

Look at the Label!
Every package of coco or chocolate out for sale by Walter Baker & Co., bears the name of the chocolate girl, and the place man-suring, "Dorchester, Mass." Housekeepers are advised to examine their purchases, and make sure that other chocolates are not substituted. They received three gold medals from the Pan-American exposition.

Passengers are informed.

Little Rock, Ark., telegram: Passenger train No. 221 on the Little Rock and Fort Smith Railroad, which left Little Rock for Fort Smith, at $45 a man, was derailed on a bridge on a west-bound freight train. The rear coach of the passenger train was demolted and six passengers were injured. Following: A. T. Ober, Mrs.
Springer, Mrs. C. C. Smith, Mrs. L. H.

New York; J. H. Smith, Waco, Texas.

Scott Witt, a captain from Pingree Grove, Ill., made a charge to Captain W. H. Chapman that he had been arrested on a public highway by a police officer in full uniform. Witt had $40 and a gold watch. Witt told Justice Seth that he went to Chicago to collect some bills from a man Early Saturday morning, and sat down at Desplaines and Harrison streets and fell asleep. He was aroused by feeling somebody searching his pockets.
When he opened his eyes, he says, to find a uniformed police officer standing over him.

AN HONEST NAME.

An Illinois Statesman tells a good story—Know His Father's Son

The Honorable Mr. Merrill of Chittenden, member for the Twenty-fourth District, State of Illinois House of Representatives, tells an interesting story:

"A few years ago Mr. Merrill made a testimony, stating that Dold's Kidney Pills cured his rheumatism.

This with Mr. Merrill's portrait were published in thousands of papers all over the country.

On the train returning home from Springfield one day last winter were the Honorable Mr. Merrill and several other members. After a short interval he said:

"Mr. Merrill, what time do you get to Chicago?"

This attracted the attention of an old man who had been apparently away from the train for some time.

"That is the time I get to Chicago," said Mr. Merrill, as he seated himself in his seat and again said:

"Mr. Merrill, what time do you get to Chicago?"

"You know it is now," said Mr.
Merrill, "but I will tell you again."

"You know it is now," said Mr.
Merrill, "but I will tell you again."

"You know it is now," said Mr.
Merrill, "but I will tell you again."

The First Thanksgiving
INCIDENTALLY," relates Mr. Clegg, "is one of the most difficult things for any editor to do. It is a matter of taste, of course, but it is also a matter of tact, through the direct cause, which is, as a rule, an accumulation of matter or growth tightly adhering to the bark.

St. Jacobs Oil, possessing as it does

those wonderful penetrating powers, enables it to loosen these adhesions and induces from exfoliation. Cases of bark being removed from trees have been examined after St. Jacobs Oil has been applied, and the exact formation was clearly shown, where the adhesions had been removed, or the delicate nervous membrane of the branch is quickly removed by the heating and soothing properties of St. Jacobs Oil. In cases of bark being removed from children's St. Jacobs Oil will be found preferable to any other oil.
