Virginia's Schools Caught in Race Issue

VIRGINIA HAS COME up with an incredibly simple solution to the integration problem: Simply abolish the public school system and the problem will cease to exist.

The Virginia legislature has enacted a law forcing any school which accepts Negro pupils to be closed.

We find it difficult to believe that the proponents of mass hysteria and white supremacy will actually go so far as to destroy their public school system in attempting to deny civil rights to a group of citizens who happen to have Yet just such a childish display of spite and vengeance is likely in Virginia some three months from now.

Four years after the Supreme Court's integration decision seven southern states have still refused to relinquish their "separate but equal" tradition.

ONLY VIRGINIA and South Carolina have passed laws providing for the mandatory closing of schools which attempt to integrate. But Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, and Mississippi have also refused to yield to the Su-

A showdown is imminent next fall when Virginia's nocompromise stand meets federal authority head-on.

So far, a series of court appeals have given Virginia a loophole to delay integration, but it is unlikely that the Supreme Court will allow further evasion of its 1954 deci-

The bigotry and confused thinking of the segregationists is illustrated in Virginia Gov. J. Lindsay Almond's statement to the press last week.

"ANY SCHOOL CLOSED in Virginia will be the direct result of the exercise of inordinate power vested in the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People by the federal judiciary," Almond said.

How a state can pass a law providing mandatory closing of any school which attempts to obey the Supreme Court ruling, and then try to place the blame for closed schools someone else is beyond comprehension.

It is equally difficult to imagine how the people of that state can allow a government to continue which would rather abolish the system of public education than obey the Supreme Court.

The Court is not trying to achieve Negro supremacy. It is merely trying to guarantee the civil rights of all citizens of all states as expressly stated in the Constitution.

NEITHER IS THE Supreme court involved in any deliberate attempt to destroy "white supremacy" (which is ridiculous on moral and religious grounds anyway).

There is but one answer to the "devote Christians" in the South (or anywhere else) who quote from the Bible about miscegenation, the will of God," etc., etc., etc.

We must accept the common ancestry of all men, white, black, brown, red, yellow, green or purple. Negroes are men, Indians are men. A man is a man, and the pigmentation of his skin does not change that essential fact. There is but one true race on this planet—the human race.

If the people of Virginia do not demand repeal of this law, it is not unlikely that we will witness the spectacle of Virginia nibbling at her own tail until she consumes herself in a passion of hatred and stupidity.

Dear Mr. Petrillo

A musicians union has recently threatened to picket the planned Mackinac Bridge opening if, as expected, several high school bands appear on the scene to play for opening. We're a little worried. Plans are already under-way for MSU's Band Day next fall and no provisions have been made to seat pickets at the football game

I only want to state that I am nonplussed, to say the least, at the apparent disregard for teaching ability when it comes time to make staff changes. The immediate conclusion I reached when hearing of the "canning" of my favorite instructor was that it came as a result of his espousal of some causes that unfortunately, find few adherents in these piping days—a ents in these piping days - a democrat just doesn't stand a

Reuther Ready to Bargain

DETROIT (P)—Walter Reuther said Wednesday he personally will re-enter union contract negotiations with the big three automakers any time "they are ready to begin bargaining."

So far, he said, "they have shown no indication they are ready to do that."

The comments, which were made in response to questions by newsmen, brought a sharp retort from Louis G. Seaton, head of General Motors' bargaining team gaining team

Seaton said Reuther's statement "is fantastic in view of the fact that only last week the UAW settled major agreements (in the aircraft industry) for considerably less than what General Motors has put on the bargaining table."

General Motors, Ford and Chrysler have offered to extend present UAW contracts for another two years.

Reother said the "1955 model contract is no more acceptable today than a 1955 model car."

Netters Face Powerhouses In Conference Championships

A GIANT AMONG WESTERNS!

Regular

Michigan State's tennis team can only hope to salvage what is left of the bacon when the Big 10's powerhouses are finished cutting it up this week end.

The occasion is the Big 10 tennis championships at Evaluation (III). The opening matches are slated for early this morning.

The Spartans, which own a mediocre 3-5 record, are nopular to salvage some prestive affer favorites Illinois, unbeaten in 15 dual meets, and lowa vig to top henor. Michigan, defending champion, is a dark horse since the Big 10 keeps processive standings in tennis, the lockkiss, Doug Smith, and Jeff Green.

Spartan Crewmen to Row Against Wayne Saturday

The state's only two college rowing teams will meet Saturday when the MSU rowing team meets Wayne State's varsity and fresh-. man sounds at Detroit.

The teams will meet in a mile race on the Detroit River, near the Belle Isle bridge.

Michigan State's club team has a 1-1 record, having lost to Purdue and beat Minnesota

The Tartars have also lost to Purdue but came within a second in both the freshman and varsity races against Marietta College last week The losing time of the Tartai varsity was seven seconds faster than the 28-year-old Marietta record.

The Sportans will have Ron Voltz at the coxswain spot with Steve Bolinsky at the stroke oar position. The other rowers will be Ed Revesy, Ed Lyons, Chuck Eddy, Bill Smoke, Jim Johnston, Ron Weston and Jim Tyler

THE RECORD OF Michigan State's two-mile relay team this spring is an enviable one. Already holding meet records in three major relay events, the classy squad's more recent achievement was the breaking of a world's record in last Friday's Los Angeles Coliseum Relays.

The only "flaw" in this performance, was the second place the Spartans were forced to take, behind the record. setting run of the University of California and anchorman Don Bowden, the only native born American to break the four-minute mile barrier. The West Coast relay team raced to a 7:20.9 finish, to better MSU's record-breaking 7:21.4 effort by three yards and set a new world mark. Occidental college held the old record, which they set at 7:22.8 just last year, running this same relay meet.

THE FINAL LEG OF the race witnessed tween the Spartans sophomore sensation, Willie Atte-berry, and Bowden, who had passed the mile run to Jos for a record in the relay event. Atterberry took the from teammate Bob Lake, six yards behind the Califors runner, and moved up to challenge him on the gun la Bowden's lead, plus his 1:49.5 half-mile performance, we too much for Atterberry, however, as he finished three cards back

Even to the most casual observer, it would appear the the two raile relay team, composed of Capt. Dave Leas Brian Castle, Bob Lake and Atterberry, has done all that could be asked. The flashy foursome, which features the sophomores, has won the two-mile event in the Quanti Kansas and Penn Relays, setting a record each time breakdown of their time at Los Angeles show these splits—Castle, 1:52.4, Lake, 1:50.4; Lean, 1:49.4, and Atterberg

THE RELAY TEAM'S PERFORMANCE is a credit Coach Karl Schlademan, retiring as head track coach, wh has produced many fine athletes during his 18 years a MSU Credit is also due to the members of the two-mile lay team. They have instilled in this year's track team th spirit of winning, which comes only from being the cit. pion. This will be an all-important factor in this Friday and Saturday's Big 10 outdoor Championship at Lafavette Ind. The Spartans have an excellent chance to improve their fifth place indoor finish.
