Soil Bank Money Approved

Benson Calls It 'Gold Brick'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee voted $1,200,000,000 for a soil bank program Thursday, but Secretary of Agriculture Benson called it a "gold brick" that can't be used to help farmers.

"They put the cart before the horse," Benson said. "Appropriating $1,200,000,000 for the soil bank recommended by the President without giving us the authority to use it for the soil bank certainly won't help our farmers."

"Obviously," he added, "appropriating money that can't be spent won't give our farmers the soil bank they want."

Benson issued his statement after testifying before the Senate Agriculture Committee, that he cannot put the soil bank program into operation without new legislation.

Action in the Appropriations Committee came with a rush and was the latest move in a continuing struggle over farm relief legislation in this important election year.

The committee voted 36-7 in favor of the big fund for "acreage reserve and soil conservation payments."

It was not immediately explained how the committee expected the Agriculture Department to put the program into operation on a broad scale this year since many Southern crops have already been planted and weeding is under way in the North. Presumably many farmers would have to plow up some of their plantings in order to benefit.

Chairman Cannon said the motion approved by his Appropriations Committee would be made available during the calendar year and would be spent by the President in any way he sees fit under farm law.

Honeymoon in Mediterranean

Grace Says Final Marital Vows

MONTE CARLO (AP)—Princess Grace and Prince Rainier III took their final marriage vows in the austere Monacan cathedral Thursday and sailed into the misty blue Mediterranean on their honeymoon.

"Are you happy, Grace?" came an American shout at the dock.

Her Serene Highness didn't answer, but the Prince smiled and nodded emphatically.

Grace, 26, and the 32-year-old sovereign of this little principality—united Wednesday in civil rites—became man and wife in the eyes of the Roman Catholic Church in the cathedral ceremony. They exchanged plain gold band rings.

They cut a four-foot-high wedding cake before their brilliantly dressed guests in the sunlit courtyard of the palace. About two hours later came the getaway, starting with a drive in their big American car down the long road that hugs the rocky cliff to the quay.

'Brothers' Stage Fraternity Raid On Delta Chi

A prankish fraternity raid on the MSU Chapter of Delta Chi was cut short, early Thursday morning, by state police.

Five Western Michigan College students, all fraternity brothers, were apprehended by police while in the process of taking athletic trophies and some home furnishings.

The raiders were picked up by police who noticed their unlighted car parked with the motor running.

Held overnight in the East Lansing jail, the students were released later Thursday as charges of breaking and entering were not pressed.

One of the students was injured while leaving the premises and taken to Olin Health Center. He was released immediately with only minor injuries.

Fowler to Leave For New Base

Lt. Col. O. E. Fowler, AFGTC director of training, will leave at the end of this month for the air force base at Lincoln, Neb. He has been here four years.

Maj. F. C. Lohman, in charge of training staff, will go to O'Donnell Air Force Base, Wichita, Kan., in June. After 12 weeks training, he will be sent to the Operational Strategic Air Command Wing at March Air Force Base in Riverside, Calif., where he will become air craft commander of B-47 Stratojets.

Also transferring at the end of this term are: Capt. William L. Baldwin, B. W. Innis and Philip V. Yager; M. Sgt. Thomas W. Reynolds, and T. Sgt. Robert L. Baunoch.

At the quay, with engines purring, was their white 300-ton yacht Deo Juvante II, whose name the Prince interprets as meaning "God helps us."

U. S. Gives Support to Baghdad

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—The United States promised Thursday to give both moral and material support to the five-nation Baghdad Alliance created to protect the Middle East from possible Communist aggression.

The undertaking, announced by U.S. Undersecretary of State Loy Henderson, appeared to tie the United States as closely as possible to the pact without actually signing and ratifying the Baghdad Treaty.

Henderson made his announcement at the close of the four-day conference here of Ministers of Britain, Turkey, Iraq, Iran and the Baghdad Pact governments—Pakistan.

The United States has displayed reluctance to become a member of the Alliance. But Henderson said it had joined two of the organization's committees, would set up a military liaison office and would contribute to the cost of its permanent secretariat.

Evart leads a bloc of Arab nations which has denounced the Alliance and objected especially to membership of Iraq, the only Arab nation among the five. Delegates of other pact nations have assumed Washington holds back from full membership because it seeks to avoid offending Egypt and Saudi Arabia.

Dean's Son Becomes Ice Champ at 12

By PAT MELOY

Tim is the son of Dr. Thomas Hamilton, dean of the Basic College, and vice president in charge of on-campus education.

Although Tim has studied ice skating for only a year and a half, he won the title of Midwestern Juvenile Men's Champion this February in Cleveland, Ohio.

To win the competition, sponsored by the United States Figure Skating Assn., he placed first in both the compulsory school figures demonstration and the free skating division. Next year, he will try his skill in reaching the next rung

They stood side by side on the bridge, truly alone for the first time since the bride's arrival in Monaco a week ago.

As the yacht nosed through the passage, two rockets shot into the air releasing parachutes carrying American and Monacan flags.

Monaco, after a hectic week, began to return to normal.

The bright, pleasant, and not too solemn cathedral wedding was played out under blazing movie lights to complete the marriage begun Wednesday in the red and gold Throne Room of the ancient castle on Monaco's tiny peninsula.

By law, they were married in the civil wedding. But the name of God never was mentioned then.

At the Cathedral ceremony, a page boy dropped a ring and the Rev. Francis, Tucker, the Prince's American chaplain, scrambled to the sanctuary carpet for it. Grace's veil got caught under her chair. Rainier's sword tangled in his legs.

One of the bride's cousins, Mrs. Jeanne Goff of Westport, Conn., fainted from emotional tension just out of sight of the altar and had to be carried out on a stretcher.

Burglars took advantage of the concentration of police forces in the hotels to protect jewelry at wedding guests — already taken plundered — and lifted a private art collection of rare paintings worth $95,000.

While there is no national competition in the juvenile or novice divisions, Tim did attend the national junior and senior meet at Philadelphia as a spectator. There, he said, he was impressed by the performance of the national, world, and Olympics champion figure skater, Hayes Allen Jenkins.

What goes into the making of Tim's championship performance? As one might expect, it's mainly hard work and good training.

Phillips Hall Gives $700 To Olympics

Residents Vote For Contribution

Seven hundred dollars from Phillips Hall's treasury is going into the Olympic Fund.

Results of a fifteen-minute ballot taken Thursday at the noon and evening meals, showed 211 out of 236 votes cast in favor of donating the money to the Olympic drive.

Free tickets to the ice show on May 5, and the television show following, will be made available to Phillips residents, according to Bill Mansfield.

Items on the other ballots were: transfer of funds to the new dorms; most Phillips men expect to have next fall purchase of new equipment, to be contributed to the music room of the Union; bearing an inscription from Phillips Hall, division of the money between present president and a special dinner for all Phillips men.

Mansfield, general co-chairman of the Spartan Olympic Committee, commended the Phillips residents for their contribution and hoped that other living units would also make contributions. A check for the pledged amount will be presented by the dorm council president the night of the television show.

Track Films Scheduled For Telethon

Spartan Olympic Telethon operators will take an occasional visual trip to far lands May 5 to witness previous Olympic events.

Films of the 1952 track and field events held at Helsinki, Finland, and 1955 Pan American games from Mexico City, Mexico, have been obtained from the U.S. Olympic Committee, said Bill Mansfield, co-chairman of the project.

These films will be part of the entertainment scheduled for the four-hour benefit telethon program to raise funds for the U.S. Olympics.

Mansfield stated he had contacted Kenneth "Tag" Wilson, U.S. Olympic Association president, who indicated he would appear on the telethon if at all possible.

The East Lansing Chamber of Commerce is working with the East Lansing Merchants and other local community groups to promote and assist funds for the event.

Television production of the benefit will be headed by Howard Finch, WJIM-TV, Lansing. Pat Callahan, Charles Hurling and Lee Fittsmecht, WKAR-TV, university station, and Greg Chaffin, WTOM-TV, Lansing.

land meet. Tim takes three lessons a week, supplemented by 100 hours of practice. This means getting up at 6:30 each morning in order to skate until school time and scheduling extra practice sessions during the evenings and all-day Saturdays and Sundays.

In the month before the trip to Cleveland, Tim even gave up his lunch hour for extra rehearsals.

Tim's interest in skating started when his family moved to MSU in the summer of 1953, and he had a chance to watch the summer skating school at Den Hall.

Last summer, he skated a solo in the Lansing Club's summer show, a program similar to formed to the recent "Ice Capades." When the summer season opens, he will start practice for the summer's show, to be held in mid-August.

"Like any 12-year-old, Tim can't afford to neglect his studies. His instructor is helpful in this respect. When they were in Cleveland, Miss Thomson insisted Tim work on his studies in the hotel rather than yielding to the temptation to watch other competitors in the evening ice program."

What about Tim's future education? Dean Hamilton said he wants Tim to select his college according to its academic curriculum. Tim has a different criterion in mind. He's looking for a "school with a good rink and a well-known 'grove'."

Ticketing Starts Today On 'No Smoking' Law

Violation tickets will replace warning notices beginning today and will be given to all students caught violating the new smoking ordinance.

The two-week preliminary period ended Thursday and now, instead of receiving a reprimand, violators will be charged with a misdemeanor and summoned to appear in Lansing Township Justice Court.

The ordinance was passed Mar. 17 by the State Board of Agriculture and is more liberal than the old rules. However, stricter enforcement of the rules, particularly in the library, has been promised.

The library, which has been patrolled for two weeks by staff administrators and one plainclothesman from the Department of Public Safety, will continue to be closely watched.

Compliance with the new rules has been very good, said Richard O. Bennett, assistant director of public safety. Only one warning ticket has been given in the two weeks, he said.

The new ordinance prohibits smoking in classrooms, lecture halls, teaching laboratories, bars and food buildings and in the vicinity of buildings used to store combustible materials, except where specifically approved by the Safety Department.

William Gustafson of the Saginaw News will discuss the use of the 35 mm camera for news work on Saturday. Other speakers Saturday will be: Wilbur Nelson, MSU photographer; Perry D. Warner, Post-Cereals; Ken Lowe, Marquette Mining Journal; Bob Harrington, Michigan State Conservation Department; Vern Whaley, Chicago Herald-American; and Murray Young and H. C. Gallup of East Lansing.

The winners of the Michigan State photography prize contest will be announced in the final session Saturday afternoon. Awards will be given in sports, nature, personality, news work and picture stories.

UN Chief Scores Big Triumph

Ben-Gurion Talks Clinch Agreement

JERUSALEM (AP)—Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld of the United Nations announced Thursday Egypt and Israel had put into effect a new and unconditional cease-fire on their strife-torn border.

It was his first big accomplishment on a two-week-old Middle East peace mission for the Security Council. He said both governments told him they had ordered their forces not to shoot across or pass over the armistice demarcation line after 6 p.m. Wednesday.

Both sides agreed to the cease-fire more than a week ago but had reserved the right to fire in self-defense.

Hammarskjöld held two private meetings with Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion Thursday on how to maintain the cease-fire. He had conferred with Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser in Cairo and with Lebanese officials in Beirut before coming here.

His assignment is to secure compliance with the 1949 armistice agreements of Israel with Egypt, Jordan, Lebanon and Syria and reduce tensions along the demarcation lines fixed by those agreements. He is to report to the Council by May 4.

Shortly before the cease-fire announcement, an Egyptian military spokesman in Cairo said an Israeli patrol fired with automatic weapons for 15 minutes Thursday morning on an Egyptian post near Deir el Ballah in Egypt's Gaza strip.

The strip's frontier was the scene of major clashes two weeks ago. The spokesman said Egypt suffered no casualties Thursday, did not fire back, but complained to the Egypt-Israeli U.N. Mixed Armistice Commission that Israel had violated the armistice.

Sources in Cairo close to the U.N. said Hammarskjöld's next big job would be to perpetuate the Egyptian-Israeli cease-fire.

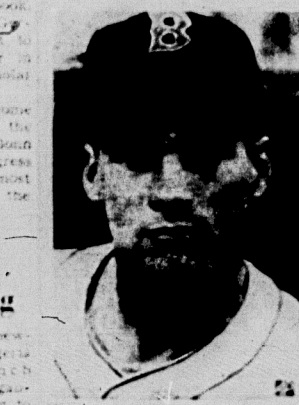

He aims to do this, they explained, first by eliminating points of friction and second by setting up a system whereby UN observers might unquestionably identify the guilty party in any violation.

By PATTI KELSEY
State News Woman's Assistant Editor

The members of the colony of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity have been in the process of finishing the renovation of their newly acquired house and are now ready for their long-awaited formal installation as the Gamma Kappa chapter.

Alpha Sigma Phi was first organized on campus in November, 1954 having 11 pledges by January, 1955.

The installation banquet will take place Saturday at 6:30 p.m. in the Centennial Room of Kellogg Center. Dr. Wilbur H. Gramblat, past national president of Alpha Sigma Phi and now president of the Christian Board of Publication, of St. Louis, Mo., will be the guest speaker.

At this time, the charter will be formally presented by Ralph E. Burns, executive secretary of Alpha Sigma Phi, to Marvin Rank, president of the colony. Present at the banquet will be undergraduates from 15 chapters including Purdue, Minnesota, Illinois, Ohio State, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa.

Sunday, from 3-5 p.m., an open house will be held for all sororities and fraternities at the house. Under the direction of Tom Farrell, Alpha senior, men associated with the fraternity have given up much of their time to prepare the house for occupancy after their installation.

During spring vacation, a group of six and pledges worked on the house. The members themselves took over the handy work in painting, completing the carpentry work, tile-laying and drawing up plans for the kitchen facilities.

Bert Says

Just Waiting...

By ALBERTA BANKY
State News Society Editor

Upon arriving on campus for the first time last Fall, one of the most frequent comments heard was — wait until Spring. The campus looks nice in the Fall, but wait until Spring term. There's nothing like it—sunbathing on the sun decks, canoeing down the Red Cedar—just wait. Well, Mr. Weatherman, we're waiting.

Although the weather has remained on the coolish side, we started our "spring" inventory, and decided there should be some changes made. One of the first decisions made was to appoint Patti Kelsey, Berkley sophomore, assistant to Woman's editor.

We also noticed that engagements of students who didn't belong to a fraternity or sorority didn't appear in the paper. From now on, they will be included in Social Circuit. Just bring the information, in name, hometown, year, to the Woman's office and put it in Joyce Robb's box.

The deadline for all news is Wednesday 12 noon. All fraternities and sorority news must be received by PanHellenic Public Relations Board. Fraternity officers will be published as soon as we receive the complete list from HPC.

After we had finished our spring cleaning, we discovered missing and engagements which weren't printed last term, were brought out. The only solution is to bring them in again. We are striving to keep Social Circuit up to date. In order to achieve our purpose, the announcements will only be published once, not under both the fraternity and sorority as they were in the past.

Spring Rush Lengthened To 5 Weeks

Spring rush began this week for interested MSU coeds.

At Monday's PanHellenic meeting, it was announced that the length of spring rush had previously been misinterpreted. An earlier announcement of a four-week schedule was corrected in favor of the five week season.

Three meetings with an individual sorority's members are necessary before a coed may pledge. Coed dates, bridge parties or dinners at the house are included in the informal spring rush procedure.

Prospective rushers have been cleared "academically" and complete lists given to the sororities through their PanHellenic representatives. Coeds are asked to attend rush parties either by written invitation or by telephone. The necessary three meetings may be widely separated throughout the five week season, but coeds who are dropped will not be formally notified.

A letter, sent to rushers early this week, explains the important parts of the spring rushing procedure.

Softball Ace Plays Blindfolded

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Softball pitcher Eddie Feigner fans batters while blindfolded just to prove that the umpire always calls 'em the way he sees 'em.

Feigner says his 10-year strike-out record totals more than 27,000 batters fanned, with some 1,500 of them victims of his technique while his eyes were covered.

A self-made king of the diamond, Feigner, 30, of Walla

Walla, Wash., is the kingpin of a four-man softball team that plays regular nine-man teams from coast to coast, the West Indies and South America in tours from May to September.

The unique quartet, besides Feigner, includes catcher Meade Kinzer, shortstop Mike Mielicke and first baseman Jerry Jones. This is their 11th season of barnstorming.

Feigner hurls his variety in five speeds, from his slow fooler to his fast one. He doesn't use the fast one very often, only in the clutch, "because it's too fast for a catcher to catch safely."

In fact, he claims he can fire the 12-inch softball faster than Bob Feller could when he was the fastest pitcher in the American League.

Feigner's windup resembles a windmill, adding his own twists, turns and reverses as the impulse strikes him.

Television audiences—in New Orleans first saw him in 1950 when he tossed his "behind-the-back" and "through the legs" trick pitches. It was the tiny team's first TV appearance. Feigner expects to retire to a television program of his own when his arm gives out. "I want to help the kids and show them how to live clean lives," he says.

Feigner says his team's first game came about after it had defeated all the teams in the Northwest industrial leagues by such scores as 33-0. One day he told the manager of a beaten team that he could have done as well with only four players instead of nine.

A game was arranged. He pitched a shutout, striking out 19 and walking one. Two batters out the ball, one a pop fly to Jones and the other a grounder to Mielicke.

Since its first game, the team has won 949 games and lost 92. Eddie has pitched in 1,500 games in 15 years.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A footnote on that baseball President Eisenhower threw out to open the 1956 baseball season:

It was grabbed by Gil McDougald of the New York Yankees who returned with it to the President for his autograph.

"What's the name?" the President asked.

"McDougald," said the proud ball player, "Gil McDougald."

Well, you know how the presidential box is at a time like this. Noisy. Confused. The President signed, and McDougald hustled to the dugout to examine his treasure.

Athletics Down Bengals, 4-1, As Schantz Hurls Five-Hitter

DETROIT (AP)—The Kansas City Athletics bunched five singles for four runs in the fifth inning Thursday and went on to whip the Detroit Tigers 4-1 for their second straight victory. Bobby Shantz held the Tigers to five hits.

In one of his rare returns to the form that made him the American League's leading pitcher in 1955 with a 24-7 record, Shantz moved down the Tigers in order in four innings and faced more than four men only in the ninth.

First baseman Earl Torgeson sprained Shantz' shutout bid with a home run in the sixth inning.

As in the opening day loss to the Athletics, the Tigers threatened in the ninth. After Torgeson and Al Kaline went out, Ray Boone got his third hit—a line single to left. Bill Tuttle around the sparse crowd of 4,067 with another line shot to left.

But Jim Delsing ended it when he faced one of Shantz' curves to Vic Power's shortstop for the final out. The ninth was the only inning in which the Tigers threatened seriously.

They were retired in order in the first, third, fifth and seventh. Shantz scattered his hits well, permitting one each in the second, fourth and sixth before giving up two in the ninth.

He struck out only three men, but didn't walk a man. Tiger reliever pitchers quashed the Athletics' bats over the last four innings. The A's could get only two hits off the combined offerings of Paul Foytack, Dick Marlowe and Duke Madsen.

Steve Gromek, the veteran side arm, was in trouble almost all the way. He gave up two singles after retiring the first two men in the opening inning. Jim Fink got to him for a long double in the second and Jap Ginsberg, former Detroit catcher, singled with two down in the fourth. Only in the third inning did Gromek retire the side in order.

The Tigers left right after the game for Cleveland, where they will open a four-game series with an afternoon contest tomorrow. Right-hander Ned Garver will open for the Tigers against Earl Wynn, with lefty Bob Miller slated to go Saturday. Frank Lary, who lost a heartbreaker in the 2-0 opening day loss to the A's, will go in one of the Sunday games.

Score Loses Close One

CHICAGO (AP)—Herb Score, brilliant Cleveland southpaw, pitched a hitless ball until the eighth, but lost to the Chicago White Sox 1-0 Thursday when a walk, a two-base wild pitch and Larry Doby's sacrifice fly produced the game's only run in the seventh. Chicago's Jack Harshman allowed two hits, the same as Score.

Score, 1955's top rookie of the American League, yielded a lead-off single to Walt Dropo in the eighth and speedy Luis Aparicio beat out a hit to his White Sox predecessor at short, Chico Carrasquel.

But the 22-year-old Score, who was caught by catcher Earl Averill, making his major league debut, caused his own downfall in the seventh when he walked Minnie Minoso, then cut loose with the wild pitch.

This enabled Doby, the big figure in a Sox-Tribe winter trade, to end a string of five strikeouts with a blast to deep right field which Al Smith caught, but enabled Minoso to score the game's only run.

Like the White Sox, the Indians wired their only two hits of the game back-to-back in the fourth, but a leadoff single by Bobby Avila, in a ninth's following one-bagger went to score.

Harshman, who struck out five compared with Score's 19, pitched masterfully to throttle the only serious Indian bid. In the fourth, he got Al Rosen on an infield pop, nailed Vic Wertz on a fly to center and struck out Jim Busby.

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP)—Pinch hitter Rube Walker's sacrifice fly scored pinch runner Don Zimmerman in the 10th inning to give Brooklyn a 5-4 victory over Philadelphia Thursday in the first of seven home on the road games for the Brooklyn Dodgers at Roosevelt Stadium.

Trailing 4-3 in the last of the 10th, the Dodgers knocked out Murry Dickson and tied the score on Duke Snider's single and Roy Campanella's double, his 1,000th major league hit.

Duane Pillette, who took over for the Phils, walked Gil Hodges intentionally. After Jackie Robinson sacrificed, he also passed Carl Furillo intentionally, loading the bases.

Then Walker, batting for rookie Charlie Neal, flied to Richie Ashburn in right center, and Zimmerman, who ran for Campy, scored after the catch.

The Phils broke a 3-3 tie to go out front in the 10th inning as Clem Labine, who replaced Carl Erskine and became the evening's winner, Ashburn singled, then second, took third on Campanella's wild throw and scored when Grady Hamner doubled.

Summer Term Traffic Judge To Remain in Fall

One of two students appointed to preside on the Student Traffic Appeal Court this summer will remain in office fall and winter term replacing a justice who will be student teaching.

If other replacements are needed for fall, the other appointments will automatically be considered, said Roger Augustine, chief justice.

Petitions for these summer positions can be obtained in the student government office April 23-27.

Interviews are tentatively scheduled for April 30 and May 9. Petitioners will be notified for an appointment.

Students who attend the nine week summer session are preferred. They must carry 12 credit spring term and possess an all university two point.

Icardi Perjury Case Killed by Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP) — A judicial ruling Thursday killed the government's perjury case against Aldo L. Icardi, a case based on his denial of complicity in the strange World War II slaying of Maj. William V. Holohan.

U.S. Dist. Judge Richmond B. Keech ruled that a House Armed Services subcommittee, before which Icardi voluntarily testified in March 1953, was not functioning in furtherance of a valid legislative purpose.

He said the language of its report on its investigation into the disappearance and death of Holohan behind enemy lines in Italy in December, 1944, "indicates the functioning of the subcommittee as a committing magistrate."

After delivering his 12-page legal opinion, Judge Keech directed a jury of six men and six women to acquit Icardi, 35, now a Pittsburgh real estate broker. Icardi, a former Army lieutenant, was second in command of the cloak-and-dagger OSS mission, headed by Holohan, 40, a Harvard-educated lawyer.

Unofficial estimates were that the government spent more than $100,000 in its investigation of the Holohan case and its preparations for the trial of Icardi.

While the verdict cleared Icardi of six perjury charges, it had no direct effect on the disputed facts of the Holohan case.

Likewise, it did not concern itself with the truth or falsity of Icardi's testimony before the subcommittee.

Judge Keech questioned the propriety of the subcommittee's report, which said there was "probable cause" for charging Icardi and former Sgt. Carl LoDolce of Rochester, N.Y., with murder and embezzlement, but that they were not subject to prosecution under existing civil or military law.

He Should Have Stayed in Bed

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — The man complained to police that a motorist parked by his bedroom window, early every morning, and blasted him out of bed by blowing his horn.

Patrolman Gerald Wiseman was sent down to investigate.

The car owner drove up, gave a "heey" on his horn, and a woman ran out of an apartment building to go to work with him.

The patrolman passed on the complaint to the driver.

Now that fellow who likes to sleep late is looking for another place to live. The woman rider was his landlady, and she got mad about the complaint.
