Alumni's Comeback Overcomes Deficit

By LARRY WRONLEWSKI
State News Night Editor

The Old Timers, not quite-so-old after all, stunned a fine varsity eleven Saturday, 20-20, in the first Annual Old Timers Classic.

A crowd of 14,585 saw the alumni erase a two touchdown deficit in the final period in a display of comeback power, long a traditional trademark of Spartan football.

Led by the passing of Al Dorsey and Jerry Planutis, brilliant running, both former All-Americans, the varsity had its hands full.

With the two oldest alumni players, George Guere and Joe Pankowski, as co-captains, the contest started with the varsity receiving the kick-off.

After a few minutes, the varsity capitalized on Earl Morrall's hand pass which guard Joe Carruthers picked off on the 15-yard line. Five plays later Earl Morrall's hand pass plunged from the one to score. Dave Kaiser's conversion made it 7-0.

The actual driving contest is scheduled for Saturday at 9 a.m. on the Harrison Road driving range.

The road-e-o is a competition among young drivers testing their skill in handling a motor vehicle and their knowledge of traffic laws and safety.

Anyone under 20 years of age with a driver's license or permit and who has not committed a traffic violation in the past six months, is eligible.

The local winner will be given a three-day expense paid trip to Detroit for the state competition.

Entry blanks can be obtained from the Driver Training Education Department and are to be filled out and turned in at the time of the written test.

The road-e-o had 300,000 participants nationally in 1956 and grew out of a Jaycee regional safety conference in St. Paul, Minnesota, in 1952.

During the halftime festivities the Spartan All-Americans were selected. Also the Activities Band and the splendid Spartan Guard Drill Team entertained the spectators.

Early in the third period the varsity threatened, but Martin's Carruthers was found not guilty of the charges of assault and battery in East Lansing Police Court Friday.

The Spartan grudge was accused of assaulting Frederick Johnson, 22-year-old Royal Oak teacher, following a traffic incident on East Grand River February 9.

The four-hour trial reached its climax when Carruthers' roommate, George Perles, Allen Park freshman, testified that he had been the man who had assaulted Johnson, and that Carruthers had been home at the time of the incident. Carruthers and Perles are of the same general build and appearance.

Two witnesses to the incident, Wendell Hughes, Buffalo, N.Y., senior and Thomas Cline, Angola, Ind., senior, both testified that they had known Carruthers, and the assailant was positively not Carruthers.

Petitioning for the Student Congress-sponsored scholarship opens today and will end Friday. Funds for the scholarship came from the ice show, Silver Blades, an AUSG winter term project.

Student Congress appropriated the $1,500 profits from the show for the scholarship fund which will be awarded in varying amounts of money in accordance with decisions made by the scholarship committee.

Petitions are available in the Student Government Office. To be eligible for the scholarship a student must have completed two terms and have a two point all-university.

Those applying must have contributed to university life through outstanding participation in extra-curricular activities other than varsity athletics. Financial need will be considered.

Major Party to Cede

Italian Coalition Faces Loss of Cabinet Support

ROME (AP)—A majority of the right wing Social Democrats, main supporters of Italy's coalition government, called Sunday for the party to walk out of the cabinet.

Delegates voted unanimously to press for the walkout when the full party congress meets next month.

The move would spell the downfall of the three-year-old government of Premier Antonio Segni, a Christian Democrat, and bring on new national elections.

Vice-Premier Giuseppe Saragat, leader of the Social Democrats, told a mass meeting of delegates from the party's center block that the government was no longer able to face up squarely to its job.

The decision was a dramatic change for the cautious Saragat. For months he has turned his back on party demands to pull out of the government and seek a reunification with the nation's Socialist Party.

Since the Centrist bloc holds an overwhelming majority within the party, the walkout measure is assured of party congress approval.

Saragat told the delegates that Segni's coalition government "no longer has enough support to bring about any efficient reform action."

"The responsibility for this must be fully shared by all the parties of the coalition," he said. "Its cause is to be seen in the softening sense of solidarity among the democratic forces."

"The illusion that Communism is no longer a danger has created a relaxation in the ties among the parties."

Withdrawal of the Social Democrats would leave Segni with only his strong Christian Democrat Party and the tiny Liberal Party.

Colombia Disorder Mounts

Police Use Gas Against Mobs

COLOMBIA (AP)—Police broke up demonstrations with tear gas and streams of dyed water Sunday, interrupting mass in a church where a priest renewed his attacks on the government.

The action shattered the brief calm in Bogota that followed Saturday's student anti-government outbreaks.

Opposition to plans to have President Gustavo Rojas Pinilla re-elected by a constituent assembly has caused pronounced unrest.

Police threw tear gas shells at a crowd around the church where the Rev. Teodoro Velazquez renewed attacks on the government that marked his holy week sermons.

The congregation applauded his belligerent tone and sang the national anthem. Father Velazquez told his congregation no one could keep him from speaking freely.

Tear gas seeped into the church and halted the mass. In breaking up other demonstrations, the police turned streams of red-dyed water twice on the crowds as they had yesterday against the students.

Any massing of the populace has been forbidden in the current political emergency.

Gilberto Azate Avendano, recalled from his post as ambassador to Spain to head the conservative party faction supporting Rojas, conferred with Cardinal Cisneros Laque.

Students will have an opportunity to hear a panel discussion and ask questions of lobbyists in the State Legislature Tuesday morning. Members of the Legislature will hold a similar session in the afternoon.

The program will take place in the Civic Center, basement auditorium, in Lansing and class excuses will be available there.

The Michigan Citizenship Clearing House is sponsoring the program. Governor G. Mennen Williams will open the program and at 10:30 the panel will start with each member offering a few opening words and then discussion will open and questions will be accepted from the audience.

Members of the panel will be Hiram Todd, Jr., legislative representative for Chrysler Corporation; Stanley Powell, legislative counsel for the Michigan Farm Bureau; Earnest Bennett, representative of the Michigan CIO; John Sweeney, administrative assistant to the Governor and John Denman, legislative representative of the Ford Motor Company.

The afternoon panel starts at 1 with Senators John B. Swainson and Frank D. Beagle, representatives Edward Carey and Allison Green discussing the problems and prospects of the legislative session.

Hannah Announces New J-School Head

Special to the State News

A nationally-honored scholar and an internationally recognized authority on press law will become the new director of the School of Journalism at Michigan State University, President John A. Hannah announced Sunday.

The new director is Dr. Fred S. Siebert, for the past 16 years director of the School of Journalism and Communications at the University of Illinois. His appointment is subject to confirmation by the State Board of Agriculture.

Dr. Siebert will succeed Dr. Paul J. Deutschmann, who has been acting director of the J-School in addition to his regular duties as director of the Communications Research Center the past year. Dr. Deutschmann has won a Social Science Research Council fellowship to participate in a seminar on communications research at Stanford university this summer, and when he returns he will devote full time to the rapidly-increasing activities of the MSU research center.

The new Journalism director, a former daily newspaper reporter with experience on four Minnesota and Chicago papers, has been a member of the Illinois faculty since 1927. He earned the B.A. degree with honors from the University of Wisconsin, and the doctor of jurisprudence degree from Illinois.

At Illinois, Dr. Siebert has been responsible for the academic programs in journalism, advertising, radio, television, film, and communications research, plus the operations of a television station, two radio stations, and a daily newspaper.

Next to the College of Communication Arts at Michigan State, Illinois has one of the largest communications education programs in the country.

Dr. Gordon A. Sabine, dean of the College of Communication Arts, praised Siebert as "one of the outstanding men in the history of journalism education in America."

"He has the rare genius of being able to combine continued scholarly production with real administrative leadership," Sabine pointed out. "No one else in the country could bring to Michigan State the particular background Dr. Siebert represents."

The new director is the only American to win the Kappa Tau Alpha award for journalism twice. His first recognition came for a 1952 book on Freedom of See J-HEAD, Page 2

Somoza Verifies Cease-Fire

Nicaragua Backs Washington's Plan

NICARAGUA (AP)—President Luis Somoza has agreed to a cease-fire on the border with Honduras, Nicaraguan officials said Sunday night.

Somoza, they said, has accepted a plan of the Organization of American States (OAS) peace mission calling for withdrawal of both Nicaraguan and Honduran forces from the frontier and creation of a buffer zone.

The plan also provides that the OAS council in Washington should rule within four days whether Nicaragua or Honduras was the aggressor in last week's eruption of their old border conflict, they reported.

The Honduran government is believed already to have given the OAS peace committee its tacit acceptance of the plan.

The OAS ambassadors came here a day earlier than expected and are to return to Honduras today.

They moved swiftly to complete their task because of continued fighting in the disputed border zone and a Nicaraguan warning of war.

Somoza told the mission at a 90-minute conference he had received an unconfirmed report that Honduran troops attacked Totocacinte, a Nicaraguan town in a zone not under dispute.

Somoza, 36-year-old successor to his assassinated father, Gen. Anastasio Somoza, told reporters Saturday, "If these attacks continue it will mean war."

Gen. Anastasio Somoza Jr., Nicaraguan army chief, was present during the conference of the OAS envoys with his brother.

They showed the peace group rifles, grenades and helmets which they said had been captured from Honduran troops at Mocoron.

It was at Mocoron, an Indian village, that the conflict began when it was reported that Nicaraguan soldiers had invaded what Honduras claims is its province of Gracias a Dios.

After the talks with the envoys, the Somoza brothers and the cabinet held a conference. Later, the President called a meeting of political leaders, including members of the opposition, to discuss "national unity" in view of the crisis.

The peace mission urgently dispatched from Washington flew to Managua with the peace plan after an all-night conference in Tegucigalpa with Honduran ruling military junta.

The disputed area, an underdeveloped zone, was submitted to arbitration 30 years ago. King Alfonso of Spain ruled in favor of Honduras but Nicaragua rejected his decision.

The OAS envoys presented their proposal first to the military junta in Tegucigalpa at a meeting that lasted until 2 a.m. They then flew to Managua and presented the plan to Somoza.

Time Limit Not Necessary

Fraternities Need Time To Become Integrated

The University of Wisconsin's Committee on Human Rights recommended back in 1952 that "no organization now on campus which has in its national or local constitution or pledge instructions a discriminatory clause shall be approved by the university after July 1, 1960."

According to this, Wisconsin and many other colleges and universities throughout the nation carrying this "1960 clause," will force their local chapters which still contain discriminatory clauses to break all ties with their national chapters. We claim forcing a fraternity to go local will force it to die.

It has been pointed out that the sole purpose of this clause is to eliminate national control of local chapters as far as it imposes discriminatory practices on the local group.

Opportunity

The "Silent Generation" will have an opportunity Tuesday to disprove the often heard charge of apathy. The Michigan Citizenship Clearing House has set up two panel discussions in the Civic Center. One with lobbyists of labor, business and agriculture and one with members of the State Senate and House.

The common idea that a lobbyist is a monster bribing and intimidating government officials, could be removed from many minds by attending this discussion.

The lobbyists will state their views on legislation in which they have an interest. In this 10-12 a.m. session the audience will have a chance to ask questions. In the afternoon session with members of the Senate and House discussing legislation the students will again have an opportunity to ask questions and get a first hand look at their representatives... which, by the way, include the lobbyists.

It would be interesting to see the result of a heavy student turnout at a function such as this, on the student critic who claims all class-cutters can be located at the nearby beer halls.

For the cynical class-cutter who says he is not being educated here, this is an opportunity to pick up a bit of education, get an excuse from classes and show the legislature that the students of MSU are interested in their government.

The Michigan Citizenship Clearing House (it's not on the Justice Department's list) is to be commended on its program and its nonpartisan aim of educating students in the area of politics. It is a state-wide organization based in the MSU Political Science Department in Morrill Hall.

The MCCH sends students to political conventions and sponsors speakers of all political areas on campus as part of their program.

In the last 10 years the number of fraternities containing discriminating clauses has been reduced from 25 to 10 (there are 62 recognized national fraternities). In the last two years, four more clauses have been removed, cutting the number to six.

Michigan State does not have any "deadlines," despite the fact that five of the six greek organizations that practice discrimination are on campus.

The reasons for this are clear. Fraternities have not been the creators of bigotry and discrimination, but instead have merely reflected the human weaknesses of racial and religious prejudices that have and still exist within the human race.

We say a deadline of any sort is not necessary. If we accept the fact that fraternities are sincere in their efforts to have their clauses changed and accept the stated university philosophy that the fraternity is an integral part of the educational system, we should approach this on a positive basis.

Fraternities and societies are not static as pointed out, they have changed and will continue to change. But as all other sociological changes, it will be slow. No quick and easy solutions are possible. Integration must be from the members themselves, and cannot be changed by outsiders or deadlines.

Election Rally

Freshmen and sophomores will have an opportunity to meet the candidates Tuesday.

Too often at large universities like ours, student elections are impersonal affairs where no one knows who they are voting for or why. This is undoubtedly why there is always a poor turn-out at the polls.

Students can hardly be blamed for disinterest in elections when the candidates are just a name they may or may not have heard before.

However the democratic election system is a reciprocal affair. Not only is it up to the candidates to make themselves known, it is the responsibility of the electorate to investigate the candidates.

Tuesday the candidates for sophomore and junior class officers will take the initiative and present themselves to the students. They are inviting the freshmen and sophomores to meet them and see who they will be voting for.

The sponsors of this event have done everything possible to attract a large body of students. Campus queens and BMOs will be present to introduce the candidates. Coffee and entertainment are added attractions.

From here on it is up to the electorate to carry the ball.

Foreign Students Speak

Arab-Israeli Battle Not Over Religion

This is the first article to run in the State News as part of International Week. Four other articles will appear, each by a foreign student giving their personal view on their countries world position. Today's is by Michel E. Sifri, an MSU graduate student in civil engineering. He presents the Arab argument. Sifri is an Arab refugee from Jaffa, Palestine.

The fact that the Arab-Israeli conflict is political rather than religious is a vital prerequisite for a clear understanding of the issue as here presented. Stamping the Arabs as being Anti-Semitic, or attempting to carry on a religious war is unfair and unjustified.

All through the ages the Jews lived peacefully side by side with the Arabs. The small number of Jews who lived in Palestine around 1920 have always considered themselves Arabs in nationality.

It was not until the beginning of the 20th century when the Zionist movement started, that a gap between the two groups first appeared. The Arabs oppose Zionism as a political movement whose avowed purpose has been (and still is) to convert Palestine into a political Utopia for Jews throughout the world.

This aim has been pursued without consideration for the native Arab inhabitants who in 1918 constituted 70 percent of the population and owned 95 percent of the land. It is very important to contrast Zionism with Judaism, the latter is a universal faith seeking no political identity.

The Arabs have always sympathized with the Jewish cause and they abhor the persecution of the Jews in Europe and elsewhere. Admitting Jews to Palestine, the Jewish population, in 1917, was seven percent of the total population; had, by 1948, increased this figure to 20 percent (taken from the British Mandatory Government Statistics).

These immigrants were predominantly Zionists who, unfortunately, believed that the best solution to their problem was to reconquer what had befallen them in Europe, with the Arab natives as victims.

Thus in 1948, by solving the Jewish refugee problem in Europe, the Arab refugee problem started. To the Arabs, the creation of a state on the remnants of another is a crime condemned not only by Judaism, but by all religions in the world.

The charge that the neighboring Arab countries after 1948 have attacked the newly created state is invalid inasmuch as the Zionists had begun their activities in December 1947 while the United Nations was still considering the future of Palestine.

Even while the British forces were still in Palestine and still responsible for peace and security in the area and before the formal establishment of the state, the Zionists had already occupied a major part of Palestine including 11 important cities. The neighboring Arab countries did not become engaged in this conflict until May 15, 1948 and then only to save what was left of the Arab Palestine and not to destroy an existing state.

The Zionists claim that they have never asked the Palestinian Arabs to leave is too poor an argument to be of any value. Picking some villages at random and massacring the inhabitants was a calculated plan to scare the Arabs out. Menahem Beigin, a Zionist officer said, "all our forces proceeded to advance like a knife through butter. The Arabs began fleeing in panic and shouting 'Yaseen... Yaseen'."

It is very important to repeat that these incidents and many others occurred while the British were still in Palestine, before the Arab States entered and before the State of Israel was established. Furthermore, if Israel sincerely wanted the Arab people to stay, why did they reject the United Nations Resolutions of 1951-1954 for the repatriation of Arab refugees to their lands and homes? Why, also, are the remaining Arabs in Israel treated as second class citizens?

The refugee problem, although not the key to the solution of the conflict, cannot be eliminated by absorbing the refugees in the neighboring Arab States for two reasons.

First, the refugees themselves refused to settle in other than their own homes which they were forced to leave.

Second, the Arab refugees are too great an economic burden on the over populated Arab countries.

Certainly the largest obstacle in reaching a compromise is Israel's threat to the Arab countries.

"Mr. Chairman... Mr. Chairman..."

The murmur died away.

The Great Investigator is at last at peace today.

May he find no saints in heaven.

Whom he must investigate.

May he not ask leading questions.

Of the Keeper of the Gate.

May he not decide to save them.

From the "Menace from below."

May he hold his tongue in silence.

If he meets the other Joe.

May he find appreciation.

And a place to use his mind.

May he find a task in heaven.

That investigates the damn.

May he find peace like we can.

Teamsters Oppose Reuther

Strategy Plans Made at Session

WASHINGTON (AP)—Teamsters Union leaders said Sunday they would fight with all their resources against union leader Walter Reuther or anyone else seeking to establish a new Teamsters labor organization.

A brief statement to that effect was all that was announced after a three-hour meeting of the Teamsters Union Executive Board.

The strategy session was called to plan moves at hearings against the union and its leaders before the AFL-CIO General Practices Committee and the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee.

Reuther, an AFL-CIO vice president and head of the one and one-half million member United Auto Workers Union, has denied any attempt to "take over" the Teamsters as leaders of the latter organization have been charging.

Reuther has said, however, that if the Teamsters don't conduct a clean-up campaign, the AFL-CIO will be compelled to oust the Teamsters from the AFL-CIO fold. In that event, Reuther has said, he favors establishing a new AFL-CIO Teamsters organization "that can be clean and attract the workingman's vote."

The Teamsters Executive Board headed by its President Dave Beck, is due to appear in court this morning before the AFL-CIO Federation's Ethical Practices Committee to answer charges the union is substantially dominated by corrupt interests.

Beck himself is under suspension as an AFL-CIO officer because of his refusal, invoking the Fifth Amendment, to answer Senate committee questions about his personal use of Teamsters organization's funds. The committee has charged Beck with some $320,000 of his union's funds.

The referees marched off 155 yards against the varsity and 70 against the alumni.

Following the tussle, the press and radio voted Planutis and Ninowski winners of the "22" club awards as the most valuable gridgers of their respective squads.

In the alumni's locker room, head Coach Frank (Muddy) Waters sat beaming over the tremendous showing turned in by a team who had two days to prepare with some late arrivals not even practicing.

Waters commented, "I am very pleased and happy with the performance of these Spartan greats. It gave me a chance to see the various stars that followed me after my playing days."

The Hillsdale mentor stated, "In the first half the team was not organized and at the intermission we decided to cut down on our substitution. We also revised our defensive patterns and found some vulnerable spots in the varsity's defense."

Waters praised the defensive play of Bullough, Quinlan, Buck Nystrom, Ed Bagdon, Dick Tambarro and Bill Horrell. Dorow, Planutis, Sionae and McAuliffe were standouts on offense. In concluding he remarked, "The play of every man must be praised."

Daugherty said, "The clash was very thrilling and the alumni turned in an amazing performance. But you must remember that the varsity is composed of youth and they tend to make mistakes, this was good experience for every one of them."

Munn stated, "The game was a marvelous one. The surprising thing was the strong playing of the Old Timers, instead of fading they became stronger. They gave the fans a true demonstration of spirit and desire."

"However, the varsity did a nice job and looked very promising."

Two varsity and one Old Timer received injuries. Center John Wilks twisted his right knee, first-string end Tony Kolodziej suffered a shoulder separation which might require an operation and Randy Schretnigost aggravated an old knee injury.

Thinclads Fall To Freshmen

Four Records Broken; Eliowitz Tops Field Mark

By HAL BATEMAN

One Young Field, one varsity and two freshman records were set Saturday morning as the frosh easily won the interclass meet.

The freshmen scored 91½ points with the second place sophomores getting 53½. The juniors placed third with 45½ points and the seniors a distant last with 31½.

The outstanding performance of the meet was turned in by junior Sam Eliowitz, who set Young Field and varsity records in the discus throw.

Eliowitz, who was the high scorer in the meet with 12 points, tossed the platter 159' 7½", smashing the old Young Field mark of 159' 4½" set in 1939 by Notre Dame's Bill Faymonville. The toss also broke the varsity mark of 153' 2½" set last year by Joe Savolli. Eliowitz won the shot put with a toss of 47' 1" and tied for second in the high jump.

The frosh led by double-winner Willie Atterberry, won six of the 11 events. The juniors won four events, the seniors three and the sophomores two.

Atterberry and Mike Kleinham accounted for the two frosh records. Atterberry won the 440-yard dash in 48.2 to break the old mark of 48.5 he set earlier in the month. Freshman Brian Castle placed second in the 440 with a good 49.1 with Lean third in the same time.

Kleinham won the pole vault with a vault of 13 feet, easily cracking the old frosh record of 12' 8" set by Mayo Arnold in 1947. Kleinham also placed second in the 120-yard high hurdles.

Seniors Selwyn Jones and Gay Denslow turned in some fast times in the distance runs. Jones, varsity track captain, won the mile in 4:18.6 with Denslow copping the two mile in 9:25.7.

Fordey Kennedy placed second in the mile with Jones getting second in the two miles.

Also being timed in 9:25.7 Fordey Kennedy was third with 9:55 and freshman Jim Horan fourth in 9:46.5.

Freshman Harry Keast won the 100-yard dash in :10.4, fast for the 40-degree temperatures. He also placed second in the 220-yard dash.

Besides winning the 440, Atterberry also copped the 220 in :24.2. A check following the race disclosed the distance to be 235 yards. The frosh took the first four places in the event.

Junior Ken Dafow outprinted senior Ted Tetzlaff to win the 880-yard run in a good 1:57.6 with Tetzlaff being timed in 1:57.7. Sophomore Jerry Markil was third in 1:58.5.

Sophomore Kelly Thompson won the high hurdles in 1:53 with Kleinham second and Lean third. Lean won the low hurdles in 25.3 with Thompson taking the runner-up position.

Sophomore Tom Rand won the high jump in 6' 4½" and frosh Ken Miller was the broad jump winner with a leap of 20' 11½".

Sophomore Ron Lustik picked up seconds in the shot put and discus. He tossed the shot 46' 8" and threw the platter 136' 6½". Senior Dick Muesel was the winner in the javelin with a toss of 150' 5".

The freshmen clinched their team victory by winning the mile relay in 3:25.9 with anchor-man Atterberry holding off Lean. The frosh team was composed of Art Apkarian, Al Wadley, Castle and Atterberry. The juniors were second, the sophomores third and the seniors last.

Clem Labine set a Brooklyn Dodge record by appearing in 62 National League games in 1956.

State '9' Loses Twice, Splits Badger Twin Bill

Only Win Credited To Radatz

Luce's 5th Homer Not Quite Enough

By BILL KEOUGH

Michigan State's baseball team bounced back to take the second half of a twin bill from Wisconsin, 11-4, Saturday after dropping the first game in a heart-breaking, 7-6, 10-inning loss.

The two-game split left the teams deadlocked for sixth place in Big Ten competition. It followed a 4-2 Spartan loss to Northwestern Friday.

Big Dick Radatz went the distance in the second game Saturday, striking out 13 to pick up his first win of the season. He held Wisconsin scoreless for five innings while his teammates opened up an 11-0 lead.

Wisconsin had runners on base in every inning but the fourth, but were unable to score until the sixth when they pushed across four runs.

Frank Palamara had three hits for the game, and Dick McKenzie and Jerry Korwek had two each. The win was the Spartan's second of the season in Big Ten play against four defeats.

In the first game of the doubleheader Al Luce hit a double in the first inning to bring in two runs following a double by Gary Warner, a walk by Ted Kearsley and a fielder's choice by Palamara.

The Spartans picked up another run in the second when Rose Davis scored on a sacrifice fly by Warner, and they managed to hold that lead until the seventh.

Wisconsin scored two runs off starting pitcher Bob Rabias in the fourth, one in the sixth and two more in the seventh to go ahead 5-3 before southpaw Bill Mills came in with the bases loaded and retired the side.

State tied it up in the ninth when Korwek walked, Dennis Mendyk hit a pinch-hit double, and with two down, Palamara singled to drive in the two runs.

Wisconsin got two runs in the top of the tenth. Norm Creamer pitched one third of an inning giving up one run on two hits and left two men on the sacks when John Griffin came in to relieve him. One more run scored on a fielding error by Griffin before he was able to get the side out.

In the bottom half of the tenth Michigan State was able to score only one run. That came on a homer by Luce, his fifth of the season. Mills was credited with the loss.

In Friday's loss to Northwestern, State's ace left-hander, Ron Petrasewski went the distance, striking out 12 batters while his teammates were held to two runs on eight hits. The loss gave him a 4-2 record over the short season.

State was able to pick up only one earned run off Northwestern's Tom Scheuerman who led the Wildcats last year with a 5-1 record. The run came when Russell singled, stole second and came home on McKenney's single in the first inning.

MSU Golfers Place Second at South Bend

Michigan State golfers placed second in a quadrangular meet held Saturday at South Bend, Indiana. The Spartan linksmen topped Iowa, 22½-13½, and lost-place University of Detroit, 26-10, while losing to Notre Dame, winner and host school, 18-20.

Gymnasts Cop In AAU Meet

Michigan State gymnasts were very impressive at the National AAU Championship matches this weekend at the University of Chicago, although they failed to capture any firsts.

Ernestine Russell, Windsor, Ontario freshman, took seconds on sidehorse vaults and free-exercises, and third in all-around. Miss Russell also placed fourth on the parallel bars and fifth on the balance beam—five tenths of a point out of third.

In his final competitive appearance for MSU, Don Leas, Big 10 flying rings champion, turned in a very creditable performance on the rings and on the trampoline, by copping sixth overall against the tough competition prevalent throughout the meet.

Cal Girard, sophomore, also from Windsor, established himself as one of the top gymnasts in Canada by taking the 12th spot against the top amateurs in the United States.

Three Sluggers Sustain Injuries In Major Leagues

Ted Williams, Mickey Mantle and Frank Robinson were added to the injured list in Major League Baseball Sunday, although none apparently was seriously hurt.

Williams, the Boston slugger, suffered a badly bruised right elbow when struck by a Stan Pittula pitch in the first game of a doubleheader as the Red Sox swept two from the Indians. Mantle, after socking two singles and a two-run homer in the first game at Chicago for the New York Yankees, pulled a groin muscle in the second game as the World Champs took over first place in the American League by winning a doubleheader from the White Sox.

Robinson, the National League Rookie of the Year in 1956, crashed into a wall at Pittsburgh in the second game after breaking up the opener with a three-run homer.

Spartans Capture Only 1 Set

Illini Blank MSU Netters, 9-0

By MARY HUFF

A strong Illini team blanketed Michigan State's netters, 9-0 Saturday at Champaign as the Spartans were able to win only one set in the entire match.

Coach Frank Beeman commented that Illinois did play very well as was expected, but that the MSU netters "have had better days, and plan to play better in the future." He noted that the loss of Ron Mescoll, who suffered a pulled leg muscle in last Thursday's match against Northwestern, also hampered the effort.

With Mescoll out, Luis Vela moved to the No. 4 spot. Foster Hoffman was shifted to No. 5, and Bob Sassack took over the No. 6 position.

The single set won by the Spartans was taken by Hoffman, who copped the first set of his match, 7-5. He lost the next two sets to Illinois' George Gilmore, 6-1, 6-2.

In the No. 1 spot, Bill Bisard fell to Carl Noble, 8-6, 6-2. Captain George Stepanovic was defeated by Al Holtmahn, 6-1, 6-3. The Illini's Jim Van Tine trounced Mike Zarembo in No. 3 singles, 6-1, 6-0, and Bob Breckenridge topped Luis Vela, 6-1, 6-2. In the final singles attempt, Bob Sassack lost to Bob McDonald, 6-2, 6-3.

MSU fared just as poorly in doubles matches, as Bisard and Zarembo went down, 6-1, 6-3, to Illinois' Noble and Holtmann, and Breckenridge and Van Tine triumphed over State's Vela and Stepanovic combination, 6-1, 6-2. Hoffman and Sassack, in the No. 3 position, were dropped by McDonald and Gilmore, 6-2, 6-4.

Jim Swink of Texas Christian holds the three-year rushing record in the Southwest Conference with 2,618 yards.

with the world on a string

This June, the graduates of our engineering and scientific schools, pockets stuffed with job offers, have "the world on a string."

But there's another "string" attached to this fabulous situation: A man can only accept one job offer.

How can the graduate make up his mind wisely about his vital decision?

We're not going to try to tell you. And we're going to resist the temptation to point out the many advantages of working for IBM—much as our company, like every other, needs top-notch engineering and scientific talent.

We're merely going to leave you with one thought that may help you make your decision:

IBM's President has stated this policy: "... I want this company to be known as the one which has the greatest respect for the individual."
