John D., Jr., Dies Of Heart Strain

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—John D. Rockefeller Jr., who poured millions of dollars into a worldwide program of philanthropy, died in a Tucson hospital Wednesday at the age of 86.

A spokesman for Rockefeller's physician attributed death to pneumonia and heart strain. Rockefeller, a frequent winter visitor to Tucson, had been ill for several months.

Admitted to the hospital last December, Rockefeller remained there until being discharged two weeks ago. He was re-admitted Monday when his condition became serious, and members of the family were called to his bedside.

His son, New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, arrived by plane only a few hours before the death.

No estimate of Rockefeller's personal fortune was available. But his great wealth was evident in known gifts totaling more than 350 million dollars.

Rockefeller's father built up the family fortune through the Standard Oil Co. He gave away more than 530 millions before his death in 1937 and other members of the family have been responsible for generous and little known benefactions.

The total gifts of the Rockefeller family for the benefit of their country in past, present and future generations is conservatively estimated at more than $1 billion dollars.

This does not include interest on endowments financing such organizations as the Rockefeller Foundation, General Education Board and Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research.

Rockefeller Jr. was responsible for construction of New York's Rockefeller Center and made the gifts of the $15-million-dollar site for a home for the United Nations that brought the world organization to New York.

Lawmakers Hope to End Pay Issue

LANSING (AP)—Michigan lawmakers gathered Wednesday to begin the 1960 legislative session. The session will be held for formal sine die adjournment, barring some sort of conflict, at noon Friday.

The most important questions awaiting an answer revolved around money for higher education, state construction and a pay raise for legislators.

The guessing was that a coalition of Democrats and Republicans in the House would be formed to settle on a $1,250 a year lawmaker pay boost, pushing the new level at $6,250.

When such a proposal was offered nearly four weeks ago, Democrats rejected it as not enough. They held out for a $2,000 increase.

Rep. Allison Green of Kingston, Republican leader in the House, said there was sentiment for a quick windup, and that the feeling would be reflected in adjusting all differences.

Green said he thought the House would have to yield to Senate insistence on knocking down a House-inserted one million dollar appropriation boost for Wayne State University to $400,000, all the Senate will allow.

Kaline Hits Homer To Beat Senators 1-0

WASHINGTON (AP)—Al Kaline walloped a home run into the left field bleachers with two out in the 11th inning Wednesday night to end a marathon pitching duel between Detroit's Frank Lary and Washington's Pedro Ramos in a 1-0 Tiger victory.

Detroit snapped a 10-game losing streak Tuesday night when Rocky Colavito hit a ninth inning homer for a similar 1-0 victory over the Senators.

Candidates Meet With State Board On WMU Post

LANSING (AP)—The state board of education interviewed three candidates for the post of president of Western Michigan University behind closed doors Wednesday.

Lynn Bartlett, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, said no decision was made at the meeting.

The board will select a successor to University President Paul Sanzen, retiring July 1 from the $25,000 a year post.

Interviewed Wednesday were James Miller, state controller; Russell Siebert, Vice President in Charge of Academic Affairs at Western Michigan; and John Lederle, Director of the Institute of Public Administration at the University of Michigan.

Both Bartlett and James Lewis, UM Vice President, also have been mentioned as strong candidates.

"No one has been eliminated and other people will be considered," Bartlett said. "He said the date for the next board meeting has not yet been set and that no more interviews are planned at the moment."

Russ Spies Captured —By Swiss

BERN, Switzerland (AP)—The Swiss government Wednesday expelled two Soviet diplomats after announcing they had been caught trying to obtain Swiss and West German military secrets.

The two were said to have been lured by a double agent into an espionage trap in Zurich.

Government and police officials refused to disclose the names of the diplomats or of the agent involved. The Russians were arrested Tuesday and given orders to get out of Switzerland within 24 hours.

The government announced that the Russians, assigned to the Soviet Embassy in Bern, held a secret rendezvous with a man they took to be a Soviet intelligence agent. They expected him to sell them top secret information on Swiss defense plans and material on missile launching bases in West Germany.

Intelligence officers questioned the Russians for several hours.

Jimmie Davis Takes Office

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Jimmie Houston Davis became the 41st Governor of Louisiana Tuesday in ceremonies that ended the tragic, colorful term of Earl K. Long.

The 58-year-old country music singer vowed in a brief inaugural talk to make a stubborn stand against racial integration.

"We will solve our problems on our own terms without interference from those outside our borders," he promised.

Khrushchev Jerks Welcome Mat But Will Talk It Over in Paris

Soviets Deny Spy Planes

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio Wednesday accused German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of a deliberate lie in asserting that Soviet spy planes have been flying high altitude reconnaissance over West Germany.

"Oddly enough, neither the American armers nor the American radar instruments in West Germany have been able to detect what the Chancellor—should his not-so-young eyes—claims to have noticed," said a broadcast beamed at Germany.

In a speech at Düsseldorf Monday, Adenauer asserted that Soviet planes had for years been flying over and photographing great tracts of the United States and West Germany. He attributed his information on the late U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Jobs Offered

Any student interested in working at summer school registration, June 21 and 22, should contact registration office, 113 Administration.

Deadline Tuesday

Deadline for obtaining membership in International Club is Tuesday. Nominations for new officers will close May 20. Elections are May 27 at 8 p.m. in 31 Union. Only registered persons are eligible to vote.

Entertain May 20

The Spartan Women's League will entertain 175 new faculty members of 1959-60 and 30 student leaders May 20, not May 24 as previously stated. The program will be held in the Centennial room in Kellogg Center.

Sixteen Sororities Vie for Sing Awards

Sixteen sororities will be vying for musical awards Sunday afternoon at the annual Sorority Sing. The program will begin at 2:30 in the Aud.

Dr. Maurice Crane of the humanities dept. will be master of ceremonies. Judges will be Donald Fink of Grand Rapids, Donald Large of Detroit and Mrs. Dorothy Acevedo of East Lansing.

Kennedy Wins Praise For Primary Triumph

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic leaders Wednesday applauded Sen. John Kennedy's West Virginia primary triumph as a great one for him and a happy omen for their party's prospects in the fall elections.

Kennedy, fresh from knocking Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota clear out of the presidential contest, said his win Tuesday assures him of landing the top place on the Democratic ticket.

Some of Kennedy's exuberant supporters predicted, meanwhile, that the Massachusetts Senator will take the nomination on the first ballot at the party's national convention in Los Angeles two months hence.

But Kennedy himself indicated he felt there was considerable political work still to be done. He announced plans for intensive stumpings for Maryland's primary next Tuesday and indicated he will campaign ahead of Oregon's primary May 20.

At a news conference Kennedy said he considers his chief competitors to be Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas and Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.). The names of both are on the Oregon ballot.

Neither Johnson nor Symington showed the slightest sign of throwing in the towel, as did Humphrey, when he realized Kennedy had beaten him in West Virginia.

In the main, Republicans refrained from talking for publication about the Kennedy victory. Instead, they sought to divert attention to what they said was an impressive write-in vote for Vice President Richard Nixon in Nebraska's presidential primary where Kennedy's name was the only one on the ballot.

Journalism Group To Hear Tugman On Mellett Case

William Tugman, Oregon newspaper publisher and editor, will talk on the history of journalism and the late Don Mellett, crusading editor of the Canton (Ohio) News today at 3:30 in 205 Journalism Bldg.

Mellett was killed in 1926 because of his ruthless exposure of the connection between city officials and the organized underworld.

Tugman helped in the exposes at the time.

Many of the people of Canton were mildly amused by the crusade of Mellett and "secretly" called him a fool for risking his life.

But during the next election they voted back into office exactly the same mayor and other officials who had been forced to resign from office.

A native of Cincinnati, Tugman received a BA degree at Harvard in 1914.

Tugman became editor of the Eugene (Ore) Register in 1927 and took over the Port Umpqua Courier, a weekly newspaper at Reedsport, Ore., as editor and owner in 1953.

President Startled But Silent

WASHINGTON (AP)—Barbed comments by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev Wednesday suddenly pulled the welcome mat from under President Eisenhower's goodwill visit to Russia.

Administration officials were plainly startled by Khrushchev's remark that Eisenhower might be an embarrassing guest because he approved spy-flights over Russia.

"The Russian people would say I was mad to welcome a man who sends spy planes over here like that," the Soviet Premier told reporters in Moscow.

This newest maneuver by Khrushchev raised the prospect he might pull back his invitation to Eisenhower or that Eisenhower might cancel or delay the 10-day visit set to start June 10.

Khrushchev's free-wheeling personal comment at a news conference also appeared to raise East-West tensions another notch in advance of the summit conference starting in Paris five days hence.

The White House and state department greeted Khrushchev's words with a frosty, not content.

An Eisenhower associate, expressing what he called a personal view, doubted that Eisenhower would seek to cancel his trip because of Khrushchev's words. The President was described as eager to make the visit because this official said he sincerely believes it might lead to an easing of tensions.

Eisenhower views the sharp words exchanged between the Soviet Union and the United States since the spy incident as cold war jockeying for advantage prior to important negotiations, this informant said.

The Soviet leader appeared to do an about-face at one point, saying he anticipated no excesses whatsoever among the people of the United States ahead with the visit.

Eisenhower announced that he will offer his "open skies" proposal again at the summit conference opening in Paris Monday.

Eisenhower noted he had advanced the same idea at the last summit meeting in 1955, when it was rejected by the Soviets.

He said he will bring it up again this time because "it is a means of ending concealment and suspicion" which inflames tensions in the cold war.

The open skies plan involves United States-Russian agreement on sending airplanes over each other's country on reconnaissance missions to make sure there are no secret military buildups.

Through an open skies agreement, Eisenhower said in 1955, the United States and Russia would "convince the world that we are providing as between ourselves against the possibility of great surprise attack, thus lessening danger and relaxing tension."

Annual Ox Roast To Be Held Tonight

Ag Council's annual ox roast will be held tonight at 5:30 in the soccer field. In case of rain it will be in the judging pavilion.

Prairie beef, cooked western style, potato salad and baked beans highlight the menu.

Special features include a student-faculty ball game, a square dancing demonstration by the Promenaders with audience participation, and several children's contests.

No Comment

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Trade Commission has been asked to determine whether the New York Times is engaging in false and misleading advertising in declaring it published "All the News That's Fit to Print."

The Times said it had no comment at this time.

General To Speak To ROTC

GEN. L. L. LEMNITZER

The Army Chief of Staff, Gen. Lyman Lemnitzer, will be the speaker at the traditional spring commissioning ceremonies for the Army and Air Force ROTC units at 4:20 p.m. May 31, Pres. John A. Hannah announced.

The entire ROTC detachments, comprising some 3,000 cadets, will parade on Old College Field during the exercises at which second lieutenant commissions will be presented to 69 graduating seniors.

The entire ROTC detachments, comprising some 3,000 cadets, will parade on Old College Field during the exercises at which second lieutenant commissions will be presented to 69 graduating seniors.

General Lemnitzer is a 1920 graduate of the U.S. Military Academy and is also a graduate of the Command and General Staff School and the Army War College.

He has been Army Chief of Staff since June 1959 when he was named by President Eisenhower to succeed retiring General Maxwell D. Taylor.

General Lemnitzer has a distinguished record as a commander during World War II and played an important role for the Allies in negotiating the unconditional surrender of the German Army in Italy and Southern Austria.

He holds the Distinguished Service Medal, the Legion of Merit, the Silver Star for gallantry in action in Korea, and numerous other American awards. He has also received decorations from seven foreign nations, including the French Legion of Honor.

Those to be commissioned May 31 include 53 Army and 16 Air Force ROTC cadets. Commissions to 29 other Army cadets become effective during the summer.

During spring vacation, the group took their annual tour, presenting concerts at Muskegon Junior College, Olivet College and in cities including Detroit, Battle Creek, Grand Rapids, Coldwater, Flint, Auburn, Ind., and Toledo, Ohio.

Included in the Sunday concert will be four numbers performed by the choir and orchestra. Orchestral accompaniment will be featured with "Sanctus" from the Lord Nelson Mass, by Haydn; "Balaalaw," by Warlock; "Pange Lingua," by Kodaly, and "Te Deum Laudamus," by Holst.

Two harps will accompany the choir in their renditions of "Black, is the Color of My True Love's Hair," an American folksong, and "Something Lief Beyond the Scene," an original composition by Miffard Thomson. "Jonah," by Bacon, is taken from the tale of Moby Dick.

The Singers have always stressed both early and contemporary music. Of special interest will be a Gregorian Chant, the "Litany of the Sacred Heart." The numbers to be performed by the Singers range from this early period of Gregorian music, through the Renaissance period, to compositions by modern composers. In the latter category, two numbers have been written by members of the MSU Music department.

Directing the Singers will be Richard Klausli. Klausli is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, with additional study at the Longy

School of Music, International School of Art in Czechoslovakia, Columbia University, Union Theological Seminary, and Oxford University. Besides formal study at these institutions he has worked privately with outstanding musicians in Boston and New York.

THE SUBMARINE TRITON rides the surface of the Atlantic off the Delaware Coast May 10, making an historic voyage around the world under water. The trip took 84 days. The voyage traced much of the route of the first trip around the globe by the expedition of Ferdinand Magellan. The Triton surfaced twice, but the main part of the ship remained sealed.

Hospital Aides to Meet

New developments in the care of the chronically ill in county hospitals will be examined at a symposium May 18-19. Keynoting the eighth annual Management Conference for County Medical Care Facilities at the County Infirmaries will be Russell Blanchard, associate director of the Rehabilitation Institute of Metropolitan Detroit. About 150 county hospital personnel from across the state are expected to attend the Kellogg Center meeting. Co-sponsoring the event are the MSU School of Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Management, the Michigan Social Welfare Commission and the State Association of County Social Welfare Workers.

The conference will follow up on discussion on care of the chronic outside the hospital. Dr. Donald Bouma, professor of sociology at Calvin College, Grand Rapids, will talk on "Preparing for Long-Term Patient for Living Outside the Hospital." Miss Ollie Randall, vice chairman of the National Committee on the Aging, New York City, will discuss "The Patient in the Community." Other sessions will study problems to hospital administration, accreditation and the teaching and training of nurses' aids.

China Charges

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China charged that a U. S. Naval patrol plane intruded into its territorial air space over Yung-Shan Island off South China Wednesday. Peiping radio said the 95th warning "has been issued against such 'military provocation by the U. S.'"

International Festival Presents World Talent

It's festival time and Spartans go international! Two hundred fifty students from 40 groups and countries will present exhibits and stage a talent show at the 16th annual International Festival scheduled Saturday in the Aud.

The show, sponsored by the International club, is a main attraction in the program set up for Parents' Weekend.

Two stage shows, consisting of 16 acts portraying a world tour, will be shown at 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. in the Aud.

The tour starts in the United States, goes through Europe, Africa, the Middle East and South East Asia. It continues to the Far East, West Indies, Latin America and ends in western United States.

Dr. John A. Hannah and Dean Tom King will give the official welcome at the stage performances.

Exhibits representing 24 groups and countries will be set up in the Aud basement, 9 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Groups displaying exhibits are Spanish Club, 4-H Club, International Club and AUSA, International Relations Club, Cross Roads Africa Club and Ukrainian Club.

Countries participating are Arab States, Afghanistan, Estonia, France, Israel, India, Latvia, Philippines, Japan, Germany, Pakistan, Africa, China, Korea, Trinidad, Iran and Jamaica.

The master of ceremonies for the stage show is Natalia Sabal, Ann Arbor sr.

Representatives from Africa, Estonia, Latvia, Ukraine, Korea and the Philippines will present folk dances.

Traditional and popular songs will be sung by performers from Israel, Vietnam and Jamaica with Calypso from Trinidad.

Showermen from Pakistan and Arab States will offer popular music and dances.

The Latin American countries will present "Carnival Time." This is a celebration with Mambo and Cha Cha dances backed by music from bongo drums.

Vice Adm. Hyman Rickover, Chief of the Atomic Energy Commission's nuclear reactor branch, watched the presentations closely, and took a bow.

'Fantasia' Sing Planned On Sunday

The Women's Inter-Residence Council will present its annual Inter-Residence Sing "Fantasia" Sunday in Kellogg Auditorium at 3.

Chairman B. Woods, Sturge soph., reports that parents of the officers and choir members have been personally invited.

The following residence halls and selections will be presented: East Lansing, director Sandra Colby, "Grand Rapids" and "Thumbeina"; and "Evening Prayer"; Mason, director Jean Hottel, "Mother Mine" and "O Felix Anna"; Gilchrist, director Rosalie Fink, St. Johns sr., "June Is Bustin' Out All Over" and "Green Cathedral"; West Lansing, director Judy Huber, Midland Jr., "Mountain Love Song" and "Merry Month of May"; Van Hooen, director Martha Foote, Grosse Pointe soph., "My Favorite Things" and "The Red, Red Robin"; and "The Quaker Lover".

Also taking part in the sing are North Campbell, director Nancy Nash, Howell fr., "Love Is a Simple Thing" and "The Keeper"; West Yackley, director Jeanne Anderson, Ferndale soph., "Within Thy Love" and "The Quaker Lover".

Sue Clark, Lansing fr., from Phillips Hall will be the mistress of ceremonies and will give a dramatic reading. The three place awards will be presented by Alice Bonomo, Vandalla soph., president of WIC.

Those judging the choir will be Mrs. Mary Jones, vocal music department; Mrs. G. Newton Barber, past president of Lansing Civic Symphony Orchestra; Frank McKowan, Sexton High School music department.

Poised at Everest

NEW DELHI (AP)—An Indian expedition is poised for a final assault on the summit of Mt. Everest, said a radio report received here Wednesday. A party of Indian military men trying to climb the 29,028-foot peak reported establishing its final camp at 26,000 feet.

State Parks Fee Bill Unsigned, but Is Law

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams Wednesday permitted the controversial state parks fee bill to become law without his signature.

Williams, who has vetoed similar measures twice since 1957, thus cleared the way for an ambitious multi-million dollar program to enlarge and improve the state parks system.

The bill, effective in mid-Aug., authorizes sale of a $2 windshield sticker which will admit motorists to all state parks for a year. Autos without stickers will be charged as to 50 cents. Proceeds will retire up to 10 million dollars in bonds.

State conservation authorities said it was unlikely fees would be charged before next year.

The state conservation commission will determine which of Michigan's 60 parks and recreation areas will come under the admission fee plan.

The governor's decision backed off opposition from house Democrats, who objected to admission charges to public lands.

Rep. Joseph Kowalski (D-Detroit), Democratic floor leader, criticized the action as "unfortunate" and "disappointing."

However, he said, the only

4 Sports Field Day at MSU Saturday

Sports devotees will have a field day Saturday on Michigan State's campus. They'll be able to watch football, baseball, track and golf, at locations within a stone's throw of each other.

Serving as a warm up to the big day will be the baseball meeting between the Spartans and Ohio State on Friday, starting at 3:30 p.m.

Here's the Saturday schedule:

- 8 a.m., Golf, Michigan State vs. Michigan and Iowa, at Forest Akers Course.
- 1 p.m., Baseball, Michigan State vs. Indiana, two games, at Old College Field.
- 1:30 p.m., Track, Michigan State vs. Notre Dame, at Ralph Young Field.
- 2 p.m., Football, Michigan State Varsity vs. the Spartan Old Timers, Spartan Stadium.

Over at Old College Field, Coach John Kobs' baseball Spartans try to get back into the Big 10 title picture as they entertain the Hoosiers. The Spartans stand with two wins and four losses in league play, and play Ohio State in a single game Friday before playing the twinnill Saturday. A sweep of the three games is a necessity for the squad to harbor any further title hopes.

MSU Sailors Finish in 6th, At MCSA Finals This Week

The University of Michigan sailing crew won the sixth annual Detroit Yacht Club Collegiate Invitational last weekend at Belle Isle in the Detroit River.

MSU finished sixth in the 10-school field, one-half point behind Ohio State, which had 128 points.

Behind the Wolverines were University of Detroit, Notre Dame, Wayne State, OSU and MSU.

Michigan accumulated 190 points on three firsts, seven seconds and four thirds.

The Spartans finished first, once, second twice and third five times. They had one disqualification and were fouled out twice because of hitting marks.

MSU beat the Wolverines the week before by one point at the MCSA eliminations. The finals are this week at Grosse Pointe.

After 12 races, the Wolverines lead the over-all standings with 116 points, followed by Notre Dame, MSU and Wayne State.

The Spartan skippers are Mike Dow, Dave Davis, Ron Kinder and John Raviolo. On their crews are Miss Corale Jaieneken, Miss Nan Horton and Jerry Walker.

The sailing club will have a meeting at 7:30 p.m. in room 33 of the Union. The racing board will meet at 7 in the Union grill.

BIG 10 TRACK STARS

ONE OF THE NATION'S top sophomore middle distance runners will be at Michigan State May 20-21 in the person of Purdue's Duane Mills. Mills, from Lakewood, Ohio, compiled an enviable record as a freshman when he beat Olympic champion Glenn Davis twice in one afternoon in the 400-meters and 300-yard events. An ankle injury handicapped him during the 1959 indoor season but now he appears ready to go at full tilt.

Traveling Spartans Win-Lose, Baseball Successful; Tennis Not

Sinks Wins As Reliever, Hits in Clutch

Mickey Sinks, with some excellent relief pitching and a clutch single, led the Spartans to a 5-3 victory over Notre Dame at South Bend, Wednesday.

This weekend, MSU will return to conference action with a single game Friday against Ohio State starting at 3:30. On Saturday, the Spartans will host Indiana in a doubleheader starting at 1 p.m.

Sinks' single in the ninth inning scored Jerry Lumianski from second with what proved to be the winning run against the Irish. The score broke a 3-3 tie. Ron Holmes followed Sinks and hit the fourth straight single for the Spartans, scoring Bob Mauerka.

Don Sackett started the contest for MSU and gave up only one unearned run until the fifth, when he lost his control and walked the first three batters. Sinks then came in and held the Irish to two runs in the inning, both charged to Sackett.

The Spartans came up with one of their best hitting days of the season with 12 hits. Five players picked up two hits each.

MSU scored its first run in the second on consecutive singles by Sam Henderson and Ron Marlati. But Sackett then forced Marlati with Hendee scoring.

Hendee also scored in the fourth inning. After smashing a lead-off double, Hendee advanced to third on Marlati's grounder to second and scored when the Irish catcher attempted a pick off play and threw the ball into right field.

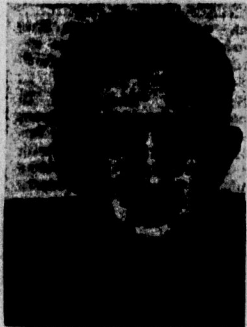

In the fifth, State again scored when Dick Golden forced Holmes, who had lead off with a single. Golden then went to second on a bad throw by the shortstop and advanced to third on Schudlich's grounder to second. He then scored when the second baseman booted Hendee's grounder.

The victory was Sinks' fourth against two losses and MSU's 12th in 20 games. Nick Palihovich, who pitched the entire game for Notre Dame, absorbed his first loss of the season after winning his first four starts.

Golden continued his hot batting with two singles against the Irish. He has picked up seven base hits in his last 11 trips to the plate to raise his average 80 points to .208.

Wilson Among Starters Duffy Names for Game

The 22-man first string for the Old Timers game Saturday was named by football coach Duffy Daugherty, with Tom Wilson getting the quarterback nod.

Wilson, who was voted the varsity's most valuable player in last spring's game, will have first crack to impress the Spartan coaching brass. He is in a three-way battle with Don Stewart and Leroy Loudermilk for the No. 1 signallcasing spot for next fall.

Daugherty said performances against the tough alumni unit will count heavily in determining Duffy's top QB.

Starting the game with Wilson if the varsity begins the game offensively are Carl Charon at fullback and Herb Adderley and Larry Hudak at halfbacks.

On the line will be Fred Arbanas and Art Brandstatter at ends, Mickey Walker and Tom Winicki at tackles, Howard Mudd and George Azar at guards, and Dave Manders at center.

But if the Spartans happen to kick off to the alumni at the 2 p.m. starting time, Ike Grimmsley, Stewart, Bob Suel and Ron Hatcher will hold down the defensive backfield.

Stopping Old Timer thrusts on the line will be Dick Oxendine and Jim Corgiat at ends, Pete Kahela and Ed Budde at tackles, Fred Boylen and Mike Biondo at guards, and Dave Behrman at center.

If the defensive unit plays offense, Ike Grimmsley will move over and let Stewart take over at QB, while Mitch Newman will run at right half.

U of M Snaps Our Winning Streak, 7-2

(Special to the State News)
ANN ARBOR—Defending Big 10 champion University of Michigan defeated MSU, 7-2, in a tennis meet held here Wednesday afternoon in a cold rain.

The defeat was the first for MSU in its 17 meets this season. The Wolverines swept the doubles and took four of the six singles events.

The quarterbacks will attempt to get back on the winning trail today in a meet with Western Michigan at Kalamazoo.

No. 1 man Brian Eisner took care of the Wolverine Jerry Dubie, 7-5, 6-1. Dubie is a defending champion and Eisner is a sophomore.

The other Spartan winner was Ron Mesall, who put away Michigan's No. 5 player, Kenny Mike, 6-2, 6-1.

The meet was closer than the final score indicates as the Wolverines had to go to three games four times before winning matches.

Frank Fulton put down MSU Bill Hotchkiss, 6-2, 4-6, 6-0, in the No. 2 slot.

Michigan's John Wiley won, 6-3, 3-6, 6-1, over Doug Smith, in No. 3.

In Nos. 4 and 5 Spartans Roger Plagenhoef and Ron Henry, fell in two matches.

Dubie and Wiley teamed to squeak out MSU's top doubles team of Eisner and Smith, 6-2, 3-6, 6-2. Hotchkiss and Plagenhoef were even more stubborn in losing to Fulton and Mike, 6-4, 8-10, 6-4.

Henry and Mesall fell, 6-3, 6-1, to Wolves Tom Tenny and Bruce MacDonald.

ONE HALF of Michigan State's six-man 1960 tennis team hails from East Lansing, adjacent to the Spartan campus.

'SI' Claims Big 10 Gridders Paid $ $

NEW YORK (AP) — Sports Illustrated charges football stars at some Big 10 universities are paid in cash after a game and others receive weekly payments in unsigned envelopes through the mail. The schools were not named.

The accusations were made by the sports weekly magazine in its May 16 issue in an article discussing recruiting practices and the NCAA's drastic action last month against the University of Indiana. Indiana was placed on probation for four years for allegedly violating NCAA rules in recruiting six prospective football players.

Sports Illustrated quoted unidentified recruiters from other Big 10 schools as saying, "Indiana had to get caught because it didn't use any class," and Indiana recruiters used "no finesse."

SI writer Jack Olson had this to say about recruiting in the Big 10:

"High-pressure recruiting has always been the norm in the Big 10; it was Forest Evashevski's talent to build Iowa into a football power with an extensive recruiting program which never (well, hardly ever) crossed the bounds of propriety. "Star football players are kept happy at other Big 10 schools in a myriad of extralegal ways. One angel meets the players in the locker room after a game, shakes hands all around and deposits bills ranging from $10 to $50 in eager, sweaty palms. At another school, football players receive unsigned envelopes in the weekly honorarium envelope, sometimes they show up for "work," and sometimes they stay in bed."

Many Big 10 football players are carried on the payrolls of industry at $40 or $50 weekly, sometimes they show up for "work," and sometimes they stay in bed."

Legend Gets Two Treatments In Local Theater Showings

The legend of Orpheus and Eurydice is receiving noteworthy treatment from two different sources, with two different approaches, and at two different local cinemas.

The first and probably best of the two versions is Black Orpheus at the State Theatre. It is a Franco-Italian production spoken in Portuguese and photographed at Carnival time in Rio de Janeiro.

The original legend tells how Orpheus, the musician, loses his beloved wife Eurydice when, fleeing from an unrequited lover, she treads on a venomous serpent and dies.

He descends to the Underworld in search of her, and with his music charms the deities of Hades persuading them to let him return to the Earth with Eurydice. He is forbidden to look back before he reaches the world of the living, and when he forgets and does, he loses Eurydice and must return alone.

Vowing never to take notice of another woman, he meets a group of Thracian women whose love he has spurned. Enraged at his indifference, they tear him to pieces.

The Muses collect his parts and bury the mal the foot of Mt. Olympus, and his spirit returns to the underworld to rejoin Eurydice.

Marcel Camus brilliantly conceived and directed production closely parallels the original legend.

Conference Scheduled On World Developments

The Michigan Conference on International Development, arranged by MSU, the University of Michigan and Wayne State University, will be held in the Horace Rackham School of Graduate Studies in Ann Arbor, May 15-17.

Co-sponsored by the Michigan Education Association and 50 other participating organizations, the conference is one of the official events of Michigan Week, May 13-21.

Highlights of the three-day meeting will be addresses by Gov. G. Mennen Williams on "Regional Development in the Near East," Paul Hoffman, director, United Nations Special Fund, "United Nations Programs Aiding Economic and Social Development," Leonard Saccio, deputy director, International Cooperation Administration, "American Foreign Economic Aid Today," and William Thorp, director, The Merrill Center for Economics, Amherst College, and assistant secretary of state for economic affairs, 1946-1952, "The Meaning of Point Four."

Other key speakers include Ambassadors W. M. Q. Halm of Ghana; George Hakim, Lebanon; B. K. Nehru, India; and Abraham Harman, Israel.

Presiding at the sessions will be four university presidents: Harlan Hatcher, University of Michigan; Clarence Hilberry, Wayne State University; John A. Hannah, Michigan State University; and William S. Carlson, University of Toledo.

The story is transported to contemporary Brazil, and the two lovers involved are named after their legendary counterparts.

It is not the story however that is responsible for the resultant excellence of Black Orpheus. Indeed the capacious could irrationalize it to extinction, for Camus doesn't even bother to explain certain facets of the story e.g. why the figure dressed as death at the carnival is christened Eurydice.

But since the facts and facets are always subordinate to their visual and aural presentation, flaws are likely to go unnoticed. The screen is filled with the excitement and color of Rio, its carnival, and its people, accentuated by the stunning Eastman color photographs of Jean Bourgois.

One is captivated by the seething South American rhythms that run the entire course of the film. In fact, a viewer can become so stimulated by what he sees and hears in this film that he may completely forget the story.

The second version, the Fugitive Kind, at the Michigan, deals with the seamy side of Southern living a la Tennessee Williams and is based on his off-Broadway play, "Orpheus Descending." Were it not for the performances of a supremely talented cast, Orpheus would not have had his due in Williams' script.

The film is a slow, brooding conception of down-and-out characters, lamentable situations, and inescapable damnations. If you are looking for a story with a morally beneficial or spiritually uplifting message, skip The Fugitive Kind. But if you're looking for a high-charged display of some of the best talent in the business, see this.

Auto Safety Fellowship Is Renewed

For the third successive year, the Automotive Safety Foundation of Washington, D.C., is providing a $2,000 fellowship for graduate study in the field of highway traffic administration at MSU.

Announcement of the fellowship was made by the School of Police Administration and Public Safety and the Highway Traffic Safety Center, where the special curriculum plan in traffic administration was developed to provide professionally trained people for traffic safety operations at state and municipal levels.

This program, offered only at MSU, includes a four-year undergraduate program which leads to a bachelor of science degree and a graduate program with a master of science degree.

Applicants from any part of the United States are eligible for the ASF fellowship. Requirements for the advanced study program include a bachelor's degree, high scholastic ability, and work or study experience in the field of highway traffic administration.

Last year's fellowship was awarded to Sgt. Thomas Millbrandt, public information officer for the Arizona Highway Patrol. He is now completing his work in police administration with special emphasis on public education. Applications should be submitted by June 15.

Annual Jazz Concert Is Impressive Show

By JERE CARROLL

"Dimensions in Sound," was the theme of Phi Mu Alpha's third annual jazz concert, Tuesday night in the music auditorium.

Dr. M. E. Hall, associate professor of music, served as master of ceremonies for the program. An experienced jazz specialist, Hall has appeared frequently throughout the state as a lecturer on jazz.

The program began with an impressive showing of the Big Band, under the direction of Hall. The band consisted of five trumpets, four trombones, five saxophones and rhythm section.

The audience was presented with both traditional and modern numbers including: "Almost Like Being In Love," and "Westward Walk."

Featured with the band was vocalist Carol Grabo, East Lansing, who gave the audience two well-arranged numbers: "Happiness Is A Thing Called Joe" and "All of Me."

Stepping down from the Big Band was baritone saxophonist Al Buettler, Lansing, who headed the Al Buettler Quintet, which represented Michigan State last term in the collegiate jazz festival at Notre Dame.

Buettler, winner of the Best Saxophonist award at the collegiate jazz festival, led the quintet in "Blues In The Closet," "Jeepers Creepers" and "Crafty." These and other numbers were done remarkably well.

Next came interpretations of well-known styles with Carl Eberhard, Bay City, giving an especially good impression of Errol Garner's style. Eberhard dug to use the famous Garner spread chords to get his impressive interpretation.

Jim Benham, Topton, N.C., graduate student, gave his impression of Miles Davis and Bill Hart, Grand Rapids, gave an imitation of Jonah Jones.

The MSU Jazz Nonet presented several traditional and modern numbers arranged by Al Szabo, Rothbury graduate student.

dent, and John Mason, East Lansing soph. Among these arrangements were "Rustic Hop" and "The Hawk Talks."

Music for "Dimensions In Sound" was provided by a grant from the trust funds of the Recording Industries obtained with the cooperation of the Lansing branch of the American Federation of Musicians.

Roylyn Voss Wins Award In 4H Work

AMES, Iowa. (special) Roylyn Voss, Williamston, Jr., received a Pfizer 4-H scholarship award here Tuesday.

The $250 award was presented at the annual Extension Training Conference, in session at Iowa State University.

Active for seven years in 4-H club work, Voss, in 1953, was one of the first club members in his county to carry out a project in photography. Today upward of 150 members are enrolled in this project in the county. Voss later utilized his experience in working with the news photography staff at Michigan State University.

He received honorable mention in Michigan in 1956 for his outstanding work as a junior leader in club work.

Active in college organizations, he is a member of Arnold Air Society, the Promenaders, Wesley Foundation, Sigma Theta Epsilon, the religious service fraternity, and Alpha Zeta, scholastic honors.

Voss plans to continue his education toward a Master's degree in soils, entering the Extension field upon completion of this work.

Farm-City Conference Is Scheduled

The annual Farm-City Relations Conference, which seeks greater mutual understanding between rural and urban residents, will be held on campus May 12.

Already registered for the day-long meeting are members of the Governor's Committee on Farm-City Relations, and representatives of business, education, agriculture, labor and various state agencies.

The primary topic for study will be problems of farm income and subsidies, according to Provost Paul Miller, chairman of the Governor's Committee.

Dr. Lawrence Boger, Dr. Dale Hathaway and Dr. James Bonnen, all of the MSU department of agriculture economics, will discuss various aspects of the farm problem, subsidies and alternative solutions.

Speaking at the evening session will be Dr. Walter Wilcox, senior specialist of the Legislative Reference Service, Library of Congress, Washington, D.C. He will talk on "The Challenge of the 60's."

Participants will also consider the impact of international factors affecting the farm situation. The conference is sponsored by the Governor's Committee on Farm-City Relations, in cooperation with the MSU Office of the Vice President, Continuing Education Service.

Players to Stage Religious Drama

"Christ in the Concrete City," a religious one-act drama, will be presented Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the social hall at Peoples Church.

The Trojan Players of Taylor University, Upland, Indiana, will perform in the religious drama, written by Philip Turner, Jim Young, associate professor of speech, is director.

The drama is being sponsored by the Wesley Foundation, campus organization for Methodist students. The play is open to the public.
