BRIDGEWATER

There was a little frost on low ground Monday morning.

Whitney Palmer is the Democratic candidate for county clerk and is receiving congratulations of friends.

W. H. Every employed Frank L. Lowery of Manchester to take his prize hog to the Hillsdale fair on Monday.

Mrs. H. U. Kies and her sister, Mrs. E. E. Stark, on arriving at Long Beach, Cal., were surprised to find that their father, Charles Fellows, had failed noticeably since they last saw him. His general health is not so bad, but his age is telling on his mental faculties.

Work on the new Manchester road is progressing though some what slowly this week on account of dry weather. Much of the road is ready for the second coat of gravel but as packing is so slow during the present dry spell the contractors are holding off in hopes that rain will soon come. Graders are at work on the west end and at other points. Should favorable weather for putting on the finishing gravel be long delayed the contractors will be hustled to finish the job by November, which has been planned.

Walter Luckhardt secured the following prizes at the Lenawee fair last week: Bull 2-year-old 1st; bull 2-year-old 1st; junior yearling bull 2nd; senior bull 1st; junior bull 2nd; 1st and 3rd, cow 3-year-old and 1st; 1st, 2nd, heifer 2-year-old 1st; and 3rd; senior yearling heifer 1st and 2nd; senior heifer 2nd; junior heifer calf 1st and 3rd; reserve ribbons for senior champion bull, senior champion female, junior champion female, grand champion bull, grand champion female; breeding herd 1st, breeder's young herd 2nd; calf herd 1st, four get of sire 1st; two pictures of cow 1st. He shipped his stock to the Hillsdale fair and next week will go to Angola, Indiana.

NOT WHAT MOTHER EXPECTED

Teacher's Message Sent by Little Clarence by No Means the Kind She Looked For.

Clarence recently made his debut as a Sunday school scholar. When he came home his father and mother waited to hear of his experiences, but Clarence evidently was too much dazed by them to begin.

"Well, dear," said his mother helpfully, "did you say the text?"

"Yes, mother."

"And did you remember the story of the lesson?"

"Yes, mother, I said it all off by heart."

"And did you put your penny in the basket?"

"Yes, mother."

Clarence's mother caught him up and hugged him ecstatically.

"Oh, you little precious!" she exclaimed. "Your teacher must have been so proud! I know she just loved you. She said something to you, didn't she?"

"Yes, mother."

"I knew it!" with a proud glance at Clarence's father over Clarence's head. "Come, darling, tell mother what the teacher said, to mother's little man."

"She said for me to bring two cents next Sunday."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Copper a Water Purifier.

The use of copper sulphate for the disinfection of reservoirs and the destruction of algae and noxious germs in water has led to much discussion of the old idea that copper is dangerous to health, comments the Washington Star. An official of the Department of Agriculture maintains that a change has come over scientific opinion on this subject. Strange as it may seem, he says, there is not an authentic case of copper poisoning on record, either in this country or abroad, and he adds that toxicologists and physiologists who have sufficiently studied the subject agree that copper, in the amount used for purification of water, is harmless. On account of the many defects in the practical use of filtration plants he regards purification of water supplies by copper as a preferable method, or at least, as a safe auxiliary.

COMPONED FOR WASHINGTON.

"Hail Columbia" has the honor of having been composed for President Washington. The father of his country was fond of the play and sometimes attended a little rickety theater, one of the best available, which had the "enormous" capacity of 300 persons. A piece called "The President's March" was composed by the leader of the orchestra for one of those occasions and it was played on the entrance of the President and his friends. It was afterward slightly altered and given the name of "Hail Columbia." On that same night, there were lines in the play that referred to America's chief which made the subject of them somewhat restless, for he was modest and not fond of compliments.

GETTING HIS MONEY'S WORTH.

"How long has this movie been running?" asked Mr. Gumpson.

"About half an hour," said the usher.

"Has the villain choked the handsome hero yet?"

"The fight occurs in the next reel. They meet again, you know, and the hero wins."

"The first fight is the only one I care to see."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

ELECTION DISCOURSED.

"Can you repeat the Declaration of Independence?"

"No," replied Senator Sorghum. "I have always meant to memorize it, but my constituents are pretty exacting and they seem to want me to stick to a desk and work instead of giving recitations."
