'Anne Frank' To Highlight UB Trip

The Diary of Anne Frank, the Broadway play now showing at Detroit's Shubert Theater, is set for the destination of the Union Board's planned special trip this term, Friday, Oct. 15, according to Paul Albus, Union Board's trip director.

The round trip by bus, including the play tickets specially priced at 90 cents, will be $3.50. Seats are located in the balcony. Tickets will be sold in the Union Board office at the following hours this week:

Mon.-Wed. 9-5
Thurs. 9-12

Plans include leaving the Union Board at 4:30 p.m. on October 13 in order to be in Detroit for curtain time. Special permission by AWS has been given to costs.

MSU Veterans Club Schedules Meetings

Meetings of the MSU Veterans Assn. will be held Wednesday, 8:15 p.m. in the Music and Bob Cooper, president, announced at a session held at the Union Wednesday night.

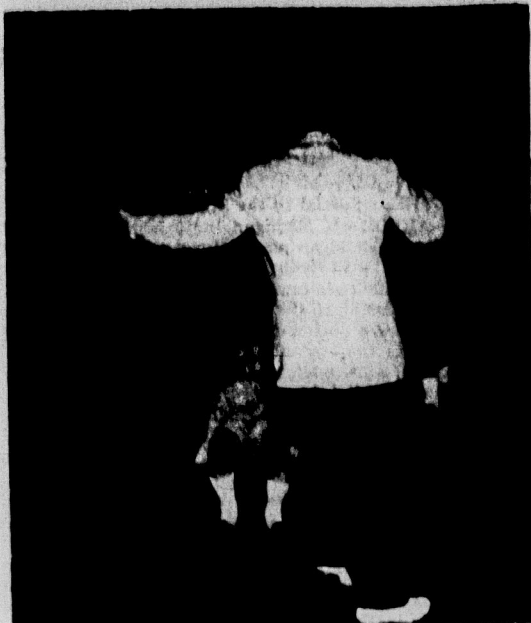

The session was devoted mainly to acquainting new veterans with the association's affairs and activities. Recent farefare price increases in East Lansing were discussed.

Fear Anti-Royalists on Tour

British Apprehensive Over Queen's Safety

LONDON (AP)—British security officials were reported worried Sunday about the safety of Queen Elizabeth II during her state visit to the United States later this month.

The Sunday Dispatch said that Leonard Hart, chief of Scotland Yard's special department, just back from a visit to America, is anxious about precautions being taken to guard the Queen and her husband, Prince Philip, on their scheduled tour.

Hart was said to be particularly alarmed about dangers facing the Queen in New York, where she is scheduled to get a traditional ticker-tape reception during a slow ride along Broadway. He feels, the report said, that in a city the size of New York it is impossible to provide 100 percent security and to check on all anti-royalist factions.

British security officials have asked police chiefs in every U.S. city on the Queen's tour to carry out a thorough check of persons suspected of serious anti-British or anti-royalist sympathies.

The security people have even asked that the names and addresses of all anti-royalist factions be furnished.

Stinging Mattheis to make it 5-3. Stinger pitched the ball on a bunt before he doubled in the Braves' four-run rally off Tom Sturdivant in the fourth.

After the count reached 2-2, Mattheis fired off and the ball game was over.

From the clubhouse came word after the game that a tiny mark of shoe polish on a brand new baseball was the reason why Empire Donatelli ruled that

Jones had been hit by the pitched ball in the 10th.

Yeah, I saw the pitch," said Herli, who at first contended that Jones had not been hit. The ball coasted off his shoe. Stinger agreed.

All square at two games each, the series now must return to Yankee Stadium for a sixth game Wednesday and possibly a seventh on Thursday. There will be an off day for travel after tomorrow's fifth and final contest at County Stadium.

Whites Ford, the Yankees lefty who beat Warren Spahn in the opener, will go for the Yankees tomorrow against Lew Harder, the winner of the second game.

Ever meet a fanatic?

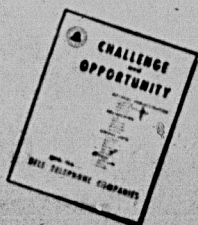

He's got just one thing uppermost in his mind. If he's looking for a job he's thinking only of pay or only of security. Reasonable men, however, weigh these and many other factors when they're evaluating career possibilities. Such factors as opportunity, challenging work, training, professional associates—things fanatics never bother to consider.

The Bell Telephone Companies have a booklet for reasonable men. It's called "Challenge and Opportunity." It's not the sort of thing that'll make a fanatic's eyes light up, but it ought to interest a thoughtful young man—whatever his college background—who is weighing career possibilities. Wolverines Win, 26-0, On Breaks

Georgia Fumblefest
Provides Margin

By PETE WALTERS
State News Editorial Page Editor
Special to the State News
ANN ARBOR—Michigan's gridders capitalized on Georgia's fumblefest Saturday, controlling play when it counted most and defeating the Bulldogs, 26-0, at Michigan Stadium.

The Wolverines first scored at 13:30 of the opening period, covering 55 yards in 10 plays. Sophomore quarterback Cleveland Nookin scored on a two-yard plunge, then rushed on his conversion attempt.

Less than a minute and a half later Michigan halfback Mike Shataska rushed in a wayward Georgia punt and galloped 32 yards for the second tally. Jim Van Pelt added the extra point.

The Bulldogs began to move the ball, driving to the Michigan 55 before a clipping penalty and another interception, this by Bob Fiseck, cooled them down. After an exchange of punts, the Wolverines struck again with Nookin sneaking into the end zone from a yard out.

After a mauling third period with no scoring, Shataska's interception six yards for the first half was in the fourth quarter, and Van Pelt made it 26-0.

Saturday's game was close in most cases with only a few exceptions. The Bulldogs lost practically three times as much yardage (117) as their opponents (44) net penalties.

This combined with their losing the ball eight times on fumbles and interceptions was plenty for the Wolverines to capitalize on. Both teams displayed effective ground and air attacks, but Georgia could never hold on to the ball long enough to be dangerous.

Sparring Scouting Report

By LARRY GUSTIN
State News Sports Editor

Special to the State News

ANN ARBOR—If Michigan State hopes to defeat the University of Michigan next Saturday in the 60th edition of their annual grid rivalry, the Spartans would be wise to stress pass defense in practice this week.

In the Michigan-Georgia game here Saturday, the Wolverines were no terrors on the ground, but picked up 123 yards via the air routes. Michigan connected with 12 of 23 passes, which indicates that the Wolverine air attack cannot be taken lightly.

Georgia itself had little trouble completing passes between the 20-yard lines, but Wolverine defenders downed receivers almost immediately after they caught the ball. The game was much closer than the 26-0 score seemed to indicate. Rushing statistics bear this out. The home team carried for 138 yards in 60 rushes, while Georgia gained 121 in only 38 carries.

This illustrates another important factor which must always be considered by a Michigan opponent. The Wolverines have traditionally been successful in getting the breaks and being able to cash in on them. Three pass interceptions were returned 77 yards by the U of M team, one by Mike Shataska for a 58 yard touchdown run.

IT WAS BAND DAY at Michigan Stadium and 177 bands, a combined total of 12,000 performers, it says here, turned out in full regalia. While uniform colors of the various high school bands clashed horribly, as always in band days, the combination played the loudest music we have ever heard in a football stadium. And it was pretty good, too.

THE WHOLE FOOTBALL setup here is really something to see. Michigan Stadium has always impressed first-time visitors. The small wall outside gives no hint of the magnitude of the huge bowl set deep into the ground. The seating capacity of 101,001 (we don't know where the extra seat is) tops all other exclusive football stadiums in the country, and, in my opinion, the press box still surpasses the new one in Spartan Stadium.

The press box situation deserves more comment. The service by Fred Stabley's staff at MSU is superior, and the Spartan press box cafeteria outshines Michigan's lunch counter. But for actual viewing, the Michigan facilities are far better. There are no heavy posts between windows and the glass is clear, in contrast to the wavy glass which distorts viewing at State. Both press boxes, by the way, are considered among the best in the nation.

Gridders Top California, 19-0

Ninowski, Panitch Display
Talents to TV Audience

Playing a tremendous game at quarterback, Jim Ninowski threw two touchdown passes as Michigan State handled the California Golden Bears their third straight setback, 19-0, Saturday at Berkeley, Calif.

Mike Panitch, State's very capable No. 2 quarterback, accounted for the other with a pass from the five to Art Johnson late in the final stanza. Both of Ninowski's touchdown passes came from six yards out, one in the first quarter to Dave Kaiser, and the other to Sam Williams in the second period.

A tool up with World Series and other commitments kept the MSU game of the week off the TV network until near the end of the first half. As a result, Spartan viewers missed both of Ninowski's goal-scoring throws.

The Spartans moved downfield after the opening kickoff mainly on the strength of a 20-yard pass to Williams, and an 18-yard aerial to Kaiser. Cal stopped State on three tries near the goal line. With fourth down, three yards necessary for a first, and six for a touchdown, Ninowski faked a handoff to Kaiser, who was converging upon Cal defenders. But Ninowski kept the ball and fired a pass to Kaiser, all alone in the end zone.

In the second period, Ninowski again led a scoring drive, capped by a similar TD pass to Kaiser. Blanche Martin, State's leading ground runner, took off on a 24 yard run which set up the score.

Coach Donny Dougherty lauded that career in the dressing room after the game. "I wouldn't trade career for any timekeeper in the country," he said.

Western Defeats Harriers

By LARRY WRONLEWSKI

DETROIT—Michigan State's cross country team, defending ICA, Big 10 and NCAA champs, tasted defeat for the first time since 1953 at the Michigan AAU meet Saturday in Detroit.

Western Michigan broke the Spartan string of nine wins with a 27-30 margin at the Western Valley Club.

Head Coach Karl Schlaepfer had planned on giving 30 runners a chance to participate, but his plans went astray.

For during the past week the team labeled "the best cross country team in the nation" were hit by the flu and leg injuries and only 16 harriers made the bus trip.

The Spartans took to the mile course without the services of Capt. Henry Kennedy, two-time ICA and Big 10 champ and three-time Michigan AAU winner.

The absence of Dave Leon, Bob Hughes, Jim Horan, Jim McCue, Arvid Lindholm, but the harriers' chances of sweeping to victory.

However, the Spartans claimed the first and second place in the senior varsity four-mile test.

Ford Kennedy kept the winning honors in the Kennedy family by recording a slow time of 21:44. The slender, Scots-Canadian took the lead at the three-quarter mark and never relinquished it, finishing with three hundred yards ahead of teammate Bob Lake who was timed in 23:28.

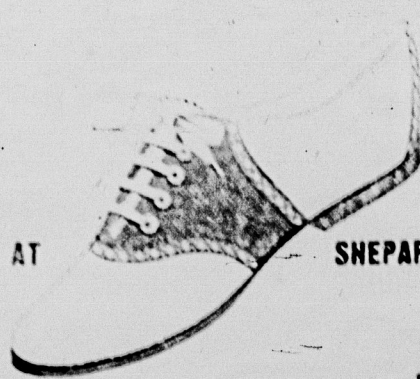

Western Michigan swept the third, fourth, fifth and sixth positions.

MSU's Ron Wheeler took eighth spot. Jack Crowell finished 11th; Tony Smith, 15th; acting captain Ken Doherty 19th and Jim Carr was 23rd.

In the junior division Western Michigan trounced Spring Arbor Junior College, 15-40.

The MSU junior team, composed of freshmen, who consider the Big 10 rule, aren't eligible to run as a team, therefore its score was excluded. Freshman William Reimold, Carroll Tate, Stan Wheeler, Warren McLaughlin and Fred Charpell placed second, third, fifth and eighth respectively.

Booters Tie U of M, 3-3

On Goal By Southan In Third

Crowd Largest In Home History

Phenomenal by what Coach Gene Kenney termed "first come fitters," Michigan State's soccer team tied Michigan, 3-3, Saturday at the Soccer Field.

The booters had to come from behind three times to gain the deadlock. Right wing Dan Clifford, registered State's initial goal in the first period after the Wolverines had taken an early 1-0 lead.

Forward Al Savetta, last year's scoring leader with 12 goals, sandwiched the Spartans' second tally between two Michigan scores in the second stanza and Art Southan made it 3-3 in the next quarter.

The Spartans missed several "easy" shots and were unable to maintain in spite of the fact that they took twice as many shots as their opponents.

Kenney praised Michigan's play from start to finish, stating, "They've got the best club I've ever seen at the U of M." He singled out Bob Burnett as the Wolves' standout performer.

He also commended Southan, who scored twice, and George Saperstein, their lone play for the Spartans.

A crowd of approximately 800 gathered to watch a Michigan State home soccer game, was the largest for the season opened. It was the first game of the season.

Cord Tennis

All cords interested in trying out for the women's varsity tennis team, there will be a short meeting tonight at 7:30 in the Women's gym room B.

One of the top teams in the Midwest, the booters will have to play their first game of the campaign.

They face highly-regarded Northwestern Saturday then meet Duquesne, Illinois and Wheaton. Away games with Ohio State, Indiana and Michigan, along with a home tilt with Kenyon, will wrap out the season.

49'ers Upset Rams, 23-20

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Veteran quarterback Y. A. Tittle engineered three spectacular plays the last one late in the final quarter, to give the San Francisco 49ers a 23-20 upset victory over the Los Angeles Rams today.

A capacity throng of 59,637 at Kezar Stadium watched the 49ers come from behind twice to whip the club that in the exhibition season defeated San Francisco 58-27.

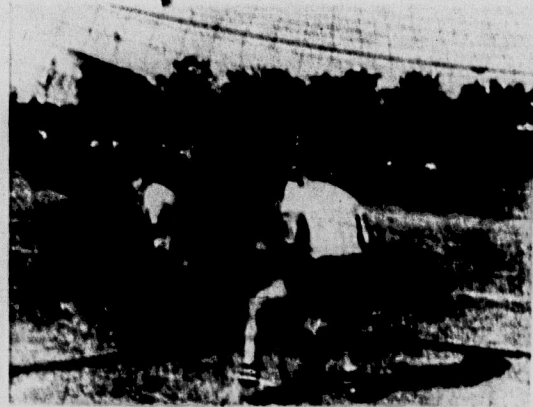

The final score came on an 11-yard pass to rookie flanker, Hank R. (Overdrive) Owens, who earlier scored with a leaping catch of a 46-yard Tittle toss.

San Francisco's success put Baltimore at the top of the National Football League's Western Conference with a 2-0 record. Four others — the 49ers, Rams, Detroit and Green Bay — have one win.

Los Angeles scored the first time it controlled the ball, with back Tom Wilson going 20 yards for the touchdown.

Fights Mark Tilt

Detroit Starts Rolling, Pound Packers, 24-14

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—The Detroit Lions, rebounding from last week's loss to Baltimore, pounded the Green Bay Packers, 24-14, today in a National Football League game punctuated by fist fights in the last quarter.

The Lions held a comfortable 24-0 lead in the final period before the Packers were able to push over their two touchdowns.

A crowd of 22,120 at Green Bay's New City Stadium watched Detroit run up a 14-0 lead in the first quarter while giving the Packers only seven plays, including a punt.

A riverboat gamble by the Lions paved their way for their first touchdown. On fourth down with 22 yards to go for a first down, Yale Lary went back in punt formation.

Instead of kicking, he ran the ball on a weaving course through the Packers' amazed defense for 27 yards and a first down on Green Bay's 33. Five plays later Tobin Rote skirted right end for the score, and Lary kicked the first of his three conversions.

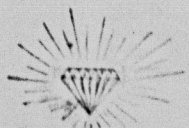

A little over a minute later Jack Christensen intercepted Babe Parilli's pass on the Packers' 29 and ran it back for a touchdown.

The veteran Bobby Layne, who shared quarterback duties with Rote, contributed a 15-yard field goal in the second quarter, and then Gene Gorman plunged over from one yard out with six seconds gone in the final quarter for a 24-0 Lions' lead.

Bart Starr plunged for the Packers' first score from about a foot and Fred Cone ripped through the middle for 26 yards and their final touchdown with about three minutes to play.

Fullback Henry Johnson, Detroit's workhorse, carried 18 times for 109 yards—11 more than the entire home team gained on the ground.

Issue Looms for '58 Election

Little Rock Worries Democrats

Williams Speaks For Party Stand

WASHINGTON, P. H.—The Little Rock issue has become a major Democratic concern in the lead-up to the 1958 election year. The party is divided over whether to support the federal government's position or to back the Little Rock school board.

When the Little Rock issue was first brought up, the Democrats were divided. Some felt that the federal government was oversteering, while others felt that the school board was wrong.

A number of Northern Democrats are known to feel that their party must stand with the federal government. They feel that the Little Rock issue is a test of the party's loyalty to the federal government.

At the same time, Southern Democrats are known to feel that their party must stand with the Little Rock school board. They feel that the federal government is oversteering and that the school board is right.

But the Little Rock division is not a new one. It has been a long time since the Democrats have been so divided. The party is now in a difficult position, and it is not clear what the outcome will be.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—James R. Hoffa has Teamsters Union attorneys geared to go into court to block any corruption ouster from the parent AFL-CIO.

This was learned Sunday as Hoffa met with old and new members of the Teamsters executive board to set the course for the ouster of the Teamsters Union.

The union's six-day convention, which Hoffa has been leading since his election to the presidency, is now in its final stages. Hoffa is expected to announce his plans for the future of the union.

GUY MOLLET refuses Premiership...

Mollet Declines To Form Cabinet

PARIS, P. H.—Guy Mollet told his Socialist party Sunday night he could not form a new French government.

His failure made the task of his successor doubly difficult. The Socialist party will not take part in any government which is not granted special powers by Parliament to fight what Mollet himself called the country's economic situation.

Italian Police Turn Support To Anti-Communist Forces

SAN MARINO, P. H.—Nineteen Italian policemen removed Italian insignia from their uniforms Sunday and joined the forces of San Marino's provisional anti-Communist government.

They were assigned to help the opposition regime's 100 Italian-garbed volunteers defend the anti-Red headquarters in a steel mill at the edge of this 28-square mile nation.

The old Communist government, in power 14 years, remained in control of most of the independent republic, which is completely surrounded by Italian territory.
