NO. 1

WASHTENAW COUNTY

The Chautauqua held at Ypsilanti last week went $200 "in the hole," but they signed up for next year.

The 2,193 World war veterans received from the state during the past fiscal year $385,620, according to Auditor-General Fuller.

State Fuel Administrator William Potter of Lansing seems to have taken no account of the needs of industries in this county in allotting a coal supply throughout the state.

State Senator Charles Sink of Ann Arbor announces that he will not be a candidate for the office another term, although he had been urged to continue in order that he might complete important work in which he was engaged during the last session.

JACKSON COUNTY

This county had 2,860 World war Veterans and they received during the past fiscal year $439,435.

The Brooklyn business men's annual picnic will be held at Eagle Point, Clark lake, next Thursday, Aug. 17th, and they are counting on having lots of sport. Although not held in the village, it is always more or less of a homecoming to many of the former residents.

BLIGHT THREATENS POTATOES

Prompt measures in spraying must be taken if the Michigan potato crop, which gives promise of totaling 30,000,000 bushels, is not to fall victim to the late potato blight, according to G. H. Coons, plant pathologist at M. A. C. Rainy weather the first half of the season is responsible for the danger, he says. Farmers may prevent appearance of the blight by thorough spraying with Bordeaux mixture, 100 gallons to the acre, with applications every 10 days, beginning when the plants are from 6 to 10 inches high.

GASOLINE TAX FOR GOOD ROADS

Why Not Put Cost of the Highways Principally on Those Who Use Them Most?

The proposition to put a tax on gasoline meets with disapproval from Detroit and other automobile clubs and from many automobile drivers. Representative Chas. Evans of Tipton, who is a member of the special tax commission of inquiry, in a letter to the Telegram says in part: "Our state has today approximately 30 millions of outstanding highway bonds. Provision must be made for the payment of interest on these bonds, and a sinking fund provided for their retirement at maturity. This will necessitate a tax levy of two and a half millions annually during the life of these bonds unless we devise some method of raising this revenue other than by direct taxation."

A careful and conservative estimate of the amount of revenue that would be derived from a tax of one cent a gallon on gasoline without exemptions would all be taken from the users of the roads and to that extent would relieve real property owners of the state.

The only reason that many people that have given this question careful and serious consideration and have brought it to the attention of the commission in advocating a two-cent tax was not only to provide sufficient revenue to take care of these bonds, but to provide a maintenance fund as to lighten the ruinous burden that is now resting on the property owner.

Michigan, by reason of her natural advantages, bids fair to become the greatest tourist state in the union. Today thousands of foreign cars are passing over its highways and the number is constantly increasing. Through the adoption of a gasoline tax these people would contribute thousands of dollars annually.

The real property of this state, representing approximately 35 per cent of the state's wealth, is today paying 79 per cent of its taxes. This is not only unfair and unjust, but ruinous. With the strictest economy, with expenses of state and local governments cut to the limit would not reduce this unjust ratio?

The special tax commission of inquiry was created for the purpose of finding a rightful solution of this difficult problem. This, after some months of careful study we are earnestly and conscientiously endeavoring to do. No member of the commission, while he may have views of his own, has any desire to incorporate those views into any recommendation to the next legislature unless they coincide and are in harmony with the views of the majority of the tax-paying public.

To test the weight of responsibility that is resting on me as a member of this commission, and the wonderful opportunity for real service in recommending a system of taxation whereby all property, both tangible and intangible, will bear its just share of the burden, a system that can be defended and believe enacted into law because it will be based on justice."

The Shusneid ball team failed to connect today afternoon and no game was played here. Charles Sloot, a former resident of Manchester, is now manager of their team and claimed that they had a prior date with another team but had failed to inform him of it.

MORE THAN A RAIN SHEDDER

African Chiefs Take the Possession of an Umbrella Very Seriously, According to Reports.

Some time ago, there was what the news described as unrest in the West African colony of Lagos; telegrams were dispatched between that country and Great Britain, governors and deputy-governors were interviewed, and it was with difficulty that a native war was averted. The cause of all this commotion was an umbrella!

Now, in our country, as we all know, an umbrella is looked upon as a harmless possession—not but so in West Africa. There, among most of the native tribes, the umbrella is regarded as an emblem of royalty, and its possession is strictly confined to the chief or king of the tribe.

Therefore the indignation was intense on the part of one of these chiefs, when he found an inferior chief putting up an umbrella of his own. The king at once took a journey to Lagos, to lodge a formal complaint of the chief's treasonable conduct with the British governor.

An African king's umbrella is a very elaborate affair, and it often costs large sums of money. Most of the umbrellas for Ashanti and the Gold coast are made of gigantic size, some of them when open measuring ten feet across.

The coverings of these umbrellas are of colored silk—the brighter the better, with very deep fringes. The largest umbrellas are carried over the heads of chiefs, by bearers while other bearers steady the umbrella by cords attached to the uppermost parts.

One state umbrella had for its apex a silver eagle standing on two silver cannons, while another umbrella had a gold hen on the top, the hen being surrounded by numerous chickens, to represent the chief and his tribe.

CHANGES IN "OLD FAITHFUL"

Yellowstone's Famous Geyser Has Slightly Lengthened the Periods Between its Eruptions.

Old Faithful, Yellowstone's most famous geyser, has slightly changed the period of its eruptions. According to the observations of the park naturalists and the rangers, the geyser now spouts on an average every 64.6 minutes. Last year the average period was 60 minutes.

The alteration in Old Faithful's "tempo" does not indicate any lessening of its vigor or "faithfulness." Scientists' observations show the mighty fountain to be increasing in volume. The change is believed to be due to an alteration in the subterranean tube of the geyser.

For the last year or so Old Faithful has acquired a habit of occasionally throwing out small rocks. The passage of the rocks through the tube is believed to have enlarged its dimensions slightly, this in turn being responsible for the lengthened period between eruptions and the increased volume of water.

A number of other interesting changes, leading to a constantly varying interest in the mysterious manifestations of the park's performing natural wonders, also are reported by official observers.

That Word, "Corker."

The American word "corker," meaning a person or thing of superlative quality, is only a slang use of a legitimate English word. Corker, in its original sense, meant a conclusive argument. It probably originated from the haughty which a cork thrust into the mouth of a bottle stops all egress, or ingress of material back.

The relegation of the word as used in America to the limbo of slang by the dictionary writers has neither weakened the word nor limited its use. The word "corker" is a perfectly good word. It expresses precisely a shade of meaning that needed to be expressed, and the chances are that it will be a word of good and regular standing long after the bones of the last living dictionary writers have thoroughly bleached. Newspaper Accuracy.
B. A. White of the Detroit News, after long investigation, finds that daily papers make only one error in every 3,250 opportunities for mistakes. This country recently celebrated the anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth Rock and history has pointed out the very spot where they landed. Now a scientist discovers that at the time the Pilgrims landed this spot was under sea.

Which leads Mr. White to ask, "If history cannot report a fact correctly in 500 years, ought we expect a newspaper to be unfailingly accurate in six or eight hours?"

Diphtheria Germs in Wild Horses.
Wild horses running on the open range and never in contact with human beings have been found to be infected with the diphtheria germ, according to Dr. H. W. Schoening of the pathological division of the bureau of plant industry, at Washington. This fact, he claims, indicates that the diphtheria organism is widespread in the soil and is not carried to the horse by some human being, as has been held.

As She Appeared to Him.
Miss Sarah Bellam—No one of this generation appreciates me. I was born too soon.

Max Muller—Quite so. I believe you'd be a pretty young girl right now if you had only been born about 20 years later than you were.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Florence Kirk is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Klump at Chelsea.

Mrs. R. R. McKay and family of Cleveland, Ohio, were guests of last mother, Mrs. C. Stegmiller, last week.

Chris Holley went to Detroit to attend the funeral of his brother John's wife, which was held Monday morning.

Mrs. F. H. Lock and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lock, of Lansing have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Marx this week.

Wm. M. Laird of Ann Arbor, assistant prosecuting attorney, was in town Tuesday calling on Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Buss of this village and John Haussler and Ben. J. Breitenwischer of Freedom, near Chicago.

Sunday and on Monday the latter two bought a carload of cattle to fatten.

There was a pretty good attendance at the Star Chapter last Friday evening and at the close they had a short but interesting program. At the next monthly meeting there will be something doing.

Mrs. Frank Lowery and little son Frank, Jr., rode to Jackson Tuesday with her husband and then went to Lansing where her two daughters are, to visit her sister, Mrs. B. F. Burtless, and husband a few days.

Ed. Kuhl and others have been selected to serve as special police on Homecoming Day and see that parking regulations are observed to prevent accidents. They will also keep the streets free from fairs, etc. The success of the celebration depends much upon the good order maintained.

A building of Italian Renaissance design, two stories and basement, covering a plot 100x80 feet on South University avenue, in Ann Arbor, is under construction. It will contain books and document files of early newspapers, etc., being a $600,000 gift to the university by Regent Wm. L. Clemens.

When Wesley Silkworth drove his loaded oil truck into the barn Friday evening the wheels broke down through the floor and a crowd of men spent some time trying to extricate it without avail. Finally Frank Lowery came and with much experience in such matters, came and he had the truck out in a few minutes.

Mrs. But Anglemeyer accompanied her mother, Mrs. Anna O'Reilly, to Ypsilanti, Thursday last, to attend the graduating exercises at the State Normal College, where her daughter, Miss Orta O'Reilly, now Sister Alma of St. Joseph's Academy, Adrian, was among the fortunate ones to receive a life certificate. Mrs. O'Reilly then accompanied her daughter to Adrian to spend the balance of the week.

SERENADERS NICELY TRICKED

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Folk Have Laugh On Chautauqui Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Folk returned from Detroit Tuesday afternoon and went to the Hough house on City Road, where they have started housekeeping. That evening a party of young men armed with all sorts of music and noise-making instruments visited them, bent on serenading. The newly-weds were not prepared for the bunch and before the house was surrounded slipped out the back door and away, leaving their car in the yard and lights in the house burning. The serenaders started all right and was kept up for some time, the visitors not believing their victims were not present. The newly-weds procured another car up town and drove past their home several times before they were recognized. When Carl thought the joke had gone far enough he and his bride gave up, he passed the cigars and all had a good laugh amid expressions of congratulations and best wishes.

Figures for Home Builders.
Unless very much interested in figures, the home builder does not know how each dollar is spent that he puts into the construction of his home. He knows in a general way that there are several general groups, but as he looks at the finished dwelling he does not know what per cent of the cost went for masonry or carpentry or something else. Using the dollar for illustrating the relative costs, it is estimated that 36.1 cents go for masonry, 29.1 cents for carpentry, 8.7 cents for heating, 6.5 cents for electrical work, 6 cents for plumbing, 3.5 cents for sheet metal work, 2.9 cents for roofing and 1.2 cents for hardware.

Soap Bubbles Aid Scientists.
Every one who buys gasoline for his automobile has a direct concern in the efficiency of engines, the study of which is being assisted by soap bubbles according to Popular Mechanics Magazine. These are now being used at the bureau of standards in determining the rate of propagation of flame in combustible mixtures of gases. Strangely enough for years there has been sought a means whereby explosions could be studied under constant pressure free from complicating circumstances, but it was just recently pointed out at this institution that soap bubbles afford in ideal fashion just what is wanted.

SLANG OF "GOOD OLD DAYS"

Great-Grandfather Enlightens Flapper as to the Meaning of Some Terms of Long Ago.

"He's a poor nut!" jeered the flapper. "In '59 we should have called him a 'ninny-hammer,'" put in her great-grandfather, unexpectedly.

The flapper looked interested. "What was '59 for hip-pocket?" asked she.

"Blings," answered the old man promptly. "And home brew we should have called 'blue-rin';" a gentleman occasionally was 'disguised.' "Go on," cried the flapper, delighted. "You, my dear," he bowed to her—"would have been 'smart as a carrot' in my day. Some of your contemporaries I've seen 'slamming' about in their 'clumpers,' more like men than women, but you are always—'jimmy.'"

"Next you'll be telling me you shinned in '59?"

"No, we 'hopped.' Do you know what we meant by a 'thumper'?"

"A good one," guessed the flapper. "How did you get excited?"

"We were in a 'pucker,' or we went on a 'burst,' or there was a 'plather,' then he ended. "But there's one word that your generation can't parallel. What did we mean by 'mannequin'?"

"You have my 'grandfather,'" admitted the flapper.

The old man opened a little worn book on the table beside him and read: "Manners—A portion of a dish left by the guests, that the host may not feel himself reproached." Those were good old days—what?" said he.

HIGH FOOD VALUE OF DATES

Ideal Diet Never Properly Appreciated by the American Public, Is Physician's Assertion.

"The value of the date as a food is not half appreciated by the American public," writes Dr. John Harvey Kellogg. "The date not only furnishes a variety of sugar which is readily assimilated and which is much more wholesome than cane sugar, but it supplies a fine quality of food iron. An ounce of dates, in fact, supplies one-third more food iron than an ordinary breakfast and iron of much finer quality."

"The date is really superior as a source of food line and other food salts, supplying seven times as much iron as does beef tendorin. The date requires nothing but the simple addition of milk to constitute a complete diet. A pound of dates and a quart of milk afford nourishment not only sufficient in quantity to supply the needs of the average person, but of the highest quality."

"The American people are suffering from time starvation, which is resulting not only in a loss of stature, due to lack of bone development, but an almost universal decay of teeth. The free use of dates with milk as a part of the American breakfast would conduce greatly to improvement of the national health and the lowering of the mortality rate."

The Mosquito Plant.
The virtues of the species of basil (Ocimum viride) known as the mosquito plant are attracting attention in England. An army officer has given a growing plant to the botanical gardens at Kew. He obtained it in Nigeria, where, he says, it is known to drive mosquitoes from its neighborhood, and the natives use an infusion of its leaves as a cure for malarial fevers. Its virtues are known in India also, as a border of it was planted round the Victoria garden in Bombay because the workmen were pestered by mosquitoes and suffered from malaria. As soon as the hedge was completed, the mosquitoes left and there was no more malaria among the workmen.—Exchange.

HOW ABOUT THE GOOD ROAD DEAL

Large Assembly Met State Highway Commissioner at Clinton Friday Evening for Discussion.

About 200 people met at the town hall, Clinton, last Friday evening to hear what State Highway Commissioner Rogers of Lansing had to say about the prospects of work being done on the Chicago turnpike in Lenawee and Washtenaw counties, particularly through Clinton.

Mr. Rogers said that no construction work would be undertaken this year because the department is full up on projects already started and because of a recommendation from the Lenawee board that no more road building be attempted there in 1922. Work on the section in Washtenaw county between Clinton and Salina will be started next year if Washtenaw pays the $175,000 it is claimed she owes the state. If she fails to pay there will be no work there, but work will begin in Lenawee county next year, he said, regardless of what Washtenaw does.

The appropriation for upkeep of roads will have been exhausted at the end of this year. The commission finds that traffic through the state is so great that it is hard to maintain roads in proper condition. The million and a quarter dollars allotted for that purpose this year was not enough, it will take $2,000,000 annually, he said. The Indiana highway department is paying out $3,000,000 annually for considerably less mileage.

Mr. Rogers explained that there would be no difference in the cost to the community whether the turnpike was built with federal aid, or under the state provisions by bonding, as the community would pay but 25 per cent of the total in either case.

The commission lately visited Springfield, Ill., where 73 different forms of payment were constructed as tests, to ascertain which is the best to withstand the immense traffic of trucks, autos, etc. Many sections had gone to pieces and asphalt had not proven satisfactory, but stone and cement types such as have been built in Michigan are still holding up, he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Neebing of Detroit were visitors of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Neebing Sunday.

LENAWEE COUNTY

During the past year $221,970 was paid to the 1,110 World war veterans in this county.

The funeral of Lavern Patterson, the boy drowned at Clinton last Thursday afternoon while in swimming, was held at the home Sunday afternoon. Rev. J. W. Gregory of Tecumseh officiating, and the burial was at Tecumseh.

Work on Trunk Line No. 50 through Tecumseh was stopped Saturday for want of cement and it may be some time before any will be available. The road is torn up for a considerable distance and the delay will be a great inconvenience.

Frank Bradley of Tecumseh died at the hotel there of heart failure just after finishing his dinner Sunday. Mr. Bradley was born and raised on "Wait street" in Franklin, 73 years ago and was well known throughout the country. He had lived at Ypsilanti and Tecumseh many years. The Masons had charge of the burial services, Wednesday.

The second annual reunion of the Yentz family was held at the Bliss playground, Blissfield, Sunday, with an attendance of 98. A potluck dinner was served. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Carl Wuerthner of Manchester, president; Arnold Yentz of Clayton, vice-president; May Roy Nicholson of Adrian, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. A. C. Stadler of Adrian, historian. Members were present from Detroit, Toledo, Manchester, Clayton, Blissfield, Adrian and Riga. John Yentz, Jr., and family of Los Angeles, Cal., were honored guests. It was voted to hold the reunion at Sand Lake next year, the first Sunday in August.

About 175 postal employees of this county at a picnic at Wolf Lake park, fostered the Lenawee County Welfare Organization, to secure more efficient postal service and encourage closer cooperation between the public and postal employees. Congressman Earl C. Michener addressed the gathering. Delegates to the council, which is composed of one postmaster from a second class office, one from a third class, two from a fourth class and three rural carriers, were then elected as follows: H. W. McClure of Tecumseh, Ray G. Turner of Onsted, E. S. Johnson and Stanley Clark of Sand Creek, C. A. VanDeusen and A. Gardner of Jasper, and H. G. Daniels of Tipton. Mr. McClure was elected president of the council, Mr. Van Deusen vice-president and Mr. Turner secretary.

Some of our residents will undoubtedly attend the annual reunion and picnic of the Dorrs families at Vandercook lake, Friday the 18th.

Unless the spare tire on your car is protected, you will not get the fullest length of service from the tire. Because the life of the rubber will expire before you start to use it.

SUNNY BLAC USES RUBBER
Exposed to heat, air, water and sunlight—and all kinds of weather—rubber oxidizes, dries out, hardens and loses much of its life. You should use some kind of tire cover to save this expense.
SUNNY BLAC is the most practical and at same time lowest cost tire cover you can buy.

SAVES THE RUBBER—BEAUTIFIES YOUR CAR
—TRIAL CAN 30c—
Unless the spare tire on your car is protected, you will not get the fullest length of service from the tire. Because the life of the rubber will expire before you start to use it.

SUNNY BLAC USES RUBBER
Exposed to heat, air, water and sunlight—and all kinds of weather—rubber oxidizes, dries out, hardens and loses much of its life. You should use some kind of tire cover to save this expense.
30c worth of SUNNY BLAC will do the same work—only better—than a fabric or oilcloth tire cover.
SUNNY BLAC will water-proof anything you apply it to and beautify any surface it is used upon.

OWNERS of delivery cars, small trucks and taxicabs have found that the same strong construction which enables Red-Tops to roll up surprising mileage records for small cars on rough roads will show astounding economy on cars used commercially, where incessant use under heavy loads soon breaks down other tires.

Nowhere else can you find the sturdy combination of the extra ply of fabric and the specially compounded heavy red tread which has built the Red-Top reputation.

There's a Fisk Tire of extra value in every size, for car, truck or speed wagon.

WAMPLER LAKE

Eugene Fisher is advertising an auction sale of lots and cottages at the southwest shore of the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Herrick had a houseful over Sunday, their sons Gardner and Douglas entertaining a number of Toledo friends.

As the season begins to wane, the attendance at the lake seems to increase. Last Sunday saw probably a larger crowd at the various points on the lake than any other Sunday during the summer.

The home fires were all kept burning Tuesday evening, as the weather was so chilly it reminded one of the approaching fall. Indoor sports were particularly popular and it proved a fine night for dancing.

Last week seemed the top notch picnic week of the season. Several aggregations drove in without any advance notice and came near not having tables for the "big eat," as others who had announced they were coming were already on the ground.

The "Jolly 10" from Manchester, here last week, showed they were all that the name implied and had a grand time. Several of the girls found among other amusements, special delight in sailing and adding to their vocabulary such nautical terms as "hard a lee," "as you go," "duck," etc.

It seems as though there have been more big picnic parties at the Farm hotel grove this season than before. Mr. Nisle contemplates making some improvements there, in fact has already begun. The low ground between the grove and the new road will be filled in, we understand, thus providing additional table room under the forest trees, also a parking room. It would now seem a detriment to open the road at the west end of the grove, as has been suggested.

Employees of the State Conservation department have been here in the past few days doing some work on the state park property. Surveyors laid out a road north from the Chicago-Detroit pike over the Ayers farm to the park property and other men were figuring on a site for bath houses and a comfort station. The intention at one time we understand was to make entrance to the park from the north and south roads on the east side, but it now looks as though an entrance directly from the much-traveled pike has been decided on. It is doubtful if any visible work is to be done now, but it looks as though they are getting matters well planned for operations in the spring. The more one contemplates the possibilities of a beautiful park on the site, the more anxious he is to see work begin and the public given enjoyment of the project as soon as possible.

"Friendly Enemies," Notable Comedy, at Chautauqua

"Friendly Enemies," an uproarious comedy drama presented by six competent New York actors, will be one of the big features of the coming Redpath Chautauqua. How the conflicting convictions of two lifelong friends make them "Friendly Enemies" and how their difficulties eventually untangle, supply the plot with an abundance of irresistible comedy and moments of gripping pathos.

Erskine Dale-Pioneer

By JOHN FOX, JR.

This great romance of American life, full of patriotic fervor, fittingly closes the literary record of John Fox and is the capstone of his monument.

The backwoods hero, son of a Virginia aristocrat, stolen in childhood and raised by the Indians, is a romantic figure, a participant in the border warfare and finally in the great Revolution itself.

The love story is of great charm, and the delightful heroine is the inspiration of Erskine Dale's adventurous career. An inspiring narrative for all ages, particularly for boys. On account of its pure Americanism and widely appealing qualities, we have selected it for serial reproduction. Read it in

Increase the Yield Of All Your Crops

For the production of good grain, especially, as well as of clover, alfalfa, timothy, etc., the soil must be "sweet." To bring back fertility to a soil that is sour and, therefore, non-productive, you must destroy the acidity by applying LIME, the natural soil-sweetener.

USE "TIGER" AGRICULTURAL LIME

Just as there are various grades of farm implements, so there are different grades of hydrated lime. While all brands may be similar in appearance, still there is a big difference in the results obtained. It is always safe to buy lime products that are making good right along on thousands of farms. We have a carload on hand—time to order is NOW.
