Dan comes home at fall of night. Home so cheerful, neat and bright Children meet him at the door, Pull him in, and look him o'er. Wife saks "How the work has gow "Busy times with us at house!" Supper done—Ban reads at ease, Happy Dan, but one to please; Children must be put to bed—All the little prayers are said; Little shors are placed in rows, Bed clothes tucked o'er little to es, Busy, noisy, wearing life,

Dan reads on and falls asterp— See the woman softly creep;
Baby rests at last, poor dear.
Not a word her heart to cheer;
Mending-basket full to top,
Stockings, shirt, and little frock,
Tired eyes and weary brain,
Side with darting, ugly pain;
"Never mind," twill pass away,"
She must work, but never play;
Closed plano, unused books,
Hout the walks to easy nooks,
Brightness faded out of life;
Saddened woman,
Dan's wife.

Up-stairs, tossing to and fro, Fever holds the woman low; Children wander, free to play When and where they will, to-day Bridget loiters—dinner's cold, Pan looks anxious, cross and sid; Household screws are out of place, Lacking one dear. natient face,
