'Bus Stop' Pegged As Good Comedy

Thursday night's performance of "Bus Stop" might just as well have been titled "The Human Comedy" considering the elements of human nature and humor brought out so well by the cast.

Midwest Hit By Carpet George Latchford, starring in the male lead as Bo, certainly more than met any expectations placed upon him. His method of presenting the role showed an extremely fine sense of timing. It is symptomatic of their attitude, that the Arab na their attitude, that the Arab na-tions failed to support the re-cent vote of the United Nations General Assembly which called-upon Russia to halt her aggre-sion against Hungary. Events have proven that the only na-tion in the Middle East upon which the West can count for support in the struggle against Communist Russia is democratic Israel, and both the Arabs and Russians are well aware of this

What can now be done to bring peace to the Middle East? This is a difficult problem and the Arab-Israeli conflict is only one aspect of the entire picture

The East and West must alrive at some compromise of their policies in the Middle East instead of using the Arab-Israeli conflict to further their own programs. I believe this is the most important aspect of this problem, and unless East and West can come to some kind of agreement, strife will continue and even grow worse in the Middle East.

Needless to say, our own country must do all it can to help solve these problems, if an atomic war is to be averted. No American citizen in this day can afford to be uninformed of these and other sources of conflict in the world.

Varsity Cagers Impress In Victory Over Frosh

Michigan State's varsity basketball team, sparked by the superior play of center Charlie Bencie, overpowered the freshman squad Wednesday afternoon for an easy victory in 20 minutes of play.

Bencie had his best day to date, according to Coach Forddy Anderson. His passing was tops, and his shooting and rebounding were highly improved.

The rest of the first team— George Ferguson, Larry Hedden, Harry Lux and Jack Quiggle— also looked impressive in beat-ing the aggressive but inexper-ienced freshmen five.

As happy as he was with his first unit, Anderson was unhappy with the all-sophomore second team of Dave Scott, Ton Rand, Gary Siegmeier, Tom Markovich and Bob Anderegg.
"Their passing was erratic

"Their passing was erratic and their shooting poor," commented Anderson. "They just didn't play well together."

The team will review Thursday's scrimmage today and concentrate on free throw shooting. This was one of the Spartans' its weaknesses last year, as they big weaknesses last year, as they finished ninth in that category in the Big 10.

the Big 10.

The eagers will serimmage Saturday morning at 10. A feature of the workout will be offensing against a zone defense.

We feel several conference teams will be using the zone this year," commented Anderson,

Heading the Gophers will be quarterback Bobby Cox, who leads the team in rushing and along with Dick Larson handles most of the passing duties. Full-back Rich Borstad is the leading score on the club with two touchdowns, eight conversions and a pair of field goals for 26 points. Anderson also announced the annual Green-White game will take place Nov. 27 in Jenison Fieldhouse. The varsity will be divided into two teams of equal strength and will play 40 minutes under full game conditions. Admission will be free to all students and faculty.
