

The department of agriculture in its annual report gives the amount of money paid by the people of the United States spent on the importers of retail imports as follows: Roses, $6,000,000; carnations, $4,000,000; violets, $750,000; chrysanthemums, $2,000,000; peacockeus, including roses, $1,500,000.

A remarkable burglary has just been committed at the railroad station of Worcester, Mass., the third.

Three men delivered a coffin, apparently empty, for conveyance to Buda-Peth, Worcester, Mass., last week of sentinel duty.

It is to be paid for the eight in the station master's office. Next morning the coffin was found with the lid off, and the office safe had been robbed.

The Michigan press association is planning to go to the pan-American exposition at Buffalo, by steamboat from Detroit.

The issues in this case, arising out of the acquisition of Porto Rico, have been decided by the U. S. supreme court, in favor of the administration. The decision was not unanimous, however, and it will stagger a Philadelphia lawyer to make the points clear.

Thos. Burkett of Webster had a fine deer park and a week or more ago five deer broke through the fence and escaped. Four of them evidently thought the park the safest place they could be, as they returned but a few days later. The other one is still at large.

While S. Lansing we went to see the new buildings erected by the best angel company. These are immense structures, covering a large tract of land in the northern part of the city and near the Grand river. The plant will cost $600,000, and will be completed before fall. Farmers for miles around have contracted to raise beets. The work will be of great benefit to the city.

Wastenaw County.
The graduating class of the Dexter school consists of three girls.

Talk about paving street through the business portion of the village is being planned to take definite form, and it is highly probable that that desirable object will be attained.—Chester Standard.

W. H. Farno of Jackson informed the Extraminer a few days ago that the Boland company would build an addition from Cheboygan to Marquette. It will probably not be done this season, however.

Some people have an aversion to bathe. The slop is of old man who washed out four days before he could enter his hospital in Ann Arbor. As soon as he had passed the preliminaries of spongeing, when he heard that he would have to take a bath he backed out and left town.

Guy Bliss signed the bill appropriating $5,000 for the erection of a physiographic ward in connection with the university hospital. This means the starting of an addition to the early teaching hospital, and is likely in time to be as important as the university itself, to the city.—Times.

There is more than one way of finding out a man's name. The question came up in the county clerk's office to a "John" law's name. Condy Clark Blum first looked to see if the gentleman had been admitted to the bar. He then looked among the marriage license, where he found 44 times.

Dr. Henry W. Schmidt of Cheboygan, has commenced a suit against the manufacturer of Sylva soap. He has been in the Sylva brand of health regimen recommended on April 11, 1901, to take charge of a scald fever case in the family of Louis Guinan and that he continued to care for the case until May 25.

A Alfred Miller experienced a rather rough handling Friday when he was in the act of delivering at the stock yards. When they were being "fond" for market, he was hit in the posterior part of the body by a scalding hot, greasy, fat, and when he got home, he was not able to get up again. He was taken to the hospital and was seriously hurt.

Mrs. Elizabeth Neel, who has been doing stenographic work in the office of F. A. F. & M. Freeman, returned to Ypsilanti on Monday to complete her course in the business college.

"Don't go to work at present," said Mrs. Neel, "I am not well enough to work."

Frederick M. Freeman, who has been doing stenographic work in the office of the Freeman house, later of Ossawa, and now of the Freeman house, and are now looking for another location, having several in view. They are at present quartered at the Downey, Lansing.

C. M. Towne who has been selling Rums-Katal at Hause's past the post, went to Milford Monday, where he will sell for a week, also Danvers at the same time. He says his sale here was very bad, and 500 books were sold here and in Clinton.

Mr. Watkins believes sheep the most valuable stock on the farm. It does not cost $1 per head to keep sheep a year and 10 to 12 pounds of wool at 14c a pound is worth more than that.

Sheep being announced the meeting adjourned to meet at Fairview with Mr. A. J. D. Watkins on June 15.

Benjamin O'Neill of Ann Arbor, for whom the post office of that city by him, and a post office of his own, has been established, and he is now in charge of the same.
