Sugar beet testing underway here

By MARY DRIER

What variety of sugar beet grows best in the Thumb? That's what one seed company is trying to find out. Hillshog-Mono-Hy has two test plots in the Thumb to gather data to help make that determination.

"We feel that in order to come up with a good variety, you need to plant a lot of different varieties to find that magic sugar beet that fits in the growing area," said Doug Ruppal, 32 of Akron, eastern district sales and research manager for Hillshog-Mono-Hy.

One five-acre plot belongs to Keith Nitz on Bach Road near Sebewaing, and another belongs to Lee Butts on Elmwood Road near Akron.

This year, those plots each contained over 1,300 different samples with 600 different varieties.

All the research is funded by Hillshog-Mono-Hy, an independent seed company with headquarters in Longmont, Col.

The company has been doing hands-on research in Michigan for six years and has over 5,000 plots in 25 states.

"Sugar companies are starting to look for sugar beets with higher sugar content," said Ruppal. "There are only a few seed companies that do that type of research in this area."

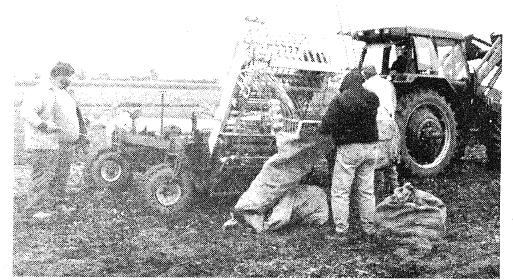

Harvesting of test plots differs from regular harvest. Instead of loading beets into trucks and heading to Michigan Sugar Companies in Sebewaing or Caro, the test beets are bagged for shipment to Minnesota.

There, the samples are weighed and sugar samples taken. The samples are frozen and shipped to company headquarters for sugar analyzes

When Ruppal finishes the test plot near Akron he will harvest test plots in Bowling Green, Ohio, where farmers had to deal with a dry growing season.

Ruppal said the company looks for scattered plots.

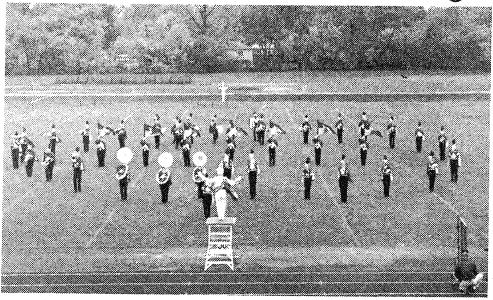

"You don't want to put all of your eggs in one basket. I lost a field to disease so I spread the test plots around," Ruppal said.

THESE SUGAR BEETS get bagged and shipped to Minnesota, not loaded into a truck for a trip to the factory. Shown harvesting test plot beets are Doug Ruppal, Milton Schmidt, Harold Ruppal and William Freeman.

Laker Band earns "I' ratings

THE LAKER MARCHING BAND ended its season on a high note - earning straight superior ratings at the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association District #3 Marching Band Festival on Saturday.

Lakers was one of only 13 bands in its class and one of four bands overall to earn straight superior ratings, according to Laker Band Director Rusty Robinson.

The band has worked since Summer Band Camp in August to prepare for Saturday's event, and performed the following numbers in its salute to Walt Disney: "Zippety Do Da," "Be Our Guest" featuring Liesl Eichler, trumpet soloist; "Bare Necessities," featuring Bryan Clark, Jennifer Diebel, Sara Stein, all on the tuba and the Laker High School Color Guard; closing number "When You Wish Upon a Star," featuring a trumpet solo by Cris Kauffman.

The Festival also included performances by Drum Major Julie Schulz and Assistant Drum Major Shannon Marion; Color Guard Captains Laura Winkel and Jill Champagne and Percussion Leaders Eli Binder and Julie Winkel.

"Today was truly a culmination of a lot of hard work, long hours, commitment and dedication to making the band experience successful," said Robinson of Saturday's event.

Annual C-C meet is Oct. 18

David Schulte, executive director of the Williamsburg, VA Convention and Visitors Bureau, will be guest speaker at the Huron County Council of Chambers of Commerce Annual Meeting this Monday, Oct. 18 at the Castaways in Port Austin. Social hour will be from 6 to 7 p.m., followed by dinner at 7 p.m.

To register, contact Rhonda Buehler at 453-3308.

Schulte will also lead a one-day workshop entitled "Marketing On A Limited Budget" on Tuesday, Oct. 19 at Cousins Restaurant, Bad Axe. Deadline to pre-register is this Friday, Oct. 15, by calling the Huron County Visitors Bureau at 269-6431.

EXPENSIVE ACCIDENTS: About $2.50 of every $100 spent in Michigan in 1990 went to pay for the costs of auto accidents. It's estimated that auto accident deaths cost an average of $702,000 in lost worktime, insurance, legal costs and medical care.

About half of those deaths are caused by drunk drivers, says the U.S. Centers for Disease Control...

Millerwise Park developing, but plane is departing...

Millerwise Park in Downtown Sebewaing is coming along and developing, but the Air Force Trainer plane is going. Those were among Monday evening's decisions as Sebewaing Village trustees held their opening October meeting.

Planning and funding for the park was approved with a resolution and reaffirmation to make the previously-voted $37,500 payment and to contract with the DNR Trust Fund. Under the proposal, Williams, Osminski and Associates of Bad Axe engineering firm was hired for engineering work with plans to start construction in early Spring. All votes carried 5-1.

In response to the U.S. Air Force's annual request for a photo and report of the old Trainer which has stood to the east of Sebewaing Township Airport for about four decades, trustees voted unanimously to ask the Air Force to remove the machine. Although it had been a local attraction for many years, there have been expenses connected with the old plane and its condition has deteriorated.

Also, anticipating construction of the new marina, Sebewaing Council members said the plane must be moved, as it stands where the marina parking lot will be built.

In committee reports, the sanitary sewer committee is interviewing trash haulers and various plans, including curbside and recycling programs, have been discussed.

Hours for "tricking and treating" for Hallowe'en will be set at Monday evening's meeting of the police committee. Since Hallowe'en falls on a Sunday this year, it is expected that Sunday, Oct. 31, will be chosen as "tricks/treats" time.

Next Council meeting will be Tuesday, Oct. 19, to give Sebewaing officials the opportunity to attend the Furan County Chambers of Commerce Council annual meeting on Monday, Oct. 18.

The Band Shell structure itself is complete, having been host to two full summer concert series in 1992 and 1993. It was built in 1991 with all volunteer labor and hosted several musical events that summer. In 1992, all the "roughing in" work of the 2 dressing rooms and 2 bathrooms was done, and toilet fixtures were put in place. Water hook-up was also completed.

ENTERTAINMENT COMM Gratefully acknowledges the generosity of the following donors who contributed monies towards Construction Completion Projects during this past summer season. Because of your contributions, two bathrooms are now complete and we are looking forward to funding a number of other projects. (See "Wish List" below). SPECIAL GIFT: (*500) Fred C. Hailer, Sr. Pigeon Rotary BENEFACTORS (*100 OR MORE) Clarence & Phyllis Gette Duane & Joanne Harder Mr. & Mrs. Elmer Maust

Caseville Mayor's Report to Residents

ing fringe benefits. I sincerely believe the position can be filled with the saavings from that position, along with other possible changes.

During the past 5 1/2 years, I have been asked numerous times why I, as Village President, cannot do more for the Village.

As taken out of our Home Rule Charter and as required by Statute: For all ceremonial purposes, the Village President shall be the executive head of the Village and shall be the presiding officer of the Council and shall have a voice, but not a vote. He shall be a non-voting member of all committees.

The president can only vote in case of a tie in the proceedings of the council, aid in the enforcement of the village ordinances and can exercise only such powers as this Charter, or the council, shall specifically confer in the past 5 1/2 years, the Council has given little or no authority to the Village President. Why?

There is no explanation. I do, however, spend a lot of time in my office answering letters and attending nearly all committee meetings of which I am notified.

ANNUAL FINANCIAL REPORT OF CASEVILLE PUBLIC SCHOOL SCHOOL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1993

Caseville Public School is in a financially healthycondition. The school district operated in the black this year and ended with an improved fund equity. This fund equity is used to defray operational costs from July through December, thus eliminating the need to borrow funds, as well as to offset future shortfalls in the general fund.

The tax levy approved by the voters of the school district for 1992-93 was 18.25 mills for general operation and .71 mills for the 1974 debt. The Board of Education levied 18.6274 mills out of the voted 18.96 mills

The curriculum for Caseville students is continuously being reviewed through the school improvement process. During 1992-93, the District developed math outcomes (what students need to learn in math) and began the process of developing Social Studies outcomes K-12. This curriculum development process will be continued until all areas of the curriculum have been reviewed. This plan is included in the school improvement process. Further information on the 1992-93 school year is continued in our annual report which was made available to the public. If any citizen did not receive a copy of this report, please telephone the superintendent's office and a copy will be forwarded to you.

During the 1993-94 school year, the Board of Education will begin the building upgrade and addition as approved by the voters. This addition will bring our educational programs into the
