| The child who cried, for an hour | It is r |
|--|--|
| was to a mount daily like A | peculiar any busi |
| whale? When she's pouring | ordinary is not hi |
| min to stare you in the face. | Few sch their dev |
| No other living thing can go so: | sake, and |
| Why is the norson who never | attained. |
| Leve a wager as bed as a resulting | of circum otherwis |
| to their treaters are recommended to | clear cou down in |
| track because the switch is misplaced. | but the n |
| -It is remarked that wood will | and coud his trium |
| men folks to saw and sput. | surround is less of |
| Love is a thing in four letters, yet sometimes in a breech of promise | than is true tha |
| case hundreds are produced. | escape as |
| _"Felt slippers." advertised in the shoe stores, are thought to be those | form no i is obedie |
| felt by boys in their rude young days. | ly and d |
| Schoolmaster—"What is no- thing "Boy—"It is when a man | is based thing ha |
| make you to hold his horse, and just | are able |
| Says, Thank you." —At what time of life may a man | quire w |
| be said to belong to the vegetable kingdom? When long experience | failing hor other |
| has made him sage. | from suc more, w |
| -Some thoughtful person says: | are unw |
| "It is unkind to ridicule those items in the papers about centenarian; | seek the self-deni |
| several have have tried it and failed." | sent eas |
| -An Indiana paper says girls should be taught that God made them | the end |
| in His own image, and that no smount of tight-lacing will improve | offers a |
| the model, | begin a |
| The most disappointed woman in New York is the lady who had a | differen |
| lot of sarcasm for her son-in-law elect, and couldn't use it because the match | and the |
| was broken on the day before that | has not |
| appointed for the wedding. —A Pennsylvania manufacturing | and is n in full th |
| establishment has been discharging | 4 |
| men for telling falsehoods. The plan, if properly carried out, would be apt | |
| to paralyze the industry of the | A ger Newfou |
| —"Good morning," said a com- positor to the head of a fleurishing | a frienc |
| positor to the head of a flourishing family. "Have you any daughters | Having |
| who would make good tye-setters?" "No but, I have a wife that would | ceiving |
| make a very good devil." | article l |
| -A telegraph messenger boy got his dispaches mixed the other day, | marked |
| and handed a jockey a telegram which | the dog |
| read: "Can you supply our pulpit next Sunday?" and to a well-known | miles. |
| clergyman a dispach which read: The race is postponed till Monday. | from hi |
| Can't you come down and spend | The do |
| | rode or |
| | |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- | their gr |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the | their gr ful mes the day |
| "What is love, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- ioners, alluding, of course, to the word in its esciptant sense. Free sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. | their grant the day the shid the shid the shid too har |
| "What is fove, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. How, fve, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just | their grant ful mes the day he had the shi too large staid he gentlen |
| "What is fove, Namey?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. Hoo, fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft-like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad | their grant ful mes the day he had the shi too large staid he gentlen |
| What is love. Namey?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- ioners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptant sense. If the word in its ceriptant sense is a daft-like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or lassle to have." | their gradumes the day he had the shift too he stand he gentlen noise n look at ed, rem |
| "What is love, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. Hoor, tye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft-like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad or lassle to have." Washington Society. | their grade the day he had the shi two hards staid he gentlen noise in look at ed, remoon putime the shift of |
| What is love, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- ioners, alluding, of course, to the word in its esciptant. Sense. I we sit," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or lassic to have." Washington Society. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic | their gr ful mes the day he had the shi the shi tree has staid h gentlen noise n look at ed, rem coin pu time th the dog their he |
| "What is fove, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. "Head, fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft-like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad or lassle to have." Washington Seclety. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing: women come to the place for | their gr ful mes the day ha had; the shi tra larg staid h gentlen noise n look at ed, rem coin pu time ti the dog their he ed quie supped |
| "What is love, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- ioners, alluding, of course, to the word in its esciptant sense. "Hoo, Ive, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, 'dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or lassie to have." Washington Seclety. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere the sake of it, as they go nowhere | their grade in the day the half the shift the shift the shift the stand half the stand half the stand half the shift the dog their he ed quie supped bed character the description of the supped the supped the supped the supped the stand half the supped t |
| "What is fove, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. "Head, fve, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or lassle to have." Washington Season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere clie. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there | their gr ful mes the day he had the shi tax large staid h gentlen noise n look at: coin pu time th the dog their he ed quie supped bed cha |
| "What is love, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- ioners, alluding, of course, to the word in its esciptant sense. "Here, ive, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, 'dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad or lassie to have." Washington Society. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles. | their gradu mess the day he had the shi true large staid he gentlen noise in look at ed, rem coin put time the day in their he ed quite supped bed chas one of t shilling by the |
| "What is fove, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. How, fve, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or laste to have." Washington Scelety. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when writhed by wealth and pertina- city, open the whole charmed sound | their grain mess the day he hall the shi true har staid he gentlen noise n hook at the dog their he ed quies supped ted the supped ted the supped to the shilling by the state out of the supped their he dog their he do the shilling by the state out of the supped their he do the shilling by the state out of the supped their he dog the shilling by the state out of the supped their supped their supped their supped the |
| "What is love, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. "Hoo, tye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, 'dina ask me sie a daft-like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad or lassle to have." Washington Society. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of cull- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when fortified by wealth and pertina- city, open the whole charmed sound of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in Washington. | their grain in the day he had a the shi tree has staid he gentlen noise na look at the dog their he day the day the day the day the day their he day their he day their he day their he day |
| "What is fove, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. "Host- fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or laste to have." Washington Scelety. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when intiffied by wenth and pertina- city, open the whole charmed sound of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in Washington. There it is an interchange of kindli ness between households of friends; | their gradu mess the day be had the shi true har staid he gentlen noise in look at ed, rem coin put time the day their he ed quie supped their he ed chis one of the shilling by the breeche out of the mose of th |
| "What is love, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. "Hoo, tye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, 'dina ask me sie a daft-like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad or lassle to have." Washington Society. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere clise. Through the system of cull- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when fortified by wealth and pertina- city, open the whole charmed cound of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in Washington. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, | their grain messen the day he hall the shi true har staid he gentlen noise n look at the dog their he de quies supped ted the shilling by the shilling by the out of ton accompose the money of the shilling his he was the shilling their he do the shilling by the shilling the shill |
| "What is love, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- ioners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. "Hoot, two sir," answered Nanny, blushing, 'dina ask me sie a daft-like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad or lassle to have." Washington Society. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere cise. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when intifical by wenth and pertina- city, open the whole charmed sound of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in Washingion. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance: | their grain mess the day he had a the shi tan har staid he gentlem noise nations at the day their he day thein he day their he day the day their he day their he day their he |
| "What is fove, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. "Host- fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or laste to have." Washington Scelety. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when intified by wealth and pertina- city, open the whole charmed round of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike soclety in Washington. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concern- | their gradu mess the day he had the shi true has staid he gentlen noise in look at ed, rem coin put time the day their he ed quit supped their he ed chis one of the shilling by the breeche out of the money of the money end the money end the shilling the money end the money end the shilling the money end the money end the shilling the money end the shilling the money end the money end the shilling the shilling the money end the shilling the shil |
| "What is fove, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. "Host- fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or laste to have." Washington Scelety. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when intified by wealth and pertina- city, open the whole charmed round of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike soclety in Washington. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concern- | their gradu mess the day he had the shi true has staid he gentlen noise in look at ed, rem coin put time the day their he ed quit supped their he ed chis one of the shilling by the breeche out of the money of the money end the money end the shilling the money end the money end the shilling the money end the money end the shilling the money end the shilling the money end the money end the shilling the shilling the money end the shilling the shil |
| "What is love, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. "Head, tye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, 'dina ask me sie a daft-like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad or lassle to have." Washington Seclety. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when for lifted by wenth and pertun- city, open the whole charmed round of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in washingion. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concern- ed—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new rabble at its heels; friend- | their grain mess the day he had a the shi transment of the control |
| "What is fove, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. Head, five, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or lastle to have." Washington Seclety. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere class. Through the system of calling, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when fortified by wealth and pertinative, open the whole charmed sound of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in the charmed sound of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in other cities in a summand of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in other cities in a summand of pleasure is a summand of pleasure is concerned. Its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new rabble at its heels; friend ships are accidents of the day, diploment is carried on by diploment is carri | their gradin mess the day he had a the shid he gentlem noise in look at the dog their he shilling by the brocket the shilling which, returne whole in around |
| "What is fove, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. Head, five, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or lastle to have." Washington Seclety. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere class. Through the system of calling, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when fortified by wealth and pertinative, open the whole charmed sound of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in the charmed sound of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in other cities in a summand of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in other cities in a summand of pleasure is a summand of pleasure is concerned. Its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new rabble at its heels; friend ships are accidents of the day, diploment is carried on by diploment is carri | their gradin mess the day he had a the shid he gentlem noise in look at the dog their he shilling by the brocket the shilling which, returne whole in around |
| "What is fove, Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. "Host, five, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or laste to have." Washington Scolety. Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of calling, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when writhen by wenth and pertinative, open the whole charmed sound of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society is the festivity of happy anniversaties, the union of families in new ties, the union of families in new ties, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concerned its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new following, each Congress thas a new rabble at its heels; friendships are accidents of the day, diplomacy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Nevertheless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle | their gradu mess the day he had a the shiften he gentlen noise in look at ed, rem coin putime the day their he ed quie supped their he ed quie supped bed chis one of the shifting by the breeche out of the more pocket in a shifting which, returne whole in admirs our around two Mit the used he was the shifting which is shifting the shifting whole in a shifting a shifting the shifti |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. "Head, fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, 'dina ask me sie a daft-like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad or lassle to have." Washington Seclety. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when fortified by wenth and pertun- city, open the whole charmed round of pleasure. Society in other cities is stotally unlike society in washingion. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as small number of residents is concern- ed—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new rabble at its heels; friend- ships are accidents of the day, diplo- macy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Never- theless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm, are not absent from it on the contrary, there is more of that | their grain mess the day he had a the shi tan har staid he gentlem noise nation from the day their he day the shilling by the shilling brocket the shilling which, returned whole in around two Mi with the wead he went though though the shilling around two Mi with the shilling the shilling around the shilling the shilli |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. Head, tye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, 'dina ask me sie a daft-like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad or lassle to have." Washington Society. A writer in Lippincott's says that a 'Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of cull- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when furtified by wealth and pertina- city, open the whole charmed sound of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in washingion. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concern- ed—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new following, each Congress has a new rabble at its heels; friend- ships are accidents of the day, diplo- macy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Never- thelass, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm, are not absent from it, on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for it is sustained by | their gradius mess the day he had the shi trushed he had the shi trushed he had the shi trushed he had the had the had the he had the he had the had the had the had the he had the had the he had the |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. How, fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or laste to have." Washington Seelety. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when invitited by weathr and pertina- city, open the whole charmed round of pleasure. Society in the stingion. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concern- ed—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new following, each Congress thas a new rabble at its heels; friend- ships are accidents of the day, diplo- macy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Never- theless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm, are not absent from it on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for it is sustained by the chosen intellect and beauty of the continent. | their gradius messes the day he had the shiften he stated he gentlen noise in look at ed, rem coin put time the day their he ed quite supped their he ed quite supped bed chis one of the shifting by the breeche out of the money of the money of the shifting which, returned whole in around two Mit with the cused he went though slipping ed that tell Signature. |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. How, fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or laste to have." Washington Seelety. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when invitited by weathr and pertina- city, open the whole charmed round of pleasure. Society in the stingion. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concern- ed—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new following, each Congress thas a new rabble at its heels; friend- ships are accidents of the day, diplo- macy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Never- theless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm, are not absent from it on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for it is sustained by the chosen intellect and beauty of the continent. | their gradius messes the day he had the shiften he stated he gentlen noise in look at ed, rem coin put time the day their he ed quite supped their he ed quite supped bed chis one of the shifting by the breeche out of the money of the money of the shifting which, returned whole in around two Mit with the cused he went though slipping ed that tell Signature. |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. How, fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or laste to have." Washington Seelety. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when invitited by weathr and pertina- city, open the whole charmed round of pleasure. Society in the stingion. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concern- ed—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new following, each Congress thas a new rabble at its heels; friend- ships are accidents of the day, diplo- macy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Never- theless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm, are not absent from it on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for it is sustained by the chosen intellect and beauty of the continent. | their gradius messes the day he had the shiften he stated he gentlen noise in look at ed, rem coin put time the day their he ed quite supped their he ed quite supped bed chis one of the shifting by the breeche out of the money of the money of the shifting which, returned whole in around two Mit with the cused he went though slipping ed that tell Signature. |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. How, fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or laste to have." Washington Seelety. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when invitited by weathr and pertina- city, open the whole charmed round of pleasure. Society in the stingion. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concern- ed—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new following, each Congress thas a new rabble at its heels; friend- ships are accidents of the day, diplo- macy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Never- theless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm, are not absent from it on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for it is sustained by the chosen intellect and beauty of the continent. | their gradius messes the day he had the shiften he stated he gentlen noise in look at ed, rem coin put time the day their he ed quite supped their he ed quite supped bed chis one of the shifting by the breeche out of the money of the money of the shifting which, returned whole in around two Mit with the cused he went though slipping ed that tell Signature. |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. Head, fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or laste to have." Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when fortified by wenth and pertina- city, open the whole charmed sound of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in Washington. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long nequaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concern- ed—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new rabble at its heels; friend- ships are accidents of the day, diplo- macy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Never- thelass, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm; are not absent from it; on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for it is sustained by the chosen intellect and beauty of the continets. You may meet admirals there who have sailed round the world, generals who have fought mighty battles, and priests who may yet be Popes, men and women who are fig- ures of the century;—they will tell you the romance of their | their gradiumes the day be had a the shi tax hars staid he gentlen noise in look at ed, rem coin put time the day their he day their he day their he do no of their he do no of their he do no of their he shilling by the breeche out of the mo pocket the mo pocket the shilling which, returne whole in the shilling with the shilling their shilling their shilling their shilling day the tell su wasn't he down the cooked ter: "A he good redown to down the cooked ter: "A he good redown the cooked ter: "A he |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. Head, fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or laste to have." Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when artified by wenth and pertina- city, open the whole charmed sound of pleasure. Society in the distingion. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concern- ed—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new following, each Congress thas a new rabble at its heels; friend- ships are accidents of the day, diplo- macy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Never- theless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm, are not absent from it on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for it is sustained by the chosen intellect and beauty of the continent. You may meet admirals there who have sailed round the world, generals who have fought mighty battles, and priests who may yet be Popes men and women who are fig- ures of the century;—they will tell you the romance of their tarvel, the hear theat of their successes, and you will contrive to hear its and the travel, the hear theat of their successor. | their gradiumes the day he had the shifted he had the shifted he had the shifted he had the supped to he had the shifted he had the h |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. Here, fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, 'dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad or lastle to have." Washington Season is a generic thing: women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when fortified by wealth and pertun- city, open the whole charmed round of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in other cities is totally unlike society in washingion. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as small number of residents is concern- ed—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new rabble at its heels; friend- ships are accidents of the day, diplo- macy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Never- theless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm, are not absent from it on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for it is sustained by the chosen intellect and beauty of the continent. You may meet admirals there who have sailed round the world, generals who have fought mighty battles, and priests who may yet be Popes, men and women who are fig- ures of the century;—they will tell you the romance of their travel, the heart beat of their successes, and you will contrive to hear it for all the account of the lay figures for it for the lay figures for | their gradiumes the day he had a the shi tax har staid he gentlen noise in look at the dog their he shilling by the breeche out of ton accomposed the more pocket the shilling which, returne whole in the shilling with the cused he went though slipping ed that their shilling wasn't he hasn't around two Mi with the cused he went though slipping ed that their shilling wasn't he hasn't around the shilling |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. Head, fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, 'dina ask me sie a daft-like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad or lastle to have." Washington Season is a generic thing: women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when fortified by wenth and pertina- city, open the whole charmed round of pleasure. Society in other cities is stotally unlike society in Washingion. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as small number of residents is concern- ed—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new following, each Congress has a new rabble at its heels; friend- ships are accidents of the day, diplo- macy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Never- theless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm, are not absent from it on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for it is sustained by the chosen intellect and beauty of the continent. You may meet admirals there who have sailed round the world, generals who have fought mignty battles, and priests who may yet be Popes, men and women who are fig- ures of the century;— they will tell you the romance of their travel, the heart heat of their successes and you will contrive to hear it for sill the accompanying roar and sweep in which they are the lay figures for amirants to measure, and the proper | their gradiumes the day he had |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. Head, fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or laste to have." Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when fortified by wenith and pertina- city, open the whole charmed sound of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in Washington. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long nequaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concern- ed—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new rabble at its heels; friend- ships are accidents of the day, diplo- macy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Never- theless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm; are not absent from it; on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for it is sustained by the chosen intellect and beauty of the continets. You may meet admirals there who have sailed round the world, generals who have fought mightly battles, and priests who may yet be Popes, men and women who are fig- ures of the century;—they will tell you the romance of their travel, the heart beat of their successes, and you will contrive to hear it for all the accompanying roar and sweep in which they are the lay figures for aspirants to measure, and the proper ty of reporters. In such a society, of converse all the aspertites are soften type of the century and the proper ty of reporters. In such a society of | their gradiumes the day be hard the shi true hard the shi true hard the shi true hard the day their hard the day their hard the day their hard the shilling by the breeche out of ton account the more pocket the shilling which, returne whole returne whole returned the shipping of the shipping |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. Miscot, tye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, 'dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad or lassle to have." Washington Seclety. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when fortified by wenth and pertina- city, open the whole charmed round of pleasure. Society in other cities is stotally unlike society in washingion. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long nequaintance. But in Washington—except so far as small number of residents is concern- ed—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new following, each Congress has a new rabble at its heels; friend- ships are accidents of the day, diplo- macy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Never- theless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm, are not absent from it on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for if is sustained by the chosen intellect and beauty of the continent. You may meet admirals there who have sailed round the world, generals who have fought mighty battles, and priests who may yet be Popes, men and women who are fig- ures of the century;—they will tell you the romance of their range, the heart beat of their successes and you will contrive to hear it for all the accompanying roar and sweep in which filey are the lay figures for aspirants to measure, and the proper ty of reporters. In such a society, of converse, all the asperities are soften- ed; thi | their gradius messes the day he had the shi transition in the shi transition in the shift of their he do guite the shilling by the breeche out of the shilling by the monocket the shill which, returned whole in the shift went though slipping ed that though slipping ed that the shift of a rut to buy my day have, jawed, round to buy my day have, jawed, round to buy my day have, jawed, round the shift of a rut to buy my day have, jawed, round the shift of a rut to buy my day have has he ha |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. Head, fye, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, 'dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or laste to have." Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when intitled by wenith and pertina- dity, open the whole charmed sound of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society in Washington. There it is an interchange of kindli- ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long nequaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concern- ed—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new following, each Congress has a new rabble at its heels; friend- ships are accidents of the day, diplo- macy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Never- theless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm, are not absent from it; on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for it is sustained by the chosen intellect and beauty of the continent. You may meet admirals there who have sailed round the world, generals who have fought mighty battles, and priests who may yet be Popes, men and women who are fig- ures of the century;—they will tell you the romance of their travel, the heart-heat of their successes, and you will contrive to hear it for all the accompanying roar and sweep in which they are the lay figures for aspirants to measure, and the proper ty of reporters. In such a society, of converse, all the asperities are soften- ed; this man's daughter dances with the son of his arch enemy; de | their gradiumes the day be hard the shi transition of the shift one of the shifting by the breeche out of their hard two Mi with the went though slipping of the hash slipping of a rutto buy in the hash Jane. Ja |
| Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. If the word in its ceriptural sense. I make set a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or laste to have." Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of call- ing, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when intiffed by wenth and pertina- city, open the whole charmed sound of pleasure. Society in other cities is totally unlike society is accessible to all, ness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversa- ries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concern- ed—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new rabble at its heels; friend- ships are accidents of the day, diplo- macy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Never- theless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm, are not absent from it on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for it is sustained by the chosen intellect and beauty of the continent. You may meet admirals there who have sailed round the world, generals who have fought mighty battles, and priests who may yet be Popes, men and women who are fig- ures of the century;—they will tell you the romance of their travel, the heart beat of their successes, all the accompanying roar and sweep in which they are the lay figures for aspirants to measure, and the proper- ty of reporters. In such a society, of converse, all the asperities are so | their gradiumes the day be had the shi true has staid he gentlen noise in look at ed, rem coin put time the day their he ed quie supped their he ed quie supped their he ed the shilling by the breeche out of the money of the money of the shilling which, returned the shilling which, returned the ship he ed the ship he ed the ship he ed the ship he has brocked ter: "A he sold the ship he has been down to buy my dat lastin" he has lawed, round it obuy my dat lastin' he round i |
| What is love. Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parishioners, alluding, of course, to the word in its ceriptural sense. "Head, fee, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst inside complaint for a lad or lastle to have." Washington Society. A writer in Lippineott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of calling, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when for timed by wealth and pertinative, open the whole charmed round of pleasure. Society in Washington. There it is an interchange of kindliness between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversaries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as small number of residents is concerned—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new rabble at its heels; friendships are accidents of the day, diplomacy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Nevertheless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm, are not absent from it on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for it is sustained by the chosen intellect and beauty of the continent. You may meet admirals there who have sailed round the world, generals who have fought mighty battles, and priests who may yet be Popes, men and women who are figures for the continent. You may meet admirals there who have sailed round the world, generals who have fought mighty battles, and priests who may set be Popes, men and women who are figures for the continent. You may meet admirals there who have sailed round the world, generals who have fought may for an admiral sthere who have sailed round the world, generals who have fought of the chosen of his part | their gradius mess the day he had the shi true has staid he gentlen noise in look at ed, rem coin put time the shi their he ed quite supped their he ed quite supped bed chis one of the shilling by the money of the money of the money of the shilling wasn't though with the used he whole in the shipping ed that though slipping ed that though slipping ed that the hasn't he hasn |
| What is fove. Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parishioners, altuding, of course, to the word in the eriphant sense. Here, five, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dima ask me sie a daff like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad or lassle fo have." Washington Society. A writer in Lippincott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere cire. Through the system of calling, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when fortified by wealth and pertunctly, open the whole charmed found of pleasure. Society in there cities is totally unlike society in Washington. There it is an interchange of kindliness between households of friends, it is the festivity of happy anniversaries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concerned—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new rabble at its heels; friend—ships are accidents of the day, diplomacy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a domble meaning. Nevertheless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm; are not absent from it; on the continent. You may meet admirals there who have sailed round the world, generals who have fought mighty battles; and priests who may yet be Popes, men and women who are figures for its man's daughter dances with the son of his arch enemy; deference is accorded to the opinion of a woman on public affairs as if she already possessed her ir is the family and skillfug and over the less in the proper type of the century; they will the son of his arch enemy; deference is accorded to the opinion of a woman on public affairs as if she already is accorded to the opinion of a woman on public affairs as if she already is accorded to the opinion of | their gradiumes the day be hard the shi transfer the shi |
| What is fove. Nancy?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parishioners, altuding, of course, to the word in the eriptumt sense. Here, five, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a daft like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad or lassle to have." Washington Society. A writer in Lippineott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of calling, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when fortified by wealth and perfunctly, open the whole charmed sound of pleasure. Society in Washington. There it is an interchange of kindliness between households of friends, it is the festivity of happy anniversaries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concerned its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new following, each Congress has a new rabble at its heels; friendships are accidents of the day, diplomacy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a domble meaning. Nevertheless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm, are not absent from it on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for it is sustained by the chosen intellect and beauty of the continent. You may meet admirals there who have sailed round the world, generals who have sailed round the world, generals who have fought mighty battles, and priests who may yet be Popes, men and women who are figures of the century; they will the son of his arch enemy; deference in which they are the lay figures for aspirants to measure, and the property of reporters. In such a society, of converse, all the asperities are softened in which they are the lay figures for aspirants to measure, and the property of reporters. In such a societ | their gradiumes the day be hard the shi tax hard the shi tax hard the shi tax hard the shi tax hard the day their hard the day their hard the shi the |
| What is fove. Namey?" asked a Scotch minister of one of his parish- loners, alluding, of course, to the word in the eriphant sense. Head, five, sir," answered Nanny, blushing, "dina ask me sie a dail like question. I'm sure you ken ask weel as me that love's next to cholera. Love is just the worst-inside complaint for a lad or lassle to have." Washington Seclety. A writer in Lippineott's says that a Washington season is a generic thing; women come to the place for the sake of it, as they go nowhere else. Through the system of calling, official society is accessible to all, and the introduction obtained there to people of the more select circles, when fortified by wealth and pertinality, open the whole charmed round of pleasure. Society in deher cities is totally unlike society in Washington. There it is an interchange of kindlines between households of friends; it is the festivity of happy anniversaries, the union of families in new ties, the cherishing of long acquaintance. But in Washington—except so far as a small number of residents is concerned—its whole purpose and meaning are anomalous; each administration brings a new following, each Congress has a new rabble at its heels; friendships are accidents of the day, diplomacy is carried on by dining; every party has a political purpose, every civility a double meaning. Nevertheless, the sparkle of wit, the kindle of enthusiasm; are not absent from it; on the contrary, there is more of that than elsewhere, for it is sustained by the chosen intellect and beauty of the continent. You may meet admirals there who have sailed round the world, generals who may yet be Popes, men and women who are figures for porters. In such a society, of converse, all the asperities are softened; this man's daughter dances with the son of his arch enemy; deference in which they are the lay figures for aspirants to measure, and the property of reporters. In such a society, of converse, all the asperities are softened; this man's daughter dances with the son of his arch enemy; def | their gradiumes the day be hard the shi tax hard the shi |

The first production of the control of the control

Whom Do Great Men Marry ? The child who cried, for an hour It is not genius. All with such Women of course. But they show here gets $9.36 a minute when

The Slamese Twins. The Siamese Twins, Eng and If this earth was represented by a Chang, lately deceased in North Caro, globe one tuch in diameter, then the

The stages of the stage of the

THE REPORT OF THE PARTY OF THE

| | | | | | Della Trive |
|---------------------------|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------|------|---|-----------------------------------|
| MAT D. BLOSSER Proprietor | INDEPENDENT IN ALL TRINGS. DEVO | TED TO STATE, COUNTY AND HOME N | DWS. | | A A ALLE MAN THE SAME |
| WOL W NO 91 | | Segrapher (1989) | | A Amount of the second of the | TERMS, $2.00 a Year, in Advanced |

| VOL. 7. NO 21. | | | ICHIGAN, THURSDA | Y, FEBRUARY 19, | 1874. | WHOLE NO. | |
|--|---|---|---|--|--|--|--|
| IT NEVER PAYS. It never pays to fret and grow!? When fortune seems our foe: | bezin with. | tieth birthday, and now Dr. Colton, | When spiritualism made the an | "Some people " said Mr. B | | ALL SORTS. | |
| The better bred will push ahead And strike the braver blow. For luck is work And those who shirk Should not issuent their doom. | got his petronage. Still these meas- ures only cheeked the drain mon his | and loving, wife, a fortune and a large practice, can complacently contem- plate his darker days of starvation | Dearance in the village of old Deacon Isaac's, a wealthy man, who had stood by the church for nearly | in a recent sermon, "if they g | eecher The human heart, in all its expect out sive, limitless capacity for enjoyment takes greater pleasure in nothing mudder, than witnessing a portly, solemn- | an Nuch was the first arkitect. Table of Interest—The dina | |
| And clear the way, That better men have room. | he had were mainly from those too poor or too dishonest to pay and his | Society in the Country, | three score years, was exceedingly hitter against all believers in the "devil's work," as he called it, and | or put on a stocking wrong six interpret it as a sign of solurith other. When I was a lad and | ie out, aged man, the embodiment of rieg or ural dignity, and importance | ing? Breath in Ali the brothers and cisters | |
| And squander-pride in show; For friends thus, won are sure to run In times of want or woe. | income did not one haif meet his closely curtailed expenses. He grew | One of the chronic complaints made by farmers is that they have no society, that they are so isolated, have none of | ism in no very gentle language. Imagine the deacon's anger then, when | duced me to crawi through the | b bars, morning lately just such a person | me Troubles are like hogs; the | |
| The noblest worth Of all the earth An gems of heart and brain, A conscience clear, A household dear, And hends without a stain. | last his money was all gone. What should he do? The idea of giving up his profession was distracted and | the social privileges which might be theirs were they living in towns. This is often used by farmers' sons, daugh- | worked its way into his own family, and not only were his wife and daughters believers, but one of them | sleep on Friday? Why, if I a | hould and glared in gloomy and majer that displeasure at the busy clerk regist | the wind makes their water. Why is a poker like an a | |
| It never pays to hate a foc, Or cater to a friend; To favn and whine, much less repine, | he clung to hope until actual want came in the shape of unappeased hunger. Then one hy one hereward | ters and wives as a reason why the homestead should be sold or rented, and the family move into town near | was a medium, and possessed full power to converse with the spirits of those who had departed to that | Now, I don't deny that even imperstitions are better than | these window and asked the stately cus- cold mer what he wished. The great m | to There are two things inci- | |
| Are fewer when Each rows his own canoe : | but a small fraction of their real value. Articles of clothing followed until be | are sometimes valid—But it is often the case that a neighborhood of farm- | turns." Deacon Isaacs was mad—dreadfully | hands, as the disciples did, the | an to over the clerk's head, and then ask | ly pared, and they are twins. | |
| It never pays to wreck the health | ing on. | THEFE IS NO DEIGHOOTHOOD CODESION. | show it, and he bore the taunts of the ungodly with a meek spirit, He | operation of causes to produce elects. That little devil called 1 | right "Is there any one here-r-re-w good attends to business?" | THE Wages of sin were not en | |
| In drudging after gain And he is sold who thinks that gold Is cheaply bought with pain. Achumble lot, Acover out | the "want" columns of the newspa- | scandal against every other woman. The amenities of life are neither | always proved more than a match for him, and he was sure to be de- | pewier on others." Speakin | and himself, said, with characteristic a g of national cheerfulness becoming | my work reduced. It costs the people of the states from $400,000,000 to $500. | |
| Not oft contentment brings. | and previous short allowance had en- | winter evenings come and go and no | that end he set himself to work. He | portance come from over-estin | or snother department tertired | cities during the most of our | |
| ROMANCE OF THE STREET. | | | | | | | |
| A group of ragged girls were play- g on the side walk of Baxter street, alf blocking the way with their bois. | he door. With his brain whirling and his | natters. There are no reading, sing- | that his wife and daughter were spiritualists, he never spoke a word | noney in my dreams than I eve teet to see awake; yet I believe ! | t ex- there are, in addition to myself, thre had clerks in the letter department. | An Irishman, on observing a | |
| rous antics. Dr. Henry Colton, a Commercial physician attached to a chari-value in the neighborhood. | where. Hunger and fatigue were dong their work. He had walked sev- | nave to go to town for amusement or it | ng prayers; but any one could see that it troubled him for he was ab- | in trembling out of a vain efformed the body. My idea is that y | rted three route agents, the mail-drivert to and a janitor." | er in. | |
| s way through the crowd of hoydens. | ral blocks when his eyes fall upon a arriage standing at the curb. A | erial out of which country society is | estlessly, and his countenance look- | a asleep, the lower, basilar pa | rt is find one who is at his post." | bread for his children. He h | |
| made for himself a passage through lear midst. One of the girls, bolder a | ady came out of an adjacent house, and walked toward the vehicle. The | rated! Cultivate it. Here is a field " or effort on the part of the more in- elligent. Stimulatethrough an action of | sittings" at his own house, and was a atisfied that if he possessed a little y | eculties. When the lower par our brain is asleep, and the u | t of for three minutes, while the impassive pper clerk awaited his orders, and times | ed that nine out of ten of the | |
| ught at his coat, and pulled him p | ocket book in her hand. The de- | this direction and it will be aston- the | he annoyance. So one morning he t | hat when you awake you try to | go bled. Finally the great man sai | An ex-United Statesmen. | |
| a was about the last | easure. Hedarted forward so quick-no as to attract her attention, and for a instant she looked axedly in his | pace of time. At any rate, hold be eighborhood meetings. Gather to- | hat he could "see through" it. There was a "sitting" at the dea- | nd omens, I class as outgrowth onscience not guided by clear prions." | s of The clerk tore the stamp and helper-it, waiting for the consideration. The | An immediate | |
| | ver her feature, but it seemed scarce at that of fear. She hesitated a mo- | of old and meet their and resourses. | -invited the deacon to take a seat at h | e said, "who wouldn't shave | rious vest pockets; he gradually los | t where skimmed milk was of | |
| ton passed on a few steps, but the I's beauty excited his interest, and sa | "I've been waiting for you," she | ral action and beget no warmth. | od tune and so exceeding com- | hen I know some who would she Sunday, but would n't black t | ave aspect of an ordinary frail mortal and | Why did He Net The " be the | |
| ed to run away, but finally she want to heep in | ords, and scarcely knowing or car-si graphs the did. Dr. Colton did as he | all enlist the active co-operation of de | aughters were in ecstacles at the M | lave their neighbors awfully onday." He considered the | on left my purse at home. Can you | his medicine. | |
| What is your name, my girl!" ed the young man. dr | "Drive home," said the lady to the triver, and away they were borne up | ake every one, old and young, feel life at he or she has a place, can, and is his meeted to get a part. Commonder | ever, and urged the deacon on in all is inquiries. | ole guide for conscience, although he said, "There was n't one of | eli. The passive clerk, with the faintes gh, suggestion of triumph in his eyes the waved the great man aside with. | A THE BUT PERSONAL PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF | |
| Where do you live?" With Mammy Ginger, down there be he rag cellar—she's my aunt, she ur | dy else," he thought "and I must be | improved. | m. po | in these days would put him in mitentiary. | the who sells on credit is not. In What does the next man want?" And we felt so good to see how that | and forty-five seconds." American civilization is rapidly tending to the old world. The | |
| Well, Rosa," said he, as he start- | istake at least I have forcetter | Why, this isolation of which so ra any complain can be broken. It tri ould be. It will be. We are glad a t know that the Patrons of Husband w | anfixed with holy horror that such thought should enter her husband's | ow General Butter was Outwitt The Washington corresponden | ed. Ged man that he went away and | Constantinople has just confessed embezzlement of $275,000 | |
| n those bears readed the things to the | an acquaintance." "No, sir," was the reply, "I have the | ousands will not join it, and those sir ousands should substitute some | They many years have passed over she was untrue?" Answer by shorte russ. They came the | er the manner in which two Mas usetts lawyers were outwitted b | tile Sa. A Fair Suggestion. | Since March, 1867, 58,018 petti in bankruptcy have been filed in United States Courts. The pro- | |
| with fine clothes, and so she re- | on is too long to be made here. Will so not wait till I reach my home?" So Dr. Colton assented wondering it | cial wants and awaken the social for irit among farmers. There are a tw | ur and so on, until they reached powerty. | oman and her counsel. The corr indent says: For the past twe ars, there has been a club had | cs. A good story reaches us from Scot- nty land. It seems that in a certain | The total expense of the proceed has been $1,521,754. | |
| Then I'll tell you what to do fig.," added Henry: "wash your | on of the fevered brain. They arrived after a short drive at a an | easure which will suggest them no lyes the moment the ice of reserve d half-distrust is broken. These | Mrs. Isaacs looked dumfounded ha | ndsome Mexican officer who end | the the office of grave digger for the long re- space of fifty years. Suspicion had a been long entertained that he was in er- the habit of helping himself out of | Railroad cross fies are the circuing medium in portions of Kentabeing taken in exchange for grace and dry goods, at fifty cents a p | |
| w where the Girl's Refuge is on Siz | e and beauty. The carriage stop ge | nter evenings should be utilized to de tacquainted with each other—to lift de | scon, who now seemed so intent his subject that he paid no atten- | or, and was compelled by Samue to leave the country. His los | an the collection plate whenever oppor- nta tunity permitted. It was difficult, of | that price in the last three month | |
| want to live there and learn to be Wa | y and he sank into a chair half | y IC.—Moder's Ratea. | "Mary—Sarah," rapped the spirits pa | id our Government indemnity, | teo ever, the sum of £1 was abstracted I from the missionary box which stood in the vestry, and everything combined to point out this man as the | a few days ago, by the fall of an | |
| y companions. the | | The dress which was made by the she | Irs. Isaacs could stand it no longer. Go "It's a lie! I didn't! It's a lie!" ba | ek again, for the policy appears | to that something must really be done. | The construction of the prope | |
| er, kept running in her head, and cossoon went to her squalid home two king it over and over. | sion. "I have caten nothing for Et of days." bli | npress Eugenie is made up over Isa ick velvet, and shows to fine effect | ney are your children, Deacon wind acs, and God knows it." But the spirits offern different and life | th indisputable claims spending | a following Sabbath, after the forencon | and it is stated that the engineer the Hoosac tunnel, who has just | |
| short rations from "Mammy charer," who only kept the girl for our | nts and had him assisted to an easy on interest. Tempting viands and genering wine were placed before him of an | e piece, not flounced, its design be- ga heavy scalloped border of roses d tulips entwined with leaves and | 'Then they lie!" said the wife. At But if you believe them in any- | egacy to their children. Gene oche has been dead for years, h | ral with the suspected man, thought the opportunity too good to be lost; so he | this amount will be required. President Nott, in his series above. | |
| work she could squeeze out of her, who present life was so miserable fee no change could well have been at the for the worse and so she was in- | ling stronger and better immedi- ly after the meal. | med of finer scattops of forget-me all s and ivy leaves. Each large | it is all foolery." | m, the most intimate friend of t | he box ?"'- | Von this wiving Want to | |
| ed to follow the stranger's advice. ing t night she dreamed of being a div | csted of her street dress, and wear- a rich robe. For the first time | bedded in an urn of exquisite single remainship. Another medaltion | "Nor 1 122 added Sarah." Then," said the deacon, while a will illuminated his countenance, while the said the | anowed, but when Mr. Janua | m drew," continued the other, very n, gravely, "the matter lies between | never catch her. But just go on i | |
| ty to eat, and upon waking in 1)r. morning she no longer hesitated. the ter exciting "Mammy Ginger's nes | ught, the most perfect in lovili- s that he had ever seen. | with a true lover's knot carried wis | ve those things which God has dra ely hidden from us to-be revealed atta Histima." | w the money, Mr. Cushing an heral Butler were on hand with schment for their client, a wealth | ad who have access to the box, either you or I must be the thief." "Deed, | The Hon, M. McKenzie, the Premier of Canada, was | |
| her fingers, Rosa slipped out and she to the Cirk's Refuge, an institu- | of my rather strange conduct consider. | under-jacing over the whole is were sidered the gem of the design. A ness | he deacon's evening devotions re- re characterized with more carnest- s than usual; and the family re- nea | Arean named Teamdery, Rand | e- drew, "it's just as you say; we're the only two that has access to the box, | Actual stuce a Mountain stone-unit | |
| and pauper girls. Ringing the ask she inculred for Mrs. Brown as | Do you not remember me?" she trii | nmed with lace half a yard wide and he same design, covers the back and | mediums alid not always reveal eith | my, it was necessary to allow ain length of time to clapse before her party could draw the mone it especial day occurred about tw | e and say nae mair about it." | chanic. By selfduous industry amassed not indeed a large forte but a snug competency, and seit | |
| ist reached the presence of the | Do you remember? she continue bac "in Baxter street, years ago, of treet | Tear | ful were the spirit dames of N Por | eks ago. The first persons wh | o A remaie Soldier. | in Sarua, One. | |
| e odd renly, counted with the the | telling her that she was too pretty and ive there, and of sending her to | font, broad lappels turned back trap faced with peach-colored satin. | which the deacon had set, that Auc | | record a few instances of women who, | with the mammoth and the mas | |
| of the matron, and Rosa soon rem | embered the circumstance. I am the same girl," and she the | lace. A handkerchief and fan in | Casi Cour | nier's office, the money was dul- nted, receipted and delivered | ently incongruous profession of arms. | years old, and some of them much o | |
| * * * ams | azement. "I went to the Refuge whi | ch no price can be attached. poss | sible shade by a band of Spanish Butlands, who recently pinuloged the | ward, Mr. Cushing and General er entered, expecting to carry of | the Italian army. It was discovered, | of man in Western Europe. London Cabby (more in sorre than in anger, though) | |
| ght years rolled by, bringing Dr. ly ry Colton to the age of thirty. and to eventual years to the country to go him, for they contributed the | et a situation as teacher in one of | sian Inst | railroad, near Puerto Baddollano. the cad of firing wildly at the lecomothat | r consternation when told that money was paid. I have hear General Butler made things live | receive his changed on the first of next month, being enlisted in 1866, is one | num, I didn't go to hint as cighten pence was too little, nor that that to log o' yourn has falls well. | |
| ne first breaking out of the hos- wes | thy retired merchant, named cro | vn a week was scarcely sufficient Open | he track, after the manner of our before | re 11.0 clock because he though | a numerous and poor family, living | expendent to say as it was Chris | |
| he entire struggle. At the close, I ha | d no friends, and his honorable win | dow, a strawberry plant growing. | od a danger signal. After the outt | he papers. The question is, who | mont, to which latter circumstance | the first and I wishes you, and a second hearted ladies the complete of the season." | |
| Aled in habits and disposition. a was a few hundred dollars saved from time by, he returned to New York to | idow with a fortune. All this what I have never forgotten the | t constitued to grow, and with tor, a trace it was watched and tended. for some plant flourishes nicely, you and | and brakemen to remove the rails pare everal hundred yards in front as the | d to receive Mine. Atoche as soon e office opened for business? Mr | enlisted in 1866, at the time when a large in the | Comercial fourist with the Mar | |
| hat his friends had been scatter-long Nobody knew him and he had for I relative in the world | ed to reward him in some way "Ol he advice which proved so valu- | at the sake of the fruit that I | ed themselves of the money and minutes of the massengers and their | im Sees a lee of Partient and Wa | married and had six children, from being obliged to serve. Not only did | Il frosted, their name all cold, the reather-peeled bugies soon shown frough the town they make a | |
| inself, 'perfected by years of ed." | at my assistance was badly need any com | living creature, and it is a great ing refort to me to have that living excellent the for I know it can only live by | y secured, rode off. In plunder- allroad travelers, the Spaniards of Education B | FOOKIVE FOR DEIDE A CINDLEY has | well as her comrades, but she fought at the first state of the first s | few orders and lit out of home with neir heads full of business and aking | |
| friends around me again. Drived to properly buoyant and hopeful he under the buoyant and hopeful he buoy | Colton slept soundly that night and er the roof of Rosa Ralston. The me | grow from day to day, it tells hat God is near." | his o nable evening a tender swain cold to men | not to memion the duplicity of the dame and illegal situation of matri | military valor. On hearing of the case, King Victor Emanuel sent for 1 | The Boston Transcript may the gates of Heaven weeks | |
| spirits and bright anticipations protein future. He hired a respect- | ege, as she called herself, insisted A furnishing him with money to a Ch | newspaper paragraph says that ing sicago girl complains to the police brish | sweetness," "Some of these fall-mind stars seem to leave behind them a dupl ht path, as if they were colectial impo- | and that he has fits. More | Cross of the Order of the Crown, and a | spring open and all grandfall it ked on equal terms to outer the | |
| y, and displayed a sign denotation is calling. Days passed and action to the | uments and clothing. And her dred | and twenty-four gold rings.— dust ereupon, a mean paragraphist ob- feet t | sengers flying earthward, the ed to of Heaven falling from their got fi | marry two women, and that he is after he was married | - Mathematics is a delightful sci- if | her people were going to do about and some who would draw her | |
| out with none coming. press | rest on an old debt," as she ex- | ired of them were engagement "Th | ." To which the maid replied, A ey allers make me think about throughout man that swallowed fire." Me., | sleigh made in 1775 was driven igh the streets of Brunswick, a few days since. | ence. A Maine woman ate a gallon for of oysters the other day for '$100 v | ricar the celestraticity was getting ulgar; and some who would refus together, if they saw the so-and-so cout to enter, 2 | |
| | | لفراغ سالت المحادث ا | an security and a security of the security of | | | A SECTION OF THE SECT | |

MAT D. BLOSSER Report. People with susten rocks, except a serior Passage, which is dangerous to loaded the Copy sta Months at the Copy sta Months at the Tares Months are craft coming down. The captain said Contain Resissant Directory, not to exceed five he always breathed easier after passing. HARNESS Level Educated Science to cents per line. Busing Below the rocks the river runs through Bestleman and Busing for cuts. Tearly two quite large lakes. One is called the control of the cont grass and shrubbery. We arrived at Mackinaw just two days:

This is a fine place to stop at this

MANCHESTER, FEBY. 19, 1874. night, and as the boat was not going to stop at Northport, at the mouth of Grand Traverse Bay, we staid at Mackinaw

Omehe-Great Pintte Valley-

nesson of the year. The harbor is on I lest Omake on the Union Pacific the east side, at the southeast corner of Express train for the west, on Sunday the island. The city is built mostly on The read lies through the most the low ground on the shore. No sand, intile part of the State, and the rich but coarse gravel.

The old fort stands or an eminence, are attracting thousands of strangers to its prairies. In the immediate neighing, its whitewashed fences and buildings make a formidable appearance. borbood of Omaha and the Missouri ings, make a formidable appearance.

River the land is rather rolling, but as July 18.—This morning was pleasant 198 proceed westward, the land becomes and we started out to see the curiosities more even. Yet no nicer land ever of the island. Ascending the steep WALL PAPER "laid sat doors" than these rolling pathway to the fort, the gates were open, and we entered a fine, level parade importance & Fremont, which probably ground of two acres. Musicians were swarming out of a large building to swarming look. It is the terminus of the Fremont Elither & Missouri Valley acres. We were seated in a comfort.

B. R. and has quite a potoriety as a sole place to see the grand performance. H. R. and has quite a botorery as

The most splendid instrumental band I New Stock! Large & Elegant!

The free Platte Valley, of which ever saw. Nearly 100 men in full unit.

A MACHINE you have beard so much. It is indeed form, The officer was escorted to a you have heard so much. It is indeed form. Ins omcer was escorted to a For Trimming the Wall Paper will be used a prominent place, they then marched in of Extra charge. The to be the richest country in the front and gave a salute which made our Hats & Caps, the Latest Style. world. Passing at Fremont to get din hair stand erect; enchapted every nerve, and again up the Platte And as they played Hail to the Chief," Boots & Shoes Velley: beholding on either side the and some other lively airs, it seemed

Just Received

Just Received

white frame houses of the farmers, their that the whole island vibrated, and the Childs Shoes in great variety of designs and colors sultivated farms and growing orchards. s ft and loud intonations echoed and re- CROCKERY! At Schwier, 76 miles out of Omaha, ethoed over the great waste of waters

Of latest Patterns and Choiceat Brands—principles of Colfax County, we far below. For harmony, it excelled pally of T. & B. Bootes make—will endure use for a great length of time, retaining its superority of a great length of time, retaining its superority of a great length of time, retaining its superority of a great length of time, retaining its superority of a great length of time, retaining its superority of a great length of time, retaining its superority of a great length of time, retaining its superority of a great waste of waters.

The county-seat of Colfax County, we will end to the mule concert at the "Soo." We will end to the county with the mule concert at the "Soo." We will end to the county of a present of the county of the county of a present of the county suppose on the train to look about us passed on to the N. W half mile and ary. our visit last year. We found the town came to another ascent of about 100 CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES!

For much amproved since our former feet, to old Fort Holmes, with dirt walls.

Always to be found at this store. visit, and the whole country shows signs (Here, had Deacon Homespan's theory of prosperity. We have spent several been true, the earth flat, we could have or prosperity. We have spent several occurrence the carrie has, we could have driven seen over all the great western world.) Drugs, Patent Medicines, Toy Goods, was into the heart of the country, on to We passed on to the N. W. to view the what they the people here term the Sugar Loaf Rock, on the brow of a I hope by promptness and fair dealing, to merit continuance of the very liberal patronage herete uplands, but which is No. 1 farming steep. 200 feet below we saw the rock foreextended to me. lind; rich and fertile; and in our opin- Wife could not stand the fatigue, so I Manchester, April 1 started down the declivity, holding on the started from the plane was reached below. It was some twelve was reached below. It was some twelve the started from $5 to $10 per agree, on the started down the declivity, holding on the started from $5 to $10 per agree, on the started down the declivity, holding on the started from $5 to $10 per agree, on the started down the declivity, holding on the started from $5 to $10 per agree, on the started down the declivity, holding on the started from $5 to $10 per agree, on the started down the declivity, holding on the started down the declivity, holding on the started from $5 to $10 per agree, on the started down the declivity, holding on the started down the declivity holding on the started down the dec

12,000 seres of Government land, which high. Twelve feet from the ground was is going by homestead, "like hot cakes." a cavity wherein ten or tweive persons It is estimated that over 200,000 bush | could stand upright, called the Devil's | No. 23 Maumee Street, opposite els of wheat were grown in this County Kitchen.

Climbing up that bill was the bardest stage of about 95 cents per bushel. job I have had for years. Returning to Spring wheat can be grown much easier scending. Wo saw and a more certain crop. The scar and flowers, and lots of potatoes that sity of timber is being rapily dispelled; were not cursed with the bug, as all each farmer has a tract of the most rapid other places were in all our tour. growing forest trees well on the way, In the evening, at the parlor of the The Largest, and in five years will have all the timber Mickinaw House, a part of the fort he seeds for fuel. Speaking of fuel band discoursed sweet music until a late the county has more than most of coun hour. (Guests invited, free). this, even along the Platte, can best of July 19th.-Steamer B. F. Wade Good dry storswood can be had, deliv. hove in sight at 9 a. u., bound for Chiered, here, at $2.25 per cord, which is cago, via Northport. Stopped at the island of St. Helena. Took on some island of St. Helena. States in the Union. From New York left, and the next night we arrived at come regard that they are experiencing been from home four months and traveled and snow. Here the days are superior that they are experiencing been from home four months and traveled 2,000 miles. There are many incidents and snow. Here the ground is frozen, and the air pure and deuts omitted; your patience must be taxed to follow up my crude remarks. As to schools. Nebraska leads many of her older sinter States. Every townthe last two enfire sections (Nos. 16) How many "would be poets" in the world, and what attempts they do make fund. There are 42 school districts in to relieve themselves of the imaginary This county, and all have good frame poetical fire that almost convenies their poetical fire that almost convenies their greated and furnished with lives. What would become of us if green brought into the City of Adrian, which we the most approved furniture. nine-tenths of the stuff that has been

The saming a little, with pros- written and termed poetry should be de-

HEYET GOODTEAR should be fined heavily, and imprisoned for life, who dares attempt to persecute A TRIF TO LAKE SUPERIOR. the public with nonsensical effusions Moore the Wormen-Sugar Teland- that disgust everybody who has any ar women The residence Traverse City-Home taste for genuine poetry-Buchanan Record.

A sailor, explaining a quadriffe to his

This par Mossing, July 17th.

The part Mossing As the state of Dispersion is never aware with the same of Alcohol. The question is aimose the fine of Dispersion to the canal that your adversary's yard arm, regain No. 23 Maumee-Street, daily asked. "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of Vanga R Birther detained all night by fog, broke order, take your station with your part.

ADRIAN, MICHIAN, MICH the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great covers his health. They are the great beautiful for the story of the world has a medicine been permanently cared a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the story of the world has a medicine been permanently cared to the world has a medicine been permanently cared to the world has a medicine been permanently cared to the world has a medicine been permanently cared to the world has a medicine been permanently cared to the world has a medicine been permanently cared to the world has a medicine been permanently cared to the world has a medicine been permanently cared to the world has a medicine been permanently cared to the world has a medicine been permanently to the treatment of the story of the world has a medicine been permanently to the treatment of the story of the world has a medicine been permanently to the treatment of the story of the world has a medicine been permanently to the treatment of the story of the world has a medicine been permanently to the treatment of the story of the world has a medicine been permanently to the treatment of the story of the world has a medicine been permanently to the treatment of the story of the treatment of the treatment of the treatment of the story of the treatment of the West of board and sailed down with her until nearly astern of the other than the descent Consumption, by a sumple of that dread disease, Consumption, by a sumple of that dread disease, Consumption, by a sumple of that dread disease, Consumption as a sumple of the desire it, and the preparation with her until nearly astern of the other with lead a copy of the preparation with her until nearly astern of the other than a large farm; here and the special form of the

waling to grid black cap

ETTER PAPER. If you want any Letter down by addressing in priest confidence.

Sold by att Druggless and Challes St. N. S. N. S. N. S. N. S. S. N. S. S. N. S. N.

Harness &c and had contracted all he could make NASH & PUTRAM

DOUBLE & SINGLE

Trunks, Whips. Horse Blankets, Etc.

LIVERY

Ready to Accommodate them with Horses, Carriages, Cutters, &c., and of first class style. Pleasure parties and Travellas men those stables just what they wan!

We shall take particular pains to please

Tip-Top Rig at Reasonable Bact.

The sinbles are cituated nearly in the rear of the goodyear House, Give us a call at your earliest

FURNITURE.

OTTO MUNCH

Has on hand a full supply of the very bost

FURNITURE

Tables, Chairs, Bedsteads,

Which he will sell at prices that defy competiti te has also a Hearse with which he is prepared tend funerals both in the town and country.

All kinds Repairing done in a workma

Hailroad street, Manchester, Michigan.

VanEps Bro's,

Bridles, Halters, Whips, Brashes, Fly Nota

We Warrant All Our Work

Trunks Satchels, Shawla-Straps, Rugs, Etc.,. Constantly on Hand.

Prices to Suit the Times.

THE MILD POWER

CURES

TILMPHREYS"

HOMEOPATHIC SPECIFICS

2 Whites, too Profuse Periods.
3. Croup, Cough, Diffault Breathing.
4. Sali Rheums, Enysteelas, Eruptions.
5. Rheumatism, Rheumatic Pains,
6. Fever and Ague, Chili Feron, Agues,
7. Piles, blind or bleeding.
6. Ophthalmy, and Sore or Weak Eyes,
9. Catarrh, acute or chronic, Influence,
1. Authuma, oppressed Breathing,
1. Ear Discharges, impaired hearing,
1. Seconda, enhunged glande, Swellings,
1. General Debility, Physical Weakness,
1. Seconda, Stekaness, sickness from riding,
1. Kidney-Discharge, Gravel,
1. Nervous Debility, Seminal Weakness or involuntary discharges.

FAMILY CABES. 2000) with above 35 large vints an

lumphreys' Medicine Co

Office and Depot, No. 562 Recovers, New York

For Sale by all Druggists.

Vantus of Africa, & Californ, Manchester.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Ritters are a purely Vegetable of directions, or directions of 20 large vials and Book, 6 00

CURNITURE STORE.

We are now prepared to do all kinds of

Farmers and Others are invited to call and examine our wo

One door south of the Post Office. Drugs & Notions.

WINDOW SHADES

ten years time, at six per cent. interest. and in the exact shape of the old fash.

There is yet vacent in this County about lossed sugar loaf, from 60 to 80 feet HERRMAN & MAY'S lister wheat is not grown, as the the hotel, we took an easier grade de ADRIAN.

The Cheapest.

Yours, truly,
H. CARPENTER

Cassimeres.

Vestings, Etc.,

sees of good sleighing. But I must stroyed? A person who is not gifted Cheaper than the Cheapest in

HARDWARE STOVES AND TINWARE. IF YOU ARE IN WANT Livery Stables dereigned takes this method to inform

RAIL ROADS.

DETROIT HILLSDALE AINDIANA.

Be Through Tickets to all points East.

Ws. P. PARKER, Sup't. Ypellanti, Mich.

Mail, leave 7 604.8 6 28 4. 2 10 40 4.2 5 15 P. 2 10 45 2 12 15 P. 2 10 4 2 12 15 P. 2 10 15 P.

Chicago Jackson, Testianti Detroit

The Atlantic and Pacific Express run between

.H. E. SARGENT, General Sup., Chicago.

ENVELOPES. - If you want any Envelopes

BOOK-BINDING.—We are prepared to do all classes of book-binding in fine style. Give us a call at the ENTERPRISE Office.

TOR PRINTING. We have received a new in-termination of the control of the contro

IN EXCHANGE.—We will take almost any ki of farm products in exchange for subscription to the ENTERPRISE for 1874. Call at the office. 259 MAT D. BLOSSER

WANTED.—500 persons who will take the E. Tagratise for one year and pay for it in waner. To such persons we will pay the sociate wanter. MAT D. BLOSSER.

Planing Mills

UMBER YARDS

Field. Blosser & Co.,

WINDOW FRAMES, &c.,

and pringers that their work and prices w

They will Do Work Promptly

100,000 Feet of Seasoned Lumber and will keep a large stock on hand.

Eny of them. Mills and Lumber Yard near to

Champion Washing Machine

which is conceded to be the best machine in ner and see one.

The CHEAPEST MACHINE IN THE MARKET.

Manchester, April lat., 1813.

-----Best Fire Department in the World.

Over 1,200 Actual Fires Put Out With It.

$10,000,000,00

BABCOCK

Fire Extinguisher.

Babcock Self-Acting Fire Engi

We are manufacturing the

THE CHEAPEST

SEANCHESTER.

J. E. CURTIS, Sup'l.

PARLOR STOVE, BOX STOVE, COAL STOVE,

House Trimings House Furnishing Goods,

BRUEGEL, MORDOFF & CO.

We will Satisfy you that You can buy

Horse Millinery ANYTHING! LIGHT & HEAVY HARNESS

In our Line as Cheap as any place in the State.

WE MEAN WHAT WE SAY.

And will convince the Public that Our Prices are as low as the Lowest GIVE US A CALL.

Vill show Goods Cheerfully, Bruegel, Mordoff & Co.

DRY GOODS.

SASH DRY GOODS Blinds, Doors, Mouldings

Twenty-Five per cent. Can be Saved by the NER STORE. We will Sell the Largest amount

Consumer by Buying their Coods at the BAN- TRY THEM. of DRY COODS, BOOTS & SHOES, for the smallest amount of Money. These are no idle words but Facts to the Wise.

MACK and SCHMID

JEWELRY, WATCHES, CLOCKS, &c.

JEWELER

COOLN
SILVEB
And Plated Ware,
or the
ROST DESIR

It is an erroneous idea that the Eye-sight will be preceived and improved by delaying the use of lastes. By all means where the hight requires Glastes, consult your Optician. We sell the celebrated lastes & Monara Grace access, which are the most perfect Glastes known to the public. We are now arrang & Monara Grace access with the public which we should be sellent the confidence of the c BOOTS AND SHOES.

PRODUCE. &C. HEWETT & BURTLESS, Sommercial Brokers AND MANUTACTURERS.

S. H. Perkins & Son, Have a large and complete assortment of

Rubber Specs."

BOOTS, SHOES, RUBBER GOODS.

It is always roady to use instantly, and is meaning to the state of They also manufacture Boots and Shoes from inchest quality of leather even brought to this lower, best quality of leather even brought to this lower, and with ADREW MAFE as their Fine Hod maker, cannot be surpassed, if equaled. Their wire Cloth, Editing Cloth, Burt HillStones, British and Twine. Copper weather Vanes. Counter Railing: Wire Pencing and Order.

MANCHESTER, FEBY. 19, 1874.

- New Advertisements. maper-T. L. Smaler took Binding-Mat D. B

Sertence Sale Hewett and Norms The Enterprise Job Offic rawing Paper & Pencils—Enterprise Of

Vasterday was the first day of Lent.

Saturday was the first day of Lent.

Saturday was a genuine Spring day.

The sleighing is "played out" again.

Jackson's 12-pound baby is reported

The sleighing is "played out" again.

Jackson's 12-pound baby is reported

Raising Cattle in Texas," which may how, H. A. Vosbergh, Elvas Misse Minner.

Saturday was the first day of Lent. The same of the state of the same of th

The University boys went back on During our late visit in Chicago we took a stroll through the Chicago Type | Manday last | Man It will soon be time maple sugar making. St. Case don't want t next year, Who does?

Don't forget the donation at Goody

Those who are not registered will do stand that Mr. Henry Leason of this well to do so on Saturday, the 28th inst town, received a valentine on Saturday

There are twenty-five convicts in our last which weighed 7 pounds. It's a The University—In the Calenday

Thus passed the successful masque ma

States Prison who are sentenced for life. boy. States Prison who are sentenced for life.

Valentines did not prove to be popu

Auction.—Frank Miller residing 21

lar with the youth of this village, this year.

In the letter from Henry Goodyear, in another column, will be read with interest.

The letter from Henry Goodyear, in another column, will be read with interest.

The letter from Henry Goodyear, in another column, will be read with interest.

Fred Krause, Salesman.

The states Prison who are sentenced for life.

Of the University for 1873-4, we find the number of Professors to be 44; 29 well pleased with the entertainment.

In the Literary Department, 4 in the Law, and 11 in the Medical. There is no person living but what suffers more or less with Ling Diseases.

Count This Out.—It may save tour Life.

Having reduced my prices to correspond with the Lung Diseases.

Count This Out.—It may save tour Life.

Count Thi

Field, Blosser & Co. are selling a to feel as jolly as ever,

Don't forget the Pioneers' Meeting at | considers this a "flowery kingdom (?)

Link, of Knobnoster, Mo., for copies of Wm. Palmer, C. M. Fellows.

We have commenced gathering facts are greatly increased by the addition of Bequire Goodyear, on Saturday, the ready information is always at hand to Apples, green, per bushel.

Parties having Probate or any legal Chipman was elected Chairman and J.

The following Leuten calendar will be Batter, per twist.

will be found interesting. much more wood sold in this village, lary to the County Society. this winter, than ever before.

San Francisco papers.

An old edition of Morse's geography
tickets. Adjourned one week.

Albany has 400 dwelling houses

The Roman Catholic Churches
Will this year observe Lent rather more strictly than usual, in compliance with the following instructions from their their gable ends to the street.

The Roman Catholic Churches
Will this year observe Lent rather more strictly than usual, in compliance with the following instructions from their Bishon.

C. Chirman, Chairman.
Will this year observe Lent rather more strictly than usual, in compliance with the following instructions from their

C. II. RICHMOND, Company of the Delta Churches
View Johnson, Johnson, Johnson, J. D. Corey, Grant Sparard, Vied Valentine, J. D. Van Dayn, On the Street.

ATTENTION of the D. H. & I. R. R. as to half-false rection.

The Roman Catholic Churches
Vied Valentine, J. D. Corey, Grant Sparard, On Priest, L. D. Watkins.

C. H. RICHMOND, W. B. Coborn, Vied Valentine, J. D. Corey, Grant Sparard, Vied Valentine, J. D. Corey,

Only as a matter of courtesy do we family in the course of a week or two. wish those of our subscribers who are indebted to us, and move out of town, to call just before leaving and settle up.

Nebrasks. He intends starting with his their relations, sweet-hearts, etc., from the mass of sublime and ridiculous.

We understand that Charles Hoy will of course everybody knew their friends, accompany them and make it his home to call just before leaving and settle up.

The intends are represented to call and accompany them and make it his home in the West. Success to them all.

The intends are represented to all and accompany them and make it his home in the West. Success to them all.

The intends are represented to all and accompany them and make it his home in the West. Success to them all.

The intends are represented to all and accompany them and make it his home in the West. Success to them all.

The intends are represented to all and accompany them and make it his home in the west. Success to them all.

The intends are represented to all and accompany them and make it his home in the west. Success to them all.

The intends are represented to all and accompany them and make it his home in the west. Success to them all.

The intends are represented to all and accompany them are represented to all and accompany th We advise those of our readers who "May they live long and be happy."

"May they live long and be hap ter, N. Y. A catalogue can be seen at the List of Letters remaining in the the har. Boss Tweed welcomed us and Manchester Mich. February as o for Foundry of Messrs. Marder, Luse & Co., of which we intend to speak at some future time, giving a description of the manner in which type is made. C. Gi. Wing, of Ludington, has thanks for copy of city paper, good to parties in town, are sorry the Arbor, and they had a good time shak ing for the Library and Museum. ing hands with many friends. Mr. M.,

Goodyear's office on Saturday next, at and hopes to kech-of-'er.

Court, in Detroit.

Supper will be served in the session nesday.

Ann Arbor seems to be following suit room by the ladies in their usual style in the line of failures. Descriptor were All are cordially invited.

All are cordially invited.

We are under obligations to Mrs. J. D. Merrithew, (Treasurer.) R. Green By order of Committee.

We have commenced gathering facts for an article on the Early History of Southern Washtenaw.

Our facilities for doing job printing are greatly increased by the addition of correspondent, in this week's Enterpairs, Pioneer Society, to embrace the Town and feast days: will be found interesting.

Ships of Freedom, Sharon, Manchester

The farmers say that there has been and Bridgewater, be organized as auxil.

The farmers say that there has been and Bridgewater, be organized as auxil.

The farmers say that there has been and Bridgewater, be organized as auxil.

Alvines Hunt, of Norvell, and been Processation.-Attention is called drawn to serve as a Grand Juror for the to the advertisement of Wm. Nebling, Last Tuesday evening was clear, cool, J. S. Court, to be called on Wednesday, in another column. He has a large and pleasant, and Goodreer Hall was I have been readed at Burn Board, France and Burn

LENTEN SEASON.

Daniel Haributt, a farmer living about the Universalist Church next Sunday at 103 o'clock A. M.

Rev. G. W. Lowe will preach at the inte-bath morning next, upon the subject of Lagrange at least the horse, clothing, and Joe, Lagrange at the subject of Lagrange at t origin and faith, with more or less strict-Patrons of Husbandry will be formed in The friends of the Baptist Church and ness, commences to-day, which, from the bis village soon. Society will make their pastor, Rev. L. ancient Roman Catholic custom of sign. Corn. Mixer and Wester Stewart Fitzgerald, of this village, P. Tompkins, a Dougtion Visit on Tues ing the cross upon the foreheads of pen. 1346. has been drawn to serve on the Grand day, Feb. 24th, afternoon at the parson, itents with ashes dampened with hely Jury, for the March term of the U. S. age and in the evening at the church, water, received the name of Ash Wed-Flour.......

in the line of failures. Dear sister, you have our sympathies.

All are cordially invited.

Committee on Reception of Donations:

invitation of Christ's fasting in the wiladaptation of the idea of the great feast Coru...

of expiation, ordained by the Mosaic Flour law to the atonement of Christ, as cele-ary to the County Society.

The following officers were then electwere compelled to want their names to the prices of the county for the following officers were then elect
The following officers we

March 4th.

Stock of first-class work on hand, and files with spectators awaiting the predesired fraction and calcined fractions. The Ludington Appeal has a well offers it at reduced prices. Any one in common of masked dancers. At 8 c'aleck

Part Line, Cruest, and Calcined Fraction are all forms of the common of masked dancers. At 8 c'aleck written peem in its issue of the 13th want of blacksmithing will do well to the bend played the grand march and I come between Dr. Einstein's office and his

Post Office at Manchester, Fab. 1, 1874: we were glad to see him in his new suit.

Advance Catherhee Missless, James

This mask was complete for some time

Merchants Dut the keen eye of a lady friend detected in the said John was advertising Jackson style. In March next. The following officer are to be elected, vis. A President, three Trustees in place of Joe was a merry clown, and he sciented with the first three Trustees in place of which can be seen as to be elected, vis. A President, three Trustees in place of which Carr. Charles B. Michele and Warren.

On the night of the 10th inst., a horse The gipsy, peasant, knight, etc., were no. A and some clothing were stolen from Mr. Riced and commented upon as to the r Daniel Harlbutt, a farmer living about merits. Married ladies excelled the girls Property at Auction

Jose Gordanier is ready to do all blacksmithing work brought to his shop.

A LARGE VALENTINE.—We underThose who are not registered will do stand that Mr. Henry Irason of this to which place Day (make the supper was good and abundant, and perved by Mr. and Mrs. Yourghais. Our were all missed at the same time, and cerved by Mr. and Mrs. Yourghais. Our os was German-American, and all required.

Prices on Wagons and Carriages.

Those who are not registered will do stand that Mr. Henry Irason of this to which place Day (make the same time, and cerved by Mr. and Mrs. Yourghais. Our os were all missed at the same time, and cerved by Mr. and Mrs. Yourghais. Our os him and some standard and cerved by Mr. and Mrs. Yourghais. Our os him and some standard and cerved by Mr. and Mrs. Yourghais. Our os him and some standard and cerved by Mr. and Mrs. Yourghais. Our os him and some standard and cerved by Mr. and Mrs. Yourghais. Our os him and some standard and cerved by Mr. and Mrs. Yourghais. Our os him and some standard and cerved by Mr. and Mrs. Yourghais. Our os him and some standard and cerved by Mr. and Mrs. Yourghais. Our os him and some standard and cerved by Mr. and Mrs. Yourghais. Our os him and some standard and cerved by Mr. and All required.

Os him and some standard and cerved by Mr. and All required.

Os him and some standard and cerved by Mr. and All required.

Os him and some standard and cerved by Mr. and All required.

Os him and some standard and cerved by Mr. and All required.

of the University for 1873-4, we find ball given by John Wattz. All were First-Class Lumber Wagon est. We shall publish another next work.

Week.

A farmer friend's little boy has the distore family for a bag of apples.

Field, Blosser & Co. are selling a good many of the Champion Washing of the good many of the Champion Washing

E. G. Shaffer, county register of Deeds, from $10 to $25 per annum. It also Lynch & Calhoun, and get a sample bottic free of charge, or a regular size for of every description, on short notice and at reason-The farmers who contracted to deliver companied by Harry J. Mann of Ann manufacturing art; and a fire-proof built 75 certs. G.G.Green, Woodbury, N.J. Carriage and Wagon Ironing, and Horse-Shoeing, a Speciality. Signed, WILLIAM NEEBLING, [1-2]

The penitential season of Lent; which PERSONNY, 12, 1874.

is observed in all churches of Catholic

Carriage Ironing, 500 50

50, 10

1 00@1 46

Give me a call and I will guarantee skitsfaction
1 00@1 46

1 00@1 75

1 overy particular. JUNEPH GORDANIER.
25@ 20

Manchester, Febr. 11th. 1814

25 1 STILL MANUFACTURE

ATEW BLACKSMITH SHOP

— IN TOWN —

ALLEOR JOE

- OR MOVIGAN ONE OF THE LARGEST WEEKLIES IN THE NORTH-WEST.

He have received "The Chicago Specimen" for January It is as fall Specimen for January A COMPANY OF THE REAL PROPERTY. FIFTY - SIX COLUMN NEWSPAPER OR-

ATTENTION POWERS.
ATTENTION PO

COMMISSION FIRST SOFTICE.

STATE OF MICEIGAN, County of WashieSaw, as. The inderigned having been appointed by the Probate Court for said Clous ty, Commissions to receive, examine and signal asclasine and demands of all persons upsined the setate of Barah Ryan, late of said county decreased, bursby give notice that air months from sale-seabursby give notice that air months from sale-seabursby give notice that air months from sale-seasea-Clothing Store.

To-Day's Notices.

CLOTHING, ETC.

Union lali

H. MUNCH

Boots & Shoes

Reduced Prices

STYLES NEW CIDNITION | stord any proceedings | stord and whereas, no ;

Conoral Blacksmithing, Tables, Bureaus,

any article ordered at short notice. WEEKLY TRIBUNE Something New

DEADY FOR BUSINESS.

CAN KIRCHMOFER, General Insurance Agent.

COMMISSIONERS NOTICE COMMINION SAT'S NOTICES.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washlenew, as. The undersigned having been appliatod by the Frobate Court for said County, Counties soners to receive, examine and adjust all elemenand demands of all persons against the learner and demands of all persons against the learner flexory Walter, like of satisficationly decreased, hereby give solite that its months from dar are all owed by outer of said Problets Court, for creditions to proment their chains against the estate of mid-flexored.

Legal Notices

he notice of and Probate Court, for creditives to pre-sent their claims realized that satate of said decreased, and that they will most at the late re-idence of George Wajker, decreased, in the township of Man-chester, in land County, on Sadwing, the four-teenth day of March, and on Saturday, the thrif-centh day of June bert, at Itm. of ficket, i. N., of each of said days, to receive, efamilies and adjustically claims. Dated Decreaser 13th, A. D. 1873. 339-333 FORTER RIGWER. SHERIPP'S SALE. OF MICHIGAN, County of Washi ands and tensments, to wit 1.00 two (2) in k forty-two (2) according to the recorded plat-te Village of Manchestor, recorded in the thire-se Register of Decks for the Crussiy of Wash-wy Bata forceast, which above described pra-plated of the Crussiy of the Crussiy of the plate of the Crussiy of the Sale of the Crussiy of the plate of the Crussiy with a bove described pra-paper printed and circulating in said county saccounty some previous in said day of heart SOAH W. OREEVEL.

PROBATE ORDER

(A true copy. MACH . ludge of France

General Blacksmithing.

Tables, Bureaus,

and execute it on short cottee, in reserved and execute it on short cottee, in reserved as experience of the interest of the promises described in said country in the promises described in said country and the promises described in said country in the promises are described in said country in the amount due on said mortgage, the resist and generated as and attended in the said promises are described as follows; to write the promises are described as follows; to write the promises are described as follows; the south low-sliped of standards and described as follows: The south of standards and described as follows: The south in every particular.

Give me a call and I will guarantee satisfaction in every particular.

Picture Frames, &c.

Str. I STILD MANUFACTURE

Characteristic is with the first the south of said described in process of said described provided as constants for water of fault area of said described in process of said described in process of said described provided in the contribution of said described provided by their contributions.

Picture Frames, &c.

Str. I STILD MANUFACTURE

Passed Friends, 1187-118.

20 REPUBLICAN PAPER | I am fully prepared to furnish Comme and Bearson

Oin Sagrday May 174h 1872.

Oin Sagrday May 174h 1872.

The Riverside Medicinal Springs, the Street of Str

Dated February 17th, 18th,
MOSES BARTLETT, Mortgagee
Hawarr & Rounis, All'ys for Mortgagee MORTGAGE SALE

mortgage, should any grace-allies be taken to fore-close the same. And there is to grow the on said accepts the farther som of three bendered dollars, with interest, on the same, in three equal animal parametric from the theretern day of sameir; S.D. 1865, and whereas, nor proceedings at the set in equity have been taken to recover the same, or any part thereof, now. Therefore, notice is been street.

First class Buth House has been arrected and cerey accommodation can be obtained at managed in the conditions like raises.

| Description of the conditions of acceptance of acceptance of the conditions of acceptance of acceptance of a conditions of all temperature, also, flower and Medicated the Register of Desda for Warternaw Country Medicated and the conditions of all temperature, also, flower and Medicated the Register of Desda for Warternaw Country State of All commandations promptly shewered.

Dated Manchester, Jan. 29th, 1874.

M. PLEMING, Sheriff,

27-333 By J. S. Cabz, Depty Sheriff. REAL SETATE FOR SALES.
TATE OF MICAIGAN, County of Washie naw, a. In the matter of the cetate of Florence wasel and Alico Richemond minors.

PROBATE ORDER
TATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenney, no. At a resident of the Probate Court for the county of Washtenney helden at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, on Monday, the Minth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.
Present Neah W. Cheever, Judge of Probate, in the matter of the estate of George Walker, decembed.

MORTGAGISALI

The Amszes.

FARM AND HOUSEHOLD.

HAUSEWOLD HELPS.

INDEPENDENT IN ALL THINGS. DEVOTED TO STATE, COUNTY AND HOME NEWS. MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1874. VOL. 7. NO 22.

The control of the problem of the pr

WHOLE NO. 334.

TERMS, $2.00 a Year, in Adva

WOLE NO SE

WANCHISTER MICHIGAN THURSDAY PERRUADY S. ISL

The beautiful and significant state of the state of