MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE.

MANCHESTER, JULY 27, 1876. PERRY NASH is in town. A nice little shower on Tuesday. Luckberries are sold at $2 a bushel. Subscriptions to the Enterprise are coming in lively. The Good Templars' Lodge in this village is progressing finely, we understand. The wheat harvest is about over in this section. There may be some yet to be stacked. A lot of drunken rowdies made Saturday night a sleepless one for a number of citizens.

Don't forget the Bowers Dance at Bigelow's Landing, Wolf Lake, Friday evening, July 28th. The first load of new wheat marketed at this place was bought by N. S. Case, at $1.07 a bushel, yesterday. Dr. Hume, of Tecumseh, was in town on Friday. He has gotten his new dental rooms up in excellent taste. If any one has found that gold pin which was advertised last week, we wish they would leave it at the office.

Remember the Harvest Festival and Dance at the Norvell House, Norvell, take place on Friday evening, Aug. 4. Only about 20,000 pounds of wheat has been marketed in this village, this season. The farmers don't like to sell at the present prices. The Sir Knight's excursion to Bow Lake has been abandoned; but we go on as usual on Thursday morning as we are so near ready. Our old friend Capt. Spencer has been down to Belows Falls, Vermont, and come home with more news in him than forty blacksmiths could.

The farmers have already commenced thrashing their wheat, and soon our streets will be crowded with teams loaded with grain. We hope so. The arrangements are such that a car or two will start from Norvell on the morning of the 10th prox., if the people there wish to go on the excursion with us. Potte, Palmer, Geo. McMahon, S. Fitzgerald, Walbridge and Van Dusen, were down on Tuesday, for the Republican County Convention held at Anna Arbor today.

It is altogether likely that the delegates to the Republican County Convention, from this township, will all vote and work against the nomination of J. Webster Childs. We understand that Prof. Mark Dow has been invited to deliver a temperance lecture before the Good Templars of this village, at their lodge room, on Monday evening, Aug. 7th. Rev. J. J. Martin, of Brooklyn, has written us that the next outage (Episcopal) services will be held in this village on the 8th prox., instead of the 1st as announced last week.

We were pleased to receive a call, on Saturday last, from Dr. E. N. Palmer, of Brooklyn. He has secured some new subscribers for the Enterprise, and we are under many obligations. Why in the name of common sense don't the citizens of this village make some effort to organize a fire department. If they don't, the time will come when they will be sorry. Remember that.

We learn that Dr. Bigelow, of the firm of Case, Bigelow & Co., ran against a hitching post on Clinton street, on Thursday night last, injuring his knee in such a manner that he has not been able to get around since. John Koch, takes another step to secure public patronage. He has decorated his popular meat market in an appropriate manner, and as the choicest cuts of meat can always be found on the blocks, he deserves the most liberal patronage.

We understand that Deputy Sheriff J. S. Case, of this village, will be a candidate for Sheriff in the coming Democratic County Convention. Also, that Frank Whitney, a saloon-keeper, said that Saline, will make an effort to secure the nomination. We hope our readers will not forget to read the new advertisement of W. H. Potte, in another column. He is offering goods for the next fifteen days at cost, and every reader of the Enterprise should know the fact, that they may take advantage of the unusual opportunity to buy goods cheap.

Prof. J. R. Miller, superintendent of our village schools, was in town on Saturday. We are of the opinion that he has been in the hardest field working up a music, preparatory to the opening of the fall term of school, and if he does as well in the field as in the school room, they don't find many more profitable men.

N. Schmid & Co., have one of the crowd returned at last, a morning rising $105.00 per proportion. Carried. Moved by Carr, that the release given their best to the market, and they do not taste disappointed in the arrangement of some who murmured over dresses torn, goods, a deep regret in their windows, and reward any for the trouble of W. H. Potte. In the west window we find a display of "suits" and "suits" that are their boots & shoes that is seldom equalled in our hands, good, a shot rose upward like large towers.

The Democrats of this town talk of raising a hockey polo, on Saturday. There will be an excursion over the D. H. & S. W. R. R. from Hildesheim to Detroit, on Aug. 23. We understand that a number of our citizens will see the commencement of the Government, at Leavenworth, Kan. We are pained to record the sudden illness of our friend and townsman, Arthur Case. He was very sick on Friday, but is improving some now. Some men drive customers away from their doors by bawling the names of the candidates of their party, or the picture of their choice, in the face of their patrons.

S. C. Stacy, Esq., editor of the Tecumseh Herald, came over to the special on Tuesday, and made us a friendly call. He also called on McCawen, probably for a photograph. The Tecumseh Guards will produce the drama of "Rebel O'More," or the Irish Rebellion of '98," with Prof. M. Dow of this village, as manager, who will also assume the leading character. Miss Jennie Moore, of this village, is at Philadelphia seeing the centennial exhibition, the quaker city and having a good visit with her friend, Miss H. S. Case, New York, who is in company with her.

We spent two or three hours at Saline, a few days since, during which we called at the "Oracle" office, where we found the local editor, Geo. H. Miles. Mr. Seord, the proprietor, having gone away, and had a pleasant visit with him. Saline, like the most of towns, is very quiet just at present, although the town has the reputation of being a lively business place. Henry Townsend, of Adrian, dropped in to see us a moment on Tuesday. Since the "white line" has been discontinued, Henry is running "wild." In fact he don't know whether he will visit the Centennial or go to Tecumseh and join their Sunday School. "Spies," the girls wear a call, start him in on "Uncle" S. S. favorite verse. If that's not "bliss," enough, ship him home by the slow freight.

The Argus says: "If Manchester is a ship of the Ann Arbor block, the oppressed farmers can find lots of able-bodied men sitting on dry-goods boxes, or playing croquet, but with no disposition to be 'harassed' about." Well, we are sorry to say that Manchester is not a ship of the Ann Arbor block. Our people are not lazy. They are a wide-awake, hard-working, enterprising people, and when they have no business of their own to attend to, they lend the farmers a helping hand.

A young man working for Fred Brinshaw, of Freeport, had his hip badly fractured on Monday afternoon. He and another man were drawing grain. They had loaded a wagon, and in climbing to the top of the load, the binding pole broke, letting the man to the ground; the team ran away, and the wheel of the wagon struck the young man in the hip, fracturing the fracture.

The Doctor Conklin was sent for, who placed the bone in proper shape. The other man was not much hurt. A few days ago, while going at East Manchester, Mark Dow left his knife on the bridge, and did not pick it up until after supper, when he returned for it. Seeing some little boys, he asked them if they had seen the knife. They replied that they had, but that a man in driving past saw them and took it from them. While talking the matter over, the man, whose name Mark had forgotten, drove along and Mark demanded of him the knife, and then talked to him like a "Dutch uncle to a sick child."

A large crowd of men and boys assembled in the street on Tuesday night, to witness a fight between John Walz's building and John Koch's Newfoundland dog. A bitter feeling had existed for a long time between these ferocious creatures, and they were evidently bound to have it out, provided the crowd did not interfere. In regard to it, there was great odds in favor of Koch's dog, but he had more grit than Walz's, and the crowd stood back and let 'em fight, notwithstanding many cries of "pull out," "pull out," "pull out," etc. At last they were parted, and the crowd dispersed. Where was the Marshall?

The sky with clouds was overcast, but when the sun looked forth at last, a murmur rose upon the blast-buckleries. Then rushed the steeds' fore wagons, driven; then drove each one as a host, "have driven, to reach the goal, the heavy engine, to buckleries! On foot, a crowd, with red and rail raised upward over road and rail, united shouting on the blast-buckleries! The rain was falling thick and fast, when home a check in favor of said Company for N. Schmid & Co., have one of the crowd returned at last, a morning rising $105.00 per proportion. Carried.

Moved by Carr, that the release given their best to the market, and they do not taste disappointed in the arrangement of some who murmured over dresses torn, goods, a deep regret in their windows, and reward any for the trouble of W. H. Potte. In the west window we find a display of "suits" and "suits" that are their boots & shoes that is seldom equalled in our hands, good, a shot rose upward like large towers.

The Democrats of this town talk of raising a hockey polo, on Saturday. There will be an excursion over the D. H. & S. W. R. R. from Hildesheim to Detroit, on Aug. 23. We understand that a number of our citizens will see the commencement of the Government, at Leavenworth, Kan. We are pained to record the sudden illness of our friend and townsman, Arthur Case. He was very sick on Friday, but is improving some now. MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE.

MANCHESTER, JULY 27, 1876. PERRY NASH is in town. A nice little shower on Tuesday. Luckberries are sold at $2 a bushel. Subscriptions to the Enterprise are coming in lively. The Good Templars' Lodge in this village is progressing finely, we understand. The wheat harvest is about over in this section. There may be some yet to be stacked. A lot of drunken rowdies made Saturday night a sleepless one for a number of citizens.

Don't forget the Bowers Dance at Bigelow's Landing, Wolf Lake, Friday evening, July 28th. The first load of new wheat marketed at this place was bought by N. S. Case, at $1.07 a bushel, yesterday. Dr. Hume, of Tecumseh, was in town on Friday. He has gotten his new dental rooms up in excellent taste. If any one has found that gold pin which was advertised last week, we wish they would leave it at the office.

Remember the Harvest Festival and Dance at the Norvell House, Norvell, take place on Friday evening, Aug. 4. Only about 20,000 pounds of wheat has been marketed in this village, this season. The farmers don't like to sell at the present prices. The Sir Knight's excursion to Bow Lake has been
