THE CHROMIUM
This great stock medicine is a sure remedy for stock sores, in fact, for all kinds of sores. It is a safe, sound and sound medicine, and a safe feeding medicine. Through put up in easier form than the usual stock medicine, it is the best for the cure of the cure of the digestion troubles of all persons, it has the same qualities of invigorating, digesting, stirring up the blood, and the like, as the concocted balsams for all stock and poultry.

The nobest, bravest, kindest act of which we have made a study is to give the great blessing Jesus brought to man.

The most important duties required of us, and virtue to rule over us, is a begining of the truth, if you won't go over the list of church members with me, and tell me the most honest, bravest, kindest act of which we have made a study, so that in his nature, his power, his work, his character, his deeds, his life, he will be an oscar-pastor, really and powerfully.

In this act, a man and woman can do this in great and glorious ways.

Rhodium and Cinnamom have strange attractions for fishes and animals.

"The oil of rhodium is supposed to have a strange attraction for fishes and animals. The cost is $2 for a tiny vial, per vial. Nevertheless, the most poverty-stricken of bait-sellers hesitate to buy it, for the reason is true that the oil of rhodium attracts fish as no natural bait will do. Second spraying should be done after blood drops and before the fish are taken. The oil of cinnamom is the simple word 'cinnamom.' Heaven speed the hour, for he has great fears lest these unscrupulous plotters may overwhelm him. He was born in the same year that she came into this world, and she who makes his machinery must fall in ruins. That is why he mentally prays the day may never be far from him.

"He figures to himself that his wife has been with him up to the last moment, and all bets were suspended. Both sides seemed to accept this very agreeably. The result was that spraying provided the extra early was considered unnecessary. Some one of the arsenates should be used in the mixture, as it might be left out of the first. I would suggest one of the improved arsenical mixtures because they are more effective and less expensive to buy.

"Tell Mr. Travers I will be on my guard, and ready to respond to the message at any time of the day or night."

"When Jack hears this he is considerably relieved. With the power of the United States government behind him he can not much be afraid to bear it.

"Come, Squire Jack; make your way with me to the harbor. From that point we have an unobstructed view of the harbor. You see, the day is over, and the night is coming on. Let us take our horses with oil and cinnamom sprinkled on them, and see the others join Jesse. It is hard for me to ask him what he wants, but the coming of Smithers tells me he is afraid of some exciting order he has received."

SUCH A TIME

The High Masons had Tuesday Afternoon and Evening.

A goodly number of members of Adoniram Council No. 24, R. & S. M. met Tuesday afternoon and conferred degrees upon Dr. J. Lee Ackerson of this village and Dr. Clarence A. Berger, now of Toledo.

Grand Lecturer Lewis C. Goodrich, of Ann Arbor, was present and inspected the work.

At 7 o'clock a special train bearing members of Tecumseh and Clinton councils to the number of 90 odd, was met at the depot by a committee, the military band and a crowd of citizens. The band led the way to the lodge room where a hearty and cordial reception was given all visitors.

Blanchard council, one of the youngest yet most progressive in the state, conferred the super excellent degree upon the following 18 candidates, and everyone survived: Walter L. Weaver and Dr. Clarence A. Berger of Toledo; John S. Price, Andrew G. Morgan, Fred E. Smith, Edward S. Ranswiler of Cement City; Ernest S. Furgason of Brooklyn; Harry N. Calhoun, Albert Lowry, Hiram Logan, Elwin B. English; J. Lee Ackerson, and James L. Stone of Manchester.

The work was done in fine shape and the officers of Blanchard council were complimented by all present. We wish that we might make some comments but that is impossible.

Supper was served followed by a smoker and short speeches. It was a jolly time that will be long and pleasantly remembered. The visitors departed about midnight.

Lenawee County.

Charley Stout was playing with some little boys a few days ago, and was showing them how to blow flames from his mouth in true magician style. He would take a swallow of gasoline and then blowing a spray from his mouth would light it with a match. The result was that he quite badly burned his mouth and face, but it is safe to say he will not try that trick again.—Tecumseh News.

Wednesday morning Rural Mail Carrier Colegi was about to start out on his regular trip, in a light open buggy, used because of the bad road, when, pointing to his horse, he said, "There's a faithful beast, she's 17 years old and yet she has traveled 25 miles a day for 600 consecutive working days, carrying the mail and myself over all sorts of roads and in all conditions of weather. That's a pretty good horse record."

—Marion Observer. We should say so. There's none like her in this neck o' woods.

Norwell Farmers' Club.

The meeting of March 25, in the Norwell church, was well attended by both the Norwell and Napoleon clubs, with some of the people of the village and surrounding country and a number of visitors from abroad among whom may be named: M. L. Raymond of Grass Lake, Mrs. Walker of Jackson, Mr. & Mrs. H. R. Palmer of Bridgewater, Mr. & Mrs. Mat D. Blower of Manchester and Mr. & Mrs. M. L. Dean, Michigan Horticultural Manager at the St. Louis Exposition.

At 11 a.m. standard, President Halladay called to order and after prayer by C. P. Holmes, L. Whitney Watkins took up the subject of the corn crop and its improvement by the selection of seed. Since wheat ceased to be the leading crop corn is taking its place and is now a leading market crop. When fed to stock it brings us a greater profit than any other crop that is equally sure. We may increase the yield of corn by three means: Better seed, better fertilization of the soil, better methods of cultivation. It is better for each to raise his own seed because it will be better adapted to his soil and conditions. Seed grown on heavy or rich soil is not adapted to sandy or poor soil.

In selecting seed have an idea of what you want and then do not mix types. Unlike types; earlier and later, larger and smaller, will not be likely to be well pollinated, and imperfect ears will result.

Plant a few ideal ears in a plot to select seed from. Test your seed corn before planting. Do not plant the kernels from the tips and butts.

M. L. Dean spoke of the great exhibit of corn at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition and said it was well worth a farmer's time and money for a week to study that exhibit alone. There is room for great improvement in the seed corn of Michigan.

M. L. Raymond said that an increase of 10 bushels per acre would hardly be noticed in the growing crop and yet it is enough to pay the rest on the land. Right seed may often make more than that difference. Corn is a sure crop with seed and is worthy of our most careful attention. The corn talk was illustrated by some very fine sample ears.

Very fine chicken pie dinner was served by the Norwell club in the town hall to which all did ample justice.

President Geo. Carpenter of Napoleon club presided in the afternoon.

Mrs. F. M. Andrews gave a recitation and Mrs. E. E. Furgason a select reading.

An essay on Temperance by Mrs. L. D. Watkins was read by Mrs. L. W. Watkins. Temperance has been defined to be perpetual moderation in all things, evil in any form should not be tolerated anywhere. Our fathers may have been too rigid but we are becoming too lax. There is not much comfort for us in the fact that some other nation drinks more than we. Over a billion dollars more is spent in our land for liquor than for literature.

The subject was discussed with reference to local saloon. It was suggested that it would be easier to shut out the saloon in many communities if the license money all went to the state.

On the topic, Privileges and Duties of farmers, A. J. Hoagland read a paper on duties, taking the view that the duties of farmers were not different from those of other men and that they were to be found laid down in the 10 commandments and the golden rule.

A. R. Palmer said that more nearly than most other men the farmer had the privilege of living such life as pleased him. He is not subject to the beck and call of an employer, or the constant demands of customers; can usually stop work for an hour or a day when he pleases and is not continually under the surveillance of neighbors. H. R. Palmer spoke of the farmer's evenings and the rest periods he might have.

W. R. Mount thought that the farmer had the privilege of getting up at 4 o'clock in the morning and working two hours before breakfast, of doing chores in bad weather and on Sundays, of shoveling out the roads on occasions and many other like things.

S. W. Holmes said he could live in the open air and had the consciousness of being of some real use in the world. The man who sets out to get his living by his wife is seldom of much value to the community.

The question box brought out several things of value.

At the season now promises, clover seed had probably better be sown when the ground is settled and dry.

Soil producing sorrel should be enriched. Mr. Godfrey had plowed sorrel under when it was in blossom and saw no more of it.

Lewis G. Palmer said that we do not realize our privilege until we have tried something else or have been deprived of them in some way. The farmer need not work more hours than others.

How many oats ought to be sown on acre to insure a clover catch? P. A. Cody said "none," M. L. Raymond would sow 1 bushel then mow when heading and let it. T. B. Halladay sowed one bushel lets them ripen and harvests them, yet seldom fails to get a good crop of clover.

The club will next meet with Mr. & Mrs. John Green at Mapleton on Saturday, April 23, at 1 p.m. Select reading, Mrs. W. B. Lowry; current events, W. R. Mount; topic for ladies; our spring work, what, when, how? discussion led by Mrs. J. G. Palmer; general topic, new tools and new methods, paper by A. R. Palmer.

As the firm of Jester & Baumberger has dissolved, all accounts due them must be settled at once.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

Election next Monday.
The streets need a good cleaning.
Gallup & Lewis have a new advertisement.
The ice is now all out of the river and most of the lakes.
The frogs have done a lot of chorus work the past week.
Snakes have come out, to be killed by the lively small boy.
The front of Fred Widmayer's store is being freshly painted.
We had a good rain last night and the grass looks green today.
The streets were so dusty that Mr. Howard started the sprinkler yesterday.
We wish our readers to read the advertisement of George J. Haenauer, this week.
Roller & Breitenwischer have a new advertisement this week. Be sure to read it.
If you are not sure that your name is on the poll list, go Saturday and be registered.
George Sherwood is making some improvements to his residence, enlarging it somewhat.

Railroad men say that the Lake Shore will surely build a new depot building here this season.

The ground has been in good condition for digging horseshoe, parapine, etc., for a week or more.

It looks queer to see so many children on the streets during the day, but they seem to be enjoying the vacation.

We call attention to the advertisement of Ross & Schaefer who have their millinery opening April 6, 7 and 8.

About 30 of our citizens went to Jackson last evening to hear Mrs. Schumacher in the opera of Love's Lottery.

George Killik, who has charge of the stock formerly owned by Reuben Rank, spent Sunday with his parents at Eaton Rapids.

Wm. Amspoker is tearing down the old barn on his lot and will erect a new one. The old barn was built by the late Wm. Baxter.

N. Seeger is having the "Doty" house painted and papered inside and has rented it to Wm. Hartbeck, who will occupy it about May 1.

The Seeger boys and Prof. Skinner caught some fine bass out of the upper pond last Thursday and Friday. They fished from the railroad bridge.

About 50 neighbors and friends of Mr. & Mrs. John Tracy surprised them at their new home last Friday evening and the time was pleasantly spent at cards.

Dr. Clarence A. Berger of Toledo, came here Tuesday, accompanied by his friend, Walter L. Weaver, to attend the meeting of adoniram council and visit his parents.

Pleased over their success in the presentation of the "Old dairy homestead," here, the band went to Norwell Saturday night and gave the people there a treat. They had a $30.00 house.

W. H. Lehr has a 15-pound pickerel that he caught in the river here, hanging in his front window. It is a beauty and he expects to cook it and serve it to his customers Saturday night.

The attention of good dressers, and in fact everybody that wants good clothes, those that look well and wear well, to the advertisement of the "Clothcraft" clothes that are sold by John Wuerthner.

Prof. Amanda Kidder, of the Oberlin-Noble school of oratory, Detroit, will appear Friday evening, March 31, at the Universalist church, in a popular program of dramatic readings, assisted by some of our best local musical talent.

Lester & Hofer of the Manchester roller mills have found it advisable to have their office on the north entrance of the mill, when customers drive up with their grain. They concluded to build an addition onto the mill for an office and will use the old office for a storeroom.

We have had wonderful weather during March. There was no very cold days in fact it has thawed partly every day. In consequence the great snow banks have disappeared, the frost is quite out of the ground and farmers have begun their spring work. Many started the plow on Monday and believe that they will get in spring crops early.

We are in receipt of "The South End Daily Press," published at Chicago by W. H. Mansfield. It is strictly local and does not presume to take the place of the great metropolitan papers. Mr. Mansfield was born in Manchester, his parents living a few miles south of town. He was once a member of the ENTERPRISE force and has been connected with newspaper enterprises in various places and for 25 years has been located in the south part of Chicago. The ENTERPRISE wishes him success in his new venture.

We have received a copy of the Building Boomer containing the following: "After having been identified with the business firms of this city for a period of time covering about 16 years, Wilson & Fidley have retired from the ranks of Building's business men and the firm name will no longer be known in our midst, only as a memory. Last week the paper were made which transferred the stock of goods and best wares of the firm to Morris, Foster, Foster & Foster, late of Manchester. The members of the new firm are young men and full of ambition and will doubtless form a valuable addition to our list of hustling business men. The Boomer while regretting to lose so good a firm as the Masters, Wilson & Fidley, extends the hand of welcome to their successors and hopes that they may never have reason to regret the day they cast their lot in our midst."

BRIDGEWATER.

Mr. Chas. Bresnan and wife son spent Monday in Manchester.

George Dolz and Dave Thrasher drove to Brooklyn Monday on business.

Mr. Frank Detting returned from the hospital at Ann Arbor, last Friday.

William Koebele of Manchester visited relatives and friends here Tuesday.

John Schmitt is quite sick with rheumatism. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Rev. & Mrs. Lauer drove to Ann Arbor Wednesday and were the guests of Rev. & Mrs. Nickles.

Mr. Henry Glazek of Franchess and Mrs. John Glazek and son of Manchester, visited at Wm. Schmitt, Monday.

Carrie Blum and her mother, Mrs. Jacob Blum, attended the funeral of the latter's sister in Adrian, Saturday. Mrs. Blum remained over Sunday.

Among those who attended the funeral of Conrad Schneider at Brooklyn last week Thursday were Daniel Nisly and Madeline Christ Fauthier, Martin Boese, M. Tiefel and Miss Hattie Tiefel.

IRON CREEK.

Wm. Kuebler of Brooklyn, was here Monday.

Some farmers began plowing the fore part of the week.

Mr. George Sutton has been visiting in Detroit the past week.

Mr. & Mrs. C. A. Strigman were at Brooklyn the fore part of the week.

Mr. A. E. Bowles and daughter Marie visited at Ossent the fore part of the week.

Mr. & Mrs. S. B. Decker of Tipton, were guests of Mr. & Mrs. A. D. English over Sunday.

The F. B. church society have elected a committee to solicit subscriptions for the building of a parsonage.

The new list of Sunday school officers is as follows:

Superintendent—E. F. Matteson.

Asst. superintendent—Elmer Sheesley.

Secretary—Blanche Van Winkle.

Treasurer—Dona Van Winkle.

Organist—Olive Section.

Charles Nichols of Grace Lake township was to town yesterday on business and called on several of his old friends to talk over old times.

SHARON.

I was all run down from nervousness and overwork and had to resign my position and take a rest. I found that I was not gaining my strength and health as fast as I could wish, and as your Wine of Cardui was recommended as such a good medicine for the ill of our sex, I bought a bottle and began using it. I was satisfied with the results from the use of the first bottle, and took three more and then found I was restored to good health and strength and able to take up my work with renewed vigor. I consider it a fine tonic and excellent for worn-out, nervous conditions, and am pleased to endorse it.

Lesson One—APRIL 2.

GOLDEN TEXT.—I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.—John 10:11.

1. The Door of the Sheep—Vs. 7-9. Vs. 1-5 will be considered in connection with the Good Shepherd of vs. 10-18.

The Sheepfold. It was surrounded by a wall with one strong wooden gate. It represents the kingdom of God, where the flocks are guided, guarded, protected, cared for; where they find a home. In a lesser degree is symbolized the organized forms of the kingdom. A church is a true church only so far as it represents the spiritual kingdom of God.

7. "Then said Jesus unto them again." Interpreting and applying and making plainer the parable he had spoken and which they did not understand. "I am the door of the sheep." 1. The door symbolizes Means of Entrance, by which the flock can get into the fold, with its safety, shelter, food, and care.

8. "All that ever came before me." Claiming to be the Messiah, the Deliverer, and to give to the sheep an entrance to the fold, and all that a true shepherd gives. "Are thieves?" Who gain their booty by force, suggesting organized bands. These represent the false teachers who mislead the sheep for their own interests, who steal from the people the instruction, the influences—the example which the leaders of the nation were under obligation to give. They come "to steal, and to kill, and to destroy." The Pharisees could see their portrait in this picture. They had just cast out from the fold a poor, wounded sheep they should have sheltered and cared for; they were leading the people away from the Messiah, they were guiding the people into deadly ways of life, they were bringing the whole nation into ruin.

9. "But the sheep (the real members of the kingdom) did not hear them." Obey their teachings, but found the true Shepherd and the Door.

2. The Door symbolizes Protection.

3. "By me," the true Shepherd and Messiah. "If any man enter in" By accepting me as his Messiah, Teacher, Savior, and King. "He shall be saved." One use of a door is to shut out thieves and enemies of every kind. Those who enter through believing in Jesus shall be safe from the robbers and wolves that seek to destroy; safe from false teachers; safe from the sins that would ruin; safe from the punishment of his sins; safe from the troubles, dangers, and temptations of life.

If the nation as a whole had received Jesus as the Messiah, their character would have become such that they would have been saved from the destruction which came upon them forty years later. As a matter of fact the Christians of Jerusalem, believing Christ's warnings, fled from the city during a brief interval in the Roman attack, and it is said—not a Christian perished in its final overthrow.

3. The Door symbolized a Means of Going Out as well as of coming In. It is a sign and a means of Liberty.

"And shall go in and out." Once belonging to the flock and the fold, he can go in and out under the care of the shepherd and everywhere be safe, and have freedom of activity for all his powers. Exercise is as needful to the Christian as food. Wherever there is help, or blessing, or wider vision, through all the realms of knowledge, literature, and science, through the most heavenly transfiguration experiences, through the trials that purify, the battles that ennoble by victories, the sheep may go under the guidance and protection of the good shepherd. "And find pasture." The green fields and still waters of Psalm 23. All the best fruits of earth and of heaven are for the sustenance of the disciple of Christ. There is something to satisfy every want and longing of the soul.

Enjoy Life in Manila

(Special Correspondence.)

The social life of the American resident in the Philippine Islands differs greatly in many respects from that of the same class of people at home.

In everything, and everywhere, the military takes first place. The wives and daughters of generals, colonels, and even lieutenants, are, generally speaking, the arbiters of social destiny, and if a civilian fails to meet their approval, he may as well abandon his social aspirations. He may have frequent invitations to "Mrs. Governor's" dinners, and to "Mrs. Commissioner's" teas, but if his name does not appear among those whose presence is desired at "Mrs. General's" reception, he will be compelled to admit that his social success is far from complete.

Everybody drives in Manila. If one can afford a pair—and the native ponies are not expensive—he drives a neat victoria of diminutive proportions to conform to the size of his animals.

If he is limited to a single pony, he uses a "calisay." This is a small two-wheeled carriage much like a dog cart. It is provided with a small seat behind, which is always occupied by a native footman.
