Independent in all Things. Devoted to State, County and Home News.

VOL. 20.-NO. 28.

MANCHESTER, MICH., THURSDAY, MARCH 24, 1887.

Vanity spoke in a disappointed tone.

"You can understand that for love of us He suffered and died," the sister continued. "And that those whom He so loved and pitted must deserve our love and pity too.

would parry her thrusts.
"Yes," Vanity said scornfully, "I am not deceived. If ever I turned serious, it would only come about because first I had turned "Better that." Sister Catherine remarked. "than go through life with a fair face and a hard and hardening heart."

"Yes." Vanity rejoined, with impetuous scorn, "but what is such goodness worth?"

VANITY RENOUNCES LOVE. It was the lat of December and the Nevilles were back in their home. They had a family luncheon party, and the

had a family luncheon party, and the weather was so mild that they strolled on upon the lawn. Mrs. Hardcastle and Ara

Another time she sail:

poor uutaugh! child!

"and I never shall."

PERTISHED THURSDAY ESENTINGS. has a lorge circulation among Merchants, Messay and Manufacturers, Farmers and Families generally in the villages of

Manchester, Chelsea, Saline, Clinton, Norvell, Brooklyn, Napoleon, Grass Lake,

One copy, six months. 84 cents: Three months, 42

MAT D. BLOSSER, Proprietor. TERMS 1.50 Per Year in Advance

Desirable Medium for Advartisers. RATES MADE KNOWN ON APPLICATION.

Village Officers.

COMMON COUNCIL meets evenings of first and third Mondays in each month, at the Council Room, over Baxter's store. Tresident — A. Conklin Clerk - J. F. Nestell Tressurer — N. Sedmid Attorney — A. F. Freeman Marshal – T. J. Besimer Street Commissioner — E. S. Blythe Assessor — N. Granner — Health Officer — Dr. J. A. Lynch Pound Master — G. O. Van DeGritt — Prustoss George Nacht — Wm. Buttons Harmont Clark Lynan S. Hubert, Wm. G. Decterle, T. d. Farrell.

Poor Vanity! The doctor had pronounced ber safe from all danger, but some inscrutable speck of infection had found its way into her blood, and the face, whose beauty into her blood, and the face whose beauty into her blood, and the face, wh

A most a their hall, over George J. Hamseler's drug strine on second and for it. Three-lay even in a their a mouth.

N. SCHE D. M. W. We have a substance of the second and for it. Three-lay even in a three of the following forms. The disease even in a form of the form o

GERMAN WORKINGMEN'S AID SOCIETY meet in their hall, over Doty's store, on the Jacob Rossiel, Sec. C. NAUMANN, Pres.

Churches.

BAPTIST -Rev. H. N. Mas des, paster. Meet PRESBYTERIAN-Rev. John Patchin, pastor. Meetings Sandays at 10:36 a. m.

CATHOLIC - (St. Mary's) Rev. J. Stauss, Priest METRODIST EPISCOPAL - Rev. D. R. Shier, UNIVERSALIST - Rev. J. M. Getchell, Partor, Meetings every 2nd and 4th Sunday.

EVANGELICAL EMMANUELS' german, Re-

Business Cards.

D. COREY, Conveyancer and Notary Public Collections, and all other business left with TOM. S. FLINN, Auctioneer Will attend sales of all kinds, at lower Reures, than any other sales are the EKYSKPRIST office will receive prompt attention.

She paused; the office will receive prompt attention.

GOODYEAR HOUSE BARBER SHOP, J. J. BRIEGEL, Prop'r.

Shaving, Haircutting, Shampooine Executed. JOHN W. PATCHIN.

Attorney at Law, Office in Wenrthner's new block, Up Stairs,

A.c. SHELDON, DENTIST,

Nitrous Oxide Gas Administered, (Affice over Pattle & Lewis'store Manchester, Michigan.

F.A. ROTTS.

DENTIST

All Dentai Operations Done Promptly. Nitra Traide Gas Administered for Painless Extraction seeth. Office in Gossiyear Hall Block, up stairs. B.F. REYNOLDS,

-- Licensed -AUCTIONEER!

TROUBSEN, MICH.
Sulcain Village or Country will be promptly attended to Date scan be made at the Extraction of Manchester.

DHOTUGRAPHY .--

Having Durchased Davis' PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY!

n Maintester, and stacked it with new material Lam prepared to do WOEK AT REASONABLE PRICES ad guarance satisfastion. Give me a call. CLAURA A. GREEN. C F. MARSTELLER,

Marnfacturer and dealer in all ETERY AND RUILDING Grani e Monuments! die stock of finished monuments of the stock of finished monumentations of the stock of the stoc Works on Chienge street CHANTON

Lager, Ales and Porter,

100 ture and Wholesome TOLEDO, ONIO

But another and a mightier hand than her own will was to fashion her future. That very night the smallpox laid her low!

CHAPTER XIV.

Poor Vanicy! The doctor had pronounced

By ALAN MUIR.

time. Later on she took an opportunity of saying to her charge, with a soothing, halfplayful, but most tender manner:

"I don't wonder if you grieve over that pretty sweet face. But fisten, child; you have to learn to say: Not my will, but most be done." And you will learn to say it."

"Never!" cried Vanity—"Never!"

"Never!" cried Vanity—"Never!"

"Think my child, how much sadder it might have been Not only yourself, but another, might have felt the anguish. If there had been any one to whom your face was as the light of life—"

"There is," Vanity replied hastily—"I tell you there is."

"A man whom I loved, and who loved me.

"A man whom I loved, and who loved me.

"I how be an in the cwinner of the Mandonna.

"Some of us will try," replied Vanity, in a hard voice.

"I know better now."

"What love have you found." Vanity saked dryly.

Sister Catherine rose, and went across the reach.

"I am looking at His image now," Sister you."

"There is," Vanity replied hastily—"I tell you there is."

"There is no life without love, my child, one day.

"Some of us will try," replied Vanity, in a hard voice.

"I know better now."

"What love have you found." Vanity saked dryly.

Sister Catherine rose, and went across the reach.

"I am looking at His image now," Sister you."

"There is," Vanity replied hastily—"I tell you there is."

"There is no life without love, my child, one day.

"Oh, thank tool! warm-hearted Mand Neville called out, hardly knowing what she sail. Why did you not tell me before! But you were right; the surpaise is best. Oh, Vanity. I must be the first to kiss you."

"Not a trace." She cried, exulting. "not a frace."

"There is no life without love, my child, one day.

"Some of us will try." replied Vanity, in a hard voice.

"Some of us will try." replied Vanity, in a hard voice.

"Some of us will try." replied Vanity, in a hard voice.

"Some of us will try." replied Vanity, in a hard voice.

"Some of us will try." replied Vanity, in a hard voice.

"Some of us will try." replied Vanity, in a hard voice.

you?"
"Please," Vanity said, with half curiosity.
"His face is pale. His eyes are east down.
Drops of blook are on His cheek. His bands are spread out and nailed to His "A man whom I loved, and who loved me.
We had promised ourselves to each other,
and a woman came and stole his heart. She was rich, and could have married a dozen was rich, and could have married a dezen equally good in her eyes; but she stele—my hisband.

"Your husband?"
"Yes, by all that makes true marriage, by
"ows, by tenderness, by all that what you call marriage cannot insure."

"Did he marry this woman?"

"Yes."
"And she is living!"

"Then he is hers—not yours."

"Then he is mine—not hers."
"No; he is mine—not hers."
"Vanity, this is wicked."
"I meant to win him back," Vanity continued; "I knew he rould not resist me. But now my face is distroyed, and all is over.

and I want to die.
"Thank Gala who has given you time for repentance." the sister said gravely. "His ways are not our ways. He is leading you by paths you know not." Vanity answered, "I cannot do what I would. I am buffled, but I have not repented—no, and I will not repent."

Another time, as Vanity lay in the darkness, the sister heard her say:

ness, the stater heard her say:
"Tell me, were you always good?"
"Always good, my child?"
"I mean serious, you know. I am sure you were not always serious?"
"Why are you sure?"

"Why are you sure?"
"Bomething in your voice."
"You are right," Sister Catherine said quietly. "I was not always serious."
"Of course not," Van'ty rejoined. "Be sides, you are too good-looking."
"Indeed?" Sister Catherine remarked.

annised at this frankness. "Are good-look-ing pe pis acrost serious."
"None that I have see a.," Vanity answered —except you, I mean—And you unly began

Here she stopped, and said no more.

Two or three house later, Sister Catherine, finding her a little easier, said to her:

"Would you like me to tell you about a man who—once—wanted to marry me?"

There was a strange trenor in that usually

Two or three house later, Sister Catherine, finding her a little easier, said to her:

"Would you like me to tell you about a man who—once—wanted to marry me?"

There was a strange tremor in that usually calm voice as the sister spoke.

"Do let me hear it," Vanity said, "I hope he was nice?"

"You shall judge, child. We met when he was twenty-free and it twenty-one, and we both were poor. We fell in love. I think he really loved me. I know I really loved him. The story is commonplace enough—at least tertiae ear. After we had waited five years for fortune to enable us at the five years for fortune to enable us if marry, he secured a good appointment. My heart was throbbin; with bliss when I received a letter from him, written in a style of cold justice and formal honor, which stabled me to the heart. of passionate concern for ner imperiled beauty, which was natural in a pretty woman. As the malady progressed Vanity grew delirious. Her imagination was quickened, prudence no longer guarded her toague, and in her wanderings she told, in het, restless sentences, the whole story of her heart. A Precised a letter from min. Writing in a student cold parties and formal honor, which stabbed me to the hears.

"We were engaged lovers—that he admitted. Morally and legally he was bound to me, but he had coased to care for me; the in her wanderings as sentences, the whole story of her heart. A few of these sentences, such as most conveyed her feelings, she repeated again and again, until Sister Catherine knew each by heart, and, thinking the words over, the sister filled in the spaces between and interpreted their significance.

to me, but he had crossed to care for me; the thought of a marriage with me, he must frankly tell me, was repugnant to him. What would I desire him to do?

"The cold I usiness-like tone, the surface common sense of the letter was killing. I wrote and released him, and when I closed sine before.

She paused; then in a low voice she added: struck me that I would go in and see if there that you shall be noise again. I could calm my mind. So irresolute was I, you must not cry like that. I was collected was her tone that dister Cather that for a time I wandered up and down and a arry. The collected was her tone that dister Cather that for a time I wandered up and down and down and dister Cather that for a time I wandered up and down an breaking heart.

"Well I remember that old Norman church, with its few worshiper, and the white alter at the end. As I entered, the white alter at the end former unto Me, all clergyman was realing. Come unto Me, all and not be afraid, and try to do the best I no; the sight of the sister's face sent her fancy back on the old track. fancy back on the old track.

"The old dream shad come true, Willie,
When I look at you you will love me again.
White alter at the end. As I entered, the White alter at the end. As I entered, the you will love me again, you and I will fly a way together, to live and love—away from This horrid England. Just as we always said—to New Zediand! Oh, what a happy place!"

Then with a deep sigh the refrain stole out from the TET again, low and soft and swest:

Hear what a bonny bird whispered to me! Sixty (cithwrine knew a creatdeal of Years) to me the sea. and love—away from this horrid England.
Just as we always said—to New Zealand!

Hear what a bonny bird was pertideal of VanSister Catherine knew a great deal of Vanity's former history. Listening to these wanderings, which were repeated with a significant posistency, she candually discerned the filament of real feeling and intention on which the whole was threaded. To her, accustomed as she was to regard life and character from the religious point of view,
the sick bed became invested with a new and
the sick bed became invested with a new and
the sick bed became invested with a new and
the sick bed became invested with a new and
the sick bed became invested with a new and
the sick bed became invested with a new and
the sick bed became invested with a new and
the sick bed became invested with a new and
the sick bed became invested with a new and
the sick bed became invested with a new and
the sick bed became invested with a new and
the sick bed became invested with a new and
the sick bed became invested with a new and
the sick bed became invested with a new and
the sick bed became invested with a new and there it seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in
the seemed to me that an invisible hand in the Hear what a bonny bird whispered to use.

Sister Catherine knew a greatdeal of Vany's former history. Listening to these wanerings, which were repeated with a signifithere it seemed to me that an invisible hand to me had a more of transwhich were repeated with a signifithere it seemed to me that an invisible hand to me had actually and actually the sister had said to ner arount gosiness or "Now let me tell you a fact. As I knelt come a reality in a moment; and from that there it seemed to me that an invisible hand to me had actually
there is seemed to me that an invisible hand to me had actually
there is seemed to me that an invisible hand to me had actually
there is seemed to me that an invisible hand to me had actually
there is seemed to me that an invisible hand to me had actually
there is seemed to me that an invisible hand to me had actually
there is seemed to me that an invisible hand to me had actually there is seemed to me that an invisible hand to me had actually and actually in a moment; and from that

The sister looked from the end of the bed upon the delirious girl.

"If you live," she said, speaking aloud, "poor wandering child, I will try to teach row new.

"And I have been happy ever since in my valuat there is another love than this."

"And I have been happy ever since in my valuat tiere is another love than this."

"Oh, Wille, it is too late now."

"Oh, our Father." the sesser cried, 'slav when the old one was withered and there faced leaf flung has been to me. A new life—a new life when the sill freely air; one or two wantry beddings beauty, and tien ruse her up to be Thine for evermore."

"Then for the first time I realized that I wenther was so mill that they say so mill that they strolled out was only one in a great fellowship of grief.

I was overwhelmed, but with a blessed sor—bella and Tom Pembrok, were there; and they old indly happed that et last ber grand the work was about to be crowned with success. A few blossoms still lingered on the flower beds; here and there faced leaf flung on a stripped branch, and stood motionless, and the still freely air; one or two watery beds were piping a few afternoon note, and the December sun was westering fast. It was twenty vers ago."

Suddenty-wo figures rounded the every solution of the strong form the first time I realized that I Suddeniy two figures rounded the ever green shrubbery; one was Sister Catherine "What becam of him? Vanity aske!

"What becam of him? Vanity aske!
"He wen! his war and prospere!. He is married now, with a large and happy fam the other, though closely veiled, they all im-niciliately knew to be Vanity Hardware. Tom Fembroke turned quite palls and trom-bled, old Mrs. Hardcastle bustled off another defining, when the patient was impossed, and fitting them came the period of bundles, and fitting them to the company to the period of bundles. Heis a judge."
judge" Vanity sold scornfully. Then bled old Mrs. Hardcastle bustled off another way, and Maud Neville went to meet in CHAPTER XV.

CONFLICT.

Amide all her pain and stuper one her beautiful fare, her ade treasure, the

est love—what would become of her beauti-

"And their both mire the glass and sec-

Sister Catherine spoke no more at that as ever before the girl's mind.

talisman which was

He fores year will."

Vanity's illness might be compared to the

"A indee" she added, "I dare say he is not the only Courage, energy, tenderness and rare knowledge of the heart was shown by Sister Catherine. She never lest partients with Vanty's six never, shruink from reproving her neckless notions; and she never lost sight of the method he which six entires; into the way of the nethod he which six entires into the way of the sixter. The sixter is the covering from Van thy sixter in the sixt Tell ma," she mosmed to Sister Catherine any higher who answered southingle: with care you will recover.

"I on, near that, surreplied "Sastlibe market?"

In one or her deviational books, the sister had met this place. "The expulsive power of a new affection." See know that if Variety and then were to be cost out, something better must first take its place. With a woman of Sister Catherine's stamp there.

gleam of the old vivacity playing over her tears: "there is one mark."

She showed the place on her left cheek—one tiny left; and with yet another glunnes of her old celf, said:

"Look here."

And when she smiled, the mark melted away into the daintiest dimple in the world, and she looked prettier than ever.

After this Tom Pembroke fell in love with Vanty Hardware, head over ears, as Vanity spoke in a disappointed tone.

"The only refuge for a broken heart, my child," the sister said seriously, "I have looked at His image hanging there hour after hour. I have read in His worn face that He loves me. I have asked Him to accept my love ou return; and that I may love others and serve them, as He did me." "I don't understand it," Vanity answered; "and I never shall."

pitiel must deserve our love and pity too. There is no heart of broken, no lite so poor, but it can love Him back, and find joy in loving others as He love!."

"It don't understand it." Vanity repeated "It is quite beyond me.

But the good sister, not dannied, renewed her efforts and her instructions time after time, and she found that Venity began to listen, and to ask questions. The old recklass frankness of the actress sometimes smocked the sister, but quickened her interest in this singular being. Sometimes she smiled at the way in which Vanity would parry her thrusts.

handsome setter. I do so love a beautiful strument of authority. With it disciproads of Italy by exhibiting as their own setter. And I never had one and I just long the manufactured and attention to well proportioned distinct to the tour-couldn't live without dogs. There's something so loving about a dog."

"So human," she said, "so more than human. There is nothing in all this world so devoted as a dog's affection." devoted as a dog's affection.

"That's so. A dog's love is perfectly unselfish. If you feed him, he loves you; if you beat him, he :till loves you."

Another time she sail:
"You talk about giving up my own will.
Well, if I hal turned region, when I wan admised and all that, there would have been my side to it; but now --"
"My poor child?" the sister replied, "my "Oh!" she cried, "how can any one beat a on, see crist, "now can any one text a dog! I hate a man who can be cruel to a dog."
"So do I. I'd shoot a man in a minute if I saw him kick one-of my dogs. I have seven dogs."

dogs.

"Oh, how happy you must be?"

"Yes, ank there isn't a room in my house too good for these dogs, and they know it, too. You know my big, black Newfoundland, St. Augustine Le Clare? I paid $100 for him. Well, he skeeps in my room, and often he diline, right my or the hed and sleeps of the hed and sleeps. often he climbs right up on the bed and sleeps

"Oh, isn't that too cunning for anything!"
"Yes; my logs live all over the house.
Then my wife has three dogs of her own; that makes ten altogether. It seems like a good his was love and that there was a life of love open to Vanity. At times, with accents of soorn, she would contrast this with Vanity's old ideal; and at last Vanity fairly confessed that her sister's conception of life was higher than her own.

"But I should never have even looked at life had not flown out of my reach. I hysteria and went to bed; gave up society, should have no ment—no bravery in taking it up."

"At least, Vanity" States of the second of the se put on mourning and locked the piano. I couldn't cat anything myself for days. I felt as though I had lost a sen." "You have children, haven't york Mr. Ken-

-no, two girls-no, no; what am I thinking of! They're all girls."

Here the old gentleman collared, me and dragged me furiously into the smoking one, where he backed me up against the wood, but

"That's the cause of hydrophobia," he owled. "That's the kind of stuff that makes a man mad. The bite of a mad dog is healing balm after such rot as that! One hundred a dog! Buy all the curs that ever yelped. I can buy 100 dogs for $1, and then Brandenburg, was born—is, by German I'd only keep one and I'd kill him! Am I astronomers, expected to make its appear-must nerve myself to a deed of awful justice."

"I am going to kill that man when he gets off the train, and at the same time you will liant star of unusual magnitude in a spot giving some performances in the Eden while the woman, or I shall kill you."

1572, when Tycke Brahe noticed a print agree of the same performances in the Eden while the woman, or I shall kill you."

While he had only seen small ones until the train agree of the same performances in the Eden while the property of the same performances. The property of the Sandan and the same performances in the Eden while the property of the same performances in the Eden while the property of the same performances in the Eden with their national instruments.

One of the greatest enemies of the in this respect Sirius Jupiter and Vega. salmon and the salmon fisheries in It could only be compared to Venus, Oregon is the sea lion. It is estimated and was visible also in the daytime, even Oregon is the scalion. It is estimated that half the salmon that enter the Columbia river the early part of the scason are captured by these big beasts, while all the other stars are invisible, it was repeatedly distinguishable through which also damage nets to the amount of thousands of dollars. Vast numbers of them congregate at Tillamook rock and it is anomatical than to fade in November, 1572, and after having shows for nonthese scanners. of them congregate at illumnook rock and at Seatrocks, and it is suggested that having shone for nearly dynamite be used to force them to seek months it disappeared entirely dynamite be used to force them to scok other localities. -- Brooklyn Eagle.

The extent or degree of the oscillation it is experted of chimneys has been exactly measured by observation of the shadows cast by the sun upon the ground. An instance in point is that of a climner 115 feet

Oscillation of Chimneys.

sister said. "She is going to London next in point is that of a chimney 115 feet high and 4 feet in diameter externally at the top; near Marseilles. France, the specifications of which were discrete to the shadow during a high world to atom a maximum of twent in hes. New to the shadow during a high world to atom a maximum of twent in hes. New to the state traded with assisted the civery jerk and oscillation that the civery jerk and civery jerk and

> Braminic religion are believed to be .900 years old, that is, to date back as > bending up in Prussia the past year. The Palrunicken mines produced nearly

LONDON'S TENEMENT CHILDREN A Host of Unwashed, Scantily Dressed,

often far into the night, there may be seen disporting itself in the roadway of street including its gutters a good I of unwashed, scantily dressed, juvenile humanity. These juveniles range from babes of 3 or four weeks old up to the boys and girls of 10 or 12 years of age, who have charge of them. For, where is not a girl in the family, boys your eye falls on cripples, hunchbacks and otherwise deformed unfortunates of but they are not the born nurses that the girls are. With girls of the gutter children class, the role of "hittle mother" to creal live" bubies seems to come an natural as does 3.00

As we sailed down from Syracuse I fell me grew so restless and fidgety that he poused me. In the seat in front of us a lady and gentleman were carrying on one of the most part to less ones, and gentleman were carrying on one of the most part to less ones, so far at any rate as abought toys are and hunchbacks, or idiots and hunchbacks or idiots and hunchbacks, or idiots and hunchbacks, or idiots and hunchbacks, or idiots and hunchbacks, or idiots and hunchbacks in the evil; but I am sorry to say that they have signally failed in their game, as played by gutter children—sor the latter game, as played by gutter children—sor the idea of the abolition of these deformities themselves were result. corporal punishment. The cane or the and in the majority of cases beget monstick, strap or rope's end, used as a substant for it—is regarded not merely as and female cripples, who are professional. dawgs." She wanted a setter.
"Red or liver colored? he asked.
"Oh." she didn't care, just so it was a he colored but also as the practical inspectability beggars, make some money on the high etter. And I never had one and I just long studies secured. The miniatings and attention to studies secured. The miniating leading ones ists gaze but most of these mendicants of the gutter apply it freely, and with a constrained to the gutter apply it freely, and with a constrained to the gutter apply it freely, and with a constrained to the gutter apply it freely, and with a constrained to the gutter and symmetrical build never restrained, even by the four of reprisals—the recollection that the teacher of one or hunchbacks, provided with a fair round of the game will be the scholar of the next. The privilege of charmping the pupils is evidently regarded as the highest prerogative of the teacher, and the one thing that makes the office en-

In some of the outdoor games of the gutter youth: there is a good deal of chanting of degreed rhymes, and it may well be that the idea of the vaction well be that the idea of the vaction his gold nor respectability will induce songs, which now form so popular a any buxon maid or widow to share her part of the kindergarten system, was lot with his. Baffled in his effort to get originally taken from these street games. All the Year Round.

Not a New Theory. Everybody is now more or less familiar with the latest theory of epidemic disease, which is now known to be propagated by germs that may, under circumstances, be dissuminated by the winds, and are taken into the system through the lungs or the stomach. Here is a remarkable anticipation of this germ is a remarkatic annie perion of this gerni theory. Thevenot, who died in 1667, in his account of his Asiatic travels, tells us of a hot pestilential wind prevailing in summer from merthwest India up to the western frontier of Persia. He thinks he has identified this wind with one menthat they who breathe it turn black and fall dead-not, however, everybody who nellthorper "Ola yes; I have three, two boys and a gird imples this wind, but, he explains, a heir are stroaks of fire in it as small as a hair. which, have been seen by some, and they who breathe in those rays of fire die of them, the rest receiving no prejudice.

If it be so, continues Theyenot, it may be the thought that these fires volant proceed from subhurous exhala-tions that rise out of the earth, which being tossed by the wind kindle (for they are inflammable), and being with the air cocca traves, chewing them and sucked in by respiration, consume the lowing the saliva. I was astonis cutrails in a moment. Thus, in their the result. I went all day without the result. troduction into the human system, all of which is now entirely corroborated by the latest science.—New York Home Journal.

About a Lucky Star. The "Brandenburg Lucky Star"-so called because it appeared the night in which Elector Johann Sigismund, of Brandenburg, was born-is, by German ance again within the next four years. In 945, duriff the reign of Emperor Otho ght?

If reelly said "Amen."
"You are saved," he said, relaxing his hold.
It say the Goronn propers, a new and tunies, turbans and blue pantaloons, with you are saved," he said, relaxing his hold.
It say the Goronn propers, a new and tunies, turbans and blue pantaloons, with yellow stripes, they were taken by namy of the Parisians, who were enjoying rand now let us sit down and smoke one of brilliant fixed for was seen in the contact the train boy's non-combustible eighns, for I stellation Casal saids, which has the shape of a W. In 1201 a similar star was seen in the same place; and again on Nov. 11. 1572, when Tycho Brahe noticed a brilwhire he had only seen small start the musicians of the Egyptian army, and I was the only man on the train who and I was the only man on the train who had a contract the cont In vem the astronomer have looked for it is expected to show itself again --

A Merchant's-Long Experience. Λ noble minded merchant of world ilized races of the earth, and in all my OKE DULE. Silved races of the earth, and in all my receive. The Vedas, the sacred books of the long and varied commercial experience, Herald. in which more often than otherwise the honor of the man was my only protec-tion. I found but two or three men whom tion, I tourne coax.

I considered unnately dishonest. These men would have remained the same in principle had they been engaged in any other vecation in life.—Dry Goods

Traveler.

The Cripples of Milan.

WHOLE NO. 1016.

Men here, as a rule, are rather low Host of tawashed Scantly Developed August Humanity at Play and wire, although the amount or control for few into the night, there may be small and of inferior quality. Sinewy statured. They are, nevertheless, strong and wiry, although the amount of food and Caboche, the peasant born cavaliers of the middle ages, seem as utterly extinct as the race of Irish wolf dogs. It is, for instance, a rare sight to see in Milan an individual over six feet in height, while dwarfs waddle up against you at every street corner. Everywhere your eye falls on cripples, hunchbacks real live" babies seems to come as a quiry into the causes of this anomaly, I natural as does dell nursing to the little girls of the better off classes of society.

To the casual observer the children of degrees of kinship. Lombardians are His sister Mand knew it. And the redoubtable Mrs. Eardeastle knew it.

[CONTINIED]

BURDETTE.

He Tells a Story Which He Calls "The Interferential Dog Days."

As we sailed down from Syracuse I fell selection for the most part toyless ones are for the most part toyless ones for at any rate as "bought" toys are miscrable deformities—crimoles described and especially capable in the customs well first cousins, and uncless and ences, unable to get their union officially sanctioned, ignore the law—the result being that the children born of such par ents are, in some way or another, miscrable deformities—crimoles described and efformities—crimoles described deformities—crimoles described and especially capable in the customs well first cousins, and uncless and ences, unable to get their union officially sanctioned, ignore the law—the result being that the children born of such par ents are, in some way or another, miscrable deformities—crimoles described deformities—crimoles described and enterprise deformities—crimoles described and enterprise deformities—crimoles described and enterprise deformities—crimoles described and enterprise described and expression this anomaly, I am in a position to inform you that it is the result of marriage in the forbidden degrees of kinship. Lombardians are very clannish in their customs. First cousins wed first cousins wed first cousins wed first cousins well first cousins wed first cousins well first cous well proportioned children to the touror hunchbacks provided with a fair amount of hard cash can find little difficulty in securing a good sized pauper for

Of the two sexes, therefore, the male cripple, dwarf or hunchback is the most unfortunate. He may belong to a very honorable family and have thousands of francs to his credit in bank, but neither diminutive monstrosity like himself and becomes in due course of time the father of a very interesting family. And so the race degenerates. And so the children of Hercules by a gradual weakening and wasting of blood become so many grinning Liliputians-sad and woobe-gone spectacles alike for gods and men. It is the same old story once more of the painting spoken of by Horace in his epistle to the Pisos. The head is the head of a Venus but the tail is that of a tish. -- Milan Cor. San Francisco Chron

Use of the Cocoa Leaf. One of the greatest articles of consumption of the Indians is the cocoa leaf. It is universally used by them. Many of them do not even know what tabano is. The Indians only use it. The so called bon ton have cast it aside. It is considered not the thing to chew long. To this A ascribe this invaluable Kerb not being a thorough test, desiring to study its properties. For five days before starting I took my regular fig. In place of breakfast I consumed about two ounces of cocoa leaves, chewing them and swalmere wild guessing about the influence of Asiatic winds, more than two centuries ago, we have, mixed up with much that is fantastic, the distinct hypothesis of the germ origin of disease, the possibility of these germs being distributed by the air, and the mode of introduction in the product of the second of the control of the second of the second of the control of the second of t thrived with it. They travel forty and fifty miles a day on foot with no other food than a little cocoa tied round their necks in small pouches. One of these Indians is more grateful to you for a handful of fresh cocoa than for money

-Bolivia Cor. San Francisco Chronicle

The Mahdi's Musicians The Mahdi's musicians are the men of the moment in Paris. They are about their Sunday stroll, for an Ethiopia tingent of the Salvation Army. have come to Paris for the purpose of

Chinamen Who Can Row

Some months ago I commented on the fact that some of her majesty's ships on the China station were to a large extent manned by Chinamen. which came off at Hong Kong just before Christmas, the Victor Emanuel entered an eight oared galley, manned estack the squadron in capital style over a mile course. The Chinamen are said to than any of their competitors, and their load Implever been beaten yet. There must be some good stuff in the Celestials after all. - London Truth.

is perfectly taken up. - Chienge

Adulteration of Pepper. .

The city analyst of Liverpool in's pepper is harely adulted ted with a worthless material resending around olive strines, which is imported to in Italy

If you have any business at the Probate Of st that you notice be pub. Austin & Bancroft will Ship a car load of tished in the Manchester Enterenise, Such cattle to Buffalo on Saturday. Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Orr, of Technisch, have , to fan you and keep the flies off. er of their receipt at this office, and I been visiting friends in town. cannot be positively promised unless handed in Mr. & Mrs. Adelbert Ordiway, of Cli Rev. J. L. Hudson, of Hudson, will one of my friends who lives there told me A SPECIFIC F.R MALARIA speak on the amendment at the church on that they had to turn the servants out of Manchester, Mubigan. Thursday evening

The Lake Shore railway company have

Washtenaw County Items.

many localities were of the lutheran church in Ann Arbor, about 30 chinamen packed in tier upon tier of your papers.

Real Estate Transfers.

WASHTENAW COUNTY.

E. to G. F. Marken, land in Saline, $700.

LUNAWEE COUNTY.

land in Tecumseh village, $5,000.

Miscellaneous.

Absolutely Pure.

Yours truly

S. H. PERKINS

THURSDAY MARCH 24 1887. gangs of men here putting in a new bridge across the river below town. Michigan Cra Report, March 1. For this report returns have been received from 1.043 correspondents, representing 778 townships; 680 of these reports are fr a 447 townships in the southern four tiers of counties; and 194 reports are from 170 townships in the at Sylvan Centre, on Saturday evening, ___ | April 2. In answer to the question, "Has the There will be a teachers examination The country is building up fast and a shooper bott wheat during February suffered injury in Ann Arbor to-morrow, Friday, and at boom is extending all over the state. I am from any cause?" 423 correspondents in Saline the last Friday in May. the southern four tiers of counties answer

"Yes," and 227 "No;" in the central counties 42 correspondents answer "Yea" to Frederick Eckert's in the east part of counties:42 correspondents answer "Yes" to Frederick Eckert's in the east part of poor, abused chinese from these barbarians counties it answer "Yes," and 124 "No."

The injury in the southern counties is due to the ground having been bare of very nearly bare of snow during the greater part of the month. Rains and and 136 "No;" and in the northern Freedom, on the first of April.

lite well covered with sleet or thin ice, and mother of county treasurer, Fred with only two feet for the width of the For their supplies Wall Paper and Century Proyet taking this section of the state as a Belser, died Monday night of consump bank, you begin to realize how disgustingly whole, it is accurate to say that the wheat tion. She was highly respected and wil filthy this race of heathens are. This is the plant was not sufficiently well protected be missed by a large circle of triends. | way all the Chinese lodgings are, and to The weather since the first of March way of advertising their furniture by at They also dig down from 20 to 60 feet unpaint everything with Detroit has been no less unfavorable than in Febtaching a card to a chair in a show win- der ground, having only a small grating dow which reads "could not tell a lie; like the engine room of an ocean steamer to of the month the temperature has both this chair is made from the tree that admit the air; with iron ladders to get down dropped below and risen above the freez- Washington cut with his little hatchet." on the different floors under ground. In freezes and thaws. Such weather can A lady living in New York wrote one room 60 feet underground I found an Mixed paint bardley fail to injure the wheat plant, but it is useless at this date to attempt to the responsibility of the "Welcome Oat" old chinaman in a little square hole dug out of the earth, in the last stages of opium estimate the amount of damage not seen daying to a most companied that it was so poor that you could see his bones would prove a very "unwelcome invest-stick out, and with bare feet and hardly any Lead, Brushes, and Pleasant for the Oritic. ment," in the course of time. You know the man who always wants our opinion of him for something hold Jackson County Items. with you for giving it to him. He h Ed Brighton, of Brooklyn had a box he contracted this fearful habit, having been adicious, hint. A celebrated artist in of genuine shamrock sent him from Ire- a chinese sailor, and had been the hardest

Clyde Bagley, a 20 year old son of practice of using opium can possibly live for love of art they paint, and they are miversal failing. The picture had been in show in his studio in a private way, and the painter called upon the art critic cutter last Saturday, and before it was a control of the property of on show in his studio in a private way, and the painter called upon the art critic cutter last Saturday, and before it was what they have done, they are a total wreck. Well, excuse my writing such a long letof a big New York daily, an old friend stopped his arm was cut off 21 times. It ter, I just sat down to acknowledge receipt is thought he will recover. Le I want you to come and take a look A number of the farmers and their at my new picture, "said he. "It's just wives of the township of Napoleon, have of II be delighted, certainly."

organized a farmers' club, and elected E-Uve only one thing 40 ask. We've L Griffin, president: Porter Cady, vice been close friends for years and of president; M. L. Dean secretary; J. S. Dean corresponding secretary E. A. Harrington, treasurer for the year. The E. Savage to C. H. Kemp, land in Sylvan, resister who club will meet once a month. Uve just the interior of a safe were found in Na-

Two just the interest of and brought to police J. C. Fr it."-San Francisco Chronicle. headquarters. There were several empty pocket books, some account books, an Wm. Bacon to G. J. Helleman, 4and in To Teachers: Didn't Know How to Sleen Didn't Know How to Sleep.

Deputy United States Marshal Maurice
H. Lundy was called to Juniata county last week on official business, and his with age. Four years ago the store of J.

Manchester, $800. first night there was spent at a tavern H. Dresser, a Brooklyn druggist, was P. S. Waldron by heirs to E. S. & A. L. kept by a Penusylvania Datchman. He burglarized, and it is supposed these are Tate, land in Manchester, $7,000. came down stairs early in the morning shivering and shaking from cold and feel ing very cross. The first person he saw J. C. Richardson, who was with the Henry McClure to Wm. Lowry, land in the handlord to whom he savagely committee that conferred with Supt. Tecumseh, $350. eried out:

"Say, Mr. Lendlord, what kind of a hotel do you call this? Have you no bed covering in it? I almost froze to death of to discriminate against Jackson, said

"Morcester regarding the changing of trains on the L. S. & M. S. R. R. so as in Ridgeway, $850.

"Mary A. Barrett to Charles, H. Dibble" to the reporter on Saturday that Mr. Wor- land in Ridgeway, $2,000. "Minorgacions," replied the proprietor, cester did nor refuse to grant the commit-you must be von nightly cold blooded tee's request, but he thought the train et al., land in Ridgeway, $2,850.

many Yy, for ish two folder heds on could not be put on till about May 1st, Lafayette Pocklington et al., to Mary A. About this time tamely had taken in the when they changed their time card. The Barrett, land in Ridgeway, $700. of offices, and he fairly next train would reach Jackson about Harriet M. Burredge to John Met onnel, ronred, as he exclaimed:

Well by all than is infernal: Thay all by enabling people all along the line to John McConnel to Harriet M. Burredge, of less negat between the top of the upper feeting belond a heat. Localized 1 beg. Citizen. This item does not inform us in between these two teather had and do which branch of the L. S. & M. S. they and Phaseeall me at noon." have reference to. -Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin.

Lenawee County Items. The could be used of the Commet the voice of the entrate, the Wm. Havden, of Tecumseh, informs Whistier transformes of color and per- just hat he has a brother who resides at funces in the imager and ininor modes are nothing near. But small Tourney Lit upon a transposition from the domain of one a transposition from the domain of one same first flast that of smallesh of coulty real, the other On Saturday last he had not heard from day. "It doesn't taste very bad, does him and was anxious for his safety. asked the ring of Eir-women who ton Transcript.

Willing to Oblige.

othered around, adjusting him to Many farmers are being victimized by take it like several orts of heroic a new swindle. A pretended agent for beings. "No," sold he, trying to renew scythe sharpeners makes a present of one his tongue, "n-no! It fasic like a bronzo of his articles to the farmer, who in turn

-Bos- signs a supposed contract to push their sale in his vicinity. The contract afterwards turns up in the shape of a note.--Dr. X. loses his wife, and he goes to Adrian Times. the marble cutter's to order a monument. the selects an expensive model, but dismands a restriction in the price. The seller objects, but finally consents, with who has been connected with the state the remark:

"Well, lot it go at that. But remember, it is only to you, because you send until his death, which occurred last Sat-Graphic.

The state press association will hold its annual meeting at Port Huron, July 26 An excursion to the Thousand Islands is on the programme

Miscellaneous

ъ. G. Dory, Probate register

ATE OF MICHIGAN COUNTY OF WASHIB

MORTGAGE SALE.

Miscellaneous

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10th, 1887.

Eb. Exterprise Your package of De-

which please accept my thanks. I am always glad to hear froms home, and read

some of the old familiar papers, in fact it is about Manchester news as 1f I was there-

It has been nearly ten years since I was Manchester, and I often wish I could.

and old friends, but you see California has get away from here It is the boss country, all through the winter we have been able to sit !

around with the doors and windows open,

and most of the time to have a China boy.

The country is full of delighted tourist

Raymond and Whitcomb party that even-

0 take a trip there and see all my relatives;

roit and Adrian papers were

through the Enterprise

KASKINE No headache No Nausea, Ringing Curequickly leasant, A POWERFUL TONIC

from Ohio, etc., they are all very enthusiastic about California and want to "camp" right here I was in the Palace Hotel, and their rooms in order to accommodate the NERVOUS RHEUMATISM, PROSTRATION and all Germ Diseases.
FOR COLDS KASKINE HASBEEN FOUN

ing they occupied 14 Pullman palace cars. Besides those there are just at present The annual meeting of Jackson county couthern California. They come through st Francis Hospital, S. Y. The annual meeting of Jackson county lodge, I. O. of G. T., will be held in this villing on Wednesday, March 30th.

In a body as far as Los Angeles, where they disband and visit that country, go to the Yosemite valley and then come on to San Francisco, and make their headouarters.

Rev. Jas. L. Hall, Chaplain Abony Penttenti with the Work and the words dyspel Write him for particulars.

St. Joseph's Hospital, N. Y.: "Its use is constructed." Francisco, and make their headquarters ere here, and take short trips to Montery, Santa Rev. Shier will speak on temperance Cruz, etc., then on their way east go to Lake kincis Tahoe, or else go overland via Mt. Shasta to Portland, Oregon, and then go east via the n receipt of price.

KASKINE CO 54 Wanten St. New York. amused at the easterners who visit China-

very light snows are frequent, and an entire things, when you see a room 12x12 with HAEUSSLEB'S DRUG STORE

An Ann Arbor firm have an unique make matters worse they are smoking opium Muriline,

White Lead Works

the responsibility of the "Welcome Oat smoking; he was totally blind, as he had Co.," of Michigan, who are doing busing not seen daylight for about 15 years. He cluthing on I ving upon the bare their withused in smoking opium. The guide said Toilet Goods! this follow was strong and healthy before land, and he decorated all his friends on one in Chinatown for the habit to kill, as GEO. J. HAEUSSLER. very few chinamen who make a regular

Legal Blanks

To Clergymen:

| Marriage | Certificates

J. C. French to S. Hirth, land in Chel-

AGET YOUR School Cards

To the Public at Large:

Drugs and Medicines.

Telephone Drug & Book Store

TSTEN DEGAN

THE THACA ORGAN. HALLETT & DAVIS,

STEINEWAY AND NEW ENGLAND

PIANOS, Every style and finish at the lowest cash price. Dr. C. F. KAPP.

Glasses.

TOYS. SUGAR TOYS, East side at the river, 33

well-save you money.

G. A. FAUSEL Manchester.

Miscellaneous Miscellaneous

STATE OF MICHIGAN COUNTY OF WASHIES DON'T MAKE A MISTAKE. BOOTS & SHOES!

Direct from the Manufacturers Made to my order, and guarantee them to give SATISFACTION. Shooldy goods I will not han-as any store in Michigan. Any boot or shoe bought of me that ups any time REPAIRED FREE OF CHARGE.

C. E. LEWIS, Prop.

Peoples' Boot & Shoe Store,

Full and Complete

I am now receiving a

SPRING CLOTHING

Which includes all grades and prices, from the finest to the cheapest. Also an Elegant Line of Hats in all the late spring shapes and Novelties, A full line of

The Largest and Mest Complete Line of

Confirmation Suits Ever brought to this town, at prices that CANNOT FAIL TO PLEASE.

A. H. Green.

GROCERIES. HARDWARE

SHELF AND HEAVY

Chilled Plows.

Tinners work done with Neatness and

Canned Goods. GASOLINE STOVES,

Select Cerman Stories

With COPIOUS NOTES for the use of Schools and for

A Practical Method for Learning the German Language.

Fifth American Editions Revised and Enlarged for American Schools, with select German Poetry.

Retail Price: Neat and Substantial School Binding, 60 Cents.

Die Erzehlungen erfreuen durch ihre Praecision, sind ansprechend, beb bend und enthalten eine hinlaengliche Anzahl leicht versteckter Pointen, die sich in der Schule ausgezeichnet verwerthen lassen.

Um ein meeglichst vollstaendiges Material zu bieten, ist der neuen Ausgabe eine reiche Auswahl von Gedichten und Sprichwoertern beige-

Auch dieses Werkehen, obsehon noch nicht lange vor dem Publikum, rent sich bereits einer grosse: Verbreitung.

Von achteren Personen wird dieses Buch desshalb achaliehen Sprach-

The cradual transition in these narratives from easy to diffi-

The practical design of this book is to lead the student, with the student or business man who wishes to master Gep-man for practical reasons as well as for general tuliure, there is a method published which can be so carnestly recommended by

The gradual transition in these narratives from easy to uni-cuit exercises, has been accomplished in such an excellent man-ter that the student is hardly conscious of the change, and is table therefore to comprehend and grasp the language far more

g createst possible case and dispatch into speaking term an errectly and fluently, which will also encourage a deeper study to this noble language which is, as is truly said to become a "universal language."

busely en vergezegen, weil dese n Inhalt nicht wie derjenige einer Fibel oder ersten. La schuches langweilt, sondern füer jede. Klasse und jedes. Alter Uytunnatzung bietet.

BY GEORGE STORME,

fuegt, so dass such die Poesie gennegend, bernecksichtigt ist.

dily than he could otherwise do.

all who know and can testify of its merits.

Sent post-poid on receipt of price.

HARDWARE!

and Repairs.

Sewing Machine JUST RECEIVED! ALL KINDS OF

A Fine Line of . Boots & Shoes,

Confectionery.

Wall Paper.

And all goods kept in a first-class Groc ery Store.

Cash Paid for Butter and Eggs.

PROVISIONS.

FAUSEL'S

"Standard,"

THE BEST

IF YOU WAST

JAMES G. TRACY

OF F. STEINKOHL, NECK CHAINS,

Clety Pins, Rings and Charms. Latest styres or Bracelets, in fact, anything in the line and of the Best Quanty. Silver and Plated ware, Glass and Silverware.

CAKE BASKETS Fry Ginses, Silver Ten and Water Sets, the first ever brought to Manchester. I can't numerate all the beautrul goods. I have, it would take a large newspaper to do so, but

Call at my Store

nd I will gladly show you. I have select

It you sight is falling call and yet a pair of

JEWELER.

Spectacles or Eve-

I have a large assortiment of Enterprise Publishing House, Manchester, Mich.

PERSONAL

Monday on business.

esterday on business.

on temperance to-night.

Manchester Enterprise BY MAT D. BLOSSER. Mrs.-M. A. Smalley has gone to Clinton o reside.

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES.

The pay car passed through here yes-

Everybody should encourage the school

The boys seem to be more successful i

Prof. Copp. of Hillsdale, will speak on temperance at the baptist church next shooting black birds than sparrows.

School exhibition Friday night.

by attending the exhibition.

over Sunday

THE PIONEERS. Where They came from -- Where They ocated-How They Lived, and made the "Wilderness Blos-E. E. Force, of Sylvan, visited in town sem as the Rese.

Frank Dorr went to Lenawce Junction EARLY DAYS IN BRIDGEWATER, iting her father here who is very sick. W. C. Sharp, of Brooklyn, was in town SKETCH NUMBER ONE. Rev. Shier has gone to Clinton to speak

shelled and boiled and eaten with milk, un-

In the fall of '30 Jacob Gilbert came in Music

resort to, and beef-steak was in the distant Recitation twilight shrouded the earth they were at the a few days this week.

Monday.

future, so they had to depend on their guns Address

bert started out on the Pottowattamie trail

. be found. After wandering all day they

for when he wrote:

came upon a cabin where a settler had lo-

"Ob, for a lodge in some yast wilderness;"

derers reached home. During the absence

"Some boundless contiquity of shade."

Henry Miller, of Ypsilanti, is visiting: friends in town this week. There will be a dance at Goodyear bor this week on legal business. Mr. & Mrs. Bert Conklin, of Tecum- 30, 1830, and stayed in Albany until the ar-Hall c aster Monday, April 11th.

"The Boarding School" and school seh, visited in town over Sunday. exhibition, at Goodyear Hall Friday Mrs. S. H. Pennington has been visitand going to Bridgewater Mr. C. built a house. ing friends in Tecumseh the past few days. kind of tent of poles covered with bed-good show of getting there.

The temperance people of Manchester and vicinity will unite in holding an vicinity will unite in holding an loss of the first strength of the first amendment sociable at Goodyear Hall on | Wells. Friday afternoon next, from 5 to 7 o'clock. Prof. R. C. Miller, of Constantine, was Clinton now is, next day went to Adrian Rev. Shier will speak on temperance on rian church Sunday evening, April 3d. evening. Our farmer readers will be interested W. H. Wieand, state agent for the De- til harvest, some two or three weeks. in reading the advertisement of D. Wood-troit Evening Journal, has been in town For pillows shey procured shavings, and ward & Son, Clinton, whose celebrated this week. plows might appropriately be called "Old Fred Kotts will be in his deutal office hawk war called out the scattered male pop | L. Palmer's tenant house this week, April 5th Mr. Wells closed a very successful sing- Mrs. A. D. Perkins, of Hillsdale, has commanded the expedition. The campaign pastor. ng school last Tuesday evening at the been visiting relatives and friend in town lasted only about three weeks. While E. church. There were about 18 vis- this week. the singing. This was the 20th lesson, Mr. & Mrs. Homer Hall, of Wood.

over Sunday. Mrs. W. M. Drury, of Bridgewater Sta- settles down on the primeval forests like a April 2d: tion amendment carry, a great and all tion, favored the ENTERPRISE office with benediction of heaven, Crampton and wife Music by church choir Jackson Patriot: Should the prohibipervaying thirst will immediately fall up- a call this morning. on the entire state. The one trait of the Peter Jacobs has moved to Clinton and ville was afterward located., and his name Select reading human family which can be relied upon taken the foremanship of a section of the was Soules.

absolutely, is that if you tell a man he Lake Shore railway. shall not have a thing, under severe pen-Jacob Rommel has moved his family and located where Justice Watson now owns. Declamation alties, he will devote the balance of his to Waterloo, Jackson county, where he Those early pioneers had no pork barrels to Essay fife patiently and diligently to getting it. will run a grist mill. The W. C. T. U. of Michigan and Thede Harris and Cal. Hiteshu drove for their supply of meat; accordingly, one Music.

other states will observe Tuesday, the up from Tecumseh on Sunday to visit balmy Sunday morning; Crampton and Gil-29th inst., as a day of special prayer. In their many friends here. christian denominations to join in this appeal to Heaven for the uplift was in town on Saturday and made the lured from their path by the sight of game, ing of the temperance cause. The ladies | Entererise office a call. of Manchester will convene in the session | Dr. Finch, of Adrian, made the Ex-

Lenawee county, through their super- A.W. Munsell, late of this office, has to rest and meditate. They started out next town Saturday. intents of the poor, sued Washtenaw sent us copies of the Clare Democrat, and morning with fresh vigor and high expeccounty for about $27 paid to a poor we presume he is at work there. town Saturday.

Mrs. Simon Nissley is visiting in Detroit roman at Adrian the past year, whom Mrs. F. E. Palmer and daughter, of cabin where they stayed the previous night; Mrs. George Schleigel has sold five acres they claim is a Washtenaw county charge.

The woman, it is claimed, was a pauper

They expect to go to Dakota in a few meditate on the uncertainty of human after they cape to the previous ingit.

Als. F. L. Tainer and the previous ingit, cooked game for supper and laid down to of her farm to a Mr. Duyoel, realizing $650.

They expect to go to Dakota in a few meditate on the uncertainty of human after they cape to go to Dakota in a few meditate on the uncertainty of human after they cape to go to Dakota in a few meditate on the uncertainty of human after they cape to go to Dakota in a few meditate on the uncertainty of human after they cape to go to Dakota in a few meditate on the uncertainty of human after they cape to go to Dakota in a few meditate on the uncertainty of human after they cape to go to Dakota in a few meditate on the uncertainty of human after they cape to go to Dakota in a few meditate on the uncertainty of human after they cape they c at Ann Arbor, and was given money to days. go over to Adrian to live with her daughter. Washtenaw assisted her one year ter. Washtenaw assisted her one year ter. Washtenaw assisted her one year ter. and refused to continue doing so any M. Brenner drove over to Ann Arbor on day, night found them still in the wilderlonger. The case will be tried before Sunday last to attend Lewis Risdon's ness. They had found what Cowper sighed Mr. Fred Stiegelmaier died at his parents' Justice Perkins in this village April 28. funeral.

Henry Palmer, who is in Indiana atter We learn that A. T. Bruegel, has sold horses writes from Thornton on the 21st his house and lot on Jefferson street, to But unlike Cowper they desired to escape Miss Grace Burns was surprised by a few saying: "Wheat is looking splendidry in this section, many farmers are plowing Ann Arbor.

Mr. Rauschenberger, and will move to modern nimrods built a fire by a friendly birthday.

Oyster by the can or in bull from Baltimore, at N. Senger's. aging: Wheat is housing specially and Arbor.

In this section, many farmers are plowing and a few have sown oats. Mr. Riley,

We received a pleasant call Tuesday but not on the down of the signets of Gandanily near Wampler's Lake, where he has ments in the Want Column.

bushels this spring. He received an or.

C. A. Jones, of Norvell, formerly a of these hunters their wives repaired daily his paper is not wanted is to send him a Bros. der yesterday for 1000 bushels at $1 per student of our union school, was in town to a hill north of Crampton's in the vain postal saying "I am going west." oushel. The railroad running through on Saturday, and made the ENTERPRISE hope of penetrating the dense forest with Postmaster Burns went to Detroit Mon-Thornton runs eight passenger trains office a friendly call. every 24 hours, with freights to correspond. It is called the "Big 4," as it Prof. U. R. Evans, of Adrian business only rendered them sadder, and the drumturning by way of Jackson something to give her a boom.

Indianapolis, St. Louis and Chicago.

onnects the four large cities Cincinnati, college, was in town yesterday, making ming of a woodpecker on a dead limb Mr. & Mrs. W. M. Drury entertained arrangements to open a class in this vil- sounded like a funeral knell. There had their brother, W. A. Drury of Chicago, and lage the 2d week in April. We clip—the following extract from a letter written in Findlay, Ohio: "This town is on the wildest boom I ever saw.

Mr. & Mrs. E. K. Frucauff, of Ann Crampton and Gilbert cabins, during the absence of loved ones, but joy returned at Arbor, visited at Nate Schmid's over Sun.

One of the noon.

Over half a million of real estate changed hands last week. The most sanguine expect 50,000 additional inhabitants during Hon. E. D. Kinne, of Ann Arbor, who ton was honored by his townsmen, at l was the ne. xt two years; 2,000 houses are now is running for circuit judge on the repub- a man to be trusted. In 1862 he sold his actually under contract to be built this lican ticket, was in town yesterday and farm and four years later he with his wife season. 1 he town has three glass fac- favored the Enterprise with a call. went back to England, tarried four months, two paper mills: coming; two or three visiting his brother Postmaster Doty, and saw mills; handle factory, woolen mill; visiting his brother Postmaster Doty, and had no children. Crampton was a member saw mills; handle factory, woolen mill; oil till you are greasy and gas to all eteroil till you are greasy and gas to all eterfriends.

The factory of the L.O.O.F., and also of the masonic friends.

STIEGETMAIER—In Bridgewater, on friends, fr stoves, kitchen and park v, cost him for We received a pleasant call on Mon. After Crampton's death the widow married 16 years. gas, fuel, $4.75 a year. No ashes, no dirt; day from our old friend Thos. Moshier, B. K. Felton and lived with him six years, and it is safer than anything else. Find- late of Springville, but who has with his when he died. She has been a widow the lay is about 15 miles south of Toledo. excellent wife, taken up his residence in second time 13 years, she is still with us at the age of 79. In 1866, when the Cramp-Near there are a number of oil w, ils, and this village. Near there are a number of oil w. 118, and this village.

it would pay anyone to go there to see Sam Davis has handed us a copy of the stay the remainder of their days, but they While in Adrian last Saturday forewhile in Adrian last Saturday forecopy of the Mudson Post containing a slonging for their American bone Mee

LOSABARY Meeting Me what gas will do for a town. . Elkhart Review containing an account of had become so Americanized that the old proganized there to bore for gas. They all perance on the 25th. Thanks. annear to be sanguine of success, in fact, the hat gas exists there because the artifice and have two burning wells, one at the engine house and one at the water at the engine house and one at the water works, but the question to be solved is succeeded in "swapping off any of them though. Our boys had a little experience with Tommy, about a year ago, the occasion being a foot race, and they don't the coming entertainment a success. As perienced man has been engaged to sink a well and work will be commoned with the common and the water works, but the question to be solved in "swapping off any of them though. Our boys had a little experience with Tommy, about a year ago, the occasion being a foot race, and they don't the coming entertainment a success. As has been mentioned before representations and the succeeded in "swapping" off any of them.

The School Entertainment.

a well and work will be commenced with- Robert H. Hendershott, the drummer tives from each from have been chosen in ten days. They expect to strike gas boy of the Rappahanock, whose youth and the teachers have put forth their best within 1000 feet, but may have to go was spent in Jackson, is now in Califor- efforts in drilling them. The play, which within 1000 feet, but may nave to go was spent in Jackson, is now in Cannot within a spent in Jackson with a spent in down 2000 of other large and of the skill on the drain. He is known as Ma- cannot fail to interest everybody. The HAMS—Country, Sc; shoulders, Sc; shoulders and they can around Adrian and it is jor Hendershort, and is accompanied by proceeds of this entertainment will be HIDES 6c. claimed that they will also begin soon, his son. The California papers speak devoted to the interests of the school. claimed that they will also begin soon. his son. The California papers speak devoted to the interests of the school. We hope that both companies will be; well of his performances.—Hendershott We need a new organ. Come and help. successful, Adrian is sadly in need of was brought up in Tecumseh, and we were us get it. Admission 20 cents, children WHEAT—Quiet at 76@78c for red or well acquainted with him.

Rica Bertke is on the sick list this week Fred Schaible and family of Chelsea, Catholic church, of this village. Supper spent Sunday here. Miss Emily Pfitzmire, of Chicago, i spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Mike "In the days when we were bioneers

Ann Arbor and Dexter the past week per ers from abroad. Admission to the enturned home Monday. School inspector Schneering, who has just ety will try and make the entertainment ders for anything

James Crampton was born in Spalding Lincolnshire, England, July 23, 1799. On finished visiting the winter schools thinks worthy of a liberal support. We expect the Implement Line. YOURS RESPECTE J. D. Corey, Esq. has been to Ann Ar- February 3, 1826 he married Elizabeth P. we have had a good corps of teachers. Wishlad. They landed in New York Dec. rival of spring. May 15, 1831, they arrived in Detroit, and in Clinton five days later | Frank Merithew has built quite a hen of Adrian Business College, will open

Miss Dena Heeson, of Tecumseh, was the guest of Miss May Hunt over Sunday.

Miss Dena Heeson, of Tecumseh, was clothes, on the south side of that little run just south of the present dwellings of Thost Van Gieson and William Gadd. They reday. ness by single and double entry, also in mained in the tent untils a log cabin was Mrs. Clara Palmatier and Mrs. Bell Ford. Rapid Mathematics. References, write Charley Lewis and Fred Briegel have received notice that the shoe buckle on Dr. A. C. Sheldon has gone to Ann built north of the Bridgewater mill pond. The Bridgewater mill pond of Elkhart, Ind., have been visiting at R. any business man in Adrian, German or which they applied for a patent, stands a Arbor to attend the state dental associa- In those days provisions were scarce K. Fellows', Mrs. Palmatier's parents this American. some wheat had been sown in 1830, but har- week. Those who have not completed their

a small grist, stayed the first night where tives. Rev. Isaac Springer will speak on temperance of the W. C. T. U., at Goodyear Hall, on Friday evening, April 1st, and J. C. Nichols will speak at the presbyterian church Sunday evening April 3d evening.

their spring mattresses during several years, into town this week. were composed of straw. In '32 the Black- Mr. & Mrs. J. C. Mattison moved into S. Maid's Plow," for you can't find its from Saturday, March 25th, to Tuesday, ulation, and Crampton among the rest. At Rev. M. D. Mack, of Hillsdale, occupied ties for printing caucus notices, election that time General Brown, of Tecumseh, the pulpit last Sunday in the absence of the tickets and slips, auction bills, posters, Grampton was on the warpath, Mrs. C. Prof. Bachelder, of Hillsdale college, will speak on the prohibitory amendment next The Crampton household heard of a set- Saturday evening at the Iron Creek church. John Engle, the shoemaker, sells l'arkand they have proved very instructive to stock, visited his father, Richard Hall, ter that had come into the vicinity, and on The following named persons take part in er's Boots with rubber upper and leather on one of those quiet mornings, when silence the temperance meeting on the evening of soles. They are a new thing, warranted water proof, and will not sweat the feet started out to find the new comer; they Address found him on the river bank where oules- Recitation Ressie Repedict Indiana after horses and expects to be in - John Raby | Manchester in a few days with about 10 Miss Lucy English head, mostly young mares.

week.

classes in Manchester the 2d week of April, in penmanship and Bookkeeping, ment of "odds and ends" which are pretty and perhaps you can find just

The se ason for selling farm implement live stock, etc., is now at hand and our readers should bear in mind that we can

We have just received a new lot of visiting cards of the latest, styles and of various sizes. Call at the Enterprise Caucus at town hall March 26th office and examine them and when they sought the trail it was not to Mrs. C. Schlegel is very sick at present Best in the world. Cressent Cough room of the baptist church, at 1 o'clock remembers a friendly call on Monday, cated, cooked some game for supper, accept at the hospitality of the

> FOR SALE CHEAP. House and lot on Beaufort st., south of Best Rice 5c a lb M. E. church. Enquire at this office or Best Candy 10c a lb Best Figs 15c a lb of S. Davis. A 10c Bar Soap for 5c Don't pay a dollar, when you can get A 25c Bottle Catup for 10c fairs. Started out next morning with great One of Manchester's young gentlemen > > residence Friday night and was buried ance at Ann Arbor next Sunday evening.

Ovster by the can or in bulk, direct where I stop, is a grower of seeds; he is afternoon from George Depuy, of Franknow shipping about 100 bushels of seed. He was afternoon from George Depuy, of Franknow shipping about 100 bushels of seed. He was the large farm.

The latest way to inform an editor that the horse of seed. The latest way to inform an editor that the latest way to inform the latest way t their vision or to discover some traces of day to attend the funeral of relative, and the wanderers, but the notes of happy birds will xisit Pontiac and Orchard Lake, re-Want Column! been sleepless nights and sad days in the their mother, Mrs. H. Drury, of Reading, DISSOLUTION OF CO-PARTNERSHIP ch 1887. J. TRAUTWEIN & CO. Crampton's was the second settlement in Now is the time to bring in wood and Bridgewater, Hixson's being first. Cramp take a champion washing machine home. Pure Bred Stock season. 1 he town has three glass lac. Invoiced the ENTERPRISE with a call.

tories in oper ation, and two more coming:
a cutlery estab. Ishment and more coming:
two paper mills coming; two or three two paper mills coming; two or thr E. G. CARR 2I Gold FRINGE

DETROIT, Mich., March 24, 1887.

she found herself among her old friends in 24%24c $\frac{1}{2}$ by; fair dairy 17%.18c.

R. RANDALL.

CORN—No. 2, spot, T car at 394c.
OATS—No. 2, mixed, 30c asked.
WHEAT—No. 1, white, spot, 2 cars at 81½c, 20 cars at 81½c, 20 cars at 81½c; No. 2, red spot, 10

10 cents. Tickets on sale at Haeussler's, white,

Banners, Badges, ENTERPRISE OFFICE.

Commercial. SOMETHIAG NEW Markets by Telegraph.

Made of Fine Writing Paper, with picture of who were interested in the company organized there to bore for gas. They all

Made of five Writing Paper, with nature of POTATOES—Quiet, car lots 406.42c.

ONLY 20 CTS. HACH.

Store lots 436.45c P bi.

BUTTER—First-class dairy is scarce at

BUTTER—First-class dairy is scarce at

For Teachers and scholars.

HÆUSSLER'S DRUG STORE. MARCHESTER NOVELTY WORKS.

Home Markets.

In the building optionite the Postoffice, I am prepared to do all kinds of work such as menuing BARLEY—Quiet at 906,$1 $2 cwt. BEANS—Slow sale at 756 $1.10 $2 bu. BUTTER-Good butter is wanted at 20c. Gasoline Stoves, Sewing Machines! EGGS-Dull and lower, 10@,12c is all they Guns and Revolvers.

> Fish Spears, Butcher Knises, Knife Bodes, etc., on plott no. G. H. Anthony held at Goodyear Hall on Tuesday evening, April 12th, for the benefit of the LARMERS will be served from 5 to 7:30 at 25 cents a Plow plate. After supper Dr. Robert Buyse, of Jackson, will speak on "The Church For $10 than your and History," and Rev. Jas. Ronayne, of $14 4 points for $1 Stony Creek, will speak on "The Irish 20 for $4.80. 2 Jointer Land League." There will be vocal and points for 25c. Also Sons instrumental music by the children, mem- Best Rakes and Ted hers of the church, and perhaps by sing- dere at less than man tertainment will be 25 cents and the soci-

and Jointer

to publish the programme in full next D. WOODWARD & SON

Prof. U. R. Evans, 20 years principal NEW FIRM AND NEW AND

Complete stock of Goods

Domestic Dry Goods, Carpets, Wall Paper,

The Enterprise has excellent facili- Gloves, Hosiery and Notions, Boots & Shoes. dodgers, cards, in fact everything in the Successors to W. H. Pottle. MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN.

J. G. English Henry Palmer, of River Raisin, is in WE ARE WITH YOU ONCE, MORE: ---THIS IS THE---

Miss Maud Baldwin

Henry Sutton

Mis. J. C. Lapham

Mary Brix

W. R. Moon

W. R. Moon

We have some beautiful easter cards which we will sell at cost to close them out. Please call at the Enterprise office and look them over.

Look it Over:

4 lbs Granulated Sugar for 25c Best Crackers for 5c a lb Best Smoking Tobacco 15c a lb A good Plug Tobacco 20c a lb

A 10c Slate for 5c

$4 Men's Shoes for $3 $3 Ladies Shoes for $2 50c yd Table Linen for 35 50e vd Flannel for 25e 1:00 Hat for 50c 50c Cap for 25c

A 50c Dinner Dish for 25c

10e Plate for 5c

50e Dress Goods for 25e 50c Scarf for 25c Best Cider Vinegar 15c a gal Best Water White Oil 111c a gal

MANCHESTER, MICH.

Manchester Roller Mills! Crash in Furniture

If you want the highest market price for it, c Exchange it for Flour.

"-We have jest in a large

CORN SHELLER

-IF YOU-

door to the postoffice will be Closed Out

Large and complete stock of Furniture, nex

Take No Other Next 60 Days.

Want Nice Bread.

SAMPLE ORDER. We are sure that you will want our four if you

N. W. HOLT & CO.

W.H. LEHR,

Manchester City Bakery, GROCERIES, CROCKERY, where you will also find Glassware, Notions. CANDY TOYS,

Nuts and Confectionery of

Fresh Can Oysters FRESH LAGER,

Cigars, Tobaccos,

WM. KIRCHGESSNEB.

Like ranway trans-like inching hot,

The shrields that made a gave with mightWere feating for behind
As new possible to sight,
Down down they went it blind

. The control grain humped and bumpe

Along the recritate

Then, of a sudden up at idinped

And a ringht on the ad

And left four feet strick out besid

in the interest of printers, by Shueide

Prof. H. C. Hopkins, of New York him another food," "He is evarpoined," said addressed a fair-sized audience at Good, the driver, "rougher than a file, Look at ... year Hall Monday night on the Amend. them hald shoes corks on 'en that 'nd wedge a lade through an ice house." The officer ment. He is an able speaker and his lifted a hoof to see, and straightway looked over the top of a four story building. Buzz our friend, S. H. Perkins, son of a mule," Tember's back come the mulfled our friend, S. H. Perkins, son of a fider; "See if the mulfit hart, and if it is W. T. Perkins, of San Francisco, Cal. nivest the man." Burdette. -We hope that he will pardon us for publishing it without permission but it was: so good that we could not help it.

The doukey social at the presbyteman church parlors was a pleasant affair, church parlors was a pleasant affair, syrup. Kendall, the miller, put the donkey's tail in the right place, and received a dish of boiled sap as a reward. Our new dry goods merchants, Macomber Bros., have received their new goods columns will be found something regard ing them. The young men have the appearance of being good business men, and we welcome them to our number. Demorest's Magazine for April has 51 Uncle Josh illustrations, the frontispiece being the

"Wooing." The literature embraces I might jest as well ring up some of the choicest selections of noted gum ter kind'r take the chill off. writers. The principal feature is the "Mirror of Fas. ions," which contains valuable suggestions for the ladies and the Correspondence Club will be found equally interesting and instructive. The teachers and scholars of our union school have been very busy the past week preparing for the exhibition which is to take place at Goodycar Hail to-merrow evening. The exercises will consist of recitations, declamations, dialogues, tableaux, and music, closing with the conceds of "The Boarding School," Every person in this village should attend and we expect to see a crowded house.

we expect to see a crowded house. st. Nicholas for April has for the frontispiece an illustration entitled "The Monkeys were sent into the trees to gother fruit, by J. Carter Beard. It's literary contents contains some very. And then she went on . with mustrations, and the Merrimac and the Working Toy then. Adam Badeau There are a 8500 configuration of the Working Toy then. Adam Badeau There are a 8500 configuration of the Working would you be willing to want for the Working would go use a configuration of the Working would go use as ones, and I cannot leave the China. The Pekin government has ordered two captive balloons from Paris, and have provided invested in a western silver mane, and he is There are a second poems contributed by Cetta Thavter and of the April Central Present of the April Cen

How Long He Would Wait.

"How long would you be willing to wait rime?" she asked, in top asked low he would tury is the beginning of a series of papers out."-Puck Van Reusschaff, Assented by Joseph One of the citation of religious sects. Best on has a gymnasium exclusively WOVLD YOU BELIEVE IT. We are death Van Reusschaff, Assented by Joseph. Sarsanarida to the people Van Rousschar, have tell to Joseph Pennell, Mr. Jose Chandler Harris is the author of a story entropy of Israel. Its headquarters

Compton, the sector of which had in a voice of the defined an immeries Georgia, before and as the former of the sector of th Georgia, before and an ingle-secon the to war. Dr. Edward Erg eston, continues between

- Pie series of ballous on enjoins pistore. विशेषकी र का काम र मिल्लिस किया प्राप्त मिल्लिस किया का स्थापना का स्थापना का का स्थापना करता है। जो का स्थापना का स्थापन का स्थापन का स्थापन का स्थापन का स्थापन का स्थापन क entitled Church and Meeting-house in social variety of the Revolution. In Open Letters that add described in now dead. His Is a collection of interesting articles, and Section 19 the poetry consists of a "Love Song" deal and a

by Amelia Rives, etc.

The Indian in presence of the white man or in presence of strangers is not he same as the Indian at home among no rellows. All taciturnity and stoicism we emero a hospitality, catting a haldren than anything else, laughe Lanker, shad a habit, almost an uncon er beinging a cracker or a bis particularly in horsemanship, the break was with members of a tribe. It has be - cruel and barbarons on the thirty year. Theyer care to eat much plans, and yet I must say that whatever at this hour and I simply want a bite to kams, and customs governed then were, was and customs governed then were.

Star he I could understand, strictly I cure for it, rather than go out to a ress far as 1- could understand, substy differed to. No one meddles with our titler's wives horses or arms. No one and dam to a woman or a horse that he high at part spot taske, the pince demands different parts of the pince demands different parts of the pince demands of the pince of the pinc y had little use for. Provisions a temperate man always, but I take a this they had introduced a temperate man always in common. I do not know have a laways in common. I do not know a glass of wine at dinner. I have not permitted myself to take a glass of ale or while I was with them provisions were whale I was with them provisions were wine at lunch or between breakfast and ordered by telegraph, will be finished to ship to-morrow. very plenty. The young Lucks were dimer." These words from one of the always relaig helter skelter over the halls most successful bankers that Albany has and paint of for miles around, and kept a cere known conney a lesson to young masks of meats in great abundance. The phases did all camp and neid work and elsewhere. Albany Journal.

A Bank Prasident's Modest Lunch.

A reserver the other day happened into camp harriedly their nelds would be foreman or journeyman is good natured right avay an 'veil gif you your moush back, subject to all fluctuations in the market. If the goat market yous upon your gets more moush as you pail you han; if the goat market goes are you gets more moush as you pail you han; if the goat market goes down, you be effectively early pesides having the use of the court of the Phonograph.

By the way, shortly before Edison left to be found in the trade schools, where the boy is to be taught before it is sought to make any money through him. Proest doubt that the parfected phonograph of, say 500 years from now, will do away peshes havin a below the passenger from Spring On these terms the passenger from Spring Field paid over his 520 and took the coat. Next day, having expended the garment Next day, having expended the garment took the passenger from Spring Field paid over his 520 and took the coat. Next day, having expended the garment to say into their phonomers of the passenger from Spring With every sort of writing and printing. People who want to say into their phonomers of the passenger from Spring Field paid over his 520 and took the coat. The passenger from Spring Field paid over his 520 and took the coat. The passenger from Spring Field paid over his 520 and took the coat.

the passing r from Spring is 30 and tools the exact of control the parament page is admined the parament page in the latter will support to be the parament page in the latter will support and latter to what the person who receives it will put it for his instrument and listen to what his friend has to say. The printer's occupation will be gone because newspapers will consist of the person who receives it will put it for his instrument and listen to what his friend has to say. The printer's occupation will be gone because newspapers will consist of the person of the old apprentice law is modification of the old a will be enabled to have read exactly what interests him or her, and skip all the rest. Probably the advertiser who takes a whole column for five words will pay Curiosities of Mexico. Hard Work to Wind Up a Prayer.

Representative W. W. Rose, of Masselms stig, being called types for a few feedle representatives of the phonograph shout out that his soap is the best and was used by Representative W. W. Rose, of Masselms stig, being called types for a few feedle representative with the phonograph shout out that his soap is the best and was used by Rive without his blanket, which is at once his cleak by day and his bed clothing by high a feedle phonograph shout out that his soap is the best and was used by Rive without his blanket, which is at once his cleak by day and his bed clothing by high the course of the phonograph shout out that his coap is the best and was used by Rive without his blanket, which is at once his cleak by day and his bed clothing by high the course of the phonograph shout out that his coap is the best and was used by Rive without his blanket, which is at once his cleak by day and his bed clothing by high the phonograph shout out that his coap is the best and was used by Rive without his blanket, which is at once his cleak by day and his bed clothing by high the phonograph shout out that his coap is the best and was used by Rive without his blanket, which is at once his cleak by day and his bed clothing by high the phonograph shout out that his coap is the best and was used by Rive without his blanket, which is at once his clear that his coap is the best and was used by Rive without his blanket, which is at once his clear that his coap is the best and was used by Rive without his blanket, which is at once his clear that his coap is the best and was used by Rive without his blanket, which is at once his clear that his coap is the best and was used by Rive without his blanket, which is at once his clear that his coap is the best and was used by Rive without his blanket, which is at once his clear that his coap is the best and was used by Rive without his blanket, which is at once his clear that his coap is the best and was used by Rive without his blanket, which is at once hi darkness may overtake him. Of course the winter nights are cold, but in the ts hat gone down read out to the phonograph in a clear, in teresting and effective manner, some dead with marked vice being adopted by which the reader vice being adopted by which the reader less than 13,000 were of American birth.

Methodist convert down in Maine. He had been anything but a peacing man yet when to had once proof the description of the vertisement this work and it will pay our readers to look it over.

Robison & Koobbe have a charged advertisement this work, to which we call the attention of our readers.

The boys went fishing in the river last. The boys went fishing in the river last, is mean the long and class friend get find and a Saturday, and caught many fish, some being of pretty good size.

Rev. John Patchin will speak in the presence, the Consequence, the Lind of States, the state of Maine and the country of Aroos both, not Tors and presence, the charch-suniversal, militant ing on the subject "A Good Conscience," presoveran causes next caonay ments ing on the subject "A Good Conscience."

John Spafard chipped 100 fat sheep to Buffalo last Saurday. They were from L. D. Watkins flock and were an extra fine bits.

John Spafard chipped 100 fat sheep to Buffalo last Saurday. They were from L. D. Watkins flock and were an extra fine bits.

John Spafard chipped 100 fat sheep to Buffalo last Saurday. They were from L. D. Watkins flock and were an extra fine bits.

John Spafard chipped 100 fat sheep to Buffalo last Saurday. They were from L. D. Watkins flock and were an extra fine bits.

John Spafard chipped 100 fat sheep to Buffalo last Saurday. They were from L. D. Watkins flock and were an extra fine bits.

John Spafard chipped 100 fat sheep to body in his own congregation, present or obsent, collectively and individually; he began to repeat himself. At last he turned back the shares would surely rise in the began to repeat himself. At last he turned began to repeat himself. At last he turned back the shares would surely rise in the began to repeat himself. At last he turned back the shares would surely rise in the began to repeat himself. At last he turned back the shares would surely rise in the began to repeat himself. At last he turned back the shares would surely rise in the began to repeat himself. At last he turned back the shares would surely rise in the part of the charch-universal, militant general and particular, and triumphant, general and particular, and triumphant general and triumphant general and triumphant general and triumphant general and triu specially not acting according to orders. I went thought you'd stay and play with Tommy up to the board room and found they were offering reams of the stocks for the stock dinost nothing. I risked the chances and atmost norming. I risked the chances and a Mamma-tie man to the control of the co wend & Lee Co. Chicago, has made its shipped on the key pavement, and Mr. Bergh's up with it. How much did. I make? every time I hit him with the whip he yelled spring visit.

String visit.

The nucle brands made in the night deal bought all that was offered. I fondert. Bertie-No: we was paying loose, and we was paying loose, and the wind he will be with the whip he yelled a loose the way around me.—Tid.

String visit. He Had One Pavor to Ask. "Prisoner at the bar," said the judge," is there anything you wish to say before sen-"Prisoner at the bar," said the judge, "is there are the part," said the judge, "is the principle of treasure," and with his bayonet he stuck it deep into a new made mound, in the it deep into a new made mound, in the judge, "is any the prisoner at the bar," said the judge, "is the anything you will be the said that is the principle of the principle of the principle of the judge, "is the principle of the judge," is the principle of the judge, "is the principle of the judge," is the principle of the judge, "is the principle of the judge," is the principle of the judge, "is the judge," is the judge, "is the judge," is the principle of the judge, "is the principle of the judge," is the principle of the judge, "is the judge," is the principle of the judge, "is the principle of the judge," is the principle of the judge, "is the principle of the judge," is the principle of the judge, "is the judge," is the principle of the judge, "is the judge," is the judge, "is the principle of the judge," is the judge, "is the jud Fungi as Plant Allies.

While some forms of fungus are most ntial to a handsome scalskin, namely.

ars before his death, and is still ex-

Balloons in China.

Transcript.

garden adjoining a residence. "See! the relis have buried gold and silver here.
Be quiet or a crowd will come to divide Be quiet or a crowd will come to divide our speils." and in a few minutes four men were at work digring up the box in which the supposed treasures were hid. It was hard work to go four feet down and lift up a heavy box from the damperature. The carth. Eagerly they worked, and in due time their reward came. Greedily they have to from the box, and quickly.

Something to Fall Back On.

Ske—Do you find writing postry reminerative, Mr. Sissy!

He—Oh, yes, fairly so. But I don't depend upon poetry altogether.

Ske—Net The Conference of the conference o the top from the box, and quickly,

A Useful Notice. with oaths in their months, they drew The cashier of a business house in the dog not their gaze. It was the body of a pet Newfoundland dog that Some children had wept over and had caused to be the dreaming. That their Carlo would suffer such ignoble a resurrection.—At

While some forms of fungus are most destructive to vegetation, it is now believed that there are others which render assistance to the plants on which they sistement that there are others which they have the plants on which they are plant of the plants of certain foresting up a bette runn in the nutrition of those trees. Another interesting case has lately been studied in Germany by Wahrlich, who finds that a vellow, bladder-like fungus of the root tissue of orchids works no perceptible harm to the plants, but on the contrary one cent a word each insertion.

While some forms of fungus are most destructive to vegetation, it is now be invented to sent as sistance to the plants on which they may simply the inserted for one cent a word for each insertion. Nothing less than 10 cents accepted in the nutrition of those trees. Another interesting case has lately been studied in Germany by Wahrlich, who finds that a vellow, bladder-like fungus of the root tissue of orchids works no perceptible harm to the plants, but on the contrary one cent a word for each insertion. Nothing less than 10 cents accepted in the insertion of these insertion. Nothing less than 10 cents accepted in the insertion of this purely insertion. Nothing less than 10 cents accepted in the plants of the plants of the plants of the plants of the plants. Help Wanted, Situations Wanted, Real Estate for an advertisement.

Help Wanted, Situations Wanted, Real Estate for an advertisement.

Help Wanted, Situations Wanted to Rent Houses, Rooms to Rent, Boarding, Wanted Agents and Cantary to the plants, but on the contrary large treatment. harm to the plants, but on the contrary onecents wordeach insertion, probably aids them by changing woxly Advertisements must be handed in as early as matters into a form that they may more wednesday morning, with cash, readily absorb. Arkansas Traveler. Advertisements by letter will receive prog attention. Address "Exterprise," M It may be interesting to know that American art new axes in nerican art now excels foreign skill in the communication of the quality so est For SALE, Toros handred bashels Bar sound to a handrone scalskin namely. F welcome outs for seed, J. M. HORNIN sential to a fandasine scatskin, fainty, the dye. What was known as the London dye held the vantage ground for ayears, until a furrier in Albany elaborated a superior process. Of course he made an immense fortune. He kept the made an immense fortune, the kept the language of the language. A New Lotof secret to himself so closely that he maintained a monopoly of the market. He died in the ordinary course, but the orthelatest Dergorand Patterns the secret was imparted to his son a few RATERPRISE OFFICE ENTERPRISE OFFICE clusively employed by him.—Brooklyn TF YOU WANT and larg troubles. Price 50 cents and $1. Trial six free at Steinkohl s in Manchester.

Balloons are to be introduced into Birthday Card! Call at the ENTERPRISE OFFICE.

the way and the parameters by Miss Mary Allen, who has had a life long experience in training from a thought who is main all vive periods with a first section of the parameters of the paramete Solden Manchesterby Good. Hamsaler.

· Miscellaneous. Miscellaneous.

THEO, DISSEL & CO.,

FINE CLOTHING.

Miscellaneous.

Expecting to change my business location, I offer my entire took of new and see-

PIANO AND ORGAN STOOLS

-- As I am roing to-

CLARK BROTHERS.

Contractors and Builders.

Steam Planing Mills

Sash, Mouldings, Etc.

Millad Case's Lumber Yard, near Lake

Shore depot,

Manchester, - Mich.

Enterprise Office

Scroll Sawing, Etc.

Turning, Planing,

DEAR IN MIND

From se cents upwards. Bargains Will Be Civen!

YOUNG MENT AND OLD MEN

Mahrle, the Tailor

Syracust, N. Y., March 21, 1887. Robison & Koebbe, Manchester: The Confirmation Suits HeWillGetYou Up One Cheap, (LOSING OUT SALE Respectfully Yours, PIANOS AND ORGANS. THEO, DISSEL & CO.

Trade Schools and the Mechanical Arts.
The apprentice learns his trade by that if they had from any cause to break came hurriedly their helds would be

SELL THE GOODS Quitars, Violins Banjos, Ascordians, Etc. atteduced prices. A large amount of sheet music at 2 cents percepy. ALVIN WILSY

One is Worth Two of

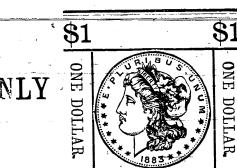

Fresh Stock of

J.H.KINGSLEY.

UNQUESTIONABLY THE BEST: Local Newspaper in Southern Michigan, is the

Manchester Enterprise

Everybody says so and "what everybody says must be so." In order that everybody may enjoy the privilege of reading it during 1881 we have concluded to offer it until January 1st-1885or

$1 00 First Class Style.

PUBLISHER.

THE ENTERPRISE

Contains more Local News than any other paper, more Correspondence than any other, the best and most reliable Market Reports, Better Continued Stories

Chan any other. The story of "Vanity Hardware," now running in the E TERPRISE, cannot be read in any other paper, and we intend to spend money to get stories not published by any of our neighbors. War Sketches

Now being published in the Extension are nicely illustrated and we intend to furnish our readers with ORIGINAL SKETCHES; something that no other paper has, The Pioneer Sketches, Are a new feature just begun in the Extending, and we shall make them very interesting to our young readers as well as to the old settlers, who have helped to make this country "bloss m as the rose." Our Farmers' Club Reports Will always be found interesting and instructive and several of our best agricultural writers have remained to contribute articles for the Extennuse all of which will be read with interest. A choice selection of Jackson, Lenawee and Washtenaw COUNTY NEWS. Is always found in the Exterraise, collected by telegraph telephone, mail and taken from our best exchanges.

EVERYTHING IS FRESH

the Examplese, and you could spend a dollar to better advantage than by Subscribing for the ESTERPRISE for 1887. REMEMBER THAT $1.00 PAYS USTIL JANUARY 1888. Bring it, send it by a weighbor, by man, or pay to the postmanter, any way to get it to us.

MAT D. BLOSSER,

Manchester Enterprise VANITY HARDWARE.

Independent in all Things. Devoted to State, County and Home News.

MANCHESTER, MICH., THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 1887.

Desirable Medium for Advertisers. RATES MADE KNOWN ON APPLICATION. Village Officers.

COMMON COUNCIL meets evenings of first and third Mondays in each month, at the Council Room, over Baxter's store. President "A. Conflin Clerk-J. F. Nestell"
Treasurer N. Schmid

VOL. 20.-NO. 29.

has a large circulation among Merchants, Merchants, Manufacturers, Furmers and Families generally in the villages of Manchester, Chelsea, Saline, Clinton, Nor-

AND ALL ADJOINING COUNTRY

vell, Brooklyn, Napoleon, Grass Lake,

One copy, six months 84 cents: Three months, 42

MAT D. BLOSSER, Proprietor.

TERMS 1.50 Per Year in Advance

dy and nglewill receive prompt attention.

J. D. COREY, Conveyance and Novary Public him will receive prompt attention.

J. D. COREY, Conveyance and Novary Public him will receive prompt attention.

J. D. COREY, Conveyance and Novary Public him will receive prompt attention.

J. Collection, and all other business left will him will receive prompt attention. Farm and Villege princerly for sale.

J. Collection, and all other business left will be read to the receive prompt attention. Farm and Villege princerly for sale.

J. Collection, and all other business left will be read to the receive prompt attention.

J. Collection, and all other business left will be read to the read to the CHAPTER XVIII.

MISS AND I TALK THINOS OVER.

"And now, doctor," miss said, speaking very gravely, "what of Vanity Hardware?

"And row, the county women states are formed to the village. As Vanity drove along in the lumbering fly which con-

BAPTIST—Rev. H. N. Massles, pastor. Meetings Sunday at 10:30 a. m.

PRESHATERIAN—Rev. John Patchin, pastor. Meetings Sunday at 10:30 a. m.

CATHOLIC—(St. Mary'): Rev. J. Stanes, Pitest M. Huge every alternate Sunday.

METHOLIST EPISCOPAL—Rec. D. R. Shier, Meetings Sundays at 10:30 a. m.

UNIVERSALIST—Rev. J. M. Getcheil, Pastor. Meetings Sundays at 10:30 a. m.

UNIVERSALIST—Rev. J. M. Getcheil, Pastor. Meetings Sundays at 10:30 a. m.

UNIVERSALIST—Rev. J. M. Getcheil, Pastor. Meetings every 2nd and 4th Sunday.

EVANGELICAL EMMANY ERISY even marks.

Was all tigl you what I have been leaves—what I have been leaves as a little sickly child with a dying mother, who was, oh, so patient and good! Now she has been fifteen twars an angel in heaven. And a father—oh, do forgive me for what I suspend to the same for the control of the pastor. Meetings at 16:30 a. m.

Was made at the sickly obtained by the pastor. Meetings at 16:30 a. m.

"Mamma knew for a long time that she must died Whet pains she took to teach me also been she to be to the first of the heuse—I was not let go to the functional of the heuse—I was not let go to the functional of the heuse—I was not let go to the functional of the heuse—I was not let go to the functional of the heuse—I was not let go to the functional of the heuse—I was not let go to the functional of the heuse—I was not let go to the functional of the heuse in the payer she taught me, and vewel that I would be like her, and vewel that I would be like her, and vewel that I would be like her eyes showed that the very showed the prayer showed."

A A matched the pastor, Meeting and 16:30 a. in more first of the heuse in the property of the past of the

THE PROPERTY AND ADDRESS OF TH

A SACRIFICE.

Ar -- - I months

through the drifts without.

For some minutes after the door had closed upon him there was slence in the little cabin, broken only by the heavy breathing of old Tom Enderly, enjoying his nightly drunken sleep in the adjoining room. Sal, standing dreamily with folded hands, and happy eyes fixed some what wistfully on the flames, sighed as a rough class upon her arm recalled her.

Darcy's pantonymic answer was cloquent. He flung off his coat and began through her gown and staining the white counterpane, she saw the face of Red. Bill, drawn, ghastly, horror-stricken, above her,

Darcy's pantonymic answer was cloquent. He flung off his coat and began through her gown and staining the white counterpane, she saw the face of Red. Ball, drawn, ghastly, horror-stricken, above her,

"Sall" he cried. "Oh, my God! my in the despair in his voice profiled her from the lethargy into which she was fast.

With her?

The man started and caucht up his sinking.

trast to that delicate face, pale and quiet, that had just turned from her to the stormy night without.

"I want ter know," said Bill, huskily—"I want ter know jest how bong this yer's a goin' ter last?"

The girl shrugged her shoulders with feigned indifference.

"This yer blizzard? Can't say, I'm sure. P'r'aps ye might tell better—on the little table.

Red Ranch Bill's great fist came down like a hammer on the little table.

The west elosed, her lips paled. Bill sank on his kness, burying his face in serted-itself in this last moment.

"Sal," he said. "do you know what you are asking? I—I have not done well by you, but I never meant you—quite such wrong—as this."

A great sob welled up from the girl's sure. P'r'aps ye might tell better—on the little table.

Red Ranch Bill's great fist came down like a hammer on the little table.

like a hammer on the little table.

"Dern ye an' yer sass! I'll—I'll kill to marry her, never—not even when his Minnie Gilmore in Frank Leslie's. "O, thank God." nearm-hearted Mand Neville called out.

yel"
She looked up at him unflinchingly, with scornful, fearless eyes. His face whom she had just dared death—the lover whom she would have saved at any lover.

words were softest, his eyes and heart most warm! And this was the man for whom she had just dared death—the lover whom she would have saved at any lover.

WHOLE NO. 1017.

E. skind, avriable 1 mirbt have loved him cancer. But my mind was made up some access. But my mind was made up some access the made was been for the carpet, took of the mind have promised to the carpet, took of the mind. But my mind was made up some access that my mind was made up some access that my mind was made up some access the made was made accessed to the carpet, took of the mind was made up some access the made the more was made accessed to the carbot the some accessing the mind was made up some accessing the mind was made accessed to the carpet, took of the mind was the work of a moment. Then she freed and shoulders and dashed white rocks flashed past her eyes, the gentle looking girl; and on the margin loosened icicles beat into her face. Half was written in Darcy Breene's clear charway down the descent stood a single pine | acters, "Sweetheart." A faint sensation tree, towering like some heary giant in its robe of ige. One of its boughs caught her, the picture danced before her. her gown, held her in mid air for one "Sweetheart!" "Sweetheart!" And to The snows were drifting around the awful moment, then, crisp with frost, know it now, now in the hour when she

Water of the control of the control

what wistumly on the name, signed as a rough clasp upon her arm recalled her from her reverie. She shuddered involuntarily as she turned to confront Bill's resentful, surly face. It was such a contrast to that delicate face, pale and quiet, the steps forward and then hesitated.

With her?

With her?

With her?

With her?

She shuddered involuntarily as she turned by the shudered involuntarily as shudered involuntari