McCormick Motors plans new building

Jim McCormick Motors, Inc., of Pigeon plans to construct a new automobile showroom, service and repair center at the southwest corner of M-142 and Caseville Road.

The General Motors dealership has taken preliminary steps to create a commercial redevelopment district on the approximately 475-foot by 520-foot parcel it owns at the site, with ground-breaking to begin as quickly as possible following approval of the district by the Pigeon Village Council.

Dave McCormick of the firm told Pigeon Village Council members his company is seeking tax incentives through 1978 Public Act 255, which allows 50% property tax reductions for up to 12 years for certain new development. "We can't begin construction until (the parcel) is established as a redevelopment district," he told members Monday night.

The company would build a one-story, 13,000 square foot building on the site, with foundation work planned as soon as October. Final costs and designs are still being worked on, the son of Jim McCormick said. The firm sells Chevrolet, Buick and Pontiac autos and Chevy Trucks.

The present McCormick Motors building at 9 S. Main Street (the southeast edge of the "stoplight corner" in Pigeon) has been used as a Chevrolet garage since at least 1930. It would be available for retail rental use, the McCormicks say.

A public hearing has been set for 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 28 at Pigeon Village Council chambers to consider establishment of the district. Village President Norris Diebel said council welcomes the addition to the village.

The new site planned by McCormicks was zoned as commercial property when it was annexed to the village in 1947, Dave McCormick said. Exact boundary lines and rights-of-way will be checked for accuracy while development of the district is being created.

igeon sets police hiring

Full-time police service for the Village of Pigeon is at least two weeks away, as the Pigeon Village Council has set a Sept. 28 meeting to interview top candidates and hire a person for the position of village marshal. Members of the council's Police Committee have looked over "10 or so" applications thus far received for the post vacated Aug. 12 by former Police Chief Mark Nieschulz. They expect to finish background checks of all applicants, with the help of the Huron County Sheriff's Department, by the Sept. 28 meeting, which begins at 7 p.m. The top three candidates are expected to be interviewed at that time, Village President Norris Diebel said Monday night.

The village plans to hire a marshal within strict work and benefit guidelines, under a firm employment contract. "We want (him) to serve by appointment of this council' at a set salary, Diebel said, to avoid confusion and misunderstandings as arose at the end of Nieschulz's employment.

Of the candidates thus far looked over, "we picked the ones we feel could offer us the most for the least, with education, background and so on," Diebel said.
Village attorney Michael

Dennis said he recommends appointment of a village officer with definite work standards listed. He said he would like to add input in hiring the officer, since "there are some real dingbats walking around who are certified police officers.

Diebel told members the Police Committee has worked hard in screening candidates thus far. "We're going to do our best to give you good candidates, but the final decision is going to be up to you gentlemen," he said at Monday's regular monthly meeting. The top candidates thus far "are all certified or certifiable," he said, regarding police qualifications.

Dennis said adopting work standards for the officer would mean "he would be here at the pleasure of the council," adding that work conditions degenerated with the past officer.

During the month of August - partly including but mostly following Nieschulz's resignation to work at a Sebewaing factory - Sheriff's Department officers provided 73 hours of service to the village, at a cost of $620.50, or $8.50 per hour. Diebel said the officers 'have been covering us four or five nights a week." Councilman Paul Walsh said he wants to be sure the work guidelines are well spelled out. "We're not in that big a hurry," he said, questioning interviews and hiring the same night. "We shouldn't have had to tell the last fellow this, about polishing his shoes and so

Caseville Township gets airport list

By SANDY GOSLEE A petition seeking a public vote on the proposed establishment of Caseville Township Airport was received by the Caseville Township Board at its Sept. 6 meeting.

The petition, signed by 14 residents, asks for "the calling of special meeting...to have the electors of Caseville Township...decide and declare that no airport is to be established in Caseville Township." It seeks to have the Caseville Township Aeronautical Board rescinded and asks the board to give 60 days' written notice to each township voter "before proceeding with any matter concerning the establishment or enlargement of an airport.'

Supervisor Jim Reeves said he appreciates the fact that the group is calling itself "Concerned Citizens of Caseville." He accepted the petition, and said he will consult the Michigan Township Association and others to see what further action should be taken. The township has engaged attorney David Clabuesch of Pigeon for consultation, and will meet with him on the matter.

SOLID WASTE: County Commissioners Bruce Kuhl and Ronald Knoblock met with township officials to discuss the proposed solid waste disposal plan for the county. As of Oct. 1, the county will have only one licensed landfill and the county will be getting out of the landfill business at that time. Kuhl said he expects the county-owned landfills at Oliver and Sigel Townships will be sold to outside contractors, who may set up compacting stations and haul garbage out of the county. He was bombarded with questions, mostly noting that costs will skyrocket for consumers. No formal action was taken on the solid waste resolution.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

A public hearing will be held at a special meeting of the Village Council at 8:00 p.m. at the municipal Building on the Sept. 28. 1983 to act on a request from Jim McCormick Motors Inc. of Pigeon, Michigan to create a "Commercial Re-development District" for the following described property located in the Village of Pigeon:

Beginning at the Northeast corner of Sec. 10, T16N, R10E; thence Southerly along the East line of said Section 10, 471.96 feet; thence Westerly 542.95 feet, to the West edge of the Jacobs drain 478.75 feet; thence Easterly along the North line of said section 10, 498.73 feet, to the point of beginning; except easements and rights of way of record, and subject to easements and rights of way of record

In the Creation of a Commercial Re-development District, this will allow for certain tax incentives which are allowed under Act No. 255, P.A. 1978. This will allow Jim McCormick Motors Inc. to apply for a Commercial Facilities Exemption Certificate, which entitles the facilities to exemption from ad valorem real and personal property taxes for a period of 12 years. In lieu of the property tax, the firm will pay a specific tax known as Commercial facility tax. The amount of the resulting tax is equal to 50% of the property tax which would otherwise be payable.

The general public in the Village of Pigeon is invited to attend this meeting to voice approval or objections to the above request. By Order of the Village Council VILLAGE OF PIGEON

McCormicks reaffirm faith in future

onday's announcement by Jim McCormick Motors, Inc., of Pigeon that the company will be building a new facility at M-142 and Caseville Road is good, good news for a local business community needing to hear something positive and favorable for a change.

Jim and Dave McCormick's commitment to the future of Pigeon and the Western Thumb is especially important now, in 1983, as the national and state economy is growing and regaining lost momentum. It's a statement that they believe in Pigeon. They believe in the future of this area.

And they're willing to put hundreds of thousands of dollars on the line, to reaffirm that commitment. We're delighted with their decision, as the entire area should be.

A diverse town is one in which a multitude of goods and services are available. The greater the range of offerings, the better a shopping community is perceived...and received. Pigeon has lost more merchants than gained stores in the past few years -- as have other local towns. Almost weekly, auctions and going out of business sales are seen throughout this state, often too close to home.

In the last five years alone, Pigeon has had the misfortune to lose a jewelry store, a furniture store, a power car wash, a farm implement dealership, several gas stations and other businesses. Some have been replaced, but most haven't. Clearly, something must be done to keep Pigeon viable, to give people ample reasons to come here to shop and live.

McCormick's goal of providing a brand new building for sales and service of their General Motors line of vehicles will be very well received here, we're certain. The prime location they'll be occupying will make the business even more recognizable to shoppers.

There are at least two added benefits, too. Contractors and carpenters will be able to be employed during construction. That's another segment of the community which has seen slow

But more importantly, a large, easilyidentified business address -- the present Mc-Cormick location at the "stoplight corner" of Main Street and Michigan Avenue -- will soon become available to one or more potential businesses here. Wouldn't a furniture store.

The property tax cut incentives provided by Michigan law are designed exactly for this type of situation. Toronto Roben, an ex-convict seen in the park at the time of the murder, was held overnight by police, but released for lack of evidence. The dead man's widow immediately offered a $100,000 reward for the arrest of the killer.

The reward brought Sam the Snout, nostrils fluttering to the scent of $100,000, into the office of Chief Cook who was discussing the case with Inspector Gordo.

"I got a witness says Toronto Roben fingered Milson," announced the greasy little informer. "You always have a witness for a price," snapped Cook. 'For $100,000 you ought to have a dozen.

"This is on the level," insisted Sam. "Listen, my witness was in the park when Milson was killed. He sees two men on a bench. One of them, Toronto Roben, whispers to the other, Milson always takes this path.' My witness thinks it's kinds odd Roben should whipser somethin' like that, but he keeps walkin'. Then he reads about the murder in the papers."

"He must have heard the two shots,' growled the chief. "Why didn't he speak up right away?"

"My witness is deaf, but he reads lips good," replied Sam quickly. "He can testify to what Roben told the other man, the gunman, I figure, and the jury will --"

Letters to the Editor Christian books 'shelved'

Dear Editor:

This week, bookstores all over the nation are uniting in a special promotion. "Banned Books Week" is the title of this promotion. Spearheaded by the American Booksellers Association (ABA), it is designed to make the public aware of volumes that have either been banned or been threatened with banning in our nation's libraries. schools and bookstores

Why does the public need to be aware of these volumes? According to Robert Hale, associate executive director of the ABA. "the result (of book banning) is always and ever the denial of another's freedom to read. It is a very potent form of oppression. In a free society, such oppression and denial of a basic freedom cannot be allowed.'

It is odd that bookstores belonging to the Christian Booksellers Association were not asked to participate in this aggressive effort to assert the first amendment's freedom of expression. After all, no other group of bestsellers has more need for the freedom of expression promised by the first amendment than Christian booksellers. The books I carry in my bookstore face a banning more serious than that denounced by Mr. Hale and the ABA -- more serious because Christian books and their ideas are censored by the very people most vocal in denouncing censorship. Consider these facts: Many religious booksellers consistently outsell general bestsellers, often by a three to one margin, yet these books are banned from the national bestseller list.

2) The evangelical Christian bookselling industry is a billion dollar per year industry, yet Christian books are banned from magazine and newspaper book review uird of all books commercially sold are Christian books, yet if they gain entrance at all into secular bookstores, they are banished to the back of the store where they end up in a nebulous section titled 'Religion and philosophy.

4) Christian books are in no danger of being banned from public and school library shelves since they rarely are allowed on those shelves in the first place.

As you can see, Christian books suffer "a potent form of oppression" in our society, and those responsible for their suppression are denying others their constitutional right to read them. (As Mr. Hale says, "Books and ideas aren't dangerous," but information restraints on a free people are.") Ironically, those who ban Christian ideas are the objective, give-all-sides-an-equal-voice media, and several groups masquerading as champions of pluralism and defenders of civil liberties. While shouting "freedom of expression" at the top of their lungs, they relegate Christian books and ideas to the back of the bus. Is the first amendment now only applicable to an elite group of ideologies? It appears so.

During this week of special first amendment recognition, I ask you to consider the blatant hypocrisy of those who decry book banning on the one hand and suppress Christian ideology on the other. These are the very people who threaten the safety of our sacred civil liberties

Sincerely yours Eugene Gascho, manager Community Book Store

Price and taste are two chief attractions of chicken, with 40 percent of those interviewed saying the main reason they buy chicken is because it is economical and 36 percent noting "good taste" as their primary reason for serving chicken.

The survey, conducted by Gallup for the National Broiler Council, showed that consumers are about evenly split between buying fresh chicken whole or in parts. Forty-nine percent purchase whole chicken and 47 percent buy just parts. Chicken breasts are the most frequently purchased parts, followed by legs.

Baking and frying are the favorite ways of cooking chicken. Consumers who purchase chicken primarily because it is nutritious or because it is low in calories are more likely to bake it. Those who say taste is their main reason for buying chicken prefer to fry it.

youth organizer Nancy Heck told council a total of 80 summer's 33-day recreation program. Average daily attendance was 30 youngsters. In all, less than $900 in village money was spent for supplies, pay and equipment use. Youth Employment Act funds were used for teen-age supervisors, and Mrs. Heck was thanked for her coordination efforts. Council members noted up to "$3000

Council authorized Dunbar Well Drilling of Swanton, Ohio to replace the submersible pump at the south village park, which broke down Monday. Otto said the 75-gallon-per-minute capacity pump is less than three years old. Other village pumps can maintain water pressures while the new one is being delivered and installed

CROSS-ING: Lutheran School was given permission to barricade the south portion of the alley east of the school from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. on school days. Children play in the area and cars using the total alley may pose a danger to them

The alley, in the block bounded by Ruppert, S. Main, Nitz and Hartley Streets behind the People's Oil and Gas Shell station, will have an "alley closed" sign erected off Nitz Street The school will be responsi ble for setting up and taking down the barricade, council members said. OTHER BUSINESS: Otto reported $6680 has been spent to reinforce lagoon walls at the village waste treatment ponds. More will be done if weather continues to be favorable, to reduce natural erosion at the facility near Caseville and Berne

Billing records for all work performed this year and last year by the accounting firm Nietzke, Faupel & Schafer, P.C., of Pigeon (and its predecessor, Anderson, Nietzke & Co.) will be provided to council members, as requested by Diebel. Audit bids and other performed work have totaled more than some members thought is necessary.

Village Clerk Joseph McArdle was reminded to have 1984-85 year budget figures ready by December, for approval in February. This should minimize work needed by the CPA firm, Diebel indicated.

Kohr-Gorney recite wedding vows Sept. 3

Denise Gorney of Bad Axe and John Kohr of Pigeon pledged their lives in marriage in a double-ring ceremony on Saturday, Sept. 3 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Bad Axe.

Over 400 guests witnessed the early afternoon ceremony performed by Father Charles Keho.

Parents of the bridal couple are Daniel and Beverly Gorney of Bad Axe and John and Dianne Kohr of Pigeon. The main altar was decorated with bouquets of blue carnations and white fuigi mums. Special musical selections included "Wedding Prayer," "Morning Has Broken" and

"The Wedding Song."
Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white gown of taffeta, chantilly lace and point d'esprit. The gown featured a high scalloped neckline with a half-moon yoke complemented by seed pearls, sequins and matching chantilly lace ruffles that formed fitted sleeves were also trimmed with seed pearls and sequins with a wide lace ruffle at the wrist. The full skirt was multi-tiered and encircled with scalloped lace, completed with a semi-cathedral length train. She chose a derby hat of chantilly lace with rolled edge trimmed in pearls and illusion netting falling from the pouf.

The bride carried a lush cascading bouquet of pearl white roses, white pixie carnations, baby's breath and blue forget-me-not blossoms. Loops of white picot streamers intertwined with the cascade of the bouquet.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Nancy Gorney, of Bad Axe. Other attendants included Carrie Damm of Bay Port, sister of the groom, Kathy Kohr of Caseville, sister of the groom, Sheri Troyer and Kay Edwards, both of Bad Axe, friends of the couple.

The attendants wore periwinkle colored gowns of polyester and chiffon, necklines of lace, accented by very full bishop sleeves with snug cuffs, complemented by tiny pearl buttons. The mock wrap skirt was completed with a silk flower attached to the satin ribbon belt tied at the waistline.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids carried a single blue silk rose surrounded by white gladiola petals forming a large composite rose held naturally with trailing blue streamers. Each girl wore a cluster of silk blossoms and baby's breath in her hair.

Flowergirl was Kelly Gorney of Bad Axe, sister of the bride, who wore a white gown of chiffonet, featuring a high neckline with a yoke front and short sleeves of chantilly lace and reembroidered lace with a tiny satin bow at the neckline. The dress was completed with tiers of baby chantilly lace at the bottom of the dress. She carried a white lace basket designed with Teeth straightening braces, long associated with school-age children, are now becoming more popular with adults. The American Association of Orthodontists estimates successful only if the pa that some 4 million Americans are undergoing orthodontic treatment. Out of this number, over 20% are over age 20.

Why are so many adults subjecting themselves to the orthodontic regimen? There are several likely explanations. The development of braces that are less noticeable; the ability of many adults to pay dental fees that their parents, perhaps, could not afford; a wider acceptance of braces by an adult generation attuned to selfimprovement; concern for good health, and naturally, good looks. Until the mid-1960's was accepted wisdom in the field that braces were for kids. The theory was that orthodontics could b tient was still growing Now, it's generally agree that, though growth helpful, it's not alway necessary for effective treatment. Today, you ca

LILLISTON HIGH CAPACITY EDIBLE BEAN COMBINES

THE GREATEST GO-GETTERS IN THE FIELD When the Lilliston moves in, you can be sure you'll get the most for the time to do it as it ever took before. We can't say this is the new way to harvest beans anymore, for the Lilliston was introduced ten years ago.

However, farmers using Lillistons will tell you in new uncertain terms that it is by far the best way. The combination of efficiency, capacity, dependability and speed is incomparable. You build your returns to new highs and reduce harvesting costs to a minimum. Nowadays especially you have to wring out every harvest dollar you can. The Lilliston will get every last one of them.

The hands above hold a typical sample of beans harvested by the Lillison Hi-Cap. They are cleaner and have fewer checked skins and splits. The airlift system is one big reason – conventional augering is eliminated and so is one of the leading causes of bean damage.

Ducks Unlimited

Preparations are underway for the second annual Ducks Unlimited banquet to be held in the western Thumb area. The fundraising dinner will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Oct. 22 in the Century Room of the Old Heidelberg Inn in Sebewaing. Approximately 75 sportsmen will gather for an evening of good food and entertainment, with the express purpose of raising money for ducks.

Each participant will pay $30.00 for his ticket, which includes dinner, membership and a bi-monthly magazine from Ducks Unlimited and a guaranteed door prize. After dinner, the evening's entertainment includes an auction of limited edition art prints, decoys and other duck hunting items. There will also be a number of different raffles. Some have sold tickets to the general public, while others are reserved only for the banquet. Winners will receive shotguns, waders, hunting clothing, knives, decoys, fishing and camping equipment and more

Prizes for the banquet come from various sources. The main items for the auction and raffle are supplied by the national office of Ducks Unlimited. Commemorative shotguns, prints and decoys are ordered in large lots from companies who give special prices to this conservation organization. Other prizes are obtained from nationallyknown sporting goods companies and similar sources. And local business and sportsmen also contribute to this worthwhile cause.

But what really is Ducks Unlimited? And how did it ever get started?

You could say that Ducks Unlimited was born out of the depression. During the 1930s when North America's natural resources were being abused by both man and nature, waterfowl in particular suffered the consequences of a hostile environment. Each year heir numbers dwindled closer to extinction. An extensive waterfowl research study conducted by the More Game Birds in America Foundation, revealed that 70 percent of all waterfowl production on the North American continent originated in Canada. Now, if wild ducks would have chosen America as their place of birth, we'd probably always have enough ducks. But since the southern prairies of the Canadian provinces are their breeding grounds, we had a problem. Monies from the sale of Federal Duck Stamps couldn't help because the law forbids the use of stamp revenues outside the United States. Ducks Unlimited was formed in 1937, and made plans to rescue America's neglected ducks.

Funds derived from America's sportsmen and conservationists enabled DU to initiate construction of its habitat programs. Watercontrol structures such as levees, dikes and sluice gates were implemented in Canada to stabilize the habitat areas from the harmful effects of flooding and drought. To date, DU has completed more than 2,100 wetland restoration projects. These projects have benefitted man as well by creating a stabilized water supply for agriculture, in-dustry and municipalities. More than $198 million has been spent on wetland improvement. This means that over 80 cents of every dollar contributed goes directly into project

At the present time, DU's membership stands at about 455,000, many of whom have been enrolled by the over 2,450 local chapters throughout the nation. DU also has a Greenwing program initiated in 1973, for boys and girls under the age of 18. It now boasts a membership of well over 40,000.

DU has reserved some 3,200,000 habitat acres which provide over 13,000 miles of vital nesting shoreline for waterfowl, while at the same time offering refuge to hundreds of other species of wildlife. In 1982 DU raised over $34 million for wetland habitat restoration and has set a $41 million goal for

By DUANE GUENTHER

The 36th Annual Michigan Duck Hunter's Tournament will be combined this year with the North American Wildfowl Carving Championship Sept. 17 and 18 at Pointe Mouilee State Game Area, Rockwood.

The tournament program includes phases of waterfowling, dog trials and the Midwest Duck Calling Championship. Other events scheduled are punt boat, hipboot and rowboat races, special layout shooting events and, for youngsters, a frog-jumping contest.

The decoy-carving contests will be judged in public and some entries will be auctioned during the weekend festivities

The tournament will feature the popular swap and sell booths, an antique decov collection for viewing and purchase, guns, dogs, camouflage motors, materials, decoy carving tools and duck calls on display -- and experts demonstrating how to use

Lakers 'blow out' USA in season opener

By RICH SWARTZENDRUBER

The Laker Football squad didn't waste any time getting down to business this season as they easily dispensed with the Unionville-Sebewaing Patriots by a score of 34-6 at Laker Field last Friday

The Patriot coaching staff probably thought winning the coin-flip and electing to receive to start the game would enable them to keep the ball out of the hands of Laker's explosive offensive for a short while at least, but things didn't work out that way.

Laker's Jeff Desotell picked off a pass from the Patriot quarterback DeSimpelare on the first play of the game, which gave the Lakers possession of the ball in Patriot territory. Before USA could regroup, John Rathje broke loose on the Laker's first offensive play and galloped 32 yards for a touchdown. Although Lakers missed the extra point attempt, a stunned Patriot squad looked at a 6-0 score with less than a minute gone in the game.

The Laker defense held USA in check after the following kickoff, and quarterback Dave Cunnngham capped a Laker drive by plunging over the goal line on a two-yard quarterback sneak with nearly five minutes left in the first quarter. The Green Machine tried a two-point conversion following the TD, but a Cunningham pass slipped through the arms of Dave Voelker.

The 12-0 score at end of the first quarter, was widened early in the second stanza, after Laker's Ron Dubs intercepted another Patriot pass with 10:10 remaining in the half. John Rathje scored his second touchdown of the game, when he hauled in a 30-yard Cunningham pass. Ed Gentile kicked the extra

The Patriots appeared to get their offence organized after the ensuing kickoff and marched down to the Laker 20-yard line. The drive was ended by John Rathje when he picked off a DeSimpelare pass in the end zone and returned it to the original line of scrimmage.

The Laker offense again moved the ball into USA territory. John Rathje broke away on a running play and have the ball brought back on a clipping penalty on the play. The penalty only Saturday.

delayed the touchdown that followed as the Lakers moved downfield and scored on a Cunningham to Voelker TD pass. Gentile added another

After trailing 26-0 at halftime, USA finally got on the board in the fourth quarter, after a scoreless period. The Patriot touchdown was regestered when a low snap to Laker punter Leonard Garza resulted in a blocked punt deep in Laker territory Mike Fuerst of USA alertly scooped up the loose ball and raced into the end zone. Junior quarterback Ron Dubs replaced Cunningham in the fourth quarter and showed he could also successfully direct the team. He tossed a 32 yard pass to Buck LePage and completed the drive himself with a twoyard keeper for the final touchdown of the game.

Laker kicker Gentile prepared to kick the PAT, but a bad snap caused holder Cunningham to pick up the loose ball and heave it to Voelker in the end zone for the two-point conversion.

up 235 total yards in rushing and threw for 98 more. The Laker defense held USA to less that 100 yards in total offense. The Patriots managed just 48 yards on the ground and 46 yards with the pass.

John Rathje was the Laker's offensive standout, as he rushed for 82 yards on 11 carries, ran for one TD and caught a pass for another. In addition, he snagged an interception on Motion by Santos supported by Fisher to sell 1973 Cub to Clayton Diebel for

Lee Steinman, Steinman Insurance Agency told council that the liability policy for police, ambulance and council is the same company that the previous agent carried his policy with. Police officers are included with the board form liability on the new policy. In addition there is a $1m liability on top of the general liability. Last year we paid $5000.00 more and we now have as good if not better coverage than previous years discussed as of this meeting.

Claren Russell, speaker for Pioneer Cablevision reported company will be signing up in

K. Don Williamson will discuss sewer at the ballpark with Walt Forster on September 7, 1983. Motion by Thompson that if the engineer agrees with the information Walt has provided council with, it will be let out for bids. Motion was supported by Russell. Carried. Dennis Learman, treasurer reported collecting $125,733.13 out of a total tax roll of $137,321.65. He has collected 91%.

Motion by Fisher supported by Thompson to approve payment of bill totaling $11,607.35. Carried.

Walt Forster reported his department is in need of an air pac and a gas detector and steel toed boot totaling $1832.00. Motion by Russell supported by Hoffman to spend $1832.00 on safety equipment which is mandatory by OSHA on approval of our attorny. Carried. Walt Forster reported that he had talked to Mr. John Ferris on tree removal. Mr. Ferris sent a contract over for our approval. Walt will check on a contractor.

Barb Thompson reported that Duane Alexander feels his department is in need of a Preliminary breath alcohol testing device at a cost of $405.00. Motion by Fisher supported by Santos that we table this purchase for this fiscal year and work it into the budget for next year. Carried. Motion by Santos supported by Russell to pay two ambulance drivers $6.00 per hour to repair ambulance which was an emergency situation. Carried. Claren Russell, chairwoman for the ordinance committee will table oridnances until Clerk read correspondence from Elkton Rotary Club and the Don Haley family thanking the village for their thoughtfulness. Adjourn at 9:45 p.m.

Three Bay Port men. Julius Ott, Carl Dast and B. C. Mc-Leish, set what may be a new record in stretching out the golf season when they played a round on the Scenic Goif and Country links Saturday, December 4. Several years ago Mr. McLeish played a round on November 19, which was well beyond the usually October close, buf the December 4 date is believed to set a new record entirely.

Receives Charter Wednesday Night

Winsor School Plans Christmas Program

On Wednesday, Sept. 28, the Lions invite past members and guests to our 35th Anniversary Meeting

All present members, past members and other Friends of Lions are invited to our Sept. 28, 1983 Anniversary Meeting at the Pigeon VFW Hall, beginning

The Pigeon Lions, on the 35th Anniversary of their organization, wish to extend to these three Charter, Members a sincere and profound tribute for their 35 years of dedicated and inspiring service to Lionism.

May each of you enjoy a rich and rewarding future in your association with Lionism.

Lions District 11-D-2-Governor Lee Roy Yorks of Metamora will be on hand to congratulate the club, headed this year by President Glen Schaaf.

Since our Charter Night on Dec. 10, 1948, the Pigeon Lions Club has been honored to perform public service projects to benefit our beautiful area. In 1982-83 alone, a total of 63 men are Lions Club members.

Projects to benefit our area in the past year have included:

presenting a braille watch and many pairs of eyeglasses to vision-impaired and needy persons;

serving beef sandwiches during the Pigeon Farmers' presenting $670 for Eye Bank and Research Center at Ann Arbor; rentering a Lions Club Float in the Farmers' Festival Parade; presenting money so two Laker High music students for participating in the International Convention All-State Band; serving 1500 people at the Pigeon Co-op Bean Plant's open house;

contributing $1200 to Leader Dog Program in past year; hosting a Halloween Dress-Up Party-Dance for the public; contributing money to the Carrie Brunni Fund; sending three young ladies to Finland in Lions Youth Exchange Program;

contributing funds for Little League Football Program; contributing to Pigeon District Library for large print books; raising funds for vision during White Cane Days poperating a food stand at Huron County Fair, and many other local projects at no cost to the community, to benefit us all.
