		Bome Marbel.	OOMAEN LION
	De Bulesprise-		AN AS ANAUFATED
	PASCRESTER ENTERPRISE	Ontaide and Inside Spurse Carrected every Thunday Noon.	IN MANCHESTER,
	Ivertising Medium.	White, new, per bank	PHE ALMENIAN AT 187
	RY LOW TERMS,	Osts	IRE CAMPAIGN UP 18/
	Repecially on long time contracts.	Onisos, 75@1 00	taring the series of the serie
	MAT D. BLOSSER, Editorned Proprietor.	Appen, green, 25 dried per 10 25 Ham smoked, 25 Shoulders, 26 18	THE PLAST GUN IS PIRED
MA	NCHESTER, JULY 25, 1872	Tallow,	and if you want to buy Goods Cheap go to
Sç	EDAY SERVICE Rev. Asa Coun-	Butter, 100 14	CEARKSON & FIEL
trym: Chur	in will preach in the Universalist	Rega, per dos	UDARASUN & FIELD
- Boro	ng: "The Harvest." Subject in	Rem Abbertisements.	Who have received and are opening daily publi	rening "Springs of Power." The	ADVERTISING. Has created many a new business:	direct from
	ce. G. L. Unterkireher having gone out of	Has enlarged many an old business; Has revived many a duli business; Has recured many a dust Shainess;	New York and Bosto
ing a Y	sper-will has left his notes and accounts.	Has saved many a failing business; Has prepared many a large business; And insures success in any business.	The Largest and most Complete assortmen
ed, wil	h me for collection. Therefore, all persons of to G. L. Unterkircher, Unterkircher &	Ecop your name before the public. TALL OARS THOU LITTLE ACORNS GROW	In the Village:
- mailin	er, and Unterkircher & Mahrie, are hereby descall at the office of the undersigned in scaler, and actile their indebtedness without	But they must have something to give them a	Best Brand of Blenched and Brown Muslin Very Cheap, deisy.	A.R. Haverr.	start by paying that little account. MAT D. BLOSKER, Publisher. MONEY MAKES THE MARE GO.—This old Marches is also very true in regald to printing	very Chesp.
 Ka	chester, July 5th, 1572. 248 250	IVI saying is also very true in regald to printing offices. We want all that to due us, and that now. MAT D. BLOSSER.	Come and See the
	HOW TO GO WEST."	WANTED:-All that is due as, and right away.
trathf	My answered before he starts on his journey, little care taken in examination of Routes	ns but a small amount to you but of importance to RE. MAT D. BLOSSER, Publisher.	DOLLY will is monet	many cases save much trouble, time and	TEVER PUT OFF TILL TO MORROW.
thron	S.C.B. & Q. R. R. "running from Chicago a Galesburg to Burlington, has achieved a	prise office and pay what you owe on subscription. Immediate attention to this call is requested by the Publisher. MAT D. BLOSSER.	VARDEN enger	tion in the last two years as the leading pass- Route to the west. At Burlington is con- with the great Burlington Route which runs	FURNITURE!
direct	through Southern Iows to Nebrasks and a, with close consections to California and		Another case of the Best Domestic Gingh
the T	territories; and passengers starting from tensw County, on their way westward, can-	Offo MUNCH (successor to John Roller) has has on hand a good stock of Farniture, such as	At 12% Cents.
lingto	better than to take the C. B. & Q. and Bur-	Tables, Chairs, Stands, Bedsteads, Lounges &c.,	White Counterpanes and Window Drape the Chespest in Town.
to go	a Line has published a pamphlet called "How West," which contains much valuable infor- n; a large correct map of the Great West,	Which he will self at prices that dely competition He has also a Hearse with which he is prepared to attend funerals both in the town and country.
which	can be obtained free of charge by addressing eneral Passenger Agent B. M. B. B. Burling-	All kinds of Repairing done in a workman- ike manner and on short notice. Give him a call.	Ladies' Handkerchefs at 5
ton, I	MARRIED.	Railroad street Manchester, Michigan.	Japanese Silks, Japanese Stripe Dolly Va
On A. P.	Thesday July 16th, 1872, at the residence of Cook, Brooklyn, Mieši., by the Rev. S. W. ie, Mr. Jonz W. Stown to Miss Elizabeth	MISS MARIAN CASE	Our 50 Cent
Prieb A. V	ie, Mr. John W. Stown to Miss Elexabeth anvalendments, all of Brooklyn.	NEW & PASHIONABLE	Black Alpaca, and
	EATH TO POTATO BUGS.—Genuine s Green at Rose & Bruegel's.	MILLINERY!	$1,00 Cassimer
4 7	olly Varden Note Heads, just print-	AND HAIR GOODS. And will aim to please all that may call, both in	Are worth looking after if you want to ed, 1	t this office. Call and see them.	PRICE AND ARTICLE.	Save Money.
	legant Chamber Setts at L. H. r.&.Son's	Particular attention given to Cleansing and Bleaching Straw Goods.	Our Stock of Grocer or Pure Paints and Oils go to Rose ruegel a. larkson & Field have just received a		Is full and we will sell as low as any one In the Village.
few	more of those fine Gray Shawls		As Money is What We Wa
- i '	desirable. all and see our new styles of Bill		We offer our entire stock very low for Car or Ready Pay.
He	ds, Note Heads, Letter Heads,		Come and examine our stock before you pure Give us a call and price our goods, whether
. 1	ements, Etc. H. Weir & Son have an elegant	NOW IS THE TIME TO	buy or not. Remember the place, No. 7. CLARESON & FIE
Vari	ety of Bird Cages and Chamber	SUBSCRIBE	Manchester, May 1st., 1872.
Sett	s. . H. Weir & Son are constantly ad-	POR THE	$1,200 WANTED IMMEDIATELY
- ding	to their already large stock of	ENTERPRISE,	ers and we wish them to call and pay it. MAT D. BLOSS Enterprise Office, April 5th, 1872.
	dware, and selling at prices which competition.		MBS. THOMPSON
	e sure to get your advertisement in	years and the same of the same	Would Respectfully Inform the me Manchester Directory; and sub-		Ladies' of Manches
Y	on will save money by purchasing		and surrounding country, that she has Hay Forks, Rakes, Grass and Grain thes, Cradles, Builders Hardware, in		Now on Hand, the Largest and fact	everything in the Hardware line,		Now on Hand, the Largest and fact	everything in the Hardware line, is one price store of L. H. Weir &		Now on Hand, the Largest and fact at t Son	everything in the Hardware line, is one price store of L. H. Weir & builders Hardware, largest variety.		Now on Hand, the Largest and Best Selected Stock of Millinery Goods fact at ! Son E	secretary in the Hardware line, is one price store of L. H. Weir &		In Town, at Prices that Defy Competition Dress Making executed in an improved Style. BY GENTS' SHIRTS MADE TO ORI fact to some state of the state	ne one price store of L. H. Weir & cuilders Hardware, largest variety, at lowest prices, Rose & Bruegel's to Clarkson & Field's and look at 124 cents Lawns, the cheapest in	NOW IS THE TIME TO	Now on Hand, the Largest and Best Selected Stock of Millinery Goods In Town, at Prices that Defy Competition Dross Making executed in an Improved Style.
fact at t Son F and their	ne one price store of L. H. Weir & conders Hardware, largest variety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's, to to Clarkson & Field's and look at 12½ cents Lawns, the cheapest in market.	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise"	Now on Hand, the Largest and Best Selected Stock of Millinery Goods In Town, at Prices that Dely Competition. Dross Making executed in an improved Style. BY GENTS' SHIRTS MADE TO ORI Rooms over J. J. Ciarkson's Store. B. C. TAYLOR'S fact at t Son F and their	to the price store of L. H. Weir & conders Hardware, largest variety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at a 12½ cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Lowest Greeley recommends all his per friends to buy agricultural took	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise"	Millinery Goods In Town, at Prices that Dely Competition. Dross-Mak- ing executed in an improved Style. BOT GENTS' SHIRTS MADE TO ORI Rooms over J. J. Clarkson's Store.
fact at t Son F and their the farr of I	to one price store of L. H. Weir & cone price store of L. H. Weir & conditions Hardware, largest variety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at a 124 cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Lorse Greeley recommends all his ner friends to buy agricultural tools lose and Bruegel.	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise" In the Enterprise.	Now on Hand, the Largest and Best Selected Stock of Millinery Goods In Town, at Prices that Dely Competition. Dross Making executed in an improved Style. BY GENTS' SHIRTS MADE TO ORI Rooms over J. J. Ciarkson's Store. B. C. TAYLOR'S fact at t Son F and their the farr of I	to one price store of L. H. Weir & suiders Hardware, largest variety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at a 124 cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Lorse Greeley recommends all his mer friends to buy agricultural tools lose and Bruegel. I you want a gennina Josephene aless, the same as Harris Kid Glove	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise" In the Enterprise.	MINIORY GOODS In Town, at Prices that Defy Competition. Dress-Mak- ing executed in an improved Style. B. C. TAYLOR'S R. A. K. E. S.! BUCKEYE CULTIVATO fact at t Son F Son and their the farr of I sean bot	to one price store of L. H. Weir & suiders Hardware, largest variety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at a 12½ cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Lorse Greeley recommends all his ner friends to buy agricultural tools lose and Bruegel. If you want a gennina Josephene aless, the same as Harris Kid Glove in white and colored, go to Clarkson	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise" In the Enterprise.	Now on Hand, the Largest and Best Selected Stock of Millinery Goods In Town, at Prices that Dely Competition. Dross Making executed in an improved Style. By GENTS' SHIRTS MADE TO ORI Rooms over J. J. Ciarkson's Store. B. C. TAYLOR'S fact at t Son F and their the farm of I sear	the one price store of L. H. Weir & suiders Hardware, largest rariety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at 124 cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Lorse Greeley recommends all his ner friends to buy agricultural took lose and Bruegel. If you want a gennina Josephene heas, the same as Harris Kid Glove he white and colored, go to Clarkson Field's because it is the only place in Every one wishing anything in the line.	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise" In the Enterprise.	Now on Hand, the Largest and Best Selected Stock of Millinery Goods In Town, at Prices that Dely Competition. Dress Making executed in an improved Style. BY GENTS' SHIRTS MADE TO ORI Rooms over J. J. Clarkson's Store. B. C. TAYLOR'S R. A. K. E. S. BICKEY CHILINATO Are the Best in Use. Sold by L. H. WEIR & To Consumptives fact at t Son F Son and their the farm of I sean bot ct	the one price store of L. H. Weir & suiders Hardware, largest rariety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at 12k cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. It is to be buy agricultural took lose and Bruegel. If you want a gennina Josephene in the same as Harris Kid Glove he white and colored, go to Clarkson Field's because it is the only place in	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise" In the Enterprise.	BULLIFIE CONSUMPTIVES The Con fact at t Son F and their the farm of I sean bott tiv	the one price store of L. H. Weir & Suiders Hardware, largest variety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's not to Clarkson & Field's and look at 12s cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Lowest Greek's recommends all his ner friends to buy agricultural took dose and Bruegel. If you want a genuina Josephene in the same as Harris Kid Glove in white and colored, go to Clarkson Field's because it is the only place in Every one wishing anything in the line transmental or general Hardward and ted to call at the One Price store. H. Weir & Son.	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise" In the Enterprise.	BULLIFIC CONSUMPTIVES To Consumptives The Awent are the Best in Use. Sold by L. H. Weir & To Consumptives The Awent are the Best in Use. Sold by L. H. Weir & To Consumptives The Awent are the Best in Use. Sold by L. H. Weir & To Consumptives The Awent are the Best in Use. To all whith the directions for presenting the world of the sold by the weight are the Best in Use. To all whith the directions for presenting the weight are the Best in Use. To all whith the directions for presenting the weight are the Best in Use. To all whith the directions for presenting the area of our To all whith the directions for presenting the consumption of the presenting the weight area of our To all whith the directions for presenting the consumption of the fact at t Son F and their the farm of I sean bot at 1 inv of	de one price store of L. H. Weir & cone price store of L. H. Weir & cone price store of L. H. Weir & conditions Hardware, largest variety, at lowest prices, Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at 12½ cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. House Greeley recommends all his mer friends to buy agricultural tools lose and Bruegel. If you want a gennina Josephene aless, the same as Harris Kid Glove in white and colored, go to Clarkson Field's because it is the only place in Every one wishing anything in the line presented or general Hardward are ited to call at the One Price store ited.	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise" In the Enterprise.	B. C. TAYLOR'S B. C. TAYLOR'S TO CONSUMPTIVES The Account of the West of the West Selected Stock of the Competition Dross Making executed in an improved Style. B. C. TAYLOR'S B. C. TAYLOR'S L. H. WEIRA TO CONSUMPTIVES THE advertiser, having been permanent of the Competition of the Competit fact at t Son F and their the farm of I sean bott fi I Sitt	the one price store of L. H. Weir & Suiders Hardware, largest variety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at 12 cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Lowest Greel's recommends all his ner friends to buy agricultural took dose and Bruegel. If you want a gennina Josephene in the same as Harris Kid Glove in white and colored, go to Clarkson Field's because it is the only place in Every one wishing anything in the line treamental or general Hardward and ted to call at the One Price store. H. Weir & Son. Fancy Toilet Setts, and Combinations Baths, essential to the Health and nort of any family, for sale at Rose	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise" In the Enterprise.	BULLIFIE CONSUMPTIVES The Con fact at t Son F and their their farm of I sean bott I Sitteen	the one price store of L. H. Weir & Suiders Hardware, largest variety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at 12t cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Lowest Greel's recommends all his mer friends to buy agricultural took Rose and Bruegel. If you want a gennina Josephene aleas, the same as Harris Kid Glove in white and colored, go to Clarkson Field's because it is the only place in Every one wishing anything in the line present of the Company of t	Now is the time to "Advertise" In the Enterprise.	BULLING CONSUMPTIONS TO CONSUMPTIVES To Consumptives The devertier, having been permaently for these dread drease, which the prieser of the will have been permaently in the will sand a copy of the preservitor will be the will sand a copy of the preservitor will fee dream a copy of the preservitor and sering the same, which they will sand a copy of the preservitor will ple dream of consumptions. The will sand a copy of the preservitor will ple dress — Bay a DWARD A. WILL fact at t Son F and their their farm of I sean bott f I Sitteen con at	decrepting in the Hardware line, the one price store of L. H. Weir & Suilders Hardware, largest variety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at 12 cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Howest Greel's recommends all his mer friends to buy agricultural took Rose and Bruegel. If you want a gennina Josephene in the same as Harris Kid Glove in white and colored, go to Clarkson Field's because it is the only place in Every one wishing anything in the line present of call at the One Price store. H. Weir & Son. Fancy Toilet Setts, and Combination a Baths, essential to the Health and affort of any family, for sale at Rose & Bruegel's. A handsome variety of Bird Cage Rose & Bruegel's.	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise" In the Enterprise.	BULLIA CONSUMPTIVES TO CONSUMPTIVES The advertiser, having been permanent of that for the state to the stat fact at t Son F and their the farm of I sean bot tinv of Sit con at	the one price store of L. H. Weir & Suiders Hardware, largest variety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at 12t cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Lordon Greeley recommends all his mer friends to buy agricultural took cose and Bruegel. If you want a gennina Josephene a look, the same as Harris Kid Glove in white and colored, go to Clarkson Field's because it is the only place in Every one wishing anything in the line present of the Company of Baths, essential to the Health and afort of any family, for sale at Rose Bruegel's.	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise" In the Enterprise. NOW IS THE TIME TO Pay For	BULKING CONSUMPTIVES TO CONSUMPTIVES To Consumptives To Consumptives To Consumptives To Consumptives To Consumptives The Acceptage of the Best in Use. Sold by the B fact at t Son F and 6 their the farm of I sear bot 6 1 Sitt con 6 Scy Ra	decided a superior of L. H. Weir & Sunders Hardware, largest rariety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at r 12t cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Lowest Greekey recommends all his ner friends to buy agricultural took alose and Bruegel. If you want a gennina Josephene and the same as Harris Kid Glove in white and colored, go to Clarkson Field's because it is the only place in Every one wishing anything in the limited to call at the One Price store. H. Weir & Son. Cancy Toilet Setts, and Combination as Baths, essential to the Health and another of any family, for sale at Rose Bruegel's. A handsome variety of Bird Cage Rose & Bruegel's. Largest stock of Grass and Grainthes, Hay forks, Cradles, and Hankes, at Rose and Bruegel's.	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advartise" In the Enterprise. NOW IS THE TIME TO Pay For The Enterprise.	BULLIA CONSUMPTIVES TO CONSUMPTIVES The advertiser, having been permanent of that for the state to the stat fact at t Son Find and their the farr of I sear bot finy of Sittem Segretar Segretar Ra	decided a state of the Hardware line, the one price store of L. H. Weir & Suilders Hardware, largest variety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's no to Clarkson & Field's and look at a 12t cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Howest Greel's recommends all his ner friends to buy agricultural took dose and Bruegel. If you want a gennina Josephene aless, the same as Harris Kid Glove in white and colored, go to Clarkson Field's because it is the only place in Every one wishing anything in the line presental or general Hardward are ited to call at the One Price store. H. Weir & Son. Fancy Toilet Setts, and Combination a Baths, essential to the Health and affort of any family, for sale at Rose & Bruegel's. A handsome variety of Bird Cage Rose & Bruegel's. Largest stock of Grass and Grain thes, Hay forks, Cradles, and Handsone the same of the same o	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advartise" In the Enterprise. NOW IS THE TIME TO Pay For The Enterprise.	BULLING CONSUMPTIONS TO CONSUMPTIONS OF THE Advertiser, having been permanent of transcription with the will charge, which the will charge, the will charge be a more of the same, which they will find the will charge, will be prescription will ple dresses. But EDWARD A. WILLIAM INTO CONSUMPTION TO WELLIAM INTO CONSUMPTION TO THE Advertiser, having been permanent of the consumption, by ple remedy, is santious to make known to low sufferest the means of our. To all while will charge, with the direction of the consumption, by ple remedy, is santious to make known to low sufferest the means of our. To all while will charge, with the direction of the consumption, by ple remedy, is santious to make known to low sufferest the will be dressed. The will be dressed the same, which they will find from the will be dressed. But EDWARD A. WILL 12-ly 194 Penn Street, Williamsburght would respectfully consumption.
fact at t Son Find Find Son Find Find Find Find Find Find Find Fin	describing in the Hardware line, the one price store of L. H. Weir & Smilders Hardware, largest variety, at lowest prices, Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at a 12½ cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Lorse Greel's recommends all his mer friends to buy agricultural tools lose and Bruegel. If you want a gennina Josephene a less, the same as Harris Kid Glove in white and colored, go to Clarkson Field's because it is the only place in Every one wishing anything in the line pronuncial or general Hardward and ited to call at the One Price store. H. Weir & Son. Fancy Toilet Setts, and Combination is Baths, essential to the Health and fort of any family, for sale at Rose Bruegel's. A handsome variety of Bird Cage Rose & Bruegel's. Rose & Bruegel's. But forks, Cradles, and Handwer, at Rose and Bruegel's and Handwer, at Rose and Bruegel's and sav in money. List of Letters remaining at the Pos	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise" In the Enterprise. NOW IS THE TIME TO Pay For The Enterprise.	BULKING CONSUMPTIVES TO CONSUMPTIVES To Consumptives To Consumptives To Consumptives To Consumptives To Consumptives The Acceptage of the Best in Use. Sold by the B fact at t Son F and their their farm of I sear bott finy of R Son Ra Of	describing in the Hardware line, the one price store of L. H. Weir & Smilders Hardware, largest variety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at r 12st cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Howest Greel's recommends all his ner friends to buy agricultural took Rose and Bruegel. If you want a gennina Josephene in the same as Harris Kid Glove in white and colored, go to Clarkson Field's because it is the only place in Every one wishing snything in the limited to call at the One Price store. H. Weir & Son. Fancy Toilet Setts, and Combination is Baths, essential to the Health and affort of any family, for sale at Rose Bruegel's. A handsome variety of Bird Cage Rose & Bruegel's. Bay of Rose and Bruegel and savin money. List of Letters remaining at the Positics at Manchester, July 3d, 1875 rises, David 8cribeer, Sam'l 25.	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise" In the Enterprise. NOW IS THE TIME TO Pay For The Enterprise.	Best Selected Stock of Millinery Goods In Town, at Prices that Dely Competition. Dross-Mak- ing executed in an improved Style. By GENTS SHIRTS MADE TO ORI Rooms over J. J. Clarkson's Store. B. C. TAYLOR'S R. A. K. E. S. B. C. TAYLOR'S TO Consumptives The destin Use. Sold by 245 To Consumptives The devertiser, having been permanently of that dread dread drease, Consumption, to low sufferers the means of core. To all phin is, he will sand a copy of the prescripton will pied created from the consumption, by the complete of the consumption, which they will find Create for Carstarting, Adaptal, Backers Tartice wishing the prescripton will pied drees. HAV. EDWARD A. WIL 112-ly 194 Penn Street, Williamsburght and series of the consumption of the consumptio fact at t Son F and their the farm of I search inv of Sitteen con con con con con con con con con co	decided and services of the Hardware line, is one price store of the H. Weir & sunders Hardware, largest rariety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at r 12½ cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Losses Greeley recommends all his ner friends to buy agricultural took alone and Bruegel. If you want a gennina Josephene aless, the same as Harris Kid Glove in white and colored, go to Clarkson Field's because it is the only place in Everyone wishing anything in the line promental or general Hardward and ited to call at the One Price store. H. Weir & Son. Fancy Toilet Setis, and Combination is Baths, essential to the Health and of of any family, for sale at Rose Bruegel's. A hardsome variety of Bird Cage Rose & Bruegel's. Bay forks, Cradles, and Hankes, at Rose and Bruegel's. Bay of Rose and Bruegel and saw in money. List of Letters remaining at the Postice at Manchester, July 3d, 1872 come, Powder Edward, 25th power. Before, Stephen George Zahn, John George Zahn, John George Zahn, John George	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advartise" In the Enterprise. NOW IS THE TIME TO The Enterprise.	BULKING CONSUMPTIONS OF THE BAYEST AND LESS OF THE BULKING PROPERTY OF THE BUL
fact at the son and farm of I invoiced farm of I in	decided and colored general Hardward and colored because it is the only place in white and colored general Hardward and colored by the Colored because it is the only place in white and colored general Hardward and ited to call at the One Price store. However, we seem that the Company of the Colored because it is the only place in the colored general Hardward and ited to call at the One Price store. H. Weir & Son. Sancy Toilet Setis, and Combination is Baths, essential to the Health and not of any family, for sale at Ros Bruegel's. A hardsome variety of Bird Cage Rose & Bruegel's. A hardsome variety of Bird Cage Rose & Bruegel's. Bey of Rose and Bruegel and saving money. List of Letters remaining at the Postice at Manchester, July 3d, 1872 cans, John George Persons calling for letters in the above will please say "advertised."	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advartise" In the Enterprise. NOW IS THE TIME TO The Enterprise.	Best Selected Stock of Millinery Goods In Town, at Prices that Dely Competition. Dross-Mak- ing executed in an improved Style. By GENTS SHIRTS MADE TO ORI Rooms over J. J. Clarkson's Store. B. C. TAYLOR'S R. A. K. E. S. B. C. TAYLOR'S TO Consumptives The destin Use. Sold by 245 To Consumptives The devertiser, having been permanently of that dread dread drease, Consumption, to low sufferers the means of core. To all phin is, he will sand a copy of the prescripton will pied created from the consumption, by the complete of the consumption, which they will find Create for Carstarting, Adaptal, Backers Tartice wishing the prescripton will pied drees. HAV. EDWARD A. WIL 112-ly 194 Penn Street, Williamsburght and series of the consumption of the consumptio fact at the son their the farm of I seam both of I Sitteen the son the	decident Hardware, largest rariety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at 12½ cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Losses Greeley recommends all his ner friends to buy agricultural took cose and Bruegel. If you want a gennina Josephene aless, the same as Harris Kid Glove in white and colored, go to Clarkson Field's because it is the only place in Every one wishing anything in the limited to call at the One Price store. H. Weir & Son. Fancy Toilet Setts, and Combination a Baths, essential to the Health and afort of any family, for sale at Rose Bruegel's. A hardsome variety of Bird Cage Rose & Bruegel's. A hardsome variety of Bird Cage Rose & Bruegel's. Basy of Rose and Bruegel's. Basy of Rose and Bruegel and sav in money. List of Letters remaining at the Postice at Manchester, July 3d, 1872 class, David Schore, Stephen Zahn, John George Persons calling for letters in the above will please say "advertised." C. Walberdog, P. M.	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise" In the Enterprise. NOW IS THE TIME TO The Enterprise.	Best Selected Stock of Millinery Goods In Town, at Prices that Dely Competition Drose-Making executed in an improved Style. By GENTS' SHIRTS MADE TO ORI Rooms over J. J. Clarkson's Store. B. C. TAYLOR'S R. A. K. E. S. BULKIYI CHILINIO Are the Best in Use. Sold by L. H. WEIR 4. TO Consumptives The advertiser, having been permanent if of that dread disease, Consumption, by ple remetly, is saxious to make known to low suffers the means of core. To all while, he will same a copy of the presence of the consumption will be sufficiently in saxious to make known to low suffers the means of core. To all while, he will same a copy of the presence of the consumption will ple drese that the directions for past same, which they will sind Crus for Casartarius, Assawa, Basacair, Partice wishing the presemption will ple drese. Lar EL. VV E Would respectfully expectfully expectfully of the consumption of the consum fact at the son their the farm of I seam both of I Sitteen the son the	decided and colored general Hardward and colored because it is the only place in white and colored general Hardward and colored by the Colored because it is the only place in white and colored general Hardward and ited to call at the One Price store. However, we seem that the Company of the Colored because it is the only place in the colored general Hardward and ited to call at the One Price store. H. Weir & Son. Sancy Toilet Setis, and Combination is Baths, essential to the Health and not of any family, for sale at Ros Bruegel's. A hardsome variety of Bird Cage Rose & Bruegel's. A hardsome variety of Bird Cage Rose & Bruegel's. Bey of Rose and Bruegel and saving money. List of Letters remaining at the Postice at Manchester, July 3d, 1872 cans, John George Persons calling for letters in the above will please say "advertised."	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advertise" In the Enterprise. NOW IS THE TIME TO The Enterprise.	Best Selected Stock of Millinery Goods In Town, at Prices that Dely Competition Dress Making executed in an improved Style. By GENTS' SHIRTS MADE TO ORI Rooms over J. J. Clarkson's Store. B. C. TAYLOR'S R. A. K. E. S. B. C. TAYLOR'S TO Consumptives The Ake E. S. And To Consumptives The Average of the permanent of the Consumption, by the remedy, is any mount of the preserved of the prices of the price of t fact at the Son and their the farm of I search both inv of: Sittem of Sittem	decident Mardware, largest rariety, at lowest prices. Rose & Bruegel's to to Clarkson & Field's and look at 12½ cents Lawns, the cheapest in market. Losses Greeley recommends all his per friends to buy agricultural took access and Bruegel. If you want a gennina Josephene aless, the same as Harris Kid Glove in white and colored, go to Clarkson Field's because it is the only place in Every one wishing anything in the limited to call at the One Price store. H. Weir & Son. Fancy Toilet Setts, and Combination a Baths, essential to the Health and afort of any family, for sale at Rose Bruegel's. A hardsome variety of Bird Cage Rose & Bruegel's. A hardsome variety of Bird Cage Rose & Bruegel's. Bay of Rose and Bruegel's. Bay of Rose and Bruegel and sav in money. List of Letters remaining at the Postice at Manchester, July 3d, 1872 class, David Schore, Stephen Zahn, John George Persons calling for letters in the above will please say "advertised." C. Walberdog, P. M. We are about getting up a General	NOW IS THE TIME TO "Advartise" In the Enterprise. NOW IS THE TIME TO The Enterprise.	Best Selected Stock of Millinery Goods In Town, at Prices that Dely Competition. Drose-Making executed in an improved Style. By GENTS' SHIRTS MADE TO ORI Rooms over J. J. Clarkson's Store. B. C. TAYLOR'S R. A. K. E. S.! AND BICKLY CHILINIO Are the Best in Use. Sold by L. H. WEIR 4. TO Consumptives The advertiser, having been permanent of that dread drease, Consumption, by ple remedy, is saxious to make known to low suffers the means of core. To all while, he will same, with the directions prior and saving the same, which they will sind Creat for Casartarrius, Assawa, Baskesing. Tratice wishing the prescription will ple drees. Lar EL. VV E Would respectfully excluded the same of the constitution of the ache, Costivenem. Swimming in the head, Call at this office.

Colic, Sour Stomach, Restlement, etc.,

by taking Signature Liver Regulator.

Persons living in unhealthy localities may avoid all billious attacks by taking a done of Simmons' Liver Regulator oc casionally to keep the Liver in bealthy action. It should be used by all persons old and young. It is not unpleasant, is purely vegetable compound, is not injurious to the most delicate constitution.

and will beep the Liver in healthy ac-

CROCKERY! rk and Boston. nd most Complete assortmen hoes CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES! Blenched and Brown Muslin Always to be found at this store. ...

A good Tes at 50cts per ib.—best at $1,50 Drugs, Patent Medicines, Toy Goods, D G. W. DOTY. 1y50 124 Cents. To All Whom it May Concern. ð andkerchefs at 5cts ing, Japanese Stripe Dolly Vardet r 50 Cent 250,000 Pine Shingle I Cassimers, 200,000 LATH! Save Money. ock of Groceries we will sell as low as any one 60,000 feet of Fencing! In the Village. is What We Want. entire stock very low for Cash ne our stock before you purchase Office west of Carriage Shop, Main Street. Norvel, June 20th, 1872 DORR & HORNING. CLARKSON & FIELD. HUGO MUNCH, Prop'r ESTABLISHMENT. HARDWARE, ETC. Having completed the New Building, two doc East of the Banner Store, I am now receiving of Manchester. MANUFACTURED ery Goods Impler Parcone, Chairs, Sofae, Matrasses, Look Glasses and Trimmings, fown, at Prices that All of which will be sold at the Lowest figure ted in an improved Style. SHIRTS MADE TO ORDER. DO NOT GO! To neighboring towns before calling. 1 STILL MANUFACTURE AKES! any article ordered at short notice. gricultural Undertaking! he Best in Use. Sold by L. H. WEIR & SON Something New! Consumptives. ser, having been permanently cured Call and see the transfer Cheapest and most Du all and see the Woven Wire Matrasses the Be vious to make known to his fel-means of cure. To all who desire a copy of the prescription used. S. W. LOCK WOOD. PY 01 the prescription used the directions for preparing DAY TO-DAY AND TRUST TO-MORRÓW. which they will find a sure. We earnestly desire every person who is owers, AASHMA, BROKGHYIS, &c. (ing anything for the ENTERPRISE, will call and settle innediately, as we need the money, to buy new EDWARD A. WILSON. MAT D. BLOSSER, Publisher -H. WEIR & SON. Would respectfully call the attention of the public to their and to Apol befseles llew bas egra. NERAL HARDWARE! toves rs' Material, Carpenters' Tools, Farmers' Hardware, Water Lime, Salt, Calcime Plaster &c. noda usualiy kept in a First-class Hardware Establishment. We would also announce O akes. Rakes! TAYLOR RAKES. Ware Labres will find relief from their Head ment in the Manchester City Directory which universally acknowledged to be the best Sulky Rakes in use. Will pay for themselves in a Respers, Mowers, Slanting Tooth Herrows, Wheel Cultivators, Etc., Etc., ard All goods will be sold at prices that defy Competition. Give us a call and satisfy yourselves, Tin, Copper and Sheet Iron Ware

All Work Warranted.

L. H. WEIR & SON

ROSE & BRUEGEL

WALL PAPER

ESCLES WOCHIW

New Stock! Large & Elegant! A MACHINE

For Trimming the Wall Paper will be used fREE

Hats & Gaps, the Latest Style.

Boots & Shoes

6

C

Grand Mass Meetings

Silk, Black and colored Alpaca, Grenadine, Lawn, Linen and Marsellies, Suitings, etc.

DOLLY VARDEN

Challias, Poplin, Percales, Muslin, Organda, Lawn and Prints.

Parasols and Sun Umberalas

Ribbons, Embroidered Edging, Genuine Thread Lace.

In Domestic Goods

the lowest. We call especial attention to our large and well selected stock of

BOOTS AND SHOES,

Arrival.

MACK & SCHMI

Arrival

HERRMAN & MAY'S,

No. 23 Maumee St., opposite Lawrence Hotel,

ADRIAN. MICHIGAN

We have Received Direct from New York

The Largest, The Cheapest, the Best,

Ready-Made Clothing

Cloths, Cassimers, Vestings, Etc., Eyer brought into the City of Adrian, which we will sell to our Costumers Cheaper than the Cheapest in Michigan.

Those wishing to buy Clothing will do call on us before purchasing elsewhere.

Remember the Place, No. 23 Moumes Street, ADRIAN, MICHIGAN NATE SCHLOSS, Salesman WM. BLAU, Citter.

ROSE & BRUEGEL

Gas Burner

also for AMERICAN

For Wood or Coal. Shaking and Dump-

Large ventilate Most perfect Bak Ground, Cements Tin Lined Dorr Mounted in the b Heavy Casting Keatly Ornament Very Stylish in .

Devoted to State, County and Home News, Agriculture, Commerce, the Arts and Sciences etc.-A Paper for the Farmer, Mechanic, Merchant and Family Circle.

V()L. 5. NO. 44.

MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, AUGUST 1, 1872

LEGAL NOTICES. MACK, SCHMID & COU

pervice every alternate passoneth at 2 P. M.
ATROLIO. Rev. F. Abunyer.
Services sunry alternate Sabbath at 10 o'clock A.
Sunday Schoolat 120'clock. REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

ate. FRANKLIN FREEMAN, Guardian.

A. will meet at Masonic Hall in regular Convo-cation Thursday Evenings after each full moon.

E. P. GRAFTS, Secy.

MANCHESTER LOIDER No. 7 of a. N.

will meet at Masonic Hall in regular common.

ed out of and under the seal of the Ulreuit Court

ed out of and under the seal of the Ulreuit Court Business Cards

Business Cards

In R. PALMER, Attorney at Law, Solicitor in dyear's Block. Will pay particular attention de drawing of all kinds of Legal Papers such as a Mortgages, Wills, Contracts, &c.

In Rother of Social Papers and Mortan attention de drawing of all kinds of Legal Papers such as a Mortgages, Wills, Contracts, &c.

In June 11 And Hiram Hay has it the following described lands, situated in the township of Mortan Law, Solicitor in West quarter of the South East quarter of the South East quarter of Section four; which above described proprily I shall expose for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, at the south Goor of the Court Mortan Law, Mortgages, Wills, Contracts, &c.

I Surgial Papers and Miram Hay has in the following described lands as the action of the South East quarter of the South East quarter of the South East quarter of Section four; which above described propril shall expose for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, at the south Goor of the Court Mortan Law, Solicitor in June 11 And 12 And 13 And 14 And

A Public Office over Potticle store, Mannester, Michigan.

Particular attention given to all collections and legal business entrusted to him. And will act as sent for the purchase and raice of village and fayin property.

DEOPLE'S BANE OF MANCHESTER. Order of Michigan, Capital Space, Manchester, Order of Michigan, Capital Space, Order granted to the understoof and understoof the granted of the granted of the desired of and deceased.

J. D. VAN DUYN, Vice Press.

O. F. HALLE, STATE FOR SALE.

That No increase and understoof the granted of the Sale in pursuance of an order granted to the understoof administrator of the scale of and deceased. By the Hun, Judge of the estate of said deceased, by the Hun, Judge of the estate of said understoof unders

LIABILITIES:

J. D. COREY, Notary Public,

JOHN H. MILLER.

All kinds of Double & Single

HARNESS

Trunks, Whips, Horse-

Blanketz, &c.

AMARIAR CONKLIN.

D. CORRY, Convergneer and Notary Pu DAWES, TAYLORA & CO., Manufactures a Draws Sam Stines, Door & Window Frame Planing, Bawing, Etc., done on short notice. Se advertisement. Milk corner of Jackson and Unio streets, near L. S. & M. S. R'y Depot.

MAT D. BLOSSER, Proprietor.

UTHERIAN-Rev. 1, G Hildner. Service every alternateles boath at 2 P. M.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

A goop assortment of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silver-plated Ware, Spectacles and Toys, always on hand. A. CONKLIN, Physician & Surgeon. Partic CANCERS.

Bank, do solemnly, swear that the above state-ment is true to the best of my knowlege and belief.

O. F. HALL, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 8th day of July, A. D. 1872. MECHANT'S HOTEL, TECUMSEH, A. WOOD, Proprietor.

This house is elegantly furnished, and is in all spects a good hotel. Centrally located. Within issues walk of the depot. No pains will be used to make pleasant their guests visit. J. D. WATKINS,
J.J. CLARKSON,
JOS. MCMAHON,
O. PRIEST,
J. S. REYNOLDS,
J. D. VAN DUIN,
J. D. COREY.
G. L. UNTERRIECHER,
T. L. SPAFARD,

SMITH & HURD, Proprietors The above named house is elegantly furnisher and centrally located, (opposite the Hibbard.). Opains will be spared to make guests comfortably Ognihas areas regularly to and trum alternate. Them. Board reduced to two dollars per day.

HE MICHIGAN EXCHANGE, DETROIT, Pebruary loth 1869. hishotel, so long and favorably known to the eling Public, is being thoroughly repaired and in perfect order for business, and will continue e kept in all its appointments as a First Class as. But to meet the wishes of our many rids and patrons, our charges will be reduced to 50 per des.

B. & F. LYON Proprietor HUNKER,

DENTIST! South Side Exchange Place,

MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN. RANK PULHEMUS. CITY BILL POSTER,

Green and Can Fruits! The Manchester News Depot. EW BOOT AND SHOESTORE:

S. H. PERKINS & SON 300ts, Shoes & Rubber Goods Flou cas save twenty cents on every dollar HALL, NASH & CO., l' at Gwinner's Brock. WATCH, CLOCK & JEWELRY

Repairing and Engraving. E. CHUBBUCK. laving had experience is the manufacturing of reity of all kinds, and having worked over Thirwars at Watch Repairing, can assure the people Manchester and vicinity, that all work entrovied his care, will be well done. His place, of husinite Greacon Block, opposite the Southern ashtenaw Mills, Manchester. For Pure Paints and Oils go to Rose One door North of the Post Office.

class COOKING Stoves, Essential to the Comfort and Happiness of Every Family DETROIT STOVE WORKS.

New Advertisements.

In Good Companies,

FOR SAFETY

"A Good Company!

THE SINGER MANUFACTURING CO.

New Advertisements. SINGER

PEOPLE'S BANK At the Close of Business, Saturday Ju

1

The Best is Always the Chepest.

tor and builder, and he will builder, and he will builder, and he will build the builder of the control of the or on Monthly Payments, to suit the circumstances of the rich and poor

Mantee, Coords, Umbrellass, Parasols, etc., etc. without exageration.

NOFSINGER & JOSSELYN,
Washington St. Bates House FLY CATCHERS.—T. Case has a lot of is crossed. 72 and 74 West Washington St., Bates House Block, Indianapolis, Ind., and 70 Woodard and 177 Jefferson Avenues, Detroit, Mich., exclusive desires in the above machines for the State of th The magnitude to which the manufacture of sewing machines has attained is shown by the returns of the leading patents, on which they pay aronate. According to chase returns the number of machines sold by each manufacturer in 1870 is a follows: Sewing Machine Sales for 1870. No more you need be troubled with files.

No more need you use poison— Just buy you'reelf a Hoosier Trap,

New Boat.—Another neat little craft points on the line of road.

by posed that there would be. The city from Detroit. The continuation of the or two could be imported here it would is too much desparity between mistress.

WHOLE NO. 252 DEATH TO POTATO BUGS.-Genuine At five on Saturday morning we start mail. exp. treight Our Reason.—We are asked every of 512 miles without a thing to marr items from this city would be acceptable our pleasure. All process is due the at any time, and here they are. This managers of the D. H. & I., & D. E. & is the hot season, and everybody who port Grant?" The best reasons that me 1. R. R. Companies for the prompt and has a surplus has left town to enjoy a can give is, that we don't want to; and energetic manner in which they have furlough at the sea-side, lake-side, and a editor who sayed he had as much as he a benefit to the sister States as well as try friends. Still there is about 300,000 a blessing to the people residing along left and they are not missed outside of proprietor of the Wampler's Lake House, coss to it and may it become as it sure. Building is the order of the day, and T. C. MONTGORERY, Station Agent. will give a party on the 16th of August, ly will—one of the great trunk lines of it is impossible for me to give you a full and we assure those who wish to have a rail roads. DETROIT, HILLSDALE & INDIANA, AND gay time, and good treatment, that they will always find it there. All are in-Will always find it there. All are invited. Skutt's Band will furnish the vited. Skutt's Band will furnish the music. Bill, $2,50. Go, and enjoy of $45. 207. Soon $35. New Hotel.—The Conklin House the number of t

Betworn Woodson Co. July 20, 72 it to say, that when those now building 1245 music. Bill, $2,50. Go, and enjoy of the people of Manchester as well as in been built in one season. The price of all sections of the country are turning real estate has advanced beyond all anwill be opened to the public on Monday the nation, perhaps they can spend time soon as a good title can be secured, every August 5th. A more coay retreat can to persue a few "notes from Kansas." foot of the burnt district will be occupinot be found. The furniture is all new, The appellation of "droughty Kansas" ed by stately business houses. The reand of modern style, and those who ap is not at all appropriate this year. From cords were all destroyed and nothing re-

FORT WAYNE, JACKSON & SAGINAW ion of Mrs. E. Conklin, a sufficient guar- am confident we will nearly always suffer French Band at "Green's Garden," with . Wash- lin will check your baggage, register natural drainage of the country is excel. Adams at the "Academy," Hooley's Min ward. Unlike the reports of many inglast the Ticket of Leave Man was from our exchanges in reagard to the far between." The washing nature of of Manchester think of a genuine thouse the soil is sure to make them very mud. Sunday evening? I suppose they would "The Manchester Independent Brass dy, especially soon after a rain. Many be horrified, but did they reside here

Band visited Tecomesh on last Tuesday of the creeks, and even rivers, in a dry and behold how two thirds of our citizens afternoon. They made a fine appear time become rushing torrents. With spend the sabbath, they would think it "The Manchester Band discoursed been a propitious one for crops. The Robert" and Prof. Ewing are to give a some very fine music at the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be popular course of Sunday every fine music at the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be popular course of Sunday every fine music at the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be popular course of Sunday every fine music at the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be popular course of Sunday every fine music at the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be popular course of Sunday every fine music at the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be popular course of Sunday every fine music at the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be popular course of Sunday every fine music at the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be popular course of Sunday every fine music at the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be proposed to the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be proposed to the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be proposed to the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be proposed to the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be proposed to the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be proposed to the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be proposed to the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be proposed to the Greeky present prospects are the Greeky present prospects are that corn will be proposed to the Greeky present prospects are the Greeky present prospects are that the Greeky present prospects are the Greeky pre meeting, in this village, on Tuesday evening last. The boys have been under in ditto. Flour is worth 86 per hundred music in the city. It is doubtful which struction but a short time but they show Money is a scarce article and is found will draw the most, music or lecture, but redit to many older bands."—Tecun. mostly with new comers." But alas! no matter the audience must be drawn nany have learned to their sorrow how in Chicago. true it is that 'a fool and his money Pic Nice are very fashionable and ocsoon part company." Though in the cur daily at the many rural districts. nidst of profusion many now see, and The police succeed in conducting them

It is seldom that we have so good an Politics is rather dull. The people of Business is very good among the ship-Senthern (Air Line):

Fort Wayne With Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne opportunity to take a trip by rail thro Kansas have passed through the storm, ping. Next week the "full trade" will two as fine States as Michigan and In and now propose to enjoy the blessings commence with the jobbers, the new From the moment that we re of peace. The majority of the voters crop of wheat will commence moving ation to take the trip, to are republican, and as for as my obser-and things will be lively. The the hour of departure from Detroit, we vation has extended, do not "liberalize" trade is in its glory. Peaches, Pears, were exercised lesst something might worth a cent. In local affairs politics Plumbs and Tropical fruits are on our 'turn up" whereby we should be debar- has little to do. County seats and rail market in great profusion. It is estimat just now, perhaps too many to suit the ed from going. But circumstances were road questions are considered of more ed that 150,000 baskets of peaches will favorable and we were off on time. importance. And by the by, one of the charge hands daily during the mouth of tions a new comer should not is August. It is of the excursionists, suffice to say they "have you bonds in the county". There sail across the lake and make your own have all secured their wheat by this or the excursionisis, sumed to say they have you bonds in the county? There sail across the lake and make your own time. They say that there will be some comprised the Board of Trade. City are very few townships or counties in the selection of this delicious Michigan fruit.

Council and other gentlemen of Detroit. State but what are deeply in debt. Can't you come?

together with delegations from various Some of them so deep that it is to be Politics runs high, but in so large a

These Machines will liem, Fell, Tork, Cord, Quilt, Trim, Bind, Gather, and sew on at the same time, Puff, Kringe, Pipe, Hemstitch, Raffle, Embodier and Braid and sew from the finest of gaust our river. Will. Stowell is the proprietor and builder, and he can justly feel throughout the trin. The music die. tor and builder, and he can justly feel throughout the trip. The music dissalproved strong to the strong of the st A SERENADE.—the Manchester Brass that it was the best band that we heard, treasurer. The married man is exempt you to wonder who paid so large price.

Band gave us a screnade on Monday and we were sorry to have them leave for $200 or $300, but the poor "batch" for their wisdom. As money, whisty was highly appreciated, and we think ed. Taxes are paid direct to the county of course its "G" in the evening, leaving The same qualities which render our new Ma chines an admirable and efficient for use in the chines an admirable and efficient for use in the caming also commend it as indispensable for every cept our thanks. They are playing some aboard and all must receive our attention.

The same qualities which render our new Ma chines and different for use in the caming and we were sorry to have them leave for $200 or $300, but the poor "batch" for their wisedom. As money, whisky us, but other bands were waiting to come must "shell out" for all he has, proving and fushion runs the city, I too thinks.

For Shoe and datter Fitters, Seamstresse, Taillow, and the complete of their colours, Shirts, Clouke, and will remain so fish or out bail? I have the old maximum you must it is politically gone, and will remain so fish or out bail? I have the old maximum to the colours, Shirts, Clouke, and will remain so fish or out bail? I have the colour shirts of the colour shirts. OUR CORRESPONDENTS.—We publish At Hillsdale we cross the Michigan ting bait" business at present. will be sweet music to some in a horn. fish or cut hait." I am trying the "cut until Grabriel sounds a key note that the road branches off to Waterloo, where the order may be changed is impossible Bereft of bome influence, a packet full of the road branches on to water100, where the order may be changed is supposited the air line of the L. S. & M. S. Road to tell.

The School Fund of the State is large the many temptations of this fast city, and now we cross the line into. Hoosier it is sold on ten years time at 10 per I gave you true figures that sacrifice the cent interest. There are few people but boner of rural mechanics. Such is life, There is considerable change in the what have the advantage of a school. I but Chicago must be built if money will appearance of the country, the hilly have known a school house to be built do it. At present our citizen are too

Going to no ir.—We notice that the gravel soil giving way to a slightly roll- for the accommodation of three or four much absorbed in its glorious architec-ing the stand for our Band. The boys Crossing the Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne & world, say from 35 to 45 dollars per very scarce and good ones command the American Britionhole & Overseaming counts of the party of the stand for our Band. The boys party of the party of the stand for our Band. The boys party of the Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne & world, asy from 35 to 45 dollars per very scarce and good ones command the following wages each $16.50 play well and we hope they will be farmed and board himself. One received with a convenient place.

Empire sewing machine company 5.510 of the play well and we hope they will be farmed and board himself. One received with a convenient place.

Empire sewing machine company 5.520 of the Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne & world, asy from 35 to 45 dollars per very scarce and good ones command the month, and board himself. One re following wages each $16; general deeming trait, however, women usually house work $15; chamber maid $10 a station is Liberty Mills, where we are receive the same wages as men. From month. Domestic service has fallen in the received with loud and continued cheers. What I hear from Wyoming Territory. To disprepute among American women. At Peru we strike the Chicago, Peru, I cannot believe women are quite as They prefer the factory, shep, store of the or two could be imposted here it would be accompany to the proper to the continuation of the or two could be imposted here it would be into the believe would be imposted here it would be into the believe would be imposted here it would be into the believe would be imposted here it would be into the believe would be imposted here it would be into the believe would be imposted here it would be into the believe would be i

It will be seen by this table that the popular of the Singer markines far exceeds that the company have interested by the seen by this table that the popular of all others, their said telem one-half greater than ever the seen that the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer than the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of the Singer company have lately command the said of th that has marked our journey south.

of the straits" and assured them they With my best respects to many kind Now, my friend, drop your slick and of the straits and useured them they With my best respects to many kind. Now, my friend, drop your sirek and showing a gain of the should receive the same warm reception friends in Manchester and rightly. I come to the city and we will find many

A. F. P. 14 DIS to interest your resters.

HE ENTERPRISE.	PERSONAL.	GLEANINGS.	THE FAIR SEX.	WESTERN ITEMS. Onawa, Iowa, shipped $10,000 worth	WATERING - PLACE NOTES. Rol. Plerre Blot, the scientific isc.	GLEANINGS. —An expedition to itx the exact loca
Published Thursday Evenings, Manchester, Washtenaw Co., Mich.	-Henry Ward Beecher's annual hay fever has set in.	Fincen dollars will buy a lovely homestead of 80 acres in Florida.	Nothing is talked of at Newport but padigree and blue blood. Riding habits are of black, blue-black	of cattle in one week. The Rock Island, Ill., County Fair	turer on cookery, is at Long Branch.	of the garden of Eden is spoken of — A $10,000 residence is being built for Rev. Robert Collyer, in Chicago. Gounod is the Charles Reade of mu-	Albany is threatened with a water famine. A girl of eighteen is the ablest poker	or purplish-black cloths. —A new style of bracelets are called the	begins on the 1st of August. —_Milwaukce, Wisconsin, is distinguish-	Washington, is registered at lauch's Ho- tel Long Branch. —Baron Italuba, the Brazilian arbitra-	in 1872
ditor and Proprietor.	sic. He sends petulant epistles to the	player in San Francisco. —Music, says Auerbach, washes away.	"Marguerite" wristlets.	ed for its bricks and lager beer. —An engine manufactory has been completed at Delaware, Illinois.	tor at Geneva, occupies the villa of Carlotta Grisi, the famous dancer.	odor emitted by the water supplied to
RATES OF ADVERTISING:	-John Zundel, Beecher's organist, will hold a musical convention shortly, at	from the soul the dust of every day III. It is thought that the expense to	_Wima a la Marie Antoinette, are rapid-	—A factory at Oskaloosa, Iowa, makes three hundred pounds of cheese a day.	-A New York family passed through Portland on their way to Bar. Harbor, a day or two since, with seventeen large	tive militia force of 43,104 officers
108. 198. 298. 499. 286. 1 207. 1 207. 1 208. 1 20	Newburg, New York. A son of Tom Sayers, the pugilist, is creating quite a sensation as a comic star	England of the Geneva Commission Will	The Isabel, a species of stone color, is now the fashionable that in London.	-Wankegan, Wisconsin, is the cham- pion current depot of the Northwest.	Saratoga trunks as baggage, and one of them remarked they should stay all night	-A gentleman whose wife recently
marcs 1 2:00 1 2:50 1 4:00 1 7:50 1 10:00 1 15	actor in London.	—California has sent by steamer her	Japanese paste" is the latest device for ruining the complexion of our belies.	-A farm near Mechanicsburg, Illinois, contains one thousand bearing peach	if they liked it when they got there. —Idlewild, once the lovely and favorite	plaining of sun stroke. —A single township of Monterey
Warious to conta a line for the first insertion	the late Maximilian, of Mexico, is at Cape	rectly to England. A Congress of the Internationalists is	-Industrious Oshkosh ladies average four quarts of potato bugs before break-	trees. —Port Brown, Illinois, manufactures over thirty thousand barrels of lime per	residence of Mr. N. P. Willis, is now owned by Mr. J. M. Courtenay, who will, probably, not part with it, having-pur-	bushels of wheat this year.
conts foreach subsequent insertion.	energy and unsurpassed ability to railroad	to be convened at the Hague on the 2nd of September.	fast. —Pink-lined parasols carried "into the sunshine" give a rosy flush to the fair face	month.	chased it for a permanent summer resi-	ceived an order for 40,000 Humin rriage and Death Notices free. Oblinary of than 10 lines 5 cents per line. gal Netices at Statute prices.	building in Mexico. —A San Francisco woman worth $30,- 600 is a common drunkard. Her name is	freshman class of the University of Ver-	Worth, of Paris, declares his best ad-	for the people of Clinton, Iowa. —A club at Carlinville, Illinois, looks	New Yorker, President of the West Shore Railway.	Islands.
ansient advertisements must be prepaid.	Louisa Mighells.	A once popular clergyman is now a	vertisements are constantly borne about by the ladies whose dresses he designs.	after the observation of the game law.	—If we follow England we must ban- ish the schottische and the polka from the ball-room, and we cannot even spare the	ting in St. Louis, with the land, is to advertisement four times, favors for the Enterprise should be handed in educaday—soon, in order to secure insertion.	Mormon prophet, is lecturing in New York	stead of finding sermons in them. New Haven has a colored letter-car-	—Ultra-fashionable people in Bath, England, are imitating the fashion of the last century in the wearing of white wigs and	-A camp meeting will be held near	galop. At a recent ball in Buckingham	At the recent annual distribution article happy to receive communications from tad friends, but want it distinctly understood, we are not responsible for santiments expressed our who sign their names or initials.	The Prince Imperial took part in the opening of a new Roman Catholic school	rier, the first appointment of a colored man to a federal office in the State. —Mirrors taid over with gold are re-	perukes. Another Indiana woman last week	Fairfield, Iowa, beginning August 22. —Hay is so abundant in Carroll coun-	polks on the programme, and but a sin-	the first prize for political economy age who sign their names or initials. ine terms will be strictly adhered to with every Address MAT D. BLOSS Ext.	In London on the 7th inst. -Michael Carre, a Paris play writer and author of many librettos of successful	ported to reflect sixteen times as power-	accomplished the rapid feat of procuring a divorce, a marriage license, and a fresh	ty, Iowa, that wild grass is given away. John Budd's little child drank Tye, at	position next to the last on the list. And besides that, to be strictly en reyle, the waltzes must be German, and the quad-	→ The average cost to the State of e
	Angene is dead at 56 years.	New York has imported over $2,100,000 worth of fruit within the last six	husband, all within eight hours. The late Mrs. Kilpatrick, of New	Albia, Iowa, and died soon afterward. —Olathe and Lawrence, Kansas, have recently had slight shocks of an earth-	rilles composed on French themes.	penitentiary is $1,200, while every seducated at the expense of the State
HIGHLY SENSATIONAL.	to pay the funeral expenses of the lad he killed; but the offer was declined.	months. Lager beer is the fashlonable drink at	creasing of the salaries of the Professors of		lation at Long Branch, started by some	-Ashland, Wis., is a new place t arthing Adventures on a Pacific	Dr. S. B. Hunt, of the Newark Adver-	-The defunct New York Standard	the Princeton College. -Nurse-maids are now required by the fashionable American mothers to wear the	Southern Kansas during the last two	which will eventually make the Branch	was an uninhabited "howling wi is known that the railroad from San peisco to New York passes through	district.	(Grant organ) brought $1,000 at sheriff's sale.	jaunty French caps, the badge of servitude	-The fair for Northeastern Iowa will	an inlet. Something of this kind happened once at Rockaway, to the great grief of the hotel-keepers. As there is no likeli-	expect to die there.
reservations of several tribes of In-	The wife of Ximmes, Spanish Minis- ter to Rome, was formerly Miss Addison, of Pittsburgh, and is described as "one of	ing eider in the southern countries of Eng-	rebelled.	Canada thisties are growing abun-	hood of this island forming for the next	imperative upon an insurance compar
s as terrible monsters created by the	the loveliest of our American ladies."	-London's great thoroughfare, Ludgate	hair, the front of dresses, the sleeves shoulders, and in all odd and unmanage		at reduced rates in consequence of these	lawyer has just recovered the loss of library under that decision.
reral times already the Indians have mpted to throw the trains off the k. In these enterprises they were led	Hartford (Conn.) Evening Post, it is said, has accepted a place on the editorial staff	at a cost of $25,000.	collars, sashes, belts, etc.	-Poison in biscuits gave a whole family the cramps at Fulton, Illinois. They will	-A Saratoga letter-writer says: "The one of the fiercest of their chiefs, a rokee named Naha, and surnamed	of the Tribune. New Yorkers will learn with satis-	this country for 16,645,183 Protestants and 1,990,514 Roman Catholics.	Vorce on account of cruerty and neglect	-The Bethesda Springs, Wisconsin.	men dress even worse than the women. They enter the parlor arrayed in tweed and light traveling suits. Alpaca coats	estate near Brussels. The Italian of thing Bird. All their attempts having Naha resolved to change his tactics.	faction that Mr. Jem Mace, the bruiser, intends to bestow himself on Utah, and	—A suit has been instituted in the su-	ly to him and threw pillows at him	one day last week.	the most comfortable and ugliest a man	In trembling accents a young lov
ccordingly, on the 2d of June last, he cealed himself near the rails, and with raordinary activity bounded upon the	Madame Rudersdorff speaks six lan-	force the taxes of 1808.	granted. —A Milwaukee lady has just buried her	Targe warehouses have been completed at	lorn; a garment to draw tears from the	portant question of his life, but she plied with the utmost calmness as board of train No. 67, from Sau Fran- to to New York. He then slipped along	are much sought after by composers. She	seronno ie to he reduced from twenty-five	the am of seventeen took a second has	—A woman in Lee county, Iowa, never heard of Dolly Varden. She is deaf and	eyes of a fashionable tailor; a garment which is an insult to the name of garment	sweet sigh of resignation, "Aythin beat Grant, dear," train till he reached the locomotive, ere he killed the fireman with a blow of	-Martin Harley Carey, a well known Fenian leader, drowned himself in the	August 1st. One thousand women are employed	she wants the eighth during the curren	The ex-soldiers of Delaware, Illinois	the men at the hotels wear them; and	eussed in Connecticut. The advocat tomahawk, stabbed the engineer with knife, and after scalping them, jumped be tender, brandishing the scalps and	Liffey on Saturday. He had been dis- charged from prisen sometime since on	in the potteries at Leeds, England, working nine hours a day, at the rate of sixty	—A correspondent, writing from Rocky Point, R. I., says: "Dolly Vardens are	and vicinity are organizing a soldiers' his torical society.	retrograding from the standard of civili- zation? Are we becoming more devoted	the measure state that there are 1
rling out a savage war song. he settlers along the line became terri-	-Mrs. McCarthy has begun proceedings	cents per week. Beloit College, Wis., has in attendance	exclusively confined to the servants, and make very serviceable scrubbing dresse	The immense molar tooth of a maste don has been discovered four miles south	to comfort than to style? Has American taste culminated and passed into the de-	school at all.
as they saw the train, which now hed along at a fearful speed, driven	Utica, whom she attempted to shoot in a	unon its classes a full blooded negro, ar	and the like. They don't show dirt. As word to the wise is sufficient."	-An infant son of D. Gilbert, of Polo	cline? Melancholy idea! Are alpaca coats but a step toward white hats and white overcoats? Is the Cincinnatti-Balti	that foreign insurance companies deposit $377,000 (half a million rou
the ferocious engineer; The passengers cried out for help. Their situation was remely perilous; in/fact they were run-	mate children. —Mr. Sothern gave a variety of enter-	The Albert Choral Society, of London is about to present M. Gounod with a sil-	A tender-hearted woman kept twenty stray dogs in safety through the whole siege of Paris, although offered two hun	was drowned, a few days ago. The shipments of lead from Baxter	more nomination but typical of the future of American dress? Ominous suggestion?	in the bank of Russia, as a preceder
into the jaws of death.	tainments on board the steamer Oceanic	ver baton, an inscription on vellum and a purse of money.	dred franks apiece for them hy a neigh boring butcher. For this act of virtu	Kan., over the Gulf road, during the month of June amounted to 700,000 lbs.	Turkish Proverbe	The buildings for the Pennsylv State Fair will be situated on the rce, determined to sacrifice himself to	which $400 were realized for the training ship Indefatigable.	The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland has been mulcted in some $125 damages for	have voted her a medal.	-Price and Gould had a fight at Tams	of the Convent of St. Lazarus, in the har	side of Erte, Pa., beside the track of Erte & Pittsburgh Railroad. Work ng dirk knife he ran along the foot- rd of the train and jumped upon the me. The chief uttered a war cry and	—Pearl Rivers, the New Orleans poetess who was so severely mauled a short time since by the divorced wife of her husband	during a riot in Phoenix Park.	over tinen anderskirts is absolute. They	John Geiger, of Aledo, III., couldn't	bor of Venice, for a specimen of the print-	commenced on the building last week ndished his tomahawk, and a hami-to- d struggle was commenced over the	celebrates her recovery by the publication in the Sunday Picagune of a poem which	for husbands. One day last week five	e equal with plain washing tulle, thus pre	other day to a less conscientious Demo	our hands a little pamphlet entitled "Turkish Proverbs Translated into Eng- lish." The Armenians are subjects of the	the first of September. The following scale is given by he passengers put their heads out of	ehe calle the "Singing heart." — Seth Green, of Rochester, has just re-	and went back east to "live with their mamma."	velvet ribbon is used to loop those down over garments. They are pretty clear	The Lawrence (Kan.) Tribune thinks	Sublime Porte, and these brethren of St.	duration of animal life: A hare will windows, and with an anxiety which y easily be imagined tried to see the it. In about a minute Mr. Pierce fell	ceived a valuable gold medal from the	They tell some reckless stories of the	A Vienna correspondent divides brides	son that they will be sold for two cents a	of the winged lion of St. Mark, still fly the Turkish flag. The Turks are a senten-	dog from 14 to 20, an ox 20, swine rtally wounded under Mocking Bird, o in a twinkling of an eye scalped him.	tion of his labors in pisciculture. He has been invited to visit France.	a pound of its butter appeared at a neigh	t into two classes, the serious and the smil- ing. The first enters with a queenly ster and seems to say, "Don't look at me; don'	Capt. Lake, of Winneconne, Wis., is missing, and it is feared he has absconded	pected that they would make use of those	-At Chicago, during the great fi t while he was triumphantly waving	TOTAL STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE	boring barbershop to get its hair cut. The late are at Alpena, Michigan, de	you see I'm married, and that those days	with $10,000. He took his new made	brief sayings in which so much of wit	policeman impressed into service ar ength to jump up and lunge his kuife	other extensive tour, which he proposes to	$179,600, is supposed to have had its origin	as much as to say, I've landed him; is it not good fun?	bride with him. James Dilligger, of Decatur, Ill. sung himself up in his barn, but his filed and character from him been	S Condensed. Yearly age as the street of the	note that the property of the nets . He then are wird to the valve	which comprehends points so remote and so widely apart as the North Cape and	of liquor.	-A very finely-dressed lady of the			of the wagon speathe cit pped. The passenger of the assistance of	—Lengfellow Lowell, Prof. Sishburn	New York Therres proceed that willing				To the commission s branches too late ; he	the Hon. J. G. Palfrey, the T. P. C. Windhrop, and other gentlement which per purchase the contract of the con		The second secon	Total Sales and another the National Sales and the National Sales and the Sales and the Sales and the National Sales and the Sal
	pearly a Crocklyn dies, a peak of the	A fire car i e ci a car dinota a area gument against dos de care
	Phe Spesquor says that Dr. Sorman	swearing that the money expenses house
Tallo and to all	Macleod would have been commerced per feetly orthodox in England, but in Scot	States would buy 1,341,000,000 whis
rists in the Village Comments pre-	he did not sufficiently delight in the pros	THE DE TOURS THE PROPERTY IS A SECOND OF THE PARTY OF THE	TOTAL OF THE PARTY
	pect of eternal punishment for the majority	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Wal	HUMOROUS.	abana babit.	are to present a source of the present and the te at this notice the 23 of an inhabitance their houses	of the human race. Commodore David Ritchie, of the	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Walter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same	-What lady is used to war? Millio	Peter Swand agent started bome	reveals the oriental prejudice against red their houses after and fellows if and rateline walks and fellows if we will are the sound of the	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the revenue cutter Mocassin, made one jump from the rank of a common to that of a commander. He it was the	tribune, and is to be printed on the Walter press, which strikes of 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. The Levant Times reports a tremen done half storm in the Province of Adri	-What lady is used to war? Million -What lady is lively and gay? Annie MationWhat lady is fond of giving? Jennie	Peter Swa drank six gian on horseback, a off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or	reveals the oriental prejudice against red hair, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired	PERSONAL.
their houses a kear and restling water and restling water and selling win doors broke in the spling spling are fell the house and men are	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the syonac cutter Mocassin, made one jumpings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a commander. He it was the	tribune, and is to be printed on the Walter press, which strikes of 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous half storm in the Province of Adri	-What lady is lively and gay? Annie What lady is lively and gay? Annie What lady is fond of giving? Jennie	Peter Sw	reveals the oriental prejudice against red hatr, as well as the buying and selfing of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is ex-	PERSONAL. Stokes spent $7,000 on his first their hones a star and rastings water mu sen go str. doors broke hills splint are fell had been in the sen at	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the syonac cutter Mocassin, made one jumpings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a commander. He it was the	tribune, and is to be printed on the Walter press, which strikes of 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous half storm in the Province of Adri	-What lady is lively and gay? Annie What lady is lively and gay? Annie What lady is fond of giving? Jennie	Peter Sware and	reveals the oriental prejudice against fed hair, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off."	Stokes spent $7,000° on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sued Ouen of Denmark for a bill of four
their hones a star and rastings water mu sen go str. doors broke hills splint	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the syonac cutter Mocassin, made one jumpings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a commander. He it was the	tribune, and is to be printed on the Walter press, which strikes of 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous half storm in the Province of Adri	-What lady is lively and gay? Annie What lady is lively and gay? Annie What lady is fond of giving? Jennie	Peter Sw	reveals the oriental prejudice against fed hair, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person, do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo
their hones a star and rastings water mu sen go str. doors broke hills splint	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the syonac cutter Mocassin, made one jumpings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a commander. He it was the	tribune, and is to be printed on the Walter press, which strikes of 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous half storm in the Province of Adri	-What lady is lively and gay? Annie What lady is lively and gay? Annie What lady is fond of giving? Jennie	Peter Sward and the second state of the second	reveals the oriental prejudice against red hair, as well as the buying and selling of hair, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is ex- pressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resem- blances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The poi calls the kettle black;" the Italians, "The	Stokes spent $7,000° on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sued Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng.
their houses, who are the said tention and rattling water and tention with sold tention with deposit of the sold tention in their seats and thrown lar, was last walks. All sorts of building materials, thinber, stone and rabbins were own far in the air. All buleves the day had come and the rat was fos in rains. After the first converted to over, people looked after the cause of accident, it was no boiler explosions on the east end of the village the last over was blown up. This was usually the last over was blown up. This was usually the last over was blown up. This was usually the last over the cause of the c	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the revenue cutter Mocassin, made one jumpings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Bean cart. S. C., with the American flag in his ceth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's said were intensely pained by the public can of Ward Lamon's book. Robert is attempted to buy up the whole confederates in the three three incountry stories about of the way, when the incountry stories about his father and	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Walter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walnuts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $5% for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—bette keep the money and buy a new head for the editor."	-What lady is used to war? MillistaryWhat lady is lively and gay? AnnistaryWhat lady is fond of giving? JennistaryWhat lady is fively and gay? AnnistaryWhat lady is lively and gay? Annis	Peter Sward	reveals the oriental prejudice against red hair, as well as the buying and selling of hair, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The pot calls the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;'" the Spaniards, "The reduction of the crow, "Ayaunt blacksmoor,"	Stokes spent $7,000° on his first and will have to try again. —A dry goods dealer has sued Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. —A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. —George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New Y their houses in the product of the p	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the systeme cutter Mocassin, made one jump from the rank of a common seaman it that of a common seaman it that of a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau Swam ashore the colors of the said that President Lincoln's from attempted to buy up the whole the colors of the said that went to Engage in order to be out of the way, when he uncourtly stories about his father and grandfather were exciting the first sense of the said that were exciting the first sense of the said that were exciting the first sense of the said that were exciting the first sense of the said that were exciting the first sense of the said that were exciting the first sense of the said that were exciting the first sense of the said that the	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Walter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hail storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walnuts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $5 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one" of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and boy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffale	-What lady is used to war? Milli TaryWhat lady is lively and gay? Annie MationWhat lady is fond of giving? Jennie RossityThe greatest curiosity in the world- A woman'sStill Life"—The whisky manufactur in businessA bad style of arithmetic—Division among familiesTo become the lion of a party it is no necessary to make a beast of one's selfA Peorla deutist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Mos dentists do.	Peter Sward Tager Started home on horseback at off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. Ell Perkins as with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York Commercial Advertiser. An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen a service—been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagement had been in at least a dozen engagement.	reveals the oriental prejudice against fed hair, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The pot calls the kettle black," the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;' "the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "A raunt blackamoor." the Germans, "One ass nicknames another "Longeas;" The Catalans, "De	Stokes spent $7,000° on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sued Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Sidde about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphitrying to purchase a prominent New 1 journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an their houses in hour water and carried and ratting water and central and ratting water and tentral and received the spilar and the sease and thrown far water and the sease and thrown far water water and the carried and the carried and the carried and the carried accident, it was no boiler explosion, accident, it was no boiler explosion to the explosion, such a ferrible explosion in a building, such a ferrible explosion in accident and cause such destruction in	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the systems cutter Mecassin, nade one jump from the rank of a common seaman to that of a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau Sart, S. C., with the American flag in his ceth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's were intensely pained by the public on of Ward Lamon's book. Robert for the colors of the confederate of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's had of Ward Lamon's book. Robert for the colors of the co	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Walter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adri anople. The stones were of the size o wainnts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $5 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalchunting party there which he proposes to allo for the barre of Albion to the Bo	What lady is used to war? Milli Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world- A woman's. "Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is no necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Mos dentists do. The light of a match will frighten wolf sawn it is said. But love matches	Peter Sward Representation of the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his lect ter to the New York. An isnocent young lady asked me to-day if the seventh regiment regiment regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment.	reveals the oriental prejudice against fed hair, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The point of the calls the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me; "the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "A vaunt blackamoor." the Germans, "One ass nicknames another 'Longeas;" The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;" and here we find the Turks, saying. "The kettle cells the	Stokes spent $7,000° on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sued Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Sidde about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphitrying to purchase a prominent New 1 journal Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13.
their houses, hour being and rathing well and rathing well and the first and their form of core being being and their feel that heaps and thrown far, well inst walks. All sorts of auditing masts, timber, stone and thrown far, well that had come and the rathing well core, people looked after the cause of accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the village the latatory was blown up. This we is stall ding 18 feet square, and it remains onceivable, that from the blow up of so ill a building, such a ferrible explosion of the much and can be and can be seen the could give information. But happened there nobody can tell see who could give information. Dr.	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the systeme cutter. Mocassin, made one jump from the rank of a common seaman it that of a common seaman it that of a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau swam ashore three miles from off Beau swam shore three miles from off Beau swam shore three miles from off Beau off the Control of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's the were intensely pained by the public for of Ward Lamon's book. Robertile on the ward Lamon's book. Robertile on the said at the said said on the said at the	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walnuts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 houses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published tately gave notice that he intended to spend $5' for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there, which he proposes to plot from the shores of Albion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and bach again, and all for the moderate sum of s	-What lady is used to war? Milli TaryWhat lady is lively and gay? Annie MationWhat lady is fond of giving? Jennie RossityThe greatest curiosity in the world- A woman'sStill Life"—The whisky manufactur ing businessA bad style of arithmetic—Division among familiesTo become the lion of a party it is no necessary to make a beast of one's selfA Peoria deutist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Mos dentists doThe light of a match will frighten a wolf away, it is said. But love matche door.	Peter Sward rank six gas a	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person, do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The potentials the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;' "the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "Avaunt blackamoor," the Germans, "One ass nicknames another Longears;" The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;' and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shor and thy short will keep."	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont & Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josic Mansfeld has bought a hou their houses, hour walks and rathing walks and rathing walks and the source of the sou	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the systeme cutter. Mocassin, made one jump from the rank of a common seaman it that of a common seaman it that of a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau of the Color of the said that President Lincoln's the were intensely pained by the public of the off Ward Lamon's book. Robert in the said that the public of the color of the way, when the incountly stories about his father and residuates were exciting the first sense than of the color of the way, when the incountly stories about his father and residuates were exciting the first sense than of the color of the way, when the incountly stories about his father and residuates were exciting the first sense who died recently in New London, Connecticut, was born in Germany. During the last twenty years of his life he lived is Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a constitute of the color of the color of the way which attained a constitute of the color of	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Walter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hail storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walmis, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published tately gave notice that he intended to spend $36 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there, which he proposes to plot from the shores of Albion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of a triffe under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginish	-What lady is used to war? Milli Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world— A woman's. "Still Life"—The whisky manufactur in business. —A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. —To become the lion of a party it is no necessary to make a beast of one's self. —A Peoria deutist announces that h extracts teeth with great pains. Mos dentists do. —The light of a match will frighten; wolf away, it is said. But love matche don't always keep the wolf from the door. —Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site fo a young lady's school. There are man sights wholly unaft for young ladies	Peter Sward rank six gias and agent started home on horseback, a off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York Commercial Advertice: An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I took her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is	reveals the oriental prejudice against fed hair, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The pot calls the kettle black," the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;' "the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "A vaunt blackamoor." the Germans, "One ass nicknames another 'Longeas;' "The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;' and here we find the Turks saying; "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one	PERSONAL. Stokes spent $7,000° on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sued Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphitrying to purchase a prominent New 1 journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont & Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josie Manefield has bought a houthat city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maris of Russia their houses, hour parties and ratifline water and calling water and calling and ratifline water and calling and ratifline water and thrown far, they not their seats and thrown far, they now far in the air. All their seats come and the call was low in rains. After the first congression accident, it was no boiler explosion on the east end of the virings the lawor was blown up. This was restalleding 18 feet square, and it remains occurable, that from the blow up of so that the call was secretable that from the blow up of so that hadding, such a terrible explosional densue, and cause such destruction in parts of the village. The law is the call was the control of the call was considered and cause such destruction in parts of the village. See who could give information. Dr. three helpmates have perished; in dired of pieces and spread all around records ay in indiscernable masses, only niece was recognized and one hand, niece was recognized and one hand,	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the systems entire Mecassin, nade one jump from the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau Str. S. C., with the American flag in his feeth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's way were intensely pained by the public on of Ward Lamon's book. Robert for a stempted to buy up the whole collision, and failing in this, went to Engile in order to be out of the way, when he incountly stories about his father and presidenter were exciting the first sense thou. —Mr. F. Flake, of Galveston, Texas who died recently in New London, Connecticut, was born in Germany. During the last twenty years of his life he lived in Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspicuous position during the war by its aftherence to the Union cause. At the first of his death be was on his way to this way to the seat the content of the death be was on his way to the seat the content of the death be was on his way to the seat the content of the death be was on his way to the content of the content of the death be was on his way to the content of the cont	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walnuts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $56 for a "new head" for his paper. The next day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and boy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in Englandhas undertaken to get up a grand buffale hunting party there; which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Albion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of triffe under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginis where Washington and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten its	What lady is used to war? Milli Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world- A woman's. Still Life.—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is no recessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pans. Mos dentists do. The light of a match will frighten woif away, it is said. But lore matche don't always keep the wolf from the don't. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly of	Peter Sward responsibility of the service of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York. Commercial Advertice to the New York Commercial Advertice of the New York of th	reveals the oriental prejudice against fed hair, as well as the buying and selling of hair, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the honse, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The policalis the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me; "the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "Ayaunt blackamoor." "the Germans, "One ass nicknames another 'Longeass;" The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;'" and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin saya, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw." The Turk, "He that	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josic Mansfeld has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Bay about that matter of jilling her daug their houses, hour walls and rathing wall and rathing wall and to deep and are fell that he had an an are fell that he had a had come and the rath way foo in rains. After the first consequence of the village the later the cause of orer, people looked after the cause of or the willing the later was blown up. This was first atory was blown up. This was first and thing the that from the blow up of so all a building, such a ferrible explosion lid ensue, and cause such destruction in parts of the village. That happened there nobody can tell see who could give information. Dr. the property of the could give information and three helpmates have perished; in dired of pieces and spread all around it foomes tay in indiscernable masses; only piece was recognized and one hand, the was thrown 100 paces towards the of the factory. A small box, con-	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the systeme cutter. Mocassin, made one jump from the rank of a common seaman it that of a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau State. So, with the American flag in his ceth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates. Robert Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates and the confederates are the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates. Robert Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates are the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates. Robert Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates are the confederates are the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates. Robert Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates. Robert Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates are the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates. Robert Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates. Robert Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates are the confederates. Robert Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates are the confederates are the confederates. Robert Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates are the confederates. Robert Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates are the confederates. Robert Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates are the confederates. Robert Lincoln's the confederates are the confederates are the confederates are the confederates are the confederates a	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walmits, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published tately gave notice that he intended to spend $36 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one" of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and boy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there, which he proposes to plot from the shores of Albion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of a triffe under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginishe where Washington and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1.500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for	What lady is used to war? Milli Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world- A woman's. Still Life"—The whisky manufactur ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is no necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peoria deutist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Mos dentists do. The light of a match will frighten wolf away, it is said. But love matche door. What lady is used to war? Millie A woman's. Still Life"—The whisky manufactur in gustieness A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is no necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peoria deutist announces that he wolf away, it is said. But love matche door. The light of a match will frighten wolf away, it is said. But love matche door. The light of a match will frighten wolf away, it is said. But love matche door. The light of a match will frighten wolf away, it is said. But love matche door. The light of a match will frighten wolf away, it is said. But love matche door. The light of a match will frighten wolf away, it is said. But love matche door. The light of a match will frighten wolf away, it is said. But love matche door. The light of a match will frighten wolf away, it is said. But love matche the part of the wolf from the contract of the contract of the wolf away, it is said. But love matche the part of the wolf from the contract of the wolf away it is said.	Peter Sward rank six gists and anger started home on horseback as off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York Commercial Advertiser. An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—hern in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city?" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they never take up town—girls that they take to	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The poleals the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me; "the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "Ayaunt blackamoor." The Germans, "One ass nicknames another 'Longeass;" The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;'" and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw." The Turk, "He that falls into the sea takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the shop lamb," said Sterne the Turks Turk.	Stokes spent $7,000° on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sued Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josic Mansfield has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Barabout that matter of jilting her daug —It is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic Marsey, will soon be made Catholic Marsey.
their houses in the part of th	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the revenue cutter Mocassin, made one jumpings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a commonder. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Bean coft, S. C., with the American flag in his ceth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's said were intensely pained by the public for of Ward Lamon's book. Roberting attempted to buy up the whole cition, and failing in that, went to Engine in order to be out of the way, when the incourtly stories about his father and residenter were excitting the first sense thom. —Mr. F. Flake, of Galyeston, Texas who died recently in New London, Connecticut, was born in Germany. During the last twenty years of his life he lived in Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspicuous position during the war by its aftherence to the Union cause. At the time of his death he was on his way to Europe. Mr. Duisenberg, the German consults.	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walnuts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 houses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $50 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffald hunting party, there, which he proposes to plot from the shores of Albion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of strifle under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginia where Washingbon and other distinguishee men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten its ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs.	What lady is used to war? Millistrary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world- A woman's. Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten world away, it is said. But love matched don't always keep the wolf from the door. Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly undt for young ladies schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly of one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody clse in the world—and so does the. An irritable man who was disappoint.	Peter Sward rank six gas a digent started home on horseback, a off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York Commercial Adversary of the Seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I took her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city!" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they never take up town—girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, "Niblo's and Wallacks."	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The potentials the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;" the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "Avaunt blackamoor," the Germans, "One ass nicknames another Lougears;" The Catalaus, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;' and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw;" The Turk, "He that falls into the sea-takes hold of the serpent to be saved," "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by Coul," "Nater look a gift horse in the	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. —A dry goods dealer has aned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. —A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. —George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New 1 journal. —Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. —The San Francisco papers say Josie Mansfield has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. —The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Baabout that matter of jilting her daug it is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic I bishop of Battimore. —Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting:
their houses, hour walks and ratifline walks and ratifline walks and the source of the	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the systems cutter. Mocassin, nade one jump from the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a commonder. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau Str. S. C., with the American flag in his seeth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's was the said that President Lincoln's said that the public of the said that the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's said that the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's said that the said that the said that the public of the said that the said th	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of wainnts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $50 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffald hunting party there, which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Albion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of strife under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginis where Washington and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten its ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected to repairs. The Lebanon (Ky.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bush Greek and wanted to enlist. In the worship the such as the state of the collected of th	What lady is used to war? Millist Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annist Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennist Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world. A woman's. Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peoria deutist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten wolf away, it is said. But love matched door. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else in the world—and so does he. An irritable man who was disappoint ed in his boots threatened to eat up the shoemaker, but compromised by drinking	Peter Sward rank six gas a signal started home on horseback, a off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York. Commercial Advertiser: An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city?" "Yes." "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they never take up town—girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Yes."	reveals the oriental prejudice against fed hair, as well as the buying and selling of hair, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The pot calls the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;' "the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "A vaunt blackamoor." the Germans, "One ass nicknames another 'Longeas;' "The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;'" and here we find the Turks saying; "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw," The Turk, "He that falls into the sea-takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the Shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the mouth," is a faunitar saying; the Turks mut it in this form: "The teeth of a horse to the temper the teeth of a horse to the sour in the mouth," is a faunitar saying; the Turks mut it in this form: "The teeth of a horse to the saying; the Turks mut it in this form: "The teeth of a horse to the saying; the Turks mut it in this form: "The teeth of a horse to the saying; the Turks mut it in this form: "The teeth of a horse to the saying; the Turks mut it in this form: "The teeth of a horse to the saying; the Turks mut it in this form: "The teeth of a horse to the saying the Turks mut it in this form: "The teeth of a horse to the saying the Turks mut it in this form: "The teeth of a horse to the saying the Turks mut it in this form:	Stokes spent $7,000° on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sued Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Sidde about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphitrying to purchase a prominent New 1 journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josie Manefield has bought a hout that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maris of Russia written angrily to the King of Barabout that matter of jilting her daug Lit is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic A bishop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induce the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns.
their houses, a four parties and ratifline water and leading to the control broke interests and thrown far, they are not their seats and thrown far, they are not their seats and thrown far, they are the far they are the day had come and the care was lown far in the air. All their seats of the control accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the virings the law of the control accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the virings the law of the control accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the virings the law of the control accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the virings the law of the control accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the virings the law onceivable, that from the blow up of so that happened there nobody can tell see who could give information. For the could give information. For the end of pieces and spread all around records a piece was recognized and one hand, ich was thrown 100 paces towards the rof the factory. A small box, consist the four unfortunate of the solid laboratory, there is not a color of the solid laboratory, there is not a color of the solid laboratory, there is not a color of the solid laboratory, there is not a color of the solid laboratory, there is not a color of the solid laboratory incredible force, the braces of this mysterious and mover power, are of a truly incredible of the cory foundation and build-	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the sycene cutter Mocassin, made one jumpings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau offit, S. C., with the American flag in his ceth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's state were intensely pained by the public for of Ward Lamon's book. Robert the attempted to buy up the whole collision, and failing in that, went to Europe in order to be out of the way, when he incourtly stories about his father and resaddather were exciting the first sense from Mr. F. Flake, of Galveston, Texas who died recently in New London. Connecticut, was born in Germany. During the last twenty years of his life he lived it Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspicuous position during the war by its adherence to the Union cause. At the sime of his death he was on his way to Europe. Mr. Duisenberg, the German cousul at San Francisco, has just received a fine painting the portraits of their majestic Kaiser-William and his frau. It is accompanied by an autograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attributions during the late struggle of	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hait storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walmits, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published tately gave notice that he intended to spend $\frac{3}{2} for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Albion to the Re publican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of a trifle under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginite where Washington and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected it New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ry.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bash Creek and wanted to enlist it Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion	What lady is used to war? Millistrary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world-A woman's. Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is no necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten world away, it is said. But love matched door. Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies a schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else in the world—and so does he. An irritable man who was disappoint ted in his boots threatened to eat up the scheemaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler.	Peter Sward rank six gias and rank six gias and rank six gias off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York Commercial Advertiser. An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I toth her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city?" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Then some of them are sweet on girls Twenty third street—sweet on sentimental girls, who dote on the Fifth a rent the Academy of Music and Pike's	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The potentials the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;" the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "Avaunt blackamoor," the Germans, "One ass nicknames another Lougears;" The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;" and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin saya, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw;" The Turk, "He that falls into the sea takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the Shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the mouth," is a faunitiar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed." "Out of the frying pan into	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont & Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josie Mansfield has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Barabout that matter of jilting her daug —It is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic A bishop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induce the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. It is said that Brjck Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red their houses, hour walk and rathline walk and rathline walk and rathline walk and believed in their seats and thrown far, walk inst walks. All sorts of auditing many marks timber is tone and thrown far, walk inst walks. All sorts of auditing many walks and thrown far in the air. All buleved the day had come and the gard was for in rains. After the fast consequently a over, people looked after the cause of accident, it was no boiler explosion; on the east end of the wilding the laratory was blown up. This walk is stating ding 18 feet square, and it remains once where the laratory was blown up. This walk is sually ding 18 feet square, and it remains once whether the blow up of so lid a building, such a ferrible explosion, that happened there nobody can tell, see who could give information. Dr. opman, a chemist from England, and three helpmates have perished; in which was thrown 100 paces towards the rof the factory. A small box, const the bones of the four unfortunate of the solid ishoratory, there is not a select; even the foundation was form in the ground with indiscribable force, the traces of this mysterious and more power, are of a truly incredible at the contraction was thrown through thick its of buildings both near by and stones were thrown through thick its of buildings both near by and	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the systems cutter Mecassin, nade one jump from the rank of a common seaman to that of a commonder. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau Sift, S. C., with the American flag in his ceth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's war were intensely pained by the public of a stempted to buy up the whole college, attempted to buy up the whole college, attempted to buy up the whole college, attempted to the way, when he incountly stories about his father and presidenter were exciting the first sense who died recently in New London, Comnectiont, was born in Germany. During the last twenty years of his life he lived in Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspicuous position during the war by its aftherence to the Union cause. At the first of his death he was on his way to Europe. Mr. Duisenberg, the German cousul at San Francisco, has just received a fine position, the portains of their majestic Kaiser-William and his frau. It is accompanied by an autograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attributions during the late struggle o the fatherland. Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me.	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hait storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walmits, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published tately gave notice that he intended to spend $\frac{3}{2} for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Albion to the Re publican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of a trifle under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginite where Washington and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ry.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bash Creek and wanted to enlist in Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over.	What lady is used to war? Millistrary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world-A woman's. "Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is no necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten world away, it is said. But love matched door. Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies a schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else in the world—and so does he. An irritable man who was disappoint ted in his boots threatened to eat up the sheemaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler. Henrietta, said a landlady to her new girl, "when there's bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner, it may	Peter Sward rank six gias and rank six gias and rank six gias of and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his let ter to the New York Commercial Advertiser. An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city?" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourtenth street—to girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on Twenty third street—weet on sentimental girls, who dote on the Fifth avenue theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." "And some of them have girls on the	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the honse, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The policalis the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;'" the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "Avaunt blackamoor." The Germans, "One ass nicknames another 'Longea's;" The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;'" and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The Turk, "He that falls into the sea-takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the Shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the mouth," is a faunitiar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed?" "Gut of the frying-pan into the fire," is rendered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest."	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sued Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josie Mansfield has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maris of Russia written angrily to the King of Barabout that matter of jilting her dang is trying to induce the Catrolic Abishop of Baltimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induce the Car of Russia buy more of his guns. It is said that Brick Pomercy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnalism in New York. Got Charence Pressice, only so their houses, a company of the control of the contr	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the sycenac cutter Mocassin, made one jump from the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beats of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's property were intensely pained by the public fon of Ward Lamon's book. Robertied in attempted to buy up the whole collision, and failing in that, went to Engine in order to be out of the way, when he incourtly stories about his father and remaidather were exciting the first sense than the confederate of the colors of the way, when he incourtly stories about his father and remaidather were exciting the first sense than the colors of the colors of the way, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspicuous position during the war by its aftherence to the Union cause. At the inne of his death he was on his way to Europe. —Mr. Duisenberg, the German consultation of his death he was on his way to Europe. —Mr. Duisenberg, the German consultation of his death he was on his way to Europe. —Mr. Duisenberg, the German population of San Francisco, has just received a fine painting the portraits of their majestic Kaiser William and his frau. It is account panied by an autograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attributions during the late struggle of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me. Friday, at the advanced age of ninety-siy vears. Mr. Thatcher was born in Contractions of the contraction of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher was born in Contractions of the contraction of the fatherland.	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walnuts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $5% for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—bette keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffall hunting party, there, which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Ablon to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and bad again, and all for the moderate sum of a triffe under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginis where Washingban and other distinguished state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1.500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ky.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bush Creek and wanted to enlist in Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion. They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Danbury, Cona., who played and not heard that the war was over.	What lady is used to war? Milli Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world- A woman's. Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is no recessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Mos dentists do. The light of a match will frighten woif away, it is said. But lore matche don't always keep the wolf from the don't always keep the wolf from the adoor. Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him than of anybody else in the world—and so does he. An irritable man who was disappoint ted in his boots threatened to eat up the shoemaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler. Henrietta," said a landlady to her new girl, "when there's bad news par- ticularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eat- things make a great difference in the eat- things make a great difference in the eat-	Peter Sward rank six gas a digent started home on horseback, a off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York Commercial Advertiser. An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city!" "Yes." "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they never take to grils that they take to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Yes." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on Twenty third street—sweet on sentimental girls, who dote on the Fifth avenue theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opers house." "Yes." "And some of them have girls on the string' tway up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and delight in Thomas's garden concerts and	reveals the oriental prejudice against ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences have of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The pot calls the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;" the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "avant blackamoor:" the Germans, "One ass nicknames another "Longears;" The Catalaus, "Death, said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;" and here we find the Turks saying; "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw;" The Turk, "He that falls into the sea takes hold of the serpent to be saved," "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God," "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a familiar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed." "Out of the frying pan intended the fire," is readered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest." "Cut off the nose to spite the face," finds a fifther trendering in "Wanting to mas different rendering in	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Sidde about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New i journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josic Mansfield has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Ba about that matter of jilting her daug — It is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic I bishop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induce the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. It is said that Brick Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnalism in New York. Cot Charner Prentice, only so the late George D. is a lumber deal Kentucky. His father thought he work a Prentice him to his own trade.
their houses, most provided and restline water and training water and termination for fell that heaps and attended to the first sorts of auditing masts, timber, stone and thrown far, water town far in the air. All believes the day had come and the rate way for in reins. After the first conservation of the cause of in reins. After the first conservation of the east end of the village accident, it was no boiler explosion; on the east end of the village the later that the first conservation on the east end of the village the later was blown up. This way is stall ding 18 feet square, and it remains more vable, that from the blow up of so all a building, such a terrible explosion of the master and can be set the could give information. For the property of the village, that happened there mobedy can tell see who could give information. For the property of the could give information. For the could give information and three helpmates have perished; in dred of pieces and spread all around the of the factory. A small box, constitution of the factory and strictly incredible in the property of the foundation and build stones were thrown through thick its of buildings both near by and and the diactory building, even rails 450 of the college of the factory building, even rails 450 of the college of the and the college of	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the sycene cutter Mocassin, made one jump from the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau off to a commonder. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau off to a commonder. He is was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau off to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's state of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's said to grand the said of the way when the said of the colors of the way when the incourtly stories about his father and remaind ather were exciting the first sense thou. —Mr. F. Flake, of Galveston, Texas who died recently in New London, Connecticut, was born in Germany. During the last twenty years of his life he lived in Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspicuous position during the war by its adherence to the Union cause. At the finite of his death he was on his way to Europe. —Mr. Duisenberg, the German cousul a San Francisco, has just received a fine painting the portraits of their majestic Kaiser-William and his frau. It is account panied by an autograph, letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attributions during the late struggle of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me. Friday, at the advanced age of ninety-sip years. Mr. Thatcher was horn in Concord, Mass., in 1776, graduated at Har vard University in 1792, was made a Masor in 1798, and was elected to Congress in 1798.	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walnuts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $56 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—bette keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalle hunting party, there, which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Abbion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and bad again, and all for the moderate sum of a triffe under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginis where Washingbon and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ky.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bash Greek and wanted to enlist in Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Daubury, Cona., who played and sang before his swetcheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights, was electrified after a short rest by a contact that the war was over.	What lady is used to war? Millistrary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world- A woman's. Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is no necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten woil away, it is said. But lore matched don't always keep the wolf from the don't always keep the wolf from the don't. Jones and his wife agree grandly on one point—she thinks more of him than of anybody else in the world—and so does he. An irritable man who was disappoint ted in his boots threatened to eat up the shoeinaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler. Henrietta," said a landlady to her new grid, "when there's bad news particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year." Proper minded Beadle be Forward warms and the course of a year."	Peter Swand dramatics of the New York and is new burled. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York Commercial Adversary. An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I toth her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city!" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they never take up town—girls that they never take up town—girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Yes." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on Twenty third street—sweet on sentimental girls, who dote on the Fifth avenue theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." "And some of them have girls 'on the string' kway up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street, their severes see each other, and so they are string the park and see they are string they are seed other, and so they are string they are seed other, and so they are string they are seed other, and so they are string they are seed other, and so they are string they are seed other, and so they are string they are seed other, and so they are string they are seed other, and so they are string they are seed other, and so they are string they are seed other, and so they are string they are seed other, and so they are string they are seed other, and so they are string they are seed other, and so they are string they are seed other, and so they are string they are seed other, and so they are string they are seed other, and so they are seed of the	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The point calls the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me; "the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, 'Araunt blackamoor.'" the Germans, "One ass nicknames another 'Longeas; "The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;' and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says. "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee; and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw." The Turk, "He that falls into the sea takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the Shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a familiar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed." "Gut of the frying pan into the fire," is rendered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempost." "Cut off the nose to spite the face, "indeating the only all the great in "Wine and roast," are reserved.	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sued Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont & Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josie Mansfield has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maris of Russia written angrily to the King of Barabout that matter of jilting her dang is trying to induce the Catrolic Abishop of Baltimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induce the Car of Russia buy more of his guns. It is said that Brick Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red purnatism in New York. Got Charence Prestice, only so the late George D. is a lumber deal Kentucky. His father thought he wot a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origia was as being as that of Nilsson. Her father
their houses, most provided and restline water and training water and termination for fell that heaps and attended to the fell that heaps and attended to the fell that heaps and attended to the fell that heaps and thrown far, was that water, attended the said of the fell that heaps and the rate was food in reins. After the first conservation of the control of the village of the control of the village accident, it was no boiler explosions on the east end of the village the later of the control of the village. The fell said of the control of the village in the later of the fell said of the control of the fell of the fe	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the revenue cutter Mocassin, made one jumpings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau offit, S. C., with the American flag in his ceth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's state were intensely pained by the public of Ward Lamon's book. Robert attempted to buy up the whole cition, and failing in that, went to Engrape to order to be out of the way, when he incourtly stories about his father and grandfather were exciting the first sense tion. —Mr. F. Flake, of Galyeston, Texas who died recently in New London, Connecticut, was born in Germany. During the last twenty years of his life he lived in Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspication position during the war by its adherence to the Union cause. At the principle of his death he was on his way to Burope. Mr. Duisenberg, the German consults' San Francisco, has just received a fine painting the portraits of their anglestic Kaiser-William and his frau. It is accompanied by an antograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attributions during the late struggle of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me Friday, at the advanced age of ninety-sityers. Mr. Thatcher was born in Concord, Mass., in 1776, graduated at Har vard University in 1792, was mades Misson in 1798, and was elected to Congress in 1892. At the time of his death he was the oldest graduate of Harvard and the text of the state of the s	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hait storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walmits, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published tately gave notice that he intended to spend $\frac{3}{2} for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Albion to the Re publican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of a trifle under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginie where Washington and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1.500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ry.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bush Creek and wanted to enlist it Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Danbury, Conn., who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for twee hours on one of those recent hot nights was electrified after a short rest by a cerdial thank your gracefully propounced by the "other fellow" who appeared at the bash of the fellow."	What lady is used to war? Millistrary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world-A woman's. "Still Life"—The whisky manufacture in government in government in government. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is no necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten world away, it is said. But love matched don't always keep the wolf from the door. Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies a schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else in the world—and so does he. An irritable man who was disappoint ed in his boots threatened to eat up the sheemaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler. Henrietta, said a landlady to her new gird, "when there's bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before diuner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. Proper minded Beadle be Forward Young Man "Come, young gent you're not wanted in here. Thère's a wendium coming off."	Peter Sward rank six gas and agent started home on horseback as off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his let ter to the New York. Commercial Advertiser. An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city?" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they never take up town—girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, 'Niblo's and Wallacks." "Then some of them are sweet on girls mental girls, who dote on the Fifth avenue theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." "And some of them have girls 'on the string' way up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's, garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street. Twenty-third street and Central Park girls nevel see each other, and so they are all right. They aln't like Cincinnati on Boston girls, who know every other girls.	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the honse, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The potentials the kettle black," the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me; "the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "Avaunt blackamoor." "the Germans," One ass nicknames another 'Longeass; "The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;'" and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw." The Turk, "He that falls into the sea takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a familiar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed." "Out of the frying-pan into the fife," is rendered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest." "Cut off the nose to spite the lace," inda different rendering in "Wanting to make right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes." "He who dances must pay the fiddler," has an equivalent in "Wine and roast, rea, rescount and bills; woo, woe!" There is much condensed wit and wis dom in some of these proverbal saying	Stokes spent $7,000° on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sued Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josic Mansfield has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Barabout that matter of jilting her daug in the said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic Mishop of Baltimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induce the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. Lit is said that Brick Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnalism in New York. Cot Charence Prestice, only so the late George D. is a lumber deal Kenturky, His father thought he wou a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origin was as belan as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commenced musical career as a street singer.
their houses, most provided and ratifline water and the provided and ratifline water and the provided and their season in their season and another actions in their season and thrown far, way that water is some and thrown far, way the water in the air. All bulleyer the day had come and the east conservation accident, it was no boller explosion; on the east end of the vittings the later was blown up. This water the datory was blown up. This water the later was the later and it premains onceivable, that from the blow up of so that happened there nobody can tell see who could give information. Dr. puman, a chemist from England, and three helpmates have perished; in dired of pieces and spread all around reposes any includent masses, only piece was recognized and one hand, the was thrown 100 paces towards the rof the factory. A small box, constitution of the solid laboratory, there is not a select; even the foundation was force. The traces of this mysterious and movem power, are of a truly incredible stones were thrown through thick in the layers and own a far distance. A wagon loaded he mill wood was standing opposite the oratory. The teamster had entered a gon and horses were thrown across the et and went to pieces on the wall of the laboratory. Persons standing close to	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the sycenac cutter Mocassin, made one jump from the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beat office. C., with the American flag in his ceth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's property were intensely pained by the public fon of Ward Lamon's book. Robert of the attempted to buy up the whole collision, and failing in thiat, went to English attempted to buy up the whole collision, and failing in thiat, went to English attempted to buy up the whole collision, and failing in this, went to English attempted to buy up the whole collision, and failing in the first sense that the incountry stories about his father and remaindather were exciting the first sense thou. —Mr. F. Flake, of Galveston, Texas who died recently in New London, Connecticut, was born in Germany. During the last twenty years of his life he lived in Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspicuous position during the war by its afterence to the Union cause. At the finite of his death he was on his way to Europe. —Mr. Duisenberg, the German cousul at San Francisco, has just received a fin painting, the portains of their malestic Kaiser William and his frau. It is accompanied by an autograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attributions during the late struggle of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me. Friday, at the advanced age of ninety-signy years. Mr. Thatcher was born in Concord, Mass., in 1776, graduated at Har vard University in 1792, was made a Mason in 1798, and was elected to Congress in 1892. At the time of his death he was the oldest Mason in the United States. —The nead sunnly of bathing accident.	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hait storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walmits, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $5 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and boy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party there, which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Abbion to the Re publican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of ritrific under five hundred dollars a head. The Episcopal church in Virginic where Washingbon and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ky.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bush Greek and wanted to enlist he Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunt teers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Danbury, Cona., who played and sang before his swettheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights, was electrified after a short rest by a cordial "thank you." gracefully promounced by the "other fellow," who appeared at the window. —At the grave of a wealthy and distinguished citizen of Vienna presently two	What lady is used to war? Millist Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world- A woman's. "Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten woil away, it is said. But love matched don't always keep the wolf from the don't always keep the wolf from the don't always keep the wolf from the shoeins whill whill will agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him than of anybody clse in the world—and so does he. An irritable man who was disappoint and in his boots threatened to eat up the shoeinsker, but compromised hy drinking a cobbler. "Henrietta," said a landlady to her new girl, "when there's bad news particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. Proper-minded Beadle be Forward young Man—'Come, young gent your not wanted in here. There's a wedding coming off." Forward Young Man to Proper-Minded Beadle—'Well, I don't know that, either	Peter Sward dramater of the seventh regiment at Saratoga. When drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York Commercial Advertiser. An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dezen engaged ments, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several! Now!" she exclaimed opening her big brown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city?" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they never take up town—girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on Twenty third street—weet on sentimental girls, who dote on the Fifth a venue theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "And some of them have girls on the string 's way up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street, Twenty-third street and Central Park stris never see each other, and so they are all right. They all I like Cincinnal of Boston girls, who know every other girls town, and who trip a fellow up if he look's at any body clese."	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the honse, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The potentials the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;" the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, 'Avaunt blackamoor,'" the Germans, "One ass nicknames another Longears;" The Catalians, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;' and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin saya, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw; The Turk, "He that falls into the sea-takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the Shoru lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the mouth," is a faunitiar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed." "Out of the frying pan into the fire." is rendered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest." "Cut off the nose to spite the face," finds a different rendering in. Wanting to make right the cychrow, pull out the cycs." "He who dances must pay the fiddler, has an equivalent in "Wine and roast, res, rescount and bills; woe, woe!" There is much condensed wit and was equivalent in "Wine and roast, res, rescount and bills; woe, woe!"	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont & Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josic Mansfeld has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maris of Russia written angrily to the King of Barabout that matter of jilling her daug —It is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic A bishop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induce the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. It is said that Brick Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnalism is New York. Col. Clarence Prentice, only so the late George D. is a lumber deal Kentucky. His father thought he wot a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origin was at being as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commenced musical career as a street singer. A late biography of Dr. Mary W. asserts that she spent her Youthful days a server shouthful days asserts that she spent her Youthful days.
their houses, most provided and restline water and the provided and restline water and the second and the second institution in their secies and thrown far, was institution, and the second institution in their secies and thrown far, was institution, and the second institution of the second in th	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the revenue cutter Mocassin, made one jumpings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a commonder. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Bean coff. S. C., with the American flag in his ceth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's state were intensely pained by the public confederates attempted to buy up the whole common and failing in that, went to English attempted to buy up the whole common and failing in that, went to English attempted to be out of the way, when he incourtly stories about his father and residenter were exciting the first sense thou. —Mr. F. Flake, of Galyeston, Texas who died recently in New London, Connecticut, was born in Germany. During the last twenty years of his life he lived in Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspication position during the war by its aftherence to the Union cause. At the time of his death he was on his way to Europe. —Mr. Duisenberg, the German cousul at San Francisco, has just received a fin painting the portraits of their malestic Kaiser-William and his frau. It is accompanied by an autograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attributions during the late struggle of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me. Friday, at the advanced age of ninety-signers, Mr. Thatcher was born in Concord, Mass., in 1776, graduated at Harvard and the inversity in 1792, was made a Masor in 1798, and was elected to Congress in 1802. At the time of his death he was the oldest Mason in the United States. —The usual supply of bathing accident is kept up. On Friday a boating party of four men were upset in the Delaware, nea	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hait storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walmts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published tately gave notice that he intended to spend $50 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one" of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there, which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Albion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and bach again, and all for the moderate sum of a trifle under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginishe where Washington and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1.500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ky.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bush Greek and wanted to enlist in Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Danbury, Conn., who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights. Was electrified after a short rest by a condial "thank you," gracefully propounced by the "other fellow," who appeared at the window. —At the grave of a wealthy and distinguished citizen of Vienna, recently, two ladies, each claiming to be the wildow of the deceased, met by accident, each having to be the didden, and having ladies, each claiming to be the wildow of the deceased, met by accident, each having	What lady is used to war? Millist Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annis Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennis Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world. A woman's. Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peoria deutist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten wolf away, it is said. But love matched door. Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies a chools. Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else in the world—and so does he. An irritable man who was disappoint ed in his boots threatened to eat up the shoemaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler. Henrietta, said a landlady to her new girl, when there's bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. Proper minded Beadle be Forward Young Man—Come, young gent you're not wanted in here. There's a wedding coming off. Forward Young Man to Proper Minded Beadle—"Well, I don't know that, either if you don't let me in, for I'm the bride groom.	Peter Sar drank six gas and magent started home on horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his let ter to the New York. Commercial Advertiser. An isnocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several! Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city!" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they never take up town—girls that they never take up town—girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Yes." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on Twenty third street—aweet on sentimental girls, who dote on the Fifth are not theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." And some of them have girls 'on the string' tway up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and fides on the park. These Eleventh street, Twenty third street and Central, Park stris never see each other, and so they are all right. They all'il like Cincinnation Boston girls, who know every other girls town, and who trip a fellow up if he looks at anybody else." "Alas said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New as she with the dear, innocent girls in New as she with the dear, innocent girls in New as she with the dear, innocent girls in New as she with the dear, innocent girls in New as she with the dear, innocent girls in New as she with the dear, innocent girls in New as she with the dear, innocent girls in New as she with the dear, innocent girls in New as she with the dear, innocent girls in New as she with the dear, innocent girls in New as she with the dear, innocent girls in New as she with the dear, innocent girls in New as	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the honse, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The policalis the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;'" the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "Ayaunt blackamoor." The Germans, "One ass nicknames another 'Longeass;" The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;'" and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says. "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say. "The drowning man catches at a straw." The Turk, "He that falls into the sea takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the Shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a faunitiar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed?" "God of the frying pan into the fire." is rendered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest." "Cut of the nose to spite the lace," finds a different rendering in "Wanting to make right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes." "He who dances must pay the fiddler," has an equivalent in "Wine and roast, res, rescount and bills; woo, woe!" There is much condensed wit and wis adom in some of these proverbial sayings. The unwelcomeness of truth is thus wit tilly suggested: "He that speaks truth must have one leg in the stirrup." And how true is this: "Every fish that escape	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sued Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josie Mansfield has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maris of Russia written angrily to the King of Bar about that matter of jilting her daug is trying to induce the Carr of Russia buy more of his guns. Hi is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic A bishop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induce the Car of Russia buy more of his guns. Hi is said that Brick Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnalism in New York. Got Charence Prentice, only so the late George D. Is a lumber deal Kentucky. His father thought he would a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origia was as being as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commenced musical career as a street singer. A late biography of Dr. Mary W. asserts that she spent her youthful da making cathartic pills in Breckinridg Kentucky. The brother of the King of Por their houses, a compared and restling water and restling water and the second and restling water and second and restling and their seas and thrown far, water their seasons in rains. After the first consequence of over, people looked after the cause of accident, it was no boiler explosions on the east end of the wilding. It can be accident, it was no boiler explosions on the east end of the wilding the large of their seasons of the east end of the wilding is feet square, and it remains once who later the blow up of so ill a building, such a terrible explosion in arts of the village. In a building, such a terrible explosion densue, and cause such destruction in parts of the village. In the property of the information for the theorem of the information for the who could give information. For a pure, a chemist from England, and three helpmates have perished; in dired of pieces and spread all around reposes lay in indiscernable masses, only piece was recognized and one hand, the was thrown 100 paces towards the rof the factory. A small box, constitute the factory. A small box, constitute the solid laboratory, there is not a kelt; even the foundation was form the ground with indiscribable force. The traces of this inviscrious and more power, are of a truly incredible is of buildings both near by and ant and even into the midst of the discovery building, even rails 450 ght were torn, from the layers and own a far distance. A wagon loaded he mill wood was standing opposite the reatory. The teamster had entered a son when the explosion took place on the wall of laboratory. Persons standing close to imposite the rest buildings were swept off far away, le others who were more remote were y thrown down senseless.	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the systems cutter Mocassin, made one jumptons, the rank of a common seaman to that of a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off least of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's proceed of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's proceed of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's proceed of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's proceed of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's proceed of the colors of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's proceed of the colors of the	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hait storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walmits, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $\frac{3}{2} for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there which he proposes to plot from the shores of Albion to the Re publican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of a trifle under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginit where Washington and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1.500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ry.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bush Greek and wanted to entist he Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Danbury, Conn., who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for twee hours on one of those recent hot nights was electrified after a short rest by a condiative each claiming to be the wildow. —At the grave of a wealthy and distinguished citizen of Vienna, recently, two ladies, each claiming to be the wildow of the deceased, met by accident, each having come to decorate the grave with flowers and other emblems of affectionate rememination of the content of th	What lady is used to war? Millistrary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world- A woman's. "Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten world away, it is said. But love matched don't always keep the wolf from the door. Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly undt for young ladies schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else in the world—and so does he. An irritable man who was disappoint ed in his boots threatened to eat up the sheemaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler. Henrietta," said a landlady to her new girl, "when there's bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. Proper minded Beadle to Forward Young Man—"Come, young gent your emot wanted in here. There's a weading coming off. Forward Young Man to Proper Minted Beadle—"Well, I don't know that, either if you don't let me in, for I'm the bride groom. (Collapse of P. M. B.) A man endeavored to find out the age.	Peter Swand dramater and home desired home on horseback, a off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York Commercial Adversion. An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service been in many engagements. I took her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city!" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they never take up town—girls that they never take up town—girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Yes." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on the string is well of them have girls on the string is way up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." "And some of them have girls on the string 's way up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street, Twenty-third street and Central Park stris never see each other, and so they are all right. They aln't like Cincinnail on Boston girls, who know every other girlitown, and who trip a fellow up if he looks at anybody clse." "Alas "said my young lady friend with a sigh," the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published—it." "Ala "were." I province "I'm the lass "and the published—it." "Ala "were." I province "I'm the lass "and the published—it."	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of heart and in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The potentials the kettle black," the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;" the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "Avaunt blackamoor," the Germans, "One ass nicknames another Longears;" The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;' and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw," The Turk, "He that falls into the sea-takes hold of the serpent to be saved," "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God," "Never look a gift horse in the mouth," is a familiar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed." "Out of the frying-pan into the fire," is rendered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempost." "Cut off the nose to spite the face," finds a city that of the proverbal sayings the unwelcomences of truth is thus with the sure and roast, rea, res, count and bills; we, wore." There is much condensed wit and wis dom in some of these proverbal sayings. The unwelcomences of truth is thus with the truth is thus with a sure appears greater than it really is." Many will agree with the Turk that pov	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has aned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New i journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josic Manafeld has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maris of Russia written angrily to the King of Basout that matter of jilling her daug is trying to induge the Czar of Russia bout that matter of jilling her daug is trying to induge the Czar of Russia bout has been an ender Catholic I bishop of Battumore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induge the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. Li is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic I bishop of Battumore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induge the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. Li is said that Brick Pomercy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnatism in New York. Cot Charence Prentice, only so the late George D. is a lumber dea Kenturky. His father thought he wot a Prentice him to bis own trade. Peschka Leutner's origin was a beian as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commence musical career as a street singer. A late biography of Dr. Mary W. asserts that she spent her youthful da making catharite pills in Brecklindid Kentucky. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the compose a greently made his appearance as a street stars.
their houses, most provided and ratifling water and ratifling water and feel that heaps and mental actions in their seats and thrown far, water inst waits. All sorts of auditing many many and mental actions and the control of the sound inst waits. All sorts of auditing many many and mental actions and the control of the sound in the last consequent of actions. After the first consequent of actions, it was no boiler explosions on the east end of the vittings the last control of the sound actions. After the first consequent of actions, it was no boiler explosions on the east end of the vittings the last control of the sound actions. After the first consequent of the sound in the blow up of so the sound in the blow up of so the sound give information. For the sound give information. For the many a chemist from England, and three helpmates have perished; in other of the factory. A small box, constitution of the factory. A small box, constitution in the ground with indiscribable force, the factory are of a truly incredible and help the sound in the ground with indiscribable force, the factory building, even and and buildings both near by and and factory buildings both near by and and so buildings both near by and and any after distance. A wagon loaded he mail wood was standing opposite the pratory. The teamster had entered a company of the teamster had entered a company. Persons standing opposite the pratory. The teamster had entered a company of the teamster had entered a control of any other way as about 30 feet distance, the next building was about 30 feet distance, and one hand, on many other buildings the roofs are carried of, and more of less damage	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the revenue cutter Mocassin, made one jumptings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a commonder. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Bean gart, S. C., with the American flag in his ceth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's state were intensely pained by the public from of Ward Lamon's book. Robertill at a stempted to buy up the whole chicon, and failing in that, went to Engipe in order to be out of the way, when the uncourtly stories about his father and grandfather were exciting the first sense thou. Mr. F. Flake, of Galyeston, Texas who died recently in New London, Connecticut, was born in Germany. During the last twenty years of his life he lived in Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspicuous position during the war by its afherence to the Union cause. At the time of his death he was on his way to Europe. Mr. Duisenberg, the German cousul at San Francisco, has just received a fine painting, the portraits of their majestic Kaiser William and his frau. It is accompanied by an autograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attributions during the late struggle of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me. Friday, at the advanced age of ninety sinyears. Mr. Thatcher was born in Concord, Mass. in 1776, graduated at Har vard University in 1792, was made a Mason in 1798, and was elected to Congress it 1892. At the time of his death he was the oldest graduate of Harvard and the	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walnuts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $56 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffale hunting party, there, which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Albion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and badagain, and all for the moderate sum of trific under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginis where Washington and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten its ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ky) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last weekens Bush Greek and wanted to enlist. In Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Danbury, Conn., who played and sang before his swettheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights was electrified after a short rest by a cordial "thank you." gracefully propounced by the "other fellow!" who appeared at the window. —At the grave of a wealthy and distinguished citizen of Vienna, recently, two ladies, each claiming to be the wildow of the deceased, met by accident, each having come to decorate the grave with flowers and other emblems of affectionate remembrance. The result was that the people were obliged to interfere to keep the	What lady is used to war? Millist Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world-A woman's. Still Life. The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten woil away, it is said. But love matched door. Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unat for young ladies schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else in the world—and so doe he. An irritable man who was disappoint ted in his boots threatened to eat up the shoemaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler. Henrietta, said a landlady to her new girl, when there's bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before diuner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. Proper minded Beadle be Forward Young Man Come, young gents, you're not wanted in here. There's a weathing for a horse by counting his teeth. Those in couldn't see to count, he felt of. He eouldn't see to count, he felt of. He	Peter Swand dramater and home on horseback, a off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York Commercial Adversion of the New York Commercial Adversion. An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I took her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city!" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they never take up town—girls that they never take up town—girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty. Niblo's and Wallacks." "Yes." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on Twenty third street—sweet on sentimental girls, who dote on the Fifth avenue theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." "And some of them have girls 'on the string' kway up by the park girls won delight in Thomas's garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street, Twenty-third street and Central Park stris never see each other, and so they are all right. They all I like Cincinnation Boston girls, who know every other girl in town, and who trip a fellow up if he looks at anybody clse." "Alas "said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published—tim." "Str. never." I replied. "I'm the last one to go back on our New York boys."	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hair, as well as the buying and selling of hair, as well as the buying and selling of hair, as well as the buying and selling of hair, as well as the buying and selling of hair, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the honse, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The policilist he kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me; "the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "Avaunt blackamoor," the Germans, "One ass nicknames another 'Longeass;" The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;" and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says. "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." "We say. "The drowning man catches at a straw." The drowning man catches at a straw." The Turk, "He that falls into the sea takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the Shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a fauntitar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed?" "Gut of the frying pan into the fire." Is rendered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest." "Cut off the nose to spite the lace," finds a different rendering in "Wanting to make right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes." "He who dances must pay the fiddler," has an equivalent in "Wine and roast, res, rescount and bills; woe, woe!" There is much condensed wit and wis adom in some of these proverbial sayings. The unwelcomeness of truth is thus wit tily suggeste	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sued Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josie Mansfield has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maris of Russia written angrily to the King of Barabout that matter of jilting her dang is trying to induce the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. It is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic Abishop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induce the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. It is said that Brick Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnalism in New York. Cot Clarence Prentice, only so the late George D. Is a lumber deal Kentucky. His father thought he would a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origin was as being as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commenced musical career as a street singer. A late biography of Dr. Mary W. asserts that she spent her youthful damaking cathartic pills in Breckinridg Kentucky. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the composer greently made his appellation as an entered at an entertainment give Paris by M. There.
their houses, a fear with and and randing wall and randing wall and and randing wall and and refer that heaps and mental and a fear wall and they have and thrown far, was that walls. All sorts of building mans, at timber, atome and thrown far, was the fear and thrown far, was the fear and thrown far, was town far in the air. All building mans, and the air. All building was over, people looked after the cause of accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the vittings the large of the cause of the cause of accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the vittings the large of the cause of the cause of accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the vittings the large of the cause of the cause of the suiting the large of the cause of the suiting the proposition on the east end of the blow up of so that happened there nobody can tell, see who could give information. Dr. the suiting the cause of the information of the was thrown 100 paces towards the of the factory. A small box, contained the cause of the four unfortunate of the solid laboratory, there is not a callet; even the foundation was former the ground with indiscribable force. The traces of this mysterious and mover proposed and even into the midst of the datory buildings both near by and and the factory buildings both near by and and the factory buildings both near by and and the even into the midst of the datory buildings both near by and and the factory. The teamster had entered to one when the explosion took place, gon and horses were thrown across the ext and went to pieces on the wall of laboratory. Persons standing close to hip buildings were swept off far away; the others who were more remote were y thrown down senseless. The next building was about 20 feet distand, on many other buildings the roofs or carried of, and more of less damage a done to every house. In the village, Chapman, the chemist, employed by	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the sycene cutter Mocassin, made one jumptings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau off to a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau off to a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau off to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's state and the confederates of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's said that a state of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's said that a state of the confederates of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's said that a state of the confederate of the confederate of the way, when he incourtly stories about his father and resident her were exciting the first easier of the incourt of the way, when he is incourable to be out of the way, when he is a twenty years of his life he lived it Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspicuous position during the war by its adherence to the Union cause. At the sime of his death he was on his way to Europe. Mr. Duisenberg, the German cousul at San Francisco, has just received a fine painting the portraits of their malestic Kaiser-William and his frau. It is account a stributions during the letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attributions during the late struggle of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me. Friday, at the advanced age of ninety siy years. Mr. Thatcher was born in Concord, Mass., in 1776, graduated at Har vard University in 1792, was made a Masouri in 1798, and was elected to Congress in 1802. At the time of his death he was the oldest graduate of Harvard and the oldest Mason in the United States. —The usual supply of bathing accident is kept up. On Friday a boating party of four men were upset in the Delaware,	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hait storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walmits, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $50 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one" of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—bettee keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there, which he proploses to pilot from the shores of Albion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of a trifle under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginishe where Washington and other distinguishes men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1.500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ky.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last weel from Bush Greek and wanted to enlist in Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion. They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young love living in Danbury, Conn., who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights was electrified after a short, rest by a condial "thank you," gracefully pronounced by the "other fellow," who appeared at the window. —At the grave of a wealthy and distinguished citizen of Vienna, recently, two ladies, each claiming to be the wildow of the deceased, met by accident, each having come to decorate the grave with flowers and other emblems of affectionate remembrance. The result was that the people were obliged to interfere to keep the peace. —An inv	What lady is used to war? Millist Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world-A woman's. Still Life. The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten a woil away, it is said. But love matched door. Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unat for young ladies schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else in the world—and so does he. An irritable man who was disappoint ted in his boots threatened to eat up the shoemaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler. Henrietta, said a landlady to her new girl, when there's bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before diuner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. Proper minded Beadle be Forward Young Man "Come, young gents, you're not wanted in here. There's a weathing first the course of a year. Forward Young Man to Proper Minded Beadle—"Well, I don't know that, either if you don't tet me in, for I'm the bride groom." (Collapse of P. M. B.) —A man endeavoret to find out the age of a horse by counting his teeth. Those she couldn't see to count, he felt of. He told the doeser who sewed up his hand that this was a hard world for a laboring man.	Peter Swand dramater and the string below are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Yes." "Now, some of them are sweet on girls on the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the area of the street. The some of them have girls on the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the area of the street. The some of them have girls on the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the area of the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the area of the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the area of the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the area of the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the area of the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the area of the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the area of the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the area of the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the area of the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the string is who dote on the Fifth are not the string is who dote on the fifth are not the string is who dote on the fifth are not the string is who dote on the fifth are not the string is who dote on the string is who who we very other girling town, and who trip a fellow up if he looks at anybody clse." "Alas "said my young lady friend with a sigh." the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published—it." "Str. never." I replied. "I'm the last one to go back on our New York boys."	reveals the oriental prejudice against ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the honse, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The potentials the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;" the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, 'Avaunt blackamoor,'" the Germans, "One ass nicknames another Lougears;" The Catalaus, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;' and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw;" The Turk, "He that falls into the sea-takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a faunitiar saying; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a faunitiar saying; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made the fire." is rendered by the reverse figure. "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempers." "Cut off the nose to spite the face," finds a different rendering in "Wanting to make right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes." "He who dances must pay the fiddler," has an equivalent in "Wine and roast, rea, rescount and bills, woe, woe!" There is much condensed wit and wis thit to fire. Here is a slight hit as the third of the condenses of truth is thus with	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristot, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josic Mansfeld has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maris of Russia written angrily to the King of Bawritten angrily to the King of Porwal as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commenced musical career as a street singer. A late biography of Dr. Mary W. asserts that she spent her youthful da making eathartic pills in Breckinridg Kentucky. The brother of the King of Porwas a pupil of Rossini, the composer, recently made his appearance at an entertainment give Paris by M. There. The house of Ralph Waldo Eme in Concord, Mass. was burned We their houses, most provided and restline water and the state of the spin accident, it was no boiler explosions on the east end of the village, the state of the spin accident, it was no boiler explosions on the east end of the village the interest of the spin accident, it was no boiler explosions on the east end of the village, on the east end of the village the interest of the spin accident, it was no boiler explosions on the east end of the village the interest of the spin and it remarks onceivable, that from the blow up of so ill a building, such a terrible explosion of the spin and three helpmates have perished; in parts of the village. The hones and spread and one hand, the was thrown 100 paces towards the rof the factory. A small box, constitute the spin and with indiscribable force, the traces of this mysterious and move left; even the foundation was form the ground with indiscribable force, the traces of this mysterious and move the spin and even into the midst of the factory buildings both near by and and, and even into the midst of the factory buildings both near by and such and even into the midst of the factory buildings both near by and and, and even into the midst of the factory buildings both near by and such and even into the midst of the factory. The teamster had entered a son when the explosion took place, gon and horses were thrown about 20 feet disting buildings were swept of far away, it of the others who were more remote were y thrown down senseless. The next building was about 20 feet disting buildings were swept of far away, it of others who were more remote were y thrown down senseless. The next building was about 20 feet disting buildings were swept of far away, it of the man, of many other buildings to the extract of and more of less damage of contract of and more of less damage of the contract of and more	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the revenue cutter Mocassin, made one jumptings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a commonder. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau gift, S. C., with the American flag in his ceth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's state were intensely pained by the public of Ward Lamon's book. Robertile attempted to buy up the whole cition, and failing in that, went to Engrape to order to be out of the way, when he incourtly stories about his father and grasidather were exciting the first sense thou. —Mr. F. Flake, of Galyeston, Texas who died recently in New London, Connecticut, was born in Germany. During the last twenty years of his life he lived in Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspication position during the war by its adherence to the Union cause. At the pine of his death he was on his way to Burope. —Mr. Duisenberg, the German cousul at San Francisco, has just received a fine painting the portraits of their anglestic Kaiser-William and his frau. It is accompanied by an antograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attributions during the late struggle of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me. Friday, at the advanced age of ninety-sityears. Mr. Thatcher was born in Concord, Mass., in 1776, graduated at Har vard thriversity in 1792, was mades Mason in 1793, and was elected to Congress in 1892. At the time of his death he was the oldest Mason in the United States. —The usual supply of bathing accidents is kept up. On Friday a boating party of four men, were upset in the Delaware, nea Tacony. Harry Bowman, reporter of the Sunday North Zone, and late editor of the North Philadelphia Monitor, was drowned The same day Wm. H. West, of Philadelphia, connected with the naval academy a Annapolis, was drowned while bathing a Cape May. —A writer in a Phi	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walnuts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 houses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $56 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there, which he proposes to pliot from the shores of Albion to khe Republican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of strifle under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginia where Washingbon and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected the New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. —The Lebanon (Ky.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bush Greek and wanted so enlist he Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Daubury, Conn., who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights. Was electrified after a short rest by a condition of the deceased, met by accident, each having come to decorate the grave with flowers and other embleins of affectionate remembrance. The result was that the people were obliged to interfere to keep the peace. —An ingenius apparatus has been in vented by a French playsician, by which the heart is made to-register photographic.	What lady is used to war? Millist Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world. A woman's. Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peoria dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten world away, it is said. But love matched don't always keep the wolf from the door. Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly on one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else in the world—and so doe he. An irritable man who was disappoint anybody else in the world—and so doe he. Henrietta, said a landlady to he new girl, "when there's bad news particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. Proper minded Beadle to Forward young Man—Come, young gent you're not wanted in here. Thère's a wealding coming off. Forward Young Man to Proper Minded Beadle—"Well, I don't know that, either if you don't let me in, for I'm the bride groom. (Collapse of P. M. B.) —A man endeavored to find out the age of a horse by counting his teeth. Those he couldn't see to count, he felt of. He told the doctor who sewed up his ham that this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey," said one freeding in another, "dis child has tried lots ob gif	Peter Surant dramaters of the string Large city? "Yes." "Now, some of them are sweet on girls are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they never take up town, and who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and right. They alm't like Cincinnail. "Yes." "And some of them have girls 'on the string 'Lway up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and right. They alm't like Cincinnail. They alm't like Cincinnail one to go back on our New York part of the park and who trip a fellow up if he work, and who trip a fellow up if he string 'Lway up to the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and right. They alm't like Cincinnail one book at anybody else." "Alas Said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York open house." "Alas Said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York on the String 'Lway up to the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street and Central Park striss never see each other, and so they are all right. They alm't like Cincinnail one bound in the way and who trip a fellow up if he looks at anybody else." "Alas Said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published—it." "Alas Said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published—it." "Alas Said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published—it." "Alas Said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know the piste to the Corin this in which he weaks of himself at the piste to the Corin this in which he weaks of himself at the piste to the Corin this in which he weaks of himself at the piste to the Corin this in which he weaks of himself at the piste to the Corin this in the piste to the Corin this in the piste to the Corin this piste to the Corin this p	reveals the oriental prejudice against ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Bo not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: "You have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences have of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The pot calls the kettle black," the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me; "the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "A yaunt blackamoor." "the Germans, "One ass nicknames another "Longears;" The Catalans, "Death, said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;" and here we find the Turks saying; "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say. "The drowning man catches at a straw." The Turk, "He that falls into the sea takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," said Sterne: the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a faunitiar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed." "Out of the frying pan intended to the fire," is rendered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest." "Cut off the nose to spite the face," finds a right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes," "He who dances must pay the fiddler," has an equivalent in "Wine and roast, res, year count and bills; woe, woe!" There is much condensed wit and wis single his more force than it really is." Ann how true is this: "Every fish that escapes appears greater than it really is." And how true is this: "Every fish that e	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphit trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josic Mansfield has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Barabout that matter of jilting her daug it is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic Abishop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induge the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. It is said that Brick Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnalism in New York. Got Charner Prentice, only so the late George D. Is a lumber deal Kentucky. His father thought he would a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origin was as being a that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commence masical career as a street singer. A late biography of Dr. Mary W. asserts that she spent her youthful da making cathartic pills in Breckinridg Kentucky. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the composer, recently made his appearance as an tent concerd, Mass, was burned We day morning. Loss, $5,000; insures a $3,000. The library and furniture $3,000. The library and furniture and ratifline walk-and delivery and ratifline walk-and spilled and ratifline walk-and delivery and spilled and the property of the spilled and thrown far, way that walks. All sorts of building masks, timber, astone and thrown far, way that walks. All sorts of building masks, timber, astone and thrown far, way that he first conserved the day had come and the care was look in rains. After the first conserved the day had come and the care was look accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the virings the later was blown up. This was presided accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the virings the later was blown up. This was presided accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the virings the later was blown up. This was presided accident, it was no boiler explosion, and the shelding, such a ferrible explosion in parts of the village. It is a building, such a ferrible explosion, and three helpmates have perished; in dred of pieces and spread all around reposes lay in indiscernable masses, only piece was recognized and one hand, ich was thrown 100 paces towards the rof the factory. A small box, consist the ones of the four unfortunate. Of the factory. A small box, consist the roses of this mysterious and mover present the foundation was form the ground with indiscribable force, the traces of this mysterious and mover, are of a truly incredible and, and even into the midst of the date were thrown through thick is of buildings both near by and own a far distance. A wagon loaded hmill wood was standing opposite the rotatory. The teamster had entered a son when the explosion took place, gon and horses were thrown across the ext and went to pieces on the wall of laboratory. Persons standing close to hip buildings were swept off far away; the others who were more remote were y thrown down senseless. The next building was about 30 feet distance of the sund, on many other buildings the roofs of carried of, and more of less damage a done to every honse in the village. Chapman,	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the sycene cutter Mocassin, made one jumptings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a common reaman to the color of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's reaman to preside the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's reaman of the color of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's reaman to the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's reaman of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's reaman to the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's reaman to the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's reaman to the color of the way, when he is an extended to be out of the way, when he is not continuous the last twenty years of his life he lived it galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspicuous position during the war by its adherence to the Union cause. At the time of his death he was on his way to Burope. Mr. Duisenberg, the German cousult state of his death he painting the portraits of their majestic Kaiser-William and his frau. It is accompanied by an autograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attributions during the late struggle of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me. Friday, at the advanced age of ninety-siyyears. Mr. Thatcher was born in Concord, Mass., in 1776, graduated at Harvard University in 1792, was made a Mason in 1793, and was elected to Congress in 1793, and	tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walnuts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $5 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and boy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffale hunting party there, which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Albion to khe Re publican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of strifle under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginis where Washingbon and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten its ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected its new York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. —The Lebanon (Ky.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bash Greek and wanted to enlist he Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Daubury, Cona, who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights; was electrified after a short, rest by a condist thank you." gracefully pronounced by the "other fellow!" who appeared at the window. —At the grave of a wealthy and distinguished citizen of Vienna, recently, two ladies, each claiming to be the widow of the deceased, met by accident, each having come to decorate the grave with flowers and other embleins of affectionate remembrance. The result was that the people were obliged to interfere to keep the peace. —An ingenius	What lady is used to war? Millist Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annist Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennis Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world. A woman's. Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. —A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. —To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. —A Peoria deutist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. —The light of a match will frighten wolf away, it is said. But love matched don't always keep the wolf from the door. —Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies schools. —Jones and his wife agree grandly of none point—she thinks more of him that of anybody clse in the world—and so does he. An irritable man who was disappoint ted in his boots threatened to eat up the shoemaker, but compromised hy drinking a cobbler. —Henrietta," said a landlady to her new givl, "when there's bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. —Proper minded Beadle be Forward Young Man—Come, young gent you're not wanted—in here. There's a wedding coming off. Forward Young Man to Proper Minded Beadle—Well, I don't know that, either if you don't let me in, for I'm the bride groom. (Collapse of P. M. B.) —A man endeavored to find out the age of a horse by counting his teeth. Those he couldn't see to count, he fett of. He told the doeser who sewed up his hand that this was a hard world for a laboring man. —"I say Pompey," said one freedman tenthat this was a hard world for a laboring man. —"I say Pompey," said one freedman tenthat this was a hard world for a laboring man. —"I say Pompey," said one freedman tenthat dins was a hard world for a laboring man. —"I say Pompey," said one freedman tenthat dins was a hard world for a laboring man.	Peter Sar drank six gas and drank six gas and agent started home on horseback as off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his let ter to the New York Commercial Advertiser. An innocent young lady asked me to-day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city?" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteinth street—to girls that they never take up town—girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, 'Niblo's and Wallacks." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on Twenty-third street—sweet on sentimental girls, who dote on the Fifth avenue theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." "And some of them have girls 'on the string' way up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street. Twenty-third street and Central Park girls never see each other, and so they are all right. They all I like Cincinnal on Boston girls, who know every other girls town, and who trip a fellow up if he looks at amybody else." "Alas said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published—tt—" "Sh! never "I replied "I'm the last one to go back on our New York boys." DID Paul Have a Wife?—It was an early question whether Paul was married of The passage in the epistle to the Corin Ihians, in which he speaks of himself as mencumbered with domestic cares, doe not record the path have not on the	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person, do not sell one either: "Jour have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences hare of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The post and the test black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me; "the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow," avaunt blackamoor." The Germans, "One ass nicknames another Longeass;" The Catalaus, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;'" and here we find the Turks saying; "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw;" The Turk, "He that falls into the sea-takes hold of the serpent to be saved," "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God," "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a familiar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed." "Out of the frying-pan into the fire, is rendered by the reverse figure." "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest." "Cut off the nose to spite the lace," finds a right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes." "He who dances must pay the fiddler," has an equivalent in "Winto and roast, rea, rescount and bills; woe, woe!" There is much condensed wit and wis appears greater than it really is." And how true is this: "Every fish that escape appears greater than it really is." And how true is this: "Every fish that escape appears great	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphit trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josic Mansfield has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Barabout that matter of jilling her daug it is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic Abishop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induce the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. It is said that Brick Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnalism in New York. Out that matter of jilling her dealer than the second that the state of the father thought he would burnalism in New York. Out that matter of jilling her dealer than the second that matter of a large treatment of the father a cigar vender, and she commence musical career as a street singer. A late biography of Dr. Mary W. asserts that she spent her youthful da making cathartic pills in Breckinridg Kentucky. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the composer, excently made his appearance as an tent concern, was a pupil of Rossini, the composer, excently made his appearance as a street singer. The house of Ralph Walto Eme in Concord, Mass. was burned We day morning. Loss, $5,000; insure $3,000. The library and furniture in Concord, Mass. was burned We day morning. Loss, $5,000; insure $3,000. The library and furniture in Concord, Mass. was burned We day morning. Loss, $5,000; insure $3,000. The library and furniture of the king of the tore of doing not kins. weary-of the tore of doing not done to the composer.
their houses, a car with and restline water and restline water and the serious and me fell that heaps and attended to the serious attended to the serious and the serious attended to the serious and the serious attended the serious attended to the serious and the serious attended to the serious and the serious attended to the serious and the serious accident, it was no boiler explosious on the east end of the village the laratory was blown up. This was stalling in feet square, and it remains onceivable, that from the blow up of so all a building, such a terrible explosion of the serious and cause such destruction in parts of the village. The serious and three helpmates have perished; in the serious and three helpmates have perished; in the serious and spread and one hand, the was thrown 100 paces towards the rof the factory. A small box, constitution of pieces and spread and one hand, the was thrown 100 paces towards the rof the factory. A small box, constitution in the serious of this four unfortunate of the solid laboratory, there is not a select; even the foundation was form the ground with indiscribusis such more of the factory buildings both near by and such and even into the midst of the discrory buildings both near by and such and even into the midst of the control buildings were thrown through thick has of buildings both near by and such and cover a distance. A wagon loaded hmill wood was standing opposite the bottony. The teamster had entered a soon when the explosion took place, gon and horses were thrown across the set and went to pieces on the wall of laboratory. Persons standing close to his publicings were swept off far away; the others who were more remote were y thrown down senseless. The next building were swept off far away; and one of the far away; the others who were more remote were y thrown down senseless. The next building was about 20 feet disting the others who were more remote were y thrown down senseless. The next building was about 20 feet disting the others who were more remote were	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the revenue cutter Mocassin, made one jumptings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a common dealers in the rank of a common seaman to that of a common dealers. Set is said that President Lincoln's seam ashore the capture of the colored to be confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's sear were intensely pained by the public of the attempted to buy up the whole clipton, and failing in that, went to Engrape to order to be out of the way, when he incourtly stories about his father and residenter were exciting the first sense than the last twenty years of his life he lived in Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspication position during the war by its adherence to the Union cause. At the pine of his death he was on his way to Burope. Mr. Duisenberg, the German consul at San Francisco, has just received a fine painting the portraits of their anglestic Kaiser-William and his frau. It is accompanied by an antograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attributions during the late struggle of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me. Friday, at the advanced age of ninety-sit years. Mr. Thatcher was born in Concord, Mass., in 1776, graduated at Har vard University in 1792, was mades Mason in 1793, and was elected to Congress in 1892. At the time of his death he was the oldest Mason in the United States. —The usual supply of bathing accidents is kept up. On Friday a boating party of four men were upset in the Delaware, nea Tacony. Harry Bowman, reporter of the Sunday North Zone, and late editor of the North Philadelphia Monitor, was drowned The same day Wm. H. West, of Philadelphia, connected with the naval academy a deavors to remove the stain of immorality from the menory of Edgar A. Poe of the firm the menory of Edgar A. Poe of the from the menory of Edgar A. Poe of the from the menory of	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walmts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 houses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $50 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there, which he proposes to pliot from the shores of Albion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of strifle under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginia where Washingbon and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected the New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. —The Lebanon (Ky.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bush Greek and wanted so enlist in Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Daubury, Conn., who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights, was electrified after a short rest by a condition of the deceased, met by accident, each having come to decorate the grave with flowers and other embleins of affectionate remembrance. The result was that the people were obliged to interfere to keep the peace. —An ingenius: apparatus has been in vented by a French playsician, by which the heart is made to-register photographically its own prisations. Such, it is said in the modified so as to register the variation of t	What lady is used to war? Millist Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annie Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world-A woman's. "Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten woil away, it is said. But lore matched don't always keep the wolf from the door. Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unat for young ladies schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly on one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else in the world—and so doe he. An irritable man who was disappoint ted in his boots threatened to eat up the shoemaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler. Henrietta, said a landlady to her new girl, "when there's bad news particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. Proper minded Beadle be Forward Young Man—"Come, young gents, you're not wanted in here. There's a wending coming off." Forward Young Man to Proper Minded Beadle—"Well, I don't know that, either if you don't let me in, for I'm the bride groom." (Collapse of P. M. B.) —A man endeavored to find out the age of a horse by counting his teeth. Those he couldn't see to count, he felt of. He told the doctor who sewed up his hand that this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey," said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey," said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey," said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey," said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey of the private a hand	Peter Sward dramager started home on horseback, off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his let ter to the New York Commercial Advertiser. An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several! Now!" she exclaimed opening her big brown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city?" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteinth street—to girls that they nevertake up town—girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on Twenty third street—sweet on sentimental girls, who dote on the Fifth avenual regiments in Thomas's garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street, Twenty-third street and Central Park girls never see each other, and so they are all right. They all I like Cincinnal on Boston girls, who know every other girls never see each other, and so they are all right. They all I like Cincinnal on Boston girls, who know every other girls never see each other, and so they are all right. They all I like Cincinnal on Boston girls, who know every other girls never see each other, and so they are all right. They all I like Cincinnal on Boston girls, who know every other girls never see each other, and so they are all right. They all I like Cincinnal on Boston girls, who know every other girls own, and who trip a fellow up if he tooks at any body else." "Alas said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know theeleft Paul was married The passage in the epistle to the Corin thians, in which he speaks of himself as menerumbered with domestic cares, doe not precide the	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hair, as well as the buying and selling of hair, as well as the buying and selling of hair, as well as the buying and selling of hair, as well as the buying and selling of hair, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Bo not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the honse, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences hare of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The pole calls the kettle black," the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;'" the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "Avaunt blackamoor," the Germans, "One ass nicknames another Longeass;" The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;'" and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin saya, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw;" The Turk, "He that falls into the sea-takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the Short lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the mouth," is a faunitiar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed." "Got of the nose to spite the face, finds a different rendering in "Wanting to make right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes." "He who dances must pay the fiddler." has an equivalent in "Wine and roast, res, rescount and bills; woo, woe!" There is much condensed wit and wis shift of the nose to spite the face, finds a different rendering in "Wanting to make right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes." "He that speaks truth must have one leg in the stirrup." Anohow true is this: "Every fish that escape count and bills; woo,	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josie Mansfield has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Bar about that matter of jilting her dang that a matter of jilting her dang that he work a Prentice him to his own trade. Li is said that Brick Pomeroy 300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnarism in New York a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origin was at being as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commenced final as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commenced making cathartic pills in Breckinridg Kentucky. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the composer, percently made his appetrance at any teur tenor at any entertainment giver have been the or at any entertainment giver have been the form of the tore of doing not on l
their houses, a compared to the control of the cont	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the sycene cutter Mocassin, made one jumpings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau off to a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau off to a commander. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau off to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's state of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's said that the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's said that the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's said that the colors of	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hait storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walmis, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $5 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one" of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and boy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in Englandhau undertaken to get up a grand buffalchunting party there, which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Abbion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of a triffe under five hundred dollars a head. The Episcopal church in Virginia where Washington and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1.500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (K.y.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bush Greek and wanted to enlist he Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Daubury, Cona., who played and sang before his swettheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights. was electrified after a short rest by a cordial "thank you," gracefully propounced by the "other fellow," who appeared at the window. —At the grave of a wealthy and distinguished citizen to decorate the grave with flowers and other emblems of affectionate remembrance. The result was that the people were obliged to interfere to keep the peace. —An ingenius: apparatus has been in vented by a French physician, by which the heart is made to register the variation of other resp	What lady is used to war? Millist Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annis Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennis Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world-A woman's. Still Life. The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten a woil away, it is said. But love matched don't always keep the wolf from the door. Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unat for young ladies schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else in the world—and so doe he. An irritable man who was disappoint ted in his boots threatened to eat up the shoemaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler. Henrietta, said a landlady to her new girl, when there's bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before diuner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. Proper minded Beadle be Porward Young Man "Come, young gents, you're not wanted in here. There's a wealthing off. Forward Young Man to Proper Minded Beadle—"Well, I don't know that, either if you don't tet me in, for I'm the bride groom." (Collapse of P. M. B.) —A man endeavoret to find out the age of a horse by counting his teeth. Those she couldn't see to count, he felt of. He told the doctor who sewed up his hand that this was a hard world for a laboring man. —"I say Pompey," said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laboring man. —"I say Pompey," said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laboring man. —"I say Pompey," said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laboring man. —"I say Pompey of the heart of the dot one dat you could draw dat" A baby lately had the misfortune to wallow the con	Peter Swand dramater and home designs and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York Commercial Adversion of the New York Commercial Adversion. An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I took her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city!" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they never take up town—girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Yes." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on the string 's way up by the park—girls who deteen the Fifth arende theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." "And some of them have girls 'on the string's way up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street, Twenty-third street and Central Park girls merel girls, who know every other girls town, and who trip a fellow up if he looks at anybody clse." "Alas "said my young lady friend with a sigh." the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published—tte." DID Pach Have A Wife?—It was attearly question whether Paul was married. The passage in the epistle to the Corin inhans, in which he speaks of himself as true neumbered with domestic cares, does not preclude the notion that he might have been a widower—does not even prove more than that he went on his missionary jour neys afore. On the other hand, he speak of his assent to the death of Stephen, and of his commission from the Sanhedrim—than the went on his missionary jour neys note. On the other hand, he speak of his assent to the death of Stephen, and of his commission from th	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the honse, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences hare of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The potentials the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;" the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "Avaunt blackamoor." The Germans, "One ass nicknames another Longears;" The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;'" and here we find the Turks saying; "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw;" The Turk, "He that falls into the sea-takes hold of the serpent to be saved," "God tempers the wind to the shoru lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God," "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a familiar saying; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God," "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a familiar saying; the Turks have it, "Out of the frying-pan into the fire," is rendered by the reverse figure. "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempost." "Cut off the nose to spite the face," finds a different rendering in "Wanting to make right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes," "He who dances must pay the fiddler," has an equivalent in "Wine and roast, rea, res count and bills; 'The prayers that are forced to not penetrate into heaven." The chut is shirtlof fire. 'Hore is a slight hit as the liberality of some people	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has aned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New 1 journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josie Mansfeld has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Barbittone. The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Barbittone. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induce the Czar of Russia bishop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induce the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. His is said that Brick Pomercy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnalism is New York. Col. Cliarence Prentice, only so the late George D. is a lumber deal Kentucky. His father thought he wor a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Teutner's origin was a being as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commenced musical career as a street singer. A late biography of Dr. Mary W. asserts that she spent her youthful damaking eathartic pills in Breckinridg Kentucky. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the composer, recently made his appetrance as any teur tenor at an entertainment give Paris by M. Thers. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the composer, recently made his appetrance as any teur tenor at an entertainment give Paris by M. Thers. The brother of the tore of doing no on land, is about to resume the position principal old stat of the Cunaru line, take command of the Scotia.
their houses, a complete and restline water and restline water and the second and restline water and the second and the second and the second and the second accident, it was no boller explosion; on the east end of the vitting the large accident, it was no boller explosion; on the east end of the vitting the large accident, it was no boller explosion; on the east end of the vitting the large accident, it was no boller explosion; on the east end of the vitting the large accident, it was no boller explosion; on the east end of the vitting the large accident, it was no boller explosion; on the east end of the vitting the large accident, it was no boller explosion; on the east end of the vitting the large accident, it was no boller explosion; on the east end of the vitting the large and it from the blow up of so all a building, such a ferrible explosion in parts of the village. That happened there nobody can tell, see who could give information. Pr. spman, a chemist from England, and three helpmates have perished; in dired of pieces and spread all around it books lay in indiscernable masses, only piece was recognized and one hand, the was thrown 100 paces towards the of the books of the four unfortunate accident; even the foundation was form the ground with indiscribable force. The books of this mysterious and mover a fer distance. A wagon loaded the stones were thrown through thick its of buildings both near by and such and even into the midst of the distones were thrown though thick its of buildings both near by and such and even into the midst of the distance. A wagon loaded he mill wood was standing opposite the order. The teamster had entered a con when the explosion took place, gon and horses were thrown across the ext and went to pieces on the wall of laboratory. Persons standing close to high buildings were swept off far away; its others who were more remote were y thrown down senseless. The next building was about 30 feet distance of the self-particle in the practice eloped with her and, on many other bui	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the revenue cutter Mocassin, made one jumptings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a common deriver of the rank of a common deriver of the colors of the confederates. Let it said that President Lincoln's seam as the confederates. Let it said that President Lincoln's seam of the colors of the confederates. Let it said that President Lincoln's seam of the said that the colors of the confederates. Let it said that President Lincoln's seam of the colors of the confederates. Lincoln attempted to buy up the whole common of sailing in that, went to English attempted to be out of the way, when he incourtly stories about his father and resident was born in Germany. During the last twenty years of his life he lived in Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspication of the War by its afterence to the Union cause. At the time of his death he was on his way to Europe. Mr. Duisenberg, the German cousul at San Francisco, has just received a fin mainting the portraits of their majestic Kaiser William and his frau. It is accompanied by an antograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attributions during the late struggle of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me. Friday, at the advanced age of ninety-signers. Mr. Thatcher was born in Concord, Mass., in 1776, graduated at Harvard and his relative states of the property of the Sanday North Zone, and late editor of the North Philodelphia Monitor, was drowned The same day Wm. H. West, of Philadelphia, connected with the naval academy a Annapolis, was drowned while bathing a Cape May. —A writer in a Philadelphia paper en deavors to remove the stain of immorality from the memory of Edgar A. Power of the Sanday North Zone, and late editor of the North Philodelphia Monitor, was drowned by a disappointment in one of his friendship, ho	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hait storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walmts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published tately gave notice that he intended to spend $50 for a "new head" for his paper. The next day one" of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—bettee keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there, which he proploses to pilot from the shores of Albion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of a trifle under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginishe men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ky.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bush Greek and wanted to enlist in Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion. They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young love living in Daubury, Conn., who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights was electrified after a short, rest by a condial "thank you," gracefully pronounced by the "other fellow," who appeared at the window. —At the grave of a wenlthy and distinguished citizen of Vienna, recently, two is disease, each claiming to be the wildow of the deceased, met by accident, each having come to decorate the grave with flowers and other embleths of affectionate remembrance. The result was that the people were obliged to interfere to keep the peace. —An ingenius apparatus has been in vented b	What lady is used to war? Millist Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annis Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennis Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world. A woman's. Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peoria deutist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten wolf away, it is said. But love matched don't always keep the wolf from the door. Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else in the world—and so does he. An irritable man who was disappoint ed in his boots threatened to eat up the shoemaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler. Henrietta, said a landlady to hen new girl, when there's bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. Proper minded Beadle be Forward Young Man—Come, young gent you're not wanted—in here. There's a weathing coming off. Forward Young Man to Proper Minded Beadle—"Well, I don't know that, either if you don't let me in, for I'm the bride groom. (Collapse of P. M. B.) —A man endeavored to find out the age of a horse by counting his teeth. Those she could draw dat when the young anything at all. "I say Pompey," said one freedman tental this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey," said one freedman tental this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey," said one freedman tental this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey," said one freedman tental this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey," said one freedman tental this was a hard world for a laboring man. "A baby lately had th	Peter Swar drank six gas and drank six gas and drank six gas and and broke his neck and is now burfed. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his let ter to the New York Commercial Advertiser. An innocent young lady asked me to-day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen services been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several! Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city?" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, 'Niblo's and Wallacks." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on Twenty third street awest on santimental girls, who dote on the Fifth avenue theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." "And some of them have girls 'on the string' away up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's, garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street. Twenty-third street and Central Park girls never see each other, and so they are all right. They aln't like Cincinnation Boston girls, who know every other girls town, and who trip a fellow up if he looks at anybody clse." "Alas "said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to knew this—it ought to be published—it—" "Shi never "I replied, "I'm the last one to go back on our New York boys." DID Pach Have a Wiff ?—It was at early question whether Paul was married. The passage in the epistle to the Corin lihan that he went on his missionary jour neys afone. On the other hand, he speak of himself at unencumbered with domestic cares, does not preclude the notion that he might have been a widower—does not even prove mor than that he went on his missionary jour neys afone. On the other hand, h	reveals the oriental prejudice against fed hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Bo not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences hare of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The poun says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;'" the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "Avaunt blackamoor." The Germans, "One ass nicknames another "Longears;" The Catalans, "Death, said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;'" and here we find the Turks saying; "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says. "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say. "The drowning man catches at a straw." The Turk, "He that falls into the sea takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," said Sterne: the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a faunitiar saying; the Turks have it, in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed." "Got of the nose to spite the face," fluds a different rendering in "Wanting to make right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes." "He who dances must pay the fiddler," has an equivalent in "Wine and roast, rea, reacount and bills; woe, woe!" There is much condensed wit and wis subtle a truth, is conveyed in this: "The chut must have one leg in the stirrup." And how true is this: "Every fish that escapes appears greater than it really is." Many will agree with the Turk that poverty is a shirt of fire. Here is a slight hit at the liferality of some people: "Generos	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has aned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddle about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New i journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josic Manafeld has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maris of Russia written angrily to the King of Bawriten angrily to induce the Car of Russia bishop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induce the Car of Russia buy more of his guns. Li is said that Brick Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnalism in New York. Col. Charence Prentice, only so the late George D. is a lumber deal Kenturky. His father thought he wot a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origia was a being as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commence in secret him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origia was a being as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commence in secret that she spent her youthful demaking eathartic pills in Breckinrid Kentucky. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the composer precently made his appersance at an entertainment, giv Paris by McThiers. The house of Ralph Watto Emerication and the commodore of the fibrary and furniture and morning. Loss, $5,000; insure $3,000. The library and furniture in Concord, Mass. was burned We day morning. Loss, $5,000; insure $3,000. The library and furniture in Concord Mass. was burned we day morning. Loss, $5,000; insure $3,000. The library and furniture in concord make commodore kins, wary of the tore of doing no on land, at of the Cunar line take domaking commodore with the composer head of the Cunar li their houses, a some and residence with and residence with suppling and residence before and suppling and their seats and thrown far, hower that waits, all sorts of building mants, timber, issues and thrown far, hower that waits, all sorts of building mants, timber, issues and thrown far, hower that waits, all sorts of building mants, timber, issues and thrown far, hower the company of the country was no boiler explosion; on the east end of the vitting, the large accident, it was no boiler explosion; on the east end of the vitting, the large accident, it was no boiler explosion; on the east end of the vitting, the large accident, it was no boiler explosion; on the east end of the vitting, the large accident, it was no boiler explosion; on the east end of the vitting, the large accident, it was no boiler explosion; on the east end of the blow up of so so the large and cause such destruction in parts of the vitting. The proposition is a ferrible explosion; that happened there nobody can tell see who could give information. Porturnate a checker of the vitting and one hand, ich was thrown 100 paces towards the roof the factory. A small box, consist the bones of the four unfortunate of the factory. A small box, consist the bones of the four unfortunate of the solid laboratory, there is not a collect; even the foundation was former the ground with indiscribable force, the traces of this mysterious and mown power, are of a truly incredible of the easy foundation and build-stones were thrown shrough thick its of buildings both near by and and and accidence of the easy foundation and build-stones were torm from the layers and own a far distance. A wagon loaded hmill wood was standing opposite the portion. The teamster had entered a bone who have supplied to the wall of laboratory. Persons standing close to hips buildings were swept off far away; the others who were more remote were y thrown down senseless. The next building was about 20 feet disting the others who were more remote were y thrown down senseless. The com	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the sycene cutter Mocassin, made one jumptings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a common deriver the rank of a common seaman to that of a common deriver the rank of a common deriver the rank of a common deriver the rank of a common deriver the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's state were intensely pained by the public on of Ward Lamon's book. Robertile attempted to buy up the whole cition, and failing in that, went to Engrape in order to be out of the way, when he incourtly stories about his father and grandfather were exciting the first sense than the last twenty years of his life he lived is Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspication position during the war by its aftherence to the Union cause. At the time of his death he was on his way to Europe. Mr. Duisenberg, the German cousul at San Francisco, has just received a fine painting, the portraits of their anglestic Kaiser-William and his frau. It is accompanied by an autograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attitutions during the late struggle of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me. Friday, at the advanced age of ninety-sity years. Mr. Thatcher was, born in Concord, Mass., in 1776, graduated at Harvard University in 1792, was made a Mason in 1793, and was elected to Congress it 1802. At the time of his death he was the oldest Mason in the United States. —The usual supply of bathing accident is kept up. On Friday a boating party of four men were upset in the Delaware, near Tacony. Harry Bowman, reporter of the Sunday North Zone, and late editor of the North Philadelphia Monitor, was drowned The same day Wm. H. West, of Philadelphia, connected with the naval academy a daisappointment in one of his friend ships—mot a lemale friendship, however The charges of "common drunkenness and	ter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walmis, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 houses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $56 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there, which he proposes to plot from the shores of Albion to khe Republican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of strifle under five hundred dollars a head. The Episcopal church in Virginia where Washingbon and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected the New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ky.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bush Greek and wanted so enlist in Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. The story is told that a young lover living in Daubury, Conn., who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights was electrified after a short rest by a condition of the deceased, met by accident, each having come to decorate the grave with flowers and other embleins of affectionate remembrance. The result was that the people were obliged to interfere to keep the peace. An ingenius: apparatus has been in vented by a French physician, by which the heart is made to-register photographically its ewill and similar physiological phe nomens. The "Old Catholics" have invited Bishop Whittingham, of Maryland, and two English bishops,	What lady is used to war? Millist Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annis Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennis Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world-A woman's. "Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pans. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten woil away, it is said. But lore matched don't always keep the wolf from the door. Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly on one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else in the world—and so does he. An irritable man who was disappoint ted in his boots threatened to eat up the shoemaker, but compromised by drinking a cobler. Henrietta," said a landlady to her new girl, "when there's bad news particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. Proper minded Beadle be Forward Young Man—"Come, young gents, you're not wanted in here. There's a wealthing coming off." Forward Young Man to Proper Minded Beadle—"Well, I don't know that, either if you don't let me in, for I'm the bride groom." (Collapse of P. M. B.) —A man endeavored to find out the age of a horse by counting his teeth. Those she couldn't see to count, he felt of. He told the doctor who sewed up his hand and has that this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey," said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey," said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey," said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey of the world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey of the ministorium the same of a horse say	Peter Swand dramater and home delight in Thomas' garden concerts and promote the Academy of Music and Pike's and sales and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York Commercial Advertises. An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service been in many engagements. I took her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big brown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city!" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Yes." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on the string supply that street—as the fifth arentise the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." "And some of them have girls on the string away up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street, Twenty-third street and Central Park stris never see each other, and so they are all right. They ain't like Clincinnail on Boston girls, who know every other girls town, and who trip a fellow up if he looks at anybody else." "Alas Said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published—tte." "But never." I replied. "I'm the last one to go back on our New York boya." DID PACH HAVE A WIFE?—It was at early question whether Paul was married. The passage in the epistic to the Corin inhans, in which he speaks of himself as unencumbered with domestic cares, does not presented the notion that he might have a more presented the notion that he might have a not presented the notion that he might have a not a member of that cound not well have been expercised by a man who was repressely tool that this great asse	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the honse, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences hare of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The potentials the kettle black;" the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;" the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "Avaunt blackamoor," the Germans, "One ass nicknames another Longears;" The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;' and here we find the Turks saying; "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw;" The Turk, "He that falls into the sea-takes hold of the serpent to be saved," "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the mouth," is a familiar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed." "Out of the frying-pan into the fire." is rendered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempost." "Cut off the nose to spite the face," finds a different rendering in. Wanting to make right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes." "He who dances must pay the fiddler," has an equivalent in "Wine and roast, rea, rescount and bills; woe, woe!" There is much condensed wit and wis shirt of fire. Here is a slight hit a still the interest in the part of some people: "Generosity from the purse of another." And the hy	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has aned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Sidde about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New i journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josie Manadeld has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maris of Russia written angrily to the King of Base written angrily to the King of Base written angrily to the King of Base is trying to induge the Czar of Russia bout hat matter of jilting her daug is trying to induge the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. Li is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic bushop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induge the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. Li is said that Brick Pomercy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnatism in New York. Cot Charence Prentice, only see the late George D, is a lumber dea Kentarky. His father thought he wot a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origin was a beian as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commence musical career as a street singer. A late biography of Dr. Mary W asserts that she spent her youthful de making catharite pills in Breckinrida Kentucky. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the composer recently made his appellation as an entertainment giv Paris by McThers. The house of Ralph Walto Emerical Concord, Mass. was burned We day morning. Loss, $5,000; insure $3,000. The library and furniture $3,000. The store of doing not on land, is about to resume th
and randing walkered being and randing walkered being heaps and mental being and the control beoke in their seats and thrown far, heaps and mental being and their seats and thrown far, heaps as timber is some and including mants, timber is some and thrown far, heaps as timber is some and thrown far, heaps as timber as some and the cast was loom own far in the air. All building sown far in the air. All building some and the cast was loom accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the vitting the large accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the vitting the large accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the vitting the large accident, it was no boiler explosion, on the east end of the vitting the large accident, it was no boiler explosion, accident, it was hown up. This was presented in parts of the vittage. It is a supported the control of the sound give information. Portuguan, a chemist from England, and three helpmates have perished; in dred of pieces and spread all around reposes any in indiscernable masses, only piece who could give information. Portuguan, a chemist from England, and three helpmates have perished; in dred of pieces and spread all around ir books as in indiscernable masses, only reposes a far was recognized and one hand, ich was thrown 100 paces towards the roof the factory. A small box, control the solid laboratory, there is not a collect; even the foundation was torn the ground with indiscribable force, the traces of this mysterious and more of the solid laboratory incredible stones were thrown should be stones were thrown should be the collection of the midst of the diactory buildings both near by and own a far distance. A wagon loaded hmill wood was standing opposite the roof buildings were swept off far away; the others who were more remote were y thrown down senseless. The next building was about 30 feet distand, on many other buildings the roofs a done to every house in the village. Chapman, the chemist, employed by ing Company, had repea	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the revenue cutter Mocassin, made one jumptings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a commonder. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Beau gift, S. C., with the American flag in his ceth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's start were intensely pained by the public of the attempted to buy up the whole cition, and failing in that, went to Engrape to order to be out of the way, when he incourtly stories about his father and grandfather were exciting the first sense than the last twenty years of his life he lived it Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspication position during the war by its adherence to the Union cause. At the time of his death he was on his way to Burope. Mr. Duisenberg, the German cousul at San Francisco, has just received a fine painting the portraits of their anglestic Kaiser-William and his frau. It is accompanied by an autograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attirbutions during the late struggle of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me. Friday, at the advanced age of ninety-sity years. Mr. Thatcher was born in Concord, Mass., in 1776, graduated at Harvard University in 1792, was made a Mason in 1793, and was elected to Congress in 1793, and	ter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walnuts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 houses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $56 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—bettee keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there, which he proposes to plot from the shores of Albion to khe Republican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of strifle under five hundred dollars a head. The Episcopal church in Virginic where Washingbon and other distinguished in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected from Bash Greek and wanted so enlist he Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. The story is told that a young lover living in Daubury, Conn., who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights. Was electrified after a short rest by a condition of the deceased, met by accident, each having come to decorate the grave with flowers and other embleins of affectionate remembrance. The result was that the people were obliged to interfere to keep the peace. An ingenius: apparatus has been in vented by a French physician, by which the heart is made to-register photographically it sown prisations. Such, it is said in the congress	What lady is used to war? Millist Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annist Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennis Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world-A woman's. Still Life"—The whisky manufacturing business. —A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. —To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. —A Peoria deutist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. —The light of a match will frighten wolf away, it is said. But love matched don't always keep the wolf from the door. —Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies schools. —Jones and his wife agree grandly of one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody clse in the world—and so does he. An irritable man who was disappoint ed in his boots threatened to eat up the shoemaker, but compromised hy drinking a cobbler. —Henrietta," said a landlady to her new girl, "when there's bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. —Proper minded Beadle to Forward Young Man—Come, young gents, you're not wanted in here. There's a wealthing coming off. Forward Young Man to Proper Minded Beadle—Well, I don't know that, either if you don't tet me in, for I'm the bride groom. (Collapse of P. M. B.) —A man endeavored to find out the age of a horse by counting his teeth. Those he couldn't see to count, he felt of. He told the doester who sewed up his haar that this was a hard world for a laboring man. —"I say Pompey," said one freedman teanother, "dis child has tried lots ob gif fares and thing for a prize, but neble could draw agat." —A baby lately had the misfortune to such a could draw agat." —A baby lately had the misfortune to could draw agat." —A baby lately had the misfortune to cape treating on the long walkin to could draw agat." —A gent	Peter Sar drank six gas anger Astarted home drank six gas off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his let ter to the New York Commercial Advertiser." An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dezen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big brown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city?" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourtenth street—to girls that they nevertake up town—girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on Twenty third street—weet for sentimental girls, who dote on the Fifth a venue theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "And some of them have girls 'on the string' away up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and fides on the park. These Eleventh street, Twenty-third street and Central Park girls never see each other, and so they are all right. They all'i like Cincinnal on Boston girls, who know every other girls town, and who trip a fellow up if he looks at anybody else." "Alas "said my young lady friend with a sigh," the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published—tit—" "Sh't never." I replied, "I'm the last one to go back on our New York boya." "Did Path Have A Wife?—It was at early question whether Paul was married. The passage in the epistle to the Corin thians, in which he speaks of himself as uncumbered with domastic cares, does not even prove more than that he went on his missionary jour neys alone. On the other hand, he speak of his assent to the death of Stephen, and of his assent to the death of Stephen, and of his assent to the death of Stephen, and of	reveals the oriental prejudice against ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person, do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences hare of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The poar says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;" the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "Avaunt blackamoor." The Germans, "One ass nicknames another Longeass;" The Catalaus, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;'" and here we find the Turks saying; "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." "We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw;" The Turk, "He that falls into the sea-takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God," "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a familiar saying; the Turks have it, in the soot of which a present has been made are not observed." "Out of the frying-pan into the fire, is rendered by the reverse figure." "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest." "Cut off the nose to spite the face," finds a right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes." "He who dances must pay the fiddler," has an equivalent in "Wint and russt, rea, rescount and bills; woe, woe!" There is much condensed wit and wis shirth of fire. Here it a slight hit as the literality of some people: "Generosity from the purse of another." And the hypo carite is told	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddle about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphit trying to purchase a prominent New i journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josic Manafeld has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Ba about that matter of jilting her daug it is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic I bishop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induge the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. It is said that Brick Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnalism in New York. Out tharence Prentice, only so the late George D. is a lumber dea Kentucky. His father thought he wo a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origin was a being as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commence musical career as a street singer. A late biography of Dr. Mary W asserts that she spent her youthful dis making exthartic pills in Breckinridi Kentucky. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the composer excently made his appearance as an entertainment giv Paris hy. Thiers. The house of Ralph Watto Emerin Concord, Mass. was burned We day morning. Loss; $5,000; insure $4,000. The library and furniture $4,000. The library and furniture $4,000. The library and furniture saved. Chief Justice Chase's health has the summer with his eldest daughted her husband. Chief Justice Chase's health has the summer with his eldest daughted her husband. Edwin Portes, the eminent Ame trastdam who has been dangered.
their houses, was and second and ractifies with and ractifies with and being and second broke full spilling me fell that heaps and animate and their second me fell that heaps and animate and their second that was an their second first and thrown far, it was an their second and the care was continuous. After the first conference of the cause of accident, it was no boiler explosious on the east end of the vittings the laractory was blown up. This was second accident, it was no boiler explosious on the east end of the vittings the laractory was blown up. This was second accident, it was no boiler explosious on the east end of the vittings the laractory was blown up. This was second accident, it was no boiler explosious on the east end of the vittings the laractory was blown up. This was second all a building, such a ferrible explosional densue, and cause such destruction in parts of the village. What happened there nobody can tell, one happened there happened there nobody can tell, one happened the factory. A small box, contains the bones of this mysterious and one hand, ich was thrown 100 paces towards the of the solid laboratory, there is not a ce left; even the foundation was force. The larges of this mysterious and mover are of this mysterious and mover are of this mysterious and mover and the second the second the second the second the happened to him to the midst of the difference of this mysterious and mover and there were thrown across the cet and went to pieces on the wall of the normal of the command	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the revenue cutter Mocassin, made one jumptings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a commonder. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Bean gart, S. C., with the American flag in his ceth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's state were intensely pained by the public of the confederates. It is attempted to buy up the whole chips, and failing in that, went to Engipe in order to be out of the way, when the uncourtly stories about his father and grandfather were exciting the first sense thou. —Mr. F. Flake, of Galyeston, Texas who died recently in New London, Connecticut, was born in Germany. During the last twenty years of his life he lived in Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspicuous position during the war by its adherence to the Union cause. At the time of his death he was on his way to Europe. —Mr. Duisenberg, the German cousul at San Francisco, has just received a fine painting the portraits of their majestic Klaiser William and his frau. It is accompanied by an autograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attributions during the late struggle of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me. Friday, at the advanced age of ninety sinyears. Mr. Thatcher was born in Concord, Mass., in 1776, graduated at Har vard University in 1792, was made a Mason in the United States. —The usual supply of bathing accidents is kept up. On Friday a boating party of four men were upset in the Delaware, near Tacony. Harry Bowman, reporter of the Sunday North Zone, and late editor of the North Philadelphia Monitor, was drowned The same day Wm. H. West, of Philadelphia phia, connected with the naval academy a Annapolis, was drowned while bathing a Cape May. —A writer in a Philadelphia paper en deavors to remove the stain of immorality from the memory of Edgar A. Poe. Hi	ter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hail storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walmits, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. A Grant newspaper published lately gave notice that he intended to spend $5 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and boy a new head for the editor." An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Albion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of a trifle under five hundred dollars a head. The Episcopal church in Virginit where Washingban and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1.500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ry.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bush Greek and wanted to entist he was the confected in the had not heard that the war was over. The story is told that a young lover living in Daubury, Cona., who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for twee hours on one of those recent hot nights, was electrified after a short, rest by a cordial "thank you," gracefully pronounced by the "other fellow," who appeared at the window. At the grave of a wenthy and distinguished citizen of Vienna, recently, two ladies, each claiming to be the wildow of the deceased, met by accident, each having come to decorate the grave with flowers and other embleins of affectionate remembrance. The result was that the people were obliged to interfere to keep the peace. An ingenius: apparatus has been in vented by a French physician, by which the heart is may be modified so as to register the variations of the respiratio	What lady is used to war? Millib Tary. What lady is lively and gay? Annib Mation. What lady is fond of giving? Jennis Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world-A woman's. Still Life"—The whisky manufactur ing business. —A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. —To become the lion of a party it is no necessary to make a beast of one's self. —A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. —The light of a match will frighten a wolf away, it is said. But love matched don't always keep the wolf from the door. —Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies schools. —Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else in the world—and so doe he. —An irritable man who was disappoint ted in his boots threatened to eat up the sheemaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler. —Henrietta," said a landlady to her new girl, "when there's bad news, particularly private afflictious, always let the boarders know it before dinner, it may seem strange to you. Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. —Proper minded Beadle to Forward Young Man—Come, young gent-your on the wanted—in here. There's a wealting coming off. Forward Young Man to Proper Minded Beadle—Well, I don't know that, either if you don't let me in, for I'm the bride groom. (Collapse of P. M. B.) —A man endeavored to find out the age of a horse by counting his teeth. Those he couldn't see to count, he felt of. He told the deets who sewed up his haae that this was a hard world for a laboring man. —"I say Pompey," said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laboring man. —"I say Pompey, said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laboring man. —"I say Pompey, said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laboring man. —"A laby lately had the misfortune the swallow the contents of an ink bottle. It mother, with wonderful presenc	Peter Swar drank six gas and dragent started hom on horseback, a off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York Commercial Adversion of the Service been in many engagements. I took her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city!" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they never take up town—girls that they never take up town—girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty. Niblo's and Wallacks." "Yes." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on Twenty third street—sweet on sentimental girls, who dote on the Fifth avenue theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." "And some of them have girls 'on the string' kway up by the park girls win the take they are all right. They all' like Cincinnation delight in Thomas's garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street, they all' like Cincinnation Boston girls, who know every other girls town, and who trip a fellow up if he looks at anybody clse." "Alas "said my young lady friend with a sigh." the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published—tte." "But never." I replied. "I'm the last one to go back on our New York boys." DID Path Have a Wife?—It was at early question whether Paul was married. The passage in the epistle to the Corin inhans, in which he speaks of himself a timencumbered with domestic cares, does not preclude the notion that he might have been a widower—does not even prove more than that he went on his missionary jour neys atome. On the other hand, he speak of his assent to the death of Stephen, and of his commission from the Sanhedrim, functions and powers that could not well h	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: 'f you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: 'Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences hare of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The pon says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;' "the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow," avaunt blackamoor." 'The Germans, "One ass nicknames another Longeass;' "The Catalaus, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;' and here we find the Turks saying; "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw;" The Turk, "He that falls into the sea-takes hold of the serpent to be saved," "God tempers the wind to the shoru lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a familiar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed." "Out of the frying-pan into the fire, is rendered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest." "Cut off the nose to spite the lace," finds a different rendering in "Wanting to make right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes." "He who dances must pay the fiddler," has an equivalent in "Wine and roast, res, rescount and bills; woe, woe!" There is much condensed wit and was find the proverse figure is more forcibly expressed in, "Measure a thousand times, and cut once." And how true is this: "Every fish that escape appears greater than it really is." Th	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has aned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Sidde about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New is grant at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josie Manadeld has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Baabout that matter of jilling her daug is trying to induce the Czar of Russia written angrily to the King of Baabout that matter of jilling her daug is trying to induce the Czar of Russia but hat the matter of jilling her daug is trying to induce the Czar of Russia but hat matter of jilling her daug is trying to induce the Czar of Russia but hat matter of jilling her daug is trying to induce the Czar of Russia but hat matter of jilling her daug is trying to induce the Czar of Russia but hat matter of jilling her daug is trying to induce the Czar of Russia but hat matter of jilling her daug is trying to induce the Czar of Russia but hat matter to run "red but materials in New York. Cot therence Prentice, only see the late George D. Is a lumber dea Rentreky. His father thought he wot a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origin was a belan as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commence musical career as a street singer. A late biography of Dr. Mary W asserts that she spent her youthful damaking cathartic pills in Breckinrid. Kentucky. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the composer recently made his appeditures as an entertainment giv Paris by McThiers. The house of Ralph Waldo Eme in Concord. Mass. was burned We day morning. Loss, $5,000; insure $3,000. The library and furniture $3,000. The library and furniture $3,000. The library and furniture that we commended of the Scotiar. Chief Justice Chase's health hat the summer with his eldest daughter her husband. Ladwin Forrest, their houses, a complete and restline water and restline water and the serious and me fell that heaps and me fell that heaps and an entire a serious in their seats and thrown far, was that water, all sorts of auditing mants, timber, issue and thrown far, was the that some and the care water and cover, people looked after the cause of accident, it was no poller explosious on the east end of the vittings the laratory was blown up. This was stating ding is feet square, and it premains onceivable, that from the blow up of so that happened there nobody can tell, bee who could give information. For appara, a chemist from England, and three helpmates have perished; in dired of pieces and spread all around there helpmates have perished; in dired of pieces and spread all around to be say in indiscernable masses, only piece was recognized and one hand, the was thrown 100 paces towards the most the bones of the four unfortunate of the solid laboratory, there is not a select; even the foundation was force. The traces of this mysterious and mover, are of a truly incredible force, the traces of this mysterious and mover, are of a truly incredible stones were thrown through thick is of buildings both near by and and and and even into the midst of the discovy building, even rails 450 ght were torn from the layers and own a far distance. A wagou loaded he mill wood was standing opposite the oratory. The teamster had entered a con when the explosion took place, gon and horses were thrown across the et and went to pieces on the wall of the next building was about 30 feet distance. The next building was about 30 feet distance when the explosion took place, the next building was about 30 feet distance of the offended parent, who wowed the next building was about 30 feet distance of the offended parent, who wowed the next building was about 30 feet distance of the offended parent, who wowed the would neither do the indignation of the offended parent, who wowed the would neither do the first of again of the offended parent, who would	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the revenue cutter Mocassin, made one jumptings, the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to that of a commonder. He it was the swam ashore three miles from off Bean gart, S. C., with the American flag in his ceth, to prevent the capture of the colors of the confederates. It is said that President Lincoln's state were intensely pained by the public of the confederates. It is alternyted to buy up the whole chips, and failing in that, went to Engipe in order to be out of the way, when the uncourtly stories about his father and grandfather were exciting the first sense thou. Mr. F. Flake, of Galyeston, Texas who died recently in New London, Connecticut, was born in Germany. During the last twenty years of his life he lived in Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspicuous position during the war by its afherence to the Union cause. At the sime of his death he was on his way to Europe. —Mr. Duisenberg, the German cousul at San Francisco, has just received a fine painting, the portraits of their malestic Kaiser William and his frau. It is accompanied by an autograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympathy and attributions during the late struggle of the fatherland. —Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me. Friday, at the advanced age of ninety sinyears. Mr. Thatcher was born in Concord, Mass., in 1776, graduated at Har vard University in 1792, was made a Mason in 1798, and was elected to Congress it 1892. At the time of his death he was the oldest graduate of Harvard and the oldest graduate of Harvard and the oldest graduate of Harvard and the oldest graduate of his death he was the oldest graduate of his death he was the oldest graduate of his paper of the same day Wm. H. West, of Philadelphia hon't private in a Philadelphia paper of the same day Wm. H. West, of Philadelphia phis, connected with the naval academy a Annapolis, was drowned the him wild, and he was	ter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous haif storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walmis, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published lately give notice that he intended to spend $5 for a "new head" for his paper. The next day one" of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and boy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffald hunting party there, which he proposes to plot from the shores of Albion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of trifle under five hundred dollars a head. —The Episcopal church in Virginis where Washington and other distinguished men of his day we shipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ky.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bash Greek and wanted to entite the form hear that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Daubury, Cona, who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights; was electrified after a short, rest by a conditive in Daubury, Cona, who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights; was electrified after a short, rest by a conditive in Daubury, Cona, who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights; was electrified after a short, rest by a conditive in the condition of the seventh of the propounced by the other fellow," who appeared at the window. —At the grave of a wealthy and distinguished citizen of Vienna, recently, two laddes, each claiming to be the widow of the deceased, met by accident, each	What lady is used to war? Millist Tary. What lady is fond of giving? Jennis Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world-A woman's. "Still Life"—The whisky manufactur ing business. "A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is no necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten awolf away, it is said. But love matched door. —Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else in the world—and so does he. An irritable man who was disappoint ted in his boots threatened to eat up the shoemaker, but compromised hydrinking a cobbler. Henrietta," said a landlady to her new girl, "when there's bad news particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. Proper minded Beadle be Porward Young Man—Come, young gent-you're not wanted—in here. Thère's a wedding coming off. Forward Young Man to Proper Minded Beadle—"Well, I don't know that, either iff you don't let me in, for I'm the bride groom. (Collapse of P. M. B.) —A man endeavored to find out the age of a horse by counting his teeth. Those she couldn't see to count, he felt of. He told the dector who sewed up his hase that this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey," said one freeding in the could draw anything at all." "Well could draw dat" —A haby lately had the misfortune to such and the could draw anything at all." "Well could draw dat" —A baby lately had the misfortune to such anything at all." "Well could draw dat" —A laby lately had the misfortune to some of the long after marriage style in the some of the long after marriage style in the some of the long after marriage style	rack six gis and agent started home on horseback, and apent started home on horseback and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride or horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manner of the New York. Ell Perkins 's with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York. Commercial Adverser: An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very engaged to several young ladies that very engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they never take up town—girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Yes." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on Twenty third street—sweet on sentimental girls, who dote on the Fifth avenue theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." And some of them have girls 'on the string' tway up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and fides on the park. These Eleventh street, Twenty-third street and Central, Park stris never see each other, and so they are all right. They ain't like Clincinnal or Boston girls, who know every other girls town, and who trip a fellow up if he looks at anybody else." "Alas said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published—it—" "Alas said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published—it—" "Bat never "I replied, "I'm the lass one to go back on our New York boya." DID Pach Have a Wife?—It was at early question whether Paul was married of his assent to the death of Stephen, and of his commission from the Sanhedrim,—functions and powers that could not well and Syntyche received by a man who was not a result of that the great of the law you a merity planting of the passage in the epistle to the Corin Phan that he went on the sa	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of heart and in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The point says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;" the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "A vaunt blackamoor." the Germans, "One ass nicknames another 'Longeass;" The Catalans, "Death, said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;" and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say. "The drowning man catches at a straw." The Turk, "He that falls into the sea takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the Shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the mouth," is a faunitiar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed." "Out of the frying pan in the fifter, is rendered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest." "Cut off the nose to spite the face," finds a different rendering in "Washing to a horse of which a present has been made are not observed." "The meet the sayings the truth is thus with the fifter, is rendered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest." "Cut off the nose to spite the face," finds a right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes." "He will agree suith the Turk that poverty is a shift the fifter. Here is though they	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddle about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New i journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josic Mansfeld has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Ba about that matter of jilting her daug. It is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic bishop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induge the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. It is said that Brick Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnalism in New York. Got Charence Prentice, only so the late George D, is a lumber dea Kentucky. His father thought he wo a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origin was a being as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commence musical career as a street singer. A late biography of Dr. Mary W asserts that she spent her youthful da making esthartic pills in Breckinridg Kentucky. The house of Ralph Waldo Emein Concord, Mass. was burned We day morning host, $5,000; insure $3,000. The library and furniture $3,000. The was a pupil of Rossini, the composer $3,000. The library has been dangeres for some time past at his elegant residently to the Cunary line take command of the Scotia: Chief Justice Chase's health has the summer with his eldest da their houses, so any and service and ractifine wall and spilling and ractifine wall and being and service of the spilling are fell that heaps and animals are fell that heaps and animals are as the their seats and thrown far, away, that walks. All sorts of building mashs, timiter, showe and thrown far, away, that walks are fell that he are a seat of the cancer of the cancer of the cancer of accident, it was no boller explosion; on the east end of the vitting the law actory was blown up. This wall remains onceivable, that from the blow up of so all a building, such a ferrible explosion; and ensue, and cause such destruction in parts of the village. The through the property of the sum and three helpmates have perished; in added of pieces and spread all around it boses of the four unfortunate and the elements have perished; in the featory. A small box, consist from England, and three helpmates have perished; in direct of pieces and spread all around it boses of the four unfortunate of the solid laboratory, there is not a celet; even the foundation was form the ground with indiscribable force, I the traces of this mysterious sud mover power, are of a truly incredible stones were thrown through thick that of buildings both near by and thanks, and even into the midst of the diactory buildings both near by and thanks, and even into the midst of the four words and buildings were swept off far away; the construction. The teamster had entered a soon when the exposion took place, upon when the exposion took place, upon and horses were thrown across the cet and went to pieces on the wall of the offers who were more remote were y thrown down senseless. The next building was about 30 feet distributed his experiments as perfectly harman and the was completely razed to the wond of the offended parent, who towed the wond neither admit the inconsidate one to the shelter of his roof again or allow here. The property is and they remain the property of the shelling of the solid parent, who were all shop. Three weeks since as the c	of the human race. Commodore David Ritchie, of the revenue critter Mocassin, made one jumpling the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to the saw in salver the capture of the colors of the coefficients. Let be said that President Lincoln's seam of ward Lamon's book. Roberties in a stempted to buy up the whole common and failing in that, went to Engage in order to be out of the way, when he mocurity stories about his father and resaddather were exciting the dist sense thou. —Mr. F. Flake, of Galveston, Texas who died recently in New London. Connecticut, was born in Germany. During the last twenty years of his life he lived is Galveston, where he published and edited Flake's Bulletin, which attained a conspicuous position during the war by its aftherence to the Union cause. At the fine of his death he was on his way to Europe. —Mr. Duisenberg, the German consul at San Francisco, has just received a fine painting the portraits of their sugestic Kaiser-William and his frau. It is account panied by an autograph letter from the empress, thanking the German population of San Francisco for their sympsthy and attributions during the late struggle of the fatherismd. —Samuel Thatcher was born in Concord, Mass., in 1776, graduated at Har yard University in 1792 was make Missor in 1798, and was elected to Congress in 1802. At the time of his death he was the oldest Mason in the United States. —The usual supply of bathing accident is kept up. On Friday a boating party of four men were upset in the Delaware, nea. Tacony. Harry Bowman, reporter of the Sunday Morth Jone, and late editor of the North Philadelphia Monitor, was drowned The same day Wm. H. West, of Philadel phis, connected with the naval academy a Annapolis, was drowned while bathing a Cape May. —A writer in a Philadelphia paper en	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hail storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of wainnts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published latery give notice that he intended to spend $56 for a "new head" for his paper. The next day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and boy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffald hunting party, there, which he proposes to pliot from the shores of Albion to the Republican Valley, Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of trifle under five hundred dollars a head. —The Ebiscopal church in Virginic where Washington as to threaten its ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Kr.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last weel from Bush Greek and wanted to enlist. In Gen Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Danbury, Conn., who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights, was electrified after a short rest by a codent, each having come to decorate the grave with flowers and other emblems of affectionate remembrance. The result was that the people were obliged to interfere to keep the peace. —An ingenius: apparatus' has been in vented by a French physician, by which the heart is made to-register photographically its own pulsations. Such, it is said is the peculiarity of the apparatus, in the about the processed met by accident, each having come to decorate the grave with flowers and other emblems of affectionate in the con	What lady is used to war? Millis Tary. What lady is fond of giving? Jennis Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world—A woman's. Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. —To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla dentist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. —The light of a match will frighten world away, it is said. But love matches don't always keep the wolf from the door. —Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unaft for young ladies schools. —Jones and his wife agree grandly or none point—she thinks more of him that of anybody else-in the world—and so doe he. —An irritable man who was disappoint ed in his boots threatened to eat up the shoemaker, but compromised by drinking a coboler. —Herrietta, said a landlady to her new girl, when there's bad news, particularly private afficitions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. —Proper-minded Beadle be Forward Young Man—Come, young gents, you're not wanted in here. There's a wedding coming off. Forward Young Man to Proper Minded Beadle—"Well, I don't know that, either if you don't let me in, for I'm the bride groom." (Collapse of P. M. B.) —A man endeavored to find out the age of a horse by counting his teeth. Those he couldn't see to count, he felt of. He told the doctor who sewed up his hand that this was a hard world for a laboring man. —I say Pompey, said one freedman to another, "dis child has tried lots ob gif fares and tings for a prize, but nebbe could draw anything at pain even in the bride groom." —A pan lender of the prize of mindian in a lady turned upon him fercely and even in the long draw and th	drank six gisson off and broke his neck and is now burfed. Moral: Don't ride on horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Boys. "Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York. Commercial Adversion: An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dezen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city?" "Yos." "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they take to Humply Dumpty, 'Niblo's and Wallacks." "Yes." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on Twenty third street—weet on sentimental girls, who dote on the Fifth avenue theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." "And some of them have girls on the string' way up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street, Twenty-third street and Central Park stris never see each other, and so they are all right. They all's like Cincinnation Boston girls, who know every other girls town, and who trip a fellow up if he looks at anybody clse." "Alas" said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published. It "mental to the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published. It "mental to the common than that he went on his missionary jour in hinans, in which he speaks of himself as mencumbered with domestic cares, doe not preclude the notion that he might have been expected by a man who we are a widower—does not even prove more in han that he went on his missionary jour in the passage in the epistie to the Corin phan that he went on his missionary jour in the provent of the same provent of	reveals the oriental prejudice against Ted hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of hatr, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one cither: if you have any in the honse, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences hare of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The pount says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;' the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow,' Araunt blackamoor." The Germans, "One ass nicknames another 'Longeass;' The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;' and here we find the Turks asyling, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw," The Turk, "He that falls into the sea-takes hold of the septent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the Shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a familiar saying; the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed?" "God of the frying pan into the fire." Is rendered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest." "Cut of the nose to spite the face, finds a different rendering in. Wanting to make right the cycbrow, pull out the eyes. "He who dances must pay the fiddler," has an equivalent in "Wine and roast, rea, reactive to the sell selling hit at the third that the cyme of these proverbial sayings The unwelcomeness of truth is thus wit this coffin in said and the surface of the selling hit at the third that the process of the selling hit as the third of the rea	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josie Mansfield has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Barabout that matter of jilting her daug —It is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic Abishop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induce the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. It is said that Brick Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run red burnatism in New York. Cot Charence Prentice, only so the late George D. is a lumber deal Kentucky. His father thought he wot a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origin was at being as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commenced final as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commenced final as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commenced final as that she spent her youthful damaking cathartic pills in Breckinridg Kentucky. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the composer, recently made his appearance as an tear tenor at an entertainment give Paris by M. Thiers. The house of Ralph Wanto Eme in Concord, Mass. was burned We day morning. Loos, $5,000; insure saved. Li is rumored that Commodore kins, weary-of the tore of doing no on land, is about to resume the position principal old saft of the Cunaru line, take command of the Scotis: Chief Justice Chasch heafth has cred much from a recent attack of the summer with his eldest danghter the rumon who has been dangerous for some time past at his elgan residently to drive out, and is how daily as usual for exercise. Among the visitors at Long B
their houses, which will and restline with and restline with additional and their section in their section and thrown far, was instituted. All sorts of building masts, timber, issue and thrown far, was instituted and the east will sown far in the air. All brieved the day had come and the east will so in rains. After the first conservation is over, people looked after the cause of accident, it was no boiler explosion; on the east end of the village in a building is feet square, and it remains onceivable, that from the blow up of so all a building, such a ferrible explosion the sould give information. For spman, a chemist from England, and three helpmates have perished; in some of the information in parts of the village. The house is in midiscernable masses, only piece was recognized and one hand, it books as thrown 100 paces towards the of of the factory. A small box, constitute the factory. A small box, constitute the factory. A small box, constitute the factory building, even rails 450 ght were torn from the layers and own a far distance. A wagon loaded the mill wood was standing opposite the oratory. The teamster had entered a company, there is not a contract of the solid laboratory, there is not a contract of the contract of the solid laboratory and the factory building, even rails 450 ght were torn from the layers and own a far distance. A wagon loaded the huill wood was standing opposite the oratory. The teamster had entered a contract of an explanation of the common the explosion took place, good when the explosion took place, and was completely razed to the wind, on many other buildings were were yet for a way ning Company, had repeatedly represent the offended parent, who would neither admit the inconsidite of the offended parent, who was a standing opposite the would neither admit the inconsidite one to the offended parent, who was a standing one of the offended parent, who would neither admit the inconsidite and hard. Section of his present provided the would neither admit the information of the solid	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the revenue critter. Mocassin, made one jump from the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to the seam of the color	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. —The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hail storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of wainnts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. —A Grant newspaper published latery give notice that he intended to spend $56 for a "new head" for his paper. The next day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and boy a new head for the editor." —An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffal hunting party, there, which he proposes the plot from the shores of Albion to the Re publican Valley, Nebraska, and badagain, and all for the moderate sam of trifle under five hundred dollars a head. —The Ebiscopal church in Virginia where Washingson and other distinguishes men of his day worshipped is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Kr.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Bush Greek and wanted to enlist. In Gen. Hobson's regiment of theion volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Danbury, Conn., who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights, was electrified after a short rest by a codent, each having come to decorate the grave with flowers and other emblems of affectionate remembrance. The result was that the people were obliged to interfere to keep the peace. —An ingenius: apparatus' has been in vented by a French physician, by which the heart is made to-register the variation of congright of the grave with flowers and other emblems of affectionate remembrance. The result was that the people were obliged to	What lady is used to war! Millistary. What lady is fond of giving? Jennis Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world-A woman's. Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self. A Peorla deutist announces that he extracts teeth with great pains. Most dentists do. The light of a match will frighten world away, it is said. But love matched don't always keep the wolf from the door. The manufacture is looking for a site for a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unaft for young ladies schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him that of any oddy clse-in, the world—and so doe he. A hirritable man who was disappoint ed la his boots threatened to eat up the shoemaker, but compromised by drinking a cobler. When when there's bad news, particularly private affictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such things make a great difference in the eating in the course of a year. Proper minded Beadle be Forward Young Man—Come, young gents, you're not wanted in here. There's a wedding coming off. Forward Young Man to Proper Minded Beadle—"Well, I don't know that, either if you don't tet me in, for I'm the bride groom." (Collapse of P. M. B.) —A man endeavored to find out the age of a borse ky counting his teeth. Those she couldn't see to count, he felt of. He told the doctor who sawed up his haar that this was a hard world for a laboring in the course of a prize, but nebbe could draw anything at all." "Well Caser, I'd vice young remember of a mink bottle. It mother, with wonderful presence of mind immediately administered a box of steepens and the child has tried lots ob gif fares and tings for a prize, but nebbe could draw anything at all." "Well caser, I'd vice young remember of a mariage styl of language. Broken hearted, the gas harcheor responded. Madaim, 'I again handly beg yo	Peter Swaler and Fernal John of and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride on horseback when drunk. Tricks and Mammer of the Swaler his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride on horseback when drunk. Tricks and Mammer of the Swaler his received the New York. Commercial Adversion: "Eit Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York. Commercial Adversion: "An innocent young lady asked me to-day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engaged ments, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Yes." "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they take to Humpty. Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Yes." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on the streaty third street as thee frith arenue theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." "And some of them have girls on the string 'sway up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's, garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street. Twenty-third street and Central Park with a fight. They all I like Cincinnation Boston girls, who know every other girls town, and who trip a fellow up if he looks at anybody clse." "Alas' said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York boys." "Alas' said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know they are all rides on the event on his missionary jour than that he went to his missionary jour neys afone. On the other hand, he speak of his assent to the death of Stephen, and of his assent to the death of Stephen, and of his assent to the death of Stephen, and of his assent to the death of Stephen, and of his assent to the death of Stephen, and of his assent to the death of Stephen, and of his assent to the death of	reveals the oriental prejudice against fed hair, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The poin calls the kettle black," the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;' "the Spaniards, "The raventing of the theory, "Avaunt blacksmoor," the Germans, "One ass nicknames another "Longears;" The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look,'" and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw;" The Turk, "He that falls into the sea takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a familiar saying; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the month," is a familiar saying; the Turks have it in this form: "The teeth of a horse of which a present has been made are not observed." "Out of the frying pan into the fire," is rendered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest." "Cut off the nose to spite the face, finds a requivalent in "Winting to make right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes." "He who dances must pay the fiddler," has an equivalent in "Winting to make right the green shift the Turk that poverty is a shirt of fire. Here the a slight hit affith don in some of these proverbal sayings the unwelcomeness of truth is thus wit the series of the surface of the fire in the same power to sell pine wood for tore hes tho	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has aned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphi trying to purchase a prominent New 1 journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josie Manadelid has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maria of Russia written angrily to the King of Barbore in a surfit of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induge the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. It is said that Brick Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnatism is New York. Cot Cliarence D. Is a lumber deal Kentucky. His father thought he wor a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origin was a being as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commence musical career as a street singer. A late biography of Dr. Mary W. asserts that she spent her youthful damaking eathartic pills in Breckinridg Kentucky. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the composer recently made his appearance as an year though the safe and furniture saved. It is rumored that Commodore f kins, weary of the tope of doing no on land, is about to resume the position of saved. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the composer recently made his appearance as an year though the saved. The brother of the Cunary line take commod of the Scotia: Chief Justice Chase's health has been much from a recent attack of at Narragansett Pier, where he is pather though the saved. The library and furniture saved. The prother of the Cunary line take commod of the Scotia: Chief Justice Chase's health has been much from a recent attack of at Narragansett Pier, where he is pather husband. Edwin Forrest, the eminent Ame tragedian, who has been dangerous for some time paster these least her has become onlit
and ratifling walls and leading and ratifling walls and state walls and the control broke in a politic and the control broke in their seats and thrown far, wall inst walls. All sorts of building masts timber istone and the control of the day had come and the control of the control accident, it was no boller explosion; on the east end of the village the later was blown up. This wall state accident, it was no boller explosion; on the east end of the village the later was blown up. This wall state was been a ferrible explosion. In the state of the form the blow up of so the could give information. Pr. spman, a chemist from England, and three helpmates have perished; in dired of pieces and spread all around reboes lay in indiscernable masses, only piece was recognized and one hand, ich was thrown 100 paces towards the rof the factory. A small box, constitute the factory. A small box, constitute the boxes of this invistrious and many power, are of a truly incredible stones to the solid laboratory, there is not a celet; even the foundation and buildstones were thrown through thick its of buildings both near by and and sat and even into the midst of the distoner. A wagon loaded he mill wood was standing opposite the order of the teamster had entered a con when the explosion took piace, and horses were thrown across the et and wont to pieces on the wall of the distoner. The teamster had entered a con when the explosion took piace, and horses were thrown across the et and horses were thrown across the et and worth of the single provided the would neither admit the island of the offended parent, who wowed the would neither admit the island of the death of the till then lackors, and is a potated th	of the human race. Commodore, David Ritchie, of the evenue critter. Mocassin, made one jump from the rank of a common seaman to that, of a common seaman to the seam of the color of	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Walter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hail storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of walnuts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 cowes and 10 houses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. A Grant newspaper published tately give notice that he intended to spend $5 for a "new head" for his paper. The nex day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—bette keep the money and bury a new head for the editor." An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand buffalch hunting party, there which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Albion to the Republican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of a trifle under five hundred dollars a head. The Episcopal church in Virginit where Washington and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of diapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ky.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last weel from Blash Greek and wanted to enlist. It Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volunters, to aid in putting down the rebellion Trey had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Danbury, Cona, who played and sang before his sweettheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights was electrified after a short rest by a cerdial "thank you." gracefully propounced by the "other fellow!" who appeared at the window. —At the grave of a wealthy and distinguished citizen by Vienna, recently, two ladies, each claiming to be the widow of the respiration, the irregular action of the respiration, the irregular action of the respiration, the propers at Cologne. This seems to indicate that the "Old Catholics" do not consider the provision of the commune the courti	What lady is used to war? Millis Tary. What lady is fond of giving? Jennis Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world—A woman s. Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. A Peorla deutist announces that he extracts teeth with great pams. Mos dentists do. The light of a match will frighten world away, it is said. But love matched don't always keep the wolf from the door. —The light of a match will frighten a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him that of an irritable man who was disappoint ted in his boots threatened to cat up the shochmaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler. —Henricita," said a landlady to hen mew gret, "when there's bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henricita, but such things make a great difference in the cating in the course of a year. —Proper-minded Beadle bs Forward Young Man—Come, young gents you're not wanted in here. There's a wedding coming off. Forward Young Man to Proper Minded Beadle—Well, I don't know that, either if you don't let me in, for I'm the bride groom. (Collapse of P. M. B.) —A man endeavored to find out the age of a horse ky counting his teeth. Those he couldn't see to 'count, he felt of. He told the doctor who sewed up his hame that this was a hard world for a laborius man. —"I say Pompey," said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laborius in man. —"I say Pompey," said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laborius in annumediately administered a box of steepens and two sheets of foolscap paper and the child has felt write inside ever she to discounting his best endeavor to capter trading on the long walkin trail of a lady do not succeed; when gay him some of the long after marriage styl of language. Broken hearted, the grandled receives when you had been down to exceed the heart	rack six gives off and broke his neck and is now buried. Moral: Don't ride on horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manner of the New York of horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manner of the New York of horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manner of the New York of horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manner of the New York of his let ier to the New York Commercial Adversiver. An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—been in many engagements. I tool her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engaged ments, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big brown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city?" "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourteenth street—to girls that they never take up town—girls that they take to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Yes." "Now, some of them are sweet on girls on Twenty third street—awest on said! mental girls, who dote on the Fifth avenue theatre, the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." "And some of them have girls on the string' way up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street, Twenty-third street and Central Park girls never see each other, and so they are all right. They all I like Cincinnal on Boston girls, who know every other girls town, and who trip a fellow up if he looks at anybody else." "Alas Said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New York ought to know this—it ought to be published—it—" "But never." I replied "I'm the lass one to go back on our New York boys." "DID Pact Have A Wife?—It was at early question whether Paul was married I have been exercised by a man who want to the dear to the dearh of the peak of his commission from the Sanhedrius, in a sight of the peak of this commission from the Sanhedrius, in any be said almost certainly written from I know,	reveals the oriental prejudice against fed hair, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The pool calls the kettle black," the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;' the Spaniards, "The raven cried to the crow, "A vaunt black amoor." the Germans, "One ass nicknames another 'Longears," The Catalans, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look,'" and here we find the Turks saying, "The kettle calls the sancepan smutty." Dr. Franklin saya. "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw," The Turk, "He that falls into the sea takes hold of the screen to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one of which a present has been made are not observed." "Out of the frying pan into the fire." Is rendered by the fiddler, has an equivalent in "Wine and roast, res, rescount and bills; woe, woe!" There is much condensed with and wish of the street in must have one leg in the stirrup." An how true is this: "Every fish that escape count and bills; woe, woe!" There is much condensed with and wish of the present in the stirrup." An how true is this: "Every fish that escape count and one of these proverbial sayings the unwelcomeness of truth is thus with shirt of fire. Here is a slight hit artish the single with a needle; though they are brothers nevertheless their pockets are not sisters." Parents will appreciate this: "If you have wicked children, of what use is in one; a short of the provers that a forcetold by "The fox good, again of what use is	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphin trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josic Manafeld has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maris of Russia written angrily to the King of Barabout that matter of jilting her daug is trying to induge the Czar of Russia written angrily to the King of Barabout that matter of jilting her daug is trying to induge the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. Li is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic Abishop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induge the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. Li is said that Brick Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnalism in New York. Cot Charence Prentice, only so the late George D. Is a lumber deal Kentucky. His father thought he wou a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origia was as being as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commence in second career as a street singer. A late biography of Dr. Mary W. asserts that she spent her youthful damaking cathartic pills in Breckinridg Kentucky. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the composer precently made his appellance at an entertainment give Paris by McThiers. The house of Ralph Wanto Eme in Concord, Mass., was burned We day morning. Joset, $5,000; insure $4,000. The library and furniture with his eldest daughter his political command of the Scotiar. Chief Justice Chase's health has the russend. The house of Ralph Wanto Eme in Concord, Mass., was burned We day morning. Joset, $5,000; insure $4,000. The library and furniture saved. Chief Justice Chase's health has the russend. The house of Ralph Wanto Eme their houses, strong and restring with and restring well and sell and restring well and sell and are and restring well and sell and there are all though and an are all the sell and the se	of the human race. Commodore David Ritchie, of the eyeone cutter. Mocassin, made one jump from the rank of a common seaman to that of a common seaman to the sawam shore three miles from of Beau sets. S. C., with the American flag in his cell, to prevent the capture of the color of t	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Waiter press, which strikes off 15,000 copies per hour, printing both sheets at the same time. The Levant Times reports a tremen dous hail storm in the Province of Adrianople. The stones were of the size of wainnts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 (cows and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages. A Grant newspaper published is tely give notice that he intended to spend $56 for a "new head" for his paper. The next day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—bette keep the money and buy a new head for the editor." An enterprising genius in England has undertaken to get up a grand burfale hunting party, there, which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Albion to the Re publican Valley. Nebraska, and back again, and all for the moderate sum of trifle under five hundred dollars a head. The Ebiscopal church in Virginis where Washington and other distinguished men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten it ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected in New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs. The Lebanon (Ry.) Standard says that two men came into Greensburg last week from Rush Greek and wanted to enlist. In Gen! Hobson's regiment of Union volunteers, to aid in putting down the rebellion They had never been in town before, and had not heard that the war was over. —The story is told that a young lover living in Danbury, Cona., who played and sang before his sweetheart's house for two hours on one of those recent hot nights was electrified after a short rest by a cordian thank you." "gracefully propounced by the "other fellow," who appeared at the window. —At the grave of a wealthy and distinguished citizen of vienna, recently, two fiddles, each claiming to be the widow of the deceased, met by accident, each having come to decorate the grave with flowers and other embleins of affectionate remembrance. The result was that the people were obliged to interfere to keep the receivers and there emb	What lady is used to war? Millis Tary. What lady is fond of giving? Jennis Rossity. The greatest curiosity in the world—A woman s. Still Life"—The whisky manufacture ing business. A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. A Peorla deutist announces that he extracts teeth with great pams. Mos dentists do. The light of a match will frighten world away, it is said. But love matched don't always keep the wolf from the door. —The light of a match will frighten a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies schools. Jones and his wife agree grandly or one point—she thinks more of him that of an irritable man who was disappoint ted in his boots threatened to cat up the shochmaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler. —Henricita," said a landlady to hen mew gret, "when there's bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henricita, but such things make a great difference in the cating in the course of a year. —Proper-minded Beadle bs Forward Young Man—Come, young gents you're not wanted in here. There's a wedding coming off. Forward Young Man to Proper Minded Beadle—Well, I don't know that, either if you don't let me in, for I'm the bride groom. (Collapse of P. M. B.) —A man endeavored to find out the age of a horse ky counting his teeth. Those he couldn't see to 'count, he felt of. He told the doctor who sewed up his hame that this was a hard world for a laborius man. —"I say Pompey," said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laborius in man. —"I say Pompey," said one freedman that this was a hard world for a laborius in annumediately administered a box of steepens and two sheets of foolscap paper and the child has felt write inside ever she to discounting his best endeavor to capter trading on the long walkin trail of a lady do not succeed; when gay him some of the long after marriage styl of language. Broken hearted, the grandled receives when you had been down to exceed the heart	Peter Swadard started home on horseback, off and broke his neck and is now burfed. Moral: Don't ride on horseback when drunk. Tricks and Manners of the New York Edg. Perkins "Is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York Commercial Adversion." An innocent young lady asked me to day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen service—heen in many engagements. I took her they had—that almost every man had been in at least a dozen engagements, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very moment. "To several? Now!" she exclaimed opening her big hrown eyes. "Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city?" "Yes." "Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Fourtenth street—to girls that they never take up town—girls that they face to Humpty Dumpty, Niblo's and Wallacks." "Then some of them are sweet on sentimental girls, who dote on the Fifth avenue the Academy of Music and Pike's opera house." "Yes." And some of them have girls 'on the string 'away up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and rides on the park. These Eleventh street. Twenty-third street and Central Park stris never see each other, and so they are all right. They alin't like Cincinnal of Boston girls, who know every other girlin town, and who trip a fellow up if he looks at anybody clse." "Alas" said my young lady friend with a sigh, 'the dear, innocent girls in New York onglit to know this—it ought to be published the notion that he might have been a widower—does not even prove mor if han that he went on his missionary jour neys alone. On the other hand, he speaks of himself a unencumbered with domestic cares, doe not preclude the notion that he might have been a widower—does not even prove mor if han that he went on his missionary jour neys alone. On the other hand, he speaks of his assent to the death of Stephen, and of	reveals the oriental prejudice against fed hair, as well as the buying and selling on human beings: "Do not buy a red haired person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is expressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off." We find evidences here of the resemblances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The point of the back," the Italians, "The pan says to the pot, 'Keep off or you'll smutch me;' The Spaniarks, "The raven cried to the crow," a vaunt blackamoor." the Germans, "One as nicknames another 'Longears," The Catalaus, "Death said to the man with his throat cut, 'How ugly you look;' and here we find the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee;' and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one foot." "We say, "The drowning man catches at a straw," The Turk, "He that falls into the sea-takes hold of the serpent to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the mouth," is a familiar saying; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the mouth," is a familiar saying; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made by God." "Never look a gift horse in the mouth," is a familiar saying; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made in the first pan into the first sendered by the reverse figure "Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest." "Cut off the nose to spite the face," finds a different rendering in "Wanting to make right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes. "He who dances must pay the fiddler," has an equivalent in "Wine and roast, res, yes count and bills; woo, woe!" There is much condensed with a shirtof fire. Hore the as a sight hit a fifth liberality of some people: "Generosity from the purse of another." And the hypo say the fever is lod; "The fox goes at the l	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first and will have to try again. A dry goods dealer has sned Queen of Denmark for a bill of four dred dollars. A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddo about to make his debut as an act Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphin trying to purchase a prominent New Y journal. Horace Greeley will deliver an cultural address at the Vermont Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13. The San Francisco papers say Josic Manafeld has bought a hou that city, which she will occupy penently. The Empress Maris of Russia written angrily to the King of Barabout that matter of jilting her daug is trying to induge the Czar of Russia written angrily to the King of Barabout that matter of jilting her daug is trying to induge the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. Li is said that Bishop Bayley, of Jersey, will soon be made Catholic Abishop of Battimore. Gen. Berdan, of sharpshooting is trying to induge the Czar of Russia buy more of his guns. Li is said that Brick Pomeroy $300,000 in his attempt to run "red burnalism in New York. Cot Charence Prentice, only so the late George D. Is a lumber deal Kentucky. His father thought he wou a Prentice him to his own trade. Peschka Leutner's origia was as being as that of Nilsson. Her father a cigar vender, and she commence in second career as a street singer. A late biography of Dr. Mary W. asserts that she spent her youthful damaking cathartic pills in Breckinridg Kentucky. The brother of the King of Por was a pupil of Rossini, the composer precently made his appellance at an entertainment give Paris by McThiers. The house of Ralph Wanto Eme in Concord, Mass., was burned We day morning. Joset, $5,000; insure $4,000. The library and furniture with his eldest daughter his political command of the Scotiar. Chief Justice Chase's health has the russend. The house of Ralph Wanto Eme in Concord, Mass., was burned We day morning. Joset, $5,000; insure $4,000. The library and furniture saved. Chief Justice Chase's health has the russend. The house of Ralph Wanto Eme

		THE FAIR SEX.	WESTERN ITEMS.	WATERING - PLACE NOTES.	GLEANINGS.
PERSONAL.	GLEANINGS. -Fifteen dollars will buy a lovely	-Nothing is talked of at Newport but	Onawa, lowa, shipped $10,000 worth		An expedition to fix the exact locality of the garden of Eden is spoken of
Henry Ward Beecher's annual hay has set in. A $10,000 residence is being built for	homestead of 80 acres in Floride.	endigree and blue blood. Riding habits are of black, blue-black	of cattle in one week. The Rock Island, Ill., County Fair begins on the 1st of August.	-Count Areo, of the foreign legation at Washington, is registered at Iauch's Ho-	—School houses in Kansas have in- creased from 200 in 1860 to nearly 2,000
Robert Collyer, in Chicago.	famine. A girl of eighteen is the ablest poker player in San Francisco.	or purplish-black cloths. —A new style of bracelets are called the "Margoerite" wristlets.	Milwaukce, Wisconsin, is distinguished for its bricks and lager beer.		in 1872. —Baltimore is complaining of the bad odor emitted by the water supplied to the ion papers. John Zundel, Beecher's organist, will	—Music, says Anerbach, washes away from the soul the dust of every day	Croquet players have struck for eight hours at the summer resorts.	 —An engine manufactory has been completed at Delaware, Illinois. —A factory at Oshaloosa, Iowa, makes 	lotta Grisi, the famous dancer. —A New York family passed through	city a masical convention shortly, at burg. New York.	-It is thought that the expense to	Wins, a la Marie Antoinette, are rapid- ly coming into fashion in Paris. The Isabel, a species of stone color, is	three hundred pounds of cheese a day.	Portland on their way to Bar. Harbor, a day or two since, with seventeen large Saratoga trunks as baggage, and one of ting quite a sensation as a comic star	be close upon £150,000. California has sent by steamer her	now the ashionable that in London. —"Japanese paste" is the latest device-	pion current depot of the Northwest. A farm near Mechanicsburg, Illinois,	them remarked they should stay all night if they liked it when they got there.	plaining of sun stroke.
Prince Yturbide, the adopted heir of ate Maximilian, of Mexico, is at Cape	first cargo of wheat wine and brandy di- rectly to England.	for ruining the complexion of our belies. —Industrious Oshkosh ladies average	contains one thousand bearing peach trees.	—Idlewild, once the lovely and favorite residence of Mr. N. P. Willis, is now owned by Mr. J. M. Courtenay, who will,	Cal. it is estimated, will produce 3,250,000
Gen. Rosecrans is devoting his time, gy and unsurpassed ability to railroad	—A Congress of the Internationalists is to be convened at the Hague on the 2nd of September.	Pink-lined Darasons Carried Inw Mc	over thirty thousand barrels of lime per	probably, not part with it, having pur-	-A Boston lithographer has lately reling in Mexico.	-Among the sixteen admitted to the	sunshine give a rosy flush to the fair face beneath.	—Sixteen steam whistles make it lively for the people of Ciinton, Iowa. —A club at Carlinville, Illinois, looks	dence. Mr. Courtenay is an enterprising New Yorker, President of the West Shore Railway.	marriage certificates for the Sandwich Islands.
is a common drunkard. Her name is is Mighells.	A once popular clergyman is now a transfer at Des Moines hauling stones in	—Wörth, of Paris, declares his best advertisements are constantly borne about by the ladies whose dresses he designs.	after the observation of the game law. The corn crop will be simply immense	ish the schottische and the polks from the mon prophet, is lecturing in New York	stead of finding sermons in them.	—Ultra-fashionable people in Bath, Eng- land, are imitating the fashion of the last century in the wearing of white wigs and	in Southern Kansas this season. —A camp meeting will be held near	hall-room, and we cannot even spare the galop. At a recent ball in Buckingham Palace there was not a schottische or	—At the recent annual distribution of ning of a new Roman Catholic school	_Mirrors taid over with gold are re-	perukes. —Another Indiana woman last week	Fairfield, Iowa, beginning August 22. —Hay is so abundant in Carroll county, Iowa, that wild grass is given away.	poiks on the programme, and but a sin- gle galop, and that occupied a degraded position next to the last on the list. And	the lifet brize for political economy was
Michael Carre, a Paris play writer author of many librettos of successful	ported to reflect sixteen times as power- fully as ordinary quicksliver ones.	accomplished the rapid feat of procuring a divorce, a marriage license, and a fresh husband, all within eight hours.	John Budd's little child drank Tye, at Albia, Iowa, and died soon afterward.	besides that, to be strictly en regle, the waltzes must be German, and the quad-	person arrested, convicted and sent to the ras, is dead, at 56 years. The Rev. Browne of Cincinnati offered ay the funeral expenses of the lad he	New York has imported over $2,100,000 worsh of fruit within the last six months.	-The late Mrs. Kilpatrick, of New Remnanck N. J. left $26,000 for the in-	-Olathe and Lawrence, Kansas, have recently had slight shocks of an earth-	rilles composed on French themes. —There is an alarming rumor in circulation at Long Branch, started by some	penitentiary is $1,200, while every boy educated at the expense of the State costs only $400.
od; but the offer was declined Dr. S. B. Hunt, of the Newark Adver-	Long Branch, this season, for both sexes.	creasing of the salaries of the Professors of the Princeton College: —Nurse-maids are now required by the	—Fine showers have been frequent in Southern Kansas during the last two	old fishermen, who say that an island is forming in front of the principal hotels	-Ashland, Wis., is a new place to go down on the map. Four months ago it was an uninhabited "howling wilder-
, is spoken of as the Republican candi- for Congress in the sixth New Jersey rict.	-The defunct New York Standard (Grant organ) brought $1,000 at sheriff's sale.	fashionable American mothers to wear the jaunty French caps, the badge of servitude	THE MAIL FOR THOUSENEETH TOWN HAI	an inlet. Something of this kind happened once at Rockaway, to the great grief of	ness," and now 400 people are living and expect to die there
The wife of Ximmes, Spanish Minis- to Rome, was formerly Miss Addison,	ing eider in the southern counties of Eng.	against which the bonnie lasses o' Dundee rebelled. —Bows are worn in profusion on the	—Canada thisties are growing abun-	hood of this island forming for the next	imperative upon an insurance company to
"ittsburgh, and is described as " one of loveliest of our American ladies." Mr. Isaac H. Bromley, late of the	London's great thoroughfare, Ludgate Hill, is to be paved with American wood	hair, the front of dresses, the sleeves, shoulders, and in all odd and unmanage able places, fastening down fichus, scarfs.	Wisconsin	at reduced rates in consequence of these	lawyer has just recovered the less of his library under that decision.
	at a cost of $25,000.	collars, sashes, belts, etc. —A husband pleaded to a libel for di-	-Poison in biscuits gave a whole family the cramps at Fulton, Illinois. They will recover.	—A Saratoga letter-writer says: "The men dress even worse than the women.
New Yorkers will learn with satis- ion that Mr. Jem Mace, the brutser,	and 1996.514 Roman Catholics. —A suit has been instituted in the su-	vorce on account of cruelty and neglect, that his wife, the libelant, spoke harsh- ly to him and threw pillows at him,	were visited by fifteen hundred persons	They enter the parior arrayed in tweed and light traveling suits. Alpaca coats the most comfortable and ugliest a man	estate near Brussels. The Italian cardi- nals are, however, opposed to the project.
nds to bestow himselt on Utah, and there. Madame Rudersdorff speaks six lan-	preme court at Chicago which impugns the validity of all tax sales made to en-	which resulted in dyspepsia. Divorce	The second second and the second seco	can wear—a garment without style, fit, or fashion; a garment limp, susbby, and for-	Mobile, Ala., put to his sweetheart the im-
ges, and writes English poems, which much sought after by composers. She	The number of supervisors of internal revenue is to be reduced from twenty-five	—A Milwaukee lady has just buried her seventh husband. She married in 1855 at the age of seventeen, took a second hus-	Onarga, Illinois. —A woman in Lee county, Iowa, never	eyes of a fashionable tailor; a garment which is an insult to the name of garment	plied with the utmost calmness and a sweet sigh of resignation, "Aything to best Grant dear" ow at Springfield. Martin Harley Carey, a well known ian leader, drowned himself in the	to ten when the new act goes into effect, August 1st.	band in 1869, her last in 1870, and she wants the eighth during the current	dumb. —The ex-soldiers of Delaware, Illinois	the men at the hotels wear them; and	-Compulsory education is being dis- cussed in Connecticut. The advocates of er on Saturday. He had been dis- rged from prisen sometime since on	in the potteries at Leeds, England, working nine hours a day, at the rate of sixty	-A correspondent, writing from Rocky Point, R. I., says: "Dolly Vardens are	torical society.	retrograding from the standard of civill- zation? Are we becoming more devoted	the measure state that there are 16,000
ount of insanity. Mrs. McCarthy has begun proceedings Albany against Mr. Thompson, of	-Beloit College, Wis., has in attendance	exclusively confined to the servants, and make very serviceable scrubbing dresse- and the like. They don't show dirt. A	don has been discovered four miles south of Peoria, Ill.	to comfort than to style? Has American taste culminated and passed into the de- cline? Melancholy—idea! Are alpaca	school at all. The Russian government has decided
ca, whom she attempted to shoot in a et car, for support for her two illegiti- e children.	Indian and a Turk, and one of the students is instructing a Japanese.	word to the wise is sufficient." —A tender-hearted woman kept twenty		more nomination but traical of the future	in the bank of Russia, as a precedent to
Mr. Sothern gave a variety of enter- ments on board the steamer Oceanic	is about to present M. Gounod with a silver baton, an inscription on vellum and a		The shipments of lead from Baxter Kan., over the Gulf road, during the	of American dress? Ominous suggestion!"	being admitted to do business in that country. The buildings for the Pennsylvania
ing his late voyage to England, by ch $400 were realized for the training of Indeatigable.	purse of money. -The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland has been mulcted in some $125 damages for	boring butcher. For this act of virtue the Society for the Protection of Animals have voted her a medal.	month of June amounted to 700,000 lbs. —Price and Gould had a fight at Tams City Iowa, and the former had part of his	THE WE ASKED THE INTIMENIAL MOUNTER	State Fair will be situated on the west side of Erte, Pa., beside the track of the
-Pearl Rivers, the New Orleans poetess, was so severely mauled a short time	alleged misconduct of the Dublin police	The reign of white muslin tuniques over timen underskirts is absolute. They	nose and upper jaw cut away with a saw John Geiger, of Aledo, III., couldn't	bor of Venice, for a specimen of the print-	commenced on the building last week, and e by the divorced wife of her husband, brates her recovery by the publication he Sunday Picayune of a poem which	for husbands. One day last week five	senting a very snowy appearance. Black	cat crow, and so he sold his paper the other day to a less conscientious Demo	our hands a little pamphlet entitled	the first of September. The following scale is given by the eafis the "Singing heart." Seth Green, of Rochester, has just re- ed a valuable gold medal from the	and west back east to "live with their mamma"	over garments. They are pretty clean	The Lawrence (Kan.) Tribune thinks	Sublime Porte, and these brethren of St.	duration of animal life: A hare will live ister of agriculture and commerce of French Republic, in token of apprecia-	They tell some reckless stories of the uncleanliness and cheap management in a Roston boarding house. The latest is that	- A Vienna correspondent divides brides into two classes, the serious and the smil-	on that they will be sold for two cents a	of the winged lion of St. Mark, still fly the Turkish flag. The Turks are a senten- tious people, and it might therefore be ex-	dog from 14 to 20, an ox 20, swine 25, a of his labors in pisciculture. He has a invited to visit France.	a pound of its butter appeared at a neigh- boring barber-shop to get its hair cut.	ing. The first enters with a queenly step and seems to say, "Don't look at me; don't you see I'm married, and that those days	missing, and it is feared he has absconded with $10,000. He took his new made	pected that they would make use of those	-At Chicago, during the great fire, a Sir Henry Holland, octogenerian agh he be is said to be planning an- er extensive tour, which he proposes to	The late are at Alpena, Michigan, destroying sixty five buildings, at a loss of $179,600, is supposed to have had its origin	are over?" The other comes up smiling,	bride with him. James Dillinger, of Decatur, The	condensed. Westid not as I the relication	press waron, standing near the North Side
ertake during the present season, and ch comprehends points so remote and videly apart as the North Cape and	in the municipal contest regarding the sale of liquor.	-A very finely-dressed lady on face the same and the same same same same same same same sam	erioccabately found him before its		used as the station house leira. Longfellow, Lowell, Prof. Schourn, Hon. J. G. Palfrey, 1885 C.	New York Observed present that william				The state of the s
throp, and other gentlemendook per	name of the Constant of the Section to the source of the land of the	gument against deg \ b = sacr
The Spesotor says that to sorman	States would buy 1,341,000,000 white	7 7 27 E
ly orthodox in England, but in Scot 1 there was always a suspicion that lid not sufficiently delight in the pro-	the enlarged to the size and style of the		on the second se of eternal punishment for the majority he human race.	Tribune, and is to be printed on the Wal- ter press, which strikes of 15,000 copies	-What lady is used to war? Millie	Peter Swa	are the prepare a prepares the reserved to the constant to the ne cutter Mocassin, made one jump the rank of a common seaman to	-The Levant Times reports a tremen-	Mation.	on horseback, a off and broke his neck	reveals the oriental prejudice against fed hair, as well as the buying and selling of human beings: "Do not buy a red haired
m ashore three miles from off Beau-	dons hail storm in the Province of Adri- anople. The stones were of the size of walnuts, and killed 2,000 sheep, 30 cows,		horseback when drunk.	person; do not sell one either: if you have any in the house, drive them away." And how much of the oriental duplicity is ex-	Stokes spent $7,000 on his first trial,
h, to prevent the capture of the colors the confederates.	and 10 horses, besides partially destroying the crops of 14 villages.	A woman's. "Still Life"—The whisky manufactur-	Tricks and Manners of the New York	pressed in this: "Kiss ardently the hands which you cannot cut off."	Queen of Denmark for a bill of four hun-
Dan of Ward Tamon's book Dobort	gave notice that he intended to spend $50 for a "new head" for his paper. The next	-A bad style of arithmetic-Division	"Ell Perkins" is with the seventh regiment at Saratoga. We clip from his letter to the New York Commercial Adver-	blances observed in the proverbs of all nations. We say in English, "The pot	-A brother of Mrs. Scott Siddens is attempted to buy up the whole	day one of his subscribers dropped him the following note: "Don't do it—better keep the money and boy a new head for	-To become the lion of a party it is not necessary to make a beast of one's self.	An innocent young lady asked me to-day if the seventh regiment fellows had seen	calls the kettle black:" the Italians, "The	Bristol, Eng. George W. Childs, of Philadelphia, is uncourtly stories about his father and adfather were exciting the first sensa-	-An enterprising genius in England	extracts teeth with great pains. Most	I service—been in many engagements. I told her they had—that almost every	cried to the crow. Avaunt blackamoor." the Germans, "One ass nicknames another "Longears;" The Catalaus, "Death said	journal.
	has undertaken to get up a grand buffalo hunting party there, which he proposes to pilot from the shores of Albion to the Re-	The light of a match will frighten a	ments, and many of them were probably engaged to several young ladies that very	to the man with his throat cut, How ugly you look?" and here we find the	Fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 13.
icut, was born in Germany. During	again, and all for the moderate sum of a trifle under five hundred dollars a head.	door. —Mrs. Trimmer is looking for a site for	opening her big brown eyes.	Turks saying, "The kettle calls the saucepan smutty." Dr. Franklin says, "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep	Josic Mansfield has bought a house in ke's Bulletin, which attained a con-	The Episcopal church in Virginia	a young lady's school. There are many sights wholly unfit for young ladies	"Well," said I, "you know New York is a large city?"	thee;" and the Turks have it, "It is well for a shopkeeper to be lame of one	nently. The Empress Maria of Russia has erence to the Union cause. At the cof his death he was on his way to rope.	men of his day worshipped, is in such a state of dilapidation as to threaten its ruin. Some $1,500 has been collected in	Jones and his wife agree grandly on one point—she thinks more of him than	Now, some of these nice looking fellows are engaged to young ladies below Four-	catches at a straw;" The Turk, "He that	about that matter of jilting her daughter. —It is said that Bishop Bayley, of New
-Mr. Duisenberg, the German consul at Francisco, has just received a fine	New York, but $3,000 more are needed for repairs.	of anybody else in the world—and so does	take up town—girls that they take to	to be saved." "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," said Sterne; the Turks have it, "The nest of a blind bird is made	Jersey, will soon be made Catholic Arch- bishop of Baltimore.
ied by an autograph letter from the	two men came into Greensburg last week	ed in his boots threatened to eat up the	"Yes." "Then some of them are sweet on girls on Twenty third street sweet on senti-	by God." "Never look a gift horse in the mouth," is a familiar saying, the Turks put it in this form: "The teeth of a horse	is trying to induce the Czar of Russia to buy more of his guns.
noutions during the late struggle of	Gen. Hobson's regiment of Union volun- teers, to aid in putting down the rebellion. They had never been in town before, and	William winds 2 males - landle do to have	mental girls, who dote on the Fifth avenue	of which a present has been made are not	$300,000 in his attempt to run "red-hot"
-Samuel Thatcher died in Bangor, Me.	had not heard that the war was over.	ticularly private afflictions, always let the	"Yes."	"Avoiding the rain to meet the tempest." "Cut off the pose to solte the face," finds a	-Col Clarence Prentice, only son of day, at the advanced age of ninety-six rs. Mr. Thatcher was born in Con- d. Mass., in 1776, graduated at Har-	sang before his sweetheart's house for two	ing in the course of a year."	string way up by the park—girls who delight in Thomas's garden concerts and	different rendering in Wanting to make right the eyebrow, pull out the eyes." "He	Kentucky. His father thought he wouldn't a Prentice him to his own trade.
d University in 1792, was made a Mason	was electrified after a short, rest by a cor- dial "thank you," gracefully propounced	Proper-minded Beadle to Forward Young Man Come, young gent you're	Twenty-third street and Central Park stris never see each other, and so they are	equivalent in "Wine and roast, res, res	beian as that of Nilsson. Her father was a cigar vender, and she commenced her oldest graduate of Harvard and the	window. At the grave of a wealthy and distin-	coming off." Forward Young Man to Proper-Minded	Boston girls, who know every other gir	dom in some of these proverbial sayings. The unwelcomeness of truth is thus with	A late biography of Dr. Mary Walker ept up. On Friday a boating party of	guished citizen of Vienna, recently, two ladies, each claiming to be the widow of the deceased, met by accident, each having	Beadle—"Well, I don't know that, either, if you don't let me in, for I'm the bride-	"Alas" said my young lady friend with a sigh, "the dear, innocent girls in New	tily suggested: "He that speaks truth must have one leg in the stirrup." And how true is this: "Every fish that escape	making eathartic pills in Breckinridge co., Kentucky.
cony. Harry Bowman, reporter of the eday North Zone, and late editor of the	come to decorate the grave with flowers and other emblems of affectionate remem-	-A man endeavored to find out the age	York ought to know this—it ought to be published—it—" "Sh! proof." I replied. "I'm the last	appears greater than it really is." Many will agree with the Turk that poverty is a shirt of the Herris a slight hit at the	was a pupil of Rossini, the composer, and a precently made his appearance as an ama-same day Wm. H. West, of Philadel- a, connected with the naval academy at		he couldn't see to count, he felt of. He told the dester who sewed up his hand	one to go back on our New York boys."	liberality of some people: "Generosity from the purse of another." And the hypo	Paris by M. Thier.
napolis, was drowned while bathing at be May.	vented by a French physician, by which	that this was a hard world for a laboring man. "I say Pompey," said one freedman to	DID PAUL HAVE A WIFE?—It was at early question whether Paul was married. The passage in the epistic to the Corin	do not penetrate into heaven." The cau	The house of Ralph Watto Emerson, in Concord, Mass., was burned Wednesday morning. Loss, $5,000; insured for vors to remove the stain of immorality	the heart is made to register photographi- cally its own pulsations. Such, it is said, is the peculiarity of the apparatus, in its	another, dis child has tried lots ob gift	thians, in which he speaks of himself as	thousand times, and cut once." And how	1 3.000. The library and furniture were deptation to different uses, that it may be modified so as to register the variations	Caser, I'd visc you to try a hand-cart, de	. I not precipite the potion that he might have	dying man regards not death, but asks i	kins, weary-of the tipre of doing nothing on land, is about to resume the position of

And of promoting sits growth.

The EAST.

The EAST.

The EAST.

The EAST.

The EAST.

The EAST.

And of promoting sits growth.

The EAST.

And of promoting sits states that we seem and intercepting sits states and i

The second of th

Hair Oils, Liquid Bluine and Black Willing Tak

others will be supplied with water by the aid of a Jarge wind mill. During the storm on Wednesday last, the residence of Mrs. John Boot was struck by lightning. Fortunately no person was injured, and not much damame done. There were two rods upon the building but the red streak respected neither. This is the first refreshing.

Be sure and get an Advertiseto neighboring tillages. Call at this office.

List of Letters remaining at the Post ONVENTION Office at Manchester, July 3d , 1872. Briant, David Servoner, Sam'l E.
Coldman, James Zahn, John Geolge
Persons calling for letters in the abor at will please say "advertised." C. WALBRIDGE, P. M.

Manchester, July 5th, 1872 215 250

ed, at this office. Call and see them. money.

The "C.B. & Q. B. B.," running from Chicago
The "C.B. & Q. B. B.," running from Chicago
through Galesburg to Burlington, has achieved a and at lowest prices, Rose & Bruegel's, reputation in the hat two years as the leading passenger Route to the west. At Burlington it connects with the great Burlington Route which runs variety of Bird Cages and Chamber direct through Southern Lows to Nobracks and Kansas, with close connections to California and Washtenaw County, on their way westward, can-not do better than to take the C. B. & Q. and Bur-struck a pie nic table, at Wampler's WISS MARIAN CASE NEW & FASHIONABLE The table was the property of C. W. MILLINERY! AND HAIR GOODS. neghbors were always borrowing it. And will aim to please all that may call, both i ORESEPORDENCE. PRICE AND ARTICLE,

NOW IS THE TIME TO Moorman was very stigry, and started SUBSCRIBE ENTERPRISE.

a revengeful manner. The old lady ar NOW IS THE TIME TO

In the Enterprise.

NOW IS THE TIME TO Pay For

All Work Warranted

SECULAR MOCKIN IN MANCHESTER.

New Stock! Large & Elegant! THE FIRST GUN-IS FIRED A MACHINE

For Trimming the Wall Paper will be used ri Hats & Caps, the Latest Style. CLARKSON & FIELD Boots & Shoes Who have received and are opening daily Childs Shoes in great variety of designs and colors

CROCKERY! New York and Boston pally of T, & E. Bootes make—will endure une for a great length of time, retaining its superority of whiteness and brilliancy of appearance. Buy Bootes ware and you have no dingy looking Crock. CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES Best Brand of Bleached and Brown Muslin Always to be found at this store.

Re A good Tea at 50cts per ib.—best at $1,56.

00

2

न्त्र

toves

CO

ardwa

Drugs, Patent Medicines, Toy Goods, Come and See the Confectionary, Notions, &c. I hope by promptness and fair dealing, to merit continuance of the very liberal nationaye hereto Yours Truly. Manchester, April 4, 1872. G. W. DOTY VARDENS!

Ladies' Handkerchefs at 5cts. Our 50 Cent 250,000 Pine Shingle

Rew Abbertisements. $1,00 Cassimers. Are worth looking after if you want to " 200,000 LATH! Save Money. Our Stock of Groceries

> Is full and we will sell as low as any one 60,000 feet of Fencing

Lagles of Manchester.

Office west of common Shop Main Super

Millinery Conds In Town, at Prices that Dely Competition. Dress Mak ing executed in an Improved Sixl GENTS SHIRTS MADE TO ORDER. DO NOT GO! I STILL MANUFACTURE RAKES!

Undertaking! AUCKEYE CULTIVATORS, I sim fully prepared to furnish Coffins and Hearse as usual, for funerals. Are the Best in Use. Sold by L. H. WEIR & SON. Something New!

To Consumptives. THE advertiser, having been permanently cured Call and see the Woven Wire Matrasses—the Best of that dread decrees, Consumption, by a simple remedy, is anxious to make known to the fetter own sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire

MAT D. BLOSSER, Publisher. L.H. WEIR & SON.

Would respectfully call the attention of the public to their Large and Well Selected Stock of

GENERAL HARDWARE Consisting of a complete line of Builders' Material, Carpenters' Tools, Farmers'

Hardware, Water Lime, Salt. Calcime Plaster &c. In fact, all goods usually kept in a First class Hardware Establishment. We would also annot

Rakes! Rakes. TAYLOR RAKES, which universally acknowledged to be the best Sulky Rakes in one. Will play for themselves in a seer. Also Respers, Mowers, Stanting Tooth Harrows, Wheel Cultivators, Etc., Etc., all of the heat manufacture

All goods will be sold at prices that defy Competition. Give us a call and satisfy conneives. Frompt attention given to the manufacture of Tin, Copper and Sheet Iron Ware.

L. H. WEIR & SON.

LARGEST & BEST SELECTED

Grand Mass Meetings

ASHIONABLE GOODS Silk. Black and colored Alpaca, Gronsdige, Lawn, Linen and Marsellies, Suitings, etc.

Stock of Goods in the county, comprising all the newcet and most

VARDEN DOLLY

Challies, Poplin, Percales, Muslin, Organda, Lawn and Prints.

SHAWLS and SCARFS

Parasols and Sun Umberalas

Our stock of Ribbons, Embroidered Edging, Genuine Thread Lac

In Domestic Goods

BOOTS AND SHOES. In which we seldom fail to suit in size, style, quality and price. ember the Banner Store, and give us an early call.

ADRIAN. MICHIGAN We have Received Direct from New York

The Largest, The Cheapest, the Best,

Ready-Made Clothing

Cloths, Cassimers, Vestings, Etc.,

bught into the City of Adrian, which we will sell to our Contumers Chosper than Cheapest in Michigan. We Defy all Competitors in our line to compare Goods and Prices....

Remember the Place, No. 23 Manmee Street ADRIAN, MICHIGAN NATE SCHLOSS, Salesn

THE NORTH

Hot Air Drafts

Gas Burnet

Ash Drawer& Grate.

Shaking and Dump-

Pine backof Reservoir

For Wood or Coal.

AMERICA

ROSE & BRUEGE

First class COOKING Stoves Essential to the Comfort and Happiness of Every Family DETROIT STOVE WORKS.

Devoted to State, County and Home News, Agriculture, Commerce, the Arts and Sciences etc .- A Paper for the Farmer, Mechanic, Merchant and Family Circle. WAT D. BLOSSER, Proprietor.

V()L. 5. NO. 45. MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, AUGUST 8, 1872.

MACK, SCHMID & CO.

SAM. KIRCHHOFER, Cashi

TO INSURE

CHURCH DIRECTORY. Ach Abbertisements GERMAN AMERICAN BAN THE RIVER SIDE Services at 10 A. M. and ? P. M. Social meet Medicinal Springs Deposits Received and interest paid on Mo WATER CURE!

J. D. KIEF, Proprietor.

HARRISON HAY, Superintendent. Manchester, Aug. 7th, 1872.

CONKLIN HOUSE, MANCHESTER, MICH

This House has been lately fitted up in Conklin Block, North side of Exchange Place. It is locate

Green and Can Fruits

Trunks, Whips, Horse-

Manchester Mich., May 1st. 1872,

Evening Evening Breining St. B. A. T. Sabbath Services at 10% A. M. and 8 P. M. Sabbath school at 12 M. Young People's Prayer-meeting School at 12 M. Toung People's Prayer-meeting Three-day-avenings. General Frayer-meeting Thurs-Their Medicinal Properties rank them equal to any in the State.

A First-class Bath House has been erected LUTHERIAN—Rev. I. G Hildner. Service every alternate(sabbath at 2P. M. ATHOLIC. Rev. F. Alguayer. Services every alternate Sabbath at 10 o'clock A. Water and Air Baths of all temperature, also, Shower and Medicate baths are employed with advantage in the trea ment of all chronic diseases.

M. Sanday Schoolat 120'clock.
M. E. CHURCH, SHARON-Bev. Wm. C. Way. SOCIETIES.

MANCHESTER LODGE No. 148 of F. & A. x will meet at Masonic Hall in regular commu MERIDIAN CHAPTER No. 148 s. A. M.

ERIDIAN CHAPTER No. 148 s. A. M.

Will meet at Masonie Hall in regular Convocation Wednesday Evenings on or proceeding each full moon.

S. FITZGERALD, Sccy.

A DONIRAM COUNCIL No 24 s. & s. M.

Dill meet at Masonic Hall in regular Convo-MANCHESTER LODGE No. 7 of a k. M. will meet at Masonic Hall in regular commination Tuesday Evenings on or preceding each femous.

E. P. Graffe, Secy.

MANCHESTER G. W. M. A. Association.— M. will meet at their rooma in Goodycar's Block, on the First Monday of each month B. G. Scharren, Cor. Sec. y. Business Cards. R. PALMER, Attorney at Law, Solicitor i Chancery and Notary Public. Office i hester, Michigan.

Particular attention given to all collections and PEOPLE'S BANK OF MANCHESTER.—()r.
I have a la ganized under the General Banking Law of the lists or Michigan. Capital $50,000, do a general banking business. Money to lonn at reasonable rates.
I. D. WAATKINS, President,
J. D. VAN DHYN, Vice Pres

O. F. HALL, Cashier

GOODYEAR HOUSE, MANCHESTE This bouse has lately been completed, and furnished in first-class style, and is now one of the finest Hotels in the State.

A good livery in connection with the house.

MUNSON GOOPY East, Justics of the Peace of the Goodwar is Biliok. D. Ves DUYN, Conveyancer and Notary M. KAPPLER, Notary Public, Sharon, (Ma

M E. MUNGER, Physician and Surgeon. Of D. COREY, Conveyancer and Notary Public.

Collecting and all other business left with 1

Residence on DAWES, TAYLOR & CO., Manufactures of

MENNERAL

It is Centrally Located, Jackson, dep. Having good accommodations. HENET YOUNGHAMS, Prop'r.
Manchester, Aug. 7th, 1872 253 COLEG BORTH. ...10:55 A. M. 8:00 " ...12:61 9:10 F. M. ...1:15 F.M. 10:19 " indianapolie. Le. 5.00 a.m.

LOCAL ITEMS.

The Gen. Harrest Book Clies. W. Akin,
The Test total of the Wampier's Lake House, will give a party on the 16th of August.

565 63 gay time, and good treatment, that they sessio

The firm will hereafter be known as Dorey, Moore's Co., who are now receiving the largest and best stock of lumber ever brought to this market.

233-256

To Manual London Moore and London Moore and South. Als Jackson for the East, West and South. Als Jackson for the East, West and North. CHARLES PAINE, Sup't.

NEW & FASHIONABLE

MILLINERY!

PRICE AND ARTICLE

A First-class Meat Market

IN MANCHESTER,

Salt Fish, Sugar and Country-cured Ham

POULTRY

S & W MERRITHEW

Where you can get the best cuts of

A WANT SUPPLIED

In Good Companies, An analysis of the springs will be furnished up- FOR SAFETY TALL CAKS FROM LITTLE ACORNS GROW-

But they must have something to give them a start. Call at the Enderprise office and give us a start by paying that little account.

MAT D. BLUSSER, Publisher.

MAT D. BLUSSER, Publisher. MISS MARIAN CASE

Hartford Insurance Company, of Hartford, C

HOUSE A Good Company! Tea and Coffee We don't take any 2d class or Doubtful comp

Fresh & Salt Meats SALT FISH! THE SINGER-THE STANDARD Sewing Machine I have a large stock of all goods in my line whi Of the World!

Chickens and other Eowls always on hand Over 200,000 Machines are now HALL, NASH & CO., SINGER MANUFACTURING CO.

PEOPLE'S BANK Every Family Should I ... All kinds of Double & Single

At the Close of Business, Satarday June erai Banking Law of Michigan Revenue Stamps. 25 22 will always find it there. All are in. The meeting was called to order by Stock Subscriptions. 15,300 00 Legal Tender and News Bask Notes. 7: 10,55233 vited. Skutt's Band will furnish the Gilman chosen President pre tem, the 86,277 30 music. Bill, $2,50. Go, and enjoy president being absent.

Woot. - Rose & Bruegel's books show that they have bought about 35,000 The farmers are just commencing to is the time when laboring men and men of bring it into market. business should take a recreation from day for residents of East Manchester. rope, or even Long Branch or Lake Su-A little girl of Warren Kemble's was perior, so they must be content with the 1:18 badly scald by tripping a basin of hot water over her, from the effects of which sport at some of the beautiful lakes that she died on Sunday evening. She suffered great pain although everything was it costs but a nominal sum and consumes done to alleviate it. but a small amount of time

READY FOR BUSINESS.—The River Feeling that a substantial benefit Side Medicinal Springs were opened on might be derived both mentally and the 5th of August for the reception of physically, by shaking off the cares of visitors, and is now in first-class shape the ENTERPRISE, and taking a trip out to accommodate the public. They are to Charlie Akins, we stuck our quilt beautifully located on the banks of the away and at an early hour on Saturday River Raisin, upon the opposite side of morning we were on the road. which is a magnificent grove tastefully which is a magnificent grove tastefully laid out in walks, croquet grounds, etc.

The building is fitted up in first-class style, and for bathing facilities, possesses all the modern facilities. The medicinal properties of these natural flowing State, was sufficient to awaken an inter-

State, and the proprietor, J. D. Kief, we arrived upon the banks of that beautiful lake and saw the smiles upon the deserves liberal patronage from our citiountenance of mine host, showing clearzens and the public at large. ly that he was glad to see us, and was ready to render any assistance. We In correction of an erroneous ment made in the Detroit Post of the Fishing-tackle were soon brought into the second crop of Potatoe Bugs are coming on, and farmers are buying Paris ment made in the potator of cast reflection requisition and boats occupied by our upon the carclessness of Mrs. Kimble as party. We might as well state here the consequence of our child being scald that we came to the lake more for a ed. I would say, that Mrs. Kimble did good time, and the ride, than for fishing.

Three teams are engaged in drawing not know of Mr. Mather's boy being However, we succeeded in capturing straw for the new paper-mill of Reynolds drowned until fully one half hour after enough of the finny tribe to give the our child was burned. Mrs. Kimble, in frying pan a very savory flavor, and to We are informed by farmers that the performance of her Saturday afternoon supply the wants of the inner man. wheat crop this year is far above an work, had occasion to set a pail partly Wampler's Lake lies partly in Lenafilled with hot water on the stove hearth, wee and partly in Jackson counties; The Manchester Brass Band will not and turning away from it for an instant Washtenaw county joining on to the two give street concerts unless the people as you might say, the child at the same former countries only a few rads from the will build a stand for them to play upon. time noticing the pail caught hold of the care and of the lake. The shores of the will build a stand for them to play upon.

A handsome little book—the Manchester-Directory will be issued by us in September. Bu not fail to subscribe seed to play upon her person or nearly every and and the pair of the water fell upon her person or nearly every and the water fell upon her person or nearly very deep and abounds with large to

TERMS: $2. a Year in Advance

WHOLE NO. 253

Of all other seasons in the year this serth side of the lake, and commands a Roll called, members present, Ottma

The content of the property of the content of the property of the content of the property of t

ANATHAL CANNALS

New ROOT AND RIOS STONE 1

New