Behr made 'Ziploc' possible

By SALLY RUMMEL
"In later years, you're drawn back to where you were raised as a kid."

That's why former Caseville/Pigeon resident Douglas Behr, now of Midland, keeps showing up back in the Western Thumb after his retirement a year ago from the Dow Chemical Corporation.

Usually he shows up with his trombone in tow.

Retiring in December, 1993 after a 38-year career with Dow, Behr decided one day he wanted to try his hand at the trombone, and now much of his spare time is spent gathering with friends who also enjoy playing musical instruments, "just for fun," he says.

He also does it with a purpose, often playing for residents of nursing homes, including the Huron Medical Care Facility in Bad Axe, where his mother, Ethel Oeschger is a patient.

Doug Behr, 66, picks up his trombone and plays it with the same earnest intensity he put into his four-decade career at Dow.

"He can jog faster, run harder, and out-play 40 year old tennis opponents," says Ruth Leinweber, whose brother, Howard Bedford, is one of Behr's close friends and a former schoolmate.

Behr went to school in Caseville until the sixth grade, then graduated from Pigeon High School in 1946. As a teenager, he worked on Sand Point moving dirt with a wheelbarrow, and at that point, decided college was for him.

Meanwhile, he was called into the Navy and worked as an aviator electronic technician on a torpedo bomber. His Navy career enabled him to get the GI Bill, which led him to college at Michigan State University, where he studied electrical engineering, then switched to math.

Behr has always been "on the run," and he says his entire professional career began in college when a neighbor noticed how fast he ran from place to place - and recommended him for a job.

"I never walked anywhere, I

HE BROUGHT ZIPLOC BAGS TO YOU: Caseville native Doug Behr shows several of the types of Ziploc self-closing plastic bags he helped invent for Dow Chemical Co.

always ran," remembers Behr with a smile.

Behr may return to his hometown with a certain anonymity, having been out of the area for all of his professional life - but he is anything but anonymous at Dow Chemical Corp.

In fact, Dow has dedicated a building to R. Douglas Behr, and a plaque recognizing him hangs inside.

Behr's name at Dow is somewhat of a household word, much like the term "Ziploc Bag" is a household word all over the world.

While he did not invent the Ziploc bag himself, he invented the two processes that enabled the bags to be produced as a household consumer item.

He began his career at Dow in 1955 quite by accident, worked in the metallurgical lab for 10 years before moving over to the Consumer Products Division in 1965.

"At the time we started making Ziploc bags, bags with zippers were being made, slowly, in 25 countries," says Behr.

Behr was the lone researcher given the task of speeding up the process to make the bags - eventually increasing the speed from 60 to 75 to 100, then 150 and finally to 300 ft. per minute - enabling the bags to go from being a very expensive, specialty item available only to companies who could afford them, for storage purposes - to being one of the most popular consumer items of all time.

When Dow - through Behr's efforts - did come up with the processes to make the zippered bags quickly enough for consumer use, it first sold them as cooking bags.

It's a 'last chance dance' on Feb. 24

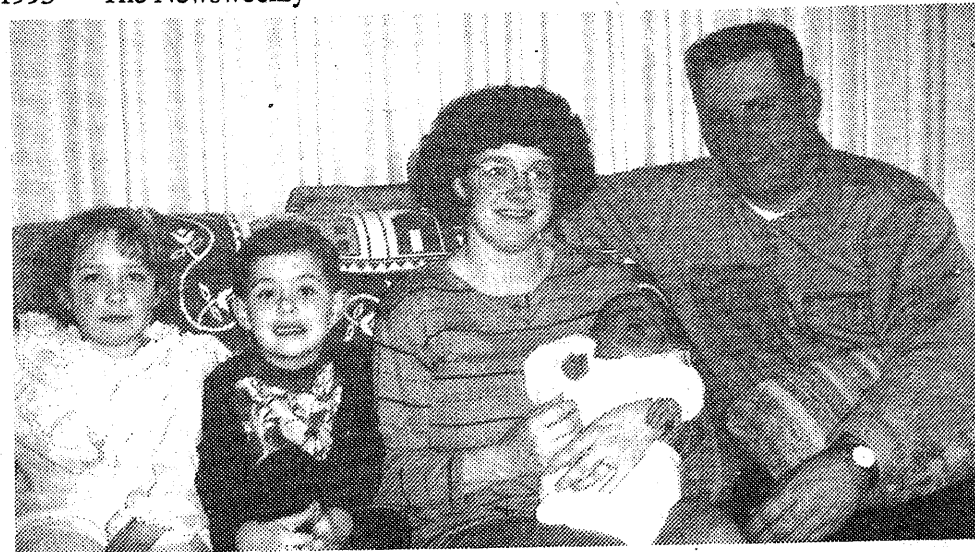

Anybody who remembers dances at the old Sebawaing High School gym will have one more chance to relive those '50s, '60s and '70s memories, when the USA-FFA Alumni present a "Last Chance Dance" on Friday, Feb. 24.

Organizers say the dance, after USA High's Coming Home basketball game, will run from 9 p.m. to midnight in the old SHS gym in Sebawaing. Neil Gaeth's Sebawaing Sound System will provide oldies music, and tickets including refreshments will be available at the door.

"This is for folks of all ages who want to turn back the clock one last time, to remember all those dances," organizers say. The present USA Middle School has been sold to a developer, and will be converted to senior apartments — so this may be your last chance to use the gym as you used to do, they add.

Proceeds will go toward USA-FFA Alumni activities, in support of the USA-FFA program.

Behr made Dow's Ziploc bag possible

82% of the customers were using them for things other than cooking, Dow began marketing them as food storage bags, and that's where Dow's Ziploc success story began.

Now the zippered bag line includes snack bags, sandwich bags, freezer bags, storage bags and the new vegetable bags in various sizes.

While Behr isn't shy about taking much of the credit for Ziploc's good fortune - $250 million in 1993 sales - he's also quick to credit many other Dow workers who worked with him along the way, and his former wife, Eileen Behr (nee Eileen Schulze, a Pigeon native), who helped him get through school, study, write technical papers, appraise his ideas and shouldered the extra load at home with four children, while he worked long hours and many weekends.

He also remembers having a keen interest in making things work when he was a young boy growing up in Caseville.

Fiddling around with an electric train and an erector set really gave Behr his start in understanding what makes things tick, and he never lost his curiosity or interest in building ideas upon principles he learned.

He also never stopped learning - taking up downhill skiing at the relatively late age of 40, working on the National Ski Patrol and trying to invent a gadget that would allow skiers to let themselves down off a ski lift.

"I decided there ought to be a way and I found it," says Behr.

Even though Behr has ended his day-to-day professional career, he is still learning and inventing on his own, and has even formed the Midland Technology Development Corp., to market whatever he might invent in the future.

With over 30 patents to his credit, there's a pretty good chance that Behr will keep on thinking and inventing.

That is, when he's not too busy returning to his hometown and playing the trombone with friends...

USA seeks k-garteners beginning March 1

Enrollment for 1995-96 kindergarten students begins Wednesday, March 1 and will continue during the entire month at USA Elementary School in Unionville. This includes all children who will turn five years old before Dec. 1, 1995. Enrollment may be done at the elementary school office in Unionville from 8:30 a.m. until 12 noon and from 1 to 3 p.m.

To enroll, bring the child's birth certificate, immunization records and social security card, officials say.

Appointments are not necessary and you do not need to bring your child. The registration process will take about 15 minutes.

Kindergarten screening will be set up for April 20 and 21. Appointments will be scheduled when you register your child, they say.

The four-year-old preschool program applicants will also be taken for students not planning to attend the USA kindergarten during the '95-'96 school year.

USA and Reese operate a cooperative four-year-old preschool program at Reese, and parents interested in discussing this possibility for their children will receive information at this time.

A team of four surveyors spent four days at the facility reviewing all aspects of the operation. Two building code deficiencies and a few procedural deficiencies were found, and a plan of correction was submitted.

Recently a re-survey was done and it was found that all deficiencies had been corrected and no new deficiencies had been found.

Officially, the facility is in total compliance with all state and federal regulations that govern nursing homes and medical care facilities, he says.

"This is the first perfect score that has been awarded during my over 40 years in the business," Woelke says.

"Credit should go especially to the fine staff of supervisors and the staff employees who strive daily to meet the requirements and the many conscientious employees who work there."

Fire destroys Caseville barn

A pole barn belonging to John Clark was destroyed by fire last Monday, Jan. 30, along with a car, lawn tractor, and tools and garden equipment. Loss could total $100,000.

The barn, located on McIlhargie Rd., east of Caseville, was engulfed in flames when firefighters arrived, according to Caseville Township Fire Department officials. They were on the scene about three hours to keep the fire from spreading and to keep watch over exploding welding tanks. A wood stove was blamed for starting the fire.

The Oliver Township and Kinde Fire Departments assisted at the scene with water tankers.

As we see it

These local kids deserve your help

Several stories in this issue refer to local music students, at USA, Owen-Gage, Caseville and Laker Schools, who need help in raising enough money to accompany special bands to special events all around the world.

We don't often get a chance to help someone take a "trip around the world," but this would be a good time to dip into your pocket to help.

After hearing so much about all the "bad kids" in the world, here are a half-dozen or so outstanding musicians, and leading LOCAL students, who hope to make an adventure of a lifetime. They can make some great music, but they can't do it alone.

As is the case with those students traveling to Korea, China and Hawaii with the Lions International Convention Band, total costs are $3,000 or better. Suppose YOU are a teenager with a chance to take such a trip (or suppose you are the parent of one of those kids.) Could YOU round up $3,000 by yourself?

Probably not. But that's one of the great things about living in a small-town area like this. We know how to work together.

If folks who are able to spare several dollars could give, say, $10 or $20, these young people can gather enough to make their respective trips. After all, they can't wash enough cars, wait enough tables or have enough other fund-raisers to make that kind of money.

Please give, if you can, so others can learn more about life... around the world. You'll feel GREAT!

Making progress...

People wondering about the health of small-town America need look no further than the "Progress in the Thumb '95" special edition, which we're publishing here next week.

The diversity of businesses, the number of companies looking ahead with innovative marketing and new services or products is encouraging, at a time when most little towns have been losing businesses for nearly a generation.

If you wish to feel better about life here in the Thumb, don't miss the interesting stories and comments in that section. It's very hopeful!

Recollections Of By-Gone Days

by George Keim

DEAR EDITOR:

Once in a while I still get a letter from somebody who read my articles and tells me that they like them, and that they remind them of the good old days.

A while ago, I got a letter from a man who said he attended a country school and he agreed with me that it was a good experience because we all were a big family. He also sent me several pictures of country schools and they looked a lot like the country school I saw.

And it brought back a lot of memories or my experience.

I once had my school work caught up when I was in the eighth grade, and the teacher had sent the little children to play. They were fighting among themselves and I was to get them to play together.

Well, it didn't take me long till I had them playing together. I'm not too good a person, but once I was walking uptown and I had my children with me and I met one of my old schoolmates that was a little drunk and he put his arm around me and told me how glad he was to see me.

Well, I got rid of him as soon as I could and one of my children said "Daddy, I'm glad you are different than that guy." Well, that still makes me feel good.

In one of my letters they asked me if I was a Christian. You can't be one just because your parents were but I can't remember any time my folks didn't take me to church.

My Dad taught Sunday school and was a well-learned Bible student and read a lot in the Bible. And my mother wasn't a big reader but what she read was in the Bible.

I attended Bible School every chance I had and taught Sunday School for over 30 years. Some classes were children and some were young boys and once in a while some old men.

Once they wanted me to teach a mixed class but I couldn't do it because they'd talk about everything except the Sunday school lesson. So I asked to be excused and soon I had a class of boys that no other one wanted, and I got along good with them.

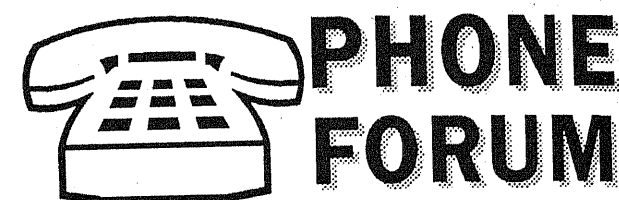

We used to go to church with a horse and buggy. They had long sheds to tie the horses in, and the preacher used to walk back and forth and clap his hands.

A person couldn't sleep but back you only went to church once a week and you were glad to hear a good sermon. Once somebody told a preacher he got so worked up when he preached and he said if your cows get into the cornfield and you stand by the fence and say "you naughty cows, you should get out of the cornfield or you'll get sick from eating so much corn," they won't get out.

But if you get after them and raise your voice and take a whip to them, they'll get out, and people are just like that. I still think if you read the Bible and keep the Golden Rule, and don't forget to read John 3:16, and apply it to your heart, and keep the Commandments, and are born again, there are good hopes for you when the Lord sees fit to call you home.

Sincerely yours,
GEORGE KEIM

We've got several responses to recent Phone Forum questions or comments, and we'd like to remind callers/writers of a few important points:

1. You've got 30 seconds on the tape to make your comments, so be prepared when you call;
2. We can publish comments received through 5 p.m. Fridays;
3. DON'T leave messages for staff members — call those in during normal business hours, not on the recording machines;
4. Some comments should first go to the people/businesses being questioned. Try normal procedures first, folks, THEN call the Phone Forum if you're not happy with the results.

Here are this week's selected comments. Happy reading!

L. or Port Austin: I'm so excited that William Diller will be doing some feature writing for The Newsweekly. I thoroughly enjoyed his well-written story on Dr. Beedle's hobby. Keep up the great work, Bill.
(You've got at least one fan out there, Bill — and lots more.)

Carrie of Sebawaing: People wanted to know where the snowplows were last week. I know where they were. They were at the end of a road, plowing out a resident. Thank you.

S. of Sebawaing: This is to D. of Sebawaing, in last week's paper. Doesn't D. have anything better to do than complain about snowmobilers running up and down our roads? I ride snow machines and I obey all stop signs and speed limits. He shouldn't take it out on the whole bunch, for what a few people are doing.
(Makes sense, S. You said it best, among several callers on this subject.)

P. of Bay Port: I thoroughly enjoyed the Bay Port Carnival again this year. It was really wonderful. It would be a terrible shame if the Bay Port Carnival could no longer be held in our town, if the kids no longer came to school here. I can't think of anything worse, than not going to school in your own town.

Cindy of Sebawaing: To let you know how smart USA Schools are, they have three things going on at the same time that all parents are supposed to be at. Does that tell you USA does not have parent and teacher communications?
(That should tell us all that one master calendar should be used, and watched more closely, Cindy. Different departments are busy working on their own programs.)

Mike of Pigeon: Did you notice on the "minimum wage" list you had on the front page, that the big wage increases come while Democrats are presidents? That is proof again they want to spend your money. The GOP doesn't do that. The minimum wage doesn't do much good. When it goes up, companies cut back on low-wage workers anyway.

T. of Pigeon: I'm glad our local bank will stay independent. That is better than being a chain bank like all the others.

Elaine of Elkton: I don't like having to dial 517 for all my calls. It's an insult, and the rates are still too high!
(I've certainly heard that comment many times, Elaine. It takes as many numbers to dial the next town as it does to call Florida!)

J. of Unionville: About coaches playing certain people, a basketball team should play its best players. This isn't a popularity contest. Volunteer to help coach, if you'd like. You'll see what I mean.

F. from Caseville: If you wear seatbelts while driving, you usually do not have major injuries in an accident. That is only common sense. People who don't wear seatbelts are taking their lives in their own hands.

HURON BASEBALL FAN: The baseball contract talks between players and management have enough problems without Clinton and Dole getting into it. Please, Messrs. Clinton and Dole, stick to Washington. When things like immigration, health care, Mexico, etc. face the country, you've got ENOUGH to keep you busy. Keep your noses out of the baseball business. They are messed up enough already.
(It's probably easier to look important for them "helping" the baseball talks than it is tackling the real issues, HB Fan?)

777 of Sebawaing: Here's an idea: why not call the new restaurant "Sweet and Sour Porky's"?

(On that note, we'll sign off 'til next week...)

■ GREAT NEWS for bird watchers! Jim Wurm of Thomas Road, Unionville, was driving toward Sebawaing on Laker Road, near Myers Road around 9:15 a.m. Tuesday, Jan. 31, when he saw a huge bird circling nearby. The bird was bigger than any hawk or raven or duck and it had a white head and white tail. It was America's emblem, a Bald Eagle.

A few folks tried to tell him it was some other bird, but Jim said they can't fool him. "It's the first Bald Eagle I've seen around here, but I know how they look. I've seen plenty of them when we're fishing up North!"

That's good news, Jim, and thanks so much for notifying us. True, Bald Eagle sightings are occurring, as the big birds are re-establishing here. When you see one of them, we'd appreciate hearing about it...

Horsin' Around

AND THE WINNER IS NOT: Oldsmobiles top the list, followed by Jeep Cherokee second. Proceeding third, fourth and fifth are similar 4-wheel drive sport utility vehicles... but nowhere on the list of "most stolen automobiles" do rusty four-cylinder, two wheel drive 1988 Ford Rangers appear. Guess I can rest a little easier.

THINK SPRING: We're creeping out of the black hole! Don't know if you've noticed it or not, but despite all the wintery weather we've been enjoying here in mid-Michigan, it's true we are at least seeing more daylight with each passing day. And despite what the old ground hog tells us, spring is an endurable six weeks away. By the end of March, there is always at least a fragrant, airy, tulip-like light at the end of the tunnel!

CIRCUS OF THE STARS: Enjoyed the Shrine Circus at the Saginaw Civic Center for the first time in my life, just last week. And although I had to struggle to suppress concerns about possible mistreatment/exploitation of the animals, all in all I'd have to say it was a wonderful and magical experience for a "circus virgin" such as myself.

The only thing that really disturbed me, on a personal level, were the 20 circus ponies who performed absolutely amazing feats (and I do mean amazing) with carefree ease.

Why did I find that disturbing? Because I struggle day after day with the simplest training of my own horses. Heck, it's a red-letter day in our barn when they just argue with me a little LESS than usual!

BE MINE: February has got to be my least favorite month. November comes close, but since I love fall, Thanksgiving and the beginning of the holiday season, I forgive November her grey, lifeless weather.

January does not top my list of "fave" months either, but since it's always at least three weeks into January before I have recovered from the holidays, it seems I don't notice how much I dislike that month.

But February? Major cabin fever time! The only thing that redeems this mid-winter month at all is Valentine's Day, and the irony that comes from celebrating the ultimate holiday of love and life in the middle of a month so lacking in both! (Half price chocolates, come Feb. 15, can sometimes help shake the mid-winter blahs, too!)

AND SPEAKING OF WINTER: All the snow we got a couple of weeks ago sure makes it fun for snowmobilers and ski enthusiasts. But keep in mind that severe winter weather can take a big toll on the elderly, handicapped—and single working women who live alone and don't own any of those "most-stolen" four wheel drive vehicles.

So keep in mind that you might need to check on your grandparents or shut-in neighbor (or lonely old spinster friend) if it begins to look as though they might be helplessly snowbound.

'Pass auf! Thin eis!

Es ist Winter, und die Eis-Fischermen sind active! Sie fischen auf Saginaw Bay—Sie traveln bei Fuss, auf Snowmobiles und auch in Cars.

Und das kann dangerous sein! Unser lieber Freund Henry Engelhard, der in 1927 anfang mit sein Job fuer Bay Port Fisch Company, erzählte wie 3 von seine feste Freunde beinah untergingen am 17 Maerz, 1928. Die Freunde, Otto Schmidt, Floyd Harron und "Red" Bauer, fuhren in eine Model T Ford Roadster auf das Eis zum Nets liften. Sie fuhren von die Sued Shore an Sand Point, um das Point zur Nord Shore. Die 3 sind along ge-zoomed in eine Roadster, nahe Shore. Sie dachten underneath war about 4 Fuss Wasser.

ABER, Sie waren grad ueber ein Channel, about 8 Fuss tief. Auf einmal cracked das Eis, aber Sie waren nicht einmal geworried, weil Sie dachten das Wasser war about Waist deep. Die Roadster ging immer tiefer und tiefer und schnell waren alle 3 unter Wasser, unter Eis.

Das Eis hat die Tueren ge-blocked, und Sie konnten die Tueren nicht auf pushen.

Die Car war schnell unter Wasser. Die 3 haben frantically ge-pushed und ge-beaved in die kleine Roadster.

Endlich haben Sie eine Tuer auf-ge-pushed, und konnten von die Car auf das Eis reachen. Sie haben einander heraus gepull-d. Bald waren alle free.

Aber das Temperatur war Zero und immediately waren Ihr ge-soakede Kleider solid Eis.

Auf die nearby Shore waren nur Sommer Cottages, und Sie wussten das she konnten keine Warmth dort finden.

So sind Sie auf das Eis gerennet, toward eine Fisch Shanty da eine Car ge-parked war.

Der Fischerman inside war sehr surprised da Sie an die Tuer ge-pounded haben.

"Wir bezahlen dir handsomely wenn du uns zu Shore driven wirst," haben Sie ge-promised.

Der Fischerman sagte, "Ich kann might as well. Die Fisch bitten anyway nicht." Alle 3 waren steif gefroren aber es war nur ein short Ride zu Schmidts' Haus in Bay Port.

Dort haben sie warme Showers genommen, sassen vor die Furnace Ducts und tranken grosse Glaesser Trauben Wein. Bald wurden Sie glowingly warm, und gaben fervent Gebete das Sie Ihr Accident survived hatten.

Am naechsten Tag nahmen Sie Blocks und Tackles, und eine kleine Car und extra Manpower. Als smarte Fischermen haben Sie Ihr Roadster schnell heraus ge-pulled von die Bay. Dann haben Sie Ihr Nets ge-lifted.

Die Roadster wurde aus-ge-dried und bald war Sie wieder in driving Condition.

"Jetzt," schrieb Henry, "Sind alle 3 ge-passed zu die andere Shore, wo es kein Trouble oder Tears mehr gibt."

Die Moral in die Geschichte ist, Dickses Eis ist safer den Thin Eis.

Sebewaing's Subway plans weekend grand opening

By DUANE GUENTHER

Joe and Moe Eisengruber are making plans for the grand opening of their new Subway franchise located on M-25, just south of the traffic light in Sebewaing. Although the official opening will be Feb. 10 and 11, the new restaurant has been doing business since Dec. 14. "The response has been better than expected," Joe Eisengruber says. His wife's smile and affirmative nod made it obvious they were both pleased with the beginning.

Both are area natives. Joe, a 1977 graduate of USA High School is employed by the Sebewaing Light and Water Department, while Moe, the former Maureen McCormick, is a 1979 graduate of Caseville High School. "The Subway franchise has some very rigid standards," they both say. "The meat products are weighed and measured to ensure quality from sandwich to sandwich."

Contents for all sandwiches are made up during the early morning hours, especially the vegetable products, which are cut or sliced fresh every day. "One of our highlights is that we bake fresh rolls every day," he says. "The company is very high on that."

"And," she adds, "the vegetable toppings are also fresh every day." While their building is fresh, clean and beautifully decorated, it is the new computer/cash register that will catch the eye of many customers. "It does everything imaginable," Moe says. "Besides accounting for the money, it does our inventory, payroll, and scheduling." With the new touch-screen method they can quickly scan the number of each type of sandwich sold during the past week. "And what's the greatest," she says, "is that it will predict how many sandwiches we will need for the upcoming week." The computer/cash register was first viewed at a convention in Chicago — and the Sebewaing store is the first using its type, they say. Since a full-store inventory is required every Wednesday,

Moe likes the idea that her computer will do the work in two hours as opposed to the full-day job required if done by hand. Business hours for the new restaurant are 10 a.m. - 12 midnight, Sunday through Thursday, and 10 a.m. to 1 a.m. Friday and Saturday.

Sebewaing Meal-Site menu

Sebewaing Senior Meal-Site, 970 Union St., welcomes all seniors 60 years and older and their spouses. It is open 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday.

ACTIVITIES: Euchre: Monday & Friday, 10:30 a.m.

Bingo: Tuesday, 10:30 a.m.

Valentine's Party: Tuesday, Feb. 14, Bring Pennies

MENU: Wednesday, Feb. 8: Chicken Tahitan, baked potato, spinach, blueberry muffin, grapefruit sections.

Friday, Feb. 10: Spanish Rice, Italian blend, glazed carrots, Italian bread, custard.

Monday, Feb. 13: Linguine

Noodles w/Meat Sauce, California blend vegetables, salad bar, garlic bread, cream dessert Tuesday, Feb. 14: Golden Baked Chicken, baked potatoes, peas, variety bread, Valentine cookie, mandarin oranges.

Sugar Factory is done early

Moving up its schedule by several days, Michigan Sugar Company's Sebewaing Plant brought its final load of sugar beets for processing Monday afternoon (Feb. 6), to complete the '94-'95 processing season, according to Plant Manager Lewis Zemanek.

O-G Band members in Honors Band

Owen-Gage High School Band members Michelle Piserek and Jason Ramirez participated in the 37th Annual Tri-County Honors Band held recently at Caseville High School.

The performers were selected by audition from among the top players in the tri-county area. Piserek plays flute while Ramirez plays the tuba, according to O-G Band Director Donna Robinson.

John Witwell was the guest conductor at this year's Tri-County band concert.

Straight shooting

When I was a young boy, my Dad took me to the Bay City Fairgrounds to watch a professional shooter by the name of Herb Parsons put on a shooting exhibition that was truly unbelievable.

For an impressionable mind such as mine, the feats he performed were magical, akin to the likes of Harry Houdini.

At that time, I wasn't old enough to realize that Herb poured thousands of rounds through his rifle and a similar amount of shells through his shotgun in order to produce those stunning results. Houdini probably spent a similar amount of time perfecting each and every escape trick.

There is no doubt that practice is a very important aspect of becoming a good shot. I heard a classic statement on this point.

An old, grizzled hunter once told me, "The more I practice with my shotgun, the luckier I become."

However, I am convinced it takes more than practice to become proficient with a firearm. In my opinion, one must begin with a gun that fits.

Like most young boys in rural Michigan, my first gun was a hand-me-down. A 12-gauge, single shot Winchester, if memory serves me right.

It was a monster, with a 30" barrel, a high comb, an extra long pull, and a knurled hammer that protruded about a 1/16 of an inch above the groove in the stock protecting it.

In order to shoot it, I had to put my full attention on making sure my thumb did not slip off the hammer while I cocked it.

Once that was accomplished, I then pushed the entire gun to arm's length so it wouldn't catch my shirt while bringing it to my shoulder, and finally crunched my cheek to the stock in order to sight down the barrel.

By this time, the duck, pheasant, or rabbit had departed for parts unknown and shared the tale with buddies who held their sides to keep from bursting with laughter.

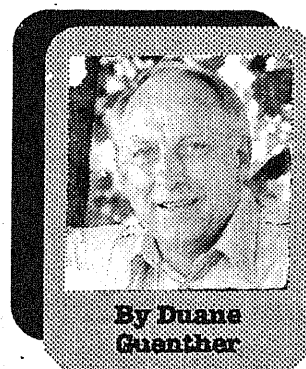

Even my teenage mind was developed enough to tell me the gun did not fit.

After two more hand-me-downs I finally had enough money to buy my own shotgun. Although the Winchester Model 12 felt good enough in the store, once afield I found out it, too, had many idiosyncrasies, but since all good duck hunters used that type, I struggled for another several years.

I was fast beginning to believe the myth that "good shotguns were born, not made."

Along about this time, an older brother took me under his wing and explained some of the finer points on becoming a reasonably good wingshot.

He showed me the proper way to mount a gun, taught me about lead, both horizontal and vertical, and best of all explained the rudiments of instinctive shooting with both eyes open.

Under his tutelage I improved my shooting to a fair degree, not good mind you, and nowhere close to moderate, just fair.

I continued shooting fair for several years until, by accident, I came across a revelation that caused me to make a sudden jump for the better.

About 20 years ago, a friend of mine came to settle a bad debt. He was going through a messy divorce and instead of paying me the money he owed, offered his shotgun instead.

The shotgun, a Spanish import whose name I had never heard, had nice wood and beautiful checkering so I decided to take a chance. A good decision on my part.

Almost immediately, my shooting began to improve. Not much, mind you, but it was an improvement.

One day while trying to remove a pebble that had lodged in the perforated recoil pad I chanced to view the gun from stock to barrel. I could not believe what I saw. The stock was bent, or at least I thought the stock was bent.

I took the gun to my workshop, locked it in the wooden jaws of my gun vise and laid a steel straight edge along the barrel. Sure enough the stock did not line up, but was bent, fairly radically to the right.

I took it to a friend of mine, who knows a lot more about guns than I do, and was embarrassed when he told me the gun had a "cast off." "I knew that," I said, but I didn't.

Later, after pouring over a dozen gun books at the local library I found out why my shooting had dramatically improved. Due to the cast, I was now shooting where I was looking, or at least most of the time.

Cast is a gunsmith's term that applies to how the barrel is lined up with the stock. Although it is usually found on shotguns, I have since found out that builders of muzzleloading rifles almost always put cast in their guns.

The principle of cast is that when you shoulder a gun your head does not naturally look down the barrel, but rather looks to the right, if you shoot right handed. Therefore, if you snap the gun up suddenly, you may very well be missing birds to the left.

It suddenly came to me that I always have an easier time hitting birds flying from right to left. That is because a poorly fitted gun has already provided the lead that you need.

Help Sugar Fest fireworks project!

An informational meeting is scheduled Thursday, March 9, at 7 p.m. at Porky's Restaurant, Sebawaing, for persons interested in gathering funds for the Fireworks Display at the 1995 Michigan Sugar Festival here the last weekend in June.

Ideas and help are needed to raise funds for this year's fireworks display, says organizer Dennis Kundering. He hopes to make the '95 show even more spectacular than last year's extravaganza.

People with questions may call Kundering at 883-2563. A 9-Pin, No-Tap Bowling Tournament fund-raiser is scheduled for March 24 to 31, and April 1 & 2.

It is open to league and non-league bowlers. For more information call Jim Kuhl at Sebawaing Lanes, 883-2721.

proper fitting causes you to shoot behind it before you figure any lead at all.

I quickly checked my American made shotgun and found that it doesn't have any cast. The library informed me that most American guns are mass produced that way, while European guns have favored a slight cast for the last hundred years.

If you have never heard of cast, you may want to drag your favorite shotgun out of the closet and give it the once over. Finding a gun that had it has improved my shooting. And, if nothing else, its a good excuse to buy yet another gun.....

USA offers peer tutoring

USA High School has begun a "walk-in" tutoring program as of Monday, Feb. 6 in the home ec room. National Honor Society members will be available to help any high school student in the areas of math, science and English, organizers say. The peer tutoring sessions are free of charge and will be Monday afternoons from 3-4 p.m. and Wednesday mornings 7:30-8 a.m.

This pilot program will be reviewed at the end of one month to determine if the number of students using this resource merits its continuation.

It is a joint project of the National Honor Society and the USA High School Advisory Committee.

USA loses to Cass City, Reese in week

By DUANE GUENTHER
USA traveled to Cass City to do battle with the Red Hawks in a non-league basketball tilt last Tuesday night, 68-48.

Coming off a couple of league wins in the last two outings, the Patriots hoped to keep their string alive before meeting the league-leading Rockets of Reese on Friday.

However, Cass City had a plan of their own, and they executed it perfectly.

The Red Hawks came out of the blocks fast and furious and built a comfortable 18-4 lead. Things were a little more even during the second stanza with both teams hitting fairly consistently. USA outscored Cass City during this time by a point, giving the Hawks a 13-point edge, 35-22.

Coach John Manninen must have had a great halftime talk, especially with Jason Cleveland, for when the Patriots returned to the floor, they were ready for play.

Even though he was double, and sometimes, triple teamed, Cleveland roared with a couple of triples and five buckets accounted for 16 points, part of 19 points in the quarter. That cut the lead to eight points.

"We simply ran out of gas," Manninen said. "They (Cass City) took the ball inside and intimidated us most of the night."

Jason Morgan led the winners with 17 points, while Jason Cleveland ripped the nets for 20 for USA.

The USA JVs beat Cass City 70-59. Ryan Kohl led with 17, followed by Dan Sweet-man with 15 and Eric Kelly with 14.

PATRIOTS LOSE TO ROCKETS, 72-56

The showdown for the league leadership in Friday's encounter with the Reese Rockets turned out to be a fizzle, but not for the Rockets. Their basketball ship blasted off when Mike Hein, 6'5" senior, hit a triple at the 7:20 mark of the first quarter — and the Rockets never looked back, in defeating USA 72-56.

During the second quarter the Patriots began to find the shooting range, but the Rockets didn't let up. Reese had a comfortable 63-41 margin at the half.

Reese continued the blitz by outscoring the Patriots 19-10 in the third stanza, and USA Coach John Manninen began clearing his bench midway through the fourth.

The victory left Reese with a 7-0 record in the American Division of the Thumb C, and an overall record of 12-0.

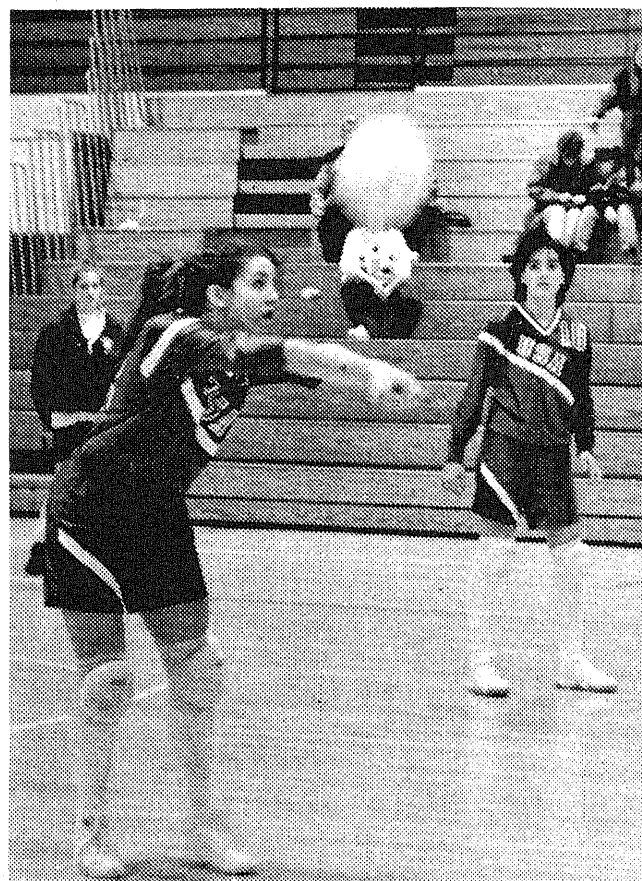

Reese's Mike Hein finished the night with 28. Jason Cleveland led USA with 16, and Jesse Karls added 13.

The loss dropped USA to 5-2 in the league, but they are still in second place, one game ahead of Harbor Beach.

USA's record is 6-7 overall.

The USA JVs won a barn-burner to remain undefeated. In a contest, where the lead must have changed hands at least 20 times, The Junior Patriots hung on by their fingernails to eke out a 55-52 victory over the Rockets.

Eric Kelly was high point man with 16 points, while Jim Androl added 12, and Shaun Gainforth chipped in with 11. Androl was the big man on the boards with 11 rebounds.

USA v-ballers split pair in week

By DUANE GUENTHER

The USA Patriot volleyball team, spending the week on their home court, started off in fine fashion Monday night by besting the Mayville Wildcats 3 out of 5 for their third league victory.

They began the evening slow, as the first game turned into a see-saw battle with neither team establishing any momentum until late in the game when a sudden flurry by the Wildcats gave them the contest 15-10.

Although their backs were against the wall, Roger Remar's Patriots quickly dug themselves out of a hole and came flying back to take the second game 15-6. They continued playing at the net, and although there were time of struggles they manage to pull out the third game 15-12.

However, they could not put Mayville away and the tide turned in favor of the Wildcats who won the fourth game easily, 15-7, thereby setting the stage for a fifth and final game.

Both teams were tentative at the net and it seemed if each were waiting for the other to make mistakes. After several surges by both squads, USA was able to pull away winning the game 15-11 and taking the match 3 out of 5. The win put the Patriots at 3-3 in the league.

Linda Davila had 9 kills for the Patriots and Janelle Keyser served up 7 aces and had 10 assists and 26 digs.

The Reese Rockets visited the Patriot gym on Thursday and it looked as though the league leaders were going to run into a bit of trouble when the Patriots bolted out to an easy 15-9 victory in game one. "It looked like we had the momentum going," Coach Remar said. "But the girls seemed to lose steam after that first match."

The Rockets didn't pull any surprises for the rest of the night and stuck to their game plan of setting the ball for the outside hitters who consistently drilled winners deep into the Patriot's court.

Reese took the next three games, 11-15, 9-15, and 7-15. The loss dropped the Patriots below .500 and leaves them with a league record of 3-4.

Linda Davila led the attack with 7 kills, while Janelle Keyser shored up the defense with 16 digs.

The JV's followed the Varsity's lead by also splitting a pair during the week's action.

On Monday, they defeated the Wildcats from Mayville

2-3, taking the 1st game 15-7, losing the 2nd 8-15, and then rebounding to take game 3, 15-11. The win was their 6th straight in the league.

However, on Thursday the Reese Rockets were ready for them and the Junior Patriots lost 3 straight games, 11-15, 3-15, and 9-15. The loss dropped their league record to 6-1.

Caseville wins again, then...

The Caseville Eagles notched another win last week, but had to endure a loss to Carsonville-Port Sanilac on Tuesday.

The Eagles lost to CPS early in the week 76-53. There were in the game ythrough the first half, trailing only 33-27 at halftime.

By the fourth period, the Eagles trailed by seven, but then the roof fell in. They could manage only nine points in the fourth against CPS' 25.

"We were in it until the fourth," Coach Mike Remar said. "We just fell to pieces."

Jason Sears notched 15 points in the game, with Doug Smith scoring 14 and Nick Bednerek getting 10.

That winning feeling came back on Friday with a win on the road against Akron-Fairgrove 62-56.

"We put it all together Friday and played a great game," Remar said. "We really played tough down the stretch."

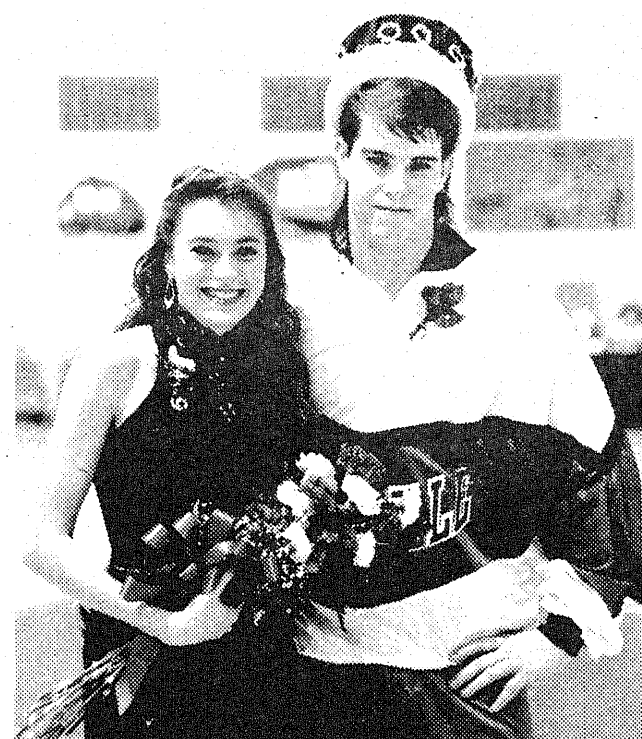

Caseville led 29-26 at the half, but A-F came back in the third to gain a 42-38 edge.

Unlike Tuesday's game however, the Eagles came back in the fourth to outscore A-F 24-24 for the win.

Bednerek had a game-high

22 points in the game, with Sears scoring 14 and Smith getting 11, seven in the final quarter. Smith canned three of his five free throws in the fourth quarter.

Lady Lakers down BA, #2 in own tourney

It's a safe bet that the Lady Lakers were looking forward with special interest to their match with the Bad Axe Hatchets last Monday. After all, the last time the two teams met, the Hatchets won—and took the district title away from the Lakers.

So it was especially satisfying for the Lakers to defeat the Hatchets in a tight match 15-13, 15-9, 10-15, 5-15, 15-11.

"Bad Axe played well, and defensively we looked good," said Coach Sue Frederiksen. "Offensively we didn't play as well as we could have. We have some more work to do to accomplish our team goals."

In game one, the Lakers enjoyed a small lead and won 15-13. Game two was all Lakers, as the offense and defense were in high gear, and they won 15-9.

Games three and four were a different story, as the Hatchets played strong defense and the Lakers had trouble maintaining a constant attack. As a result of this inconsistency, the Lakers lost both games 10-15, 5-15. And the match was forced into a deciding fifth game.

In that game, each team had impressive offensive spurts, but in the end, the Lakers prevailed 15-11.

Nicole Kolar had 21 attack receptions and three aces, and Julie Esch had 10 kills, three aces and five blocks. Michelle Bolda had three kills, 12 assists and two aces. Betsy Drury had 14 kills, 12 assists, and 11 blocks.

Sarah Krebs had four kills and eight blocks. Kristen Damm had five kills and 13 blocks. Angie Weidman had five kills and 18 blocks. Jody Herbert had five attack receptions and an ace, and Casey McLellan had three aces and five blocks.

On Thursday, the Lady Lakers took on Marlette in a game that was postponed earlier because of snow. It probably wouldn't have mattered when it was played, because the Lakers downed the Red Raiders in three straight, 15-11, 15-5, 15-2.

In game one, the Lakers got off to a slow start, and along with a good Marlette defense, needed all three rotations to win 15-11.

Game two was a different story, as the Lakers' potent offense cranked it up a notch or two and won 15-5. Game three was even more decisive, as the Lakers clearly proved their superiority by winning 15-2.

Highlights included Drury's 12 kills, three aces and two blocks. Bolda had 11 assists and three aces. Kolar had 11 attack receptions and an ace, while Esch had six kills and four aces. Weidman had seven kills and five blocks, and McLellan had two kills and two blocks.

Damm had two kills and six blocks, and Herbert had three attack receptions and an ace. Krebs notched a kill and four blocks and Rebecca Kolar had five blocks.

The wins over Marlette and Bad Axe put the Lakers' league record at a perfect 6-0.

On Saturday, the Lakers finished in the runner-up position in their own annual Klingler-Dast Tournament. They finished pool play with the best record in the pool, but then fell to eventual champion Bay City Central in two straight games.

In pool play, the Lakers downed Lutheran North 15-10, 17-15. They then met Warren Woods Tower, splitting games 15-8, 13-15. Their third opponent was Bangor John Glenn and the Lakers prevailed 15-2, 15-8.

The final matchup in pool play was against Reese, and the Lakers took both games 15-7, 15-11. With the Lakers finishing first in pool play, their first opponent in the elimination round was Michigan Lutheran Seminary, and the Lakers needed three games to win 13-15, 15-4, 15-3. In the quarterfinals, the Lakers matched up with North Branch and won 15-7, 15-5.

The finals against Bay City Central proved to be the best matchup of the day. These two teams attend many of the same tournaments during the season, and they scrimmaged each other at the beginning of this season.

In game one, the Laker sgot out with a fast start and led 9-5. An even matched second half of the game put it 15-15, but Central managed to get the last two points of the game for the win.

Game two was more of the same, with the Lakers taking leads of 7-0 and 13-3. Central managed to pick away at the lead, and closed the margin tie the score at 13-13. Two missed serves by the Lakers proved to be damaging and Central prevailed in the end, 15-13.

Drury led her team with 77 kills for the day, 39 assists, seven aces and 19 blocks. Bolda had 47 assists, 16 attack receptions and five aces.

Lakers tied for TCN lead

By AMY HEIDEN

The Laker Basketball Team started out their week on top of the Thumb C National Division, but by the end of the week, found themselves in a three way tie with Bad Axe and Cass City.

Which lends credence to Coach Bill McLellan's assertion that this year's league is one in which any team can win on any given night.

They started out the week with a 57-43 win over the Ubyl Bearcats over in 'Cat country. By the end of the half, the two teams were tied at 21, but then the Lakers went on a run, scoring 22 points to take a commanding lead. By the time the Bearcats had reloaded and came back in the fourth, the damage had been done.

Heath Krohn led the Lakers with 15 points, 10 in the third quarter. Seth Maust scored 14, Jeremy Brakenberry had 12 and Matt Pauly got seven.

On Friday, though, the tables turned and the Lakers found themselves on the losing end of a 50-48 score when they traveled to Crosswell-Lexington for a conference game.

The Lakers got out to a 23-19 advantage at halftime. But the Pioneers put together a good third quarter to take the 36-33 lead going into the final period.

The Lakers were trailing through much of the period, and then with 10 seconds left, Maust fired a three-pointer to tie the game at 48. But Cross-Lex's Jason VanDer Maas got a layup as the clock ticked down to give the Pioneers the final edge.

Maust led with 23 points in the effort, with Brakenberry adding eight and Pete Beachy six.

This week the Lakers travel to Mayville on Tuesday for a non-conference game, and then host TCC opponent Cass City on Friday. The Red Hawks handed the Lakers a 52-38 loss last time the two met, so the Lakers will be looking for some revenge as well as a chance to regain sole possession of the league. The Lakers' record now stands at 11-3 overall, 4-2 in the TCC National.

JUNIOR VARSITY: The Laker JV defeated Ubyl 43-29. Matt Otto led the way with 16 points and J.D. Wheeler had 11.

On Friday, the team lost to Cross-Lex 40-36. Nate Schember scored eight points in the game.

Art Woelke retires after leadership career in health care

By AMY HEIDEN

Back in 1953, Arthur Woelke wrote a letter as business manager of the Pigeon Clinic and the hospital upstairs from the clinic.

His boss, Dr. Clare Scheurer, reviewed the letter and added the title "Administrator" under Woelke's name.

Thus began a 42-year career in hospital administration for Woelke, who retires Feb. 14 as head of the Huron County Medical Care Facility in Bad Axe.

Woelke began his career in the Pigeon Clinic, then when the hospital was moved to its present location on Caseville Road in 1972, he moved with it as Administrator. And in 1981, he left the hospital to take over the top job at the Medical Care Facility.

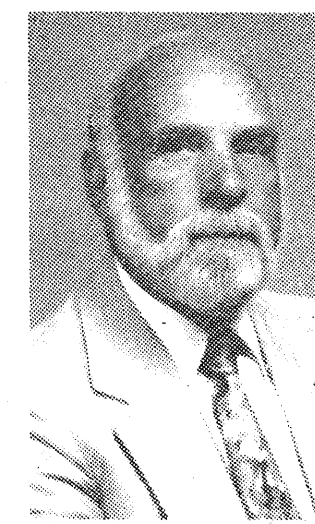

"My goal when leaving high school was to become an architect," Woelke says. "But the offer of employment at Scheurer Hospital side-tracked those plans."

Woelke was born and raised in Pigeon, and still lives in the Camelot Woods subdivision that he developed, again following the late Dr. Scheurer's lead of buying and opening up parcels of land for home building.

There are 17 homes in Camelot Woods, with more to come, he says.

Woelke was not only active in hospital administration, but in Cross Lutheran Church in Pigeon as well.

He heads a committee studying the feasibility of expanding the church's school. And with recent the changes in education funding and even more being debated, expansion plans could take on an added urgency.

"There's some exciting things happening," Woelke says. "There's talk of vouchers that would allow people to send their children to parochial schools."

"And if the Laker District decides to build a central elementary, there's a certain number of people that will want to send their children to Cross school."

"We have to think about what's down the road."

Woelke has plenty of experience with building expansion plans, as he worked with the architects and builders when Scheurer Hospital was built in 1972 — and pushed through a $3.5 million plan for expansion and renovation of the Medical Care Facility.

That project will add another wing to the building, to provide more room for the 43 residents.

His big regret is that he won't be able to see the project to its completion, but he knows it will be in capable hands, as Ruth McAlpine takes over as administrator.

"The work goes on and there are unfinished tasks, but no one is indispensable," he says. "There are many capable hands that will continue to lead the Medical Care Facility into its 118th year and beyond."

Only hours after packing his briefcase for the last time, Woelke plans to board and plane and fly overseas to lead a small group on a tour to Amsterdam, Rome, Athens and Cairo.

That's perfectly in keeping with his life-long love of travel, which began in 1954 when he accompanying the director of the International Luther League on a trip to Scandinavia and Central Europe.

Since then, he traveled to most European countries, as well as Ethiopia, Hong Kong, Australia and the Middle East.

"I took advantage of a lot of frequent-flyer miles," Woel-ke says, with a smile.

He still keeps in touch with the friends he's made all over the world, keeping their letters and postcards neatly filed in his home.

"I'm very interested in the cultural differences of people around the world," he says.

"I hope I can travel at a more leisurely pace and spend more time with my scattered family and friends."

Osentoski Equipment, Inc. 425 S. Main St., Pigeon - Phone 517-453-2120

"In order to be successful, we must sell our goods at a profit, and still satisfy our customers. If we satisfy the customer but fail to get the profit, we will soon be out of business. If we get the profit but fail to satisfy the customer, we will soon be out of customers. The secret of doing both lies in the one word, 'SERVICE.' Service means doing something so valuable for the customer, that he is glad to pay the price that allows us to make a profit."

At Osentoski Equipment, it's our dedicated employees willing to go beyond the call of duty to meet our customers' needs, who provide the SERVICE that has made our business successful since 1954.

Louis Osentoski started the family business in Harbor Beach that year, purchased a second dealership in Bad Axe in 1961, expanded to Pigeon in 1968, then made a move outside of Huron County into Marlette in 1989.

We're very proud of the products we sell - like our Case-IH farm equipment, Cub Cadet lawn and garden equipment and International Trucks - but it's our employees who turn the sale and service of these products into our most important asset - CUSTOMER SATISFACTION.

When you buy a product or service from Osentoski's, take a look at the people who will be helping you. Together, we have over 100 years of combined experience in the agricultural equipment business.

MACHINERY TECHNICIANS Kurt and Duke Forster are responsible for assembly, starting out new equipment in the field, as well as servicing harvesting equipment.

SERVICE TECHNICIANS Luke Weber, Kevin Truemner and Warren Stoeckle work hard to keep our customers' tractors and trucks running and operating throughout the season.

SERVICE MANAGER Al Kuhn is busy scheduling service work and utilizing our technicians and facilities in a manner that will produce high quality performance and good customer relations.

PARTS COUNTER TECHNICIANS

Wayne Simmons and Lee Gettel help our customers with over-the-counter parts needs and take care of Service Dept. parts needs.

PARTS MANAGER Gary Wills takes parts inventory control very seriously, making sure the right parts are available at the right time at the right price.

NEW AND USED EQUIPMENT SALES MANAGERS Darrell Rievert and Don Osentoski handle the sales and management end of the business.

OFFICE MANAGER Pat Chapin keeps all accounting records functioning, and keeps the paper flowing smoothly from all departments.

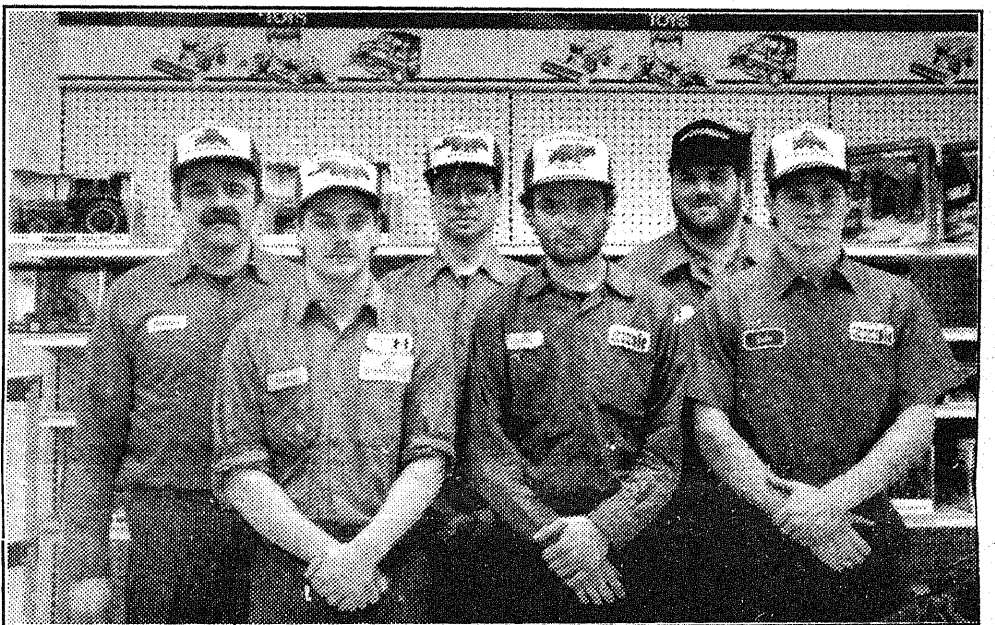

At Osentoski Equipment, we will soon introduce our new 2100 Series Combines with a revolutionary new operator environment, and there's more! From header to spreader, the 2100 series offers one productive advancement after another.

Our main goal in the future is for customers to do business with us because of the QUALITY of our products and SERVICES and the content of our EMPLOYEES' character, and not because of the COLOR of our products.

Our Motto: Sell the Best and Service the Rest
