

Western Thumb folks in PACP's 'Little Shop of Horrors'

For years now, "Little Shop of Horrors" has made New York audiences scream — with laughter.

Port Austin Community Players will present this gleefully gruesome musical each weekend now through July 18, with 8 p.m. curtain calls.

The musical, directed by Penny Pearson of Port Austin, with music direction by Jay Schwandt of Pigeon is the story of Seymour Krelborn (Eric Thuemmel of Port Austin), a poor nebbish florist's assistant who allows his craving for fame and fortune to seduce him into playing nurse-maid to an unusual plant.

Meanwhile, Audrey is (Dawn Swartzendruber of Pigeon) Seymour's secret love and co-worker, who tries to move Mushnik's Skid Row florist shop in a new direction. Mr. Mushnik (Joe Shaskus of Bad Axe) can't believe all the sudden success. Orin Scrivello, D.D.S. (played by real dentist Mark Pagani of Port Austin), is Audrey's rebel boyfriend.

Other characters include Ronnette (Kris Kusiel of Port Austin), Chiffon (Mary Jo Lovejoy of Harbor Beach), Crystal (Margaret Sturm of Port Austin), Voice of Audrey II (Bob Gulash of Caseville), Audrey II Manipulation (Marv Kuziel of Port Austin), Ms. Bernstein (Leslie Hagen of Port Austin). PACP volunteers promise this horticultural horror will have you screaming with laughter.

For reservations call the theatre at 738-5217.

Eric Majeski is ordained

By WALT RUMMEL

It's the Rev. Eric Walter Majeski now, following his ordination as a minister in the Lutheran Church/Missouri Synod on Sunday, June 20.

The service took place in Immanuel Lutheran Church, Sebawaing, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Martin Hagenow.

The new pastor and his wife, the former Renee Blome of Sebawaing, will move to Warrington, FL, near Pensacola, where Pastor Majeski will be assistant pastor of Redeemer Lutheran Church. He will be installed July 25.

Pastor Majeski was born in Pittsburgh, PA, on July 6, 1967, the son of Walter Eric and Joan Majeski. His father died when he was three months of age.

In June, 1979, his mother was married to Rupert Walz of Sebawaing, and young Eric suddenly gained six step-brothers and five step-sisters. He was confirmed at Immanuel Church in 1980, and graduated from USA High School in 1985. He enrolled at Concordia College, Ann Arbor, where he was a varsity football and basketball player all four years. He graduated in 1989, attended Concordia Seminary at Fort Wayne and served a one-year vicarage in St. Johns Lutheran Church, Adrian, receiving his M/Divinity Degree on May 21, 1993. The couple was married Aug. 4, 1991.
