Mr. and Mrs. Will Holmes visited their uncle W. H. Holmes in Detroit.

Lloyd Kemp of St. Clair spent Sunday at Detroit and evening at the Manchester garage.

Roy Lanning has ended his post-army vacation and is at work at the Manchester garage.

Bruce C. Lewis rode here from Ann Arbor Tuesday with Supt. Essery and visited his sisters at Mrs. Tracy's.

Mrs. Margaret Eickorn is visiting her parents here during a three weeks' vacation from Grace hospital, Detroit.

Mrs. Mrs. Crockett and daughter, Mrs. Mrs. Root, were in Jackson last Friday.

George Braatz, 16, of the Manchester Auto Co., has returned to Ann Arbor where he has taken a position.

President Wilson is going to make a speaking tour of the United States in favor of the League of Nations. Don't you think Mr. Chester better put in a bid for an appearance here?

Street Commissioner Coleman began spilling oil on the street from the hotel west to the railroad station this morning. Keep out of the oil for a day and two and let it soak in.

When we see one of our smartly dressed women come tramping down the streets awfully hot, we feel sorry for those Salvation Army girls in closely buttoned uniforms and high collars.

Some think it not fair to limit the number of fish you may catch in a day. There are so many small ones that get entangled on the hook that one often is obliged to quit fishing before getting a decent mess. Of course if it were whales we were catching, 25 might do.

There was a hurried attempt to get fishing tackle into shape when the announcement was made in one of the neighboring towns that the bass boat would open on Saturday, June 14. But on further investigation it was ascertained that Monday the 16th was the date.

This is awfully hot weather for outdoor gatherings, especially in church. Most meetings are well attended as usual, neither are lodges meetings, but the free street moving card. The streets are well done just before the show begins and that helps to cool the air and it is really quite comfortable.

Mrs. Oscar Noll of Dowagiac is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Luckhardt.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Oliver Huckle drove over from Ypsilanti Sunday and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bennett C. Root.

Thomas Shurtz and Anton Vogt are now in the process of planning an outing at the Berger cottage, Wampum lake next week.

Miss Anna Gregory of Spokane, Washington, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Frances Salyer, at her farm home south of this village.

The departure from the postoffice was made by Miss Galla, who has also gone to Waukegan for her consulting words, and Mrs. Fred Tracy and singers for the beautiful songs rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurel Gettins of Washington, D. C., are expected this week to make an extended visit with Miss Salyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Spalding.

Among those from out of town who attended Mr. Koebbe's funeral on Monday were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yerlant, Mr. and Mrs. David Maron, Charles Bronson and family, George Nisley and family, George Streiter and family, Dan and Mrs. W. H. Hough, Mr. and Mrs. Koebbe of Jackson; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Springer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Springer, Mr. and Mrs. William Sheeler of Jackson; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Koebbe, Mr. and Mrs. William Nye of Cheever; Mr. and Mrs. William Nye of Dowagiac.

George Gauss and family, who have been living in the Fort Quirk home since their daughter's illness, entertained on Sunday his mother, Mrs. Anna Gauss, and her son, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Schable, the latter his sister and brother; also John, Nellie and Emanuel Gauss and their family. The Gauss children of Iron Creek and Carl Heimendorf and family of Ann Arbor, were number 10 in the list.

A beautiful picnic dinner was enjoyed and during the afternoon the guests retreated to oranges and candies and a general social interlude. In the evening the ice cream and cake were served, which was certainly the extreme heat of the day. It was the 10th anniversary of the Gauss family since their marriage. It is now 10 years since mother and children had enjoyed being together and all determined to have a picnic dinner to meet again with other members of the family before Mr. and Mrs. Gauss return to their home in Central Bute, Canada.

Was Miserable and Losing Weight
Suffering from Kidney Complaint.
Doen's Removed the Trouble.

"I was about down and out from kidney trouble," says Harry Griffith, of 225, Dartmouth Street, Manchester. "The secretions turned like sending water. I was so weak that I suffered. My feet became swollen and I was having trouble with my shoes. Nights I did nothing but toss and turn. The secretions turned like a thousand were thrust into my back. I was in terrible pain and I would fall to my knees and cry out to myself to stop myself from crying up. Blinding dizzy spells came on and terrible headaches. I lost weight and knew something would have to be done. I was more than surprised. The troubles were soon leaving me and I am now in full health. I am cured entirely. To this day I have been free from kidney complaint."

HURLER JEAN DUBUC, FRENCH-CANADIAN, RESCUED FROM SALT LAKE BY J. MCGRAW

SOMETHING MUST GIVE

Moan Dubuc, former college baseball star and now outfielder for Mobile, has two touch-downs to his credit since entering the Southern league, writes Barney Shuler, of Mobile. Once he gained at the expense of Frank Kirchens, New Orleans catcher, and the other over Bill Webb, Birmingham third baseman. The pitcher, however, had little of the hook shot. He does know, however, that he's up to the next best when he sees said pitcher and hits him with his two hundred and odd pounds something must give.

Is Hitting Ball Hard and Showing Unusual Amount of Pep.

Playing Shorter Center Field Than Year Ago, Racing Back for Occasional Ones That Go Deep—Strong for Aviation.

This Speaker will be a star this year than he was a year ago. That is indicated by the following date. He is hitting the ball harder than a year ago and, if such a thing is possible, is displaying more pep. But that is not all. He is playing a shorter center field than he did last year. The "more excellent way" of the last verse of chapter 12 is the way of the God that abounds upon our hearts. Not all can teach, preach, work miracles, but all can be used in the service of God in the way of the church.
