DRIPPY
Occasional snow or drizzle and slightly colder weather are forecast for the Lansing area today. Winds will be variable. The high temperature reading will be near 38, following a low Sunday night of 34.

One of the many beautiful scenes in "Silver Blades," the ice show starring Carol Heiss Friday night at Dem Hall. The show, sponsored by student government, took place before a SRO crowd.

Beauty, Comedy Featured Overflowing Crowd Sees 'Silver Blades'

By NELDA TROUT
A capacity audience with "standing room only" filled Dem Hall to overflowing Saturday night for the first annual Silver Blades Ice Capades, starring Carol Heiss, world champion figure skater.

Forty minutes before the performance, crowds had already begun to pack the main entrance, waiting for some 200 standing room tickets to be put on sale at 8:30.

The opening production number to the background of "America," entitled "Salute to Liberty," featured Miss Heiss.

Tim Hamilton, second place winner in junior men's competition in the Niagara Invitational Meet, performed the solo he plans to enter in the Mid-Western championship meet in Sioux City, Iowa, next month.

A novelty number in the program was three kittens in fluffy white costumes with pink ears, Mama and Papa Kitty had to represent Junior several times for his pranks.

Two members of the Detroit Skating Club performed a duet, exhibiting several difficult stunts.

Elaine Geyer, University Heights, Ohio sophomore, was unexpectedly interrupted in her solo by a comic intruder on skis, who insisted that she too could perform the various stunts shown throughout the program. Miss Geyer then demonstrated the forward spiral, waist jump and spread eagle, with the skier finally conceding to the fact that skis are not the proper equipment for figure skating.

Nancy Heiss, national junior women's champion and alternate on the Olympic skating team this year, performed a solo while the three kittens, including brother Bruce, eastern novice champion, later presented a number in Swiss costumes.

Six younger members of the Lansing Skating Club presented the "Pony Ballet" from their summer ice revue to the music of Chopin's Fantaisie Impromptu.

Claire Waters, East Lansing senior, skated to blues music, while Detroit's Doug Ramsey, first place winner in this year's Niagara Invitational meet for junior men's division, demonstrated some quick footwork.

Another bit of humor entered the production in the form of the "flavish and precise ballet extraordinary," a men's octet.

Climaxing Saturday night's performances was a solo by Carol Heiss showing some of the figures by which she has won such honors as the Silver Medal Award in the 1956 Olympics and the title of most artistic skater of the U.S.

The choreography for the Student Government sponsored production was planned by Jean Arlen, director of last year's Olympic Ice Show.

All profits from the ice revue will go towards a special scholarship fund.

Ike Takes Oath In Quiet Ceremony

Polish Voters OK Gomulka's Policy

Continued Control Assured With New Parliament

WARSAW (AP)—Polish voters soberly endorsed Wladyslaw Gomulka's policy of "communism without tyranny" by an apparently overwhelming margin Sunday.

The endorsement came in the election of a new 459-member parliament which assures him continued control.

A warning from Gomulka that a Communist defeat would mean "crossing Poland off the map of Europe," got-out-the-vote appeals from the Roman Catholic Church and fear of Soviet intervention on the Hungarian model all figured in this third Polish election since World War II.

It was just three months ago that a wave of unrest ousted Stalinists from Poland's political scene and put Gomulka's independence-minded Reds in the driver's seat.

Independent reports from across the country showed a great majority of the 17 million eligibles turned out and that most "voted the list," filling the National Front's single ticket of Communists and fellow travelers in the ballot boxes without alteration.

That meant Gomulka's United Workers (Communist) Party, which controls 273 of the 425 seats in the present parliament, will continue to run things. Among the total of 722 candidates—Communists, Democrats and United Peasants—the Communists will come out with the lion's share. Final official results are expected by Tuesday.

The list in each district was topped by Communists. Then came United Peasant and Democratic candidates. In one district, for instance, 10 men might be running for five seats.

If a voter simply dropped the ballot in the box the men of the National Front listed in the first five places got the jobs automatically. But voters had the right in this election to pencil out the names of any candidates they did not want to reelect.

Gomulka had warned against that, fearing the fellow travelers might make such gains through cancellation of Communist names as to embarrass his party and prompt reprisal moves from the Soviet Union. However, both the Democrats and the United Peasants are pledged, like the Communists, to his policies.

Argentinian Film Is Here Tonight

"Dark River," award winner at the Cannes, Venice and Rome Film Festivals, comes to Fairchild Theater tonight in the MSU Foreign Film series.

The Argentinian film will be shown at 7 and 9 p.m.

"Dark River," an expose of slave-labor conditions on plantations in Argentina was blocked for foreign export for three years by the police censors of that country. The film stars its producer-director, Hugo Del Carril, and the Latin American star, Adriana Benetti.

"A Prince for Cynthia," a fantasy about a modern Cinderella, will be shown in addition to the feature.

Activities Calendar Available in UB Office

Extra Union Board calendars, such as those handed out at registration, are available now in the UB office in the Union.

The calendars list various university activities for winter term, including sports events, Lecture-Concert series numbers, tournaments, and dances.

The Glee Club in Lorain Concert Appearance

In Town for Inauguration

Glee Club Tours Washington

WASHINGTON—With two big shows already under its belt, the MSU Men's Glee Club spent Sunday sight-seeing around the nation's capital and rehearsing for the "main event"—the President's Inaugural Ball tonight.

A scheduled reception with Michigan politicians in the capital was called off Sunday because no space could be found for the event.

The Glee Club left Friday morning and gave a concert that night in Lorain, Ohio. On the way one of the buses froze up and had to be pushed 50 miles on the Ohio turnpike.

Late Saturday the group arrived in Washington and rushed through a hurried rehearsal for the night's inauguration festivities—a pair of giant stage shows.

The Glee Club sang at each show, one at the Uline Arena and the other at the Capital Theater, making the shuttle trip with a police escort. The three songs they sang at the two shows were "Bless This House," "Surround With the Prince on Top" and "I Can't Believe That You're in Love With Me."

The group provided eight members to back up pop singer Pat Boone at one show to the tunes "I Believe" and "Don't Forbid Me."

Sunday the group split into eight sections to go sight-seeing with MSU alumni who live in the Washington area.

In the evening they invaded Fort Myer, Virginia, to rehearse for the big one tonight. They are scheduled to sing at the President's Ball at the Hotel Statler tonight and then give a personal performance for the President Tuesday morning.

Friday's freeze-up forced most of the men into the non-frozen bus, for warmth mostly. The buses stopped three times between East Lansing and Lorain to pour water into the radiator to prevent freezing, all to no avail eventually.

After the concert the club boarded the buses again for a trip to Bedford, Pa. In Bedford the Glee Club spent the night.

WKAR-TV Tells Of New 7-Day Television Plan

WKAR-TV began its fourth year Tuesday by announcing a new seven-day program schedule.

Channel 60 had been on the air on weekdays only, with occasional sports and special telecasts on weekends.

"WKAR-TV is broadcasting Saturdays and Sundays in order to more fully cover campus sports events, public affairs activities and to offer Sunday children's program previously not telecast in the Central Michigan area," station officials explained.

Channel 60 will operate Saturdays from 7:45 p.m. to 10 p.m. and Sundays from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. Weekday air time remains from 3:45 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Nine major sports events are scheduled. WKAR-TV for the first time will offer length feature films on Saturdays when the remote unit is not covering sports.

Delgrosso, a member of the MSU football squad, and Cronk live at 541 E. Grand River.

The trio was arrested at 2:29 a.m. Sunday morning following a fight in the 500 block of E. Michigan.

Inaugural Pageantry Set Today

Parade, Balls Highlight Event

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the serene, formal elegance of the White House East Room, Dwight D. Eisenhower took the Presidential oath Sunday and embarked on the second term of an administration beset by troubled peace but blessed with abounding prosperity.

He was sworn into office for another four years by Chief Justice Earl Warren. Immediately preceding him, in the same place, Vice President Nixon took the oath from Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California. By tradition, the Vice President is sworn in first.

The three-minute ceremony, held in the privacy of the White House because Inauguration Day fell on Sunday, was over by 10:29 a.m. EST, well in advance of the noon expiration of Eisenhower's first term.

Some 80 guests looked on at the oath-taking, mostly members of the Eisenhower and Nixon clans.

The event was short and solemn, but it was recorded for posterity only by a Navy cameraman and the pencilled notes of White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty.

News reporters and photographers were barred, over their protests.

Today at noon there will be a retake in front of the United States Capitol, with thousands of dignitaries looking on in person and millions peering over their shoulder through the eyes of television.

Afterward will come the big inaugural parade swinging down bedecked Pennsylvania Avenue from the Capitol to the White House.

There will be floats, bands, marching units, military missiles, an elephant, a working, watery miniature of Niagara Falls, and one gigantic 468-foot-long float depicting an America ruled by the consent of the governed.

Topping the day's formalities and festivities will come the four Inaugural Balls tonight.

Some 15,000 men and women in evening clothes will turn out to dance to "name" orchestras, quaff fruit punch and a champagne toast to the Eisenhowers, and promenade past them in grand marches.

Today's calendar included such major events as a reception for visiting governors and other high officials and the traditional Inaugural Concert, featuring such stars as Lily Pons and Ethel Merman, Peter Panter and Raymond Massey, the National Symphony Orchestra and Waring's Pennsylvania's.

The reception and concert were on Nixon's schedule, but the Eisenhowers passed them up.

The president secluded himself part of the day to work the last links out of today's Inaugural Address—an address that may run little more than 20 minutes. But he had time to chat with various other Eisenhower and in-laws assembled from over the nation to share in the Inaugural excitement.

Nixon Predicts Bill's Passage

Backs Ike's Mid-East Resolution

Speaks on Radio-TV Interview Sunday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon Sunday predicted Congress will pass President Eisenhower's Middle East resolution "substantially in the form that it has been proposed."

"I don't mean no changes at all will be made," Nixon said, adding that neither he nor President Eisenhower is necessarily "wedded" to the exact wording of the resolution.

But he said both the standing military authority and economic help provided in the resolution are needed "to create a really sound peace" and for this reason he said he does not believe Congress will put too many restrictions on the dispute economic aid provision.

Nixon spoke in a radio-television interview with Rep. Keating (R-N.Y.). The program was filmed before Friday's Moscow-Trip declaration of "any necessary support" to Middle East peoples against "aggression and interference" in their affairs.

The Vice President said Saturday the Communist pronouncement dramatically underscores why the free world "must not have a military or economic vacuum in that area." He made clear that he feels the Congressional resolution shot upward in the wake of the Red announcement.

In Sunday's broadcast Nixon said chances of peace are now "at least as good" as a year ago and he hopes to make them better.

Communists Arrest Seven Of Hungary's Top Newsmen

BUDAPEST, HUNGARY, (AP)—Seven of Hungary's best-known writers and newspapermen Sunday were reported arrested by the Communist government.

The arrests came as Hungarian newspapers reported the jailing of three railway employees accused of helping refugees get out of the country. Budapest radio announced the execution of two youths accused of counter-revolutionary activities.

This was coupled with a government campaign to lure back nearly 200,000 refugees who have fled to escape Russian rule.

The refugees have been told there is an amnesty until March 21 during which they will not be punished and they can even bring back their property without paying duty.

Almost daily broadcasts from Radio Budapest told of new executions and long prison sentences against "counter-revolutionaries," a theme hardly conducive to refugees to return.

People who still want to leave, are saying that rough border guards are making the Austrian freedom frontier less attractive. Many are looking now toward Yugoslavia, where much of the border lies along the Danube River or its tributaries.

'Distinct Success'

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Highlighted by Solos

By LYNN SHEPARD

With a program balanced by instrumental ensembles, instrumental and vocal solos and a choral group, the Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Sunday afternoon performance met with distinct success.

Although the ensembles did a highly creditable job, it was the solo work, notably Leonard Falcone and his Euphonium, which afforded the highpoint to the program.

Falcone's interpretive shadings, velocity in fingering and "Fantasia Original" prompted the Music Auditorium audience to demand an encore. With faculty pianist Henry Harris providing the accompaniment, Falcone selected the deliberate tempo of contemporary composer Maurice Ravel's "Habanera."

Probably topping the student performances, flutist John Boulton, a Birmingham Junior, successfully adapted to the many changing moods of Griffes' "Tone Poem." This sometimes flights, sometimes delicate, sometimes turbulent, sometimes meditative arrangement demanded all of Boulton's technical skill.

Completing the instrumental end of the performance, the Phi Mu Alpha Brass Sextet, Woodwind Quintet, Clarinet Quartet and Clarinet Duo furnished some fine listening in works of a shorter style. Talmadge's "Rain," performed by the Brass Sextet, didn't sound much like rain, but was outstanding, anyway.

In the only voice solo, baritone George Dentel, Lansing Junior, revealed a very promising talent with his interpretation of the spiritual, "Take My Mother Home."

Filling out the program, the Phi Mu Alpha Chorus, under the direction of Donald Hoopingarner, Detroit senior, provided something a little easier on the ear. Jerome Kern's ever-appealing love song, "The Way You Look Tonight."

Henry Wallace to Speak Here

Henry A. Wallace, former vice-president of the United States, will speak at MSU Jan. 31 as a part of the Farmer's Week program.

Wallace has also been Secretary of Agriculture and Secretary of Commerce. He set up the New Deal farm policy for President Roosevelt in 1933.

He was a candidate for president in 1948.

In interviews and speeches Wallace has been largely in agreement with the Eisenhower administration's farm program of flexible price supports.

In 1934 Wallace said "the farmers should face the economic facts of life" and that he would be happy and surprised if the U.S. farmer averages a return of 85 per cent of parity in the next 10 years.

The citizens of Bermuda stole 100 bags of powder from the British and shipped them to Boston to aid the American forces in the Battle of Bunker Hill. General George Washington sent them a letter of thanks.

He contributed to the development of hybrid corn and founded the first commercial cross-bred seed corn company.

Wallace has been editor of farm publications and also was editor of New Republic.

He has written several books including: "Statesmanship and Religion," "Price of Freedom," "Toward World Peace."

He has been working in plant and animal cross breeding in recent years.

Detroit Beats Rangers, 5-2

The Detroit Red Wings broke an exciting National Hockey League Contest wide open with three rapid fire goals early in the third period Sunday night for a 5-2 triumph over the New York Rangers.

After scoring one goal in each of the first and second periods by Marcel Pronovost and Alex Delvecchio respectively, the Wings' Gordie Howe, Dutch Reibel and Ted Lindsay all tallied in the final stanza to sew up the game. The Red Wings never trailed in the contest, and with Howe, Lindsay and Reibel scoring their third period goals within a span of four minutes, the Rangers' hopes completely faded.

In another contest, league-leading Montreal saw its lead cut to two points as the Canadian's were defeated, 4-2, by Chicago. The loss was Montreal's first in seven games.

Toronto edged Boston, 3-2, on the Bruins' home ice as Sid Smith slapped in a rebound shot in the third period to hand Boston its fifth straight loss.

In Thinclads' Time Trials

Lean Continues Good Showing

By HAL BATEMAN
State News Managing Editor

Dave Lean continued to post impressive times at the track team's time trials last weekend in Jenson Fieldhouse.

The lanky Australian, British Empire champion in the 440-yard hurdles, ran an amazing 1:10.8 for 600 yards Saturday after running 1:54.7 for the half mile on Friday.

In addition Lean coasted to an easy :52.6 for the 440 yard dash.

Lean's 600 time, the fastest clocking in the nation so far this season, equals the fieldhouse and varsity records set by fellow countryman Kevan Gosper two years ago. However, the time won't count because it was set in practice.

Coach Karl Schladehan has a pleasant problem with Lean because he must decide in which events to use him. Besides being the team's top hurdler, Lean is also the best Spartan in all events from the 300-yard dash to the 1,000 yard run.

Henry Kennedy, Big 10, IC-4A and NCAA champion, ran the fastest three-quarter mile Saturday, posting a 3:09.7. His brother, Fordy, was second in 3:11.7 and Gay Denslow ran 3:16.9 for third.

Ron Wheeler was clocked in 3:17.1 with freshman Bob Lake running 3:18.4 and Terry Block only a tenth of a second behind.

In addition to Lean's time, other 880 times under two minutes were freshman Willie Atterberry, 1:56.6; Fordy Kennedy, 1:57.2; Henry Kennedy, 1:58.6; and Selwyn Jones, 1:59.4. Freshman Charlie Bond was again the fastest sprinter, clocking :08.0 for the 75 yard dash after running :06.6 for the 60 yard dash on Friday.

Sophomore Bob Elliott and freshman Pat Ryan were both timed in :08.1. Sophomore Bruce Lillyblad ran :06.5 for the best 60-yard dash time.

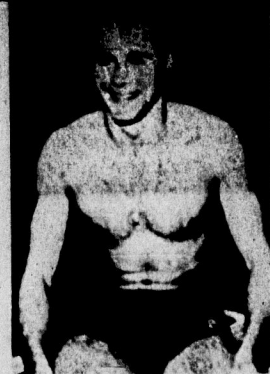

Bond and Elliott also ran the best 300-yard dash time with a :33.3. Ryan ran :33.7 while Sam Harris and Bob Hughes both posted :34.0 times.

Kelly Thompson ran the fastest time in the 75-yard high hurdles with a :10.0 flat with Doug McFetters running the fastest 75-yard low hurdles time in :08.9.

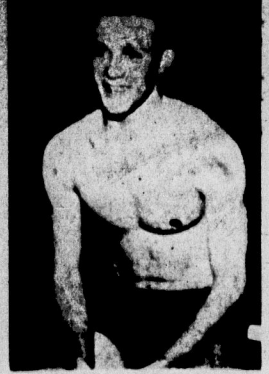

Atterberry posted 51.3 for the 110 for the best time in that event with freshman Brian Castle running :52.0 and Ted Tetzlaff :52.3.

In the field events George Best cleared 13 feet in the pole vault for the first time this year with Sam Elliott's throwing the shot put 47' 7 1/2" and Ron Lusik hitting 45' 6".

Tankers Crush Indianapolis

Register 74-34 Victory
To Remain Undeclared

By JERRY ROBBINS
State News Sports Editor

Michigan States' swimming team maintained its winning ways Saturday by outplashing the Indianapolis Athletic Club, 71-34.

The Spartans were in complete command from the start as they jumped to an early lead they never relinquished.

The Indianapolis tankers, composed mainly of high school swimmers, provided little competition as they were able to collect only three firsts and one second place.

Coach Chuck McCaffrey's crew started fast as the combination of Don Nichols, Paul Reinke, Rog Harmon and Larry Ellis capped the opening 400-yard medley relay with a fast 3:51.4. This performance bettered the old pool record of 3:54.5 set by Iowa State last season.

Capt. Jim Clemens kept the victory ship sailing smoothly by taking the 220-yard freestyle in 2:13.5 and Ken Gest and Jim Lanker placed one-two in the 50-yard freestyle.

Bill Barton of Indianapolis found the confines of Jenson Pool to his liking as he was the only double-winner of the afternoon and set records in both events.

Barton outplashed Les Lobaugh and Wally Dobler in the 200-yard individual medley. His time of 2:12.9 bettered the old Jenson mark of 2:15 set by Ohio State's Al Wiggins in 1956.

Michigan State's strong butterfly duo of Rog Harmon and Tom Kwasny found Barton a little faster than expected. Although Harmon and Kwasny placed second and third respectively, Barton won handily in 2:13 flat, to slash the old pool record of 2:15.3 set by Michigan's John Davies in 1952.

In the century freestyle, Gordy Fornell and Frank Parrish splashed their way home for first and second places respectively.

The Spartans ran into rough waters in the 200-yard back splash as Albie Burke and Dave Seifried of Indianapolis A.C. placed ahead of Michigan State's Earl Black and Phil Gundel.

In the 400-yard freestyle Les Lobaugh had to come from behind to capture the lead from teammate Dean Taylor before winning. Lobaugh was clocked at 5:02.1 and Taylor was only a few strokes behind to finish second.

Paul Reinke finished only three-tenths of a second off his own pool mark of 2:23.5 in the 200-yard breaststroke.

Spartan divers John Mason and Don Morey captured the two top positions from the high board. Mason roled up 256.3 points to Morey's 237.55.

The final event of the 400-yard freestyle was all Michigan State. McCaffrey's combination of Fornell, Parrish, Dobler and Gest won with time in 3:29.2.

'Boys Are Overtrying' —Forddy

By HARDY CHRIST

All varsity basketball coach Forddy Anderson could say after his Spartans were soundly drubbed by the Ohio State Buckeyes was "I feel sorry for the boys. They're trying as hard as they can."

The Bucks handed Michigan State its third straight Big 10 loss Saturday night at Columbus, 70-51.

The Spartans tried vainly, breaking into the lead in the first minutes of play, but when the Buckeye giants went to work, it was all over. Six foot six Frank Howard and 6'7" Larry Huston scored 17 and 16 points respectively to lead Ohio to the romp. Larry Hodder's 12 points topped the Spartans.

The defeat was State's fourth in a row, and third in Conference play. Previously, they lost a pair of one-pointers to Purdue and Michigan, plus a 10 point verdict to Notre Dame.

Over and over again, Coach Anderson could only say "I feel sorry for them, because they're overtrying."

Using those one-pointers has taken its toll on the luckless Spartans. "The mental attitude of the players after those one-point losses took a terrific toll," commented Anderson. "Also, the boys are physically tired."

Anderson plans no shakeups in his lineup. "How can you shake up a team when it's trying its best?" he asks. "The only thing that we'll do is give a few of the starters some rest. That's what they need right now."

Anderson stated that the team and coaching staff will do the best job they can to win more games. "We coaches will be working long hours overtime, trying to find out the answers."

Wrestling action shows Jerry Hoke (MSU) completing an escape meet, 15-9.

Three Wins Not Enough

Hawkeyes Score Victory Over Spartan Wrestlers

The University of Iowa scored a victory over the Spartan wrestling team, 15-9, Saturday in Jenison Fieldhouse.

Jerry Hoke, in the 130 lb. division, Jim Ferguson, in the 167 division and Ken Maidlow, in the heavyweight class, all accounted for Spartan individual wins, but it was not enough to beat the Hawkeyes.

Neither team was able to score a pin.

Summaries:
125 lbs. Terry McFann (I) defeated Don Strong (MSU).
130 lbs. Jerry Hoke (MSU) defeated Gene Luttrell (I).
137 lbs. Ralph Hicks (I) defeated Eugene Wiley (MSU).
147 lbs. Simon Roberts (I) defeated Norm Gill (MSU).
157 lbs. Del Rossberg (I) defeated Eric Condit (MSU).
167 lbs. Jim Ferguson (MSU) defeated Jim Craig (I).
177 lbs. Gary Kordelmier (I) defeated Leroy Fladeth (MSU).
Heavyweight Ken Maidlow (MSU) defeated Barron Bremner (I).

Gymnasts Outclass Buckeyes

Michigan State gymnasts outperformed Ohio State Saturday to take its second win of the season.

The score was 69-43, with individual scoring honors going to Don Leas of State with 16 points. Next came Cal Girard, also of the Spartans with 13 points.

In the trampoline Don Harper of OSU placed first with Don Leas of State second. Rowland Brown captured a first for State in the free exercise event, 9-7.

In the side horse event, Girard and O'Brien placed one-two with two other State men also placing, giving the Spartans four out of five for this particular event.

On the horizontal bars MSU took the first three places with Leas, George Hopely, and Girard finishing one-two-three. On the parallel bars O'Brien and Girard again teamed up to take the first two places in an event which State won 12-4.

The Spartans again took the first two places on the flying rings. This time Leas and Jim Cook combined for the win, 10-6.

To Visit Eisenhower

Arab King on Way Here

NAPLES, ITALY (AP)—A close escort of 100 Arab bodyguards, carrying submachine guns under their robes, King Saud of Saudi Arabia boarded the liner Constitution Sunday for a visit to the United States and talks with President Eisenhower on the problems of the Middle East.

The 40-year-old monarch and his retinue of 85, occupying 20 deluxe apartments aboard the vessel, were the last to board the Constitution before she sailed. The party included two of Saud's 40 sons, but none of his four wives. The party was all male.

Saud arose early to receive an advance message of welcome from President Eisenhower. Vice for Purse, assistant White House protocol officer, entered the Arabian ruler's lavishly hotel suite shortly after 1 a.m. to hand him the Presidential note.

Purse declined to disclose contents of the President's message. One of Saud's officials said it contained a "warm welcome" and "expressed President Eisenhower's hope his talks with the king will prove an important event in strengthening relations between our two countries."

The 36-year-old king and his party flew to Naples Saturday from Cairo, where he had discussed Eisenhower's Middle East doctrine and the Suez Canal zone with President Nasser of Egypt. King Hussein of Jordan and Premier Sabri Assali of Syria.

After Saud's departure, the Egyptian government announced the four had agreed to reject the "vacuum theory" in the Middle East, that they resolved "never to allow their countries to become a sphere of influence for any foreign power."

The announcement added: "They unanimously agreed that King Saud should express this opinion during his visit to Washington."

Nehru Speaks On Red Rule

BOMBAY (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru declared Sunday there will be civil war if the Communists ever try to establish a dictatorship of the proletariat in India.

Nehru told about 250,000 at a political rally that Indian Communists, after wavering about the Hungarian crisis, had supported Russia.

He opposed a Red demand for nationalization of foreign-owned plantations and other businesses, arguing that money needed to compensate owners could be used otherwise for development.

"If we do not pay compensation, we shall be deserting ourselves in foreign eyes," he said.

Nehru was electrifying in the key Bombay seat.

ENGINEERS:

when your

Your decision to work for an engineering degree was a wise one. You are about to graduate to a professional level which itself is an exclusive prize that few are qualified to achieve. You have chosen a profession which is providing leadership for the most dramatic advancements of our age. Time now for another decision. Where can you invest your education so it will bring you maximum returns in satisfaction and success? Where can you serve with credit to your profession and society? If these are your goals, we'd like to suggest your next move. Associate yourself with other engineers whose aims are the same as yours. Choose an organization with a reputation for engineering excellence and an abundance of modern equipment and advanced projects. You can find these surroundings at Chance Vought, and you may obtain firsthand advance information about any feature of Chance Vought engineering from our campus representative. Ask your placement office to arrange an appointment for you. Meanwhile, for interesting facts about Chance Vought opportunities, check your library's engineering job directories, or write directly to: Engineering Personnel, Chance Vought Aircraft, Inc., P. O. Box 5907, Dallas, Texas. Note especially our history of fighter aircraft development; our most recent additions to this history, the F8U-1 CRUSADER Navy fighter and REGULUS guided missile, and our current projects in jet fighter aircraft and surface-to-surface missile development. Find out how Chance Vought can help you make your next career move as wise as your first.
