

MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE.

VOL. 46-NO 44.

Entered as Manchester Post Office as Second-Class Mail Matter.

MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 1912.

WHOLE NUMBER 2341

THE ENTERPRISE

Published Thursdays

Writte almost every home in Southern Washington, Northern Lenawee and Southeastern Jackson Counties.
Try it for News or Advertising.
Sample Copy Free.

MANCHESTER

In the southwest corner of Washtenaw County, 22 miles from Ann Arbor, the County Seat, and University City, 22 miles from Ypsilanti, the New York, 44 miles from Jackson, the Prins City, 44 miles from Detroit, 50 miles from Toledo.
Junction of Jackson and Ypsilanti.
Branches of the Michigan, Louisville and Telegraph, W. U. Telegraph, Municipal Electric Lighting Plant, Three Good Water
Powers, Rich Farming, Fruit and Stock
Section. Everything Up-to-Date.

SOCIETIES

MANCHESTER LODGE No. 148, F. & A. M.
meets at Masonic Hall Monday Evening on or before full moon. Visiting brothers are invited. Frank G. Leeson, W. M.
Ed. Root, Secretary.

MERIDIAN CHAPTER No. 48, R. & A. M.
meets at Masonic Hall Wednesday Evening on or before full moon. Companions cordially welcome.
Ed. Root, Sec. F. E. Spafard, H. P.

ADONIRAM COUNCIL No. 24, R. & S. M. assembles at Masonic Hall, Tuesday Evening after each full moon. All visiting members invited. Mat D. Bryan, T. I. M.
C. W. Case, Recorder.

MANCHESTER CHAPTER No. 101, E. S.
meets at Masonic Hall Friday Evening on or before full moon. Visiting members are invited. Mrs. Edith Lowery, W. M.
Mrs. Blanche Lowery, Secretary.

BUSINESS CARDS

DR. E. A. LOWERY
Dentist
MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN
Office over Union Savings Bank. Phone 39.
Office Hours: 8:30 a. m. to 12 m.
1:30 to 5 p. m.

G. A. SERVIS
Is prepared to do all kinds of Dental Work
General and Local Anesthesia for Painless Extraction. Office upstairs in Servis Building.

P. A. SCHEURER
Physician and Surgeon
Office and Residence: corner Jefferson and Beaumont streets. Office hours: Until 8:00
a. m., 12 to 2 and 6 to 8 p. m.

B. A. TRACY
Physician and Surgeon
MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN
Office and Residence on Ann Arbor street.
Hours from 7 to 9 a. m., from 12 to 2 and from 7 to 9 p. m.

C. F. KAPP
Physician and Surgeon
Residence on Clinton street. Hours
7 to 8 a. m. and from 8 to 8 p. m.
MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN

L. DAVISSON, M. D. C.
Veterinary Surgeon,
MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN
Office at Hotel Green. Phone No. 43.

A. J. WATERS
Attorney
and Counselor at Law. Office over Union
Savings Bank.
MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN

FREEMAN & WATKINS
Manchester, Michigan.
Attorneys and Counselors
A. F. Freeman, F. M. Freeman
W. L. Watkins, F. M. Freeman, Ann Arbor, Mich.

LEO L. WATKINS
Lawyer
Office in Watkins Block over Paul Brothers Store.
MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN

F. D. MERITHEW
Licensed Auctioneer
MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN
Sales in Village or County will be promptly attended to on reasonable terms.
Dates can be made at Enterprise Office.

BRIEGEL & LAUTERHANN
Manchester Hotel Barbers
Shaving, Shampooing, Haircutting, Etc., done in first-class manner.
Hot and Cold Baths.

J. E. BOWLER
City Meat Market
MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN
Dealer in Fresh, Salt, Smoked Meats and Poultry. Steam Sausage Maker.

LOUIS KUEBELL
Tinsmith and Plumber.
MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN
Kave Troughs, Tanks, Bath, Tubs, Closets,
Sinks, etc. Also Repairing Done Promptly.

MAT. D. BLOSSER
Printer and Binder.
Best Facilities for doing all kinds of Commercial, School, Township and Lodge Printing.

FARMERS!
Ask to see Samples and get price of
LETTER HEADS AND ENVELOPES.

With your name
printed on, We do
Good Work at Reasonable Prices.

ENTERPRISE
Order your Wedding Stationery

For the ENTERPRISE
Various Sizes, Latest Styles
Lowest Prices.
Visiting and Business Cards and Envelopes.

MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE
Manchester, Mich.

OUR TIME, knowledge and experience in the printing business.
For Sale

When you are in need of something in the line
DON'T FORGET THIS!

THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

WILLIAM H.
TAFT

© BY UNDERWOOD
& UNDERWOOD NY.

ROOT CHOSEN TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN BY VOTE OF 558 TO 502.

Senator in Keynote Speech Makes Appeal For Continuance of Power of Government by Republican Party.

Coliseum, Chicago, Ill., June 18.—At 6 o'clock the republican national convention, after six hours of tumultuous scenes, elected United States Senator Elihu Root, of New York, temporary chairman.

The vote was as follows:

Elihu Root, of New York, 558.

Frank E. McGovern, of Wisconsin, 502.

W. S. Lauder, of North Dakota, 9.

Walter L. Houser, of Wisconsin, 3.

Asie J. Gronna, of North Dakota, 1.

Absent or not voting, 5.

Total, 1078.

Necessary for choice, 540.

After the officially announced result of the ballot for temporary chairman—Root, 558; McGovern, 502—and after the cheering had subsided, Senator Elihu Root, of New York, was introduced as the temporary chairman of the convention.

Many spectators were hurrying toward the exits, and even the delegates were moving about and talking in loud tones. Senator Root soon abandoned the attempt to make himself heard until quiet could be restored. For fully 10 minutes he waited while the sergeant-at-arms, his assistants, and a large number of policemen worked to quiet the big crowd.

A Pennsylvania delegate caused a disturbance near the platform and the policemen were advised to "throw him out," but that extreme measure was not taken.

In assuming his duties as temporary chairman, Senator Root expressed his appreciation of the honor bestowed upon him and the confidence expressed.

When Senator Root urged the preservation of the federal constitution, the audience cheered and applauded.

The famous New Yorker talked for more than an hour. When he concluded his address about 7:30 o'clock, practically all the delegates and at least one-third of the spectators were still in their seats, after a continuous session of nine hours. And most of the 500 policemen who had been assigned to duty had not been obliged to prevent rioting or fighting among the delegates, were still there.

During the uproar of people leaving the hall "Bill" Flinn, of Pittsburgh, went to the platform, shook hands with Senator Root and conferred with him. After about 10 minutes interruption Senator Root resumed.

The Opening Session.

Amidst confusion and shouting the fifteenth national convention of the Republican party was born in Chicago Tuesday. Chairman Rosewater's gavel banged at 12:01, just one minute behind the schedule. It was still banging 15 minutes later as Sergeant-at-Arms Wm. F. Stone, with a megaphone, ordered the police to clear the aisle and prepare for a photographer to take a flashlight of the scene. The fight over the nomination, the climax of a campaign that has seen a former president and a president trail through half the states of the Union, was reflected in the attitude of the delegates. Crowded in the aisles, standing on their chairs, one state cheering and another answering with its own discordant reply, the men refused to come to order so that the photographer might work.

In the meantime speakers attempted to say a few words of the party's 60 years of history, were delayed. The program could not go on. The sergeant-at-arms struggled with the crowd. The police helped here and there. Finally the picture man, left of the blinding flash. The chairman's gavel brought a semblance of order. The chaplain uttered his two-minute prayer. The convention was really under way.

Chairman Rosewater read Hadley's motion to substitute "purged" list of delegates out of order. Hadley appealed from ruling and Watson moved to lay appeal on table. Both declared out of order.

Watson nominated Root as temporary chairman.

Cochens, of Wisconsin, nominated Gov. McGovern as temporary chairman.

Job Hedges, of New York, seconded for Root. Hadley seconded for McGovern and was greeted with loud and prolonged cheering.

Gov. Johnson, of California, also seconded McGovern's nomination.

J. F. Woods, colored delegate at large from Kentucky, seconded Root.

For the first time in the history of Republican national conventions no picture of the president hangs in the Coliseum, where 1,078 delegates from the states and territories of the United States met to name a candidate for president and vice-president and to formulate a party platform.

Rough ironwork, arching overhead, is hidden beneath red, white and blue bunting, and the galleries are marked by lines of mountain laurel draped about tri-colored shields and more flags, except over the main entrance where a rug of royal purple velvet marks the box of Chairman Frederick Upham of the local committee on arrangements and his Chicago aides.

Story as Told in Bulletins.

At 10:15 a. m. the band in the Coliseum began to play "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," and the people began to stream into the Coliseum.

At 10:30 the solid line of police, 20 strong, thus far had been in the front row of delegates' seats, stood up against the edge of the waist-high platform and faced the arena.

At that time there was a goodly sprinkling of people in all the sections.

Some of the delegates from New York, Mississippi, Texas and Louisiana were in their seats by 10:30.

The first real applause came at 11:30, for Former Vice-President Fairbanks, who entered with Former Senator Hemingway and Former Representative Jas. E. Watson of Indiana. Watson was chosen as Taft floor leader. He filled the place for the Indiana delegation, stopping to shake hands with Senator Guggenheim of Colorado. The cheering followed him all the way to the last seat in the Indiana section; Watson and others made him take the front. National Committeeman Estrabrook of New Hampshire, reaching the platform, had got the first hand-clap from his own delegation. Col. New and Mrs. Fairbanks immediately got together in conference on the floor.

Fairbanks' new seat gave him one of the most commanding positions in the hall, directly under the runway extending out from the platform.

Kermit Roosevelt had a hard time to find a seat. He got caught in the crowd between Idaho and Maine.

California came in at 11:32. The two women in the delegation were roundly cheered.

Chairman Victor Rosewater of the Republican committee appeared on the stage at 11:15.

At 11:25 Chairman Rosewater sent for Wm. Barnes, Jr., of New York, who was seated with the New York delegation. Barnes hurried to the platform for a conference with Rosewater and the other parliamentarians.

Pennsylvania gave Flinn a cordial cheer. This was the first real cheer since the welcome to Fairbanks.

The banner of the California delegation caught in some of the section number signs overhead. Then all banners were ordered excluded. Gov. Johnson headed the delegation.

West Virginia came in with a snappy "Ra, ra." They had it all to themselves.

The Californians rolled up their banner reluctantly. The New Jersey delegation covered their regrets with their now famous cheers. All this time the band was playing "Silver Threads Among the Gold," "Darling, I Am Growing Old."

Strains of "Dixie," which followed the rather doleful medley of old favorites, brought the southerners to their feet with a yell. Many northern delegates joined them.

At 11:30 there were few candidates outside the hall. Although the hall was full, there had been few signs of enthusiasm of any sort.

MICHIGAN HAS BEST OF SEATS. Michigan's delegation had assigned section was Mrs. Roosevelt and Kermit and Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth.

City Clerk Nichols and Ald. Chas. McCarty of Detroit and Frank Knox were three of the Michigan men who entered on alternate's proxies. The Michigan Roosevelt delegates moved into one part of the state's section so as to have seats by themselves.

Strains of "Dixie," which followed the rather doleful medley of old favorites, brought the southerners to their feet with a yell. Many northern delegates joined them.

At 11:30 there were few candidates outside the hall. Although the hall was full, there had been few signs of enthusiasm of any sort.

Four paper mills have made a voluntary increase in wages to employees of 7-1/2 per cent.

The assessed valuation of Escanaba is placed at $2,188,110. This is an increase of $17,443 over the 1911 valuation.

A. S. Smalley, principal of the Ann Arbor high school for three years, has accepted the principalship of the Danville, Ill., school at a salary of $2,100 a year. He recently resigned his position.

Frank V. Bonus, a window washer in the Palmer house, Chicago, was arrested in Saginaw after a fierce resistance, charged with stealing $4,000 worth of diamonds from W. H. Ryan, a guest in the hotel.

Believing the $40,000 appropriated by the legislature for an armory is inadequate, members of the Kalamazoo M. G. G. hope to raise an additional $10,000.

Charged with passing checks aggregating $400 on business houses and banks of Menominee and Marinette, and with having deserted from the navy. Clarence Shepard of Brookline, Mass., was arrested in Green Bay.

THE PRELIMINARIES.

Each Side Holds Forces Intact as They March to the Coliseum.

Warring Taft and Roosevelt forces gathered at the Coliseum for the opening of the 15th Republican national convention, with battle lines on both sides apparently holding firm and with leaders and delegates predicting that the session would mark an epoch in the annals of American politics.

Rarely have the principals in a national political convention got under greater stress of feeling that which now prevails. The atmosphere was electric with bitterness and personal animosity.

Thousands of people who were unable to obtain seats at the convention thronged hotel lobbies and the immediate vicinity of the Coliseum with the idea that a sensation of one sort or another would develop in the big hall at any moment. Many political veterans said it was the worst crush of humanity in their convention experiences.

President Taft's managers concluded their plans for the fight on the floor of the convention on the assumption that the temporary roll as prepared by the national committee would show a Taft majority, though by a small margin. Also they assumed that the temporary roll of the committee would become the temporary roll of the convention.

Col. Roosevelt and his advisers, evidently familiar with the Taft figures, evolved an eleventh hour scheme for reducing this small Taft majority by means of an arrangement to eliminate from the poll on temporary organization those votes which were challenged by Col. Roosevelt.

This scheme, favored by the Illinois delegation, and ratified at a meeting of the Roosevelt delegates, was embodied in the following resolution, which was addressed to the body of the convention:

Resolved, That no election of temporary or other officers of this convention or resolution or other proceeding shall be taken as the act of this convention or have any effect unless it shall receive on roll call the affirmative votes of 50 delegates whose seats are uncontested, and this resolution shall govern and be in force during the temporary organization of this convention and until the permanent organization thereof shall have been effected.

Every possible effort was made by the Roosevelt managers to have the Taft leaders agree to accept and abide by this proposal. Illinois friends of Congressman Wm. B. McKinley, President Taft's campaign manager, sought to have him agree to the plan.

Gov. Deneen, Lawrence V. Sherman, State Senator Logan Hay of Springfield and Thos. Healy of Chicago were among those who threw their personal influence into the balance in attempting to have Mr. McKinley accept the arrangement.

That leaders pointed out that the plan was in direct opposition to the rule governing the national committee and to long established procedure in the temporary organization of Republican national conventions. The proposed innovation met with little encouragement at the hands of a majority of the members of the national committee.

The more moderate members of the Roosevelt organization counseled against

Manchester Enterprise

Personal Items.

Mr. & Mrs. Simon Nealey and Miss Ruth Martin of Ypsilanti are home for the summer vacation.
Mr. & Mrs. Arthur Young and little daughter Gertrude of Chelsea were guests of Mr. & Mrs. J. F. Korn and family Sunday.

Every & Son of Clark's lake bought Shoots bowling alley outfit.

Will Holt of Detroit visited Harry Carlson a few days last week.

Mrs. Louise Adrion of Ann Arbor spent a week with her parents.

Mr. & Mrs. Barnes of Toledo were guests of Mr. & Mrs. John Korn and family.

Mr. & Mrs. George Hamm went to Morenci to visit relatives over Sunday.

Mrs. Leola Paul of Bridgewater spent Sunday and Monday with Miss Viola Ahrens.

Mr. & Mrs. Clint Jaynes of Detroit came last Saturday night to visit their parents.

Mr. & Mrs. Jacob Walz of Francisco, visited Mrs. O. Vogelbacher and daughter on Sunday.

Mr. O. J. Foster and children of Everett, Wash., came yesterday to visit their friends.

Mrs. Letitia Coleman who is working in Jackson visited her parents Mr. & Mrs. George Coleman on Sunday.

Mr. & Mrs. Jerome Travis of Toledo were called here last week on account of Mrs. L. R. Hatch's illness.

Mr. & Mrs. Erwin Pister of Cincinnati, Ohio, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. & Mrs. John Grossman Sr.

Miss Bertha Youngman of Toledo came up Saturday to spend the week with her sister, Mrs. F. O. Hock.

Meridian Chapter R. A. M. will hold their regular convocation next Wednesday evening, the 26th.

Mr. Waldo Healey and children of Chicago are visiting their parents Mr. & Mrs. Michael Henze, for the summer.

Mr. Irving Tripp and children of Manchester, are spending the week with Mr. & Mrs. A. Wilson—Saline Observer.

While visiting in Detroit last week, Mrs. Harriet Boot went to Oxford to see Rev. & Mrs. Smith who live here three years ago.

Miss Bertha Jede who is attending training school at Elyria, Ohio, came home on Saturday night to spend a two week's vacation.

Reuben Kiebler who has been attending the M. A. C. the past year came home on Friday to spend the summer vacation with his mother.

Mr. Bruce Thompsons of Jackson came Saturday to spend a week with his brother, Myron Silkworth and family. Mr. Thompsons was here over Sunday.

Mr. Sophia Henze—Merker of Saline was home last Saturday morning calling on friends. She had been visiting at the home of James Bianch, who was a member of the graduating class at the normal.

Personal interview with many of the school boys and girls disclosed the fact that they do not expect to be idle during the summer vacation. Some have already secured positions and others will take odd jobs in order to earn some money for their vacation. Some have planned to go to friends or have their parents to see the country. The school boy or girl of today who expects to be idle away the vacation season is extremely rare.

Two months ago the price of print and all kinds of paper was advanced from 10 to 15 per cent. The Patriot of Tuesday, May 1, 1912, reported that a man who was selling books in Jackson, was unable to owing to the scarcity of materials to manufacture the pulp and because of the increased cost of production, after August 1 the price of all kinds of paper would advance 30 per cent." The ENTERPRISE has not increased the price of the paper or of job printing but if there is a further advance in price of stock as indicated we will have to do so. On account of increases in cost of materials we had to increase the cost of advertising, but our rates are still lower than many country papers.

A circular from the Detroit board of commerce gives us the information that a party of business men of that city are planning for a trade extension trip to the northern part of Michigan on Tuesday and Wednesday next the 25th and 26th. The purpose of the trip in automobile and the distance to be run during this time is only 15 miles an hour. At that rate they will be able to give each town but a few moments of their time as they intend to reach Jackson the first day and will visit Flat Rock, Carlton, Milan, Azalia, Dundee, Britton, Ridgeway, Tecumseh and Clinton before returning to Jackson. Then they go to Naples, Brooklyn and Toledo. According to this schedule they will probably take dinner at Tecumseh, 75 now expect to take the trip in 25 automobiles.

Leaweeus County.

Wm. Gadd sold a cow and raising calf yesterday for $165. He is one of the choice stock raisers of which we have many in this section. Clinton stock men won't be outdone—Clinton Courier.

Hagan and Son sold 122 head of yearling calves for $100 per head in Buffalo, N. Y. They were shipped yesterday to Clinton. The lot brought over $300. The drove were as pretty a lot of yearlings as ever passed through our states, and the price received proves conclusively it goes to good stock—Clinton Courier.

Waukesha County.

Chris Horning, of Freedom, on Tues. day sold 100 head of cattle to Mr. J. D. Schmid, 25 pieces of which were graded over 200 pounds. The clip was one of the finest that has been placed on the Clinton market this year—Clinton Standard.

By MAT. D. BLOSER.

Manchester Enterprise
By MAT D. BLOSSER
THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 1912.

Cheer up once more. Soon will come the frosty harvest.

The fool who rocks the boat kills his mates.

What's the proper Scotch word for the blowing up of a boat?

If every day were Sunday, think of all the money there would be in bank.

The political bosses are faring worse this year than ever the untils it is of course necessary to catch the egg.

The admirable boat and the aero-plane that will not fall are still to be achieved.

The sleeping porch is located first and last and then a house is built around it.

New York has a society burglar, which shows how easy it is to break into houses.

Washington is a city of magnificent distances. Also it is magnificently distant for many an aspiring statesman.

New York now has a special force of police to guard its papers, but even that won't prevent bungling carmen.

A woman in Philadelphia was lately convicted of being a common scold. But why single out a single poor woman?

News of an elopement of a young school girl in Atlantic City corroborates the report that marriage is still prevalent.

The meanest husband has been discovered in New York. He wanted his wife's alimony cut down because she had gone to work.

Tarring and feathering to demonstrate that all the fools and misguided people are scolds.

Stuffed humming birds are now up against potted English sparrows. Every body is invited to eat sparrows, the more the better.

Now it is a German aviator to the rescue. At the present rate there is danger of annihilating a surplus population of sparrow.

Maybe the woman will come down to the last perch when he hears that a man's wife has invented for making the home.

One of the beauties of the sleeping porch at this time of the year is that one can enjoy a shower bath without arising from one's couch.

A rich California girl has just broken off her engagement with a better born nobleman. This is infinitely better than repenting at leisure.

England planted its first settlement in this country 305 years ago, but to-day American millionaires are making settlements on the English.

An eastern housewife has discovered a way to make jam out of spinach. Perhaps she'll make a fortune out of the waste of sideshows.

A Philadelphia man has gone to Brazil to take moving pictures of the oil wells. He is a connoisseur of the oil wells.

Two brothers have been brought together, after many years of separation, by the same woman, which is the only excuse for tattooing.

With baseball and presidential cam-paigns going on, we are compelled to pay attention to the political institutions on this justly celebrated earth.

Boots is to us what "joined" is to us, what "joined" is to us, showing that the Hull's versatility is equal to its classic picturesqueness.

A machine has been perfected by which the three-dollar dinner draws out five dollars. It's a fine machine, but the inventor has been arrested.

Cornell scientists put radium, wife less, the telephone and antibiotics among the seven modern wonders of the world. But why overlook the ketchupette?

It is a wise man who uses his money to buy into the suburbs, for then he may visit them and the pleasures and delights of suburban life without any expense other than carfare.

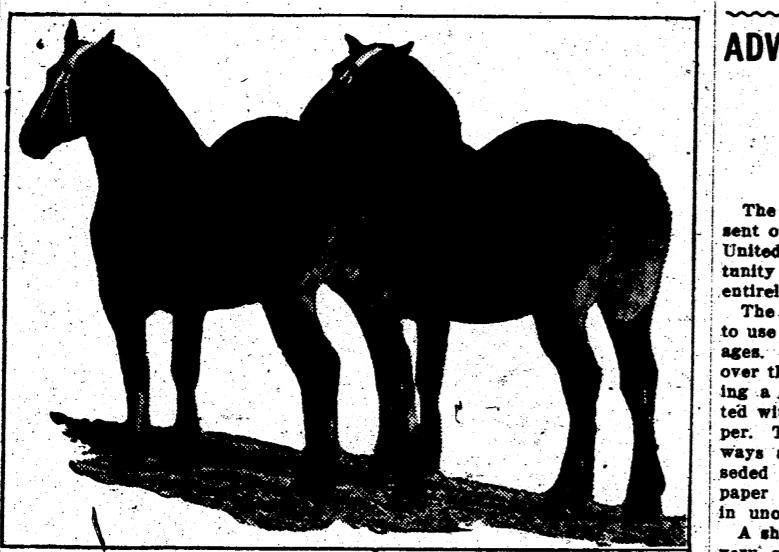

A Pittsburgh woman has a dog which swallowed lately a half-dollar and after a time, probably stimulated by the desire to get it out, she drew a diamond ring. As the dog of luxurious diet is not on the stage, it seems a great waste of busi-ness possibilities.

The French count who thinks that American husbands owe all their wives to the fact that they do not make them work has been saluted for slyly France. He is said to be clever enough to give no practical example of his words.

A lady of title in England is going to quit that country and live in the United States, because, as she frankly admits, she is a weak American man. But she is a weak woman, there need be no fears because this decision is made in leap year.

IMPORTANCE OF PROPER CARE FOR HORSE OFTEN OVERLOOKED

Most Dangerous Time to Give Animal Water is When He Has Cooled Down From Hard Work and Has Partaken of Heavy Meal—Large Open Shed Is Recommended for Shelter.

Excellent Farm Draft Horses.

Advertising Talks

ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITY IN THE PACKAGE

By E. E. Edges.

The millions of parcels that are sent out from the retail stores in the United States offer a splendid opportunity for advertising that is almost entirely overlooked.

The tendency of modern times is to use plain paper for wrapping packages. This is a great improvement over the time when a broadside advertisement printed with poor, blotchy ink on the paper. This was objectionable in many ways and has generally been superseded by the printed paper label, having a modest card printed in unobtrusive type.

A shoe not long ago adopted a very good idea. The incriptions on the card printed on the label in such a position that it would come at one side of the package. It read:

If this package is lost, kindly will please return it to
BROWN BROS., SHOEHOMEN, 163 Main St., Jackson.

This has merit of originality and is itself a source of advertising for this firm. Any merchant in any line can do this idea on his smaller packages, but it is not so feasible on larger ones.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised." The merchant who enters politics, "Leave your bibles, your principles, your scruples, your Sunday school, your wife, your children, and your home, and get to be known."

The two clamorous cries with which the ears of the church are constantly assailed, are to the merchant, "Leave your bibles, your principles, your scruples, your Sunday school, your wife, your children, and your home, and get to be known."

It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised." The merchant who enters politics, "Leave your bibles, your principles, your scruples, your Sunday school, your wife, your children, and your home, and get to be known."

The danger is not in the first swallow, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

The danger is not in the first swal-

low, as we often hear it asserted, but when the water has been forced into the lungs.

Every merchant has at hand a means of advertising to his own satisfaction. It is the old adage, "If you want to be known, get to be advertised."

