worse shape as he was like a man who couldn't believe what had happened.

One ex-Michigan Daily Sports Editor remarked, "Well, I guess Bennie knows the score that he won't be coaching football at Michigan too much longer." And that from a person who had been praising Oosterbaan to the highest clouds just a few weeks previous.

As would naturally be expected, the Bucks exuberant head coach Woody Hayes was completely happy. He had master-minded a perfect game from the Ohio standpoint.

Even at the game's commencement, Hayes displayed his guile by holding his team in the dressing room till the last possible moment while Michigan's first eleven men cooled their heels on the gridiron. Then, right at 1:30 p.m., the Bucks roared out of the tunnel which indeed must have been a frightening sight to the Wolverines as their play indicated throughout the afternoon.

For three quarters, Michigan was still in contention although outplayed from here to Pasadena and back. Then, in the last 15 minutes of play, something happened to the Wolverines that has not occurred in the remembrance of Wolverine supporters.

Michigan simply lost its poise, they didn't block or tackle in their usual manner. They yielded 14 additional points to the spirited Bucks.

Midst this scene of utter Wolverine frustration, the Buckeye supporters were soothing their pain of many previous sad partings in Ann Arbor by taunting the Maize and Blue loyalists with their special hymn, "We're from Ohio, We Don't Give a Damn for the Blue State of Michigan."

Michigan just couldn't take this as exemplified by the fact that the much-heralded Ron Kramer, a fellow hot tempered lineman, and Sigmund, were ejected from the contest by the referee in the last two minutes.

Even in the stands Michigan fans and students displayed a high degree of rowdiness as they hurled aspersions at the character of the many Ohio State and Michigan State supporters who were assembled in the stadium to witness the fall of the giant.

But once outside the stadium, the Maize and Blue loyalists suffered back to their living reality and left the streets to the sound of OSU fans.

One such fan manifested his phantily up State Street holding an Ohio State banner in one hand and from the other hand trailed a tin stuffed Wolverine with the number 87 emblazoned on its chest depicting the fallen Bennie Oosterbaan.

CHICAGO (AP)—The Black Hawks won their first game in the NHL, beating the Boston Bruins 4-1 in the first game of the season.

Pistol Club Wins 4 Matches

The Spartan Pistol Club won four matches last week while dropping one match to Texas A&M.

The State team had a total score of 1373. That was good enough to beat San Jose Varsity Pistol Club with a team score of 1357; Pennsylvania Military College with 1215 points; the United States Merchant Marine Academy, 1294, and the San Jose Police School with a team score of 1281.

Texas A & M scored 1402 points to take this week's honors. Jim Flannery, was high scorer for State with a score of 283 out of 300 points.

Gridders Look to Rose Bowl After Annual Banquet Tonight

Top Awards Will Be Postponed

Election of Captain After Bowl Game

Roses (what else?) will adorn the table tonight when Michigan State's football team holds its annual banquet in the Union.

Because of the roses, and their implication, the main features of the banquet will be missing.

Election of a captain for next year and presentation of awards for this year's outstanding players will be postponed until after State's Jan. 2 date in Pasadena.

Capt. Buck Nystrom will continue to lead his conquering Spartans through the bowl game.

No additional injuries were picked up in Saturday's win over Marquette. Clarence Peaks, who wrenched his knee early in the second half, will be ready for bowl action, according to Dr. James Feurig, team physician.

But two senior performers, guard Embury Robinson and halfback Jerry Musetti, will miss the New Year's action, Feurig said.

Robinson is recovering from a knee injury and Musetti has a bad elbow.

Head Coach Duffy Daugherty said Sunday he did not yet have any definite plans for pre-game practice sessions.

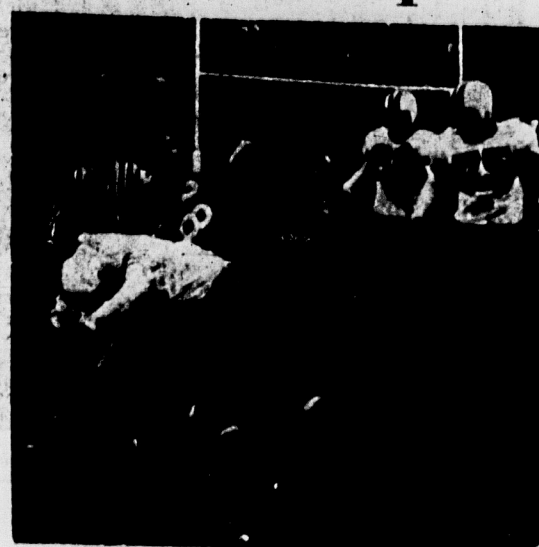

Nor, he said, did he have any concrete ideas regarding the traveling roster for the game.

The 19 rule stipulate that a team may take 44 players.

Last year Ohio State dressed 44 players but took their entire 70-man squad to the game—a precedent which will be hard to break.

According to a Rose Bowl agreement, each team will be allowed films of two of its opponents' games for scouting purposes.

Daugherty did not indicate which two UCLA films he would request for that purpose.

Denny Mendyk is pulled down by two Marquette players deep in State's territory. Mendyk had his best game in collegiate football as he gained 121 yards on 12 carries to become State's top ground-rainer for the day.

Spartans, Uclans Top Bowl List

TCU Selected for Cotton Bowl Game

By The Associated Press

Michigan State and UCLA, third and fifth respectively in the national football rankings, have another Rose Bowl rendezvous scheduled Jan. 2 at Pasadena.

Michigan State, which won a wild battle from UCLA there two years ago 28-20, was formally named as the Big 10 representative Sunday. UCLA's selection was a matter of routine.

The UCLA Bruins, beaten only by Maryland this year, clinched their third straight Pacific Coast Conference championship and the bowl spot by humbling Southern California 17-7.

Michigan State took the side track, gaining the Big 10 bid when Ohio State, repeating as conference titleholder and ineligible for the Pasadena trip, cut down Michigan in a game which ended in a near brawl 17-0.

Texas Christian was chosen for the Cotton Bowl at Dallas after its 35-0 rout of Rice, leaving the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans as the only post season fixture with a cupboard bare.

Here is how the bowl picture stacks up:

ROSE BOWL — Michigan State (8-1) vs. UCLA (9-1).

ORANGE BOWL — Oklahoma (9-6) vs. Maryland (9-0).

COTTON BOWL — TCU (8-1) vs. team to be selected. The Cotton Bowl wants Navy if the letter can beat Army next Saturday. Otherwise, the nod will go to one of the southeastern teams or possibly Pittsburgh.

SUGAR BOWL — Mississippi, Georgia Tech and Auburn leading candidates with Vanderbilt winner of its last six, a dark horse.

Freshman Grid Squad Plays Today at Macklin

The Spartan freshman football squad closes out its fall training sessions with the annual Green-White today at 3:30 p.m. in Macklin Stadium.

The scoreboard will be used and actual game conditions will prevail.

Last week two freshman Green and White squads played an abbreviated contest on Old College Field. The Green won 12-0 and were paced by former All-State halfback Art Johnson.

This year's team, regarded by some as one of the best in MSU's history, features heavy linemen and fleet backs.

The Green will be paced by such outstanding backfield men as Johnson, River Rouge's Blanche Martin and Bill Postrees from Pittsburgh, Pa. Westinghouse.

The Green line has Ed Barto, an All-Stater at Royal Oak, who

Rather B Wins Turkey Bowl

The first annual Turkey Bowl got off to a dubious start last Saturday morning. In the game Rather B defeated Rather A 12-0.

The football field was covered by a three inch blanket of snow. Referees couldn't be located and it looked as if the crowning of the queen would never take place.

Finally five girls did come and officials were recruited from the scattered spectators.

The queen was Betty Hlavacek while the other four girls were chosen as members of her court.

There was no scoring in the game until the third period when Skip Schmitt passed 50 yards to Ted Cappelletti. The conversion was missed.

With three minutes to go the combination of Schmitt to Cappelletti again connected for a TD.

Zagers' Run Paces 'Skin Win

CHICAGO (AP)—The Washington Redskins kept their divisional title chances healthy Sunday with a fast start and finish which produced a 31-0 triumph over the sluggish Chicago Cardinals before 16,961 at Comiskey Park.

The Redskins, stunning the Cards with Bert Zagers' 33-yard punt return for a touchdown on Washington's first offensive play of the game, remained a game behind the pace-setting Cleveland Browns.

It was Washington's second straight shutout victory.

Cleveland leads the National Football League's eastern division with a 7-1 record, followed by Washington with 6-3, each team with three games left to play.

Ralph Guglielmi's eight-yard scoring pass to Vic Janowicz late in the game went scoreless 36 minutes before the Redskins counted 17 in the fourth period.

The third Washington touchdown came on Eddie LeBaron's 31-yard pass to Johnny Carson. Guglielmi was in charge of Washington's attack most of the first half and little LeBaron ran the Redskins' second half.

Janowicz, runner-up for league scoring honors entering Sunday's game, boosted a 29-yard field goal to make it 24-0 and with his four extra point around up with 13 points for the day and 73 for the season. Don Mostachino's 10-yard run produced the final Washington touchdown.

Lions Streak Snapped

DETROIT (AP)—Harlon Hill fooled Detroit pass defenders twice with his baffling fakery to catch two touchdown passes in the third quarter and lead the Chicago Bears to a 24-14 victory over the Lions Sunday before 53,610 spectators in Briggs Stadium.

The victory was the sixth straight for the Bears and pushed them into undisputed possession of first place in the western division of the National Football League.

The Bears, who lost their first three games of the season, now have a 6-3 record compared to Los Angeles' runner-up mark of 5-3-1. The Rams, who had been tied with the Bears, were held to a 17-17 standoff by Baltimore Sunday.

Hill, an elusive end from Little-known Florence Teachers College of Alabama, picked off tosses of 20 and 40 yards from quarterback Ed Brown for his seventh and eighth touchdowns of the season.

On both plays Hill feigned Detroit defenders out of position to make the tallies possible.

He spun away from Carl Kautsavage on the first one, making an over-the-shoulder catch of Brown's 20-yard strike in the end zone. On the other, Hill employed a stop-go pattern to shake loose from Bill Stitt and catch Brown's pass in the clear for a 40-yard score.

What's doing at Pratt & Whitney Aircraft

World Travel in the Jet Age

Carrying forward a great tradition of American leadership in aviation, a team of four world-famous organizations has ushered in a new era in commercial transportation. Between December 1958 and January 1961, Pan American World Airways, who pioneered trans-oceanic air travel with Pratt & Whitney Aircraft piston engines, will put into passenger service twenty Boeing 707 and twenty-five Douglas DC-8 jet transports. This fleet of airliners will be powered by twin-spool axial-flow jet engines, designed and developed by Pratt & Whitney Aircraft.

Behind this significant achievement lie countless engineering man-hours. The development of a jet turbine powerplant with more than 10,000 pounds of thrust, entailed far more than performance on paper. By the time the engine was proved experimentally in 1950, Pratt & Whitney Aircraft engineers had coped with some of the most complex problems of present-day engineering. Just how successfully they solved them is well evidenced by the widespread use of the J-57 turbojet in today's military aircraft for both intercontinental and supersonic flight.

Boeing 707 Stratoliner has already established a trans-continental round-trip record. Powered by eight PWA J-57 engines, it flew from Seattle to Washington, D.C. and back in 8 hours and 6 minutes—an average speed of 581 mph.

Douglas DC-8 Clipper is the latest in a long line of famous transports. Cruising at 575 mph, 30,000 feet above the earth, it will set new standards in speed and comfort, along with the Boeing Stratoliner. Travelling 945 miles per minute, these planes will span the Atlantic in less than 7 hours.

Pratt & Whitney Aircraft J-57 Turbojet is one of two versions of the jet engines for the Boeing 707 and the Douglas DC-8. The most powerful production aircraft engine in the world, it already powers America's most important types of military airplanes.
