Sponsoring the contest were members of the Bay Port Chamber of Commerce, including contest organizer Sue Schweitzer.

Queen Amy was presented with a $50 U.S. Savings Bond by Ron Johnson of Bay Shore Marina, plus other gifts. The 1984 Miss Bay Port selection was made now to allow her to participate in area parades and festivities in promoting the popular Fish Sandwich Day.

Recall petitions submitted against Caseville leaders

A mid-September special election is expected, in the attempt to recall four of five Caseville Township officials who favor a proposed general aviation township airport.

About 290 signatures each were returned on petitions for Supervisor James Reeves, Clerk Wallace Hart and Trustees Michael Power and Wayne Anderson. All four have filed petitions for re-election during the Aug. 7 Primary and Nov. 6 General Elections.

Huron County Clerk Helen Lemanski said the recall petitions were submitted Monday. She had seven days for preliminary style and content checking, and then must appoint a validator from Caseville Township to formally check accuracy of signors' names after June 18. Normally, the township clerk would perform that task, but Hart may not since he is a subject of the recall effort.

Fifteen days are provided for such checking, and the officials up for recall have eight days to examine and challenge the determination.

If the petitions are in order the County Election Scheduling Committee would meet about July 11 to set the special election date, which would fall about Sept. 11. Notices must be published for registration of voters, ballots must be printed or prepared and election notices must be posted.

Many of the names favoring the recall appear on all four men's petitions. Circulators included Dolores Bieri, Delia and James Laudicina, Kenneth Dufty, Henry and Geraldine Simmons, Bradley Neal, Dorothy Bennetts and Victoria Siegfried.

Republicans seeking party nomination in the August Primary include: SUPERVISOR - incumbent Reeves, opposed by Ronald Bieri; CLERK - incumbent Hart-unopposed until November election, when he will face Democrat June Poisson; TRUSTEE - incumbent Republicans Power and Anderson, to face Republicans Gale Schwalm, Joseph Cilc and Lawrence Hillaker.

The only Caseville Township official not being recalled, Treasurer Elaine Cleaver, did not seek re-election. Six persons are seeking her post, including five Republicans - Pamela Stahl, Viola Hopkins, Jacqueline Lankey, Eileen Rutter and Deloris Steinman. The winner will face Democrat Phyllis Conners in November.

WHO WILL BE QUEEN? - The five-year tradition of crowning a Elkton Strawberry Queen will not be broken this year, even though the 1984 Elkton theme has been changed to Elkton Old-Fashioned Days. Elkton's most charming young lady will wear the crown following the Queen's ceremony this Friday, June 15 at 7:30 p.m. at the Village Park.

This year's candidates include, seated from left, Cathy Lee Drummond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Drummond, sponsored by Elkton Extension Club; Rebecca Krohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Krohn, sponsored by the Elkton Womens' Civic Club; Pam Smithers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smithers, sponsored by the Elkton Lions Club, and Shelly Ginter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ginter, sponsored by the Aim High Farm Bureau; standing from left, Tammy Ginter, daughter of Darlene Ginter and Bob Ginter, sponsored by Club 59; Jennifer Arnold, daughter of Mrs. Janet Champagne and Phillip N. Arnold; Debbie Weiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Weiss, sponsored by the Elkton VFW; Melissa Bivens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bivens, sponsored by Flowing Well Farm Bureau and Holly Greyerbiehl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Greyerbiehl, sponsored by the Elkton Jaycees.

Which one will be queen? It's anyone's guess, but you can be sure she will represent Elkton with poise, beauty and talent. Be at the park on Friday, June 15 at 7:30 p.m. to see 1983 Queen Cozette Chappel relinquish her crown.

Caseville School names top students Saturday

Aileen Simet and Dan Murdoch received awards as top academic students at Caseville High School in commencement exercises last Saturday.

Principal Paul Ellinger named Simet as valedictorian and Murdoch as salutatorian.

Other 1984 Caseville Honor Students who earned a "B" grade average during their high school years are Jonathon Beadie, Sandra Johnson, Gary Miller, Dan Osentoski, Michelle Simet, Wayne Simmons, Gerald Winkler, Jr.

Simet expressed gratitude to faculty members, parents, friends and especially her graduating sister, Michelle, for support and help throughout her school years. She said friends often part after graduation, but the many good times and love shared during high school would always be remembered.

Thanks was also expressed to the faculty and classmates by Murdoch. He concluded his remarks by reading an original poem he wrote, which thanked his parents.

NOW IT'S DRETTMANN DRIVE!

Mullen Street in Elktion has been renamed in honor of Active Industries, Inc., founder, Henry Drettmann, during ceremonies Friday in front of the plant.

Here, Elktion Village Council member Fred Santos, Sr., climbs the ladder while Interim Village President Neilan Hoffman assists.

Drettmann, now of Grosse Pointe, built Active into Huron County's largest single employer beginning in 1945. Mayor Hoffman says the street name change "recognizes Mr. Drettmann for what he's done for Elktion."

Mayor Hoffman added that one of Drettmann's business associates and personal friends, the late James Riley (J.R.) Quinn, was a key figure in bringing Active Industries to Elktion.

The street change is being done in conjunction with the Elktion Old Fashioned Days observances this weekend, as sponsored by the Elktion Community Club.

New Pigeon water tower?

A $615,000 water system project is being planned by the Pigeon Village Council, to replace the 1921 water tower and improve water pressure for fire-fighting capabilities.

Council discussed four plans as proposed by engineer K. Don Williamson of Harbor Beach, and voted to begin grant applications for an underground reservoir and elevated tank set-up which could provide nearly 400,000 gallons of storage capacity.

Presently, the village's 63-year-old water tower holds 60,000 — but recent studies show it needs about $40,000 in maintenance in the next two years.

Williamson recommends:

| WATER SYSTEM PROJECT                          | ESTIMATED COST   |
|-----------------------------------------------|------------------|
| 300,000-gallon capacity underground reservoir | $125,000        |
| New 150,000-gallon elevated tank              | 285,000          |
| New water mains to reservoir, tank            | 70,000           |
| High-service pumps                            | 30,000           |
| Well control system                           | 25,000           |

OBSERVATIONS BY PUBLISHER MARK RUMMEL AND ANYBODY ELSE HE CAN GET TO WRITE 'EM!

OUT OF ROOM — The size of every newspaper is determined by the amount of advertising sold. When many ads are featured, the paper is larger.

In weeks such as this — when advertising is a little "slower" — the paper is smaller. And so it is here. We've just got a little room in this space next week!

GRAND RAPIDS TIME — I was fortunate to be able to watch Rotary District Governor Ed Eichler pass along his year-long title this past weekend at the District Rotary Convention at the Amway Grand Plaza Hotel in Grand Rapids. What an incredible facility that is!

The former Pantlind Hotel has been beautifully refurbished. The front lobby alone is marvelous, in the fine tradition of great glorious hotels. This is a world-class hotel, and I've never seen a higher level of quality and service in staff. From waiters and waitresses to custodial helpers, they're professionals.

The most interesting thing I noticed (interesting to me, at least) was the absence of sales of the Detroit Free Press in the hotel. You could get five or more other papers, but not the one that uncovered the $20 million-plus Canadian customs underpayment!

We even saw Richard DeVos, one of Amway's two leaders, who stopped at our restaurant table as we threw peanuts at each other (very acceptable in that Irish pub-style place called Tootsie Van Kelly's.) More another time...

WISH I'D SAID THAT — "He who forgives ends the quarrel."

Shriners seek youth exams this Saturday!

A local "mini-clinic" to give preliminary medical examinations to children will be offered this Saturday, June 16 at Huron Memorial Hospital, Bad Axe, through services of Elf Khurafeh Temple and Huron Shrine Club.

Any child to the age of 18 is eligible for the free exams, to check for possible orthopedic and burn care in one of 22 Shriners Hospitals worldwide.

"If you have or know of a child who has a problem, bring them to this clinic," Gordon Stritt of the Huron Shrine Club. Clinic hours are 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., at 1100 S. Van Dyke. Bring the child and a copy of their birth certificate, Stritt advises.

Some of the problems which Shrine Hospitals treat are: children crippled by illness; flat or club feet; congenital dislocated hips; spinal curvatures; amputees, congenital or traumatic; brittle bones, bowed legs; vitamin-D resistant rickets; certain cerebral cases; dwarfism; rheumatoid arthritis; spina bifida, and burns needing surgery for functional or reconstructive purposes.

Persons seeking more information should call local Shriners, including Lester Fogle in Bay Port at 656-3363, Thomas Tageson in Bad Axe at 269-3971, Gordon Stritt in Elktion at 375-2358, Dr. E.L. Harwell in Bad Axe at 269-9521 or William McDonald in Filion at 874-4094.

IN THE CASEVILLE DISTRICT, two five-year millages were approved. A two mill renewal passed 303-144, and two additional mills were also approved 263-184.

Incumbents Kenneth Hill and Helen Kopack were unopposed for reelection to the Board. Hill received 387 votes and 332 were cast for Kopack. Margaret Barton and Paul Sarka each received one write-in vote.

A total of 457 voters, representing 33% of the 1377 registered voters, went to the polls, with 10 spoiled ballots.

IN THE OWENDALE-GAGETOWN DISTRICT, eight mills for two years were renewed by a 153-19 vote. About 15% of the registered voters participated in the election.

Board incumbents Ronald Good and Donald Cummins were reelected with no opposition.

Of about 3700 registered voters, 573 (15%) went to the polls and 16 ballots were spoiled.

Incumbent Yvonne Bushey and newcomer Dr. Richard Lockard ran unopposed for the two vacant Board of Education seats. Bushey received 475 votes and 473 were cast for Lockard. Incumbent Board Secretary John W. Champagne did not seek reelection.

Thumb Weekly News Round-Up

PIGEON MAN IS CHARGED IN SAND POINT MURDER

Preliminary examination has been set for 9 a.m. on Thursday, June 14 for 71-year-old Charles Raymond Schweitzer of Pigeon, in the shotgun death of Patrick James Rogers about 11 p.m. June 2. Schweitzer appeared before Huron County District Judge John Schubel last Tuesday on an open charge of murder and using a firearm during the commission of a felony.

Caseville Police found 24-year-old Rogers' body partly in Schweitzer's car parked in his driveway. Preliminary autopsy reports say Rogers died from a single shot in the upper back fired at close range.

Richard Trowhill, Bad Axe, is Schweitzer's attorney. Bond was denied and Schweitzer remains in the Huron County jail, awaiting the preliminary exam. Judge Schubel ordered tapes of radio transmissions made at the county jail the night of the shooting preserved for the court.

NO LOCAL COUNTY BOARD MEMBERS HAVE OPPOSITION

Neither District 1 incumbent Bruce Kuhl of Sebawaing nor District 2 incumbent Calvin Reibling of Elktion have opponents in this year's Huron County Board of Commissioners Primary Election on Tuesday, Aug. 7.

Kuhl, a Republican, serves the Sebawaing and Bay Port areas. Reibling, also a Republican, serves the Elktion and Pigeon areas.

It's a different story in District 6, which represents Caseville and Port Austin. Incumbent Republican Ronald Knoblock of Port Austin is being opposed by Jack Jensen of Caseville, who is running as a Democrat. They won't meet in election battle until the Tuesday, Nov. 6 General Election.

HURON RACES LIVELY

Several contested offices will bring ballot choices for county-wide offices this August, following last Tuesday's filing deadline.

HURON COUNTY SHERIFF Richard Stokan of Bad Axe is opposed in the Republican Primary by Warren Krohn, also of Elktion, and Robert Witherspoon of Port Hope.

INCUMBENT Clerk Helen Lemanski of Port Austin is unopposed, as are Prosecutor Karl Kraus of Pigeon and Register of Deeds Frances Holdwick of Harbor Beach.

IN JUDGESHIP, incumbent District Judge John Schubel of Port Hope is unopposed, as is Circuit Judge M. Richard Knoblock of Port Austin.

FEW TUSCOLA RACES, TOO

Tuscola County's Board of Commissioners has few contested races, following last Tuesday's filing deadline.

In District 1, incumbent Republican Donny Rayl is unopposed. Incumbent Republican Royce Russell of District 2 faces Democrat Lawrence Wright in November.

It's a different story in District 3, though. Republicans squaring off in August are Fred Rohlfis, Bill Clark Jr., Terry Houthoofd and John Goodchild.

COUNTYWIDE, Tuscola incumbent Republican Treasurer Elgene Keller, Sheriff Paul Berry, Clerk Elsie Hicks and Prosecutor G. Scott Stenmark are unopposed.

Newcomers Velma Richter of Kingston and Deputy Register Ann Sattelberg of Caro are vying for the Register of Deeds post as Republicans.

Tuscola District Judge Richard Kern is unopposed in the 71st District.

AREA RACES SEE CHALLENGES

In the Michigan House of Representatives District 77, Republican incumbent Dick Allen of Fairgrove will face Democrat Duane Harder of Bay Port in November for the two-year seat.

In the State House 84th District contest, Lapeer incumbent John Strand is unopposed in the Republican Primary and November General Elections.

In the State House's 78th District, incumbent Republican Keith Muxlow of Brown City faces no opposition in either election.

In the 8th District Congressional race, Republican John Heussner of Marlette will battle incumbent Democrat Robert Traxler of Bay City in November. Traxler faces Odell Walker of Saginaw in the August Democratic Primary.

Winning sailors named

Caseville's shoreline was graced with the majesty of colorful sails when over 60 boats in three categories raced this past weekend in the annual Hobie Regatta.

Commodore for the races was John Medler of Troy and riding the chase boat was Paul Hill of Warren. Committee chairman of the races was Duane McDaniel.

The following winners were announced: ANACRA, Tom Liston of Ypsilanti, first place; Arthur Crocker of Keego, second place and Jack Sawyer of Cass Lake, third place; PORTSMOUTH, Bob Wall of Ohio, first place; Eric Kennedy of Flint, second place and Lowell

Wyman of Saginaw, third place; HOBIE CATS, (16-A) Stan Woodruff of New Baltimore, first; Greg Smith of Kalamazoo, second and Nick Bidwell of Indiana, third; (16-B) Dave Kosht of Lansing, first; Ken Mette of Mt. Clemens, second and Harry Scottmiller of Columbus, Ohio, third; (18) Chris Sunberg of Gull Lake, first; Carl Roberts of Whitmore Lake, second and John Medler of Troy, third.

The next Catamaran races will visit Caseville July 7, when the Dan Quinn Memorial Race will be conducted in memory of a former member. All funds will be raised for the American Cancer Society.

As we see it editorially

Every father deserves thanks...

There are two people to whom each person in the world owes gratitude. Without a Mother and a Father, where would any of us be?

As the annual Father's Day approaches this Sunday, we're happy to share a few words from a grateful local daughter — who recently told her Dad how much he means to her. These nice words can make more than a Daddy and his Daughter feel good, as you can tell from reading it, as written by Bev Simmons' sister. Here are some excerpts:

"Dear Dad,
I planned last Father's Day to write this letter, to tell you that as my father, you made me RICH. Not in material possessions which can be here today and gone tomorrow, but in HAPPY MEMORIES of a good childhood. Happy times spent together as a family — those things no one can take away. I will always have them to think about and feel content.

One thing I can remember was when I was just a little girl, not even in school yet. As soon as you got home, I remember sitting on your knee as you would relax. You would ask me what I did all day and all I ever remembered saying was that I would EAT, SLEEP and PLAY. What I wouldn't give for a few of those days again!

Another thing I look back as being special was that you always took time out to visit people. Most of all, I remember riding in the car on the long trip back home and half falling asleep, but listening to the soft low whistle of tunes you knew.

To me, that whistle of yours was so content that it made me feel nothing bad at all could ever happen to our little family. Everything was safe.

The smell of your pipe also has the same effect on me. Whenever I smell a pipe, I feel that all is well and life is good. "Solid contentment." It's worth a million just to have those feelings!

I also liked to go fishing with you. Fish or no fish, it was time spent together. I always liked all the walks in the woods our family took for berries, mushrooms or wild flowers — I don't know how you had the time for all those things. But having you a part of it made it special!

Fore!

Father's Day

A few months ago, when the Father at our house was preparing to enter the hospital, the following poem appeared in a column by Ann Landers. As a good nagging Mother, I clipped it and put it on the refrigerator door, just as a reminder to the boys. The clipping has stayed through mustard stains, sticky jelly, and spraying pop. We are in need of a fresh copy. And since it is time for Father's Day perhaps some fathers would like to give a copy to their sons — kind of a reverse Father's Day gift.

The author of the poem is Edgar Guest, the Detroit poet who spent vacations in Huron County. His son, who probably received a copy of the poem many years ago, lives in Tuscola County.

YOUR NAME

You got it from your father, 'twas the best he had to give. And right gladly he bestowed it. It's yours, the while you live.
You may lose the watch he gave you and another you may claim.
But remember, when you're tempted, to be careful of his name.
It was fair the day you got it, and a worthy name to bear. When he took it from his father, there was no dishonor there.
Through the years he proudly wore it, to his father he was true.
And that name was clean and spotless when he passed it on to you.
Oh, there's much that he has given that he values not at all.
He has watched you break your playthings in the days when you were small.
You have lost the knife he gave you and you've scattered many a game.
But you'll never hurt your father if you're careful with his name.
It is yours to wear forever, yours to wear the while you live.
Yours, perhaps, some distant morning, another boy to give. And you'll smile as did your father — with a smile that all can share.
If a clean name and a good name you are giving him to wear.

Happy Father's Day!

I really did like those walks. The woods seemed like another world, a beautiful world with the flowers and birds singing, the rich green of the fern plants or the dried leaves under foot that made crunchy noise as we walked along. There were always treasures to take home after a day like that.

Another thing I liked was the smell of the grass and brush burning along the ditch line each fall. Or the smell of fresh-plowed earth, getting it ready for a garden. Because of living in the Quarry, it seemed there were always many things to do, like ice skate in the winter and come home and fix fudge and popcorn.

All the Happy Holidays we had big get-togethers. You and Mama always had our home open to everyone. These are all happy memories you helped provide. You and Mom did provide for us, and now I know you both worked hard to do it. Thank you.

One letter cannot cover all the things you and Mama did to provide a happy home for us. So if sometimes you start to think maybe you didn't do all the things you might have wanted to do when you had more strength, just remember — You and Mama made five girls VERY RICH with HAPPY MEMORIES.

Love, Deanna

Thanks A Million

Dear Mr. Ross:

We all enjoy reading your column in the Fort Wayne Journal Gazette. I am asking for a small battery-operated radio with earphones for a lovely little lady. She was a World War I and World War II nurse. Jessie is 96, almost blind and confined to a wheelchair. Her old radio was her only pleasure — until it recently disappeared.

She is hard of hearing, so she used to turn it way up — which bothered the other residents in the care center where she lives. I am a nurse there, but we are not allowed to get personally involved and show favoritism towards the residents. Thanks for your consideration. — Mrs. M.D., Indiana.

Dear Mrs. D.:
Sound the bugles for World War I and World War II nurse Jessie! From Radio Shack in Fort Wayne's Lincoln Park Plaza, manager Shawn McDaniel is sending one of their special pocket transistor sets with earphones. Thanks a million to Radio Shack!

Dear Mr. Ross:

I dropped out of high school when I was 15. But I knew that I would go to college. Eight years later, I graduated magna cum laude with a B.S. in biology. Then I decided I wanted to go around the world. No job, a student loan to pay back and a degree in biology, people laughed in my face. A year later, I got a job as a flight attendant and spent the next three and a half years traveling around the world.

Now I am 29, divorced, and want more than anything else to be a comic actress. I have a funny face and laugh at myself and life all the time. Again, I have no money, no job. I don't know how you can help. If you produce a movie, include me in it. I still believe in miracles. — M.E. Florida.

I'm only a millionaire, not a movie producer. I've been described by the press as eccentric because I give money away. You sound a bit eccentric yourself.

It's not a miracle, but here's 50 bucks. Take a friend to dinner and laugh at me for being such an easy touch.

Dear Mr. Ross:

Would you get me a set of electric trains? It seems I got much more kick out of life as a boy, than I do now at 74. I remember electric trains being real fun — more than TV, gambling or even women are to me now. I would like to relive my boyhood. — K.L.G., Pennsylvania.

Dear Mr. G.:

I can send you a Monopoly game so you can take a ride on the Reading Railroad ... or I'll send you "Chatanooga Choo-Choo" if you have a record player.

You may write to Percy Ross, c/o The Progress-Advance, P.O. Box 460, Pigeon, MI 48755. Include a telephone number if you wish. Because of the heavy volume of mail, only a limited number of requests will be answered in future columns, although many others may be acknowledged privately.

RECOLLECTIONS

of by-gone days

By GEORGE KEIM

DEAR EDITOR:

Whenever I get to the coffee shops and hear the young farmers talk about their farming problems, I remember they can get a lot more done than we older fellows did — but they've got a lot more to look after than we did, too.

In the spring, when we got ready to sow our oats, we cleared off a space on the threshing floor in the barn. And if we didn't have a farming mill, we'd borrow one from a neighbor and run our oats through it.

Most of the time, we had to turn the mill by hand. Everybody had his own oats in the granary. Then we'd spray the oats with formaldehyde so they wouldn't get smut and cover it up with bags or canvas until it was time to sow.

Sometimes, if we didn't have enough seed, we'd go into the granary and get a little more to finish the field.

Every few years, we'd trade seed with somebody else who maybe lived a few miles from us or we'd trade some oats with the Elevator, and the elevators would trade it with other elevators. Some people wonder why they did that, but if you didn't do that, your oats ran out. That's what they called it, because oats had to be grown on different ground every so often.

The oats never tested more than 30, so if you filled a bushel basket with oats, you had a basket full and if you set your drill for two bushels, you got two bushels on by measure, because our drills sowed by bulk, not by pounds.

We did the same with our beans and when we wanted seed corn, we'd go to our crib and take good ears and shell them. We'd check row our corn, so we could cultivate it crosswise to get the weeds out. And what we didn't get, we'd hoe out.

Well, these young people don't do it anymore. We used to work hard, but in spite of all these new ways of doing things, I believe they have just as much worry as we had.

In Gen. 8:22, it says, "While the earth remaineth, seed time and harvest and cold and heat and summer and winter and day and night shall not cease."

So if we don't get our crops planted when we want to, we'll always get them in sometime — if we have patience.

SINCERELY YOURS,
GEORGE KEIMInspector Gordo's Minute Mystery
THE CASE OF THE Italian luxury car

"Two days ago somebody with a dimestore mask tried to stick up the Town Bank," said Captain July.

"The hold-up man panicked and fled empty-handed," he added. "It must have been the heat that made him try it."

Inspector Gordo glanced out the open window of the patrol car. "The weather seems normal for October."

"Today is like the rest of the 13 days of the month — 55-60°," said the captain. "But yesterday and the day before — whew!! It was a 105° and folks went batty."

The captain drew up in front of a pretentious home. "The Briarhaven mansion," he explained. "Their son Woody is a suspect in the holdup attempt. A woman near the bank saw him driving his Italian-made luxury car away at breakneck speed. I thought you'd be interested in his story."

Woody, a long-haired teenager, insisted the witness had been seeing heat waves near the bank, not him.

"Nobody's driven this job in a week," he said. "I've been using the family Rolls."

An Italian luxury car with all the sportiness you'd want," commented Gordo, noting the car's radio, air-conditioner, heater and power windows.

"Power brakes and power steering, too," said Woody. "Why not? It cost my father a cool twenty grand."

Gordo slid behind the wheel and started the engine. Woody's face went white as a sudden noise from inside the car swept away his alibi.

Can you guess the noise?

Contest boosts ACS funds

By MAVIS PECHETTE
The hunt for the Ugliest Bartender has ended. The Huron County Unit of the American Cancer Society and WLEW 1340 AM sponsored the hunt and have declared the winner to be Darlene Talaski of the Green Mill Bar.

The N. Van Dyke Road watering spot, owned by Helen Desjardins, has been a supporter of ACS fund-raisers in years past and continued the fine effort again. Patrons contributed $130 to push their contestant into first place, ahead of Mark Schumacher of the Harbor Light Inn at Harbor Beach. Donations on his behalf amounted to $123.00.

Ms. Talaski wins first prize, a weekend for two at the Valley Plaza in Midland. She also can claim the boasting rights to the title of Huron County's Ugliest Bartender, remembering that "ugly" is in the eye of the beholder.

Twelve bars entered the contestants in the hunt. A total of $988 was raised for use by ACS for education, research and patient services in the fight against the Ugliest Killer — cancer.

Completes banking school

Jay Dubey of Thumb National Bank and Trust Company was awarded a Certificate of Achievement at the seventh annual commencement exercise of The Robert M. Perry School of Banking at Central Michigan University of Mt. Pleasant on Thursday, May 24.

The school, sponsored by the Michigan Bankers' Association and Central Michigan University, was established in 1976 to provide bankers with an opportunity to develop and advance general management and banking skills. This year 59 students from 47 Michigan banks attended.

Instruction in the School of Banking takes place in two two-week summer sessions along with home study work, including comprehensive banking problems to be completed in the period between summer resident sessions. A faculty of 27 people including experienced bankers, economists, educators, consultants and government officials participated in this year's session.

CHIROPRACTIC - NOT JUST FOR SORE BACKS

NERVES - CONSTIPATION - HEART BEAT BETTER

I first heard about the Sebewaing Chiropractic Life Center from friends who were taking the treatments and were helped so much. I have been suffering from arthritis and pernicious anemia. I had fallen twice the past two winters and was at the point that I couldn't sleep or get around too well because my back and neck hurt me so. My nerves were so bad that I couldn't cope too well at times. I had to have a maid come in and do my heavy jobs.

Within three weeks, I began to notice improvement. Now I'm doing many of the heavy jobs myself. My nerves are better and I can sleep better too. I had an irregular heart beat but it's gone now and my constipation has improved very much.

I sure would recommend others to try chiropractic. They don't know what they are missing.

25th Laker plans rolling

"The response cards are arriving daily," says Bill Esch, promotions chairman for the 25th Anniversary Committee.

"Since we mailed our flyers on May 23 we've received at least 15 or 20 everyday! We have several hundred now and it looks like everyone locally is planning to attend at least some of the weekend-long events."

"We've had quite a few interested people ask about tickets for the Saturday evening dinner/dance. As it stands right now, we plan to make them available in mid-to late-July at an undetermined price."

"We know that the tickets will be going fast and are presently working on plans for possible overflow conditions."

As well as tickets for the dinner/dance, Esch added that tickets will also be available for the chicken bar-b-que and the homecoming game "hopefully in July."

T-SHIRTS: Don't miss getting an official reunion t-shirt! They come in adult sizes: small, medium, large and extra large and for the kids, sizes: small, medium and large. Presently t-shirts can be purchased at Field and Stream Sports in Pigeon. During the Elkton Old Fashion Days, committee workers will be selling T's in a booth located in front of the Hair Shoppe.

BUTTON, BUTTON, DON'T FORGET YOUR BUTTON! Due to a change in plans, button delivery has been delayed a few days. It is hoped that the buttons will be ready this week so watch for committee members selling them during the Elkton Old Fashion Days.

Finally, committee members says that alumni members should watch the mail for an additional flyer in the next few weeks!

Lakers nearly win regionals!

After pulling a 6-5 win out of a hat against Rogers City in the Class C regional semifinals last Saturday, the Laker Baseball team bowed out in rain-delayed finals on Monday.

Saginaw St. Peter and Paul upended Lakers 6-5 in the championship game. Both teams were forced to pick their spots to use their mound aces, due to a tournament rule limiting pitchers to 10 total innings pitched. Laker's Leonard Garza and St. Peter and Paul's Steve Ballard were each eligible to hurl for three innings in the finals after throwing complete games in the semifinals.

Al Gies was tagged with the loss for Lakers and received relief help from Garza in innings three, five and six. They combined to allow only seven hits, though Lakers were charged with five errors.

Gary Hammerbacher started on the mound for St. Peter and Paul, and fireballer Ballard picked up the win in relief after pitching the final three innings.

Ron Dubs and Dave Cunningham each doubled for Lakers in the championship game.

Lakers scored twice in the top of the seventh inning after trailing by a run and held on to earn the victory over Rogers City.

Garza posted 12 strike-outs and allowed only five singles to post the win.

The winners took advantage of their scoring opportunities by crossing the plate six times on a double and pair of singles by Ron Dubs and six other singles by his teammates.

Lakers finished the season with a 20-4 overall record.

The Thumb B trophy was also earned by the green and white squad with a 10-1 league record, with their sole league loss to Caro in 11 innings.

Open House this Sunday Galen Ebert earns D.O. degree at MSU

Dr. Galen R. Ebert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Ebert, Pigeon, has earned the degree of Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine from Michigan State University. The Hooding and Commencement ceremony for the Class of '84 will be held this Friday in Wharton Center for the Performing Arts.

Dr. Ebert, a 1970 graduate of Laker High School, received a Bachelor of Science degree in chemistry from Michigan State University in 1975 and a Master of Science degree in analytical chemistry from Wayne State University in 1978, through a graduate assistantship and fellowship awarded him. He then was employed by Chrysler Corp. in their emission control research laboratory until being accepted by the College of Medicine.

His wife, Ingrid, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Maurice G. Sorenson, Elkton, and she holds a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing from Mercy College.

Galen R. Ebert

They will move from the Bloomfield Hills to the Tri-City area where he will be working in Flint and Saginaw Osteopathic Hospitals and Hurley Medical Center, Flint.

His parents are hosting an Open House in their honor at the Pigeon District Library on Sunday, June 17 from 1 to 4:30 p.m. and the public is invited to attend to "wish them well" in their health care professions. The couple requests no gifts.

Bay Shore Camp Opens June 24

SEBEWAING -- Bay Shore Camp, located on Saginaw Bay at Sebewaing, and owned and operated by an association of Evangelical United Methodist Churches, is opening its six-week summer camp and worship service schedule on Sunday, June 24. There will be camps for young people from grades four through 12, culminating in the giant Bay Shore Assembly for families from Thursday, July 26 through Sunday, Aug. 5.

As in past years, Lewis Tibbitts is director-coordinator of camping, and is in residence at Bay Shore all through the year. The camp offers full sleeping and eating accommodations, with a balanced program of Bible study, dialogue, recreation and programs.

A new addition is camper parking, which now offers 50 sites with new pedestal hook-ups in a completely modern setting. Meals are offered each day, and there is a bookstore and a nursery for families with children.

Highlight of the summer is the 11-day Assembly, starting July 26, with the Rev. John N. Grenfell, Jr., senior pastor of First United Methodist Church of Plymouth, serving as evangelist and Bible teacher. A native of Detroit, he is the son of a Methodist minister, and has served in Illinois, Livonia, Port Huron and Marquette, and was delegate to three general conferences and four jurisdictional conferences, including the 1984 session.

Also taking part in the Assembly will be Rev. Randy Vinson, who worked as a bush hospital medical technician in Zaire, graduated from Asbury Seminary in 1980, and has ministered in Warren and Yale-Greenwood. Rev. Jim Mathis, pastor at Upland Evangelical Mennonite Church, Upland, Ind., will be youth speaker for the Senior High Camp July 29-Aug. 5, and Kent M. Fishel, president of Discipleship, Inc., will return as camp director for the session.

Through its emphasis on music, the Assembly will offer the Rev. Larry VanSlambrook, minister of Brown City First and Brown City Emanuel Churches as music leader. He has taught public school and university music for 12 years, and received his call into the ministry in 1977. Assisting in the music department at Bay Shore is Carol Kersten, wife of the Rev. Robert Kersten of Kilmannagh United Methodist Church, who will again be camp organist and will be on the staff for the Choir Camp July 22-29. Assisting at the piano and for various camps and the Assembly will be Pam Dubey, housewife and mother from Pigeon, who holds a music degree from Michigan State University.

Camp dates for the summer are juniors from fourth-sixth grades from June 24-29 and July 1-6, Junior High from seventh-eighth grades from July 8-14, and July 15-21, Choir Camp July 22-29 and Senior High July 29-Aug. 5, with the Assembly July 26-Aug. 5. Tibbitts stated.

Bay Shore Camp is operated by churches that are members of the association of the Bay Shore Evangelical Camp of the United Methodist Church, and places and strong emphasis on Bible study, according to Tibbitts. Special care is given in the selection of a camp staff that "has had a conversion experience and makes Jesus Christ the central focus of the camp," Tibbitts concluded.

PIANO AUDITIONS — Twelve local piano students of Pam Dubey, Pigeon, played at the National Piano Playing Auditions in Midland on Wednesday, May 16. The pianists passed the auditions with superior marks and are now members of the National Fraternity of Student Musicians, sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers, teacher division of the American College of Musicians, of which Mrs. Dubey is a member. Auditioning students were, counter-clockwise from left, Tracy Kropp, Mari Kay Smith, Suzy Scollon, Willie Eichler, Peter Ruiz de Castilla, Sherry Elenbaum, Brenda Schulze, Julie Leipprandt, Kris Elenbaum and Andrea Maust.

The students strove for pledges, local, district, state or national honors, according to the number of Baroque, classical, romantic and contemporary pieces each student was able to perform from memory. They were judged by an examiner from another state. Each student achieved his or her proficiency level and was certificated, given a gold or bronze embossed pin and a year's membership in the National Fraternity of Student Musicians and Piano Hobbyists of the World.

WHATEVER YOUR FATHER'S WORK, HE DID IT FOR YOU

Any man can be a father, but it takes someone special to be a dad.

— Author unknown

"Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know
understanding."

— Proverbs 4:1

A father can be young or old;
They come in any stage,
As varied as the jobs they hold
By which they earn their wage.
They drive a truck or till the soil,
All work should be admired;
While some in offices will toil
And others are retired.
Regardless of your father's field,
He helped you get along.
In trouble, he became your shield
And showed you right from wrong.
Your father's wisdom, faith exalts
And asks you to forgive;
Whatever may have been his faults,
He taught you how to live.

Pigeon District Library

STORY HOUR REGISTRATION

Parents are asked to register their preschool children for the new Preschool Story Hour term of July 1, 1984 to June 30, 1985 at the Pigeon District Library.

There is a small charge of $2.00 per family to help with the cost of supplies.

All preschoolers are invited to attend either the 9 to 10 a.m. session or the 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. session, held each Tuesday.

PRESCHOOL GRADUATION

All preschool children who have been attending Tuesday Story Hour and will enroll in kindergarten in the fall are invited to attend graduation services with their parents, planned for Tuesday, Aug. 21 at the library.

There will be only one Story Hour session that date at 9:30 a.m., which will include the regular Story Hour for preschool children not entering kindergarten.

Parents are asked to complete a simple form listing the child's name who will be graduating, to help in preparation for the event.

PDL TAPE CLUB MEMBERS

The "Pick a Movie" Week in April was so successful that it was decided to use the same tape selection process again.

The next "Pick a Movie" Week is scheduled for Saturday, June 16 through June 23 during regular hours in the adult room at the library. Members can visit the library at their leisure and select five videocassette tapes per family from the literature provided. These suggestions will be placed in a box and reviewed by Librarian Miss Roberta Richmond and the Tape Club Committee from the Library Board of Trustees at the end of June.

Mark this week on your calendar to visit the library and make your tape selections.

STORY HOUR

Stories for Tuesday, June 19 Preschool Story Hour will include "The Story About Ping," "Sand Cake" and "Plants Give Us Many Kinds of Food."

Activities planned will include musical instruments, fingerplays, flannelgraph, songs and games. Since the theme will be "Summer," the children will also be given seeds to take home to plant and watch sprout.

Two sessions are planned, from 9 to 10 a.m. and from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

CIRCULATION REPORT

A total of 4979 items were circulated during May, an increase of 245 over the same period last year. Included in the total were 1729 adult material, 540 junior adult, 1356 children, 213 toys, 43 pieces of audio visual equipment, three art prints and 1095 video tapes.

Book fines totaled $107.50 and copy machine usage brought in $161.41.

New registrations totaled 39 with 19 from Winsor, five from Caseville, three each from Fairhaven and McKinley Townships and two each from Sebawaing and Oliver. Brookfield, Lake, Chandler and Sand Beach Townships each had one new registration and one was received from Tuscola County.

Eight Preschool Story Hour sessions were conducted in May, with 325 children attending. Parents of Becky Pauly, Kalee Bruce, Chad Craig, Stacy McCreedy, Chris Thick and Michael Killinger provided treats for the class in honor of birthdays.

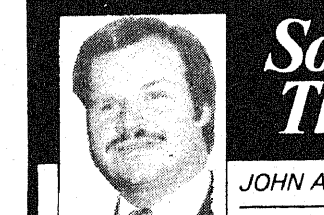

Thirteen school classes made field trips to the library in May, totalling 286 students.

CHILD'S RIGHT TO KNOW
We tend to assume that death is beyond a child's comprehension. In a sense it is; for even adults do not understand the complete meaning of death. This does not mean that the parent should not share with the youngster the fragments of adult experience and knowledge, and that the child should not be allowed to absorb as much of the concept as he is capable of.

The other argument for not speaking of the death of a loved one to a child is to protect him. The adult may feel such intense anguish at the loss that he chooses to spare the child similar suffering. This is somewhat

CASEVILLE LIBRARY CLUB

The Caseville Library Club's annual Breakfast Meeting was held June 4 at Scenic Golf and Country Club.

Viola Hopkins gave the invocation. Gertrude Cameron and Priscilla Kreh were in charge of arrangements. Betty Jansen and Kitty McIntyre handled the tickets and reservations.

President June Duprey opened the meeting by leading the 87 members and guests in the Club Collect and Pledge to the Flag.

Year-end Reports were given by Secretary Charlotte Reeves, Treasurer Betty Young, Budget Chairman Kay Miller, Program Chairman Jennie DeBoer, Community Chairman Lola Tropea, Crafts Chairman Margaret Wilhelm, Charity Chairman Kitty McIntyre, Memorial Chairman Marion Watterworth, Membership Chairman Phyllis Love, Scholarship Chairman Jan Garety, Specials Chairman Viola Hopkins, Pinochle I. Chairman Millie Crank, Pinochle II Chairman Mary Bowman and Pinochle III Chairman Margaret Wilhelm.

A memorial will be sent to Scheurer Hospital in memory of Anker Andersen. Iva Horton was honored for her club membership of over 40 years. She was made a Lifetime member of the Caseville Library Club.

The club will participate in Caseville Sun & Fun Daze, scheduled for July 20-23, by conducting a quilt raffle and a paperback book sale. Craft meetings will be held through the summer on the second Monday of each month at 1 p.m. in the Village-Township Hall Community Room, now until the Holly Berry Fair in November.

Specials Committee will meet at the home of Viola Hopkins on June 19 at 10 a.m.

Although this meeting was the club's final meeting for the year, meetings will be conducted periodically through the summer to plan the next club year, which begins Sept. 11.

President June Duprey thanked the members for a wonderful year and asked for their continued support for next year.

ASK DR. COE

By Dalton P.
Coe, D.D.S.

Dentures! Dentures! Dentures! It may as well have been a neon sign instead of a smile that was flashing at me. I couldn't help but wonder whether the lady with whom I was visiting had instructed her dentist to select small white teeth for her denture or whether he had possibly suggested them to her. I suspect the former. It was apparent to me that the teeth in her dentures, were in all likelihood, not patterned after the original.

So many times patients request that we give them small white teeth only to return disenchanted because everyone notices that they are wearing dentures.

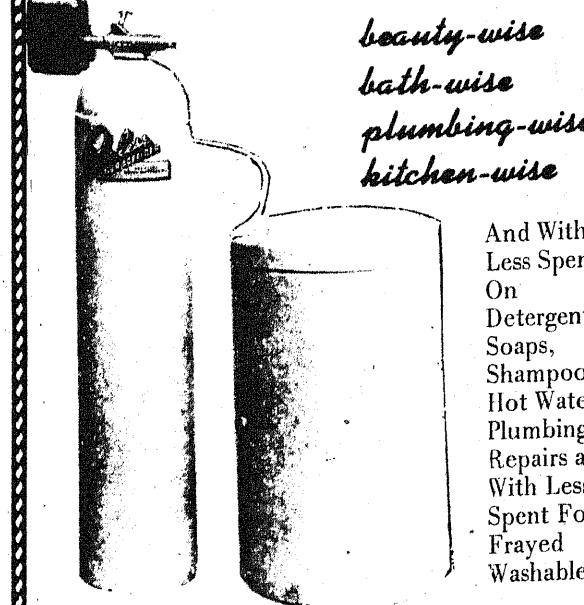

One of the primary keys to happiness in wearing dentures is not to be identified as a denture wearer. Sometimes I can spot dentures 30 to 40 feet away - sometimes I find it difficult to identify a person as a denture wearer until I actually pick up a mouth mirror and do an oral exam. Although I may be more attuned than most to problems of appearance, I think most everybody has a sense of what looks right.

The main determinates of "what looks right" are size, shape, color and arrangement. Size is often determined by facial structure and size of the jaw. Shape is determined by facial shape with allowance for gender (man or woman). Color is determined by natural coloration of eyes, hair and skin. Arrangement is usually established based on previous position of the teeth in the jaws.

All of these factors can be influenced by other factors such as age, wear and staining. It should be stated at this point that denture wearers can have beautiful, attractive teeth, without a neon smile.

Camping -- the best vacations

My answer to all the excuses is "phooey!"

It's that time of the year again. After 12 months of the hectic pace of modern living, when busy schedules cut into the precious time a family spends together, the decision of what to do this vacation looms to the fore. Whatever your decision, be it a trip out west to visit historical sites, to see family and friends in the south, a fishing trip to the northern parts of our state, or just bumbling around the countryside, think of the fun that could be included if you go countryside, think of the fun that could be included if you go camping in conjunction with your planned trip.

But, you say, I'm not the outdoors type. I can't stand the bugs and snakes, I had a friend who had a terrible experience while camping, I don't have any of the expensive equipment that's needed for a good time, and my idea of the outdoors is a large crack in the pavement. My answer to all of the excuses is "phooey."

Camping could be one good answer to the problem of keeping today's family together. And besides that, it's an adventure itself, it's fun, and a great way to communicate with your kids.

Good camping trips don't just happen. They take some practice and cooperation from all members of the family. To get the cooperation that's needed, you must make the planning part of your camping vacation a family affair. Include everyone when you're deciding where to go, places to visit, and campsites to utilize. You might be surprised how someone else's decision turns out to be a winner for you also.

As far as equipment goes, it can be as elaborate as the most luxurious motorhome, or as basic as a borrowed or rented tent. The type of gear is not nearly as important as the attitude of the camper. And besides, even if you are not a camper, you still probably own a lot of equipment that can be used for a camping trip.

Let's assume that you have never been camping before, but would like to try it out this summer. The first thing you need is shelter. This choice will often be a tent. For tenters, sleeping bags, air or foam mattresses, or even folding cots will give you a comfortable night's rest.

For meal preparation, most families have access to a two-burner stove that uses gasoline or propane fuel. Utensils can come from your kitchen, and if a family member is handy with woodworking tools, a box can be easily assembled that will store and transport your kitchen each summer.

A cooler will keep perishable foods fresh. Freeze milk jugs to supply the coolants and have a ready supply of fresh water when they melt.

Always be prepared for rain and cold weather. Nothing can dampen a camping trip as much as not having the proper clothes. Ponchos or rain jackets, comfortable shoes, jackets, sweaters, jeans and sweatshirts can turn a lousy day into a fun day.

Take a little shakedown weekend trip before setting out on a longer vacation. This gives everyone a chance to evaluate the equipment and note any that requires replacement or repair. Assembling tents, or learning to handle a bulky stove is managed better in your backyard than in a life-threatening situation occurring in the mountains.

Camping vacations give the family something to look forward to all year, and something to look back on for years to come. Although our family is beginning to drift apart due to jobs, marriages and college, whenever we get together, out comes the photo album to relieve some of our fondest memories.

Every rainy day reminds me of Levi Jackson State Park in south central Kentucky, when our family entourage limped in, after I had ceremoniously dumped the family van in the ditch the day before, and was ready for some relaxation only to be met by a rainstorm that sent sheets of wind drive water punctuated by blinding flashes of lightning.

We pitched our large, family-sized tent, set up the table, cots and kitchen box, cooked supper inside and soon fell to working a puzzle that our oldest son had sneaked in his duffie. That night, while the rain continued to pelt the tent top, I played my flashlight along the ceiling picking up waves of misty moisture that penetrated our domain, and listened to the delightful squeals of my three kids as I told every possible horror story associated with being caught in a thunderstorm. It was one of the best nights of our vacation, even though a large tree close to our tent was rent by a bolt of lightning sometime during the night. To this day, my children are not afraid of thunderstorms.

Another rainy day caught us in Traverse City, when in my infinite wisdom, I placed a large piece of plastic under the tent to keep the floor from picking up dirt and debris. The rain ran down the sides of the tent and collected between the plastic and waterproof tent floor to create a "waterfloor." The kids played for hours on the squishy mass before, amid howls of protest, I slit the plastic with my jackknife.

One time, on a trip to West Virginia, I had pre-picked a campground in Prestonsburg, Kentucky that would offer us a headquarters within striking distance of many places we wanted to see. I should say, many places that my wife and I wanted to see. When we got to this gorgeous Appalachian retreat, our three kids stuck their bottom lips out and screamed in unison, "What are we going to do?"

After the tent was set up, we drove down a winding road to do a little reconnoitering and ran smack-dap into an olympic-sized pool with a separate diving pool and a dizzying six meter diving platform. The kids were precious during the daily sight seeing tours, knowing full well their good behavior would be paid off by a trip to the pool when we got back to the campground each night.

Why anyone would get a thrill out of jumping off a 19-foot diving board is beyond me. But it must have been fun, because in each of the 200 times they did, they screamed all the way down to the water ...

ELKTON SENIOR CITIZENS

Sixty-six Elkton Senior Citizens gathered for their weekly luncheon on Tuesday at the Elkton Civic Center.

Clayton Gemmel gave the table prayer. The chairman welcomed Mae Coote, and then thanked the Eldis for the table flowers.

"God Bless America" was sung, followed by the Pledge to the Flag. Della Trudegon reported on plans for the lemonade stand to be set-up during Elkton's Old Fashioned Days this weekend. Work sheets were passed for people to sign.

The Birthday Song was sung for Ruth Avery, Dorothy Carty and Tom Lenehan, followed by the Theme Song.

Program Chairman Sherman Day introduced Ruth and Tom Lenehan who presented a program of the history of sheep and the use of wool. Ruth gave many Bible references and used the 23rd Psalm as a background for her talk. She spun some wool on a distaff to give an idea how people used to do it.

Next, Trudegon will be in charge of the program.

Youngsters who are interested in signing up for the 1984 Elkton Recreation Program are asked to register on Monday, June 18 from 1 to 2:30 p.m. at Ackerman Memorial Park. Recreation Director is Sharon Deering.

Elkton denies property tax relief request

In a move designed to retain land for future development, Elkton Village Council last Tuesday vetoed support for Sophia Burzyck's request for tax relief for 20 acres of land under Public Act 116.
The land parcel, located inside the village limits, borders McKinley Street and Marx Road.

Village DPW Superintendent Walt Forster informed Council about $50,000 was necessary to provide water and sewer facilities to the land in question.

Council member Dede
Russell and Village President Neilan Hoffman voted to support Burzyck's request, while Terry Heck,

Dave Fisher, Fred Santos
and Barbara Thompson opposed it.

After the vote, Thompson noted, "We had too much hassle over the apartments.
We need some place to develop." She was referring to the controversy surrounding rezoning a parcel of land last month to allow construction of two eight-unit apartment buildings between McKinley and Brown Streets.

During discussion before the vote on the Burzyck request, it was noted the land could be put in the tax relief program despite Council disapproval, but would slow the approval process down.

DEPOSITS MOVED: At the recommendation of Hoffman, Council approved a policy of keeping Village funds deposited in any particular bank under the $100,000 Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation limit.
Previously all village funds were deposited with Community Bank in Elkton.

To get down to the $100,000 insured limit, certificates of deposit will be withdrawn after they mature, placed in another bank. Funds will be transferred to First National Bank of Bad Axe before other banks because four Elkton taxpayers are employed there, according to Hoffman.

"In no way am I trying to take business out-of-town," stated Hoffman and added,
"And this is no reflection on any banks."

MILLAGE DROP: Council approved a reduction in the village tax assessment from 11.67 mills in 1983-84, to 11.669 mills in 1984-85 to prevent the necessity of a "truth in taxation" hearing. Hoffman said the higher millage would only generate $107
more than the reduced rate, and would not cover the costs involved with a hearing.

SPECIAL MEETING SET:
The village auditors report will be given, and a decision made by Council on providing water bill adjustments for defective
plumbing at a special Council Meeting set for June 20 at 7:30.

MORE FLOWERS: Because of numerous maintenance problems, the fountain in the park downtown will be filled in and flowers planted in the same space.

SOUND-OFF!

Call 453-2323 anytime day or night to record your SOUND-OFF message. Selected statements will appear weekly in The Progress-Advance...so watch for yours!

Congratulations, Mom and Dad. Hope you have fun on your vacation. Love, Your Kids.

To the dog owners on Rupert Street: your dogs kept us awake again last night for the third time in three nights. We are tired of their continual barking and messing on other peoples' lawns. Dogs belong in the country where they can run and bark and not bother anyone.

We understand they're your pets, but we shouldn't have to put up with their noise and messes. We don't disturb you or dump on your lawn. Please try to have the same consideration from now on.

After cutting your foot open in the ditch spearing, maybe you'll think twice before going spearing barefoot again.

*/

It's too bad the grumblers here in Caseville don't take the time to try doing something constructive. If we followed their lead, there wouldn't be a town here at all!

Beautiful babes being sought!

A picture of your "beautiful baby" is being sought for the fourth annual Pigeon Area Jaycettes' contest, according to member Cindy Dubs.

Pictures of any youngster born between Jan. 1, 1983 and April 1, 1984 are eligible (pictures to 5" by 7" size maximum). Photos will be displayed at Thumb National Bank from July 2 until Farmers' Festival time, at 3 p.m. on July 27, and each penny deposited per child counts as one vote.

Winners will be announced at the Friday night stage show. Winners will ride in Saturday's grand parade. Prizes, gifts and pictures will be awarded to all entrants.

For more information, call Mrs. Dubs at 453-2259.

Tillage Field Day coming Tuesday

A ridge tillage field day co-sponsored by the Sanilac Soil Conservation District, Cooperative Extension Service and the Soil Conservation Service is scheduled for Tuesday, June 19 at 9:30 a.m. at the Gilbert Clark Farm, Crosswell.

The farm address is 5940 E. Galbraith Line Road, Crosswell, 1/2 mile east of Wildcat Road.

Elkton Jaycettes welcome guests!

Young women are invited to the Wednesday, June 13 meeting of the Elkton Jaycettes, planned at 8 p.m. on the upper floor of the Elkton Civic Center.

Any young women between ages of 18 and 35 are most welcome. The group meets the second Wednesday of each month.

Call 375-4181 for more information.

the Haley-PCB jury members, I realize why in the not-so-distant future we will have professional jurors. They must be well-educated, informed people, especially in corporate law, when dealing with multi-million-dollar corporations like Monsanto. God must have been with the Haley Family.

We've got the world's best Dad. Love, Chris, Tricia and David.

I'd just like to wish my Dad a happy birthday. Happy birthday, Dad 28, Love Stacie.

I'm sick of reading about the Caseville Airport in Sound-Off. That's all I see and read about. I don't why they're making such a big fuss about this. You should let other people put their articles in.

I think it's terrible that the Mitten Bay Girl Scout Council lost $97,000 in revenues because a few people somewhere were involved with product tampering. The money is a mainstay in Girl Scout fund-raising, as the Council gets 74 cents, local troop 25 cents and 2 cents from each $1.75 box goes to a campship fund for girls who can't afford going. Next year, don't just tell Girl Scouts "no," at least make a donation.

Remember, millions of millions of people had perfect cookies. Only a small handful had trouble, and that wasn't caused by the Scouts or the cookie manufacturers.
