

Old Timers Try Varsity in Saturday Grid Contest

Young Spartan Squad Faces Talented Eleven

Full Regalia of Fall Season Promised for Annual Spectacle

By JIM WALLINGTON
State News Sports Editor

MSU's young sophomore-junior football team caps its spring practice Saturday when it tests its weaknesses and strong points against a squad of former Spartan football players.

The traditional Old Timers game will start at 2 p.m. Saturday in Spartan Stadium. Admission is $5.00 for students, $1 for adults and 50¢ for reserved seats.

All the regalia of a fall football game will accompany the contest Saturday. There will be bands, pre-game and half-time entertainment, official programs, radio broadcasts and full press coverage.

Tom Frimodig, retiring athletic business manager, is being honored at the game. Spectators at the contest will see a team that Duffy Daugherty, head coach figures to be a year away from its full potentiality. He expects that sophomores and juniors dominate the team and they should gain enough playing savvy this fall to be one of the best.

But Duffy said he doesn't mean that the Spartans won't win games all fall. The quality of football played should be tops with the most promising young team in the tough Big 10 conference pitted against an old group of former Spartans, many of whom have played, or are playing, professional football.

There will be such Spartan greats as Sam Williams, Dan Currie, Bill Kowalczyk, Clarence Peaks, Norm Masters, Tom Yewic, Al Brown and Lynn Chadnois.

Other famous names on the roster include Dorne Dibble, Dave Keller, John "Thunder" Lewis, Gary Lowe, Bill Quinlan, Ellison Kelly and Bert Zagers.

The old alumni will be bolstered by younger grads off of last year's Spartan team. They include Henry Young, Don Wright, John Wicks, Tom Vernon, Paul Rochester, Bob Riteucci, Jon Marx, Larry West and Jim Chastain.

Two successful college coaches have charge of the Old Timers. They are Steve Sebo of the New York Titans, who led Pennsylvania to a winning year, and Frank "Muddy" Waters, mentor at Hillsdale, one of the top small college teams.

The game is the fourth in a series that has seen each team win the other game was a tie. Daugherty has promised that his squad will go all out for the victory and to give the varsity a series lead.

That the Spartans will be fighting for something even more important to them, personally, Daugherty has indicated that the Old Timers test is a good measuring stick to evaluate talents of the players. First string jobs for this fall may be hinging on performances in this game.

Probably the most interesting of the battles for a first team position is the one that the top three quarterbacks are engaged in. Tom Wilson, who was voted the most valuable varsity performer last spring's Old Timer win, has been given the starting nod.

But the other two signal callers, Leroy Loudermilk and Don Stewart, have been promised plenty of action.

The Spartan 22-man first string system will be engaged in the line battle. The varsity has a squad of 11 offensive specialists and a squad of 11 defensive specialists.

Trustees Discuss Decision on ROTC

Contemporary Issues Group Hears Three Board Members

By BILL KIELMAN, JR.
State News Night Editor

Trustees Jan Vanderploeg, Don Stevens and Warren Huff met with a group of about 50 students and faculty Wednesday night to discuss the question "Why ROTC?"

The meeting, held in the Union ballroom, was sponsored by the Contemporary Issues Forum.

The three board members defended their votes on the issue, stating that, after listening to all viewpoints on a subject, it is the personal responsibility of each member to vote the way he sees it.

Besides a number of individual students, the audience contained groups from the faculty, AUSG, and other organizations. Huff arrived after the meeting had started. His plane was delayed because of weather conditions.

Trustees Stevens and Vanderploeg voted for voluntary ROTC, while Huff voted to retain the compulsory feature.

All three said that efforts of student and faculty groups in studying the question were not wasted. "The reports were carefully read and considered," Vanderploeg said.

C. Allen Harlan's statement that "We've raised the most spoiled generation ever" was repudiated by all three, who emphasized their trust in student intellect.

Stevens voiced a great confidence in the student body, and added that it is "good to see people agitating to gain these rights." He made a reference to the recent student uprisings in Korea which resulted in the installation of a new government, pointing out that students can and do accomplish objectives which seem at first beyond achievement.

"I'm not one of those who doesn't have confidence in the students," he added.

Vanderploeg stated, "I see no reason for only land grant colleges to have compulsory military training. Let Congress decide this matter, and do it for all the colleges."

"I'm convinced that we're being discriminated against," he added.

Proposed improvements and changes in the ROTC program were emphasized again and again in the question-and-answer session that followed the opening remarks.

Vanderploeg asserted that the board retained the compulsory feature with the understanding that changes in the academic content of the program would be initiated "within a year."

In reply to a question from Carl Griffier, Stevens said, "I think it is a shame to waste money on basic ROTC when it could be used for more essential defense expenses."

He gave examples of the shortage of engineers and other scientists as fields in which the money could be spent with more tangible results.

U. S. 'Doubts' Russ Ready To Ease World Tension

Postponing Of Moscow Visit Seen

Summit Prospects Called Uncertain

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States said Thursday night Russia's handling of the American spy plane case raises doubts about the Soviets' readiness to reduce tensions at the East-West summit conference.

In a formal note, the State Department said President Eisenhower will go to Paris prepared to cooperate fully in seeking East-West agreements to ease tensions.

The note came in reply to a Russian protest demanding an immediate halt to all U.S. spy flights over Russia. The Soviets two days ago branded such flights "hostile acts" and threatened to retaliate in the future against them.

In a brief answer delivered in Moscow Thursday the United States again acknowledged that it has sent such spy flights over Russia but "for purely defensive purposes."

In Paris, preparations for the Big Four conference moved briskly ahead amid increasing concern about effects of the spy plane incident.

President Charles de Gaulle said, "It's certain that the conference will open in an atmosphere infinitely more uncertain than one thought before."

London reported a growing belief among Western governments that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will ask President Eisenhower to postpone his visit to Russia next month.

Arguments supporting this view have reached western capitals from diplomats in Moscow, qualified officials reported. Diplomats in London think a postponement of the Eisenhower visit really might mean its cancellation.

Big Weekend Is Scheduled For Parents

The campus will roll out a bright green carpet this weekend for students and parents alike as a host of springtime activities burst into bloom.

The annual Parent's Weekend, Engineering Exposition, and International Festival to share the spotlight.

Kicking off the weekend's activities will be the Grand Prix of MSU at 9:15 a.m. Saturday.

Eleven midsize autos, designed, built, and driven by members of the engineering organizations on campus will race around the Kedzie chemistry laboratory.

The queen of the Engineering exposition will be crowned by the Knights of St. Patrick, an engineering honorary society. She will also be presented at the May Hop in the Union at 9 p.m. Saturday.

Engineering exhibits will be on display, and state shows will be presented without charge at 3 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Still other activities planned for visiting parents include a coffee hour at 1 p.m. Saturday in the Union ballroom, hosted by President John A. Hannah; the Women's Inter-Residence Sing, "Fantasia" at 3 p.m. Sunday in the auditorium at K&L; and Sorority Sing, scheduled from 3 p.m. Sunday in the Aud.

First Performance of Spring Band in Impressive Concert

By ELEANOR HATFIELD

The MSU Concert Band, conducted by Leonard Falcone, presented an impressive performance at Wednesday night's first spring band concert in the auditorium.

The program began with Rimsky-Korsakov's stately "Procession of Nobles" from "Mlada," "Cuban Fantasy" by Fred Kauer, included three movements: the exciting "Native Dance," "The Sea," a slow, melancholy theme, and "Havana Terrace," containing a range of smooth, pulsating Latin rhythms.

The band then performed an interesting version of the first movement from Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata." However, the intricate, flowing melody of this masterpiece loses much of its beauty in orchestration.

An effective rhythmic accompaniment and march-like tempo sparked the performance of Curtis' popular "Canta Surriento."

Charles Coltrane, Norfolk, Va., jr., showed remarkable mastery of his instrument in the flute solo "Hoopia" by Marrissey.

The second suite from "Carmen," by Bizet-Falcone, followed, including the delicate "Aragonesa," featuring harp and flute, the forceful and dramatic "Les Dragons D'Alcala," and "Les Toreadors," the march theme popularized in the song

"Stand Up and Fight." A live performance of this famous music never fails to bring out its drama and excitement.

The flowery but pleasant symphonic arrangement of Kern's "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes," was a bit overplayed, and sounded like a grade B movie score.

The happy Strauss melody, "Perpetuum Mobile," was played in a traditional "oompah" style.

Walter's "Jabberwocky," a duet featuring Shirley Atchison, Midland, Mich., on piccolo, and Joseph Scott, Durand, Mich., on tuba, contained a good orchestral background and uplifting tempo. The fast and intricate melody was played well by both soloists, and achieved an interesting and pleasing sound combination.

"Mannin Veen," a tone poem by Hady Wood with Scottish overtones, was beautifully simple, but again much was lost in interpretation by a band of this type. The performance was excessive in volume and strength.

A rousing performance of excerpts from "Stars and Stripes Ballet Suite" by Hershey-Kay proved a fine finish to a well-rounded, well-executed concert.

The band played two encores — both marches: "Foundation March," by Richard Goldman, and "Father of Victory," by Louis Ganne.

Two exchange students in agricultural education from the University of Minnesota are visiting MSU this week to visit students and faculty, tour university farms, visit high school vocational agriculture classes, and talk with President John Hannah and Education Dean Clifford Erickson.

Lyle Ross and Jose C. Zaragoza are the representatives from the Agricultural Education Club of the University of Minnesota. Dave Morey and Dave Peacock will represent MSU on the Minnesota campus.

Michigan State's Agriculture Education Club initiated the student exchange program in 1959 to improve relations among agriculture colleges and universities.

Exchanges have been made with Ohio State and University of Wisconsin.

MSU is authorized to build a new dormitory, housing 1,000 students, which will cost $5,000,000, to ease a "critical" dormitory housing problem.

The project was recommended by the Board of Trustees last week. With present accommodations, they said, 2,158 students will reside next year in dormitories designed for 7,052.

Construction is expected to begin this summer, with completion set for fall of '61.

Radio Unit Restored

Resumption of operations of Brody Radio, a closed circuit radio station, has been approved by the Brody Board, Chairman Jerry Perry announced Thursday.

Men's Hall Association discontinued the service last fall "because of inefficient management," Perry said. It turned the project over to Brody Board, a group representing all units in the dormitory group. Perry said the board obtained approval of all dormitories, involved to resume operations, and has made plans to reorganize.

"The station will be run on a limited budget of $600 per year," said Perry.

Each dormitory has contributed $50 this term to help put the station back in working order.

"The transmitter and control board are to be set up differently and improved," Perry said. "Transmission to the dormitories will also be improved."

Applications will be taken for the positions of station manager, program manager and chief engineer.

A business manager for the station will also be hired by the board. Perry, a 221 Butterfield hall, or Gil Linderman, A 422 Rather hall, are taking applications for these positions.

The board Wednesday also recommended to allow only those students having a 2.0 average to get Brody parking stickers for their cars. Future parking stickers would be obtained from the resident advisors of the halls.

In reply to a question from Carl Griffier, Stevens said, "I think it is a shame to waste money on basic ROTC when it could be used for more essential defense expenses."

He gave examples of the shortage of engineers and other scientists as fields in which the money could be spent with more tangible results.

Prince Aly Dies in Crash

PARIS (AP)—Prince Aly Khan, wealthy sportsman - diplomat, was killed in a suburban highway crash Thursday while driving in from the races with a beautiful woman at his side.

He would have been 49 in June.

With him were the French model Bettina, a constant companion on his European visits, and his chauffeur, who was riding as a passenger while Aly drove. Neither Bettina nor the chauffeur was reported seriously hurt.

The first son of the late Aga Khan III, Prince Aly loved to drive fast cars but in recent years had given up auto racing.

The second annual show, sponsored by the school of packaging, features displays of packaging equipment, new methods, and student projects.

Exhibits are also shown on chemical testing, tough handling, and physical testing.

Hours of the exposition today are 1 to 5 and Saturday 9 to 5. Free coffee will be served by the Packaging Wives Club.

Hiedemann Wins Award

Dr. Egon Hiedemann has received the top award that MSU scientists give annually to one of their members for outstanding research.

The professor of physics was presented with the senior award of the MSU chapter of Sigma Xi at the scientific society's annual banquet Tuesday night in the Union ballroom.

Dr. Hiedemann was cited for meritorious research for many years in ultrasonics, the study of high frequency sound waves beyond the range of human hearing.

The award was presented by the president-elect, Dr. G. Malcolm Trout, acting in the absence of the president, Dr. Lawrence Sommers. The award included $150, a certificate and a paperweight memento.

Livestock will be judged all morning in the judging pavilion, a free lunch will be served the contestants at noon, and the meats judging section will begin at 1:30 p.m. in the meats lab.

A practice session will be held tonight in the meats lab for those who are particularly interested in participating in the meats contest. This session is especially designed for those who have had little or no experience in evaluating carcasses and wholesale cuts of meat.

The club's annual student-faculty picnic will take place Sunday from 10 to 6 at Francis Park in Lansing. Food will be furnished by the club. Cars will be leaving from Anthony Hall between 9:30 and 10 a.m. for those who wish transportation to the park.

Two Veeps Appointed in AUSG Meeting

By JOYCE BUCHHOLZ

Royce Plapp, DeKalb, Ill., and Larry Campbell, Marshall, Mich., were appointed Wednesday as administrative vice-president and executive vice-president, respectively, of AUSG, by President Dan Riedel.

Plapp, who represents fraternities, will resign his seat in AUSG to tackle special problems and coordinate total government operations of the executive, legislative, and judicial branches. Campbell will be in charge of the cabinet.

Speaker Chuck Herbert, Lansing, announced the appointment of new congress members Gibson, married housing; Fleming, Butterfield, and Lamoureux, Lansing, Bill Hartwig, E. Lansing soph., was reappointed sergeant-at-arms.

Speaker pro-tem Jim Anderson, Sparta soph., announced the committee assignments. The five committees are academic affairs, congress business and state affairs, finance, organizations and student rights and welfare.

A resolution which provides the rules of procedure was adopted. A similar resolution is adopted at each new congress.

Congress heard several representatives of various insurance companies who are bidding for the Student Health Insurance Plan, an annual life and accident policy offered to the students. The investigation was placed in committee for further consideration.

Dr. Murray Hewgill of the speech department will speak before congress next week on parliamentary procedure.

Greeks to Sponsor Street Dance

The Greeks are swinging this weekend—at individually sponsored term parties and at a Pan-Hel-FIC sponsored street dance. The women of Sigma Kappa will hold their annual term party this evening at Dinos Terrace Room. The theme of the semi-formal dinner dance is "Le Preize Heureux." Music will be provided by the Don Rodrigo Trio.

The men of Lambda Chi Alpha will feast and dance at their Crescent Ball this evening at Walnut Hills Country Club. Trophies will be presented to the Crescent Ball Queen and her court as a highlight of the evening. The music for the dance will be furnished by Kenny Davis.

Gamma Phi Beta is also presenting their annual spring term party this evening at the Lansing Country Club. Ray Robson will provide the music. The Alpha Sigma Phi house will be transformed into a movie theater tonight. Three short movies will be shown in the Rathskeller room of the chapter house, with vendors on hand with traditional popcorn and soft drinks.

On Saturday evening the brothers of Alpha Gamma Rho are presenting their annual spring term party with "Enchanted Evening" as their theme. The Art Sherwood Band will furnish the music for the dance to be held at the Tice House.

The "Annual Anchor Ball" will highlight the weekend for the Delta Gamma's, as they present their spring term party Saturday evening. A lucky male will be honored for his assistance around the DG house, as he is bestowed with the "Anchor Man" title. The music for their event will be provided by Bud Spangler.

Pi Beta Phi is presenting their spring term party at the Olds Hotel Saturday evening. A spring-time theme with decorations of lilacs and daisies will furnish a background for music by Kenny Davis. The "Annual Birthday Ball" will be held Saturday evening by the brothers of Delta Epsilon at the Poplars. "New York, New York" will be the theme of the informal term party held by Delta Chi Saturday evening. Stereo will provide the musical background for dancing on the patio.

Trustees Discuss Decision

(Continued from Page 1) things about the military organization, but it is the only army we have and we have to support it." Huff said in defense of his vote to retain compulsory.

A letter from Ass't Secretary of Defense Charles F. Egan was read which maintained that the question of voluntary or compulsory was left entirely to the discretion of the schools involved, with the Department of Defense favoring voluntary. "A military requirement does not exist," the letter continued.

John N. Moore, ass't prof. of natural science, asked if the question was brought before the board in the form of voluntary vs. compulsory, or if it was in the form of initiating academic changes with a view of improving the existing program.

Vanderploeg replied that, if it didn't come to us as a question, we brought it up as a question between keeping compulsory ROTC or abolishing it.

West African Dinner Sunday

Proceeds from the West African dinner Sunday will help defray expenses of the nine MSU students participating in the student study tour and work camp project in West Africa this summer.

The menu will include fried chicken, jollof rice with vegetables, fresh pineapple, coconut, bananas and oranges.

The dinner will be served cafeteria style from 12:30 to 1:30 in the South Campus grill. Tickets, $1.50 per person, are on sale at the UN lounge, Union, and at the door.

If the varsity goes on offense, Wilson will take his crew into the game.

If the team kicks off like Grimsley gathers his forces. Starting with Wilson in the backfield will be Carl Charon at fullback and Herb Adderley and Larry Hudak at halfbacks.

Adderley's usual running mate Gary Haliman, injured a knee in last week's intra-squad game and is forced to sit out Saturday.

Ends Fred Arbanas and Art Brandstatter, tackles Mickey Walker and Tom Winicki, guards Howard Mudd and George Azar and center Dave Hancock make up the line.

The defensive line is bolstered by the "Four Bees", who are ready to succeed "Cundiff's Crew" of last season.

On the Bee line are tackle Ed Sude, center Dave Behrman and guards Mike Biondo and Fred Biondo and Fred Boylen. Boylen is top Bee, having the most experience. He is considered one of the best defensive guard-linebackers in the business.

Bounding out the defensive line are three experienced and tough juniors, Dick Oxendine and Jim Corgiat at ends and Joe Kakeia at tackle.

Along with Grimsley in the backfield are Stewart, Bob Suci and Ron Hatcher.

Broncos Hand Netmen 2nd Straight Defeat, 5-4

Western Michigan's tennis squad handed the MSU netmen its second consecutive defeat Thursday, 5-4.

Saturday, the Spartans travel to Notre Dame for a match with the Irish, who have posted a 9-4 mark so far this season.

"We were beaten by a better team," commented Coach Stan Drobac after his charges dropped all three doubles matches after winning four of the six singles.

This marked the second loss for the Spartan netmen in as many days. Previous to these matches they had established the longest winning streak in MSU history with 16 straight. Michigan defeated State on Wednesday, 7-2.

At Western, Bill Hotchkiss defeated Doug Porrt in the No. two singles in three sets, 3-6, 6-2, 6-3. Roger Plagenhoef, playing in the No. four position, stopped the Broncos' Fred Zaldeva in straight sets, 6-4, 6-2.

Ron Mescall and Ron Henry both scored victories in their singles action. Mescall topped Jon Scott, 6-2, 6-3, while Henry defeated Denny Walt, 7-5, 6-4.

Brian Eisner and Doug Smith both suffered defeats in their singles matches. John Cook of Western topped Eisner, 6-2, 6-4. Kent Miller was forced to go three sets to stop Smith 6-4, 3-7, 7-5.

In the doubles action, MSU failed to win the deciding match it needed for victory. The team of Eisner-Smith fell before Cook-Porrt 6-4, 6-2.

Also bowing in the doubles were Hotchkiss-Plagenhoef to Miller-Zaldeva, 6-4, 6-2; and Mescall-Henry to Marty Kearns and Bob Fontes, 8-6, 6-3.

The MAGICIAN is full of extraordinary thrills that flow and collide on several levels of emotion and intellect. Supremely contemplative, eerie and Babelian... rich in comedy and melodrama as well as deep philosophical thought, and wonderful in its graphic details, it is a thoroughly exciting film.

"A MASTERPIECE... nothing short of miraculous... all of Bergman's skills are on view in 'The Magician' which all in all is a superb motion picture."

"The inner meanings play upon each other like brilliances reflected from a cut diamond."

"Strangely moving, evocative and enthralling... as lively and many faceted as a kaleidoscope."

"What an absorbing side-show Bergman has prepared for all who enter his magic tent."

Munn, Daugherty Deny Sports Illustrated Charge

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

MSU football coach Duffy Daugherty and athletic director Biggie Munn rebuked the charges that Sports Illustrated made that football stars at Big 10 universities are paid in cash after games and that others receive weekly payments in unsigned envelopes through the mail.

Daugherty told newsmen "to me this is preposterous," and added:

"I don't believe there is a school in the conference where they would permit this to go on."

Munn said that the magazine story "sounds pretty far fetched."

"I have been around the Big 10 on and off since 1928," Munn said, "and I've never heard of it. I don't think it is the truth. I know it's never been done at Michigan State."

Coeds to Play Lacrosse

A lacrosse playday will be held Saturday morning at 9:30 on the hockey field on Old College Field.

Two teams organized by Mrs. Jean Horwood of the Women's Physical Education Dept. will play teams from the Kingswood Girls School, Bloomfield Hills.

The teams are comprised of physical education majors and students in lacrosse classes this term.

Coeds on the first team who have played in previous years will be: Gretchen Borst, Barbara Lundy, Sammy Niergarth, Ann Boughner, Nancy Gummow, Carole Thompson, Colleen Madden and Marilyn Feber.

On May 21 the lacrosse teams will play host to the Michigan Women's Lacrosse Assn. at 10 a.m. on Old College Field.

Thinclads Play Host to Irish

By LARRY KAMZOR

The Fighting Irish of Notre Dame invade Ralph Young Field Saturday and take on Coach Fran Dittreich's Spartans in a dual track meet.

Coach Alex Wilson's Notre Dame squad, paced by juniors Jerry Fitzpatrick and Ron Gregory, along with a trio of pole vaulters, will be trying to improve their 3-1 dual meet record.

Notre Dame was defeated in their last outing by Army, 72-68. The final event of the program, the mile relay, won by the Cadets, made the difference. The Irish had won three straight previous to that contest.

State's speedster Zach Ford will have some tough competition this weekend in the person of Fitzpatrick, a native of Muskegon Heights, Michigan. The speedy junior won three first places in the Army meet, the 100 and 200 yard dashes and the broad jump.

Gregory has broken all existing Notre Dame records in the mile, two-mile, and 800 yard run. He placed first in the mile and was runner-up in the half-mile against the Cadets, and will be running the same events here Saturday. Coach Dittreich will pit Captain Bob Lake, Big 10 mile champ against him in the mile, and Big 10 1900 yard run champion Willie Atterberry will be his opponent in the half-mile.

Mike Kleinhaus, Spartan pole vaulter who tied for first place last week in the triangular meet at Purdue, will face stiff competition in the pole vault. Tom Reichart, who placed second in the Indiana State Collegiate Meet Wednesday with a jump of 14' 4 3/4", is a consistent scorer. Glen Cividin and sophomore Mike Terry are constant threats in that event. Kleinhaus has done 14 feet this season.

Other Spartans to watch Saturday are Sonny Akpata in the broad jump, Jim Carr and Brian Castle, middle distances; Al Neumann, shot out, and Mike Gerhard in the high jump.

Coach Dittreich is confident of a victory. "We should do well against Notre Dame, we should win."

"This meet is a good warm-up for the Big 10 championships next weekend," Dittreich said. "The way they run this weekend will be the way they run in the Big 10, with a few exceptions."

The Spartan mentor explained that there will be no ticket sale this weekend because of the Old Timers football game and the baseball doubleheader with Indiana.

The Spartans home track, Ralph Young Field, will display its new asphalt additions this weekend for the first time. The pole vault and broad jump runways and the shot put area have been revamped with a special type of asphalt that will aid contestants.

POISED FOR THE IRISH is MSU's sprinting ace, Zach Ford. Ford will compete for the Spartans against Notre Dame this weekend at Ralph Young Field, in the only home meet of the season prior to the Big 10 championships. State News Photo.

Iowa U., Michigan Face Golfers

The Spartan golf team will be looking for their fourth and fifth Big 10 wins Saturday morning at the Forest Akers Golf course.

The linksters will send (1) Tad Schmidt; (2) Tim Baldwin; (3) C. A. Smith; (4) Ty Caplin; (5) Jack Reynolds; and (6) Buddy Badger against Michigan and Iowa, in the 3 a.m. Big 10 triangular meet.

Coach Ben VanAlstyne's golfers are 6-1 on the season with only one more match to go after Saturday's meet before the Big 10 championship meet which will be held here at State May 20-21.

Michigan's line-up for Saturday's match will feature three returning lettermen Captain Larry Markman, Dick Youngman, and Joe Brisson.

Kobsmen to Entertain Ohio State, Indiana

Michigan State's baseball team enters its most important weekend of the Big 10 season today in the first of three games it will play.

Today's action brings Ohio State to Old College field at 3:30. Saturday the Spartans encounter Indiana in a doubleheader starting at 1 p.m. at Old College Field.

MSU's record in the Big 10 now stands at 2-4. In order for the Spartans to maintain any title hopes they must sweep all three games this weekend.

MSU's baseball coach John Kobs will probably use his two ace pitchers Don Sackett and Mickey Sinks, plus an undetermined third starter in the three games. Sinks and Sackett combined Wednesday to stop Notre Dame on five hits as the Spartans topped the Irish, 3-3.

Indiana, which is presently nestled in fourth place in the Big 10, has a 13-6 overall mark and a 3-2 record in Conference competition.

Last weekend, the Hoosiers ended Minnesota's 16-game winning streak by splitting a doubleheader with the Gophers, 2-1 and 2-4. They also topped Iowa, 4-2, on Friday. In each game Indiana's pitchers went the distance.

Possible starters on the mound against the Spartans Saturday include Paul Michaels (5-1) and Paul Deems (4-1). Michaels sports an earned run average of 3.96 runs per game, while Deems has a snappy 1.56 ERA to his credit.

MSU will be carrying a 233 team batting average into Friday's game against Ohio State, a mark which is five points higher than before the Notre Dame game.

The Spartans still have only one regular over .300, with Bob Menzka hitting .316. Bill Schudlich, who was previously over the mark slipped to .292 after going hitless in five trips against Notre Dame.

Ohio State is in fifth place in the Western Conference with a loss and a win to its credit. The Buckeyes are sporting a .232 batting average for the two conference games to date.

The probable starting lineup for MSU will have Ron Holmes (.240) at second; Dick Golden (.208) at short; Bill Lumianski (.292) at first; John Hendee (.298) in center field; Ron Martlett (.285) in right; Pat Sartorius (.250) in left; Jeremy Lumianski (.215) at third base and Bob Monczka (.316) catching.

Boylon, Adderly, Arbanas Elected Captains As Spring Practice Ends

MSU's football team will have three field leaders for 1960 football season.

Seniors Fred Boylen, a guard, Herb Adderly, a halfback, and Fred Arbanas, an end, were chosen by Spartan letterwinners to be the 1960 tri-captains.

The announcement of the precedence for MSU was made at the squad's chicken-fry in Jensen Fieldhouse which celebrated the end of spring football practice.

The Grimsley, a senior defensive specialist, received the Coaches Award as the most outstanding player. Grimsley came to MSU as an all-state quarterback.

Fullback George Saines picked-up the most improved freshman back award. Both he and Grimsley hail from Canton, Ohio.

Two guards tied for the most improved lineman award. They are Howard Mudd of Midland and George Azar of Johnstown, Pa. They will start in Saturday's Old Timers game.

Two hustle awards were given to who perform like that every play is the most important, in practice and in games. The winners are sophomores Gary Ballman, a halfback and Dave Manders, a center.

Two more sophomores were praised as the players with the best attitude — Mitch Newman, who has run full and half, and end Dick Oxendine.

Book Drive For Asians Launched

MSU students will have a chance next week to help supply books to create a peaceful world, by giving books to the "Books for Asian Students Drive."

The purpose of the annual drive, sponsored jointly by the Arnold Air Society and the Spartans Women's League, is to supply books to 14 countries in Asia.

The books are used by the Asian people for educational and civic work, to correct misinformation about the West, to increase communication between the East and West, and to further the use and love of books.

Books needed are college, high school, and elementary text books published after 1945, and other works by standard authors such as Dickens, Shakespeare, Plato and Hemingway.

Last year the communist nations of Asia shipped over six million books to other Asian countries, according to the sponsors of the drive.

They hope that there will be a good response to the call for books and that in a small way MSU can help offset this tremendous margin which the communist have.

The drive will last all week and there will be receptacles in the living units in which students may deposit their unwanted books.

$970,000,000 Voted for Space

WASHINGTON (AP)—An authorization of 970 million dollars for civilian space activities — some 55 million more than President Eisenhower asked — was agreed to by a Senate-House compromise committee Thursday.

The legislation, still subject to final House and Senate approval, also would provide a pay boost from $19,600 to $21,000 a year for Werner Van Braun, German-born missile expert.

Graduates' Art Works On Exhibit

Work by university graduate students in the art department is currently showing in the galleries of Kresge Art Center with a traveling exhibit of paintings and drawings by the nationally recognized artist, Walter Quirt.

The annual MSU graduate show is organized in three sections. On display this Sunday are the works of painters Joseph Fay, E. Lansing; John Almquist, Keene, N. H.; John Battenberg, E. Lansing; and Forrest Bailey, E. Lansing.

Exhibitions from May 18 to 24 will include paintings and prints by Karen Stala, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Samia Halaby, also of Cincinnati. Paintings and sculpture will be shown by Frank Nulf and Hal Wardrop, both of E. Lansing.

The works of graphic artist Kirt Weed, Grosse Pointe, ceramist Robert Bethuy, Detroit, and sculptor Emily Ratkos, Bay City, will be exhibited also.

Paintings and prints by Carol Hodgkin, Lansing; Donna Stewart, Dearborn; Rhoda Knisely, E. Lansing; and Mary Alice Quill, E. Lansing, Jr. will be shown from May 25 to 31.

The gallery will be open to the public from 2 to 6 on Sundays.

PAT McCARTY LOOKS AT LIFE

IF, AFTER YOU have amassed your fortune, you feel the call to return to the earth, you may want to do it in the style of Lyndon Johnson, Senate majority leader, who is struggling to make ends meet on the 400-acre Texas ranch left to him by his grandfather.

Johnson found during his recent visit there that with the coming of spring everything is looking quite prosperous. After his short, peaceful stay there Johnson was revitalized to such an extent that he is ready to face the forthcoming Democratic Convention with some confidence. His feeling of well-being might have been maintained to some extent by the fact that while he was roaming about the ranch he was never far from Washington, thanks to the telephone.

AND NOW WE TURN to ways to make money. Dick Clark, the clean-cut idol of our younger brothers and sisters, has been doing pretty well for himself by plugging rock 'n' roll records.

Investigating how he gained his $576,590 worth of holdings in record companies, a Congressional committee hasn't pinned anything on him yet except three new tags: "plugola," "royola" and "Clarkola."

The committee has managed to uncover occupational mores of disc jockeys that shed light on the road to success which "pop" recordings have taken in the past.

Regardless of what American adults may think of the payola practice, Clark's teen-age fans are sticking by him. As one girl said, Beethoven leaves her cold but rock 'n' roll gives her a deep feeling—"like oatmeal." You can't fight an emotion like that.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: How well do you know campus personalities? Look for President Hannah's picture in Life this week. I'll give you a hint: he's not a member of the German armed forces, nor was he at the 1912 Democratic National Convention or on television with Elvis Presley and Frank Sinatra.

BEEN trying to balance your small, collegiate-type bank account lately, buddy? Did that blue book you bought last week put you in the red?

If this is your problem, borrow your roommate's Life (I wouldn't think of asking you to buy one at a time like this), leaf through its pages and ponder upon the ways you're going to spend that fortune you'll make after graduation.

FOR INSTANCE, if you are inclined toward modern art you might follow in the footsteps of G. David Thompson, Pittsburgh steel millionaire whose collection occupies the greater part of his house, garden and garage.

Thompson has spent the last 25 years collecting the sculpture and bold, colorful paintings which at first embarrassed his wife. He apparently has won his wife over but is having a rough time trying to convince Pittsburgh that he should accept the collection and all, as a gift.

Even the wealthy are not above the influence of society, for Thompson is selling the pieces of art by $1 million leaps and bounds. His taste, he says, is changing.

OR PERHAPS YOU WOULD prefer to invest your money in a regal wedding. If, by the time the big event takes place, you are an internationally-known personality, you will be doing well to spend less than a small fortune.

Take, for example, the wedding of Princess Margaret, who, defying English tradition, tried to keep the ceremony "simple."

While extravagance was kept at a minimum, the procession and the wedding itself managed to convey the idea of splendor characteristic of such royal functions. Any expense incurred by the English was apparently well worth it, for the nation as a whole seemed pleased with the extravaganza. The commoners were more than glad to sit on the streets all night if need be to watch their Maggie go by.

LIFE
