To Play Braves

1st Place Giants Go Back to West Coast

SAN FRANCISCO (P)-The San Francisco Giants, hobbled but in first place in the National League by one game, made ready to go after challenging Milwaukee on the Braves' first invasion of the West Coast.

The Giants came back last night to a rousing welcome at International airport from 2,500 fans.

Manager Bill Rigney com-mented "Nothing like this ever happened in New York."

A brass band played and fans A brass band placed and lans waved banners and pennants in a carnival atmosphere to wel-come the club that won 13 while losing 8 on a road trip that started May 12.

"We are a bit tired," Rigney said. "but we are glad to be home. A day or two rest should bring us back like new."

The club gets the rest until tenight when the Giant right-hander Ruben Gomez (5-3) meets Lew Burdette (4-3) in the first of a three-game set. The Braves, 12 percentage points, or one-game behind, will be playing their first West Coast rame before a canacity crowd in small Seals stadium. All boxes and reserved seals have been sold out for weeks. The 5,000 bleacher seats to be sold to-niebt, will bring a 23,000-plus crowd into the park.

Both clubs have the miseries. The Giants' Willie Mays, second in the leaene hatting with 407, has been hobblink on a tender knee and Orlando Ceneda. Jim Davenport and reliefer Mary Grissom have been nursing allments.

On the Braves' side, Manager

Schoendienst hasn't played for

The Braves took two out of first set in Milwakee. Burdette, the three-game World Series winner, defeated the league leaders 9-3.

Rigney's surprising Giants, at one time 2½ games ahead on the toad trip, ran into near-disaster in St. Louis when the Cardinals won three straight. Lefty Johnny

The boat is being built by a syndicate headed by George Sears of New York, former commodore of the New York Yacht club and a financier from one of Boston's leading families.
