

MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE.

By MAT D. BLOSKER.

Notice is given to the officers and employees of the L. S. & M. S. Ry., by general order Oct. 3d, 1877, that all who were affected by the 10 per cent reduction of July last, and whose rates are less than $2,000 per annum, will receive an advance of 5 per cent on and after the 1st day of November.

THURSDAY, OCT. 11, 1877.

Wheat sowing is over, and the acreage is larger than that of last year.

The Jackson Citizen says that J. P. Schulte & Co., of Lansing, have engaged the labor of 300 convicts to manufacture barrels.

On Friday night last, we had the first hard frost of the season. The walnut, hickory and hickorynut crop is now being gathered.

A meeting of the Board of Regents of the University will be held to day, (Thursday, at Ann Arbor. The University classification matter will probably then receive attention.

The amount of cash in the State treasury, Sept. 29th was $609,771.25, which, due to the payment of Oct. 6th was $65,111.00, leaving a balance in the same year of $49,308.83, balance in treasury Oct. 6th, 1877, $631,687.39, therefore for the week $21,916.10.

John Billings gives the sensible advice "in order to train up a child in the way it should go, you must go that way yourself one in a while." A great many Manchester parents undoubtedly teach their children plenty of precept, but when it comes to example, some of them won't even pay their just debts when they have the money in their pockets.

MEETING OF SUPERVISORS.

Pursuant to the statute the Board of Supervisors, for the county of Washtenaw met in annual session at the Court House on Monday morning, with G. S. Wheeler, of Salem, chairman.

Mr. Wheeler appointed the following standing committee:

On Equivalents—Messrs. Yeeley, Ball, Webb, Gregory and Harper, on Criminal Claims—Messrs. Olson, Galpin and Whitaker, of Civil Claims—Messrs. Sherriff, LeBaron and Case, to settle with County Officers—Messrs. Krapf, Sutton and Hatch, On Salaries of County Officers—Messrs. Yeeley, Ball, Webb, Gregory and Harper, on Appropriations of State and County Taxes—Messrs. Coleman, Sutton and Young; on Public Buildings—Messrs. Gregory, Webb and Sherriff, on Rejected Taxes—Messrs. Webb, Sutton and Coleman; on Permanent Alliances—Messrs. Galpin, McGuire and Young; on Unfinished Business—Messrs. Ball, Schuyler and Shatto; to Examine Assessors of Superintendents of Poor—Messrs. Yost, Hatch and Krapf.

Mr. Krapf moved that the Board employ a reporter. Lost.

Mr. Hatch moved that the clerk be allowed $25 to report to the press the proceedings of the Board. Carried.

Mr. Krapf moved that Messrs. Young and Schuyler be added to Committee on Public Buildings. Lost.

Mr. Testley moved that there be 300 copies of the proceedings of this Board printed. Carried.

The Chairman was instructed to appoint a committee on printing, such committee to receive bids for publishing proceedings of Board in a paper and pamphlet form, said bids to be filed with the County Clerk, to be opened on the second Thursday of the session of this Board, and that the job be let to the lowest bidder. This, however, to whom the job be let, shall begin one week from that time, and shall furnish the same within three weeks after the close of the session.

Time ended the first day's proceedings.

BROOKLYN.

No new correspondence.

A notice of the election is to be given here at noon. Bills are free and whisky also. One would think so by the amount of idleness of the neighborhood. We are told that the engine struck the child in such a manner as to throw him nearly 20 years. It was the afternoon train going south at 3:30 P.M., on Saturday last that produced the accident.

The festive Indian beetle has gone into winter quarters. The blood-thirsty mosquito has adjourned business transactions for six months. The katydids have ceased to sing the hickory trees. The black cricket has gone into hibernation, and said sordid sober Autumn comes on space.

Mr. A. G. Burton, who had an ornamental iron removed of 20 pounds weight, is doing finely, says the family physician, Dr. Alford. Only a few weeks since she had a cancer removed, that caused the loss of one entire breast. Mrs. B. seems to have great power of endurance.

Last week, on Friday, Mr. Judson Thompson was taken to his last resting place. Mr. T. was a bachelor of 72 years. His farm of 30 acres was deeded to Mr. Lewis Arnold of Tecumseh. He gave her also his lone charge, amounting to $500.

The Red Ribbon Club meets Monday evenings, Good Templars on Tuesday evenings, Disciples of Christ on Wednesday evenings, and the Good Samaritan on Thursday evenings.

Dr. Jones has had the foundation for a building laid for his office.

We are to have another meet market, by here, rumor says two more. But one is to start in at the corner of Jackson and Chicago streets. Frank Miller is the master power.

If you have any business at the Probate Office, you will receive a receipt with a key to your desk.

Every communication must contain the name of the person to whom the keys will be given.

Notice is given to the officers and em-

Miscellaneous.

SAVE YOUR ORDERS for

BOOK-BINDING

At the ENTERPRISE OFFICE

G. A. FAUSEL,

Watch-maker and Jeweler!

D. ELLIS, N.Y.

DRY GOODS!

Watches, Clocks,

SILVER & PLATED-WARE,

Spectacles and Fancy Goods.

Repairing done on Short Notice, and Work

Waranted.

E. G. COOK's

a double-deck car load of logs every Saturday.

The autumn trees are putting on their gorgeous dress.

Leaves are falling, so are our friends one by one.

Hou. F. S. Snow is out on the street again.

What comes in quite freely.

Apple men are not happy.

MisCELLANEOUS.

FOR SALE—Two Good Mich. Corners, En- gine of 12 H.P. F. W. FELLOWS.

W. S. MORSE,

PROPRIETOR OF THE

Tecumseh Monumental Works

MONUMENTS, HEADSTONES, and all kinds of Ornamental Works, South and American Gothic Lettered to Order.

FORECASTLES, COTTAGES, &c.

NEAR THE RAILROAD DEPOT,

TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN

April 1877.

HARNESS & COLLARS

White Blankets, Netts, Hobbie Bobes, Garter Combs and Hair Brushes.

Talon Hall Block, (op. stores), Manchester, Mich.

ATTENTION!

FARMERS & FRUIT GROWERS.

FARM FOR SALE.

ONE HUNDRED & FIFTY ACRES,

in Brothman Township, for sale cheap.

Small property down to 100 acres, and the balance up to 1000 acres.

W. S. MORSE,

RENTAL OF MORTGAGE, and

CHEAP RENTALS,

FOR RENT—$1.00

Lease from—$1.00 to $5.00

Change of Mortgage, and Change of Hand.

—THE—

(PEOPLES' FAVORITE.)

N. SCHMID & CO.

WIND MILLS, & C. WIND MILLS, & C.

IRON TURBINE WIND MILL

JUST WHAT THEY WANT!

REASONS WHY THE IRON TURBINE IS THE BEST.

1st. Because it is made entirely of Iron, and is more Durable.

2d. Because of the simplicity of Construction and Superior Workmanship.

3d. It has fewer parts, and they better arranged.

4th. Because it has a better Governor, AND which works Auto-matically.

5th. Because it does not BLOW DOWN.

6th. Because it stops itself during a storm.

7th. Because it has a better Turn Table.

8th. Because it gives more power than any other for the same diameter

OF WHEEL.

MORTGAGE SALE.

DEPARTMENT OF MORTGAGE SALES.

IN CERTAIN INDETERMINATE CONDITIONS

OF PAYMENT.

NOTWITHSTANDING THE

EXPIRATION OF THE

TERM OF THE MORTGAGE,

WHICH HAS BEEN

NOT PAID UP,

IT MAY BE

SELLLED AT PUBLIC AUCTION,

BY THE TRUSTEE,

AT THE TIME AND PLACE

STATED IN THE

DEED OF MORTGAGE,

OR AT ANOTHER

TIME AND PLACE

STATED IN THE

NOTICE OF SALE,

OR AT ANOTHER

TIME AND PLACE

STATED IN THE

NOTICE OF SALE,

OR AT ANOTHER

TIME AND PLACE

STATED IN THE

NOTICE OF SALE,

OR AT ANOTHER

TIME AND PLACE

STATED IN THE

NOTICE OF SALE,

OR AT ANOTHER

TIME AND PLACE

STATED IN THE

NOTICE OF SALE,

OR AT ANOTHER

TIME AND PLACE

STATED IN THE

NOTICE OF SALE,

OR AT ANOTHER

TIME AND PLACE

STATED IN THE

NOTICE OF SALE,

OR AT ANOTHER

TIME AND PLACE

STATED IN THE

NOTICE OF SALE,

OR AT ANOTHER

TIME AND PLACE

STATED IN THE

NOTICE OF SALE,

OR AT ANOTHER

TIME AND PLACE

STATED IN THE

NOTICE OF SALE,

OR AT ANOTHER

TIME AND PLACE

NEWS SUMMARY.

Washington

The board of inquiry, appointed by Secretary Schurz, to investigate the cause of the fire in the Interior Department building, on the 24th ultime, have submitted a report, accompanied with the testimony. The board states there is no foundation whatever for the supposition that the fire was caused by incendiary or spontaneous combustion. They find that a fire was built of pine boards, and a blower placed over a grate in the ladies' copying room, in the Ninth Street basement, on the morning of the day on which the fire occurred; that the roaring of fire excited the attention of persons in the room, and was the subject of comment by them at the time. The testimony of several witnesses who were upon the roof some time before the alarm was given shows that a section of wooden grating covering the gutter on the roof, and lying immediately against the flue, was found to be on fire, and was thrown off the roof into the yard. The report says: "We think there can be no doubt but that this dry pine grating was set on fire from sparks or burning cinders which came up through the flue."

The Postmaster-General intends to report a change in newspaper rates to Congress. The plan proposed is that all publications claiming to be rated as second class matter shall be submitted to the department by samples quarterly or semi-annually, for examination, and if found to be matter exclusively in print, issued from a regular publication office, designed for public use, and devoted to the publication and discussion of current news, and topics either general or specific, shall be admitted upon payment of an annual fee of one dollar for each publication to the privileged rates of two or three cents per pound, according to frequency of issue, the same as are now charged for regular newspapers, magazines, etc. All other matter now embraced in second class, such as advertising sheets, reprints of books, etc., is to pay the ordinary rate now charged for third class matter, which is one cent for three ounces.

The West.

United States Marshal Tousas, of Arkansas, has made a successful raid on the gang of illicit distillers operating along the Missouri line. Deputy Marshal Woodard, in charge of a posse, captured two stills, destroyed a large amount of mash, beer, and raw whisky, and arrested four men, and while on the way to Opposition, in Sharp County, where he intended leaving the prisoners under guard, preparatory to making other arrests, he was attacked by twenty-five persons, who after a short fight, in which one of the attacking party was killed and others wounded, he succeeded in driving off his assailants and bringing in his prisoners. They were brought before Commissioner Godstick at Little Rock for examination, and, in default of bail, were committed for trial.

Henry W. Mann, cashier of the Steel Yard Company at Kansas City, shot his little daughter between two and three years old, through the heart, and then shot himself through the head. Both died instantly. Mann's wife died about six months ago, since when his mind has been affected at times, and this is assigned as the cause of the act.

A bloody battle is reported between the New-Pérees and our forces at Bear Paw Mountain, in which seventeen Indians were killed, including five chiefs. General Miles occupied the Indian camp. Twenty-two of our men are reported killed, including Captain John Hall, of the Seventh Cavalry, and a large number wounded.

Fire.

A destructive fire occurred a few days ago in the "wholesale quarter," at Indianapolis, causing a loss of seventy-five thousand dollars, which fortunately chances to be well protected by insurance. The building burned is situated on Meridian Street, at the east end of the Union depot. It is owned by Kirchard & Fingalton, and occupied by Wiles, Coffin & Smith, wholesale grocers; Mooney, Taylor & Smith, wholesale leather dealers; Mullany, Hayes & Co., whisky dealers; the Bee Line Railroad office; Hammerstein & Co., lithographers; C. A. Moffit, show case manufacturer; the Woodruff Sleeping Car Company, the upper story being used for sleeping apartments. The building is valued at fifteen thousand dollars, and the damage on it is estimated at thirty thousand dollars. It is insured for twenty-nine thousand dollars.

A recent fire in McKeesport, Penn., destroyed an immense amount of property. The fire originated in the works of the Phoenix Car and Locomotive Works, which were entirely destroyed. From there it crossed Fifth Street and spread rapidly. Following its partial list of property destroyed: Franklin Hall, Hartman's shoe store and dwelling, Brahe's liquor store, Coyne's jewelry store, Hartman's confectionery and billiard hall, Furniss' saloon, Mullin's grocery, and Ludwig's bakery. The block occupied by Wasmuth's bakery, and all the tenements occupied by the operatives of the National Tailor Works and Woods' iron mills, the Union Hotel, and Weiss' clothing store and dwelling.

Mukhtar Pasha telegraphs that eight Russian battalions, with cavalry and artillery, attacked his rear guard at Nejkan on Monday. The Russians after five hours' fighting were repulsed with a loss of four hundred killed. Four battalions of Russian infantry and three regiments of cavalry, who at the same time attempted to create diversion by attacking the Turks, were also repulsed. The Sultan has conferred the title of Ghazi Conqueror on Osman Pasha and Mukhtar Pasha.

A general attack was made on Mukhtar Pasha's whole line October 3. Gen. Melikoff was in command, under orders of the Grand Duke Michael. The key of Muktar's position, which was defended by only a single battalion, was attacked on three sides and captured, and the battalion was annihilated. The Turks tried to recapture the point, but were repulsed. Any further progress of the Russians was insignificant, but hopes were entertained of cutting Muktar off from Kars. The Russians bivouacked on the conquered position.

A London correspondent writes that the Midland Railway has been debrided in a gigantic and astonishing manner by some of its officers, leading positions of responsibility, in whom the utmost confidence was placed. The principal means by which the company has been debrided was by persons erecting private dwellings and other buildings, both for themselves and others, with material and men belonging to the company. Several delinquents are, it is said, in prison, and others will be arrested shortly.

Mukhtar Pasha telegraphs a long account of Wednesday's battle at Kanjar, which appears to have been indecisive. He says his outposts withdrew from Great Kanjar, which is probably the position of the capture of which Gen. Melikoff was described in a dispatch from Kanjar. The Russian attacks on the Little Kanjar and Kiziltepe were unsuccessful. In the night, the Turks being threatened by six battalions, assumed the offensive. They stormed Galdagh, and after five hours' fighting, pursued the Russians to Arpatchay. Night stopped the conflict. Both sides maintained their positions. Muktar Pasha estimates the Russian loss at five thousand, Turkish loss unknown. Each Pasha was wounded. There was no fighting on Thursday, except at Kanjar, of which the dispatch gives no details. The rumor that two Russian Generals were killed is unfounded. The Porte, in a dispatch to its representative abroad, claims that Muktar gained an over-hanging victory.

Further particulars of the battle before Kars make it evident that the Russians assaulted the Turkish positions along the whole line, and were repulsed with heavy loss. The main action fought on Tuesday. The Turkish line extended from the Great and Little Yeagu, two fortified hills in the Kursk plain, as far as Ani, on the Arpatchay River, with the center advanced toward the river, and resting on the Kiziltepe. The Russians, reinforced by new troops, and those lately employed against the Caucasian insurgents, began the battle at daybreak, Tuesday, by an assault on the Great Yeagu extreme outwork of Muktar Pasha's fortifications, twelve miles due east from Kars. The Turks seem to have been taken by surprise. The single Turkish battalion defending the Great Yeagu was cut to pieces, or captured with the post, after two hours' obstinate defense, which gave the Turks opportunity to prepare for the next assault. Up to this point all accounts agree, but regarding subsequent events they are very conflicting.

Muktar Pasha telegraphs the Porte, as follows: "To-day the bulk of Russian forces fell back to the foot of Karatash, leaving only six battalions entrenched at Kabak. They have thus abandoned their positions, parallel with our lines. There is no trace of the enemy at Baldiran, Kizilay, or Oghuz, they having struck their camps. The enemies' losses during three days' battles at Yanilar, Gulervan and Aladog, are estimated at ten thousand killed and wounded. Our losses are about two thousand. The Grand Duke Michael commanded the Russians in person. Providence has happily frustrated the formidable plans of enemies."

Further Particulars of the Great Storm.

The telegraphic news from the Pennsylvania railroad, old man Schenck's Hill, on the Pidder Creek Valley Railroad, when near Phoenixville, between ten and eleven o'clock at night, was badly wrecked by the rains washing out the track for some distance. There were about two hundred passengers on the train.

An embankment, about forty feet in height, was washed away, and the fast did not stop, though the engine did not stop too late. The first and second cars telescoped.

The names of the killed in this disaster whose bodies had been recovered at last accounts are as follows: Isaac Justin, Allen Beach; Compatriot, Frederick P. Olcott; Treasurer, James Mackin; Attorney General, Augustus Schoonmaker; State Engineer and Surveyor, Horatio Seymour; A strong resolution, among several others, was passed, denouncing the Returning Board, and declaring that the former candidate was legitimately elected President.

The last freight train on the Delaware & Hudson Road ran off the track owing to a misplaced switch, recently, near Melford Station. N. J. Patrick Riley, the engineer, and Wm. John Sterling, the brakeman, were killed, and three others wounded, and fifteen are wounded, two fatally. All the passengers had not yet registered, and it will be impossible to ascertain the exact number lost. The wounded are at Moundsville, twelve miles below Wheeling, W. Va.

A stationary boiler, used at the Hayden Coal Works at Logan, Ohio, for drawing cars on the screen, exploded the other morning, killing Samuel Mathey, engineer, and Wm. John Sterling. The boiler had been in use several years, and became defective through usage.

The New York Democratic leaders met in Convention at Albany and nominated the prisoners under guard, preparatory to making other arrests, he was attacked by twenty-five persons, who after a short fight, in which one of the attacking party was killed and others wounded, he succeeded in driving off his assailants and bringing in his prisoners. They were brought before Commissioner Godstick at Little Rock for examination, and, in default of bail, were committed for trial.

Henry W. Mann, cashier of the Steel Yard Company at Kansas City, shot his little daughter between two and three years old, through the heart, and then shot himself through the head. Both died instantly. Mann's wife died about six months ago, since when his mind has been affected at times, and this is assigned as the cause of the act.

A bloody battle is reported between the New-Pérees and our forces at Bear Paw Mountain, in which seventeen Indians were killed, including five chiefs. General Miles occupied the Indian camp. Twenty-two of our men are reported killed, including Captain John Hall, of the Seventh Cavalry, and a large number wounded.

Fire.

A destructive fire occurred a few days ago in the "wholesale quarter," at Indianapolis, causing a loss of seventy-five thousand dollars, which fortunately chances to be well protected by insurance. The building burned is situated on Meridian Street, at the east end of the Union depot. It is owned by Kirchard & Fingalton, and occupied by Wiles, Coffin & Smith, wholesale grocers; Mooney, Taylor & Smith, wholesale leather dealers; Mullany, Hayes & Co., whisky dealers; the Bee Line Railroad office; Hammerstein & Co., lithographers; C. A. Moffit, show case manufacturer; the Woodruff Sleeping Car Company, the upper story being used for sleeping apartments. The building is valued at fifteen thousand dollars, and the damage on it is estimated at thirty thousand dollars. It is insured for twenty-nine thousand dollars.

A recent fire in McKeesport, Penn., destroyed an immense amount of property. The fire originated in the works of the Phoenix Car and Locomotive Works, which were entirely destroyed. From there it crossed Fifth Street and spread rapidly. Following its partial list of property destroyed: Franklin Hall, Hartman's shoe store and dwelling, Brahe's liquor store, Coyne's jewelry store, Hartman's confectionery and billiard hall, Furniss' saloon, Mullin's grocery, and Ludwig's bakery. The block occupied by Wasmuth's bakery, and all the tenements occupied by the operatives of the National Tailor Works and Woods' iron mills, the Union Hotel, and Weiss' clothing store and dwelling.

Mukhtar Pasha telegraphs that eight

Russian battalions, with cavalry and artillery, attacked his rear guard at Nejkan on Monday. The Russians after five hours' fighting were repulsed with a loss of four hundred killed. Four battalions of Russian infantry and three regiments of cavalry, who at the same time attempted to create diversion by attacking the Turks, were also repulsed. The Sultan has conferred the title of Ghazi Conqueror on Osman Pasha and Mukhtar Pasha.

A general attack was made on Mukhtar Pasha's whole line October 3. Gen. Melikoff was in command, under orders of the Grand Duke Michael. The key of Muktar's position, which was defended by only a single battalion, was attacked on three sides and captured, and the battalion was annihilated. The Turks tried to recapture the point, but were repulsed. Any further progress of the Russians was insignificant, but hopes were entertained of cutting Muktar off from Kars. The Russians bivouacked on the conquered position.

A London correspondent writes that the

Russian battalions, with cavalry and artillery, attacked his rear guard at Nejkan on Monday. The Russians after five hours' fighting were repulsed with a loss of four hundred killed. Four battalions of Russian infantry and three regiments of cavalry, who at the same time attempted to create diversion by attacking the Turks, were also repulsed. The Sultan has conferred the title of Ghazi Conqueror on Osman Pasha and Mukhtar Pasha.

A general attack was made on Mukhtar Pasha's whole line October 3. Gen. Melikoff was in command, under orders of the Grand Duke Michael. The key of Muktar's position, which was defended by only a single battalion, was attacked on three sides and captured, and the battalion was annihilated. The Turks tried to recapture the point, but were repulsed. Any further progress of the Russians was insignificant, but hopes were entertained of cutting Muktar off from Kars. The Russians bivouacked on the conquered position.

A London correspondent writes that the

Russian battalions, with cavalry and artillery, attacked his rear guard at Nejkan on Monday. The Russians after five hours' fighting were repulsed with a loss of four hundred killed. Four battalions of Russian infantry and three regiments of cavalry, who at the same time attempted to create diversion by attacking the Turks, were also repulsed. The Sultan has conferred the title of Ghazi Conqueror on Osman Pasha and Mukhtar Pasha.

A general attack was made on Mukhtar Pasha's whole line October 3. Gen. Melikoff was in command, under orders of the Grand Duke Michael. The key of Muktar's position, which was defended by only a single battalion, was attacked on three sides and captured, and the battalion was annihilated. The Turks tried to recapture the point, but were repulsed. Any further progress of the Russians was insignificant, but hopes were entertained of cutting Muktar off from Kars. The Russians bivouacked on the conquered position.

A London correspondent writes that the

Russian battalions, with cavalry and artillery, attacked his rear guard at Nejkan on Monday. The Russians after five hours' fighting were repulsed with a loss of four hundred killed. Four battalions of Russian infantry and three regiments of cavalry, who at the same time attempted to create diversion by attacking the Turks, were also repulsed. The Sultan has conferred the title of Ghazi Conqueror on Osman Pasha and Mukhtar Pasha.

A general attack was made on Mukhtar Pasha's whole line October 3. Gen. Melikoff was in command, under orders of the Grand Duke Michael. The key of Muktar's position, which was defended by only a single battalion, was attacked on three sides and captured, and the battalion was annihilated. The Turks tried to recapture the point, but were repulsed. Any further progress of the Russians was insignificant, but hopes were entertained of cutting Muktar off from Kars. The Russians bivouacked on the conquered position.

A London correspondent writes that the

Russian battalions, with cavalry and artillery, attacked his rear guard at Nejkan on Monday. The Russians after five hours' fighting were repulsed with a loss of four hundred killed. Four battalions of Russian infantry and three regiments of cavalry, who at the same time attempted to create diversion by attacking the Turks, were also repulsed. The Sultan has conferred the title of Ghazi Conqueror on Osman Pasha and Mukhtar Pasha.

A general attack was made on Mukhtar Pasha's whole line October 3. Gen. Melikoff was in command, under orders of the Grand Duke Michael. The key of Muktar's position, which was defended by only a single battalion, was attacked on three sides and captured, and the battalion was annihilated. The Turks tried to recapture the point, but were repulsed. Any further progress of the Russians was insignificant, but hopes were entertained of cutting Muktar off from Kars. The Russians bivouacked on the conquered position.

A London correspondent writes that the

Russian battalions, with cavalry and artillery, attacked his rear guard at Nejkan on Monday. The Russians after five hours' fighting were repulsed with a loss of four hundred killed. Four battalions of Russian infantry and three regiments of cavalry, who at the same time attempted to create diversion by attacking the Turks, were also repulsed. The Sultan has conferred the title of Ghazi Conqueror on Osman Pasha and Mukhtar Pasha.

A general attack was made on Mukhtar Pasha's whole line October 3. Gen. Melikoff was in command, under orders of the Grand Duke Michael. The key of Muktar's position, which was defended by only a single battalion, was attacked on three sides and captured, and the battalion was annihilated. The Turks tried to recapture the point, but were repulsed. Any further progress of the Russians was insignificant, but hopes were entertained of cutting Muktar off from Kars. The Russians bivouacked on the conquered position.

A London correspondent writes that the

Russian battalions, with cavalry and artillery, attacked his rear guard at Nejkan on Monday. The Russians after five hours' fighting were repulsed with a loss of four hundred killed. Four battalions of Russian infantry and three regiments of cavalry, who at the same time attempted to create diversion by attacking the Turks, were also repulsed. The Sultan has conferred the title of Ghazi Conqueror on Osman Pasha and Mukhtar Pasha.

A general attack was made on Mukhtar Pasha's whole line October 3. Gen. Melikoff was in command, under orders of the Grand Duke Michael. The key of Muktar's position, which was defended by only a single battalion, was attacked on three sides and captured, and the battalion was annihilated. The Turks tried to recapture the point, but were repulsed. Any further progress of the Russians was insignificant, but hopes were entertained of cutting Muktar off from Kars. The Russians bivouacked on the conquered position.

A London correspondent writes that the

Russian battalions, with cavalry and artillery, attacked his rear guard at Nejkan on Monday. The Russians after five hours' fighting were repulsed with a loss of four hundred killed. Four battalions of Russian infantry and three regiments of cavalry, who at the same time attempted to create diversion by attacking the Turks, were also repulsed. The Sultan has conferred the title of Ghazi Conqueror on Osman Pasha and Mukhtar Pasha.

A general attack was made on Mukhtar Pasha's whole line October 3. Gen. Melikoff was in command, under orders of the Grand Duke Michael. The key of Muktar's position, which was defended by only a single battalion, was attacked on three sides and captured, and the battalion was annihilated. The Turks tried to recapture the point, but were repulsed. Any further progress of the Russians was insignificant, but hopes were entertained of cutting Muktar off from Kars. The Russians bivouacked on the conquered position.

A London correspondent writes that the

Russian battalions, with cavalry and artillery, attacked his rear guard at Nejkan on Monday. The Russians after five hours' fighting were repulsed with a loss of four hundred killed. Four battalions of Russian infantry and three regiments of cavalry, who at the same time attempted to create diversion by attacking the Turks, were also repulsed. The Sultan has conferred the title of Ghazi Conqueror on Osman Pasha and Mukhtar Pasha.

A general attack was made on Mukhtar Pasha's whole line October 3. Gen. Melikoff was in command, under orders of the Grand Duke Michael. The key of Muktar's position, which was defended by only a single battalion, was attacked on three sides and captured, and the battalion was annihilated. The Turks tried to recapture the point, but were repulsed. Any further progress of the Russians was insignificant, but hopes were entertained of cutting Muktar off from Kars. The Russians bivouacked on the conquered position.

A London correspondent writes that the

Russian battalions, with cavalry and artillery, attacked his rear guard at Nejkan on Monday. The Russians after five hours' fighting were repulsed with a loss of four hundred killed. Four battalions of Russian infantry and three regiments of cavalry, who at the same time attempted to create diversion by attacking the Turks, were also repulsed. The Sultan has conferred the title of Ghazi Conqueror on Osman Pasha and Mukhtar Pasha.

A general attack was made on Mukhtar Pasha's whole line October 3. Gen. Melikoff was in command, under orders of the Grand Duke Michael. The key of Muktar's position, which was defended by only a single battalion, was attacked on three sides and captured, and the battalion was annihilated. The Turks tried to recapture the point, but were repulsed. Any further progress of the Russians was insignificant, but hopes were entertained of cutting Muktar off from Kars. The Russians bivouacked on the conquered position.

A London correspondent writes that the

Russian battalions, with cavalry and artillery, attacked his rear guard at Nejkan on Monday. The Russians after five hours' fighting were repulsed with a loss of four hundred killed. Four battalions of Russian infantry and three regiments of cavalry, who at the same time attempted to create diversion by attacking the Turks, were also repulsed. The Sultan has conferred the title of Ghazi Conqueror on Osman Pasha and Mukhtar Pasha.

A general attack was made on Mukhtar Pasha's whole line October 3. Gen. Melikoff was in command, under orders of the Grand Duke Michael. The key of Muktar's position, which was defended by only a single battalion, was attacked on three sides and captured, and the battalion was annihilated. The Turks tried to recapture the point, but were repulsed. Any further progress of the Russians was insignificant, but hopes were entertained of cutting Muktar off from Kars. The Russians bivouacked on the conquered position.

A London correspondent writes that the

Russian battalions, with cavalry and artillery, attacked his rear guard at Nejkan on Monday. The Russians after five hours' fighting were repulsed with a loss of four hundred killed. Four battalions of Russian infantry and three regiments of cavalry, who at the same time attempted to create diversion by attacking the Turks, were also repulsed. The Sultan has conferred the title of Ghazi Conqueror on Osman Pasha and Mukhtar Pasha.

A general attack was made on Mukhtar Pasha's whole line October 3. Gen. Melikoff was in command, under orders of the Grand Duke Michael. The key of Muktar's position, which was defended by only a single battalion, was attacked on three sides and captured, and the battalion was annihilated. The Turks tried to recapture the point, but were repulsed. Any further progress of the Russians was insignificant, but hopes were entertained of cutting Muktar off from Kars. The Russians bivouacked on the conquered position.

A London correspondent writes that the

Russian battalions, with cavalry and artillery, attacked his rear guard at Nejkan on Monday. The Russians after five hours' fighting were repulsed with a loss of four hundred killed. Four battalions of Russian infantry and three regiments of cavalry, who at the same time attempted to create diversion by attacking the Turks, were also repulsed. The Sultan has conferred the title of Ghazi Conqueror on Osman Pasha and Mukhtar Pasha.

A general attack was made on Mukhtar Pasha's whole line

